

Life Changing 58

Chapter 58 A Passionate Kiss

“A-are you really going to do it?”

Bai Chen could not help but smile. “Or will you not keep your word?”

“F... fine!”

Li Lin had to give in because she was the one who had agreed to a bet with him. But she still could not understand how he’d won. She had been certain there would be no way that he could win.

Aside from that, she thought that her parents calling to tell her things had turned out this way likely had something to do with Bai Chen. Otherwise, how could he have been so sure he’d won?

Bai Chen’s heart beat a little faster whilst looking at Li Lin’s pretty face. Now, both her cheeks were completely red.

She seemed like a cute little girl with a shy personality.

“K... kiss me! I need to hurry home.” Li Lin spoke in a shaky voice. It was not certain if she was nervous or just did not know how to act in the current situation.

Her little heart was pounding, her breathing slightly quickened.

“All right.”

Of course, Bai Chen was all right. Since the day he’d first kissed her, he had been obsessed with her lips and kissing.

He quickly moved towards Li Lin, who had already closed her eyes and lifted her face. Bai Chen placed both hands on Li Lin’s thin shoulders to find that her body was shaking slightly.

Bai Chen smiled. His eyes lingered on her pretty face for a while; his heart was beating faster, as though it was crying out for something.

Bai Chen tilted his face to kiss Li Lin. Their lips met.

Li Lin’s dainty lips were gentle and feather-soft and possessed a particular sweet fragrance as well.

Bai Chen felt as if he was flying. He kissed her for a while without letting go.

To be honest, he was not very skilled at kissing. He had only kissed another person two times—and both those times had been with Li Lin.

Even when he was able to kiss her like this, Bai Chen still felt like it was not enough.

Suddenly, he opened his mouth a little wider and slid his tongue into Li Lin’s mouth.

Her mouth was already defenseless, as it was half-open. Thus, it was not hard for Bai Chen to slip his tongue in when her guard was down.

Li Lin’s big, bright eyes opened as wide as they could. Her body shook violently as though she was being electrocuted.

Her delicate hands clenched tightly. Her brain went blank for a bit before she pushed Bai Chen off with all her strength.

“Wh... what are you doing?!?”

Bai Chen licked his lips before breathing out heavily.

Even if it had only been for a short while, having slid his tongue into her mouth, Bai Chen had touched her tiny tongue and tasted her sweetness.

Bai Chen’s face turned red as well after she pushed him and spoke.

“I was just kissing...” he replied quietly. Frankly, he was quite scared Li Lin would get mad.

What he had done was like taking advantage of her, as he had not asked for her consent beforehand.

“Kissing, my foot!” Li Lin’s face had flushed bright red. Even her neck and ears had turned red too. It was not certain if the colour was from shyness or anger.

She picked up a pillow and hit Bai Chen with it.

Bai Chen did not feel a thing. The pillow was light and soft, so he was not hurt at all.

“You opportunist!” she scolded him.

Bai Chen’s expression was uneasy, but he still said, “But you lost.”

“Don’t talk rubbish! I lost to you, but I never agreed to your tongue entering my mouth!” Li Lin already seemed like she was very angry. She kept hitting him with the pillow without stopping.

Bai Chen gave a sheepish smile. But as things had come this far, it was rather hard for him to stop. He grabbed both of Li Lin’s hands and pushed her down onto the bed.

At the same time, he took hold of both her arms before kissing her and slipping his tongue back in again.

Everything happened very quickly. Li Lin could not even react in time.

“Ermm...” Li Lin’s cute, round eyes opened once more. At the same time, her body stiffened, and she could not do a thing.

Li Lin was feeling odd. She found his tongue was on hers. And no matter how much she moved it away, she could not escape Bai Chen’s devilish tongue at all.

And even though she tried to resist, she was powerless. It was fair to say that she could not oppose him at all.

Right now, Bai Chen was feeling very good. The inside of Li Lin’s mouth and her tongue gave him an unprecedented experience.

Their kiss now turned into an impassioned kiss!

Bai Chen continued for five more minutes, then stopped. He was breathing heavily. A bit of sweat had appeared on his face.

Li Lin was not very different. She was also breathing heavily. Her body felt limp.

She opened her mouth and spoke with a tired voice “Y... you monster! You took advantage of me!”

“I... I’m sorry.” Bai Chen could only apologize. He had been so overwhelmed with emotions earlier that he had not been able to control himself.

“Get off of me!” Li Lin said whilst pushing Bai Chen off with all of her strength. Her face was still red, but her voice was soft.

Bai Chen got off of Li Lin. However, he felt enthusiasm in his heart. He had just learned today that kissing felt so good. No wonder other people liked it so much.

After he got off her, Li Lin sat up, appearing out of strength. Her heart was still pounding without stop. Countless odd feelings flashed through her.

She turned to look at Bai Chen. The boy’s face was full of shame, so she could not help but say, “I’ll put you on probation. When I think of something for you to do, I’ll let you know.”

“S... sure.” Bai Chen quickly nodded. That was much better than having Li Lin hate him.

“I’ll go home now...”

Li Lin then left the room in order to head to her house.

Her face was red with embarrassment up until the last second before she left the room.