Chapter 251 Meeting Again

Tables and chairs were arranged neatly inside Li Group's large, spacious meeting room. The floor was covered in an expensive red carpet. It was a luxurious meeting room.

At the head of the table, Bai Chen was sitting calmly. There was a coffee mug in front of him. He had already drunk half of it.

It had been 20 minutes after they had left the office of the vice president Hua Hai.

Bai Chen had been sipping his coffee for the past 20 minutes, waiting for the police to arrive.

When they did, Li Cong Tian would hand over the accounting ledger showing embezzlement of funds, the important evidence implicating Hua Hai, to the police. The rest of it would be the police's job. Feng Chao would eventually be relieved of the charge.

"Mr. Bai San, would you like more coffee?" Li Cong Tian, who was sitting beside Bai Chen, asked politely.

Li Cong Tian was in a better mood now.

At this point, one could say that Li Cong Tian was an admirable person. Even though he had to deal with the betrayal of his close subordinate who had been working with him since the firm's establishment, he was still able to be calm about it.

"No, thank you," Bai Chen replied softly. He still wondered why Li Cong Tian was so polite to him.

However, he did not think too much about it because he was only here for the mission.

"President, sir, the police are here."

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door. It was Li Cong Tian's bodyguard.

He'd ordered his two bodyguards to guard the door and to immediately report to him if the police arrived.

"Let them in," Li Cong Tian called back in reply at a moderate volume.

The door was opened. A fine, enchanting figure in a police uniform walked into the room. Her neck-length long hair was blown back a little, revealing her smooth skin under it.

She was none other than Xu Xin Tong, a police lieutenant general of Xing Zhou city police station.

Behind her was lieutenant Jong and two police officers.

"Huh?" Bai Chen's eyes widened a little when he saw Xu Xin Tong and the other three officers. He did not expect that Xu Xin Tong would be on the case too.

"Huh?" Not only Bai Chen, but Xu Xin Tong's eyes also did the same when she saw Bai Chen.

“You!” She stopped short. Her face clearly showed surprise. She had not expected to see Bai Chen here...The man who’d saved her from Hei Chang, the great assassin.

Since that day, Xu Xin Tong had been wanting to repay Bai Chen, who’d saved her life.

It was a shame that she had not been able to do it because she did not know his address. It was true that he had given her his phone number, but he’d never contacted her.

Thus, it could not be helped that she had not been able to repay him.

Other than that, when Xu Xin Tong had met him again, he had been in his 18-year-old form, and she’d thought that he was his nephew. The nephew had also saved her life. She had been saved twice by both of them.

Of course, it was only her misunderstanding. How could Bai Chen be his own uncle and nephew? It was all thanks to the thousand-face skill.

Actually, she also wanted to thank the 18-year-old Bai Chen as well because he’d saved her from the assassin from the Hell Shadow International Assassin Association.

However, she had not been able to do that either because of the same reason: she did not know Bai Chen’s whereabouts.

It was obvious that even though Bai Chen had refused to let her treat him to a meal, Xu Xin Tong still wanted to repay him. She’d even asked about his whereabouts and phone number from her sister, Xu Xie Ning.

It was a shame that Xu Xie Ning had not told her anything. In the end, Xu Xin Tong could only keep the issue of repaying the two Bai Chens all to herself.

Lieutenant Jong and the other two police officers also stopped walking when they saw Xu Xin Tong had. They wondered why she’d halted like that.

While they were wondering, Xu Xin Tong rushed towards Bai Chen.

“I never thought I’d see you here.” Xu Xin Tong spoke with a cold and stiff voice. She sounded distant.

Bai Chen was not surprised that she talked to him like that because she had spoken like this since the last time.

“Me neither.” Bai Chen said with his normal voice.

Li Cong Tian was fine with this because he thought that a man as glorious as Bai Chen would know the second youngest daughter of the Xu family, one of the five big families of Beijing.

Xu Xin Tong flashed Bai Chen a meaningful look. Last time, she felt that there was something difficult to explain to him deep inside her.

Months later, all those feelings had vanished. However, seeing him again now seemed to bring them back.

“If you don’t mind, please let me treat you to a meal to repay you for that day,” Xu Xin Tong said.

Bai Chen went quiet for a while. He did not expect Xu Xin Tong to remember it. He thought for a little and eventually nodded. It should not be a problem to dine with her once. “Okay.”

“Thank you.” Xu Xin Tong felt happy that Bai Chen had accepted so that she could finally repay him for what he had done for her.

Then, she suddenly recalled that she had to repay his nephew as well. Xu Xin Tong prepared to speak.

However, before she spoke, Bai Chen interrupted. “Leave this for later. You still have an important thing to do.”

Bai Chen looked at Li Cong Tian who was sitting beside him.

Xu Xin Tong seemed to finally recall that she had been sent here by superintendent Yang to investigate the embezzlement case at the Li Group.

She turned to Li Cong Tian without hesitation. “Mr. Li, I’ve heard of this from superintendent Yang. Where is the evidence?”

“Here.” Li Cong Tian handed over Vice President Hua Hai’s accounting ledger to Xu Xin Tong as soon as she asked for it.

Xu Xin Tong flipped through the accounting ledger. Her face went cold. One of the types of people that she hated the most was those who pinned a crime on innocent people.

“Lieutenant Jong, go bring Hua Hai here.” Xu Xin Tong closed the accounting ledger and gave her order to lieutenant Jong who was standing behind her with the two other police officers.

“Yes, ma’am!” Lieutenant Jong accepted the order without hesitation and rushed out of the room along with the other two officers.

Chapter 252 Struggle

Lieutenant Jong had been a police officer for a long time. Within only 10 minutes, he had successfully brought Vice President Hua Hai in.

The vice president of the Li Group, Hua Hai, was a middle-aged man with small, narrow eyes. His face and body were plump. He was wearing a dark green suit.

It was quite funny because he was so fat that the suit was tight on him.

Hua Hai’s facial expression clearly showed anger. It was because he had been dragged down here while he was talking business with an important guest of his.

He complained, yet he gave in. He did not want to anger the police.

However, the moment he stepped into the meeting room, he stopped short when he saw Li Cong Tian.

‘What’s this about? Why is Li Cong Tian here?’

Hua Hai’s heart squeezed a little. He could not help but feel uneasy.

‘Is it because they already know about what I did?!?’

‘Impossible! My plan was flawless and Feng Chao has already been made the scapegoat in this case.’

Hua Hai thought this to himself repeatedly.

He felt more at ease when he was certain that it was not about the embezzlement.

“Inspector, I’ve brought you the suspect, Hua Hai.” Lieutenant Jong saluted and reported to Xu Xin Tong.

It had been easy for him to search for Hua Hai. Even though he did not know what Hua Hai looked like, he’d simply asked the man who was in charge of the company’s employee data.

The other two police officers also saluted, yet they did not say anything. It was what they had to do in front of their superior anyway.

“Suspect?” Hua Hai’s facial expression changed a little. “What suspect?”

He was standing in front of the meeting table, giving Xu Xin Tong, Li Cong Tian, and Bai Chen a confused look.

BANG!

Li Cong Tian slapped his palm onto the table hard. He was so angry, his face was twisted.

“How dare you act like you don’t know anything?” Li Cong Tian’s cold voice echoed loudly throughout the room. “Look at this then!”

Li Cong Tian threw the accounting ledger forward.

Thud!

The accounting ledger fell in front of Hua Hai.

Hua Hai looked at it. Once he saw it, his body trembled. His eyes widened so that they almost popped out of their sockets. His face showed utter disbelief. “I...Impossible!

It was obvious that Hua Hai was familiar with the accounting ledger, even though he had just gotten a glimpse at it.

Why would he not be? He was the one who’d created it!

“Anything else you have to say?” Li Cong Tian shouted coldly. He did not want to believe that Hua Hai would dare betray him. He embezzled as much as 500 million yuan.

Not only that, but he’d also accused his co-worker, Feng Chao.

It was impossible for Li Cong Tian to not be angry!

“P...President, this is not mine. I am being framed! There must be someone who is framing me!”

Hua Hai shouted this out. His face had turned pale. His body trembled without stopping. He looked at Li Cong Tian and shook his head back and forth like an oscillating fan.

“Being framed? You haven’t even looked at it to see what it is, and now you say you’re being framed? Framed for what?” Li Cong Tian spoke coldly through his teeth.

Seeing how Hua Hai had reacted after he saw the accounting ledger was enough to show that he was the owner!

“A...Ahh!” Hua Hai was speechless. He regretted that he had been so anxious, he had given himself away.

‘Damn it! I should have acted like I didn’t know what it was!’ Hua Hai thought while trying to find a way out. ‘There must be a way out! I don’t want to go to jail!’

“Arrest him.” Xu Xin Tong spoke before Hua Hai had a chance to say anything more.

The two officers acted in accordance with the order. They seized Hua Hai by the arms and immediately handcuffed him. Hua Hai did not have a chance to do anything.

“L...Let me go! Let me go!” Hua Hai shouted. His face was pale. He struggled like a madman.

However, his struggle was in vain due to the handcuffs and the two police officers who were holding him. He could not fight at all.

Lieutenant Jong walked towards him and grabbed the accounting ledger. He spoke to Hua Hai with an even tone of voice, “Behave yourself.”

“You!” Hua Hai was angry. However, he was actually more scared than angry. He did not want to go to jail. He wanted to live a happy, comfortable life.

“Take him to the station and charge him to the full extent of the law,” Xu Xin Tong said. “Oh, and don’t forget to release the scapegoat.”

“Yes, inspector.” Lieutenant Jong and the other two officers resolutely acknowledged the order and saluted. They were ready to take Hua Hai to Xing Zhou city police station.

Before they could do that, Hua Hai suddenly shouted. He stared fixedly at Li Cong Tian.

“P...President Li, I really had nothing to do with this. I know who actually embezzled within the company!”

Li Cong Tian, however, did not care about what Hua Hai was saying. He did not want to believe what Hua Hai said anymore, otherwise, there would definitely be another scapegoat in this case.

“Take him,” Xu Xin Tong said again.

She had not been in charge of this case from the beginning, but after hearing everything from Li Cong Tian, she thought the same thing. She thought that Hua Hai’s words were nonsense. That was why she did not want Hua Hai to say anything more.

Hua Hai’s facial expression changed drastically. He started to show agitation and fear. If this continued, he would certainly be put in jail.

And he would be in there for many years because it was as much as 500 million yuan that he had embezzled.

“I...It was not me alone. There’s someone else, too!”

Hua Hai gritted his teeth and said this aloud, possibly due to fear.

It was a shame that Li Cong Tian did not care. Xu Xin Tong was slightly interested because it sounded possible, but she did not say a word. It would not be too late to leave it to the interrogation team at the station.

However, a certain someone was very much interested in this. It was Bai Chen, as this was related to his completing the mission he had been assigned.

Chapter 253 So Much Rage

“Let him talk.”

Bai Chen’s words sounded. Li Cong Tian and Xu Xin Tong could not help but turn to him.

A moment later, Li Cong Tian quickly spoke up. “Let him talk then.”

Of course, he would not dare go against Bai Chen, even though he was so angry at Hua Hai that he did not want to see his face anymore.

Xu Xin Tong frowned a little. She was wondering what kind of relationship Bai Chen and Li Cong Tian had.

She thought that Bai Chen had to be rather powerful to be associated with a man like Li Cong Tian. It was obvious that Li Cong Tian would gladly listen to anything that Bai Chen told him.

However, Xu Xin Tong did not ask about it. She nodded at lieutenant Jong and the other two officers who had seized Hua Hai by the arms.

Lieutenant Jong nodded back and met the gazes of the two officers.

They nodded and freed Hua Hai from their grips.

Hua Hai was freed. He inhaled deeply. He knew full well that he was done for. There was no escape for him.

The only thing he could do was to expose those who were in on it with him.

It was obvious that Hua Hai was a petty man. He did not want to be arrested alone. The man that he was about to expose was actually the one who had initiated the embezzlement and scapegoat plan!

Hua Hai was about to expose the man who was actually behind everything!

However, before Hua Hai began to speak, he wondered how Li Cong Tian knew the accounting ledger's whereabouts, even though he had hidden it very well.

He had not wondered about it earlier when Li Cong Tian had tossed the accounting ledger at him because he had been busy being scared.

"Make it quick," Lieutenant Jong rushed him.

Hua Hai inhaled deeply once again before speaking through his teeth. "The mastermind of all this was Yuan Kai!"

Hua Hai's voice was so loud, it echoed throughout the meeting room.

Once Hua Hai was done talking, Li Cong Tian's body trembled and went numb. His face was so twisted, it had turned ugly.

"You're telling the truth?" he asked with a serious voice. It was obvious that his rage had gone beyond its peak.

If what Hua Hai said was true, it was rather normal for Li Cong Tian to be furious. Yuan Kai had been his personal assistant for 3 years and he highly trusted him. Moreover, Yuan Kai was the one that he had carefully hand-picked by himself.

"Calm down, Mr. Li. He may be lying." Xu Xin Tong spoke coldly. She was very calm. Her face was expressionless as usual.

Hearing that, Li Cong Tian settled down a little. He inhaled deeply to suppress his emotions.

"Go get the person named Yuan Kai," Xu Xin Tong ordered lieutenant Jong.

Lieutenant accepted the order before leaving the meeting room alone. He wanted the other two officers to keep their eyes on Hua Hai.

Bai Chen looked at lieutenant Jong quietly until he was gone. He turned to look at Hua Hai.

The reason why he'd let Hua Hai talk was simply because he was afraid that if all of the culprits in the scapegoat case were not arrested, he would fail the mission.

Everyone went silent. No one said anything until 5 minutes later when lieutenant Jong brought Yuan Kai into the meeting room.

The reason why he had been able to find Yuan Kai so easily was the very same one as to how he'd found Hua Hai earlier.

The moment that he stepped into the room, Yuan Kai suddenly stopped. He looked at Hua Hai who was handcuffed.

'T...This is bad!' Yuan Kai felt uneasy. He was a clever man, so he knew what this meant. He knew full well that his and Hua Hai's embezzlement had been exposed.

A handcuffed Hua Hai who was in the police's custody proved it.

Yuan Kai inhaled deeply before continuing to walk in calmly, even though he actually felt a little anxious and angry.

The anxiety was anxiety over being arrested. The anger was, of course, over Hua Hai daring to give him away like this!

"Yuan Kai, you son of a bitch. It was all because of you. If you hadn't encouraged me and planned it out, I wouldn't have done something like this!"

Seeing Yuan Kai walk into the room, Hua Hai suddenly released his rage. It was all because of Yuan Kai. He would not have gone along with things if Yuan Kai were not his wife's nephew.

If Yuan Kai were not his wife's nephew, he would never have gone along with his crazy plan.

However, Hua Hai still could not deny that one of the reasons for him embezzling the company's money was also his greed.

"Vice President Hua, what are you all talking about?" Yuan Kai pretended to be innocent. He stopped not so far from where Hua Hai was standing. He did not look at Hua Hai, but Li Cong Tian. "President, what has happened?"

"Yuan Kai, you're not going to get away with this. I have solid proof!" Hua Hai interrupted Li Cong Tian with his shout.

"Y...You!" Hearing what Hua Hai said, Yuan Kai could no longer keep his cool. His facial expression changed drastically. If what he said was true, he would undoubtedly be arrested.

'I h...have to run!' Yuan Kai thought agitatedly. He regretted that he had not realized it sooner when Li Cong Tian had called him to open Hua Hai's office.

Yuan Kai suddenly dashed towards the door after thinking about running.

"Get him." Xu Xin Tong spoke through her teeth with her cold voice.

Lieutenant Jong, who was standing not that far from Yuan Kai, quickly kicked him in the leg before he went through the door.

Thud!

Yuan Kai fell forward onto the floor and passed out immediately.

Li Cong Tian saw the entire thing. He tightened his fists. His body trembled with rage. He definitely was not a fool. He knew now that what Hua Hai said was true!!!

How could he not be angry?

Xu Xin Tong got up from her chair. "Take both of them to the station and interrogate them."

"Yes, ma'am!" Lieutenant Jong and the other two police officers quickly did what they were told. They took the unconscious Yuan Kai and a pale-faced Hua Hai away.

At the moment, Bai Chen also got up from his chair. He was done here and was ready to go.

Chapter 254 Super Mission

It was hours later, after Hua Hai and Yuan Kai, the true embezzlers, had been taken to the police station to be interrogated and handled according to the law properly...

The scapegoat Feng Chao had now been released.

The moment that he was released, he cried happy tears that he had been judged righteously.

Li Cong Tian went to the station and picked Feng Chao up by himself. He apologized to him for what had happened.

Feng Chao was a kind-looking middle-aged man. He did not blame Li Cong Tian at all and even thanked him for getting him justice.

Of course, this completed Bai Chen's mission. The details were as follows...

---

[Mission Complete!]

Mission 28: Eliminate a gang of bandits in the Xing Au district (Success)

Reward: You received 40 points and 40 magical bonuses

---

By completing the mission, Bai Chen's amount of accumulated magical bonuses now totaled 160.

He still needed 340 more magical bonuses to be eligible to receive medium-grade items.

With the additional 40 points, he needed only 30 more to reach level 7.

Bai Chen was sitting in a private room in a luxurious restaurant.

In front of him was a variety of food that had been partially eaten. He was already full.

Of course, Bai Chen was not in the room alone. Xu Xin Tong was also with him. She had invited him out for a meal to thank him for saving her from the great assassin Hei Chang.

Her cold, yet beautiful, face was still the same as ever. She wiped her mouth with tissue paper after she'd finished eating.

“Thank you for the meal,” Bai Chen said while looking at her emotionless face.

Xu Xin Tong shook her head at his words. “You have nothing to thank me for. It’s actually the other way around.”

“Right.” Bai Chen nodded. He did not say anything more.

“That’s right. I didn’t expect you to know Mr. Li,” Xu Xin Tong said. She had been wondering about this for a while.

“Only a bit.” Bai Chen did not want to say much about it. He did not know Li Cong Tian that well anyway.

“Is that so?” Xu Xin Tong blinked a little.

Bai Chen nodded. “If you’d excuse me, I still have many things to take care of.”

He got up from his seat immediately. If Xu Xin Tong had not invited him out, he would have gone home right after Hua Hai and Yuan Kai had been taken away by lieutenant Jong and the other two officers.

“Understood. Thank you very much again for saving my life.”

Xu Xin Tong also got up from her seat. She also had some business to take care of at Xing Zhou city police station.

Xu Xin Ting looked at him until he was gone from her sight. She felt something nearly unexplainable, yet she quickly cast these feelings off right away.

.....

At the entrance of the restaurant, Bai Chen walked out and waited for a taxi.

It was a little bit past 1 p.m., so he decided to do another mission before he went home.

Bai Chen opened the Life Changing System window up to see the details of mission 29.

---

[Mission 29: Arrest a big drug dealing gang]

Description: You need to cooperate with the police to take down Xing Zhou city’s big drug dealing gang that is currently trying to expand their power around the city.

Reward for success: Win 100 points + 100 magical bonuses

Penalty for failure: Your level will be decreased by 1 level!

---

After reading the information for mission 29, Bai Chen’s eyes trembled a bit. His body went a little numb

“This is... an amazing mission!” Bai Chen’s lips quivered. His heart pounded.

It was because of the excitement that he was feeling!

His excitement was at its peak. This was the very first time that a mission would give him as many as 100 points!

It was the mission with the most points he had done so far!

“Amazing! Amazing! Amazing!”

With delight, Bai Chen said the word ‘amazing’ three times.

A moment later, his facial expression changed into a serious one.

“The mission has to be very difficult if it gives me 100 points. Failure also results in the loss of a level!”

Bai Chen thought seriously about this. “This mission gives more points, yet I’ll also lose more if I fail...”

Bai Chen went quiet. In less than a minute, determination suddenly shone through his eyes.

“Of course, I’ll succeed. I’ve failed only once before!”

Bai Chen tightened his fists and looked at the green guiding arrow of mission 29. It led him to the north of Xing Zhou city.

“I can’t do this alone. I’ll have to cooperate with the police,” Bai Chen said softly.

It was a big problem. It would be a lot easier if he could do it alone.

“Okay then. Whatever it takes!”

Bai Chen did not think much about it. If he did not do it, he would not be able to complete the mission for sure.

If he did not complete it, he would not get any points or magical bonuses to exchange for the perks either.

“I need Xu Xin Tong’s help.” Bai Chen could not help but think about Xu Xin Tong. He did not know anyone in the police department except her.

He started to look around for her because he thought that she might still be around here. He’d parted with her only minutes ago.

Finally, Bai Chen saw Xu Xin Tong walking towards her car. It was a black and white Mercedes-Benz.

Of course, it was not the same one as Xu Xue Ning’s car. which had been wrecked to pieces earlier when they’d encountered the assassin from the Hell Shadow International Assassin Association.

After seeing her, Bai Chen did not hesitate to walk towards her.

Chapter 255 Drug Dealing

“Inspector Xu.” Bai Chen quickly caught up to her. She had not even reached the car yet.

‘Inspector Xu’ was how Bai Chen addressed her because she was an inspector.

Hearing the voice from behind, Xu Xin Tong turned back to look. “Mr. Bai San?”

She was surprised that it was actually Bai Chen because she had not expected him to come back after saying good-bye to her just moments before.

“What is it?” Xu Xin Tong asked. Her face was as cool as ever. She slowly turned to him.

Bai Chen thought a little. His face turned serious.

“My friend told me just now that there’s a large drug deal occurring,” he said with a serious face and voice.

“You’re telling the truth?” Xu Xin Tong’s facial expression changed. She hated people who broke the law, so it was only normal for her to act this way. “Where?”

“I’ll take you there. Call for backup first.”

Bai Chen could not say right away where it was. He only knew that it was to the north because the arrow pointed that way.

“Understood.” Xu Xin Tong nodded once before taking out her phone to call for backup.

However, she stopped immediately because she did not know where the drug deal was taking place. How could she tell the backup where to go?

“If you want me to call for backup, you need to tell me the place,” Xu Xin Tong said.

Bai Chen went quiet. He had completely forgotten about that. He thought for a second and answered, “How about this? We head there first and call for backup later.”

“We can do that.” Xu Xin Tong nodded in agreement.

It was obvious that she did not think that Bai Chen would lie about this.

She thought that he had saved her life so he had no reason to lie to her. He would not gain anything from lying to her.

“Let’s get in the car. You tell me the way then.” Xu Xin Tong turned back and walked towards her car.

“Okay.” Bai Chen quickly followed her.

Then, the two of them got into the black and white Mercedes-Benz.

A short while later, the black and white Mercedes-Benz was driven out of the parking lot.

.....

Half an hour later, near a newly-built warehouse named 'Zhao Li Warehouse', a black and white Mercedes-Benz was pulled over by the warehouse wall. Two figures walked out of the car. They were Bai Chen and Xu Xin Tong.

"This way."

Bai Chen spoke to Xu Xin Tong and led her to the forest at the back of the warehouse.

Xu Xin Tong followed him quietly without saying anything. For the past half an hour, she had been listening to his directions until they reached here.

Bai Chen stared at the green arrow of mission 29 while walking. He walked at a normal speed.

Not so long after that, they were in the middle of the forest behind the warehouse.

"Walk slowly. Don't make any sound," Bai Chen told Xu Xin Tong before moving forward.

Xu Xin Tong nodded without saying anything. She thought that if they actually encountered the drug deal, she would call for backup immediately.

"Stop," Bai Chen said and stopped short when they got to a specific spot deep in the forest.

Xu Xin Tong stopped like she was told. She frowned a little.

"Look there." Bai Chen parted the bushes in front of him very quietly. There were two groups of people behind it.

There were 5 people per group. One person in each group was carrying an anti-theft bag.

"This is..." Xu Xin Tong narrowed her beautiful eyes while she was looking at the two groups of people confronting each other in the forest.

However, she did not jump just yet to the conclusion that they were dealing drugs until she heard the voice of one of the men. It was not loud, but loud enough for her to hear.

"Zhao Li, did you bring the 100 million yuan?" The speaker was a tanned middle-aged man with sunglasses. His face was slightly fierce.

"Of course, Mr. Sen. What about you? Did you bring the drugs, my 100,000 pills?" a person in the other group said. He was a thin man. He looked like he overdosed on drugs.

"Don't you worry. Who do you think I am?" The middle-aged man named Sen waved his hand once.

The man with the anti-theft bag behind him stepped forward and opened the bag. All the drugs were bound up neatly in blocks with tape inside. The bag was full of them.

Zhao Li's eyes sparkled when he saw what was inside the bag. He raised his hand. The man with the anti-theft bag at his side opened the bag.

Inside was money. It was as much as 100 million yuan!

Mr. Sen's, or Sen Zhong's, eyes sparkled when he saw the money.

"Feel free to inspect the goods." Sen Zhong smiled at Zhao Li.

Zhao Li smiled back and waved once. His man walked towards the drugs in the bag and picked a block up for inspection. He cut it with a knife.

Then, he saw countless pills inside!

After the inspection, the man nodded at Zhao Li.

Zhao Li smiled happily. "Then, let us do our exchange, shall we?"

"Of course." Sen Zhong had no problem with that. He wanted to get this over with as fast as possible. He was afraid that if he stayed long, the police would be able to track him down.

He did not know that a police officer had actually seen everything while he was negotiating with Zhao Li

"Those bastards!" Xu Xin Tong could not help but curse softly. She hated this kind of person the most. Drugs had been destroying people's lives, yet there were still people who continued to do business with them!

"Calm down. You should call for backup before they're gone," Bai Chen told her.

"Okay." Xu Xin Tong quickly contacted lieutenant Jong to bring the reinforcements here.

"Settled. They'll be here in twenty," Xu Xin Tong said after the call.

"Then, the only thing we can do now is to wait." Bai Chen still looked at those people. He did let them out of his sight.

"I think so." Xu Xin Tong nodded. Unfortunately, she accidentally stepped on a branch until it snapped and made a sound.

The facial expressions of Sen Zhong, Zhao Li, and the rest of them changed rapidly.

"Who's there?!?"

Chapter 256 Deal With It Alone

"Who's there?!?"

Numerous voices sounded. They coincidentally said the same thing without knowing who'd said it first.

Sen Zhong, Zhao Li, along with the rest of them all looked in the same direction. It was where Bai Chen and Xu Xin Tong were hiding.

Xu Xin Tong, who was hiding behind a bush, was alarmed. She did not that she would accidentally step on a branch and let the drug dealers become aware of her presence.

Actually, not only did Xu Xin Tong's expression had changed—Bai Chen's facial expression also changed, too.

"They are aware of us now." He spoke softly.

"Then, let's just reveal ourselves!" Xu Xin Tong decided with a serious face. She quickly took her gun out of the holster at her side and held on to it tightly. She shouted, "This is the police. You're surrounded! Surrender!"

"What?!?"

Hearing Xu Xin Tong's words, Sen Zhong, Zhao Li, and the others cried out in panic. Their facial expressions changed drastically. Stress crept into their hearts.

Of course, it was because they were dealing drugs, which was illegal.

"Don't panic. Maybe they're just bluffing."

Sen Zhong did not stay alarmed for too long. He was a professional, so he did not believe in people very easily. He would not believe anything unless he saw it with his own eyes. He quickly brushed away his panic and shouted at everyone, including Zhao Li and his men.

Hearing what Sen Zhong said, Zhao Li and the rest of the gang quickly went quiet. They locked their eyes onto where Bai Chen and Xu Xin Tong were.

Of course, they could not see Bai Chen and Xu Xin Tong because they were standing behind the bushes on a hill 3 meters above them. That was why they could not possibly be seen.

"Surrender, otherwise I'll shoot to kill!" Xu Xin Tong made an even more serious face. She shouted again without hesitation after realizing that the gang did not believe what she'd said.

"Get the guns out. Surrounded by the cops? So what?!? We'll fight until one side dies!"

Sen Zhong shouted this with determination. It was as if he was willing to give up his life, even though he was surrounded by the police.

"Y...Yeah!" Zhao Li spoke. He seemed to agree with Sen Zhong, though his voice indicated otherwise. His face was pale.

It was obvious that Zhao Li was not as determined as Sen Zhong. He took out the gun from the holster at his waist.

The minions of both gangs did the same. They all had their guns in their hands.

"What are we going to do? We have to wait a while until the backup arrives."

Xu Xin Tong asked softly for Bai Chen's advice after seeing that the group below had chosen to fight instead of surrender.

Bai Chen's face was serious. He lowered his head and considered the issue. A moment later, he raised his head. His eyes glimmered.

"We have to strike first. I'll do it. You wait here!" Bai Chen told Xu Xin Tong.

It was obvious that the only thing that he could think of was to deal with both Sen Zhong's and Zhao Li's gangs by himself.

"Are you crazy?!?" Hearing Bai Chen, Xu Xin Tong could not help but shout at him because it was a very stupid idea. It was impossible for him to take down all those people alone.

And even worse, all of them carried guns.

Bai Chen did not say anything more. He took Xu Xin Tong's gun from her hands before parting the bushes and jumping out.

"You!" Xu Xin Tong was surprised when her gun was taken by Bai Chen.

However, that was not what alarmed her the most. She was even more alarmed that Bai Chen had just parted the bushes and jumped out there.

It was like a sheep leaping into a pack of wolves, which was a very stupid action in her eyes.

It was as if he'd jumped to his death!

Bai Chen did not care what Xu Xin Tong thought. He was already in mid-air, about 2 to 3 metres off the ground.

"S...Someone's jumping down!" one of Sen Zhong's lackeys cried out when he saw Bai Chen.

"Shoot him!" Sen Zhong ordered immediately while the others were still unsure of what to do.

"Shoot him. Quick!" Zhao Li said as well.

A total of 8 people from both gangs did not hesitate to shoot Bai Chen.

Bang! Bang!...Bang!

More than 8 gunshots sounded. The sounds filled the whole forest. Every bullet was aimed at Bai Chen, who'd almost landed on the ground.

If he had been someone else, he would certainly have been shot to death already.

However, this was Bai Chen. Before the bullets hit him, he jumped up into the air. It was the stargazing walker technique.

Once he did that, he immediately leaped towards Sen Zhong.

Sen Zhong's facial expression changed. He did not expect Bai Chen to dodge the bullets and leap towards him like this.

“Die!”

However, Sen Zhong was not distracted. He was quite focused and calm. He pointed his gun at Bai Chen and shot it without hesitation.

Bang!

A gunshot sounded. Smoke drifted out of the muzzle of Sen Zhong's gun. The bullet rushed towards Bai Chen at an incredible speed.

Bai Chen's eyes narrowed. He dodged the bullet very easily and kicked Sen Zhong in his stomach. The kick was an impactful one for Sen Zhong.

BAM!

Sen Zhong's body flew away. His gun dropped to the ground.

“B...Big bro!”

“M...Mr. Sen!”

The minions from both gangs cried out after seeing Sen Zhong's body fall a distance away.

“Ack!” Immediately after his body dropped to the ground, Sen Zhong vomited. His face showed a great deal of pain. He clutched at his stomach which had been kicked with both hands.

Bai Chen's feet were finally on the ground. He started to run again while the rest of them were still motionless.

He ran towards one man and hit his face with a gun. The man flew back and passed out immediately.

Chapter 258 Lu Yi Gives Orders

Ding!

---

[Mission Complete!]

Mission 29: Arrest a big drug dealing gang (Success)

Reward: You have received 100 points and 100 magical bonuses

---

The mission-accomplishment window popped up in front of Bai Chen several minutes after he had rendered Sen Zhong, Zhao Li, and their lackeys unconscious.

He looked at the window with sparkling eyes. His face showed joy and delight.

He had just received 100 points and 100 magical bonuses. It was impossible not to be happy!

At the moment, he had a total of 260 magical bonuses. He only needed 240 more to be eligible to get medium-grade items. His level is now at 8.

At level 8 with 70 points, he still needed 30 more points to reach level 9.

Bai Chen felt like his life had been going smoothly lately. The proof was how he had completed the missions one after the other without fail.

“Mr Bai San...”

While Bai Chen was looking happily at the system window, a voice spoke.

It was none other than Xu Xin Tong. She was in front of him.

Bai Chen quickly closed the window and turned to look at her before asking, “Is the backup here?”

“Er... Not yet,” Xu Xin Tong answered softly.

Her eyes still showed awe because she did not expect that Bai Chen would be able to deal with all of the drug dealers by himself.

“I guess we wait.” Bai Chen did not say anything after that. He leaned against a tree happily.

Seeing Bai Chen walking over and leaning against a tree, Xu Xin Tong did not say anything more. She rushed to collect all the guns from Sen Zhong’s people, just in case some of them regained consciousness and started to resist arrest.

After getting all the guns, she walked towards Bai Chen.

“Please give me back my gun...” She spoke with her usual cold voice.

Bai Chen quickly gave her gun back. He had been so happy, he had forgotten to return it earlier.

After returning the gun, they waited for the police reinforcements quietly.

.....

In a room with a simple appearance, Lu Yi, one of the five people with authority in the Jing Cha Secret Organisation, stood at the side of a window with a gloomy face. He was looking at a piece of paper in his hand.

It was an update from his spies. It was actually the cause of his gloomy face now.

“Who dared to kill Fen Wieng?” Lu Yi gritted his teeth. His voice was clearly furious.

The news was obviously that of the death of Fen Wieng, the man who was the head of the second unit of the Jing Cha Secret Organisation that he’d sent to guard his sister, Lu Zhi Yun.

“Damn it!” Lu Yi cursed. He crumpled the paper in his hand and threw it away.

It was so obvious how angry he was because he was usually very calm.

Lu Yi took out his phone and made a call.

He waited a moment before someone picked it up. "Sir Lu Yi, what can I do for you, sir?"

"Jong Zhue, I want you to go to Xing Zhou city and find out who killed Fen Wieng!" Lu Yi did not hesitate to give the order after the person at the other end of the line picked the phone call up.

It was none other than Jong Zhue, the head of the first unit of the Jing Cha Secret Organisation.

Jong Zhue's power was extraordinary. His strength was at the formation level.

He was not a normal person because he was only a step away from the earth's solid level!

With his strength, it was only normal that Jong Zhue would be appointed as the head of the first unit. He was only second to the five authorities.

"Roger that, Sir Lu Yi. There's no need to worry. I'll depart immediately," Jong Zhue answered without hesitation. For him, orders from above were of utmost importance.

"Very good. If you find that person, kill them! And I want you to guard my younger sister too."

Lu Yi gave more orders. Naturally, these were issues he was concerned about. He was afraid that the killer would come for his sister next.

Perhaps Fen Wieng was dead because he had been trying to protect Lu Zhi Yun with his life.

Of course, what Lu Yi thought was not true. Fen Wieng was dead solely because of his own actions.

If he had not picked a fight with Bai Chen first, he would not have died. However, he would have died anyway because Bai Chen had to complete his mission. He would have died either way!

"Roger that, sir. Please don't worry." Jong Zhue did not hesitate to answer.

"Very good. I'll leave these two matters to you."

After that, Lu Yi ended the call. He put his phone down and looked up at the sky.

"Maybe I'll have to call a meeting," Lu Yi murmured to himself. "But I did not expect anyone to dare kill people of the Jing Cha Secret Organisation!"

His rage rose up again when he thought about it.

"Or is the killer the same person as the one who killed Zhao Suan and Zhuang Mo?!?"

Lu Yi's facial expression changed when he thought of this.

"But it'd be impossible because the killer has already left Xing Zhou city, otherwise Sir Yan Guan and Sir Ding Sheng would have found him." Lu Yi shook his head after thinking it through.

“My... As expected of Zhi Yun. She never thinks to listen to me. Everything would be settled if she just agreed to marry Wang Chengye.”

Lu Yi could not help but sigh when he thought about his stubborn sister.

He loved her very much, even though she was his half-sister, sharing a father with him. He spoiled her in everything.

Marriage was the only thing that he could not let her decide because the Lu family had already decided for her.

Even though the Wang family was not a cultivator family, they were one of the five big families of Beijing. They had a great influence on regular society.

Furthermore, there was a sky soaring cultivator at the Wang family's mansion, too.

It was the old man Foo Yen, the one whom Bai Chen had met on the day he'd killed Wang Cheng Yong!

Chapter 259 Finding Herbs

In the evening, the sky started to get dark. It was about 7 p.m. when Bai Chen got back home and dined with his parents.

Of course, he was back to his 18-year-old form.

Then, he went up to his room and take a shower.

After that, Bai Chen sat on his bed and thought about what happened during the day with the drug dealers.

He and Xu Xin Tong had waited for the backup for 20 minutes.

Once they arrived at the scene, he'd excused himself immediately.

However, he had not been able to leave because he had to speak with the officers at the station about what had happened.

That was why Bai Chen had arrived home late at night. He'd spent some time speaking to them.

Other than giving his statement, he had also received thanks from Xu Xin Tong.

He had merely politely accepted it and excused himself.

Then, he'd used his thousand-face skill to change back to his 18-year-old self, as he was right now.

“Only 240 more magical bonuses and I'll be able to do an exchange for a medium-grade item!”

Bai Chen talked to himself excitedly. He could not help but expect the best result from the medium-grade skills or items.

Bai Chen knew that he had to quickly complete more missions to gain as many bonuses as he wanted.

“Let's see what the next mission is,” he said and opened the mission window up.

---

[Mission 30: Search for herbs]

Description: You have to search for a herb called the ‘four-petaled dewdrop flower’.

Reward for success: Win 60 points + 60 magical bonuses

Penalty for failure: -30 points

---

“Search for a herb?” Bai Chen repeated immediately after reading the details of mission 30. He frowned.

The thing that made him frown was not the name of the mission. It was something else.

It was because there was no green guiding arrow this time!

No! There were no green arrows to guide him at all!

This was the first time without a green arrow. Thus, it was only normal for Bai Chen to frown.

“Why is it like this?”

His eyebrows furrowed even tighter as he thought about it. His mission would be a lot harder without it.

Bai Chen gave serious thought to this for a while. Then, he finally realised something.

It was about mission 30: ‘Search for herbs’.

He thought that maybe there would not be any arrow if the mission was about searching for something.

He was not so sure about what he had thought of because it had never happened before. However, he could not think of any other reason for it.

“Forget about it. I’ll wait until there are more missions like this and see if there will be an arrow that will lead the way.”

Bai Chen shook his head before thinking about where he should start searching for this ‘four-petaled dewdrop flower’.

No matter how much he thought, he could not find any way because he’d never heard of this herb before.

“Maybe there’s some information in Baidu.”

Bai Chen thought about using Baidu, the search engine. Thus, he did not hesitate to take out his phone and search on Baidu.

However, he could not find anything about the four-petaled dewdrop there.

“How is this possible?” Bai Chen did not want to believe it because Baidu was a massive, wide-reaching search engine. Thus, it was impossible that there was no information about the herb at all.

“Maybe it’s such an ancient herb there’s no information about it.”

Bai Chen complained a little bit about it, but he did not think that it would be impossible to find.

The reason why he thought so was that there were 60 points for the mission. Therefore, he did not think that it would be any more difficult than the previous mission.

The previous one must have been harder because there were as many as 100 points for it.

Bai Chen was confident that he would surely find it even without any guiding arrow or information about it.

“I should go ask at herbal shops,” Bai Chen said. “I’ll drop by the shops in town tomorrow.”

Bai Chen did not plan to do the mission today. He was going to start tomorrow.

This was because it was already nighttime. It was inconvenient to go out and do it.

That was why Bai Chen quickly turned off the light and went to bed.

.....

The next morning, Bai Chen had to go to school because it was Monday. He left home early after helping his parents with shop preparations.

He went through his usual routine in school until school ended at around 4 p.m.

Bai Chen quickly got out of school immediately. He did not want to waste any more time.

Of course, he had a task to find a herb called the ‘four-petaled dewdrop flower’.

If he could not do it, he would fail the mission for sure. There was no time limit for it, but he did not want to be complacent and fail the mission.

Failures affected him a lot as they would delay his revenge.

Bai Chen waited for a taxi. He would take one downtown to find a herbal shop. He wanted to see if the shop would have this four-petaled dewdrop flower.

“Bai Chen.”

While he was waiting, he heard a voice calling his name.

It was none other than Li Lin. Her dress suited her figure and her cute, doll-like face.

“Li Lin, why are you still here?” Bai Chen turned to look at her and asked. “I thought you had something to do.”

Before this, Bai Chen and Li Lin had parted ways because Li Lin had told him that she had some business to take care of.

“I don’t have any more business. My father said that he wanted to talk about something important, but he has this urgent business that he has to rush off to, so I don’t have to hurry home anymore.”

Li Lin gave her an answer. She stopped at Bai Chen’s side.

Chapter 260 Herbal Shop

“I don’t have any more business. My father said that he wanted to talk about something important, but he has this urgent business that he has to rush off to, so I don’t have to hurry home anymore.”

Bai Chen nodded in understanding.

“Where are you going then?” he asked with a smile.

To be honest, their relationship was so great, one could call them a couple. He just had not officially asked her to be his girlfriend yet.

The reason was obvious. Bai Chen had not achieved what he wanted to do here yet

He had not killed Wang Chengye and wiped out the Wang family, one of the five big families in Beijing.

“I’m not going anywhere. Where are you going, though?” Li Lin smiled cutely and asked back.

Bai Chen could not help but go silent. He wondered if he should tell Li Lin about it.

Less than a minute later, he finally answered. “I want to visit an herbal shop.”

Bai Chen decided that telling Li Lin the truth would not hurt.

She would not be able to find out that he had to do the mission that the Life Changing System assigned to him. She would just think that he simply wanted to buy some herbs.

“Herbal shop?” Li Lin raised her beautiful brows. “You’re buying some?”

“Yes.” Bai Chen nodded without hesitation.

“What herbs? Are you sick?”

Li Lin blinked and asked this with curiosity. She never expected that Bai Chen would want to go to a herbal shop to buy herbs for himself.

“No. They’re for my mother.”

Of course, that was a lie. Bai Chen felt a little guilty for lying, but he could not help it. He had to do it.

“For your mother?!?” Li Lin’s facial expression changed a little. “Then, let me go with you. I know a good place.”

Bai Chen did not expect Li Lin to say that. He thought that if he let Li Lin come with him, it would be a big help because he did not know any herbal shops in town.

He just wanted a taxi driver to drop him off.

“Okay.” Bai Chen finally nodded in agreement.

Li Lin smiled cutely and did not say anything more. She felt very happy.

Helping Bai Chen find good herbs for his mother naturally made her happy.

After a while, a taxi finally came. Bai Chen and Li Lin immediately got into the taxi.

Their destination was a herbal shop. It was the shop that Li Lin was acquainted with.

.....

Half an hour later, Bai Chen and Li Lin got out of the taxi downtown not so far from the business district.

Bai Chen followed her quietly. He did not say anything.

“This is it.” Less than 5 minutes later, both of them were at a herbal shop. It was rather mysterious, being located in a small alley with no one around.

“Here?” Bai Chen looked ahead. He could clearly see the signage that said: ‘Universal Herbal Shop’.

For Bai Chen, the shop name sounded like a con.

“That’s right, here,” Li Lin did not hesitate to say. “Let’s go inside.”

She led the way to the door without waiting for Bai Chen to say anything else.

The front door was an old wooden door. She turned the doorknob to open it.

Once the door was opened, Li Lin did not hesitate to step inside. Bai Chen could not help but follow her.

With only a step inside, Bai Chen could smell a variety of herbs. He looked around.

The shop was not so big and it was very simple-looking. There were glass cabinets that were full of herbs, mostly dried ones. He could see some fresh ones, too.

It was surprising that there was no one here at all, not even a customer or the shop owner.

“Grandfather Lu, are you here?” Li Lin walked in front of a glass cabinet and shouted.

Bai Chen also stopped beside one of the cabinets and thought that maybe Li Lin was calling the owner of the shop.

He could not help but be surprised that Li Lin seemed to be close to the owner of this shop. Otherwise, she would not be calling him a ‘grandfather’.

“Here.” The voice of an old man sounded. A door set in a wooden wall was opened. An old man with white hair walked out.

“It’s you, Li Lin. Are you buying herbs today?” The old man smiled a little at Li Lin.

“Not me, him.” Li Lin pointed at Bai Chen.

The old man called grandfather Lu turned to look at Bai Chen and nodded. “Be my guest. If you want anything in particular, just say so. I’ll find it for you.”

Bai Chen also nodded and spoke without hesitation, “Do you have what’s called a four-petaled dewdrop flower?”

Hearing what Bai Chen said, the old man halted. He could not help but narrow his eyes. He did not expect to hear this name again after a long time.

“You know of it, right, grandfather Lu? You’re an expert.”

Li Lin said this because she noticed the silence. She was afraid that the old man would not know the herb that Bai Chen was looking for.

Bai Chen waited quietly, but his heart was pounding hard. He was also nervous because not even Baidu knew about this particular herb called the ‘four-petaled dewdrop flower’.

If he could not find it, he would fail the mission, even though this was the first herbal shop that he had come to.

However, if this one did not know about it, the others would be the same, too. That was why Bai Chen was nervous.

The old man Lu, or Lu Heng, went completely silent. He did not say anything in response to Li Lin.

However, not so long after that, he finally talked with a serious voice. He looked at Bai Chen solemnly. “What will you use the four-petaled dewdrop flower for?”

Bai Chen’s eyes suddenly sparkled. He could not help but tighten his fists. His face showed excitement.

It was obvious that the old man Lu Heng knew of this four-petaled dewdrop flower.

How would Bai Chen not be excited then?
