

Read God of Life and Death Chapter 7: blackmail

Liu Zhengyi ran away without saying anything!

With a bang, he hit a black pan-like chest, his eyes were dark, and he fell to the sky!

"Fang Yue, what secret method did you use just now!"

The person who was hit by Liu Zhengyi in the chest was Fang Lingxiao's brother. Fang Lingxiao is 1.9 meters tall, with dark skin and a long sword on his waist. He has thick eyebrows and big eyes, and he always exudes a faint murderous aura.

Fang Lingxiao is a strict brother!

Not only is Fang Yue's strict requirements, but he is also almost abusive to himself. Fang Lingxiao's qualifications are not as good as Fang Yue, but he ranks first in strength among the younger generation of Fang family disciples!

Fang Lingxiao didn't notice Liu Zhengyi who was straight and unconscious. Instead, he fixed his eyes on the golden bell jar that had never disappeared from Fang Yue's body.

He hadn't seen this kind of secret method in the Fang family's Tibetan Scripture Pavilion.

But the real level is definitely not low!

Fang Yue panicked, he didn't expect to be seen by Fang Lingxiao when he was displaying the golden bell. He can shut his mouth when others encounter it. But because of a secret technique, the brothers were mutilated. Fang Yue could not do such a thing.

But how to explain the origin of the golden bell?

When Fang Yue's eyes rolled, he immediately had a thought: "When I was out some time ago, I ran into an old grandfather who was begging for food on the street. I saw him being poor and gave him three coins to buy him some steamed buns! He! He gave me an ancient book, which recorded this secret technique "Golden Bell Jar!"

"It turns out that it is a kind of good cause and good fruit!"

Fang Lingxiao nodded and believed Fang Yue's statement.

Fang Yue secretly squeezed a cold sweat, believe in such a * story? Sure enough, there is no online novel in this world.

"Brother, do you want me to teach you the luck and qigong technique of "The Golden Bell Jar"?" Fang Yue took the initiative to speak. In his memory, although Fang Lingxiao was rigid, he attached great importance to his family and his younger brother.

Passing the "Golden Bell Jar" to this elder brother to increase his strength is beneficial and harmless to Fang Yue.

"Forget it! This secret technique was imparted to you by that worldly expert. If you spread it, it may not be in line with that expert's mind."

Fang Lingxiao waved his hand and rejected Fang Yue's proposal. Immediately, he lowered his head and looked at Liu Zhengyi who was in a coma on the ground.

"What's the matter with him?"

Fang Yue saw Liu Zhengyi, who was foaming at his mouth and pulling out his limbs, holding his forehead with his hand, and he didn't know how to describe this second person.

He recounted the previous events carefully.

There was a different kind of light in Fang Lingxiao's eyes.

"For love, courage is commendable! But the disciples who broke into our Fang family mansion and assassinated Fang family must be severely punished!"

Praiseworthy? Praise!

Fang Yue was very dissatisfied with his brother's attitude. Everyone has killed your brother's door, and you are still courageous. He suspected that his brother was fake.

"However, this Liu Zhengyi has done too much, but he can't kill. If I didn't expect it to be wrong, he should be a disciple of the Liu family of Xicheng giant Jia."

"The house of Liu Jia, the Great West City?"

Fang Yue immediately cheered up when he heard these six words. There was a bright light in a pair of eyes.

Xicheng is a big city in Yan Kingdom. Only the richest man in the city can be called a giant! This world is the same no matter which world you cross into.

The rich and powerful are not easy to provoke. The Liu family in Xicheng was not only wealthy, but also quite powerful in the Yan Dynasty. Nowadays, the most favored concubine Hua in the Palace of the Kingdom of Yan is from the Liu family in Xicheng, and there is also a general Liu Wanda who is also a member of the Liu family. There are even more rumors that three years ago, the Liu family used their endless wealth and resources to produce a young genius, Liu Kang, who was valued by a family of immortals and was taken as a disciple!

However, Liu Zhengyi went to the Fang family and attacked a direct disciple, even if the Liu family behind him was more powerful. Fang Yue couldn't let him go easily either. As soon as this opening was opened, who would look at him and the Fang family behind him in the future.

In order not to completely annoy the Liu family, although this matter will not be splashed in all directions, in front of the corpse mansion, the Liu family still needs to bear a small compensation!

"What is it? Three hundred spirit stones let us redeem people, is this Fang family going crazy?"

In the Liu's house in Xicheng, a harrier carrying a letter fell to the gate of the mansion early in the morning, with a pink note tied to his slender calf.

Liu Wanguan, the head of the Liu family, was the first person to see the note. He was furious and started shooting the crime. A thousand-year-old wooden table was shaken with countless lines by his palm.
