

Little Brat's 911

Chapter 911: Picking Up His Girlfriend to Go Home

In just a short hour, from Ji Shu's medical report being exposed as a suspected drug user, to his trip to the police station being photographed, to the FN being reported for drug possession which led to all their personnel being taken away.

All this shocking news came one after another, giving almost no time for the public to react.

More importantly, the nature of these things was getting worse and worse!

Drug abuse was an individual act. Once it was confirmed, they would usually be sentenced to less than 15 days of detention.

However, drug possession was different.

If they were found to be involved in drug trafficking, it would be considered an even more serious matter and they would be sentenced!

Moreover, Ji Shu was just one person. FN's side had been completely wiped out!

The number of searches related to FN increased rapidly. The Weibo server was frozen for more than 10 minutes.

When it finally returned to normal, the top searches and the front page were completely dominated by news of FN's suspected drug possession.

As a result, attention to Ji Shu's matter had decreased significantly.

The eyes and attention of countless netizens had shifted from Ji Shu to FN.

FN was also quickly dragged into the vortex of criticism.

Without giving FN any time to react, countless questions and suspicions poured in one after another!

...

At a police station in the Capital.

Ji Shu was brought over for testing.

At Shen Li's request, he underwent a hair test.

The relevant tests included a urine test, a blood test, a hair test, and so on. Different methods could detect the residual time that the drugs remained in a person's body.

Usually, after a week, a urine test would not be able to detect it. A blood test would take a longer time, but it would be able to detect whether there had been any drug abuse within a month.

On the other hand, the hair test would be able to go as far back as three to six months.

Shen Li and Gu Siyang waited in the lounge.

Gu Siyang looked towards the door and lowered his voice.

"Sis, I think I know now why you asked me to bring Ji Shu over immediately."

There was nothing more convincing than the results of a police test!

Moreover, they had chosen the hair test right from the start. It was obvious that they were determined to completely clear Ji Shu of all suspicion.

Once the results were released, those rumors would fall apart.

After he finished speaking, he did not receive any response from Shen Li.

She was looking down slightly as she swiped on her phone.

“Sis, what are you looking at? Why are you so engrossed?”

Gu Siyang asked as she leaned over.

Shen Li showed her phone to him and said calmly, “This is what I’m looking at– It looks like FN seems to be in trouble now.”

“What?”

Gu Siyang looked over and was shocked.

“F*ck!”

FN was suspected of possessing drugs?!

Wasn’t this too ruthless?

He hurriedly took out his phone and realized that such a big thing had happened in such a short period of time!

The public opinion had already shifted from Ji Shu to FN!

“This—”

He was still in a daze as he looked at the countless related news on his phone. Finally, he stared at the photo of the police cars parked in front of FN for a long time before muttering,

“This lineup... isn’t it too big?”

After receiving the report, they had quickly sent the police out. Moreover, it was such a large-scale police force. It was probably... not that simple.

The corners of Shen Li’s lips curled up.

“Yes. This problem, I don’t know how much better they are than us.”

Gu Siyang touched his head.

“But if this is true, then it proves that someone inside FN must be taking drugs. But they didn’t seem to have problems with their medical reports?”

If there had been anything wrong, it would have been exposed long ago.

Shen Li leaned back.

“Ji Shu didn’t touch that thing. Yet, wasn’t his urine test still positive?”

Gu Siyang was shocked.

“You mean—”

At this moment, Ji Shu had just finished taking samples and was walking over with the police.

His mood was obviously much better than when he had first heard the news. With one hand in his pocket and his lazy posture, his eyes still carried the unruly and arrogant look of a teenager.

“Sister Li.”

He called out to Shen Li.

Shen Li looked at him, smiled, and nodded.

Then, she said softly, “His abnormal physical examination report was leaked from the National Racing Association. Why waste time to apply for a reexamination there?”

Gu Siyang took a deep breath.

What Shen Li meant... Was she sure that someone had tampered with Ji Shu’s physical examination report?

“But that’s the National Racing Association...”

“Yeah, that’s the National Racing Association.” Shen Li tilted her head, her clear and calm peach blossom eyes curved beautifully. “Colluding with the authorities to frame the drivers... the public will definitely be happy to see such gossip.”

Gu Siyang’s eyes widened and he was stunned for a while.

So...

So from the beginning, she had not had the slightest trust in the National Racing Association!

That was why she had asked him to bring Ji Shu directly to the police station!

That was why she had asked Ji Shu to undergo the most stringent test without hesitation!

At this moment, Ji Shu had already arrived in front of them.

“Sister Li, what are you guys talking about?” Ji Shu asked casually.

Shen Li smiled and said, “Nothing much. I was just saying that FN has been reported for drug possession and everyone has been taken away.”

Ji Shu was also shocked.

“Really? What’s the situation like?”

Gu Siyang handed the phone to him.

“Take a look for yourself. The Internet has gone crazy. Those who were cursing you before are all cursing FN now.”

Ji Shu swiped the screen a few times and quickly understood the whole situation.

When he heard Gu Siyang say this, he snorted.

“I’m innocent anyway. It doesn’t matter whether they curse me or not.”

Shen Li looked at him.

Of course, these words did not come entirely from Ji Shu's heart.

He was just too proud.

However, it was precisely because he was innocent that those reprimands, insults, slanders, and wrongs had felt even heavier.

She smiled and said, "Ji Shu is right. Those who are innocent will be proven innocent."

Ji Shu raised his eyebrows and smiled. The haze from before had disappeared completely.

Gu Siyang looked at him and then at Shen Li. He could not help but sigh.

"Sis, it's a good thing we found you."

From the beginning to the end, she had been extremely calm, and her methods had been decisive.

She was truly worthy of being relied on!

Just as she finished speaking, there was a sudden movement from outside.

Then, she heard someone speaking with a polite and earnest tone.

"Second Master Lu, why are you here?"

Shen Li's heart skipped a beat as she looked outside the door.

A tall and straight figure came into view.

It was Lu Huaiyu.

He raised his eyes and looked over. A casual smile appeared on his handsome and noble face.

“Well, I’m afraid that my girlfriend won’t feel comfortable staying in this place for too long, so I’m here to pick her up.”

Chapter 912: Sister Li, Report?

As he spoke, he strode into the lounge area and walked towards Shen Li.

A few men followed behind him.

The one on the right was the director of this police station. He was also the one who had received Shen Li and the others.

Hearing Lu Huaiyu’s words, he secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, fortunately.

When Shen Li and the others had come over earlier, they had treated them rather courteously.

He had long heard that the Second Master of the Lu family was very fond of his young girlfriend and doted on her dearly.

Previously, he had only thought that it was an exaggeration. Now that he had seen it with his own eyes, he realized that this was clearly even more excessive than the rumors!

Lu Huaiyu stood in front of Shen Li and bent over slightly, looking into her eyes.

“You haven’t been wronged here, have you?”

Shen Li shook her head.

The corner of Gu Siyang’s mouth twitched.

Ever since the incident, Shen Li had been extremely calm.

She was the only one who made others uncomfortable. How could others make her feel wronged?

As Ji Shu glanced at Lu Huaiyu, his expression was even more complicated.

Other people might not know, but it was impossible for Lu Huaiyu not to know. The matter of entering the police station was simply too common for Shen Li.

If he remembered correctly, when they were in Yunzhou, Lu Huaiyu had personally gone to the police station to retrieve her, right?

How could he ask such a question?

More importantly, looking at the expressions of the people behind him, it seemed that they really believed him.

They were all full of worry, afraid that they would offend this master of the Lu family just because Shen Li was a little unhappy.

Only then did Lu Huaiyu seem to be satisfied. He stroked her hair and asked, “Then, would you like to go home?”

Shen Li nodded.

The corners of Lu Huaiyu's lips curled up as he stretched his hand out.

Shen Li obediently took it.

She really looked like a child who had been waiting for someone to come pick her up.

This time, the police station chief and the others looked at Shen Li with complicated expressions.

No.

When she came here earlier, had she not been full of energy?

Had she not been the one to disagree when they first said that they would conduct a urine test on Ji Shu, and had immediately requested for a hair test instead?

At that time, she had been so bold and direct. Had they been blind and made a mistake?

Lu Huaiyu was still asking about something.

"Have you been waiting here for a long time?"

"No, it's only about half an hour."

"Are you tired?"

"It's alright, but the Internet speed here is a little slow."

Weibo had been down for a long time, and her Internet speed was terrible, causing her to be slower than the others by half a beat.

Just the picture of the police cars parked in front of FN had taken a long time to load.

Everyone fell silent after hearing that.

So while the outside world was in chaos, the thing that she cared the most about... was a slow internet speed?!

1

Lu Huaiyu laughed. After confirming that she had not been aggravated during the half an hour or so that she had been here, he looked at the few people at the police station.

“Director Wu, Ji Shu is a public figure. The impact of this matter is very great. Many people are waiting for the police to report. Therefore, I hope the results of Ji Shu’s test can be released as soon as possible.”

Director Wu quickly nodded in agreement.

“Second Master is right. Chief Zhao has already told us about the seriousness of this matter, and we attach great importance to it as well. The results of the test can be released tomorrow morning at the earliest.”

The Internet was already in chaos. Countless netizens rushed to the official Weibo account of their police station to leave messages, demanding that the results of the investigation on Ji Shu be released as soon as possible.

They were just an ordinary police station in a district. When had they ever experienced such a situation?

The higher-ups had specially given instructions for this. Now, with Lu Huaiyu's words, the pressure on their shoulders was even greater. Of course, they had to speed up and handle this matter carefully.

Lu Huaiyu nodded slightly.

"Thank you for your trouble, Director Wu."

"No trouble, no trouble! This is what we should do!"

"I'll take this person away first and Director Wu will stay."

After Lu Huaiyu said that, he left with Shen Li.

Of course, Gu Siyang and Ji Shu left with them.

At the moment, he was only suspected of taking drugs. The results of the test had not yet been released. The police only asked for him to leave his ID card with them before allowing him to leave.

Ji Shu did not care about this. The results would be out tomorrow anyway.

Besides, since Shen Li and Lu Huaiyu were both here, there was nothing to worry about.

The group walked out of the police station.

Shen Li looked up and saw a black Panamera in addition to Gu Siyang's car.

Fang Qingyun was standing next to the car door, looking around nervously.

When he saw Lu Huaiyu and Shen Li walking out, he quickly went forward and looked at Shen Li carefully. After making sure that she was fine, he heaved a sigh of relief.

“Ah Li, you didn’t suffer much here, did you?”

Gu Siyang and Ji Shu were silent.

What was wrong with the Lu family?

Perhaps others might be constrained when they came to this place, but how could Shen Li be the same?

Why did the Lu family seem to treat her like a porcelain doll, afraid that she might bump into something?

What was it that they misunderstood about her?

The corners of Shen Li’s lips curved slightly.

“I’m fine, don’t worry.”

“That’s good, that’s good!” Fang Qingyun’s expression relaxed. “You don’t know this, but when the old man found out that you were here, he was really worried!”

Shen Li was stunned.

“Grandpa Lu knows—”

“When you sent me the message, I was at home playing chess with Grandpa.” Lu Huaiyu explained.

Shen Li understood.

Gu Siyang could not help but ask,

“Sister, so you specially invited the Second Master over?”

Shen Li shook her head.

“No.”

Gu Siyang blinked his eyes.

He thought that his cousin had specifically asked Lu Huaiyu to support her. After all, in the Capital, the Lu family was the most well-known family.

Ji Shu suddenly understood something. He looked at Shen Li with a complicated gaze and said hesitantly, “Sister Li, so when you sent a message... was it to report in?”

Shen Li tilted her head and narrowed her eyes.

Ji Shu thought, “F*ck, it’s true!”

The scene of Shen Li being dragged out of the bar by Lu Huaiyu and following him obediently appeared in his mind once again.

Ji Shu looked at Lu Huaiyu with great admiration.

It was really a case of one person besting another.

Sister Li used to fight and race cars. The people at the Lincheng police station were so familiar with her that they could greet her on the road.

But now?

She had to make it clear when she accompanied someone to the police station.

Tsk.

Shen Li had not actually expected Lu Huaiyu to come directly to the police station.

All she had told him was that something had happened to Ji Shu and that both she and Gu Siyang were accompanying Ji Shu to the police station.

But who knew—

“Second Brother, tell Grandpa Lu not to worry.”

Lu Huaiyu opened the car door for her and laughed when he heard that.

“I know.”

Before they had come, the old man had repeatedly reminded them. He had almost gone to call Chief Zhao himself.

In the end, he had been prevented from doing that.

Shen Li got into the passenger seat.

Gu Siyang finally came back to his senses.

“Eh? Sister, aren't you coming back with us?”

Shen Li said, "Take Ji Shu back to the base first. We'll talk about it when the results are out tomorrow. I'm going home."

Gu Siyang looked at Lu Huaiyu beside her and finally nodded tactfully.

"Alright!"

Ji Shu and Gu Siyang left together.

Lu Huaiyu got into the back seat and the car drove away.

Only then did he look at Shen Li and said, "I was a little late. I just called Chief Zhao."

Chapter 913: Presents

Chief Zhao— The chief of the Capital Public Security Bureau, Zhao Hengshan.

Shen Li tilted her head.

"Second Brother, there was actually no need to go through so much trouble—"

Lu Huaiyu held her hand and said, "Before I even did so, the Yu family had also given him a call."

Shen Li paused.

Actually, this matter was within her expectations.

With FN being investigated, it was natural that Yu Cheng could not escape either.

Naturally, when it came to this eldest grandson, the Yu family's reaction was certainly quick.

However, she was not worried.

This matter would not be so easy to get over. The Yu family had thought too simply.

They just had not expected Lu Huaiyu to intervene.

As if he had guessed what she was thinking, Lu Huai smiled and said, "Don't worry, Chief Zhao is just."

After he had found out that FN was being investigated, he had guessed that the Yu family would definitely take action.

The reason he had called was to ease the pressure on Zhao Hengshan's shoulders.

He would investigate as he should.

Shen Li felt slightly relieved.

In her previous life, after the FN incident had been exposed, a large part of the reason why Yu Cheng had been able to escape was that the incident had been investigated by the Haicheng Police.

The Yu family had a lot of power and connections in Haicheng.

As long as they resorted to some tactics and found someone to become a scapegoat, it would be easy for them to protect Yu Cheng.

However, this time was different.

The incident had happened in the Capital, so the Yu family was unable to do anything about it.

Moreover, they had bumped into Zhao Hengshan, who was famous for his iron plate.

“Thank you, Second Brother,” she said. “But, why did Second Brother think...”

By doing this, he was clearly going against the Yu family.

“Didn’t you say that Yu Cheng had offended you before?” Lu Huaiyu’s thin lips twitched slightly. “Then of course I can’t miss this opportunity. Think of it as me helping you to vent your anger.”

Shen Li’s eyelids drooped slightly as she interlocked her fingers with his.

Even though she had already made full preparations and was only waiting to draw in the net, the feeling of being protected by someone was still extremely reassuring.

...

Skyleaf City.

The black Panamera stopped downstairs.

Shen Li pushed the door open and got out of the car. She then turned around.

“By the way, Second Brother, there’s something I’ve been wanting to give you. I was so busy these past two days that I forgot about it. Do you want to go up and get it with me?”

Lu Huaiyu nodded and got out of the car as well.

The two of them walked inside together and got into the elevator.

Shen Li pressed the button for the ninth floor.

Lu Huaiyu asked with a smile, "What is it that you want to give to me? I've never heard you mention it before."

Shen Li looked up at him and held his hand.

The moment the elevator door closed, she took half a step forward and stood on tiptoe. Her other hand climbed onto his shoulder as she kissed his slightly cold thin lips.

"This."

Her soft lips rubbed against his, hammering and grinding at his rationality.

His hand pressed hard against her slender and soft waist, quickly turning the tables on her.

The whisper in her throat was swallowed up by him, leaving only a tiny gasp that was faint and softly sweet.

The air in the elevator seemed to have become sticky and sensual.

With every minute and every second that passed, it was as if they were pulled into thin and tough silk, wrapping and binding around them.

Ding.

Fourth floor.

The elevator door opened.

A woman in her forties walked in and saw Lu Huaiyu and Shen Li standing side by side in the elevator.

She greeted them with a smile.

“Huaiyu, are you sending Ah Li back again?”

Most of the people who lived here were the teachers and staff of Xijing University. They often bumped into each other in the same building, so they were familiar with each other.

Lu Huaiyu answered with a smile.

The elevator went up to the seventh floor, and the woman walked out again.

The moment her figure was covered by the elevator hinge, Lu Huaiyu bowed his head again and kissed her.

However, Shen Li gave him a gentle push.

Lu Huaiyu stepped back slightly, but his hand continued to clutch at her waist. With a husky voice, he asked, “What’s wrong?”

Shen Li raised her head and looked at him with her watery peach blossom eyes. She opened her red lips slightly and stuck out the tip of her tongue for him to see, but she quickly pulled it back. Petulantly, she complained in a low voice, “Look at where you bit me. It hurts.”

A string in Lu Huaiyu’s brain snapped in an instant.

It was as if there was a fire burning in the depths of his body, burning away all of his rationality and restraint.

The palm of his hand was placed on her waist, and his long legs were pressed against her knees. His gaze instantly became much darker, like a bottomless sea.

Without any explanation, he was about to kiss her.

However, before he could act— Ding.

On the ninth floor.

Lu Huaiyu stopped.

Shen Li's eyes curved in a smile. She stretched out a slender, fair finger and gently poked at his firm chest muscles.

Even through the thin fabric, she could still feel the scorching heat and the taut feeling.

She reminded him, "Second Brother, I'm home."

Of course, Lu Huaiyu knew that she was home and that she was pretty much at her doorstep.

He pressed the tip of his tongue against his upper palate and smiled.

"Okay."

"Shen Tangtang, you're really something."

Shen Li coughed lightly and stepped out of the elevator. She turned around and waved at him.

"Second Brother, please accept the gift. Goodbye!"

...

Fang Qingyun waited downstairs for a while and saw that Lu Huaiyu had come down very quickly.

He took a look and noticed that Lu Huaiyu's hands were empty. He could not help but get a strange feeling.

"Second Master, didn't you go up to get the present that Ah Li gave you? Didn't you bring it back?"

Lu Huaiyu got into the backseat. He propped himself up with one hand, as his well-defined fingers lightly brushed against the corner of his lips.

The heart-wrenching sweetness from her body seemed to linger there.

He laughed casually.

"She felt that she could do better and said that I should come back to get it next time."

...

This night was very long for the people of F N.

Everyone had been brought to the police station and interrogated separately.

In the interrogation room.

Two police officers were already waiting.

When it came to Yu Pan's turn, his expression was ugly as he said coldly, "I'll say it again! FN has nothing to do with drugs! You're slandering us!"

One of the police officers raised his head and looked at him.

“Whether you’re involved in drugs or not, we’ll only know after we investigate. It’s useless to argue with us now. Everything is based on evidence, understand?”

“If you tell us the truth, we can still treat you with some leniency.”

Yu Pan sneered.

“If I say it doesn’t matter, then it doesn’t matter! It’s the same even if you ask us a hundred times! Let me tell you, you have to apologize for the loss of FN’s reputation that you caused this time! You have to make a public clarification!”

The policeman did not seem bothered by what he said and immediately began to interrogate him.

“Name.”

Yu Pan refused to cooperate and his attitude remained unyielding.

“Evidence? Didn’t you bring us here without any evidence? I want to see your leader!”

The policeman who asked the question laughed in anger and knocked on the table with his pen.

“Yu Pan, someone reported that you’ve had a history of drug abuse for more than a year, yet you’re still complaining about being wronged?”

Yu Pan’s face instantly turned pale.

“What, what nonsense are you talking about?! I didn’t!”

“Whether you did or didn’t, is not up to you. After the interrogation, all of you will have to be pulled over for testing.”

The police officer looked at him,

“Why do you think that they’re investigating the whole of FN this time?”

The anonymous report detailed the names of all the people in FN who had a history of drug abuse.

Famous racers like Yu Pan, as well as the managers of FN, were even listed together with the time of drug abuse.

Thinking of this, the police officer snorted.

“Your FN, from the boss to the employees, I don’t think there are many who are clean. Very good.”

Yu Pan’s mind instantly went blank.

Chapter 914: It’s Just Getting Started

As time went on, things got worse and worse.

From the afternoon when Ji Shu had been suspected of drug abuse, a series of news broke out one after another, and by the evening, it was all over the Internet.

Everyone’s attention was focused here, and everyone was talking about these matters.

Some of it was about Ji Shu, but more of it was about FN.

In short, it was a mess.

However, neither LY nor FN had any response to these rumors.

This made the outside world speculate even more about this.

If Ji Shu was innocent, why didn't LY come out to clarify the situation?

If FN was not in possession of drugs, how could they all be taken away?

There were even people who rushed over to the National Racing Association's official website to leave messages, and there were even people who called to ask for an explanation.

A lot of pressure came. As the president of the NRA, Liao Yuan called for an emergency meeting.

It was already dark outside, but the meeting room was brightly lit.

Liao Yuan sat at the main seat with his brows furrowed.

"The matter between FN and Ji Shu has become very big on the Internet. As the authorities, we have to express our attitude as soon as possible. If there are any countermeasures, please let us know."

The higher-ups looked at each other.

"The police have already intervened. We have no right to interfere. I'm afraid it won't be easy to handle."

"That's right. Moreover, if only Ji Shu was involved, it would be fine. Now that FN is involved, once it's proven that they were truly in possession of drugs, it will be much more serious than Ji Shu's charge of drug abuse!"

“Why don’t we wait for the results of the police investigation first...”

In his heart, Liao Yuan actually understood their reasoning.

After a moment of silence, he said, “In that case, let’s wait first—”

“Chairman Liao.”

A voice suddenly interrupted him. Liao Yuan raised his head and saw that the person who spoke was vice-chairman Pang Zhikai.

Pang Zhikai’s expression was solemn.

“FN is one of the top clubs in this country. It’ll be a great loss for the country as well as the domestic racing circle. I think it’s better to express our support first. At the very least, we can give everyone some reassurance and minimize the damage to FN’s reputation.”

Liao Yuan thought for a moment and said, “But right now, whether FN is innocent or not is still unknown. It’s not good for us to decide on our position.”

If there was really something wrong with FN, would it still be worth it to keep their official face intact?

Pang Zhikai frowned.

“FN has been developing well these past few years. How could they do such a thing? Someone must have reported them out of maliciousness!”

Liao Yuan paused.

“Ji Shu’s results were also another big thing. Didn’t his urine test come back as positive as well?”

Pang Zhikai was instantly dumbfounded.

Liao Yuan's expression became more stern.

"Speaking of which, Ji Shu's physical examination report was leaked from within our organization. The nature of this matter is bad. We must investigate this as soon as possible. Once we find out who did it, we will punish have to punish them severely!"

Pang Zhikai lowered his eyes.

"Chairman Liao is right. We must investigate this matter carefully."

Everyone agreed.

However, regarding Ji Shu and FN, they were unable to reach a conclusion.

In the end, Liao Yuan finally made a firm decision.

"We will first issue a statement, saying that the association will fully cooperate with the police investigation and wait for the police results. If there is really a problem with Ji Shu and FN, the association will definitely not cover it up and will definitely deal with the matter seriously!"

...

When the National Racing Association's statement was issued, it finally pacified some people.

However, ultimately, it was still only a small number.

Most people's attention was still on Ji Shu and FN.

They were unable to truly feel at ease until the final results were released.

Fans of LY and FN were frantically cursing each other, with both sides firmly believing that their own side was innocent.

Throughout the night, countless people were eagerly waiting.

...

After Ji Shu returned to LY, Yang Tao took away his phone.

Although everyone believed him, he did not want Ji Shu's feelings to be affected due to the fierce criticism online.

Initially, Ji Shu had wanted to say that there was no need, but seeing that Yang Tao and the others insisted, he simply agreed.

Yang Tao even gave him extra time off.

As a result, Ji Shu who rarely got to relax, played games the entire night.

However, compared to his relaxed side, FN's people, including Yu Cheng, were having a much harder time.

Yu Cheng had rushed to the Capital overnight.

This was because he knew very well that the longer this matter dragged on, the more disadvantageous it would be for them.

Originally, he had asked Yu Yu to contact someone to take down the trending searches, but that had not worked out.

FN remained at the top of the trending topic list, from afternoon until late at night.

Not only did it not seem like it was going to go down, but the popularity of the topic only increased further.

Yu Cheng was extremely frustrated, but soon, he found that he could not care about these things.

After arriving at the police station in the Capital, he realized that the matter was much more serious than he had thought.

He did not even have the time to say anything before he was taken away to undergo a drug test.

Only then did he realize that he was not the only one. All the superiors from FN had also undergone this test.

Furthermore, because the crime involved was suspicion of possession of drugs, after the test, none of them were released. Instead, they were detained at the police station.

At this point, Yu Cheng finally had a vague feeling that things were starting to get out of control.

...

This time, Shen Li slept very well.

The next morning, she woke up and had breakfast with Shen Zhijin.

Shen Zhijin was resting today.

He looked at her and asked, "Tang Tang seems to be in a good mood today?"

Shen Li nodded as she ate a bun.

"I plan to do some painting at home."

Shen Zhijin nodded.

After eating, Shen Zhijin went to the study while Shen Li went into the art studio to continue the unfinished painting from yesterday.

The morning passed quickly.

At twelve o'clock, her phone rang.

She put down her brush and got up to take her phone.

It was a message from Gu Siyang.

[ Sister! Ji Shu's test results are out! The official Weibo of the Capital Public Security Bureau has just announced that he is innocent! ]

Below was a Weibo link that he had sent.

One could feel his excitement and joy through the screen.

[ This is great! This is really great! Hahahahaha! This matter is finally settled! I'll call Ji Shu now. Let's have a meal together to celebrate today! ]

It had clearly been less than 24 hours since yesterday until now, but to them, it had been like a roller coaster ride.

Now that the dust had finally settled, of course they had to celebrate properly!

Shen Li laughed silently.

In what way was it over?

Everything had only just begun.

She typed a line of words.

[ The results of the investigation on FN should be out by now, right? ]

Chapter 915: Two Weibo Posts

Gu Siyang saw this and slapped his thigh.

[ I was so happy to see the results of Ji Shu's test that I almost forgot about this! I haven't heard any news yet, but it should be soon! ]

He was the boss of LY, and he was a good friend of Ji Shu. Naturally, that meant that he cared about Ji Shu's situation the most.

Since yesterday until now, his heart had felt as if it had been left, afraid that something would go wrong again.

Fortunately, everything had gone smoothly!

As for FN, he really had not had the time to look into that.

Shen Li thought about it.

[ There's no rush. Let's wait for the results on FN to come out first. ]

Gu Siyang stared at this line of words for a long time. He had the feeling that something was not quite right.

What did FN's result have to do with them?

[ Sister, so what you're saying is that we should wait for the results concerning FN to be confirmed before we can go celebrate? ]

That was not enough.

Since when had their relationship with FN become so good?

Shen Li raised her eyebrows slightly.

[ We are in the same industry after all. We should at least have some empathy. ]

Gu Siyang recalled the time when she had beaten Yu Cheng by four and a half laps on the track and forced him out of the first-tier team. He had serious doubts about this sentence.

However, since this was what she had said, there was nothing wrong else to do about it.

After all, for the entire day and night, the Internet had indeed been discussing Ji Shu and FN together, and it had even implicated the entire racing circle.

There was nothing wrong with waiting for a while.

[ Alright. By the way, Yang Tao asked me just now about when we would be holding a press conference to officially clarify this matter. ]

The police report confirming Ji Shu's innocence had already been released.

However, this was far from enough.

The impact of rumors was extensive and far-reaching.

Once a person started a rumor, they would break their legs trying to refute it.

Many times, even if the truth was out, it would still not be able to make up for the damage that those rumors had caused.

Many people would only remember those rumors that were full of attacks and absurdities, but they would not remember the subsequent clarification.

This one day and one night had been enough for many people to associate the name "Ji Shu" closely with the phrase "drug abuse."

If they searched for "Ji Shu" now, the related words at the end would be "drug abuse" and "police station."

To put it bluntly, his name had already been dirtied by this crazy rumor.

How could it be so easy to completely clear his name and return him a clean slate?

Shen Li replied unhurriedly.

[ There's no rush. Let Ji Shu and everyone have a good rest first. I'll consider the timing of the press conference first. I'll let you know when I've made up my mind. ]

Gu Siyang actually felt that it would be better for this matter to be settled as early as possible. But now, he was more willing to listen to Shen Li's opinion.

From the beginning until now, Shen Li had remained extremely calm and composed. When Gu Siyang looked at her, he felt as if everything was under her control.

So when Shen Li said that, he agreed without any hesitation.

[ Okay! I'll listen to what you say! ]

...

After replying to Gu Siyang, Shen Li congratulated Ji Shu and opened the Weibo link.

[ Capital Public Security West Branch: On April 13th, accompanied by a friend, Ji Shu (21 years old) took the initiative to go to the Public Security Bureau for a drug hair test. After the test, no drug ingredients were detected in his body, proving that he had not taken any drugs in the past half a year. Police reminder: Taking drugs is harmful to others and yourself. Refusing to take drugs starts with you. ]

This notice was not very long, but once it was released, it immediately caused a huge storm.

[ Ji Shu did not take drugs! Ji Shu did not take drugs! Ji Shu did not take drugs! ]

[ Ahhh! I knew it! I knew that Ji Shu was innocent! ]

[ He actually went to the police station on his own initiative? He must have really had the guts to do this, right? Moreover, the hair test he did would have tested for traces of the poison within the past half a year. If he had really touched any drugs, how would he have dared to do this? ]

[ It was only a half a year period. Who knows if he had taken drugs before? ]

[ Wait! The person above just reminded me. Wasn't the reason why Ji Shu had been suspected of taking drugs because of the urine test results? I remember that it indicated that he had taken drugs within the past week! But now the police test has indicated that he has not touched drugs for at least half a year. This... doesn't match up! ]

This comment quickly attracted everyone's attention. It was quickly pushed up, and the number of replies also soared.

[ The person who commented this is right! Why are these two results contradicting each other? ]

[ Then does this prove that one of the test results is problematic? ]

[ I wouldn't dare to say anything else. With the anti-drug measures in the country, the police's test results can't be wrong, right? On the other hand, Ji Shu's previous physical examination report was first submitted to the National Racing Association from the hospital that had been designated for their physical examination. It was equivalent to having been tampered with somewhere in the middle. Who knew how many hands it had passed through? And everyone should not forget that his report seemed to have been leaked from the National Racing Association in the beginning, right? With such lax supervision, who could ensure that there was no problem with the report? ]

[ What the person above said makes sense! It's terrifying to think about it! ]

[ No matter what you think, I believe in the test results from the police. ]

[ Me too... ]

[ This matter itself is very strange. Logically speaking, if there was a problem with Ji Shu's medical report, the National Racing Association would have immediately contacted LY. Under normal circumstances, LY would definitely ask Ji Shu to apply for a reexamination. If there really was a problem, then LY would announce it to the public. But at that time, Ji Shu's medical report had been leaked, which was... ]

[ Have you guys ever thought about why Ji Shu had not applied for a reexamination? Instead, he chose to go directly to the police station? Could it be that he already knew that there was a problem, so– ]

The direction of the comments section quickly changed.

At first, they had not thought so, but now that the police had reported it, it could be considered as having cleared Ji Shu's name. When everyone looked back carefully, they realized that there was indeed something wrong with this whole matter.

How could it be so coincidental that his urine test results were wrong, and then a photo of it happened to have been taken of it and exposed on the Internet?

If it weren't for the timely report from the police, Ji Lyu would still be under endless criticism.

Many guesses arose.

Shen Li scrolled through the comment section, then exited and refreshed it.

The next second, a new Weibo post appeared at the top of the page.

Capital Public Security Xicheng Branch: On April 13, according to a public report, FN Racing Club has been suspected of drug possession. Our bureau quickly responded and launched a search. According to the statistics, our bureau found a total of 100 grams of heroin and 900 grams of marijuana at the FN training base. In addition to that, after testing, including FN Boss Yu (24 years old) , General Manager Zhang (32 years old) , Senior Manager Su (31 years old) , Racer Yu (23 years old) and a total of 11 people, were found to have tested positive in all their the drug tests, which proved that all of them had taken drugs. In this regard, our bureau attaches great importance, and will soon launch a further investigation on this case. The law is lenient and thorough, so we will deal with it seriously and thoroughly! ]

Chapter 916: They Must Be Going Crazy

The official Weibo account that posted this was from the Capital Public Security West Branch, which had just released Ji Shu's report.

Both Ji Shu and FN's cases were handled by the police stations of different jurisdictions, but coincidentally, they both belonged to the same branch of the Public Security Bureau.

Thus, these two Weibo posts were released by this official Weibo account.

One after the other, they formed a sharp contrast.

More importantly, this Weibo post was obviously much more explosive than Ji Shu's!

However, the amount of information contained in those few short lines was extremely shocking.

The comment section exploded.

[Eleven?! Eleven?! There were actually eleven people from FN who tested positive in their drug tests?! I'm dumbfounded! ]

[ F*ck! Am I seeing things? Were there really so many?! FN is a f*cking drug den, isn't it? ! ]

[ Boss Yu, isn't that Yu Cheng? As for Driver Yu, the only one who fits that name in the whole of FN's team is Yu Pan! The general manager and senior manager are all taking drugs as well? FN is really rotten to the core! Rotten! ]

[ Uhh! Uhh! Uhh! It's so disgusting! So f*cking disgusting! To think that I was actually a fan of FN! Why the f*ck was I even a fan?! ]

[They were hiding 100 grams of heroin... FN is really finished now... Don't they know what level of heroin is? The starting point of the punishment for illegal possession of more than 50 grams of heroin is seven years. The highest penalty is death! They were in possession of a full 100 grams! ]

[ FN! You're really something! From top to bottom, from the inside to the outside, it's just a nest of snakes and rats! Drugs addiction and drug possession! They're dead! ]

...

As soon as the news was out, the anger of the public was quickly ignited.

When FN was reported for drug possession yesterday, most people had not believed it.

After all, FN was one of the top racing clubs in the country. Although they had lost to LY in this year's race, their overall results were still okay.

A few years ago, before LY had risen, FN was the most popular club in the country.

Even up till now, there were still countless racing drivers who yearned to join FN.

Who would have thought?

Who would have thought that it would turn out like this?

It had not been just one person who had taken drugs, there were a total of eleven!

From the boss, to the manager, to the drivers... All of them had taken drugs!

What was even more terrifying was that they were actually in possession of the drugs, and it was heroin!

Every word of the police report was clear and irrefutable!

Shen Li clicked open the picture of the report and carefully browsed it twice.

The police were indeed very efficient. In less than a day, they had already found out so many things.

She knew that there were quite a number of people in FN who were drug users, so she had guessed that they would have a certain amount of drugs hidden away.

However, she had not expected that FN would actually give her such a big “surprise”.

Perhaps they had felt that they would not be investigated, or that even if they were investigated, they would be safe with Yu Cheng as their boss. So, perhaps that explained why they were so bold?

However, they probably forgot that this was the Capital, not Haicheng.

Furthermore, after FN was searched, all of them were taken to the police station, and the matter was exposed by the media.

Under such terrifying public pressure, the Yu family had even less room to maneuver.

The result was that this timely, accurate, and shocking police report was finally presented to everyone.

FN’s glamorous and beautiful mask was completely torn apart, revealing its dirty and embarrassing insides, which were clearly seen by countless pairs of eyes.

Shen Li clicked on the screen again, wanting to refresh the comments, but she realized that she was suddenly stuck.

She blinked.

Oh, Weibo had frozen again.

...

Two days in a row, Weibo had frozen twice, and it was all because of FN.

The difference was everyone's attitude towards these two incidents.

The first time they had been shocked, while the second time they were angry.

It was easy to imagine what kind of terrible public opinion attack FN would face this time.

Of course, FN might not care about these things anymore.

What they were more worried about now was the penalty they would receive for drug possession.

Shen Li simply quit Weibo and soon quickly received several messages on WeChat.

Obviously, many people already knew the news about FN.

Gu Siyang immediately made a call, and Shen Li answered it.

Because of his shock, even his voice changed a little.

"Sis! Did you have a look on Weibo? There was heroin found on FN's base! The number of drug users in the entire club has reached eleven?! Are they crazy?!"

Shen Li said, "I saw it."

In comparison, her tone was exceptionally calm.

Gu Siyang paused for a moment, then he thought of something and his eyes widened slightly.

“No wonder you said to wait... Sis, you couldn't have known about this a long time ago, right?!”

Shen Li smiled.

“That's not it. It's just that Yu Cheng's mental state has been volatile lately, as if he had some kind of illness. Yesterday, when I saw someone report that FN had been caught for drug possession, I guessed that he might be a user.”

When Gu Siyang heard this, he felt that what she said was very reasonable.

“That's true! Drugs cause a lot of damage to people's nerves. Yu Cheng is irritable and easily angered. It does look like he has a problem. The main thing is that he's not the only one. There are actually eleven people in FN who have been using drugs!”

As he said this, he could not hide his shock.

“Where did they get the courage?”

Shen Li casually asked, “It's probably because they feel that they have the Yu family to back them up.”

Gu Siyang scoffed.

“The Yu family? I'm afraid that the Yu family must be going crazy with anxiety right now, right?”

Everyone knew that the Yu family's old master loved this eldest grandson the most. Now that Yu Cheng had caused such a huge disaster, the consequences were obvious.

However, in the end, this was Yu Cheng's own mistake. Who else could be blamed?

Shen Li tapped her fingers on the table.

“Now, it’s time to let Ji Shu and the others think about what to eat to celebrate.”

The corners of her lips curled up.

“Tell them that this meal is on me. The budget per person is unlimited.”

...

Haicheng, Yu family’s old residence.

In the study.

Old Master Yu sat behind the desk with an extremely gloomy expression.

In front of him stood a middle-aged couple. They were Yu Cheng’s father, Yu Ming, and his mother, Zhou Lan.

Yu Yu was also standing beside them.

The atmosphere was tense.

“Dad, you have to help Ah Cheng this time!”

Yu Ming couldn’t hold it in any longer and hurriedly said, “He’s being detained now. What kind of place is the police station? He must be suffering greatly!”

Old Master Yu's expression was extremely ugly.

"Do you think I don't want to get him out?! But don't you see how much trouble he has caused this time?! If not for this incident, I wouldn't have known that he was actually using drugs!"

Yu Cheng had made many mistakes since he was young, and Old Master Yu had always turned a blind eye to them.

But this time was different. He had been taking drugs! He had even been in possession of drugs!

"Is that even something he can touch?! He's been given everything he wants by his family but now that he's grown up, he still dares to touch drugs!"

The more Old Master Yu spoke, the angrier he got. He raised his hand and pointed at Yu Ming.

"Is this how you teach your son?!"

Yu Ming's heart trembled as he hurriedly explained, "Dad! I didn't know about this either! If I had known, why would I let him behave so wild like this?!"

Old Master Yu looked at Yu Yu again and asked sternly, "You're close to him. Did you know about this?!"

Yu Yu's eyes were still red as if she had just been crying.

She bit her lip and shook her head.

"Grandpa, I... I only found out today..."

Chapter 917: Lifetime Ban!

She looked as if she was very nervous and sad for Yu Cheng.

She lifted her eyelashes, her face full of worry.

“Grandpa, perhaps Brother has not been thinking clearly for a while... But, no matter what, the most important thing now is to get him out!”

“Not been thinking clearly for a while? He’s 24 years old this year! Doesn’t he know what can be touched and what can not be touched?!”

Old Master Yu was extremely angry.

Even a child would understand this, but Yu Cheng had still made such a mistake!

Not only was his reputation ruined, but the entire Yu family was also being criticized!

Moreover, once he became addicted to drugs, there would be almost no chance of him quitting.

When Old Master Yu thought of this, he was so angry that his entire body trembled.

It was not a big deal that Yu Cheng liked to have fun.

It did not matter if he played with cars or women, but how could he become addicted to drugs?

Who would not be angry that such a descendant had appeared in the family?

Even Old Master Yu, who had always indulged Yu Cheng, was furious this time.

“The reputation of the entire family has been ruined, thanks to him!”

Yu Ming and his wife looked at each other and saw the worry in each other's eyes.

After so many years, this was the first time that Old Master Yu had ever been so angry at Yu Cheng.

For a moment, both of them kept quiet.

However, Yu Yu did not seem to be willing to give up.

"Grandfather, let's not talk about brother's drug use for now. The drugs found at the FN base were heroin, and there was up to 100 grams of it. The crime of drug possession can not be attributed to brother, or else—"

Old Master Yu closed his eyes.

Yu Yu was right. This was the most urgent problem that had to be solved.

After a while, he asked in a deep voice, "Those things definitely can't be his!"

There were so many people who used drugs in FN. It would be convenient to just randomly choose someone else to take the blame.

"This matter—" Old Master Yu looked at Yu Ming. "Forget it, Yu Yu is more familiar with FN's situation. Just let her handle it."

Although he did not say it explicitly, everyone knew what he meant.

Pursing her lips, Yu Yu hesitated.

"Grandfather, I'm afraid this matter won't be easy to handle... All of FN's personnel are now under the control of the police."

Everyone knew how severe the penalty for drug possession was. If they wanted to find someone to take the blame, they would definitely have to pay a heavy price.

However, that was not the most important thing.

If she wanted to do that, she had to at least meet the person, right?

Since this matter was so big, the police would definitely keep a tight watch on the suspects.

Old Master Yu frowned.

“Give their leader a call.”

As Yu Yu’s lips moved, she lowered her voice.

“Grandfather, actually, after the FN incident happened yesterday, Brother asked me to look for someone. I did give them a call. But... Chief Zhao is famous for being quite immovable. I heard that he’s personally overseeing this matter now. I’m afraid it’ll be even more...”

After all, this was the Capital.

It was too inconvenient for them to do whatever they wanted to do.

If it was not for this, this matter with FN matter might not have even been exposed.

Elder Yu took a deep breath.

“Then continue to think of a way!”

His anger flared up again. That was his own grandson. How could he just leave him to die?

Hearing his words, Yu Ming and his wife heaved a sigh of relief.

What Old Master Yu meant was that he would definitely protect Yu Cheng, no matter what.

Yu Yu lowered her eyes.

“Alright, I understand, Grandfather.”

...

The discussion of this matter on the Internet was still soaring.

On one hand, this scandal involving FN was indeed shocking. On the other hand, it had happened around the same time as Ji Shu.

People were afraid of making comparisons.

Ji Shu and FN had been involved in drug-related rumors on the same day.

However, the series of developments after that were very different.

Ji Shu had gone to the public security authorities on his initiative for testing, while FN was taken away from their base by the police.

Ji Shu's test results confirmed that he had not taken any drugs. Not only had eleven people from FN failed their drug tests all at the same time, but they had also been found to be hiding drugs.

The two Weibo posts on the official blog were posted next to each other. Just by clicking on the main page, one could see these two contrasting posts.

The contrast was simply tragic.

Everyone's cannon fire was aimed at FN. The entire Internet could see everyone's passionate criticism of FN.

[ FN will be blacklisted for life! In the future, don't let me see you useless people again! ]

[ I really feel humiliated and embarrassed for having such a racing club in this country! No wonder FN's results have been getting worse and worse every year. It's because they're doing this kind of crap! ]

[ The situation has already become like this, yet the National Racing Association has still not banned them? ]

[ Previously, when I saw Yu Cheng and the others' faces, I felt that they looked very gloomy. Now that I think about it, it's clearly because they had taken drugs! ]

[ Have all the members of FN died today? If not, I will ask again tomorrow. ]

...

At the headquarters of the National Racing Association.

After the results of the investigation on Ji Shu and FN had come out, Liao Yuan had organized a second emergency meeting.

"Now that the situation has been made clear on the police's end, it's time for us to make our stance clear." Liao Yuan placed his phone on the table and rubbed the space between his eyebrows.

From yesterday until now, he had been paying attention to these two matters and had not slept well.

After a short period of silence, a few people sitting in the conference room began to discuss in low voices.

“... It’s fortunate that we did not rashly issue a notice yesterday. Otherwise, I really don’t know how we would have ended up today.”

“Those people from FN are really too bold! It’s fortunate that Ji Shu is innocent. Otherwise, the losses in the domestic racing circle would be too disastrous...”

“With the exposure of this scandal, FN will definitely fall. Sigh, I really don’t know what they were thinking...”

Pang Zhikai sat in his seat with a cold expression. He had not spoken much since he entered.

However, everyone understood.

After all, he had still been speaking up for FN yesterday, saying that someone must have reported them out of malice. Today, the police had issued a notice, confirming that FN’s internal personnel had been using and hiding drugs.

It was really a slap in the face.

Of course, it was natural that he would be in a bad mood.

Liao Yuan listened for a while, before knocking on the table. After everyone quieted down, he said, “It looks like everyone is of the same opinion. In that case, we will issue this notice later: FN has openly violated the laws and regulations of the country, and its behavior is vile. From today onwards, all of its drug-related drivers will be removed from the National Racing Association, and they will be banned from participating in national competitions for life!”

Everyone nodded their heads in agreement.

FN's drug-related incident had spread to the entire Internet, and the impact was huge so it had to be dealt with seriously.

Liao Yuan said, "Alright, since everyone has no objections, let's go with this—"

"Chairman Liao."

Pang Zhikai suddenly spoke.

"I feel that the penalty of a lifetime ban is too heavy, don't you think so? After all, FN has quite a few first-rate racers. If we don't allow them to participate in races for their entire lives, the loss to the domestic car racing industry will be too great."

Liao Yuan frowned, his expression disapproving.

"Zhikai, have you not realized the seriousness of this matter? They are breaking the law! Besides, is the domestic racing circle going to collapse without Yu Cheng and these addicts?"

Chapter 918: Collusion

Of course not.

The strength of Yu Pan and the others' skills were not bad, but there were other racers who were better than them.

Especially judging by their performance this year, their combined value was not even comparable to Ji Shu.

If Ji Shu was the one who was involved in today's incident, they might have considered their decision more carefully, but for Yu Pan and these others...

It really was not that bad.

Besides, drug possession was a criminal act. How could it be compared to normal violations?

No matter which perspective it was from, the National Racing Association should not, and could not, shield or favor FN!

Pang Zhikai's face was dark but he did not say anything.

Seeing that the two of them were at a stalemate and the atmosphere was awkward, the people next to him quickly stepped forward to smooth things over.

"Chairman, the vice chairman didn't mean that. You know, ever since FN joined the club, the vice chairman has been very optimistic about them and they have produced beautiful results before. Now that FN has done such a thing, the vice chairman must be feeling too heartbroken and regretful..."

Liao Yuan's expression eased a little, but he continued to insist, "Zhikai, I know that you have always had high hopes for FN, but FN has now made a big mistake. It's they who have let you down, as well as the association, and the majority of the fans down. They are no longer qualified to stand on the track."

Pang Zhikai took a deep breath.

"So, the decision to ban them for life will not be changed?"

Liao Yuan's tone was determined.

"Yes. This should also be the joint decision of the majority of the association."

It was not difficult to see everyone's attitude from the earlier discussion.

As Pang Zhikai stood up, the chair dragged across the floor with a harsh sound.

“In that case, I have nothing more to say.”

In fact, today’s impromptu meeting had not been very interesting.

Liao Yuan had clearly already decided on their plans for how to punish FN, so what else could he argue about?

Naturally, as a vice-chairman, his power could not be compared to Liao Yuan’s.

Liao Yuan heard the hidden meaning in his words and frowned.

Logically speaking, the National Racing Association could not accept drug-related racers, so there was no problem with their decision.

He knew that Pang Zhikai had a fairly good relationship with FN, but he had not expected him to speak up for FN this time.

Pang Zhikai turned around and was about to leave.

The rest of the people looked at each other.

This...

Did the chairman and vice-chairman just have a falling out?

A man sitting next to Liao Yuan called out in a low voice, “Chairman Liao?”

He gestured at Pang Zhikai’s back with his mouth to indicate whether he should try to persuade him.

Actually, everyone was also thinking about the development of the domestic racing circle. Now that things had become so tense due to this matter, it was really...

Liao Yuan frowned and shook his head.

He did not feel that there was anything wrong with FN's drug-related racers being banned for life. When they had taken drugs and hidden drugs, they should have expected that this day might come!

As for Pang Zhikai...

It was probably just that he was unable to accept it for the time being.

"Don't worry about him," said Liao Yuan.

Hearing what he said, everyone could only follow as he said.

Of course, Pang Zhikai had also heard it. He silently sneered.

By this time, he had already walked to the door of the meeting room. He raised his hand and was about to pull the door open.

Liao Yuan's phone suddenly lit up.

As he picked it up, his gaze suddenly focused.

Immediately, his expression quickly became serious. Subconsciously, his shoulders and back straightened as well.

His fingers tapped on the phone screen a few times.

The people beside him did not notice his current expression.

Pang Zhikai pulled open the conference room's door, but before he could take a step out, he heard Liao Yuan's cold voice behind him.

"Wait a minute."

Of course, these words were directed at him.

Pang Zhikai was annoyed. He did not want to bother with it, but when he thought about how there were still so many people in the conference room, he knew it would not be good to fight with Liao Yuan.

He turned around.

"Chairman Liao, do you have any other instructions?"

Liao Yuan stared at him with a very strange expression on his face.

Vaguely feeling that something was strange, Pang Zhikai felt a sense of unease well up in his heart.

He frowned.

"What—"

"Was it you who leaked Ji Shu's medical report?"

Liao Yuan interrupted him, his tone low and cold.

Pang Zhikai's eyelids twitched!

One of his hands was still holding the door handle, so when he heard this, he unconsciously tightened his grip.

The entire meeting room fell into dead silence because of Liao Yuan's words.

Several pairs of eyes looked over at the same time, unable to hide their shock.

What had Liao Yuan said just now? Ji Shu's medical report had been from Pang Zhikai's—

In the stifling atmosphere, Pang Zhikai slowly said, "I don't know where Chairman Liao has got this idea. I have no idea how Ji Shu's medical report was leaked either—"

"Take a look for yourself!"

Liao Yuan slammed his phone on the table with a banging sound.

Everyone's hearts trembled as they subconsciously looked at the phone.

Pang Zhikai's heart seemed to be gripped tightly by something. At this moment, countless thoughts flashed through his mind.

It should not be...

It should not be!

He had done it so covertly that it would be impossible to be found out...

However, seeing Liao Yuan like this made him feel uncertain again.

With his understanding of Liao Yuan, he would not have spoken so resolutely in front of so many people if he did not have sufficient evidence.

The uneasy feeling grew stronger.

As Pang Zhikai walked over, he did not show the slightest abnormality on his face.

The large conference room was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop.

He came to stand in front of Liao Yuan and picked the phone up from the table.

It was an anonymous email.

The moment he saw the title, Pang Zhikai's heart started beating uncontrollably!

[ Some evidence of Pang Zhikai taking bribes, colluding with FN's higher-ups, and jointly falsifying Ji Shu's physical examination report ]

He opened it almost subconsciously.

The more he read, the paler his face became.

Ji Shu's medical report had originally been sent by Freshi, a Weibo user who loved car racing, to UncleCar, a well-known racing blogger.

The person who sent the email had searched the Weibo user's ID and found that he had also taken the picture from another Weibo user.

Originally, Freshi had been very shocked after receiving the picture. He had immediately asked the other party whether it was real or fake, but the other party had not responded.

Later on, he found out that the other party's Weibo had only been registered on the day of the incident. Moreover, after sending the picture, the account had immediately been canceled.

Since Freshi could not find anything more, he immediately sent the picture to Uncle Car without any further concern.

This had led to the series of farces that followed.

And now, this email clearly showed that the Weibo IP address that had been registered and deregistered had finally been traced back to Pang Zhikai!

In addition, this email also listed Pang Zhikai's actions and evidence of using his position to willfully tamper with Ji Shu and FN's medical reports.

However, Ji Shu's had been changed to an abnormal result, while the results for the people from FN had been changed to normal.

This also explained why the National Racing Association's medical results contradicted the police's results.

Liao Yuan stared at him.

"Now, do you have anything to explain?"

Chapter 919: Toast

Fengdu barbeque shop.

Shen Li had booked the place, and dozens of people from the whole of LY had come.

Everyone had been in a state of nervousness since yesterday's news that Ji Shu had been suspected of taking drugs. It was not until today's police investigation results had come out and Ji Shu's name had finally been cleared that everyone finally felt relieved.

The worries of a day and a night had all dissipated now, so the atmosphere was warm.

"Sister Li, it's a happy day today. It wouldn't be right if we didn't drink a little, right?"

Ji Shu sat next to Shen Li with an expectant look on his face.

Under Shen Li's supervision, all the members of the LY team, including him, had been abstaining from alcohol for a long time.

Hearing him say this, Lu Siyu and the others beside him also looked over excitedly.

Shen Li looked around and nodded with a smile.

"Sure."

Everyone immediately cheered.

"Thank you, Sister Li! Boss! Give me the wine list!"

As Gu Siyang saw this, he could not help but touch his chin.

"Sister, why do I feel as if you are the boss of LY?"

This group of people was much more obedient when they were with her than when they were in front of him.

Shen Li ordered a glass of juice.

“If you want to think that way, it’s not impossible.”

Gu Siyang was stunned into silence.

The drinks were served very quickly. Picking up a bottle opener, Ji Shu opened up a whole row of beer bottles.

The fragrance of the beer instantly filled the air.

Lu Siyu looked at the glass of fruit juice that was in front of Shen Li and asked curiously, “Sister Li, don’t you want some alcohol?”

Ji Shu slapped the back of his head and scolded jokingly, “How dare you persuade Sister Li to drink? You’re too bold!”

He thought back to the time when Shen Li had only gone to the bar to sit down and had not even touched the wine bottle. Yet, she had felt extremely guilty when Lu Huaiyu had come to get her.

How could he dare to let her drink now?

Shen Li smiled and said, “I still have to drive later. This will do.”

Hearing her say this, no one forced her to do otherwise.

Lu Siyu raised his bottle.

“Ji Shu! Here’s to you!”

To... being clean!

Hearing this, everyone started to cheer.

Ji Shu raised his eyebrows and clinked his bottle with Lu Siyu's.

"Thank you!"

Although he did not say it on the surface, deep down, he still cared about this matter.

Now that this matter had finally been clarified, it was naturally the most satisfying feeling for him.

The two of them directly blew into the bottle.

The cheers became even louder and extremely noisy.

Gu Siyang also became excited and raised his bottle.

"This bottle should go to FN!"

If it had not been for them, how could Ji Shu's innocence have been revealed?

Right now, the amount of criticism leveled at FN online was as much as the pity that people felt for Ji Shu.

It was right that FN be criticized to death. As for Ji Shu, he had not done anything. He had only been targeted for so long just because of a falsified medical report. How much more innocent could he be than that!

As Gu Siyang said this, he seemed to suddenly remember something and said regretfully, “Ah, I forgot. The police won’t allow them to drink, right?”

Hearing this, everyone burst into laughter.

“Hahahaha! Director Gu! You’re rubbing salt into the wound!”

“Hey! President Gu isn’t wrong! Even if we were to treat them to this beer, they wouldn’t be able to drink it now!”

“Tsk tsk, no matter what, they are defeated opponents who have been on the track together with us. You guys are too unfriendly! Let me drink! I’ll drink on their behalf!”

“It’s only because you want to drink, yet you’re still trying to drag their name down. Don’t you have any sense of shame?”

“Don’t say it. In the past, I really looked down on FN, but this time, they were really awesome. With this kind of courage, it will be a piece of cake for them to go to jail!”

“Hahahaha! Can you say it or can you say it!”

The people from both FN and LY had long disliked each other, especially previously when Yu Cheng had openly provoked Shen Li. The people from LY had been extremely disgusted with him.

Now that FN was involved in such a shocking scandal, if they did not enjoy the gossip now, when else would they do so?

At that moment, Yang Tao’s phone on the table suddenly vibrated.

He glanced at it and lifted his hand to halt everyone’s chatter.

“It’s a call from the National Racing Association.”

Why was the official call coming at this time?

Everyone quieted down.

Yang Tao answered the call.

“Hello, Chairman Liao, how are you?”

Shen Li glanced at him from the side and raised her eyebrows slightly. She raised her hand to refill her glass of fruit juice.

As he listened to Liao Yuan speak, the smile on Yang Tao’s face suddenly froze, followed by a hint of shock.

After a while, he said, “Okay, I understand. Thank you.”

He then hung up the phone.

Everyone felt that something was wrong.

Gu Siyang asked, “What’s wrong?”

Yang Tao did not answer immediately. He only tapped on his phone a few times.

Everyone was even more puzzled as they looked at each other.

Then, Yang Tao opened his mouth to speak.

“All of FN’s racers that are related to this drug scandal have just been collectively expelled by the National Racing Association. Furthermore, they will be banned from racing for life.”

Everyone was stunned. After a moment, a few gasps sounded.

“So ruthless?”

“Banned for life. Wow... This will be the end of their professional careers, right?”

“Serves them right! Taking drugs and hiding drugs, how could they be so stubborn as to do such a thing?”

“I thought it would be a year-long suspension or something like that. I didn’t expect it to be... but that’s true. FN has caused too much trouble this time. The higher-ups must be using them to set an example, right?”

Gu Siyang asked curiously, “Hey, this punishment is for FN. Why did Liao Yuan call you personally?”

When he said this, everyone realized that something was wrong.

After all, they had nothing to do with FN.

Yang Tao took a deep breath and looked at Ji Shu.

Ji Shu raised his eyes and asked lazily, “What’s wrong?”

Yang Tao spoke each word carefully, “Pang Zhikai tampered with your medical report.”

Ji Shu’s expression changed slightly.

Everyone was also shocked.

Yang Tao raised his phone.

“The National Racing Association has just announced that all drivers from FN related to these drug charges have been collectively removed from the list and will be banned from racing for life. In addition, it’s been discovered that the vice chairman of the National Racing Association, Pang Zhikai, has taken bribes and colluded with FN to tamper with the medical results of Ji Shu and many of Fn’s drivers. He has now been handed over to the police.”

In the silence, Shen Li raised the cup in her hand and her eyes curved as she smiled.

“To FN and Pang Zhikai. Today’s meal was very enjoyable.”

Chapter 920: Lu Family

While everyone had been busy insulting FN and expressing their pity for Ji Shu, someone had discovered that there was a new piece of gossip.

The announcement of the National Racing Association immediately exploded within the entire racing circle.

They were all expelled! They were banned for life!

FN was the top racing club in the country, and its drivers were definitely the mainstay of the racing circle in the country.

Such a severe punishment was equivalent to reshuffling the entire racing circle!

However, this was not the most shocking part.

It was Pang Zhikai! This high-ranking vice president of the National Racing Association had actually colluded with FN for his own interests, framing Ji Shu and shielding FN!

Once the news was out, the whole of the Internet was in an uproar.

[ Colluding with the authorities, concealing the fact that his drivers were using drugs, and even throwing dirt onto Ji Shu?? FN! Such a total misuse of power! ]

[ It's no wonder the fact that so many people in FN were using drugs yet it had never been exposed before. It was because they had been under such a protective umbrella! ]

[ Hehe, they had the vice chairman's protection, so of course, everything had gone smoothly for them. It's just that poor Ji Shu had been targeted just because he had beat them once in a competition. How many curses has Ji Shu received in the past two days? ]

[ I truly feel pity for Ji Shu and LY. It just shows that even the people who train and compete well can still be smeared. FN will go bankrupt immediately! ]

[ I just want to say that in these past two days, I feel as if I've been on a roller coaster. However, it's been very exciting! ]

This was true.

From yesterday until now, a series of extremely explosive news had come one after another. No one had been given any time to react, each piece of news had continuously hit them until they were dizzy.

Every time they thought that the news was big enough, there would be a new wave of even more shocking news, subverting their understanding.

Now, the news that FN had colluded with Pang Zhikai to frame Ji Shu shocked countless people.

Some bloggers even began to summarize the events of the past two days and carried out a detailed analysis.

[ It's important to think about this! Ji Shu was truly framed by FN! They first partnered with Pang Zhikai to produce a problematic medical report, and then deliberately leaked this report. I don't know if everyone still remembers, but as soon as this matter was exposed, the first comments on the Internet had been of one-sided criticism and abuse. At that time, the matter had not even been clearly investigated yet. However, many people had already determined that he was a drug abuser. ]

[ I remember! At that time, I had said that the official results were not out yet, so I couldn't be sure that Ji Shu had definitely taken drugs. Many people had come after me and scolded me, saying that I was trying to defend a drug addict. Now that I think about it, it really wasn't right. ]

[ Ah! I remember now. At that time, many people were so sure that Ji Shu was a drug addict. Other than the medical report, there was also the photo of him going to the police station! Everyone said that it must have been because the police had taken action and took it as proof that he was definitely not clean. Who would've guessed that Ji Shu had gone of his own initiative... That photo had also appeared very strangely. Was it really not FN who had found someone beforehand to take the photo? ]

[ I'm 80% sure that was the case! FN did this to catch Ji Shu and LY off guard! As long as most people believed that Ji Shu had taken drugs first, how many people would believe it even if he tried to clarify it later? They had been really determined to completely destroy Ji Shu. ]

[ FN's boss is Yu Cheng. Previously, Ji Shu had beaten him, so he must be deliberately taking revenge! How terrifying! It's best to let him spend his life in prison! He shouldn't be allowed to come out to harm others again! ]

...

FN was first investigated for drug abuse and possession. It was also proven that they had secretly colluded with the vice chairman of the National Racing Association, Pang Zhikai, to deliberately frame Ji Shu.

A series of solid blows landed on FN.

If their own mental weakness was blamed for them taking drugs and possessing drugs, then framing Ji Shu had been based on their pleasure of hurting others. It was absolutely evil act.

Even if they had wanted to court death and did not care about their own lives, what right did they have to do this to others?

Had the scolding that Ji Shu received been enough?

How could he make up for the loss of his reputation this time?!

This was still the truth. If FN had not been reported, investigated, and proven to have conspired with Pang Zhikai to harm Ji Shu, what kind of situation would Ji Shu have been in now?

If anything went wrong, Ji Shu would never be able to clear his name!

After understanding this, not only were Ji Shu's fans furious, but many onlookers were also furious.

Their anger toward FN quickly spread to the rest of the Yu family.

Wasn't the reason why FN was so arrogant because Yu Cheng is the boss?

He had the Yu family behind him.

Naturally, with such a backer, he had nothing to fear.

[ This isn't the first time Yu Cheng has stepped on the wrong end of the law, is it? Previously, he beat Pan Jiajia to such a state that she had almost been forced to die. What happened in the end? Wasn't the matter left just like that? ]

[ It's really hard to say with the Yu family! With such a family background, it's no wonder that Yu Cheng won't change his ways! Hehe, no one can afford to offend him! ]

[ Ji Shu was in such a miserable position! His opponent and the officials were ganging up to frame him. Who could possibly withstand this? ]

[ The Yu family has disregarded the laws of the country and trampled on the lives of others. They are really outrageous, I wouldn't even dare to talk about them. ]

...

Previously, Yu Cheng had practically forced Pan Jijia to attempt to commit suicide which almost resulted in her death. However, while a lot of noise had been made about it, not much had been done. Thus, in the end, Yu Cheng had remained safe and sound.

It had only been a short while since this had happened.

When these things were added up, the anger of the people reached its peak.

No matter how powerful the Yu family was, they could no longer suppress it this time.

At the Yu family's old residence.

Yu Yu frowned as she stood in front of Old Master Yu.

"... This is basically the situation now. We can't interfere with the Capital police at all, and the public opinion on the internet is becoming increasingly unfavorable to us. Previously, we forcefully suppressed Pan Jijia's matter, but it wasn't completely resolved. This time, the public's emotions will rebound wildly..."

They could shut the mouths of one person, ten people, or hundreds of people, but they could not shut everyone up.

The situation this time was several times worse than they had expected.

Even though they had exhausted all methods, there was still no obvious effect.

Old Master Yu's expression was tense.

Yu Ming could not help but ask, "What's wrong with him? Why did he have to target Ji Shu like this? Not only did he arrange for the medical reports to be falsified, he even specially got someone to take photos of Ji Shu at the police station! Normally, he wouldn't be so obvious about his actions, but now, he's been making one move after another! Ultimately, it has caused him to end up like this! How is he going to end up?"

Yu Yu lowered her eyes and recalled that before Yu Cheng had gone to the Capital, he seemed to have said that he had not had anything to do with those photos.

However, everyone now believed that he had done it on purpose and that it was because he was extremely vicious.

Setting aside the fact that he was currently being detained at the police station, even if he were able to come out and defend himself, how many people would believe him?

Once all these crimes were brought to attention, they would become a stain on his life.

Naturally, she was happy to see this happen.

However, the prerequisite was that the Yu family could not be dragged down by him.

She suddenly thought of something and said, "Grandpa, I seem to remember that Chief Zhao was a subordinate of Old Master Lu?"
