Chapter 36 Peeing Their Pants

Ba Guan witnessed everything that had happened earlier very clearly. His eyes widened, and his body shook with fear.

He had stood up now, though his body was aching quite a bit.

Ba Guan was not only afraid but also incredulous... he could not believe that Dong Gou and Lun Her would get beaten to a pulp by Bai Chen.

The two men from the White Tiger Gang could only wriggle on the ground with pain. They were, in fact, crying.

Lun Her was the worse off of the two of them. He was already badly injured from breaking two ribs. When Dong Gou's body landed on his violently, another rib broke, making the number of injuries three in total.

With the situation having turned out like this, it would be the most bizarre thing in the world to say that he was unmistakably gravely injured.

Lun Her was badly hurt, but Dong Gou was not any better. Six of his teeth were missing and his mouth was covered in blood. Dong Gou was basically swallowing blood instead of saliva.

His face had lost its shape from being punched by Bai Chen.

Apart from rolling on the ground and crying out in pain, there was nothing else they could do.

The injuries they'd gotten had exhausted the two of them to the point of almost losing consciousness.

Bai Chen smiled as he looked at them. He was very confident with his low-grade martial arts technique.

He turned to look at Ba Guan; the smile on his face vanished. Iciness resurfaced.

He slowly approached Ba Guan.

"D... don't come over!"

Ba Guan screamed in panic as he saw Bai Chen making his way towards him.

The gangster's face was as pale as a sheet and covered in sweat... He was dead scared.

Suddenly, a yellow liquid with a strong smell started to spread from his trousers, until the entirety of the trousers was stained and soaked.

He was... wetting himself!

That's right. Ba Guan was now so scared that he'd peed his pants!

"Hahaha!"

When Bai Chen saw Ba Guan wetting himself, he burst into laughter and stopped short.

This scene made Bai Chen very happy. Ba Guan did not respond to Bai Chen's laughter. He did not care if he wet himself or not. He was scared, after all.

He only had one thought in his heart—to escape from here.

“Ba Guan, get out of my sight. If you dare to mess with me again, you'll be dead meat!”

Bai Chen said this with an absolutely ice-cold voice.

It was clear from his tone that he really had thoughts of killing Ba Guan because this guy was extremely evil. He was responsible for shredding his life into pieces.

Ba Guan was about to reply that he understood.

But the chance for that never came. Bai Chen kicked the gun next to his foot right into Ba Guan's forehead so violently, Ba Guan collapsed and fell unconscious.

After he had passed out, Bai Chen turned to look at the two White Tiger men.

Dong Gua and Lun Her were also terrified out of their wits like Ba Guan. They had wet their pants as well.

They had never dreamt that a mere 18-year-old boy would scare the living daylights out of them like this.

“Don't mess with me again. Otherwise, even if I have to kill you, I will!”

Bai Chen had long made up his mind that he would never show mercy to his enemies as it could cause him problems later.

But his subconscious was not ready for murder right now, so he could only give out warnings.

But if there was a next time, anything could happen. He had mingled with many murderers in the prison as well.

Dong Gou and Lun Her could only nod repeatedly. Their minds were filled with bitterness and vengeance.

Of course, they would not let this matter end here. When they returned, they would report this to their big boss, Ma Jong, right away.

That would most definitely be when Bai Chen, the guy who hurt them, would completely vanish from this world!

Bai Chen said nothing more. He walked up towards the guys and thrash them into unconsciousness.

He then walked towards the gun with a silencer on it and sent it into the dimension ring.

Although he had the most brilliant Life Changing System with him, a gun was also something commonly used for homicide and he had to protect himself.

Ding!

[Mission Complete!]

Mission 10: Get rid of the enemy you encounter (Success)

Reward: You have received 20 points and the opportunity to receive special skills or items at random!

Bai Chen had not even left the location when the mission-accomplishment window popped up in front of him.

He took one deep breath and stared at it with contentment.

He got himself 20 more points and now he had 55 points in total. Bai Chen only needed 45 more to reach Level 3.

The boy believed that if the two new missions equaled 45 points in total, he would likely reach Level 3 tomorrow. Another thing that made him extremely happy right now was the new randomization bonus.

Adding that to the one he already possessed, how could he not be happy?

Bai Chen could not wait to use them and see which types of items or skills he would get.

Not wanting to wait, he hurriedly walked back to his house.

He did not care to check the details of the new mission or the Life Changing System window right now.

The reason for that was he wanted to take it all at the moment he was home.
