while Arjun was lying down, keeping his head on Janaki's lap.

Harinath and Revathi are in their room, and Nagamani is pacing in her room thinking of how to create a dispute in the family. Janaki was caressing Arjun's hair, and both the mother and son were engrossed in their talk. Jai was chatting with his daughter on his mobile and was talking to them in between. Just then, his mobile started to ring. Jai answered the call and asked 'Hello, kanna? How are you?" "I'm fine, Mavayya. How is everyone at home?" asked Diya. "We are fine, kanna. Was your duty finished?" asked Jai.

"I just came to the room. What is Attayya doing?" asked Diya. "Your MIL and your dear husband are busy in their world," Jai said, looking at the mother-son duo.

"Didn't I tell you, Amma? Your husband is jealous of me as you love me more," Arjun said, pouting

"Oy, du er! My Janu loves me more than you," Jai said, glaring at said,"Oy, potti (shorty)! Stop complaining about me to my father." "How many times do I have to tell you not to call me Potti?" Diya said, angrily. Arjun smiled mischievously and said, Okay, shorty!" Jai hit Arjun's head as he was teasing Diya.

This time, Janaki slapped him on his shoulder and said you are saying as if you eat less." Diya laughed, listening to her, and asked What are Nanamma and Diya's cheeks turned pink listening to them.

Thathayya doing?"

"Haa, Mavayya. I'll talk to you guys later. I'm getting another call," saying that Diya cut the call. Jai and Janaki laughed, listening to her. "So, Ajju, tell me, aren't you missing her?" asked Janaki.

"Then why did you send her to the camp?" asked Jai. "I want her to have her alone time. Our marriage happened in a rush, and we didn't get time for ourselves. I know, we were engaged and "Well, I had feelings for her for a long time, but I didn't understand how to express them to her. Moreover, she had some dreams about her career. So, I didn't want to disturb her studies. I used to admire her from a distance. She, Sarika, and Anitha stayed in the hostel while they were pursuing MBBS. Like every time, she came home during holidays. She was in her final year when her aunt came to our home and told us that she wanted Janaki as her daughter-in-law. I felt as if my heart that no one should agree to the alliance, and the same thing said Jai. "What happened a er that? Amma, what did you feel a er reading that letter?" asked Arjun. "I was totally shocked a er reading that letter. I was in a dilemma for a few days. I didn't understand what to reply. When I told Anu and Sarika about that, they told me to say what my heart felt. A er one month, I wrote a letter to him saying that I was ready to become Mrs. Janaki Jai Ram. To be frank, the main reason I accepted him was so that I could be with my family. Because a er the death of my parents, my whole world revolved around my family and studies. A er that, we started writing letters to each other frequently. I didn't even realise when I fell in love with him. It just takes a second to fall in love and tell them that you love them, but it takes a lifetime to show them how much you love them. You don't need to win battles, or give them costly gi s, or show o in front of everyone. Just shower the person you love with your love and care. ' 'Trust them, respect them, and be their support. Never leave their hand. Hold it tight and stand with them through their ups and downs. Ram understood my insecurities, my emotions, and my dreams. He trusted my decisions and corrected me when I was wrong. He is the biggest support in my life. That day, I

"You made me cry, Amma. Okay, tell me what happened a er that,"

Even Arjun got emotional. He looked at them with adoration.

"Me and your mother went to my peddamma one fine day and told her we love each other and want to marry," said Jai. "Why did you tell Savitri Nanamma? I mean, why didn't you tell your mother?" asked Arjun. "If she agrees, then everyone will agree. She is the soul of our family, and everyone respects her a lot. And she is a so person, unlike my mother. I'm not saying that my mother is Hitler; it's just that she is a tough nut to crack. So, we are close to Savitri peddamma," said Jai. "So, what happened next?" asked Arjun. "She took a promise from me that I would keep Janu happy. Later, she talked with everyone in the family. We got married a er her final year," said Jai. "I won't say that our life is a fairytale. In the 28 years of our married life, we have fought many times. We lost precious people in our lives. We have seen many ups and downs but never thought to give up on each other. And you and Aru are the best things that happened in our lives. There is magic in love, Arjun, and you will know the magic of it when you fall in love with the right person. And I think you will

So, I decided to tell her my feelings. Whether she accepts my proposal or not, I want to tell her my feelings. I didn't want to regret later thinking that I should have told her about my feelings. So, I penned down all my feelings in a letter and gave it to her while she was going back to her hostel,"

I know it's di icult for you to move on a er what happened in the past, but you have to move on, Arjun. You can't be stuck over there for your whole life. You have a bright future, Ajju. Don't spoil it by nagging over your past. Are you understanding what I'm trying to say?" said Jai. Arjun gave him a small smile and nodded his head.

Arjun rolled his eyes and said"I need to attend a meeting. Of course, "Are you guys coming or not? I'll sleep alone, leaving you both," shouted Janaki.
