

Little Brat's 611

Chapter 611: Wishing Her a Carefree Life

Ning Li was stunned for a moment.

This seemed to be... someone's nickname?

She suddenly thought of the rainbow lollipop that Shen Zhijin had packed in a glass gift box on the eve of the Mid-Autumn Festival, and the candy that was piled up in the glove compartment of his car.

For so long, she had gotten the impression that Shen Zhijin had always been a loner.

His daily life was very regular, but it was extremely monotonous and boring.

He did not even participate in informal gatherings.

But now, he had specially asked for a TO sign for this "Candy".

Her eyes curved in a smile.

"Okay. I'll get Mian to sign it and bring it over."

As she said this, she thought of something and asked, "So... Teacher Shen, have you any specific blessing in mind? You can specify this too."

Shen Zhijin was stunned.

She did not know if it was an illusion, but for a moment, Ning Li actually saw a bit of bewilderment in Shen Zhijin's eyes.

However, very quickly, this expression silently disappeared.

Shen Zhijin's eyelids drooped slightly, as if he was seriously thinking about this question.

After a moment, he looked up.

"Thope she has no worries in her life."6

He said.

Ning Li sorted out all the notes and sent them to Lin Fengmian.

Lin Fengmian quickly replied, "Okay."

He had almost recovered from his injury recently, and the company had only arranged a small amount of work for the sake of his health and well-being.

On one hand, he had already gotten a lot of exposure. However, after going through many ups and downs, his fans were now very solid.

On the other hand, he had been preparing for a concert recently, so most of his energy had been spent on that.

Looking at the whole entertainment industry, there were only a handful of people who had ever been able to hold a concert less than a year after they made their debut.

Recently, the company had been preparing to build momentum, so he was also adjusting his state of mind.

Ning Li did not tell him about any of the bad things that had happened. All she told him was to prepare well for the concert.

The results of Mei Yang's biopsy came out very quickly. Fortunately, it was benign. Also, because it had been discovered early, there was a higher hope for the treatment to work.

Ning Li heaved a sigh of relief in her heart.

Mei Yanging was quite open-minded about being sick. There was only one thing: he liked to eat all kinds of delicious food. Now that he had this disease, he had lost one great pleasure.

Yu Pingchuan had accompanied him through all the hospitalization procedures.

The news of Mei Yan being hospitalized soon reached the Lu family.

“Stomach cancer?”

Lu Huaiyu and Old Master Lu were having breakfast together at the dining table. When they heard this news, they stopped what they were doing.

Old Master Lu let out a long sigh.

“It was found in his last medical checkup. Fortunately, it was discovered early.”

Lu Huaiyu’s expression froze slightly.

“Old Master Mei’s body has always been very strong...”

“That’s right! When he scolded me a while ago, he was still full of spirit! Who would have thought...” Old Master Lu said as he shook his head. “I’ll go to the hospital to see him later.”

Lu Huaiyu nodded.

“Should I accompany you?”

“No need.”

Old Master Lu simply refused.

“He is most impatient with such things. He might not be happy if you go and he might even cause trouble.”

He knew Mei Yanging’s personality the best.

That person was most impatient with dealing with human relationships.

“With this illness of his, who knows how many people will be rushing to see him? I’m afraid it will annoy him to death.”

Lu Huaiyu smiled.

“The chairman of the National Arts Association, the founder of the Qing School, the oil painting pioneer who has influenced more than half of the artists in the local arts scene... Old Mei is highly respected, so it’s no wonder that everyone is being like this.”

Old Master Lu snorted coldly.

“It’s more like he has scolded more than half of the local arts scene! His mouth has offended countless people!

“You know very well that many people would be glad for Elder Mei to scold them, but they are not that lucky.”

“Only you~”

Old Master Lu stopped mid-sentence and suddenly stopped. He looked Lu Huaiyu up and down suspiciously.

“Huaiyu, you seem to be a little off lately. Are you the grandson of me, Lu Qishan, or the grandson of Mei Yanging?”

Lu Huaiyu had always been very respectful of Mei Yangting, but he had never been like this...

Anyway, Old Master Lu was starting to doubt his life.

Lu Huaiyu leaned back and a faint helpless smile flashed across his lips.

"To tell you the truth, Elder Mei has a painting that I've long been interested in. I was going to ask for it and hope that Elder Mei would be willing to part with it. I didn't expect that Elder Mei to be sick."

Under such circumstances, it would definitely not be suitable to ask for a painting.

Old Master Lu finally understood.

"Forget it, let's just wait until he recovers first."

Lu Huaiyu nodded.

That evening, Ning Li and He Xiaochen made an appointment to eat hotpot together.

1

He Xiaochen held the menu in her hands, feeling very conflicted. After a long time, she only ordered a few vegetarian dishes.

Ning Li looked at her in surprise.

"Xiaochen, don't you have a good appetite?"

He Xiaochen shook her head in grief.

"No, it's just that I've been trying to lose weight recently."

Ning Li looked at her.

"I thought that word had nothing to do with you."

It was very cruel to make a foodie lose weight.

"Then I'll just order for myself?"

As Ning Li said this, she ordered the tripe, shrimp paste, and fatty beef.

He Xiaochen's eyes were wide open.

"Ning Li, don't tempt me like that! I can't take it!"

Ning Li, "Oh, and add another portion of duck intestines."

He Xiaochen, "!!!"

She covered her mouth sadly.

"My brother will be having a concert soon, I need to lose weight quickly so that I'll look pretty when I go!"

Ning Li, "... I thank you on Mian's behalf."

He Xiaochen, "Woo!"

"Forget it, I don't want to see it! I just won't look!" He Xiaochen said as she picked up her phone in a bid to divert her attention.

Suddenly, she exclaimed.

Ning Li looked up.

"What's wrong?"

He Xiaochen excitedly handed over her phone with a look of shock on her face.

"Xu Yini has been exposed as a diva! She's already on the trending searches!"

2

Chapter 612: Someone Wants to Mess With You

Ning Li took the phone.

The one who had revealed the news was an entertainment account with six million fans.

[ Eight circles of entertainment: It seems that Xu Yini acted like a diva on set and threw a bowl of porridge directly onto her assistant's face! Her persona as an innocent and gentle young lady has collapsed! ]

There was a video attached below. It had been taken from quite far away from a bird's eye view.

However, the clarity was pretty good and one could see the facial features of the person in the video.

It looked like the set of a certain film production. Xu Yini seemed to have just finished filming a scene and was resting on a recliner.

Aman could be seen holding a sunshade for her as she looked down at her phone.

A young girl who seemed to be Xu Yini's little assistant, then walked over with a bag in her hand.

She squatted down beside Xu Yini and took the lunch box out of the bag before handing it over to Xu Yini.

Xu Yini seemed to be in a bad mood. She put away her phone impatiently and took the lunch box.

After taking a sip, she stood up abruptly.

Her voice could not be heard clearly, but it was not hard to see that she was particularly angry at this moment.

Then, she threw the bowl of pumpkin porridge at the little assistant.

The boiling hot porridge immediately splashed all over the little assistant's face and head!

She was caught off guard and cried out in surprise. She had been scalded so badly that she had taken a few steps back, looking extremely miserable.

However, she could not care about herself. Instead, she was extremely flustered and repeatedly bowed as she apologized to Xu Yini.

Xu Yini did not seem to be appeased. She raised her hand and pointed at the little assistant, as if she was scolding her.

This movement attracted the attention of the people who were around. A few of the staff members who were standing at the side all looked over.

However, they merely looked over, and none of them went forward to intervene.

After about a minute, a middle-aged man who looked like the director walked over and gently tried to cajole her for a while.

Only then did Xu Yini restrain herself a little. However, just as she turned around, she turned around to point at the little assistant and said something.

The man who looked like the director also nodded repeatedly at the side. The expression on his face was apologetic, with a faint hint of fawning.

Only then did Xu Yini let it go and returned to her recliner.

All throughout, the little assistant had been hunched over without daring to retort.

Only when Xu Yini sat down did she leave in fear.

After walking some distance away, she took out a piece of toilet paper and wiped the porridge off her head and face, bit by bit.

'The camera was quite far away, and since only her back was showing, only her slightly trembling shoulders could be seen.

Finally, after discreetly wiping up her face, she turned around, and left.

This appeared to be the end initially, but the little assistant unexpectedly came back with another serving of porridge.

She had not changed her clothes nor even washed her hair and face. She had merely given herself a simple wipe.

Everyone could tell that after she had been scolded by Xu Yini, she had immediately gone to buy a second serving.

However, Xu Yini was still not satisfied this time. She only opened the lid to take a look before ignoring it.

The little assistant lowered her head to apologize and went to buy a third serving.

Ultimately, she ran back and forth six times in a row.

By the time she returned for the last time, the sky was already a little dark.

Xu Yini still had not eaten any of the porridge. She got up to shoot the last scene and returned to her trailer.

The little assistant quickly followed her as she helped her to carry her bag.

The only thing left on the set were several bowls of porridge that had not been touched by anyone.

The moment the video was released, it had immediately caused a huge uproar!

Ever since Xu Yini had made her debut, she had always presented herself as pure and innocent. Bestowed the title of “First Love of the Nation”, she had attracted a large number of fans.

Later on, someone had revealed that she came from an extremely good background, which had led to the persona of a “True Daughter of a Good Family’.

‘The daughter of a prestigious family, with her own resources. She was truly a fair, rich, and beautiful woman, a flower of wealth in the world.

Even her fans felt as if they had become noble as well.

Now, such a sudden revelation had surfaced, and it was an irrefutable fact!

The comments section immediately exploded.

{ I can't believe it! Is this really Xu Yini? }

[ OMG, this rich miss is so spoiled?! This has really opened my eyes! ]

[ Where are Miss Xu's fans? Quickly come forward and show yourself. Is this really your master? ]

[ 'm dying of laughter. Even a passerby could tell that she didn't run away! ]

[ This is so disappointing! That little assistant looked like she's only in her early twenties, right? I wonder how her parents felt when they saw her being bullied like this? I always thought that Xu Yini was gentle and generous, but I didn't expect... Since then, her fans have turned against her!"

The criticism came from all directions.

In the middle, there were only sporadic rebuttals and explanations from Xu Yini's fans.

[ It's just a edited video. The full picture is not known, so no comment! ]

However, such words only made any passersby feel even more disgusted.

[Is the person above Xu Yini's fan? Can you bring your brain with you? The video can indeed be edited, but if this person didn't actually do such things, how could it have been edited? ]

[ Exactly. Was someone grabbing Xu Yini's neck and forcing her throw it at the girl's face? ]

[ She's really a fan who goes with the flow! Xu Yini is arrogant and unruly, and her fans are all blind! ]

At first, Xu Yini's fans tried to control the comments, but as the longer the incident fermented, they gradually lost their ability to do so.

After all, this video had been recorded very clearly!

However, during this period of time, there were also rumors that she had offended someone, which had caused her resources to decline.

However, since there had almost never been any negative news about Xu Yini before, most people had a good impression of her.

‘The company had released news saying that her exposure had decreased recently because she had been concentrating on filming.

The fans had been greatly comforted and more or less believed it.

They did not expect that after such a long time, Xu Yini would be trending again because of this!

Huanxing Entertainment, waiting room.

Xu Yini sat on the sofa, the hand that was holding her phone was trembling slightly.

Mei Li rushed over with an anxious expression.

“yini! What happened to the news?”

“Bang!”

Xu Yini threw her phone on the floor.

“How would I know?!”

She suddenly raised her head.

“Didn’t you say before that the news was being kept under lock and key? How did it get out today?”

Mei Li was also having a headache.

She held her forehead with one hand and suppressed the anger in her heart.

“That day when you lost your temper on the set, many people knew about it. It took me a lot of effort to get them to agree to keep quiet about it. But this— this was filmed by the paparazzi!”

No matter how capable she was, how could she have predicted that this scene would actually be filmed by someone?!

Xu Yini came from a rich family, so her temper was indeed a little arrogant and willful.

At the beginning, it had been fine. She only gave people a hard time, but she would not really do anything.

However, for some reason, her temper had become worse and worse over the past few months. As time went on, it had become more and more serious.

This video clip was the only time she had actually made a move.

This one time, however, was enough to destroy her reputation!

Mei Li frowned and looked at Xu Yini.

“Yini, this time it’s obvious that someone wants to mess with you!”

However, with Xu Yini’s background, who would dare to do that?

Chapter 613: Dreams

This was also the problem that Xu Yini was thinking about.

Her chest was heaving up and down, and her lips were tightly pursed.

There were many dirty things within the entertainment circle, and very few people truly did not have any dirt at all. It all depended on whether it was exposed or not.

For Xu Yini, with backing from the Xu family, very few people dared to offend her, and her path to stardom had been smooth.

She could easily obtain resources that other people could not even fight over.

The big shots that other people needed to smile, drink, and curry favor with had all been dwarfed by her, and they had to behave politely to her.

Even if something was captured on camera, the media would not dare to offend the Xu family easily, and they would keep it under wraps.

Who knew—

Mei Li's expression was not good.

"Before this company exposed the news, they didn't contact our people."

Naturally, Xu Yini understood what she meant.

A big part of the paparazzi's income was to use all sorts of dirt that they had captured to blackmail the artistes.

If the price was settled, the news would not be leaked.

If it was not settled, then they would fight to the death.

This time, however, they had not informed them in advance. Instead, the news had directly been released.

There was no other possibility other than that someone was intentionally targeting them.

“Could it be that a few of your rivals have joined forces? For example, Zhang Zitong...” Mei Li said before shaking her head. “That doesn’t make sense. They would not be so bold, right?”

There were many people who could not stand Xu Yini, especially other starlets, who were in competition with her.

‘Whether openly or secretly, there was no shortage of rivals.

However, this time it was different.

It was obvious that someone wanted to completely ruin Xu Yini’s career as a star!

Acting like a diva was actually very common in this circle. Honestly speaking, it was not a heinous crime.

However, the key was that this person was Xu Yini.

‘With how well her reputation had been established and how many fans she had gained, the collapse of her image this time would cause her to face double the backlash!

Suddenly, Xu Yini’s heart skipped a beat.

She was being attacked so decisively and ruthlessly, not leaving her any way out...

Other than Lu Huaiyu, who else could it be?!

'As soon as this thought surfaced, her heart instantly turned cold.

Her strength seemed to drain away from her body as she slumped on the sofa.

If it really was Lu Huaiyu... If it really was Lu Huaiyu!

Mei Li opened Weibo again.

Within a short period of time, the hashtag #Xu Yini acting like a diva# had already risen to the top of the trending searches.

And because the content of the video was too explosive, the response was extremely great, and its popularity was still rising.

She walked to the side and began to make a call.

"Hello? Director Zhang? Hello, this is Mei Li..."

The person on the other end quickly hung up.

Mei Li gritted her teeth and switched to someone else.

However, even after making a few calls, she still could not find a solution.

The other party's attitude was either to avoid or to directly refuse, saying that they could not help.

Mei Li gradually realized something.

Finally, she turned around and saw Xu Yini sitting there stiffly, the expression on her face...

Her lips moved.

“Yini, this time it’s...”

Xu Yini’s answer was actually not important anymore.

Given the current situation, how could she not guess it?

The room was dead silent.

After a long while, Mei Li could not help but say, “Yini, I told you a long time ago that you should restrain your temper. How are you going to deal with the situation now?!”

Xu Yini dug her fingernails into the palms of her hands.

She suddenly stood up.

“L really would not have thought that Xu Yini had such a bad temper...”

He Xiaochen muttered with a shocked expression on her face.

“She actually threw the porridge onto her face! That little assistant ran back and forth so many times, yet she was still not satisfied? Isn’t this deliberate torture?”

Ning Li returned her phone to her and began to serve the dishes.

“Should I put the meat roll in the spicy pot or the tomato pot?”

He Xiaochen subconsciously said, "Tomato!"

Ning Li nodded and helped her put half of it in the pot.

He Xiaochen was still lost in her thoughts.

"I didn't like her before and always felt that she was a little pretentious, but I didn't expect her to be such a person. This kind of rich young miss has everything, so why is she still so angry? It's not easy for that little assistant to earn money..."

Ning Li took a bite of the meat.

He Xiaochen caught a glimpse of it and quickly said, "Save some for me! I'll eat it with ketchup!"

Ning Li left the last few pieces for her and handed them to her.

He Xiaochen ate it while muttering, "Sigh, this kind of person with a rich background is always more powerful. Little Brother doesn't have a backer, so it must be hard for him..."

Ning Li paused and said, "He has always reported the good news to me, but not bad news."

During his two years abroad, although she had sent him money every month, he had never been willing to spend more.

The life of a trainee was hard to begin with, and he had always worked harder than others. It was not hard to imagine how much suffering he had endured.

When He Xiaochen heard this, her movements slowed down, and a hint of heartache appeared on her face. Even the hotpot did not seem as fragrant as before.

The corners of Ning Li's lips curved slightly.

"Don't worry. Isn't he doing quite well now? This concert has always been his dream."

One step closer to that goal meant more hope and joy.

This was good.

He Xiaochen was quiet for a while before she asked hesitantly, "Then... What about you? Ning Li, don't you have any dreams?"

Lin Fengmian had been through a lot, and so had she, right?

She cared about whether Lin Fengmian's dream would come true, but was there anyone who cared about what was in her heart?

Ning Li was stunned for a moment before shaking her head.

"No."

Once upon a time, there might have been. However, she came to understand that some things could not be forced.

1

He Xiaochen replied with an "Oh", feeling a little disappointed.

Ning Li asked, "Is the meat roll delicious?"

"Delicious—"

He Xiaochen was shocked and let out a scream.

"Ah! When did I eat so much?!"

After a moment of silence, she picked up her chopsticks.

“Forget it, I’m going to eat it all! I’ll just eat less tomorrow!”

Chapter 614: Kill

On the Internet, Xu Yini’s diva behavior continued to be a hot topic.

Countless people flooded Xu Yini’s Weibo, demanding an explanation from her.

However, even though an hour had passed, Xu Yini and the agency managing her had yet to respond.

Of course, there was no way they were not aware that the matter had become so big.

Hence, this silence made it seem like they were even more guilty.

[ From the ‘Second Love Letter’ fans to you, we have followed all of the variety shows that you participated in, and all the films and TV series that you filmed. We also purchased the products that you endorsed and supported you as much as possible. I did not expect to have misjudged you. It will be so hard to step back, but we’ll never follow you again. ]

[ Before becoming an artiste, you have to be a human being first. ]

[ I’m so disappointed. Goodbye. ]

[ I really don’t know how I was blind enough to fall in love with you back then. This young miss has experienced hardships in the entertainment industry, so she should return home as soon as possible to inherit the family fortune! Don’t come out and cause trouble again. ]

It was not a rumor, and neither was it false.

Everything had been clear in the video. It was impossible to refute it.

At first, Mei Li's plan had been to pull the trending topic and forcefully suppress the matter.

However, Weibo had not cooperated, so they could only watch as the matter had gotten bigger and bigger.

In addition, other than Weibo, other media platforms had also pushed the headlines at the same time as if it had been discussed beforehand.

Within an extremely short period of time, this matter had already exploded.

"Yini, you need to send an apology letter."

After going back and forth a few times, they had still been unable to control the development of the matter. Mei Li and the entire public relations department of Huanxing Entertainment were exhausted, so this was the only plan they could come up with.

Of course, Xu Yini was unwilling.

In reality, it had always been others who would bow to her. When had she ever lowered her head to others?

She tried calling Lu Huaiyu, but of course, she could not get through.

1

Also, after seeing the news, many of the brands that she had been collaborating with had begun to discuss the termination of their contracts with her.

Since she was the party at fault, not only would the contracts be terminated, but she also faced having to pay a large amount of compensation.

Of course, Xu Yini could afford to pay the compensation.

However, the point was that if her reputation was tarnished, it would be really difficult for her to survive in this industry.

Mei Li tried all kinds of persuasion before finally convincing Xu Yini to send an apology letter more than two hours after the incident had been exposed.

[ Xu Yini: Hello, I'm Xu Yini. Something happened to me a while ago, which caused me to be in a bad state of mind. It was my fault for not controlling myself and venting my negative emotions onto the staff. After I had gone home that day, I regretted my actions. I apologized to her and received her forgiveness. But I didn't expect that after a few months, the incident would be exposed again, causing her to be hurt a second time. Therefore, I solemnly apologize again. I'm sorry. Finally, I also hope that this matter ends here. I don't want to implicate innocent people anymore. Thank you, everyone. ]

Once the apology letter had been sent out, it immediately caused waves again.

Xu Yini's fans quickly rushed over to control the scene. The hottest comments at the top were all positive comments.

[ So that's what happened. Hugs to you, Yini! ]

[ Did something happen to Yini? I'm so worried. ]

[ Everyone makes mistakes. Yini has already apologized. The little assistant sister has also forgiven Yini, so let's move on from this matter! ]

{ Qingin has been with Yini for a long time. If Yini really didn't treat her well, she would have left her job long ago! No matter what, I hope Yini will always be happy! }

This apology letter was written with some standards.

It was just a few lines of words, making a big deal out of a small matter.

On one hand, it implied that Xu Yini had encountered some troubles, which was why she had suddenly exploded emotionally. On the other hand, it emphasized that she had gone back to apologize to her little assistant and had already obtained the other party's forgiveness.

The person involved had already let it go, so why were the others still filled with righteous indignation?

[ I believe that Xu Yini really didn't mean it that day, and I also believe that she truly realized her mistake. The last time we went to see her, she invited us to drink milk tea and even advised us to go back early, saying that it wasn't safe for a young girl to be outside when it was dark. How could such a gentle person be bad? ]

This comment was pushed to the top of Xu Yini's Weibo post apology.

There were more than 3,000 comments below. Basically, all of them were from fans who were embracing and encouraging each other.

They still stood firmly on Xu Yini's side.

The netizens were furious.

With such a light touch, the direction of the wind had quickly reversed.

Although there were still many people who thought that Xu Yini had gone too far that day, the apology had worked to win back a portion of the people's hearts.

The public's opinion about Xu Yini had finally turned for the better.

Mei Li and the others finally heaved a sigh of relief.

If they humbled themselves and admitted their mistakes, those people would no longer be able to stand on the moral high ground to suppress Xu Yini.

If they waited a little longer, this matter would naturally be resolved.

However, just as they thought that this hurdle could finally be overcome, another wave arose.

Just half an hour after Xu Yini's apology letter had been released, the blogger who had first exposed her acting like a diva once again released the news.

[ Entertainment Circle: Surely no one would really believe Xu Yini's apology letter, right? ]? Miss Xu's temper is well-known in the entertainment circle. Before you try to clean up her mess, could you please listen to these two recordings? If anyone is able to continue being a fan of Xu Yini after listening to them, I will only be able to say that I'm impressed. Ultimately, it's still Miss Xu's fans who will suffer. ]

'There were two audio recordings.

'The first was a conversation between Xu Yini and a makeup artist backstage at Capital Television's New Year's Eve concert.

At the beginning of the recording, there was a warm and unfamiliar female voice asking Xu Yini which lipstick number she preferred. Xu Yini impatiently picked a wild strawberry color.

The makeup artist continued.

"Alright, then you might need to change your makeup a little. We can use these two for eye shadow and blush. What do you think, Yini?"

This question was very normal.

However, in the next moment, Xu Yini suddenly raised her voice.

"Are you the makeup artist or am I the makeup artist? If you want to ask me about something like this, what do I need you for?!"

Silence.

After a moment, the makeup artist was at a loss and apologized.

“... ‘m sorry...”

The stool was kicked over and the makeup artist seemed to groan in pain.

Following that, Xu Yini scolded the person in a bossy manner.

“You’re the one who didn’t do your job well. What’s that face for?”

‘The makeup artist apologized again, but Xu Yini was clearly ungrateful.

“If you can’t do the job, then get out now! There are plenty of people who can replace you!”

‘The second segment was rather noisy. One could vaguely hear the enthusiastic screams of the fans, shouting Xu Yini’s name.

A young female voice said earnestly, “Yini, these are the letters and gifts that the fans just sent over...”

“There’s no need to give them to me. Just throw them away later.”

Xu Yini’s voice sounded exceptionally clear, and the tone of irritation and disdain in it was also clearly displayed.

“It’s always like this every day. It’s so annoying!”

She said..

Chapter 615: Embarrassing

If the first recording could be explained as Xu Yini being a little self-willed in private, then the second recording could not be washed clean, no matter what.

Any artiste who said such words would be cutting off their own path.

This was not just her behaving like a diva, in fact, she simply did not value her fans at all.

This was the real deal— a fatal blow!

‘When the two audio clips appeared, everyone was stunned.

[ This is Xu Yini’s voice, right? Did I mishear her? What did she say? ]

[I can’t believe it... Her fans are wholeheartedly devoted to her, yet she actually said such a thing? Xu Yini, you really don’t have a heart! ]

[ I vomited. Look at the apology Weibo she just posted. The top comments were from her fans who strongly supported her! I thought she really cared about her fans. I didn’t expect her to be like this in private! ]

{ Annoying? Annoying? Xu Yini, is this how you want to destroy the hearts of your fans? ! }

[ Hilarious. To think that her fans were still frantically trying to smooth things over for her. In the end, not only did she not appreciate their kindness, she’s even annoyed to death by them! Please, fans, come and listen carefully! You are nothing to your master! ]

This time, Xu Yini’s fans finally stopped coming to control the comments.

Instead, many of them were shocked, disappointed, and heartbroken.

No matter what mistakes an artiste had committed, there would always be fans with a thick filter who would choose to forgive her.

But what if— she did not value her fans at all?

All the love and favoritism seemed to have become a joke at this moment.

This Weibo post quickly became a hot topic. In just a short 20 minutes, the number of reposts had exceeded 100,000.

Compared to the video of her acting like a diva, these two audio clips had caused even more waves.

Fans were like the artistes' city. Now that Xu Yini had destroyed her own city walls, who was there to blame?

Of course, not everyone immediately accepted this matter.

Xu Yini's big fan, "Yini Dream", posted on Weibo, questioning whether the two audio clips had been maliciously edited.

However, not long after that had been posted, some big shots in the Tech Zone posted an analysis post, confirming that the two clips had no traces of editing and that they had indeed happened.

~~ In other words, Xu Yini had indeed said those words.

Immediately, "Yini Dream" deleted her blog and at the same time, blacked out her profile picture.

Immediately after that, "Xu Yini's Global Fan Club" announced that they were no longer fans of Xu Yini, and blacklisted her profile picture.

After that, Xu Yini's eleven posts announced that they were closed, one after another.

No longer a fan of Xu Yini #

Soon after, she became a trending topic.

Countless fans and passersby rushed to Xu Yini's Weibo.

'When compared to the two audio clips, her Weibo post seemed especially ironic.

The comment that had been pushed to trending one had been deleted at some point.

The other hot comments that were originally used to control and support Xu Yini were gradually replaced by other normal comments.

Doubt, abuse, resentment, disappointment...

Like a flood, it easily swallowed Xu Yini!

At this point, the public relations department could do nothing to save the situation.

There was no movement on Xu Yini's Weibo. Only the ever-increasing number of comments showed the anger of countless fans.

In the beginning, they had been very protective of her. After hearing the audio, they had been very angry with her.

Everything had come to a dead end.

That night, Xu Yini returned to the Xu family.

Xu Yini's parents had already found out about what had happened online. They were both angry and distressed over Xu Yini.

They were angry that she had been so careless when she was doing things outside. She had actually left behind such a big piece of evidence.

What was distressing were the endless curses and insults that were enough to cover the sky and the earth. They were like knives that fell upon Xu Yini's body.

Even though they knew that Xu Yini's actions were wrong, she was still their only daughter after all. How could they not feel terrible seeing her being scolded like this?

Xu Yini also felt as if she had been wronged and her eyes were red from crying.

She had always been successful since she was young. Everyone had praised her, so she had grown up extremely prideful.

This time, in order to quell the scandal of her acting like a diva, she had reluctantly posted the apology on Weibo.

Who knew that after that, there would be two audio clips, which would cause the whole situation to begin deviating from its track.

Those people were scolding her too harshly. She had only seen a part of it, yet even that caused her temples to throb, and her heart felt extremely uncomfortable.

Father Xu looked at her with tightly knitted brows.

"Enough, don't cry anymore. Since things have already come to this, from now on, you can retire from the entertainment industry!"

1

Xu Yini raised her head in shock.

"Dad, what did you say?!"

Father Xu's expression was ugly.

"In the past, when you said you wanted to enter the entertainment industry, your mother and I didn't quite agree. In the end, we couldn't persuade you to change your mind, so we agreed to it. Now, things have ended up like this! Do you think that you still have a chance to continue staying in the entertainment industry?!"

'With the Xu family's background, it would not be impossible for them to continue supporting Xu Yini. After all, she had not made a mistake of principles.

However... it was meaningless.

Just based on the last two sentences that she had said, who else would be willing to be her fan?

Wouldn't that be looking for trouble for no reason?!

Xu Yini bit her lip.

"But--"

But, she was not willing to accept this!

As if she could see through her thoughts, Mother Xu quickly followed suit to dissuade her.

"Yini, this time, Mother agrees with your father's suggestion. There's really nothing particularly great about being a celebrity. Besides, you're old enough to familiarize yourself with the family--"

"But I'm not interested in those things!" Xu Yini interrupted her, "Didn't you and father agree previously that you would always support me?"

Father Xu was so angry that he laughed in exasperation.

"Support you for what? For you to continue to embarrass yourself and the Xu Family?!"

He pointed at Xu Yini and said in a stern voice that she had never been heard before.

“I’m not asking for your opinion! You’d better take care of all these messy matters immediately! The Xu family can not afford to lose face!”

Chapter 616: Congratulations

At noon the next day, Huanxing Entertainment officially announced that it had terminated its contract with Xu Yini.

At the same time, Xu Yini had withdrawn from the filming of “The Palace Wall.” Several brands also announced that they had terminated their cooperation with Xu Yini.

Xu Yini cleared her Weibo account and officially withdrew from the industry.

On the Internet, many things about Xu Yini were causing a stir.

One could even hear quite a few people discussing it as they walked around the campus.

It took a few days before it gradually calmed down.

That afternoon, Yan Qiu sent a message to all the members in the small chat group.

[ Are you all free tonight? Let’s have a meal at Red Cotton BBQ? It’s my treat! ]

Fu Niannian replied instantly.

{ Tsk, it’s rare for Eldest Senior Brother to treat us. Of course, I’m free! }

Tang Yi immediately sent a shocked emoji.

[ This place isn’t cheap. Why is Eldest Senior Brother being so generous? ]

Yan Qiu's smugness almost overflowed the screen.

[ After publishing two papers, your Eldest Senior Brother will soon have a small amount of money! ]

Upon further questioning, he revealed that he had submitted two papers at the same time this month, and they were both core journals with extremely high impact factors.

Just these two papers alone were enough to crush many professors from the top universities in the country.

Not to mention, he was only a third-year Ph.D. student this year.

After all, he was being mentored by Shen Zhijin, and his professional standards were extremely high.

Fu Niannian and Tang Yi were envious, and Ning Li followed up with a congratulatory sentence.

'When Yan Qiu saw that she had agreed to go as well, he was very happy.

{ Then our lab group is complete! Don't stand on ceremony tonight, just order to your heart's content, even if it's expensive! }

Ning Li typed a few words in the dialog box before deleting it.

It was perfectly normal for Yan Qiu to celebrate after such good results.

However, he had not invited Shen Zhijin.

Of course, it was not that he was unwilling to do so. It was just that Shen Zhijin never attended such gatherings.

Ning Li had originally wanted to ask, but then she remembered that Yan Qiu had mentioned this matter a few times before. She thought about it for a moment before letting it go.

1

She sent one last sentence.

[ Okay, thank you, Senior Brother. ]

The Red Cotton BBQ was quite a distance from Xijing University, on an extremely prosperous commercial street. The small group took a taxi there.

Just as Fu Niannian had said, the prices at the Red Cotton BBQ were not low.

This could be seen from its location and decor.

‘There were many tall buildings around, with flashing neon lights. The atmosphere was extremely lively.

They entered a tall building and walked towards the elevator.

“Junior Sister, have you not eaten at this barbecue restaurant before? Let me tell you, the taste is really superb!”

‘Tang Yi spoke about this restaurant as if it was some kind of family treasure.

Ning Li was listening to him speak when a burst of noise suddenly came from behind.

She turned around and saw a few men walking in.

They looked to be in their thirties or forties, and they were accompanied by a few young and beautiful women.

It was already autumn, and the nights in the Capital were still quite cold. However, these women were all dressed in very light clothing as they stood beside the few men and smiled.

Ning Li had little interest in this and was just about to withdraw her gaze when her eyes suddenly focused.

She fixed her gaze on the last figure following the group of people.

That person was very familiar.

That same person also seemed to have noticed her gaze as well, and raised her head to look over.

The two of them stared at each other.

Ning Li raised her eyebrows slightly.

What a coincidence to bump into Ye Ci here.

1

Ye Ci's body stiffened and her face turned pale. She had never thought that she would bump into Ning Li here!

Ning Li looked at her thoughtfully.

Despite a big difference in her makeup and dressing style, how could she not recognize this face and this person?

Then, she looked at the group of people next to her.

Even though Ning Li did not say anything, this glance still made Ye Ci feel extremely humiliated!

At this instant, she felt as if all her clothes had been stripped clean!

She wanted to turn around and leave, but she did not dare. Her entire body was cold.

“Lil Ci, what are you standing there for? Why aren’t you coming over?”

The middle-aged man who was walking in front turned back to look at her and called her very intimately.

Ye Ci braced herself and walked over.

The man smiled and took her hand.

“Why is your hand so cold? Is the place cold?”

Ye Ci bit her lower lip.

“No, no...”

Ding.

The elevator door opened.

Yan Qiu called out to her, “Junior Sister, let’s go!”

Ning Li responded and followed.

The group of people did not come over, as if they were waiting for the elevator next to them.

Just as the elevator door was about to close, Ning Li looked up and saw that the man's hand was already wrapped around Ye Ci's waist.

She raised her eyebrows.

Fu Niannian and Tang Yi did not disappoint Yan Qiu. They had really looked through the menu and chosen the expensive items.

At first, Yan Qiu had been very calm, but in the end, he could not wait to kill the two of them with the menu.

After a round of commotion, Ning Li finally ate the barbecued meat.

'As expected of the restaurant that Tang Yi and the others found so unforgettable, the taste was indeed very good.

Halfway through eating, Ning Li got up to go to the restroom.

Just as she entered, she heard someone vomiting.

Then, Ye Ci pushed the door open and walked out of the stall.

Her face was red, but her lips were pale, and she reeked of alcohol.

The two of them had come face to face again.

Ning Li turned the tap, and the cold water washed her hands.

Ye Ci stood there and looked at her.

After a long time, she sneered.

“Ning Li, are you happy to see me like this?”

Ning Li turned off the tap and gently shook the water droplets from her hand. She took out a piece of paper towel and slowly wiped her hands.

She merely turned around to look at Ye Ci when she was done.

She smiled.

“Why? Was it not good staying in Yunzhou?”

Ye Ci’s expression changed.

Of course it was not good to stay in Yunzhou!

She had long had enough of the shabby, crowded, and dirty living quarters, not to mention the endless scolding and humiliation!

Ye Sheng had caused trouble, and those people came to cause trouble every day!

Perhaps Su Yuan could tolerate it, but she could not!

She could not survive in Yunzhou. Which influential figures over there did not know her?

That was why she had come to the Capital.

She had not expected to be seen by Ning Li not long after she had arrived!

Ye Ci’s face was pale and her heart was filled with hatred.

She suddenly took a step forward and closed in on Ning Li. She gritted her teeth as she forced out each word, “Ning Li, you have harmed the Ye family and me to this extent! Don’t you have anything you want to say?!”

Ning Li tilted her head slightly and raised her hand to fan it gently, as if to chase away the smell of alcohol.

Then, she looked at Ye Ci again.

After thinking for a moment, the corner of her lips curved up slightly.

“Oh, right– Congratulations.”

Chapter 617: Have Fun

Ye Ci’s facial features contorted for a moment.

“You!”

She was furious and raised her hand to slap Ning Li!

Ning Li grabbed her wrist with one hand.

Ye Ci struggled a few times, but to no avail.

Ning Li looked at her with narrowed eyes.

Ye Ci felt a sharp pain coming from her wrist, feeling as if even her bones were about to break!

Finally, she felt a sense of fear. She looked fierce but was actually timid.

“Ning Li! Don’t you dare touch me!”

‘The corners of Ning Li’s lips curled up into an extremely gentle smile. She said with a faint smile, “Don’t worry. At least, you’ve called me ‘Big Sister’ a few times. Even if it’s for the sake of this ‘friendship’, I won’t slap your face.”

As she said this, she glanced at Ye Ci’s face as if she was sizing her up.

“after all, tonight’s dinner isn’t over yet. If I were to leave a palm print on your face, it wouldn’t look good. Ye Ci, you and the Ye family have been extremely kind to me. How could I have the heart to ruin your good deed?”

Ye Ci’s expression instantly became even uglier.

If she had not been forced to do this, why would she have come here to do such a thing??

She was the daughter of the Ye family and had been pampered for seventeen years. Who would have known that the Ye family would go bankrupt and lose everything overnight?

She had managed to escape from prison with great difficulty. Who would have thought that what awaited her outside would be even more difficult to face?

Every day, she had been squeezed into that shabby house and subjected to criticism and ridicule from the neighbors.

She had not even dared to go out for fear of seeing the impudent and disdainful gazes of those people.

The creditors of the Ye family would come over from time to time to cause trouble. In addition, Ye Cheng had caused such a big problem for them. She could no longer live in Yunzhou!

She could not go to school, so it had been even more difficult for her to find a job. Moreover, she did not care for the meager salary of those jobs.

A few days ago, Su Yuan had come to the Capital to look for Ning Li.

They had all thought that no matter how cruel Ning Li was, she would not ignore her own younger brother.

Besides, Ning Li was worth a lot of money now. That little bit of money was nothing to her.

‘Who would have guessed that Ning Li would reject her so directly?

After Su Yuan had returned home, all she had done was cry and scold.

Her impression of Su Yuan being a gentle and timid person had completely changed.

Instead, she was sarcastic, mean, calculative, and selfish.

It was so unfamiliar to her.

Therefore, Ye Ci had become more and more impatient. In the end, she had simply come to the Capital herself.

What she wanted was to go back to her old life! No, she wanted it to be better than before!

“Ning Li, you’re really good. That’s your biological mother and younger brother!” Ye Ci laughed bitterly in anger.

Ning Li smiled.

“You’re wrong. That’s your mother and younger brother. I didn’t compete with you in the past, and now I won’t ever do so. Since you two love each other so much, how could I ever interfere?”

Ye Ci became riled up and raised her other hand.

Ning Li pushed her away!

Ye Ci's feet were unsteady, and she stumbled back a few steps, hitting the sink before managing to steady herself.

Ning Li tilted her head.

"hope you have a good time tonight."

With that, she ignored Ye Ci and turned to leave.

Ye Ci was furious, and she chased after her without thinking.

However, she had only taken two steps when she was stopped by someone.

A woman with heavy makeup walked over with a cigarette in her hand. She said impatiently, "Lil Ci? Why are you so slow? Brother Sheng is still waiting for you!"

Ye Ci stopped in her tracks immediately.

In just that moment of daze, Ning Li had already walked far away.

Ye Ci gritted her teeth but still managed to squeeze out a smile.

"Got it. I'll be right there."

Ning Li returned to the table. Yan Qiu and the others were still frantically eating.

She sat down beside them.

Fu Niannian asked casually, "Junior Sister, why were you gone for so long?"

Ning Li smiled faintly.

"I met an acquaintance and chatted with them for a while."

Hearing this, the others nodded in understanding and did not take it to heart.

Ning Li's phone rang, it was a message from Xue Langlang.

Both she and Ding Yu knew that Ning Li was coming here for dinner tonight, so they had asked her if it would be convenient for her to pack two servings of sushi from a sushi restaurant downstairs.

'The food in that restaurant was very delicious, but there were only two restaurants in the whole of the Capital, and they were not close to the Xijing area.

What's more, they did not deliver takeout. So, the only way to eat the food was to go to the restaurant.

It was a rare opportunity.

Ning Li replied with an "Okay" and asked them what they wanted.

During the meal, other than Yan Qiu who was feeling sorry for his wallet, the rest of them were all very happy.

After the meal, Ning Li went to the sushi restaurant downstairs to pack two servings of sushi before returning to the dormitory.

Room 306.

The moment Ning Li entered the door, Xue Langlang, who was reading, and Ding Yu, who was typing on the keyboard, immediately looked up at her.

To be more precise, they were staring at the bag in her hand.

1

Ning Li handed it over.

“This one is egg yolk, and this one is cherry cheese.”

Xue Langlang rushed up to her.

“ah! Thank you, Ning Li!”

Ding Yu’s fingers tapped on the keyboard twice before she neatly took off her headphones.

Ning Li glanced at her screen. It was a game interface.

In the past, she had always thought that Ding Yu spent all her time working on code every day.

However, it turned out that it was not the case.

In most cases, Ding Yu was indeed typing code, but she would occasionally play games.

Xue Langlang had asked her about it once, and Ding Yu had said that she would only do these things when she was distracted and could not concentrate on her work.

That— usually referred to her mealtime.

Ding Yu walked over to take the sushi.

However, before her hand touched the bag, an agitated and angry voice came from her computer.

“F*ck you! How can you cheat your teammates like this? Just you wait! I’ll report you the next time I see you!”

Ning Li paused and glanced over.

Oh, so Ding Yu had directly given her lead away.

Just to... end the competition earlier and eat this sushi.

However, that was not the most important thing. The most important thing was that this voice was so familiar.

Zhou Fei.

Ding Yu was very calm.

She turned around and walked to the computer. She coldly and mercilessly replied, “Your Grandpa is about to eat. You’d better turn off the microphone.”

The voice on the other side stopped abruptly. Only after a while did the trembling voice speak in disbelief.

“Sister... Sister?”

Ding Yu continued, “If you want to report me, go ahead. But in the future, you probably won’t be able to make it in this district.”

The other party was silent for a long time.

... Sir, please have your meal.”

Ding Yu closed the computer with a bang and then took the sushi from Ning Li’s hands.

“Thank you. How much is it? I’ll transfer the money to you.”

Ning Li gave her a meaningful look.

“No need. This meal is on the house.”

It had been worth it to hear Zhou Fei say this.

She paused and asked, “This teammate of yours, has he been with you for a long time?”

“Not really, just recently.” Ding Yu put on a pair of gloves and ate a piece of sushi, mumbling, “This is so delicious.”

Ning Li, “..”

“Recently, he had been asking me to take him on and mentioned something about taking revenge.” A cold and disdainful look appeared on Ding Yu’s face. “Sick.”

Ning Li raised her eyebrows slightly.

“Revenge? Who’s the target?”

Ding Yu thought for a moment and read out an ID.

Ning Li remembered the name that she had seen on Lu Huaiyu’s game interface.

She was silent for a moment and said seriously, “Ding Yu, I don’t like the sound of that.”

“Actually, next time you can ask him to call me dad..”

Chapter 618: Abandoned Breeding

Ding Yu pondered for a moment.

“That works too.”

Xue Langlang suddenly let out an “Ah” before looking at Ning Li.

Seeing that her expression seemed to be a little off, Ning Li asked, “What’s wrong?”

Xue Langlang was holding the sushi in one hand while the phone was in the other. After hesitating for a while, she handed the phone over.

“Umm, take a look for yourself.”

Ning Li took it.

On a certain gossip forum, someone posted an anonymous post.

[ Discussion: Ning is suspected to have abandoned her biological mother and younger brother? ]

‘There was a picture posted below.

Outside the Xijing University complex, the crowd was crowded. In the middle of the crowd stood two people.

A middle-aged woman who looked to be in her thirties or forties with her tear-streaked face. She looked like she was pleading.

Not far in front of her was a tall and slender figure with her back facing her indifferently.

The photo had been taken from the side so the faces and expressions of these two people could be seen clearly.

The young girl was clearly Ning Li.

She carried a backpack on one shoulder with an indifferent expression on her face, as if she was not moved at all.

The reaction of the two people formed a huge contrast, and the impact was extremely great.

[ It is said that this is Ning's biological mother. Some time ago, she went to Xijing University to ask Ning for help in settling a matter concerning her brother, but in the end, she was mercilessly rejected. According to a friend who was present that day, her mother was about to kneel down to her at that time yet she didn't even turn her head. That's her own mother, after all. Wasn't Ning being too cruel by doing this? ]

'There were already many replies below.

[ Ah this? Why does Ning have a younger brother? ]

[ Theard that he has the same mother but a different father. He is only eleven this year and is still a child. ]

[ Didn't she say that her parents divorced when she was young and that she had been raised by her grandmother? Moreover, her mother seems to have lived quite well after remarrying, If she had still cared about her daughter, she would not have let Ning live like that, right? I still remember the photo of her and Lin Fengmian together. It was so sad. This mother gave birth to her but did not raise her. Is it so wrong if Ning doesn't want to acknowledge her? ]

[ What the person above said makes sense. But wasn't her mother there to beg Ning for her brother's sake? No matter how much hatred she holds for her mother, she shouldn't transfer all this onto a child, right? Isn't her brother an innocent? ]

1

[ That's right. Ning can be considered successful now, so it should be easy for her to help her brother. She's even able to help Lin Fengmian. Why is she so stingy with her own brother? ]

[ It's really easy for the person above to talk. Why don't you go help her then? This mother is really amazing. If Ning was still living the same poor life that she had before, do you think she would remember that she has such a daughter? ]

More and more replies came to the discussion thread.

Everyone had different opinions. The conflict intensified and no one was convinced by anyone.

Some people thought that Su Yuan had not fulfilled her responsibility as a mother, so Ning Li naturally had the right to reject her request.

There were also people who thought that no matter what Su Yuan had done wrong in the past, ultimately, she had given life to Ning Li. Moreover, this time, she was begging her to save her biological brother who was related to her by blood. No matter what, the child should not be involved in this. Ning Li's actions were indeed too cold-blooded.

Ning Li returned the phone to Xue Langlang.

Xue Langlang carefully sized up her expression.

"... Ning Li, are you alright?"

Ning Li replied with a "Hmm" and returned to her seat.

She looked like she really did not care at all.

Xue Langlang looked at her phone again. The more she looked at it, the angrier she became.

They all knew exactly what had happened that day.

It was clearly Su Yuan who had wanted to blackmail Ning Li and force her to submit. What did it have to do with Ning Li?

Besides, it was better not to have a mother like that.

They were not Ning Li. They had not experienced what Ning Li had experienced before. What right did they have to stand on the moral high ground and criticize her?

“This post, could it be—”

Xue Langlang thought of Yao Mi

a.

Could it be that she still held a grudge against Ning Li for chasing her out of the dorm, so she had made this post?

Ning Li shook her head.

Even if Yao Mingjia had wanted to do this, she did not have the guts.

After all, Ning Li had already connected the rumors on the campus forum to her.

Yao Mingjia knew very well that if she really did this, Ning Li would definitely find out that it was her.

Although her family was well-off, they were not powerful enough to back her up.

She still had to continue studying at Xijing University.

Ning Li turned on her computer.

“You guys don’t have to worry about this. I’ll handle it.”

Xue Langlang and Ding Yu looked at each other. Thinking about how she had encountered several public opinion crises before and how they had all been successfully resolved, they put their minds at ease.

This post had originally been posted on the gossip forum, but soon, someone moved it to Weibo.

Various marketing accounts reposted the comments one after another. There were even many people who posted on their own accounts to analyze and judge this matter. Thus, they were all freeloading on it.

Although Ning Li did not work in the entertainment industry, her popularity was indeed very high now.

On one hand, it was because of her “National sister” title, and on the other hand, it was because she was Ning.

These two identities overlapped, making her even more popular than many artistes in the industry.

Now that this matter had been exposed, and it was related to the ethics that the public was most passionate about, these marketing accounts naturally swarmed over.

On Weibo, the haters and passersby argued intensely.

Of course, it was just those same two opinions.

Ning Li only glanced at it casually but did not pay much attention to it.

By nighttime, her name was trending.

Just by clicking on the topic square, one could see the photo of her and Su Yuan.

'The crowd was in a heated argument.

Xue Langlang waited for a long time. She noticed that the matter was getting bigger and bigger, yet Ning Li still did not seem to have any intention of clarifying or explaining herself.

She struggled with this dilemma for a long time. Initially, she had wanted to ask about it, but when she saw that Ning Li's expression was calm and she was washing up and resting as per usual, she swallowed her words back.

Forget it.

Ning Li... surely had other plans, right?

Ning Li's name trended all night on Weibo.

Even until the next morning, when Ning Li woke up, she was still trending at number four.

Originally, this had been her private matter and outsiders had no right to interfere.

However, this matter was too special.

Society and culture valued the word "Filial piety."

Some people said that there was no such thing as a bad parent.

Some people said that no matter what, your parents had given you life.

Some people said that blood ties were unbreakable, not to mention that the younger brother was innocent.

It was just a small matter of helping out. Why was Ning being so stubborn? Why had she refused to help?

Many people agreed with this argument.

Seeing that there was still no response on Ning Li's end, many people even began to criticize her.

Ning Li pretended not to see it, put away her phone, and carried her bag out.

She took a taxi to Lan Di Apartments.

She had asked Lin Fengmian for a few autographed albums and autographed photos, but he had wanted to deliver them to her personally. She felt that it was too troublesome, so she had refused.

It had not been easy for her to wait until today. Since Lin Fengmian would be resting today, she said that she would go and get them.

However, just as she reached Lan Di Apartments, she heard an excited voice come from the side before she could even enter.

"Is that Ning?!"

Chapter 619: To Tangtang

Ning Li turned her head and saw a few people rushing over.

Some were carrying cameras, some were holding microphones, and in the blink of an eye, they had surrounded her.

"Ning, hello! We are reporters from Fei Entertainment. We have a few questions to ask you. Is it convenient for you to answer them?"

There were many celebrities who lived at Lan Di Apartments. Hence, this was why these people had been waiting outside the residential area. However, they had not expected on being to see Ning Li.

She was the hottest person in the fashion industry at the moment, so of course, they would not miss her.

Ning Li's expression was calm, and her voice was cold.

"I'm sorry, but it's not convenient."

'As she spoke, she turned to leave.

These people had not seemed to expect her to reject them so directly. They were stunned for a while before reacting and quickly chasing after her.

'As they chased her, they also asked, "It won't take long! May I ask if you're here today to visit Lin Fengmian?"

Ning Li looked at the microphone in front of her and frowned.

The person did not give up and continued to ask, "Also, regarding the news on the Internet that you're being suspected of abandoning your biological mother and younger brother. Do you have anything to say?"

Ning Li did not say anything as she walked to the entrance of the residential area.

Lin Fengmian had given her a pass to this area before, so she walked in smoothly.

All the people from the media were blocked from entering.

"Ning!"

They shouted Ning Li's name from behind, but Ning Li ignored them.

Seeing her figure gradually disappear, the people looked at each other in dismay.

“Isn’t her temper a little too arrogant?”

“She’s Ning after all, so it’s normal for her to have a bit of a personality.”

“All this work has been for nothing...”

Not really... With her reaction just now, wouldn’t it be considered a kind of response?”

Ning Li went upstairs and knocked on the door.

Lin Fengmian was already waiting for her.

“Sister.”

Lin Fengmian noticed her expression as he let her into the house.

“Did... did something happen?”

Ning Li shook her head.

“I just met a few gossip reporters outside the neighborhood.”

Lin Fengmian frowned.

“Is it because of the incident on Weibo?”

Ning Li shook her head.

"I just happened to bump into several members of the paparazzi just outside. But they did ask about Su Yuan."

Lin Fengmian pursed her lips.

"Sister didn't mention this to me before."

How embarrassing had she been that day when Su Yuan had come to her school, in front of so many people?

Ning Li took some water from the fridge and casually said, "All these people and things are irrelevant. There's no need to say too much."

Lin Fengmian was momentarily stunned. He understood what she meant, and the inexplicable feeling of suffocation in his chest instantly dissipated.

That's right.

After all, it had been Su Yuan who had abandoned her in the past.

Eleven years of not caring and not asking about her, did that not mean that people like that were irrelevant?

As for Ye Cheng... He was Su Yuan's son, but not Ning Li's younger brother.

It was he and his sister who was a family.

"What do you want to eat for lunch?"

Ning Li glanced at him.

“You seem to have lost some weight!”

Lin Fengmian pursed his lips into a beautiful curve. His eyes were curved, and there seemed to be a twinkle in them.

“Well, I’ve been preparing for a concert recently. I lost some fat and gained some muscle. Although I look thin, I actually gained more weight than before.”

Ning Li understood and selected the chicken breast from the fridge.

“Then let’s eat according to your diet plan.”

It did not really matter what Lin Fengman ate. He had always been good at managing his figure.

However, today he had received a rare visit.

“Sister, I’ve been eating chicken breast for half a month. I want to eat fish today.”

Ning Li paused and put the chicken breast back.

“Okay, carp and tofu soup it is then.”

Lin Fengmian smiled. He did not care how much exercise he would have to do after this meal.

“Thank you, Sister.”

Ning Li accompanied Lin Fengmian to have lunch. Then, he brought over the album and photos that he had signed.

“Sister, everything you asked for is here.”

Ning Li took a look.

The one that had been placed at the top was the one that was meant for Shen Zhijin.

[ TO Tangtang: I hope you will live a carefree life. ]

At the bottom was Lin Fengmian's signature.

He had beautiful handwriting, a natural but bold font.

However, perhaps it was because the name "Tangtang" was too sweet. This way, it looked a little different.

It was as if even his line of words had become sweet and soft.

The person that Shen Zhijin cared about so much must also have been a very sweet person.

Ning Li thought about it as she put her things away. Then she got up and left.

That afternoon, Ning Li returned to the laboratory and handed the things to Yan Qiu and the others one by one.

They all came up to thank her.

"Thank you, Junior Sister!"

"As expected, Junior Sister can always be relied upon!"

"Junior Sister, we have already discussed it. This semester, we will take care of your task of cleaning the laboratory!"

Ning Li could not help but laugh.

“Senior Brother, why are you being so polite?”

Fu Niannian looked at her and smiled.

“It’s nothing. If Junior Sister needs help with anything else, please feel free to ask.”

Ning Li’s heart moved slightly, and she nodded slightly.

“Okay.”

The others then returned to their seats.

Ning Li looked in the direction of the office, but she saw that Shen Zhijin had not arrived yet.

She hesitated for a moment before walking in and placing the last TO signed album on Shen Zhijin’s desk.

She had classes to attend after that, so she quickly left.

After she left, the three people who were left in the lab raised their heads at the same time and exchanged glances.

Tang Yi could not help but ask, “Is Junior Sister really going to deal with this matter by ignoring it?”

Yan Qiu sighed.

Fu Niannian suddenly cursed.

“Is there something wrong with these media outlets?”

Yan Qiu and Fu Niannian looked over and asked curiously, "What's wrong?"

Fu Niannian turned the computer over with a calm expression on his face.

"Look! It looks like Little Junior Sister went to look for Lin Fengmian this morning. While she was there, she was blocked by the media outside the residential area and asked if Little Junior Sister had really abandoned her mother! Little Junior Sister did not express her opinion throughout the whole process. Thus, they're saying that Little Junior Sister has tacitly agreed to this rumor! Now, the netizens below are cursing like crazy!"

"What?"

Shocked by Yan Qiu's words, the others quickly went over to look.

One of the paparazzi had posted a video. It was the one where Ning Li had been questioned that morning.

In the video, it could be seen that her expression was indifferent and her reaction was cold. There even seemed to be a hint of impatience between her brows.

Yan Qiu scrolled through the comments and frowned.

"These people are scolding her so harshly."

Just then, a clear and calm voice came from behind.

"What are you guys looking at?"

Chapter 620: Congratulates Ning Li

The others turned around.

“Teacher Shen.”

Shen Zhijin’s gaze landed on the computer screen.

The video was playing automatically.

The comments below also came into view.

[ To be so cruel to her own mother and younger brother, she’s just too cold-blooded! }

{ No matter what, this is a little too much... }

{ No matter how outstanding such a person is, she’s such an egoist... hehe.”

Yan Qiu and the others had not expected Shen Zhijin to find out about this.

After hesitating for a moment, Yan Qiu said, “Teacher Shen, Junior Sister is being bullied on the Internet.”

Shen Zhijin did not say anything as he looked around.

Fu Niannian immediately explained, “Junior Sister has class so she left first. Oh yes, Teacher Shen, your TO sign album is on her desk.”

Shen Zhijin glanced sideways and walked over to pick up the album.

He walked a few steps towards his office before thinking of something, He turned around and said, “Yan Qiu, later, please ask Ning Li to free up her time for this Saturday and Sunday.”

Yan Qiu was momentarily stunned, but he still answered immediately, “Okay.”

Only then did Shen Zhijin enter his office.

Tang Yi was puzzled and asked in a low voice, “Why is the boss looking for Junior Sister? And for two days?”

Yan Qiu shrugged.

“I don’t know. I guess he has plans.”

The so-called interview video in which Ning Li had been blocked by the media was attracting more and more criticism.

However, an hour after this video had been posted, a blogger forwarded a Weibo post from the Yunzhou Public Security Bureau.

[ Maple Red: It’s no wonder that Ning did not agree to help her mother and brother. It’s because her brother stabbed someone in the school! Everyone, take a look at this notice. An 11-year-old boy who stabbed someone until they have to be admitted into the ICU. If you had a brother like this, would you help him? }

She forwarded a police report from half a month ago.

The general content was that due to a dispute with his classmates, an 11-year-old boy, Ye, had stabbed two of his classmates. Each person had been stabbed four times and six times respectively with a fruit knife, causing serious injuries.

Although no one had died, the two victims were in serious condition.

In the comments, the blogger also posted a few photos, confirming that the boy was called Ye Cheng. He was indeed the young master of the Ye family. He said that after the incident, Ye Cheng had not gone to school for a long time.

When this Weibo post was posted, it immediately shocked everyone.

[ He stabbed his classmate four times and six times at the age of eleven?! Heavens, what kind of child is this? This is clearly a devil! ]

[ He is still a child. Don't let him off! ]

[ No wonder! I was just saying that Ning's mother had never cared about her daughter's life before. So, why would she suddenly humble herself and beg for help? Turns out that it was because of her good son! Who wouldn't say that Ning felt miserable to see that? Not only does she have a mother who abandoned her after giving birth to her, but she also has a brother like this? If I were her, I would also be eager to sever all ties with them! ]

[Is this child a sociopath? If he dares to do this now, won't he be even more terrifying in the future? ]

[ For those who scolded Ning for abandoning her family earlier, if that doesn't work, would you be willing to help with crowdfunding for this mother and son pair? ]

Those who had criticized Ning Li earlier seemed to have been silenced in an instant.

It was true.

Ning Li and Lin Fengmian were not related by blood, yet she had been so willing to help. Why was Ning Li so determined to not help her own brother?

Now, they had finally gotten an answer.

Who would be willing to help such a terrifying child?

Did he think that he had already lived too long?

Acomment was pushed to the top.

[ Speaking of abandoned, was Ning's so-called mother really the one who was abandoned? Wasn't it Ning who had actually been abandoned, right? ]

This Weibo post was too powerful.

How could the official Weibo of the Yunzhou Public Security Bureau be fake?

More and more people were on Ning Li's side.

With such a mother and brother, what need was there to help them?

'The topic of # Heartache Ning # was quickly pushed to the top.
