Liu Wanguan frowned. He didn't expect this kind of thing to happen. In his impression, Uncle Jiang was very serious and shouldn't make such an arrogant move.

Seeing Fang Yue rolling on the ground, Uncle Jiang was also stunned!

He looked at his palm in confusion, when did he get so strong. He was pretty sure that he didn't use any force just now, and Fang Yue's skin was thick and thick. Liu Cang didn't break Fang Yue's defense even after seeing how much his sword was.

Uncle Jiang's gaze fell on Fang Yue's body, and Fang Yue's forehead was so painful that sweat came out!

It didn't look like a fake, and Uncle Jiang could only hide the incomprehension in his heart.

"Fang Yue, what happened this time is that I was wrong. He was impatient for a while, and his strength was stronger!"

Uncle Jiang apologized to Yue.

Fang Yue still groaned and didn't mean to get up.

"Then what do you want?" Uncle Jiang frowned, with a hint of anger in his tone!

"Compensate me for medical expenses, lost work expenses, and mental damage expenses!"

Fang Yue's moan suddenly stopped, and blinked his eyes to ask Uncle Jiang.

Uncle Jiang was stunned: "I can understand medical expenses, and I can barely understand lost work expenses. What the * is mental loss expenses?"

"You bullied the small with the big, and bullied the weak. Under the public, you brutally wounded me and gave birth to a shadow on my young and fragile soul. In order to make up for the trauma of my soul, of course you have to compensate me for mental loss!"

Fang Yue explained patiently.

Both Uncle Jiang and Liu Wanguan are dumbfounded! Fang Yue's words seemed to make sense!

Liu Wanguan looked at Fang Yue, and even felt a little bit of sympathy.

Such shameless, cleverly established names, extortion, is definitely a model among profiteers of my generation!

However, the admiration in his eyes was quickly replaced by deep jealousy.

This Fang Yue must not be able to grow up, otherwise, he has a hunch that this product will definitely become an obstacle to his Liu family's dominance!

Shameless people are terrible...

"How much compensation do you want?"

Liu Wanguan kept his face cold. He has always taken from others by accident. He has never been blackmailed.

"Oh, oops! You see, I am young and weak, not very resistant to beatings. Although the epidermis is intact, but the whole body is injured. External injuries are easy to treat, but internal injuries are difficult to treat. I need all kinds of pills for internal and external use, at least ninety-nine and eighty-one. Genius can recover completely!

The medical expenses, just give me the meaning of a hundred Lingshi! Lost work fee plus one hundred Lingshi! There is only the mental damage fee. I will give you a 20% discount for the face of acquaintances. The original price of one hundred spirit stones, the current price of eighty spirit stones, how interesting! "

Fang Yue's lion opened his mouth wide, with two hundred and eighty spirit stones in one breath.

Moreover, his tone is still a good brother. He speaks of loyalty, and he didn't mean to be half as much as you.

"How many?"

The cold flow between Liu Wanguan's teeth! A murderous light burst into the eyes!

"Chenghui, two hundred and eighty spirit stones!"

Fang Yue smiled flatteringly, like a small second in a restaurant asking customers for food! It seems flattering, but he is neither humble nor humble, insisting on asking for money!

"At most fifty spirit stones! Otherwise, you don't even want a copper!"

Liu Wanguan sniffed his sleeves and snorted coldly, he was full of requirements, and paid back the money. He is a veteran in the business field, how could he be led by the nose by a little boy!

"Liu Wanguan, don't be shameless! Fifty spirit stones, you think you are sending a beggar!"

Fang Yue jumped up, pointing at Liu Wanguan's nose and yelling!

"Do you know who the little master is? You just give this price! The little master is the second son of the Fang family, the future good son-in-law of the Chu family, and a young genius who can beat even the 53rd on the Tianjiao list. Xiaoye was unreasonably bullied by your people! You gave it to the quintessential spirit stone, who do you look down on?"

Do you look down on our Fang family? Still look down on the Chu Family, or do you look down on all the Tianjiao on the Tianjiao list? "

Fang Yue started to get excited, and then became gloomy and sad.

Liu Wanguan's face became more and more ugly, Fang Yue pulled out three forces, and he did not dare to provoke them easily.

Fang family? Although not as negative as their Liu family's wealth, the relationship is strong and the background is hard. But the Fang family has a strong self-respect, and is the number one warlord leader of the Yan Kingdom!

The Chu family married to Fang Yue is even more unbearable. It is said that this is a family of cultivators. Although it is rooted in the Kingdom of Yan, it does not listen to the call. Even the successive monarchs of the Kingdom of Yan treat the Chu family. Extremely jealous, dare not offend easily.

As for the Tianjiao on the Tianjiao list? What kind of people are they?

It's either a monster or a pervert. It's still small now, and few are particularly powerful. But whoever dares to offend them, wait for a hundred or eighty years, and definitely can't eat it!
