

Little Brat's 901

Chapter 901: Lu Huaiyu Doesn't Mind?

Yu Yu was silent for a while, her expression filled with guilt.

"Actually, I'm not too sure either, but at that time, other than my people, she was the only one who could have known about this. When I saw her at the event today, I wanted to ask her about it. However, I felt that even if I asked her about it, I wouldn't be able to get anything out of her, so I gave up."

Yu Cheng sneered.

"Do you still need to ask? It can't be anyone else but her! She must be very happy to see me like this, right?"

Shen Li and he had formed a feud and did not get along well with each other.

Why would Shen Li let go of such an opportunity when it had fallen right into her lap?

"I just knew that this matter was so odd. It turns out that she was involved in it!"

Yu Yu looked at him and tried to persuade him.

"Brother, there's no point in talking about this now. The reason I'm telling you this is to remind you that you can't let your guard down. Shen Li has the Gu family behind her. Now that she's a member of the Bai City Fashion Association, her status has risen. It won't be good to offend her..."

Yu Cheng's expression was dark.

Of course, he knew about this.

However, Shen Li had caused him to end up in this state. He would definitely not let this matter rest!

After a while, he suddenly said, "I seem to remember that Ji Shu is on good terms with her?"

Yu Yu had not expected him to suddenly change the topic to Ji Shu. She was stunned for a moment, but she quickly reacted and nodded.

"Wasn't she from Yunzhou in the past? Ji Shu's family is also considered a noble family in Yunzhou. They seem to have known each other for a long time."

Ji Shu and Shen Li had a good relationship. Everyone had been able to see that on the day of the rally.

After thinking for a moment, Yu Yu lowered her voice.

"I remember that on the day of the rally, during the last section of the race, Shen Li clearly had the ability to surpass Ji Shu and become number one. However, she had deliberately suppressed her speed and eventually followed behind Ji Shu, allowing Ji Shu to win the championship while she had placed second... A normal friend wouldn't be willing to go to that extent, right?"

Of course, Yu Cheng also remembered this.

At that point, Shen Li and Ji Shu had already locked in the top two places. No matter who came first or second, LY would still have been the champion.

However, it was only due to Ji Shu taking first place that he had been able to surpass Yu Pan and win the title of overall driver champion with the most beautiful record.

Shen Li had given up the first placing just like that.

It was true that Ji Shu was also one of the best race drivers in the country.

However, Shen Li clearly could have surpassed him at that time, but she had not done so.

This was something that Yu Cheng could never understand.

He was also a race driver, so he knew the fervor and passion of pursuing first place on the track.

He did not understand Shen Li's train of thought. In her eyes, was letting Ji Shu take first place more important than her taking first place?

However, this also proved that she really valued Ji Shu greatly.

After a while, Yu Cheng suddenly sneered.

"They are so close. If something were to happen to Ji Shu, I'm sure she would be very upset, right?"

Yu Yu's heart skipped a beat, but she looked puzzled and frowned slightly.

"Brother, what do you mean by that?"

Yu Cheng leaned back.

"Nothing much."

Tactfully, Yu Yu did not ask any further questions. Instead, she seemed to have suddenly thought of something and muttered softly, "Oh right, I remember that Lu Huaiyu was there on the day of the competition as well..."

Yu Cheng scoffed.

“How long has it been since he touched a car? There wasn’t any point in going to watch this competition.”

His words did not conceal his mockery.

Yu Yu did not want to talk about this matter.

She pursed her lips and said, “Brother, I just feel that he had watched that competition as well. He should know the way Shen Li treats Ji Shu, right? Doesn’t he feel... uncomfortable at all?”

Shen Li was his girlfriend.

Seeing his girlfriend protecting another man with his own eyes, did Lu Huaiyu really not care at all?

Yu Cheng frowned. After a while, he coldly said, “Then who knows.”

Yu Yu restarted the car and smiled.

“Maybe I’m thinking too much. Brother, shall I send you back first?”

“Yes.”

Yu Yu stepped on the accelerator and the car slowly drove away in the darkness.

...

Shen Li was really busy that day.

After the official website of the Bai City Fashion Association had announced that she was the thirteenth lifetime member, she had received many congratulatory messages one after another.

Even when she returned home that night, there were still messages on her phone.

Even though she had muted the volume, the bright red notifications of the unread messages were still very conspicuous.

The moment Shen Zhijin reached home, he saw Shen Li curled up on the sofa, looking at the phone in front of her with a look of despair on her face.

Hearing a sound, Shen Li raised her head.

“Dad, you’re back.”

Shen Zhijin walked over.

“What’s wrong?”

Shen Li shook her head and sighed again.

She felt as if her heart was tired.

Actually, Shen Zhijin could already guess.

“Is it because of the membership matter?”

He had known the moment the news of Shen Li’s appointment had come out that afternoon.

He had seen the announcement and the list of names.

The fact that President Ronai and Mr. Compton had not chosen her already explained a lot of things.

Shen Li nodded and leaned back on the sofa, feeling hopeless.

“Dad, I’ve been replying to messages since this afternoon.”

Shen Zhijin gently patted her head.

In fact, he had also received a lot of congratulatory messages.

“If Tangtang feels tired, there’s no need to reply for now.”

Ultimately, he felt the most heartache for his precious daughter.

Shen Li could not help but laugh.

Although Shen Zhijin was aloof by nature, no one could find fault in the way he handled himself.

It was rare to hear him say such words.

“It’s fine. I’ve actually managed to reply to most of them.”

As soon as she finished speaking, her phone lit up. It was an unfamiliar number from Bai City.

Shen Li had a premonition, so she sat down and picked up the phone.

“Ning.”

This voice sounded pleasant and seemed very familiar.

“Congratulations.”

Shen Li’s guess was confirmed.

“President Ronai?”

“Yes, it’s me. I’m sorry to call you so late, but I thought that you might only have the time to answer at this time, right?”

Ronai joked.

Shen Li rubbed the space between her eyebrows.

There was really nothing she could do when encountering such an old fox.

“Please don’t tease me anymore. Was there something you wanted to talk to me about?”

“It’s like this. First of all, I have to tell you that I’m sorry. Because you didn’t want to become a member, I also chose someone from among the other competitors. Unfortunately, I couldn’t change the result in the end.” Ronai shrugged and continued in a helpless tone. “As you know, even though I’m the president, I don’t have the right to interfere with the choices of the other members.”

When Shen Li heard him say “sorry,” it somehow did not sound very apologetic. Instead, it seemed like he was unable to restrain his joy.

He did not really seem to mean it when he said the word “unfortunately”.

Silently, she sighed in her heart but did not expose him.

“I know all this. You didn’t have to do this.”

“However, this phone call is also to congratulate you.”

Ronai’s tone became much more serious.

“Shen Li, on behalf of the other twelve members of the Bai City Fashion Association, I would like to officially welcome you.”

Chapter 902: A Generous Gift

His welcome to Shen Li was sincere.

At first, he had been very sorry to hear George convey Shen Li’s tactful refusal.

In his opinion, Shen Li was indeed the most suitable candidate.

It was only out of respect that he had chosen someone else.

However, to his surprise, everyone else had chosen her and they had ultimately succeeded in keeping her.

When the results had come out, Ronai had been surprised and pleasantly surprised.

He had wanted to make this call a long time ago, but in order to show his seriousness, he had deliberately waited for a few more hours. He estimated that Shen Li should be free now, so he had finally dialed this number.

Of course, Shen Li could also hear it.

Although she was indeed afraid of trouble, since things had come to this, she had already thought it through and decided to accept the situation.

The corners of her lips curved up slightly.

“Thank you.”

Ronai said, “The information sent by G&S is not complete. When you have time later, you should find time to come over again and complete the relevant information.”

Because this was a lifetime membership, there were many aspects of information that needed to be submitted, and the process was quite complicated.

Shen Li had to personally make another trip to Bai City.

Shen Li was also very clear on this point and nodded.

“Okay.”

Ronai smiled and said, “Actually, I’ve been planning on having an art exhibition tour soon. If it’s convenient, you should come over for a visit.”

Shen Li liked his paintings very much. Moreover, Ronai had not held an art exhibition in nearly three years. Hearing this news, Shen Li was quite pleasantly surprised.

“Ah, right, the first venue for the art exhibition tour will be held in Leland. If you are able to go there, you’ll be able to visit my gallery and have a look.”

Shen Li’s heart jumped.

The first exhibition... would actually be held in Leland?

That was true.

Ronai was originally from Leland. It was only natural that he would choose to start there.

After a moment, she said, "Okay, thank you for the invitation."

She did not give a clear answer that she would definitely go, but Ronai did not mind.

His invitation to Shen Li was sincere, but it also depended on Shen Li's schedule.

After all, as far as he knew, Shen Li had multiple jobs and was very busy.

Therefore, sending out this invitation was an expression of sincerity.

The two chatted for a while more before hanging up.

Looking at her phone, Shen Li was a little lost in thought as she recalled what Ronai had just said.

"Tangtang, are you going to Leland?"

Shen Zhijin, who was beside her, had vaguely heard part of the conversation.

Shen Li looked up.

"It hasn't been decided yet. We'll see when the time comes."

Shen Zhijin nodded slightly.

“The scenery in Leland is not bad. It also has a very artistic atmosphere. I believe you will like it.”

Shen Li nodded but did not say anything.

Shen Zhijin handed her a glass of warm milk.

“You must be tired today. Rest early.”

Shen Li took the milk.

“Thank you, Dad.”

...

Shen Li returned to her bedroom with the milk.

She pulled out a chair and sat down. Then, she took out her phone and sipped the milk slowly as she read her messages.

The top message was from Zhao Xuan, who had just sent it.

[President Shen, I’ve already called Director Meng Shan today. We’ll officially meet on Monday to discuss further cooperation regarding “Fantasy God Chronicles”.]

Looking at this message, Shen Li raised her eyebrows.

Meng Shan was one of the most famous directors in the country.

He was very talented and had amassed a very interesting résumé over the years.

Most of the films that he directed were both popular and well-received.

The historical war blockbuster Qin Cheng, which he had made two years ago, had earned $1.83 billion at the box office. It was still the domestic box office champion.

After two years, he was finally making a comeback.

This time, he planned to film “Fantasy God Chronicles”.

It was said that he had personally written the script, and he had spent most of his time and energy on it in the past two years.

He was a master-level director, and his last movie had been a domestic box office champion. The name “Meng Shan” itself had an astonishing appeal.

Therefore, when they heard that he was planning to shoot this movie, many investment companies had already taken the initiative to approach him.

Naturally, Shengguang Media was no exception.

Shen Li took a sip of milk.

[Got it. When the time comes, try your best to talk to Director Meng Shan and ask him what requirements he has for this film. Just say that we will try our best to meet them and express our sincerity to the best of our ability. However, don't sign the contract.]

When Zhao Xuan saw the first part of her message, he understood it very well. After all, Meng Shan was one of the top directors in the country, and there were many media companies that wanted to invest in this project. To compete successfully, they would have to pay more.

But this... what did she mean by not signing the contract?

[President Shen, Director Meng Shan is actually quite interested in us. If the negotiations go well, we'll be able to start the project very soon. If you don't sign it now, when do you think would be a more appropriate time to sign it?]

Shen Li typed a sentence.

[Shengguang will not be signing this contract.]

Zhao Xuan was stunned for a while.

For a moment, he really wanted to ask, 'President Shen, are you just playing around?'

"President Shen, are you sure? This opportunity to collaborate with him is really rare. If you miss it, other companies will immediately seize it."

Naturally, a director of Meng Shan's level did not need to worry about not being able to attract any investments.

This time, he had chosen to talk to Shengguang first. Firstly, it was because he personally liked Shengguang's previous investment in "Hibiscus". He felt that they had good taste and would be very appreciative. Secondly, it was because he knew that Shengguang had already made contact with the Lu Corporation and that a series of collaborative projects were about to be launched.

Of course, Zhao Xuan was also very good at negotiating.

Both sides could be said to have hit it off. As long as they continued to push forward, everything would be smooth sailing.

However, at this moment, Shen Li had instructed... not to sign the contract?

Then why had she kept urging him to look for Meng Shan? Why had she even urged him to try his best to express his sincerity to Meng Shan in the upcoming negotiations?

She clearly never intended on investing in this movie from the very beginning!

Since that was the case, why had she—

[I know.]

Shen Li's reply was short, which made it obvious that she had already made up her mind.

Zhao Xuan pondered this for a long time, but in the end, he did not ask any more questions.

[Okay, President Shen, I understand.]

After all, when she had insisted on investing in "Hibiscus", he had not been able to figure it out either.

However, the final result had proven her right.

Since she was so certain this time, she definitely had her own considerations.

That was not something that he needed to think about.

Shen Li put down her phone and held the cup with both hands and inhaled the rich aroma of milk.

Meng Shan's "Fantasy God Chronicles" would be the most tragic failure of his career as a director. After it's released, all sorts of criticisms were hurled at it. After one week in the movie theatres, the movie had ended up with a dismal box office earnings of 30 million yuan.

With a movie with an investment of 300 million yuan, this box office result was enough to make the investors lose their bottomline profit.

Of course, she would not accept this hot potato.

Zhao Xuan was right. If Shengguang did not sign the contract, there would be other people rushing to snatch the opportunity immediately.

For example, President Yu of the Yu Corporation, Yu Yu, who was in urgent need of a stable position.

Would she like this generous gift?

Chapter 903: No, Boss of Shengguang

Yu Yu had been feeling very annoyed lately.

The membership position in the Bai City Fashion Association, which had almost been guaranteed, had fallen to Shen Li. She had gone through a lot of effort yet not only had she not managed to get anything. Instead, she had been forced to take up the role of a lousy committee member and be in an inferior position to Shen Li, just because she had taken the initiative to organize the salon event.

She had already lost YU and all her efforts over the past few years had already gone down the drain. Now, her last chance to make a comeback had also been snatched by Shen Li.

Old Master Yu already did not like her to begin with. Previously, she had been able to rely on her performance at work to get Old Master Yu to value her a little more. Now that she was in so much trouble, Old Master Yu's attitude towards her had instantly turned cold.

In the end, all of this had been caused by Yu Cheng. However, when would Old Master Yu ever blame Yu Cheng for this?

He only felt that everything was Yu Yu's fault.

In addition, Shen Li had probably played a role in this matter. In the end, she had even stepped on Yu Cheng to get to the top.

Yu Yu was filled with resentment, but she had no evidence. Moreover, even if she could confirm that Shen Li was the one who had leaked the news about Pan Jiajia, what could she do about Shen Li?

Yu Yu was already gone and her reputation had already been tarnished. The public's opinion would definitely not side with her.

The damage had already been done. What else could she do?

She had to make up for it in other ways as soon as possible.

Early on Monday morning, Yu Yu arrived at the Yu Corporation's media building.

This was the first time in the past month that she had officially returned to work.

"Greetings, President Yu."

"Greetings, President Yu."

The staff members greeted her one after another. Everyone looked the same as usual, but the way they looked at Yu Yu was subtly different.

Some time ago, Yu Yu had been busy with YU's showcase at the Bai City Fashion Association, so she had temporarily put her work here on hold. She had left a lot of work to be handled by others. If there was something that they really required her personally to do, she basically handled it through a phone call or a video call.

She should have been back a long time ago. However, who would've known that the matter between Yu Cheng and Pan Jiajia would come out and cause her to be delayed until now.

When Yu Yu walked into her office and closed the door, many people immediately exchanged glances and tacit smiles.

Recently, the matter between Yu Yu and Yu Cheng had been causing a stir, and everyone was busy gossiping about it. Naturally, now that they had finally met one of the parties involved, they were even more gossipy and excited.

The moment Yu Yu sat down in her office chair, the elegant smile on her face instantly disappeared.

Those people had acted as if nothing had happened, but their inquisitive and curious eyes could not be concealed!

Of course, she knew that countless people were waiting to laugh at her!

Time passed very slowly and torturously.

During the time that she was not in the company, the progress there had really fallen behind.

She was very frustrated, but she had to continue to deal with these things.

In the blink of an eye, it was 11 o'clock.

Knock, knock.

"President Yu."

Yu Yu put down the document that was in her hand and adjusted her expression.

"Come in."

Her assistant walked in with a hint of excitement on her face.

“President Yu, I just received news that Director Meng Shan and Shengguang Media met this morning, but it seems that they didn’t come to an agreement.”

Yu Yu was stunned.

“What do you mean?”

Meng Shan was in preparations to film “Fantasy God Chronicles”, and all the investors had been fighting for this opportunity. However, Meng Shan had chosen to speak to Shengguang Media first.

Many people, including her, had thought that they would surely be successful in forming a partnership this time.

After all, Shengguang was very popular in the industry. With Meng Shan’s personality, and knowing that he had chosen to speak to them first, it was clear that his intention had been to choose them.

Under such circumstances, how was it that they had not come to an agreement?

“I heard that Director Meng Shan made too many demands. He said that he couldn’t change the script, and all the actors had to be chosen by him. The investors would not be allowed to interfere. He probably has other conditions as well, which has caused Shengguang to be a little hesitant.”

The assistant explained, “As you know, Director Meng Shan has always been particular about this aspect when it comes to filming.”

Yu Yu understood and laughed softly.

“After all, it’s Director Meng.”

In most cases, the investors had the most say in a movie.

However, if the director's status was too high, the situation would turn around. The investors would put the director's wishes first to the greatest extent instead.

This was the case for Meng Shan.

The assistant said, "I really don't know what Shengguang is thinking. Right now, all the investors are begging Director Meng for the chance to help him film it. They had this opportunity, yet they weren't able to seize it. Why are they still putting on airs over there?"

Yu Yu took a sip of coffee.

"Shengguang's last film, 'Hibiscus', made them a lot of money. I heard that the boss of Shengguang insisted on investing in that film. Moreover, from the start of filming to the release of the film, many things were decided by Shengguang. As a director, Ge had not been given much room to interfere and had been forced to make many compromises in the process."

At that time, Ge had already been at the end of his rope. It had already been good enough that someone had been willing to look for him to continue making the film so why would he ask for so much?

However, Meng Shan and Ge's situation was different.

Yu Yu recalled some rumors that she had heard before and said softly, "Everyone in the industry says that the President of Shengguang... has his own ideas. It's probably because of his previous success that he has the confidence to do this."

These words were a tactful way of saying that he was stubborn.

In the film industry, such a situation was not uncommon.

Some bosses thought that they understood art and movies, so they wanted everyone to do as they wanted.

The assistant smiled.

“However, shouldn’t we leave these professional matters to the professionals? Besides, Director Meng Shan’s talent and charisma are already the biggest guarantees of box office earnings. Why would we need anyone else to tell us what to do?”

Shengguang Media had to also be a little confused. Did they really think that they could treat Meng Shan the same way that they had treated Ge?

Yu Yu put down her cup and said, “I’ll personally give Director Meng a call.”

Since Shengguang Media had given up this opportunity of their own accord, they could not blame others for taking it.

...

Shengguang Media and Meng Shan had not come to an agreement over the partnership for “Fantasy God Chronicles”.

The moment the news spread, it immediately caused quite a stir in the industry.

Everyone was very surprised. They had never expected that this seemingly win-win partnership would actually fail.

Shengguang Media had not been registered for long. However, with the success of “Hibiscus”, they had become the envy of countless investors in the industry.

After all, most people would never be able to get their hands on such a high-yielding film.

This time, they had potentially been in a strong alliance with Meng Shan. Who could have known that they would not be able to reach an agreement in the end?

Soon, another piece of news spread: Yu Corporation had become the sole producer of Meng Shan's "Fantasy God Chronicles".

This piece of news shocked everyone as much as the collapse of the negotiations between Shengguang Media and Meng Shan.

Yu Media was a big company, so it was natural for them to be able to win this project.

However—

"The sole producer..."

Shen Li looked at the message from Zhao Xuan and praised softly, "He's truly a living bodhisattva in this world."

Chapter 904: Warning

In her previous life, Yu Media had not invested in this movie because Yu Yu had just been selected as a member of the Bai City Fashion Association and was in the limelight at that time. Hence, she did not have much time and energy to spend on this and was beaten to the punch by another large media company in the country.

However, this time was different.

Yu Yu had suffered successive defeats and needed a chance to prove herself.

"Fantasy God Chronicles" was this chance.

The Yu family was flourishing. Old Master Yu had a total of three sons. His youngest son, who was also Yu Yu's father, had unexpectedly passed away in an accident when he was still fairly young. However, his eldest and second sons were very capable. They had been fighting openly and discreetly for many years.

As for the grandchildren, they had Yu Cheng, the eldest grandson in front, while the others naturally fell behind.

The three branches were in decline. They were extremely marginalized in the Yu family. It was a joke to say that if it was not for the fact that they had an illegitimate child, the situation of the three branches would be even worse than it was now.

Under such circumstances, Yu Yu had joined the main branch and relied on her hard work over the past few years to achieve good results. Only then had she finally gained a place in the family.

However, she knew very well that the second branch and her brother who was also illegitimate were still eyeing her covetously, waiting for her to make a mistake anytime and anywhere.

Hence, after the incident between Yu Cheng and Pan Jiajia, she was in a very dangerous situation.

"Fantasy God Chronicles" was the crucial battle she would have to fight to turn things around.

For this, she would definitely put in 120% of her effort.

In fact, she had indeed done so.

The day after Shengguang Media's negotiations with Meng Shan had broken down, Yu Media had quickly signed a contract with him instead.

It was said that Yu Yu had personally negotiated the deal.

For a time, there were some who were envious, some who were jealous, and some who were admiring.

Everyone said that this second miss of the Yu family was indeed very courageous and capable.

Even the blame for the trouble that Yu Cheng had caused previously was automatically laid onto Yu Cheng.

If it was not for the fact that she had to clean up her cousin's mess, how could this outstanding second miss of the Yu family have suffered such a huge loss?

Yu Yu used this contract to successfully earn back her face and stabilize her position in the Yu family.

...

On Friday, Shen Li applied for leave from school.

Today was the day for the group physical examination for the LY team members. Because she had participated in the rally previously, she had to undergo this physical examination.

The location for the physical examination was the First Affiliated Hospital of Xijing University. This was also the hospital that had been designated by the National Racing Association.

At 8 am, Shen Li arrived at the First Affiliated Hospital.

When she arrived at the building, she saw a bus parked not far away from which several young people getting out.

The one at the front was tall and thin. He was handsome and carried himself in a carefree manner, and his silver hair was particularly eye-catching.

It was Ji Shu.

Behind him were the other LY team members.

“Sister Li!”

Ji Shu spotted Shen Li and immediately strode over.

A group of people followed behind him.

“Sister Li!”

“Sister Li!”

“Sister Li!”

All of them were extremely excited, causing many people around them to cast sidelong glances at them.

Shen Li rubbed the space between her eyebrows helplessly.

Ever since the rally had ended, they had behaved like this every time they saw her. Even though she had reminded them not to do so a few times, but it was useless.

Actually, it was not their fault. It was mainly because her performance in that match had been so awesome. However, it was also because she did not often go to the training base. They only managed to see her a few times, so every time they saw her, they would naturally become more excited and happy.

Shen Li pressed down the front of her baseball cap.

“Let’s go. It’s that building in front.”

Ji Shu and the others followed behind her.

Shen Li's height could be considered very tall among other girls, but Ji Shu and the others were all over 1.8 meters tall as well.

To other people's eyes, they were a group of tall and straight youths, obediently following behind the slender and tall girl.

This scene looked strange no matter which way anyone looked at it.

Several people recognized Shen Li and Ji Shu. They tried to chat or take a photo with them, but they were all rejected by Manager Zhang who was accompanying them.

When they heard that they were here today for a medical examination, those people expressed their understanding and gave up on their intentions.

However, there were still quite a number of people looking in their direction.

The group of people entered the medical examination building. As soon as they entered the corridor, they found that there was already a queue in front of them.

When Shen Li looked up, her eyebrows raised.

What a coincidence, the people there looked familiar.

The group of people there also noticed the arrival of Shen Li and the others and looked over.

In the corridor, all the noise instantly disappeared. Both parties fell into a subtle confrontation and the atmosphere seemed to freeze.

When Yu Cheng spotted Shen Li, he recalled what Yu Yu had said to him previously and his expression became gloomy.

Ji Shu stood beside Shen Li with one hand in his pocket as he looked at her lazily.

“Tsk, what bad luck.”

Other than LY, there were also a few other club drivers who came for the physical examination today.

He had not expected FN to be among them.

All of a sudden, his good mood this early in the morning was ruined.

When Yu Cheng and the others heard what he said, their expressions immediately changed.

Yu Pan took a step forward and raised his hand to point at Ji Shu.

“What are you talking about?”

Ji Shu tilted his head.

“Didn’t I say it clearly? Why? Since your performance in the competition wasn’t good, does that mean that your ears aren’t good either? Since it just so happens that you’ll be undergoing a physical examination today, it’ll be better to get it checked out properly. After all, if you have an illness, you should treat it as soon as possible!”

He spoke the last sentence as if he was being sincere and caring. He looked as if he really wanted to pay for the other party’s medical fees.

The veins on Yu Pan’s forehead throbbed, and he immediately wanted to rush over.

“Say that again!”

Before Ji Shu could do anything, the door to the room beside him was opened. A nurse stuck her head out and said with a frown, "This is a hospital! No noise is allowed!"

Ji Shu smiled at the nurse.

"Got it, Sister Nurse."

The smile of such a wild and handsome man was extremely lethal.

The nurse blushed a little, and she aimed a warning look at Yu Pan who had shouted the loudest earlier. Then, she backed away and closing the door.

Yu Pan and the others were extremely aggrieved.

Shen Li then gave a lazy glance at Ji Shu.

"Ji Shu, be more polite to others."

Ji Shu straightened up slightly and gave an ostentatious smile.

"Got it, Sister Li."

The people from FN who were across from him were simply unable to contain their anger.

Was this phrase "be more polite" the only thing she was going to say after they had been cursed?!

Yu Cheng's gaze lingered on Ji Shu for a few seconds before he sneered.

"You're quite capable."

Ji Shu pulled on his ears.

“There are too many people praising me. Young Master Yu, you should line up first.”

If this had happened in the past, Yu Cheng would not have let this matter go.

However, for some reason, even though his expression turned cold after hearing those words, he did not pursue the matter further.

The doctor called out Yu Cheng’s name from inside.

He raised his hand and pointed at Ji Shu across space, full of warning. Then, he turned around and left.

After taking two steps, he suddenly turned his head back.

This time, he was not looking at Ji Shu, but at Shen Li.

As if she sensed something, Shen Li raised her eyelids slightly.

The two of them stared at each other for a moment.

Yu Cheng was the first to withdraw his gaze and enter the room.

Ji Shu moved closer to Shen Li.

“Sister Li, what did he mean when he looked at you just now?”

The corners of Shen Li's lips curved slightly, but her peach blossom eyes were clear and bright, faintly suffusing a cold light.

"Who knows?"

Chapter 905: The Gu Family's Favorite

There were a lot of steps to the physical examination. By the time Shen Li and the others finished their check-ups, it was almost noon.

Under the constant gazes of the team members, Ji Shu moved closer to Shen Li and asked with a smile, "Sister Li, what are we having for lunch?"

Shen Li rarely went to LY. Today, they had finally gathered together, so everyone wanted to have lunch with her.

Seeing the undisguised anticipation of the people behind him, Shen Li thought for a moment.

"You guys can decide. It's on me."

Everyone was stunned when they heard that but after that reaction, they were both surprised and happy.

"Really?! Sister Li wants to treat us?!"

"That's great!"

"Sister Li, can we have barbecue?"

Everyone in that group of people was extremely happy.

Ji Shu also froze for a moment, with a look of disdain on his face:

“Sister Li, are you really going to give us a treat? You don’t know how much they can eat!”

Shen Li casually said, “It’s fine. Just put it on Gu Siyang’s tab.”

After all, he was the boss.

Ji Shu was filled with respect. He gave Shen Li a thumbs up.

“Since it’s the boss’s intention, then we won’t stand on ceremony.”

By this time, they had already walked out of the medical examination building. The group of people cheered in unison.

“Thank you, Sister Li!”

Not far in front of them, the people from FN had already stepped out and were about to leave.

Hearing the lively cheers, Yu Cheng and the others looked over.

Yu Pan sneered.

“It’s just a meal. Why are they reacting like this? The people from LY are only good for that.”

Many people on FN’s side actually looked down on LY. After all, FN had been established earlier, and historically their results were better.

This time, they had lost to LY so they were all very indignant and aggrieved.

As he spoke, he looked at Yu Cheng.

“Captain, shall we go back?”

Yu Cheng said, “I’m not going with you guys. I have to return to Haicheng in the afternoon.”

The people surrounding him were all stunned.

“Captain, is there something you need to do when you go back?”

Yu Cheng extinguished the cigarette in his hand.

“Tomorrow morning will be the opening ceremony for “Fantasy God Chronicles.”

Everyone immediately understood.

“Fantasy God Chronicles” would be another masterpiece by Meng Shan. With such a big production, the opening ceremony would naturally be especially grand.

Originally, Yu Cheng was not interested in these kinds of things, but he was also the vice president of Yu Media. It was just that he usually did not care much about matters pertaining to the company. Most of the time, he left it to Yu Yu to handle on his behalf.

“Fantasy God Chronicles” was a big investment this time, so he was going there to show that he valued it.

“I see.”

“This is Director Meng’s movie... Captain, it’s estimated that it will make a big profit this time, right?”

“I heard that Yu Yu personally went to talk to him? Captain, your sister is indeed amazing!”

“When the movie is released, it might break another record. Captain, you have to treat us then!”

Yu Pan and the others smiled as they complimented him.

Although they were saying these words with the intention of fawning over him, they truly did think the same.

Everyone thought the same.

The combination of Meng Shan and Yu Meng was very explosive, so it was obvious that they would definitely earn a lot of money.

Yu Cheng laughed when he heard this.

“Alright.”

He was not interested in movies, but he was still interested in earning money, especially this kind of thing. He did not need to do anything. Yu Yu would do everything for him.

All he needed to do was sit back and enjoy the fruits of her labor.

What could be better than this?

Just then, Shen Li and the others happened to pass by.

Yu Cheng snorted and said meaningfully, “Actually, racing in China is just a waste of money. You can only make a profit if you can get results in international competitions and attract more sponsors. Otherwise, you’re just playing around.”

However, after so many years, there were no more teams and drivers in China who could rise to the top of international competitions. Even for the top racing clubs like FN, their profits were not that great.

At the very least, they could not compare to the investments made by Yu Media.

Someone beside them laughed and spoke some words of support.

“Captain, you don’t have to be concerned about other people’s worries! It’s said that Yu Media is the sole producer of “Fantasy God Chronicles”. Just this film project alone is enough to make many people envious. Even if Captain were to allocate a small amount of the profits to the team, we probably won’t be able to spend it all, right?”

“Captain is a typical rich and capricious person!”

“That’s right. Just a random project from Captain’s side can support a few of the people from FN, right?”

They deliberately did not lower their voices, so Shen Li and the others heard it clearly.

Shen Li’s eyebrows raised slightly as she glanced at Yu Cheng.

Was he... implying that LY was not making money and in turn mocking her and Gu Siyang?

She found it a little funny.

Even at this time, Yu Cheng still had the mood to care about such things.

Even after beating his results in car racing, he was still saying that she was not making money by running a racing club.

How interesting.

Ji Shu scoffed.

“Those who didn’t know any better would think that they have already made billions by investing in that movie.”

Shen Li smiled.

“After all, the director is Meng Shan. I heard that the cast of this movie is also very strong. It’s normal for people to have such confidence. Who knows, this might really result in earning them ‘billions’.”

Ji Shu shrugged.

“How is it possible for money to be earned so easily?”

Shen Li nodded in agreement.

“That’s true. Money is easy to spend, but hard to earn. Two days ago, I asked Gu Siyang and he said that he was planning on upgrading and improving the conditions of the base and the race course will be expanded. With this, the money that our grandfather had just transferred to us has almost been depleted.”

When they heard that the base was going to undergo such a big renovation and the race course would be expanded, Ji Shu and the others were stunned. They were both surprised and happy.

“Really?”

“Even the race course will be expanded? Mr. Gu is too generous!”

Shen Li smiled and looked at them.

“After all, LY will be the national representative to participate in the world car racing championship. It’s only right that the conditions are improved.”

As soon as she said this, the expressions of Yu Cheng and the others changed.

Only the winning team of the National Rally Championship qualified for this. FN had been the representative for the past two years, but this year, LY had replaced them.

This was a blatant mockery.

Lu Siyu scratched his head and asked, “But Sister Li, this will be quite a large expense, right?”

Hadn’t she just said that the money that Mr. Gu had just invested was going to be depleted soon?

This—

“Yeah,” Shen Li sighed, “So for the other projects, we’ll have to rely on spending Second Uncle’s money first.”

Everyone was speechless.

Gu Siyang had been running LY for several years. Previously, he had tried all kinds of ways to pull in investments but had never been able to get them. However, ever since Shen Li had been acknowledged by the Gu family, the money invested in LY had been never-ending.

It was very clear who the money was for.

Ji Shu's lips moved but he resisted the question that he was really dying to ask.

Since so many people wanted to spend this money on her, why would she need to queue?

There was no need to ask.

Asking meant being rich and willful.

Asking meant being the Gu family's favorite.

Yu Cheng and the others also shut up, their expressions ugly.

Shen Li's words had clearly been meant for them to hear.

So what if racing costs money? My family is happy. Is yours?

Yu Cheng got into his car, slammed the door, and quickly drove off.

Shen Li tilted her head and asked, "Oh, by the way, the results of the physical examination will be out tomorrow, right?"

Chapter 906: Exposed

Ji Shu nodded.

"That's right. The results of the physical examination will be sent to the National Racing Association for verification tomorrow. After confirming that there are no problems, the results will be sent back to the various clubs."

This physical examination result was especially important to LY because they would be participating in the International Racing Championship as their country's representative soon.

Every driver had to try their best to ensure that their physical condition was at their best.

Shen Li smiled.

"Okay."

...

The next day was Saturday.

After having some breakfast, Shen Li entered her art studio.

Speaking of which, she had been busy recently and had not touched a brush in a long time.

She set up the drawing board, mixed the colors, and started painting.

The sunlight poured in through the window from the outside and fell upon the young girl's fair and delicate face, making her skin appear even clearer.

She looked extraordinarily focused. Her raven feather-like eyelashes cast a faint shadow under her eyelids, making her pupils appear even darker.

As time slowly passed, the canvas gradually became stained with mottled patches of color.

If someone who was familiar with her painting style were here at this moment, they would definitely be very surprised to see this painting.

This was because it was completely different from the style of her previous paintings.

Whether it was her first officially auctioned work “Kiss”, the later “The Seventeenth Night”, or “Summer Cicada”, which had been left with Mei Yanqing at Jinse Bay, all of them had been done in a very realistic style of painting.

However, in this painting, the lines were messy, the colors were chaotic, and the lights and shadows seemed to collide with each other at a critical point.

It was completely abstract, making it difficult to identify the subject of this painting.

If one looked carefully, one could vaguely recognize the broken lenses, on which a blurry image was vaguely reflected.

The overall tone of the painting was slightly cold, but occasionally, there would be a sudden pop of color somewhere. One could feel a feeling of pressure and struggle from the canvas.

However, the painting was not completely completed yet, so it was difficult to see what it was.

Of course, looking at where the painting was heading, even if it was finished, a complete picture might still not be able to be pieced together.

This was completely and utterly different from the paintings that she had auctioned off publicly.

She worked on this painting from morning to noon. After a simple lunch, she returned to the studio to continue.

At 4:30 pm, the silence in the room was broken by the ringtone of a cell phone.

Perhaps it was because the room had been so quiet for too long, it was particularly abrupt and even a little jarring when the cell phone rang.

Shen Li seemed to have been expecting this call and was not in a hurry to answer it. Instead, she patiently outlined the last few strokes.

The phone rang for a long time before it quieted down again. Then, it rang again, appearing extremely hurried and urgent.

Shen Li put down the brush, straightened her shoulders, and stepped back a little. She carefully studied the painting for a few moments before standing up.

She glanced at the screen— Gu Siyang.

Well, he was LY's boss, after all. Of course, this call would be from him.

She answered the call.

Before she could speak, Gu Siyang said, "Sis! Why did it take so long for you to answer my call? Something has happened!"

His voice rarely sounded so serious and tense, and there was also an unconcealable shock in it.

Shen Li asked, "I was in the middle of painting just now. What's wrong?"

Gu Siyang said anxiously, "There's something wrong with Ji Shu's medical report!"

He took a deep breath to try and calm himself down but was unable to do it.

From the moment he had received the news until now, he continued to be in a deep state of shock. Even now, he had yet to regain his senses!

"The results of his urine test showed that he had taken drugs within the past week!"

Gu Siyang's trembling voice trailed off.

This sentence only contained a few words, but it took him a lot of effort to say it out loud, because the amount of information contained in it was really too much!

Shen Li lowered her eyes and looked at the painting that had just been completed without saying a word.

Gu Siyang was emotional.

"How could this have happened?! Don't I know very well what kind of person Ji Shu is? How could he have possibly touched that kind of thing?!"

His entire body was still feeling numb from head to toe.

This was outrageous. This was too outrageous!

Only then did Shen Li open her mouth and ask, "Where did you get this news from?"

If Gu Siyang were paying more attention at this moment, he would have realized that Shen Li's tone of voice was overly calm and clear, as if she was not surprised at all.

At the moment, however, all his attention was on Ji Shu's urine test results, so he could not care about anything else.

Hearing Shen Li's question, he immediately said, "After the results of the physical examination were released at noon today, they were sent to the National Racing Association. After they examined the results, they found that there was something wrong with Ji Shu's urine test results. They immediately contacted Yang Tao. Yang Tao then came to look for me and told me about this matter."

Shen Li asked again, "Then, who knows about this matter now?"

The question she had asked was actually a little strange.

Normally speaking, upon hearing that Ji Shu's urine test was found to contain drugs, her first reaction should have been the same as Gu Siyang's, questioning whether it was true or not.

However, that was not the reaction that she had. Instead, she was focused on something else.

For a moment, Gu Siyang was also stunned. However, on second thought, he felt that Shen Li was probably worried that the news would leak and make the situation more difficult to control.

Thus, he said, "Currently, within LY, only Yang Tao and I know about it. However, it's hard to say about the National Racing Association and the hospital."

Right now, he was unable to determine how many people's hands Ji Shu's medical report had gone through and how many people had seen it!

Shen Li paused for a moment.

Gu Siyang was extremely anxious.

"There must be something wrong with his medical report! I've already applied to the Association for Ji Shu to undergo a new medical examination. Later, I'll give Ji Shu another call—"

He suddenly stopped talking.

Shen Li had already guessed what was going on, but she still asked, "What's wrong?"

Gu Siyang was silent for a long time but finally, he could not help but swear.

“Ji Shu’s physical examination report has been exposed!”

Chapter 907: She Must Be Suffering

The person who had broken the news was Uncle Car, a racing blogger.

He used to be a professional driver. After he retired, he often posted racing tips on Weibo, or videos of car racing highlights that he had edited himself. Slowly, he had accumulated more than a million fans.

The number of fans was not much compared to other more well-known influences, but car racing was a niche market and most of his fans were live fans. Thus, this number was quite amazing, and he could be considered as one of the most well-known bloggers in the racing industry.

Since he was the one who had leaked this news, one could imagine how big the impact would be.

[Uncle Car: Shocking news! National Rally Race champion Ji Shu is suspected of taking drugs! The latest medical report of Ji Shu is attached next. (I’ve already checked, it’s not photoshopped.) I hope Ji Shu and LY can give a response as soon as possible!]

Under the blog post, there was a photo.

It had obviously been taken in a hurry. The medical report was not even fully spread out, but the handwriting on it was clearly visible.

On it, it showed that his urine test results were abnormal.

Most people could not read this form, but they all recognized the words in the post.

Ji Shu!

Suspected of taking drugs!

When these words were put together, it was a huge bombshell that immediately shocked countless people!

[? ? ? ? ?]

[What is this?! Ji Shu is suspected of taking drugs?!]

[F*ck! It can't be? That's Ji Shu! Why would he do such a thing?]

[If this report is true, then he's definitely in trouble!]

[I don't believe it! Ji Shu isn't this kind of person!]

[Take a good look, commenter above. These are the official medical examination results. Since it's been leaked, it's most likely true! Anyway, taking drugs will cause you to be blacklisted for life!]

[@LY@LY@LY!!! Come out and give us an explanation!]

...

Once the news was out, it immediately exploded on the Internet.

Within just a short ten minutes, the hashtag # Ji Shu suspected of taking drugs # had reached the top of the trending search, followed by the shocking word "explosion".

Ji Shu's popularity was already very high. Not long ago, he had just won the national rally driver championship. Now, he was in the limelight.

Having such a piece of news break out so suddenly at this time made it extremely explosive.

Many people's first reaction was shock and disbelief. After all, Ji Shu was a carefree person. He did not look like someone who would do such a thing.

However, that medical report was simply irrefutable evidence.

Ji Shu, as well as LY, quickly fell into the whirlpool of public opinion.

...

Shen Li ended the call and clicked on Weibo to open it.

Seeing Ji Shu's name at the top of the trending list, as well as the black and red word "explosive" behind it, her eyelashes trembled slightly.

This scene was extremely familiar.

The nightmare of the past seemed to have resurfaced.

At that time, facing all of this, she had only been able to helplessly watch him being dragged into the abyss.

But this time would be different.

She made a call.

...

Haicheng.

The opening ceremony for “Fantasy God Chronicles” was held in the morning and everything had gone smoothly.

That afternoon, Yu Yu invited Yu Cheng to the set to watch them shoot a scene.

“Brother, they will be shooting the first scene this afternoon. It’ll be a scene where the male and female lead are acting together. Are you sure you don’t want to watch it?”

Yu Cheng snorted and shook his phone.

“What’s so good about this kind of scene?”

Yu Yu did not understand what he meant at first. When she saw that he was holding his phone, an idea came to her and took her own phone out.

As soon as she unlocked it, she saw several promotional messages regarding Ji Shu’s suspected drug use.

She instantly understood something.

So, was this what he wanted to see more of?

She said softly, “I really didn’t expect that Ji Shu would actually use drugs... I’m sure Shen Li will be very upset when she finds out about this, right?”

Chapter 908: She Went as Well

Yu Cheng sneered.

“She has such a good relationship with Ji Shu. When she sees this news, she’ll be heartbroken. However, Ji Shu can’t blame others for his own mistakes.”

The domestic anti-drug laws were extremely strict. Anyone who had even the slightest connection to the word “drug” would basically be ruined for the rest of their lives.

Not only would Ji Shu’s reputation be ruined when this news was released, but he would also face the punishment of being expelled from the National Racing Association.

He would not be able to compete in any international tournaments in the future. Even in the regular domestic competitions, he would probably never be accepted again.

Thinking back to the time when Ji Shu had won the overall title as champion of the rally racers, it had been really glorious.

Who could compare to him?

However, after today, all of his glory and pride would be crushed into dust. From now on, he would be like a rat crossing the street. Everyone would shout at him, and he would only be able to live in a dark corner forever.

For anyone who wanted to obtain fame and glory to stand at the peak, the price they would have to pay would often be too much.

However, it would be extremely simple if he wanted to destroy all of this.

For example, right now, he had only needed such an explosive piece of information to easily push Ji Shu into the abyss.

Once Ji Shu was finished off, how could Shen Li be indifferent to it?

After all, this was Ji Shu, to whom she would rather give up first place and personally hand over the championship trophy to.

Thinking of this, Yu Cheng's mood improved.

He stood up and took a bottle of vodka from the cabinet next to him as he grinned.

"Today is a good day. It's worth celebrating."

...

Everything happened very quickly.

By the time the others on LY's side heard the news, the Internet had already become a complete mess.

At that time, Ji Shu and the others had just come down from the training track.

"Ji Shu, not bad! Did you break the record again today?"

Lu Siyu and the others looked at the electronic screen beside them. They were both envious and impressed.

Ji Shu was a rare genius in racing. He was also smart and quick-witted.

Every time anyone thought that his performance was good enough, he would always come up with better results the next time.

Such a person had endless potential and his future was truly limitless.

Ji Shu took his helmet off and looked in the direction of their line of sight. He clicked his tongue.

Compared to Shen Li, he was still far from good enough.

If Null were to see him, he did not know how much he would scold him.

Thinking of this, he smoothed his hair down.

If the target character was too much of a perfectionist, he would have this kind of trouble. Even if others thought he was pretty good, he still would not be satisfied even if he looked at himself.

“Take your own training videos back and study them carefully. If you notice any problems, you should change them as soon as possible,” Ji Shu said.

Lu Siyu and the others looked at each other.

“We’ve watched the videos a lot too! But sometimes, even when we see it, we still don’t know how to change it. Isn’t it just all in vain?”

Ji Shu rubbed his chin.

It was true.

At this time, it showed how important it was for a team to have an excellent head coach.

However, a long time had passed and Null still had not given a reply. He really did not know when this master would agree.

Ji Shu thought for a while.

“Forget it, let’s just—”

“Ji Shu!”

A voice suddenly rang out and interrupted Ji Shu's words.

Ji Shu and the others turned around and saw several team members coming over.

They walked over in a hurry with very unpleasant expressions on their faces.

"Ji Shu! What the hell happened with your medical report?!"

They asked anxiously as they came to stand before Ji Shu.

Ji Shu's handsome brows furrowed slightly.

"Wasn't the medical report sent to the National Racing Association? What's going on?"

"You still don't know?"

The person in front took his phone out and handed it over to him.

"Look at this!"

Ji Shu had been in LY for a long time and had a good relationship with his team members. This was the first time he had seen them like this.

He felt uneasy as he took the phone.

On the screen was the blog post that had exposed his drug use.

At a glance, Ji Shu immediately realized what had happened.

His face turned cold, and he quickly opened the medical report.

He had tested positive on his urine test!

Lu Siyu and the others beside him also did not know what had happened and they all came over.

“What’s wrong? Hasn’t Ji Shu been in good health this whole time? What could be wrong with—”

Their voices stopped abruptly.

After a moment of dead silence, the group of people looked at Ji Shu with disbelief on their faces.

“Ji Shu, there must be something wrong with this report, right?! Did the hospital make a mistake?”

Ji Shu ate and lived with them. How could they not know whether he had ever touched drugs or not?

This information was simply a nightmare!

“I’d better apply to the National Racing Association for a new medical examination immediately!”

“Yeah, we have to do this as soon as possible!”

“But, but— it’s probably too late now. It’s already been exposed on the Internet!”

The news of Ji Shu being suspected of taking drugs was all over the place.

As Ji Shu held his phone, he exerted force with his fingers until the veins on the back of his hand bulged.

Even if there had been a mistake in the results of the physical examination, it should not be such a fatal problem.

Moreover, the results of all the drivers' physical examinations were confidential, yet his copy had been leaked out directly and quickly spread.

No one would believe that there was nothing fishy about it!

Taking drugs.

How serious would the consequences be if such a label was put on him?

He vaguely felt a trace of extreme danger, but he also felt that it was difficult to grasp.

The incident had happened so suddenly that at this moment, he could not make sense of it.

Just then, someone called out to him from behind.

"Ji Shu!"

Ji Shu turned his head and saw Yang Tao quickly walking over.

His usually calm and smiling face was now cold and solemn.

Ji Shu returned the phone and walked towards Yang Tao.

Yang Tao saw his expression and understood something.

"You know about what happened on the Internet?"

Ji Shu nodded. There was a cold look on his handsome face.

“There’s something wrong with the medical report. I want to apply to the National Racing Association for a reexamination.”

“I’ve already told them about this, but there’s something more important now.” Yang Tao looked at the phone. “Director Gu is already at the entrance of the base and is waiting for you. I’ll go with you.”

“Gu Siyang?”

Ji Shu furrowed his brows,

“Waiting for me?”

“Yes.”

Yang Tao looked at him and let out a gentle breath.

“You’re going to the police station.”

Ji Shu was stunned and did not react for a while.

He had often gone to this place in the past, but it had never been for a reason like ‘taking drugs’.

When he realized this, a rebellious feeling suddenly arose in his heart, and his brows furrowed even more tightly.

“I’m not on drugs, why would I go there?”

Yang Tao knew what he was thinking.

He patted Ji Shu's shoulder.

"That's why you have to go. Don't worry, Director Gu and I trust you. I'll stay at LY to handle things, and Director Gu will go with you."

As soon as this explosive news had come out, the whole of LY was in trouble.

His phone was about to explode from the calls.

Ji Shu clenched his fists tightly and the expression on his face was extremely cold.

Yang Tao paused for a moment, then said, "Shen Li is going too."

Ji Shu suddenly looked up.

Chapter 909: Counter-Attack

Accompanied by Yang Tao and the others, Ji Shu arrived at the entrance of the LY base.

Gu Siyang was already waiting there.

When he saw Ji Shu, he lowered the window and said crisply, "Get in the car."

Ji Shu could vaguely guess what was going on so without any nonsense, he immediately got into the front passenger seat.

The car quickly drove away and headed towards the Capital police station.

Yang Tao watched them leave and sighed.

Even if Ji Shu did not take drugs, this matter was so serious that it would be hard to be rid of it.

How could it be so easy to clean up the dirty water that had been spilled on him?

Even if they could clear up the rumors as soon as possible, Ji Shu's name would be tied to the word "drug" for a long time.

The damage to Ji Shu's reputation was almost immeasurable.

He did not know how Director Gu and Shen Li planned to deal with it.

He just hoped that everything would go smoothly.

...

"Is this what Sister Li wants?"

Ji Shu got straight to the point as soon as he got in the car.

Gu Siyang did not hide it from him and simply nodded.

"Yes."

After Ji Shu's medical report had been released, he had realized that something was wrong and immediately called Shen Li.

Before LY could react, the report had already been posted on the Internet.

He was furious because he knew too well the seriousness of this matter!

It was at this moment that Shen Li had proposed a solution.

She asked Gu Siyang to take Ji Shu to the police station immediately.

Gu Siyang did not understand at that moment, but Shen Li had only asked him to do so without explaining too much. She also said that she would go there as well a little later.

Perhaps it was because she was so calm and collected about this matter, Gu Siyang subconsciously did as she said.

“I’ve already called the police station and said that I’ll take you there. They should be waiting for you now.”

Gu Siyang said.

Ji Shu turned his head to look at him.

Although he knew that this was Shen Li’s intention, he still did not understand.

The country was very strict with this kind of thing. Once they received the news, they would dispatch the police as soon as possible.

Even if they did not go over there, the people from the police station would come over soon. Why would they need to make this call?

“Sister Li can’t be thinking that this matter will be resolved more easily if I just have a positive attitude, right?”

Gu Siyang shook his head.

“I don’t know.”

He could not figure out what Shen Li was thinking either, but the possibility of what Ji Shu had mentioned was not completely out of the question.

Ji Shu could guess what he was thinking just by looking at his expression. He was so angry that he laughed.

“Gu Siyang! What are you thinking? I’ve never touched that thing before. I’m completely innocent! What does it matter if I have a positive attitude or not?”

Gu Siyang was also very annoyed.

“Of course I know you didn’t take it! But what about that medical report?”

When Ji Shu heard this, he was extremely annoyed.

“How the f*ck would I know?”

Gu Siyang thought for a while, but could not come up with anything.

“Forget it, we’ll talk about it when we get there!”

...

At 4:55 pm, Shen Li rushed to the police station.

Gu Siyang's car had just parked when Ji Shu got out of the car.

Because he had received the news in advance, the moment he appeared, a few police officers quickly stepped forward.

Ji Shu's already irritated expression became even uglier and he looked as if he was about to explode at any moment.

"Ji Shu."

Shen Li called out.

Hearing this, Ji Shu turned around.

When he saw that it was her, his expression eased up greatly.

"Sister Li."

Shen Li walked forward and stood in front of him.

She looked at him.

There was still an unbridled and unruly look in the young man's eyes, with an extremely arrogant air about him.

He was still as sharp-edged as ever.

He was not the later version with his reputation tarnished, his dignity trampled, almost stepped into the mud, and covered in dirt until he was unable to struggle.

Shen Li's eyes were calm. There was an inexplicable power within them that made people feel at ease. She enunciated each word carefully.

"Don't worry, Ji Shu.

"Leave everything to me."

This time, I'm here.

All the people who wanted to push you into the abyss, all the people who wanted to trample on you wantonly, all the people who stood high above and took pleasure in playing with other people's lives...

This time, it would be their turn.

...

At five o'clock in the afternoon, half an hour after the news that Ji Shu's suspected drug use had broken out, another important piece of news was released.

[Qingfeng Entertainment: Latest news! Ji Shu is at the Capital police station! LY boss Gu Siyang is personally accompanying him, and Shen Li is also at the scene!]

There was a picture attached below.

In front of a certain Capital police station, a few uniformed police officers were standing beside Ji Shu.

Gu Siyang and Shen Li were standing beside them.

Most people were not familiar with Gu Siyang, but there were too many people who knew about Ji Shu and Shen Li.

On the screen, it looked like the group of people were walking in. Shen Li's head was tilted as if she was talking to Ji Shu.

There was a slight frown on Ji Shu's face, his expression looking serious and solemn.

More than half of his face had been photographed, and it was clearly visible.

The impact of this photo was too great.

[The police station?! Does that mean that Ji Shu really took drugs?]

[That's not necessarily what it means by going to the police station. The news has been leaked. Whether it's true or not, the police will have to investigate, right?]

[But if there's no problem with him, shouldn't he have applied to the National Racing Association to be retested first? Why did he go straight to the police station?]

[I also think... that he might really...]

[It's too unbearable, I really can't bear it! I beg the authorities to give a reply as soon as possible! Ji Shu, please don't let me down!]

[There's an 80% chance that he really did take drugs. To the commenter above, please become someone else's fan. It's not worth it to take drugs!]

Originally, when they had seen the medical report, many people had expressed their disbelief.

But now that this photo had been exposed, it had finally made those people waver.

Countless people rushed over to LY's official Weibo account and strongly requested for their response.

However, there was still no movement from LY's side.

Time slowly passed.

Under such circumstances, more and more people felt that LY was guilty and they were tacitly admitting to it.

Hence, very quickly, a storm of resistance against Ji Shu and LY was set off on the Internet.

A torrent of curses came from all directions.

...

Yu Yu had been paying attention to the situation on the Internet, so naturally, she saw the photo very quickly.

She looked at Yu Cheng.

"Brother, so you arranged for this?"

Yu Cheng looked at his phone and frowned.

"This is not done by one of my people."

Yu Yu was stunned for a moment before continuing.

"Then I guess someone just happened to take it. After all, this matter with Ji Shu is indeed very troublesome."

At times like this, the various media outlets would think of ways to grab more first-hand information.

Yu Cheng chuckled.

He had drunk quite a lot, so the entire room reeked of alcohol.

Yu Yu felt a little uncomfortable from the smell and did not have the patience to continue accompanying him.

She said, "Brother, I have a dinner appointment with Director Meng tonight. You should rest well. I will come and look for you later."

As she spoke, she stood up.

Yu Cheng waved his hand.

Yu Yu turned around and was about to leave.

Suddenly, Yu Cheng's phone rang.

However, Yu Cheng was a little drunk and was half lying on the sofa. He was a little impatient.

"Who is it? Xiao Yu, help me answer it."

Yu Yu replied and bent over to pick up his phone.

The caller ID showed that it was Yu Pan.

She picked up the call.

However, before she could say anything, she heard a panicked voice from the other end.

“Captain! This is bad! Someone reported us for drug possession. The police are all here at FN now!”

Chapter 910: Fighting Poison With Poison

Yu Yu’s heart sank!

Yu Pan said anxiously, “Captain! Director Zhang and Manager Su are currently negotiating with the police. It seems like there are some members of the media outside. The situation is not good, what should we do?”

Hearing that there was no reply from the other end of the phone, he raised his voice again.

“Captain? Captain! Please come to the Capital as soon as possible!”

Apart from Yu Cheng, who else could solve this matter in the whole of FN?

Yu Yu held her breath and turned to look at Yu Cheng.

As if sensing that something was wrong with her expression, Yu Cheng casually asked, “What’s wrong? Who’s on the phone?”

Yu Pan finally realized that it was not Yu Cheng who had answered the phone and immediately shut his mouth.

Yu Yu tried her best to keep her voice calm.

“It’s Yu Pan. He said that someone reported FN for drug possession. The police and the media have already arrived at the training base.”

Yu Cheng instantly sobered up.

He suddenly sat up from the sofa and stared at Yu Yu.

“What did you say?!”

Yu Yu turned the phone to speakerphone mode and said, “Yu Pan, repeat what you just said to me.”

Hearing that it was Yu Yu, Yu Pan felt slightly relieved and recounted the incident.

The more he listened, the darker Yu Cheng’s expression became until it ended up as cold as ice.

The air in the room seemed to freeze as well, making it difficult to breathe.

“Captain, what should we do now? If this matter were to be exposed, then—”

“What are you panicking for!”

Yu Cheng suddenly shouted angrily. At the same time, he threw the wine glass onto the coffee table.

Bang!

The ear-piercing cracking sound was like an invisible knife that instantly cut off Yu Pan’s voice.

He immediately shut up.

However, he was still extremely anxious.

What was he panicking about?

What else could he be panicking about?

He was the main force of FN. Of course, he knew about the terrible internal matters!

FN simply could not withstand any drug inspection!

Moreover, the reason they were being reported this time was for drug possession!

Possession of drugs!

This was much more serious than the simple crime of just taking drugs!

Once something was discovered... the whole of FN would be dragged down with it!

Yu Cheng was not a good-tempered person, to begin with. Now that he had drunk alcohol, his emotions were magnified by the alcohol, making him even more irritable.

He sat on the sofa and rubbed his face with both hands.

When Yu Yu saw this, she said, "Yu Pan, don't be anxious. Brother and I will think of a way to deal with it as soon as possible. Tell me clearly first, which police station was it that came to investigate?"

With the current situation, it was definitely necessary to look for someone.

However, before Yu Pan could reply, someone came over.

“Bring all the personnel back first! Over there! The one who’s making a call! What are you waiting for?”

The call was quickly ended.

Yu Yu stared at the phone as the uneasiness in her heart grew stronger.

Yu Pan and the others were currently at the FN training base in the Capital, and the situation did not look optimistic.

She and Yu Cheng were currently in Haicheng, so there was no way for them to reach them.

However, this matter had to be resolved as soon as possible.

Once it was exposed by the media—

“Brother, I’ll go and inquire about the situation in the Capital first. In addition, no matter what, I’ll suppress the news from the media first.”

Yu Yu said in a low voice, speaking relatively fast.

She knew very well that the longer this matter dragged on, the more difficult it would be to handle!

After she finished speaking, she saw that there was still no movement from Yu Cheng.

“Brother?”

An ominous premonition surfaced in her heart and she finally probed, “Brother, on FN’s end... The police shouldn’t be able to find anything on them, right?”

Yu Cheng pressed the tip of his tongue against his left cheek without answering her question directly. All he said was, "Just do what you said you were going to do just now. This matter must not be blown up!"

As he spoke, he stood up.

However, at this moment, his phone rang again.

It was from the Capital police.

Yu Yu frowned as she looked at the number on the screen. The bad premonition in her heart grew stronger.

However, it was impossible not to answer this call.

She looked at Yu Cheng and urged him.

Yu Cheng stared at the phone for a long while before answering the call.

The other party's voice was cold and serious.

"Yu Cheng? Hello, we're from the Capital police station. Someone has reported you for drug use and possession. Please come over as soon as possible and cooperate with the investigation."

...

Yu Cheng had been summoned.

He had no right to refuse when it came to the crime of drug possession.

After ending the phone call, Yu Cheng finally became fully alert.

His lips turned slightly pale.

Yu Yu's hands tightened. Was Yu Cheng really so stupid that he had left behind a trace?

However, she did not show it on her face. She only whispered, "Brother, don't worry. You didn't take any drugs or hide any drugs. You'll be fine."

Yu Cheng suddenly said, "Go find my father and try your best to suppress this news. Don't let Grandfather know."

Yu Yu paused and slowly widened her eyes. She said in disbelief, "Brother, could it be that you really touched—"

Yu Cheng turned to her with a dark gaze.

Yu Yu swallowed the rest of her words.

She seemed to take quite a while to digest this piece of news.

"... I got it. Brother, don't worry. Nothing will happen. I'll make a call right now."

Yu Cheng no longer had the mood to listen to this. His expression was extremely cold and sullen.

However, before Yu Yu could make a call, her phone rang.

It was her assistant.

Yu Yu was also in a bad mood. When she picked up the phone, the tone of her voice was very cold.

“What’s wrong?”

Normally, when her assistant heard her speak in this tone of voice, he would tactfully shut up and hang up the phone.

But today was different.

“President Yu! FN was reported for drug possession. It’s been exposed!”

Yu Yu’s expression changed.

“What?!”

...

At 5:30 am, just when everyone suspected that Ji Shu had taken drugs and had started to question and humiliate him, another piece of breaking news broke.

[Uncle Car: Breaking news! FN has been reported for drug possession. The police have already started a search of the FN training base. All relevant personnel has been taken away by the police!]

Included below was a picture.

In front of the FN training base, several police cars were parked there.

Everyone could see the seriousness of the matter.

The first news that Ji Shu was suspected of taking drugs had been released by this blogger.

Everyone had originally been waiting for any follow-up news regarding Ji Shu. However, no one could have guessed that even after waiting for so long, there was still no movement from Ji Shu's side. Instead, they had received such a shocking piece of news!

FN!

Drug possession!

This was even more shocking than the news of Ji Shu taking drugs! It was even more shocking!

Therefore, when the news came out, everyone was stunned.

[What the f*ck??!!!]

[FN and drug possession? Am I seeing things?!]

[What's going on today? Previously, there was the news about Ji Shu taking drugs, and now there's the news that the whole of FN is involved in drug possession? Is the domestic racing scene a drug den? !]

[Watch what you say, commenter above, alright? The official results of whether Ji Shu actually took drugs haven't been released yet, but you've already convicted him?]

[If this news is true, I'm afraid it'll be completely over for FN!]

[Good guy, I'm f*cking good guy. Are these people competing to see who is more poisonous??]

[I'm really convinced we should wait for the police report! Whoever is involved in drugs will be blacklisted for the rest of their lives!]

FN suspected of drug possession #, rushed to the top searches at an amazing speed, and quickly suppressed # Ji Shu suspected of drug abuse #, becoming number one on the list.

Weibo crashed immediately.
