

Little Girl 131

Chapter 131: I accidentally fell asleep

Sun Yan sighed deeply." Brother Nan, how can you be like this? My goddess is still young. Can't you wait for her to grow a little older?" You're such a bird.

What's the difference between beasts?"

Li snunan Dlew out a smoke ring ana was too lazy to talk nonsense with mm. He stood up straight.".. Clean up the waste in your mind."

He stubbed the cigarette out expressionlessly and threw it into the trash can. "Get lost."

Sun Yan immediately stopped pretending." Alright, then I'm leaving, Brother

Nan."

His sadness came and went quickly.

Didn't he know what kind of person Brother Chennan was?

Although he might be a little disappointed.

However, he felt that his goddess was able to be with Brother Nan.

Tsk, they were quite compatible.

“Let’s go, Brother Nan.”

Those people were still waiting for him to play pool. Sun Yan did not stay any longer. After delivering Milk Tea, he left.

Li Shunan didn’t enter the house immediately. He leaned against the corner of the wall and waited for the smell of smoke to dissipate before returning to the house.

When he entered, the entire house was filled with the soothing background music of the movie.

Li Shunan walked to the sofa with milk tea in his hand and realized that the girl was hugging a pillow in her arms. She had fallen asleep on the sofa with her head tilted.

Her eyes were gently closed, and the alternating light shone on her fair and delicate face, making the girl look even more obedient and soft.

Li Shunan stared at it for a while before putting the milk tea on the coffee table.

He bent down and picked up a blanket beside him. He pulled two corners and gently covered her.

Jiang Lingzhi was originally watching a movie.

However, after her deskmate went out, she was a little distracted.

As she looked at it, she felt sleepy and fell asleep.

She didn’t sleep for long and was a light sleeper.

She could vaguely smell the smell of tobacco, as if it was very close to her.

In a half-awake state.

She rubbed her eyes and opened them hazily. All she could see was the boy's slightly open collar and his sharp Adam's apple that was very close to her.

At this moment, the visual impact was quite strong.

Jiang Lingzhi's sleepiness instantly sobered up, and in the next second, she met the boy's light brown eyes.

"Did I wake you up?" Li Shunan paused for a moment. His voice was low and slow, accompanied by a magnetic tone that was close to his ear.

The lights in the room were off, and the door was closed. Only the faint light from the movie screen could be seen.

He pressed his hands on both sides of her body and lowered his body slightly. The contours of his face were clear, his peach blossom eyes were narrow, and his nose bridge was straight.

The black hair in front of his forehead brushed past his eyebrows. His eyes were a little deep and a little heavy. His eyes moved slightly, making them look even more profound.

In addition, this position was a little easy to make people think wrongly.

Jiang Lingzhi stared at the person in front of her and was stunned for two seconds before she shook her head." "Oh, I accidentally fell asleep." Her voice was slightly nasal and soft as if she had just woken up.

" Yes," Li Nan replied softly. He put down the blanket in his hand, and the expression on his handsome face was very indifferent. His tall figure retreated a little and sat down beside him. His eyelashes drooped. "If you want to sleep, Sleep for a while. Don't catch a cold."

The edge of the blanket just happened to cover her chin. It was soft and comfortable, and she could smell the clear sunlight.

Only then did Jiang Lingzhi realize that he was covering her with a blanket just now.

She almost misunderstood her deskmate.

If it were anyone else, she would have punched him..

Chapter 132: So you like to watch this kind

Jiang Lingzhi shrank back and buried her face in the blanket. She yawned, and her eyelashes were wet. She was not very awake yet.

She did not understand why she had an inexplicable trust in her deskmate.

Perhaps he always spoke to her in that gentle and indulgent tone. It was as if no matter what she did, he would not really get angry.

Why was his deskmate so good-tempered?

She felt that this question could be listed as one of the unsolved mysteries of the world.

The movie was already halfway through.

Somehow, the male and female lead had developed into a happy couple.

Jiang Lingzhi was still in a daze, and she did not think much about it. Her voice was slightly nasal as she asked in a daze, “What are they doing?”

Li Shunan wasn't watching the movie at all. He was holding his phone in his hand. He glanced at it and his slender fingers paused.”.

Actually, there weren't many large-scale scenes in the entire drama.

However, it was a romance drama after all, and there were many scenes of touching and hugging.

After Jiang Lingzhi blinked her eyes, she seemed to have realized something.

Because the people in the movie started to take off their clothes.

The question he had just asked was answered at this moment.

Suddenly, she felt as if she was watching TV with her parents, and the people on TV suddenly started kissing.

He didn't know whether to look or not.

The indescribable awkwardness made him want to die on the spot.

The air fell into a dead silence.

“So you like this kind of stuff.” Li Shunan sat on the other end of the sofa and spoke in a lazy tone.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Why did she wake up at this time?

Isn't it nice to sleep quietly?!

The movie was still not finished.

Just as the male and female protagonists were about to proceed with the next step, Jiang Lingzhi quickly pressed the remote control and forcefully turned it off.

The room was completely silent.

The floor lamp beside the sofa was also turned on, and a warm yellow light enveloped the room.

Jiang Lingzhi was curled up on the sofa with a cup of milk tea in her hand. Her expression was a little numb.

Her hair was a little messy when she slept just now, so she simply tore off the rubber band and casually tied up her waist-long hair.

That was great.

Her image was completely ruined.

Her deskmate didn't think that she liked to watch such touching and hugging dramas at home, did she?

Jiang Lingzhi sniffled and gave up on herself.

Forget it, let's just leave it at that. In any case, the classes were about to be divided.

Their friendship as deskmates ended here.

She lowered her head and sipped her milk tea seriously.

Why did her heart feel a little uncomfortable when she thought of this?

“Are you feeling better?”

The boy’s lazy and magnetic voice slowly spoke.

Jiang Lingzhi’s fingers froze, and she looked up at him.””Hmm?”

Was her mood better?

How did he know that she was in a bad mood today?

Actually, if he hadn’t mentioned it, she would have forgotten about it.

That’s right, she ran out today because the rebellious seed buried in her heart had sprouted.

Then, she met him.

The girl looked up at him. Her hair was tied loosely behind her head, and a few strands of long hair fell down. She looked lazy and beautiful.

Her deskmate was really pretty.

Li Shunan raised his eyes and stared at her. His gaze fell on her red lips, and his Adam’s apple bobbed slightly.

Especially when she was lying on his sofa so obediently just now.

He couldn't help but want to do something.

PS: As mentioned earlier, the male lead is 18 years old this year. Because the female lead went to school a year earlier, the male lead stayed a grade back, so they were in the same class.

She saw some babies asking about the male protagonist's age, so she made a note..

Chapter 133: I gotta go home

"I wasn't in a good mood at first, but now, I'm much better."

Jiang Lingzhi held the milk tea in her hand and looked at him. She wanted to say something but hesitated. "By the way, deskmate, you... You..."

Li Shunan came back to his senses and said calmly, "What?"

Jiang Lingzhi originally wanted to ask her deskmate what subject she chose.

However, after thinking about it, he didn't ask.

Why would she want to know what subject he was assigned to?

Why was she acting weirder and weirder recently?

"Nothing. It's just that it's getting late and I have to go home."

Jiang Lingzhi placed the milk tea on the coffee table and got down from the sofa. She stood barefooted on the cashmere carpet and spoke before he could, "Don't send me off. I can go home by myself."

After saying that, he hesitated for a moment.”

“Student Li, see you at school tomorrow.”

Li Shunan sat on the sofa and looked up at her. There was no extra expression on his handsome face as he hummed softly, “See you tomorrow.”

Jiang Lingzhi did not dare to stay outside for too long.

She was an obedient child. Although it had flashed past her mind for a moment, she was still rebellious. Who didn't go through the rebellious period of youth?

BUI...

In the next moment, he felt that such thoughts were quite childish.

She was a mature adult. Why would she rebel?

People still had to learn to grow up.

Besides, she didn't know why her deskmate had such an ability.

How could she be so free when she was with him?

It was as if she did not need to think about anything. Her mood was naturally very good.

It was so good that when he left, he would feel a little depressed and even reluctant to part with her.

This feeling was too strange.

Why didn't she feel this way when she went to Ah Ci's house?

When she returned home, Lu Yuping was preparing dinner in the kitchen.

Jiang Lingzhi changed into her slippers at the entrance. She put her hands in the pockets of her sports coat and walked to the kitchen door. "Mom, I'm back."

Lu Yuping wore an apron and turned to look at her. "Zhizhi is back. Go wash your hands. Dinner will be ready soon."

Jiang Lingzhi nodded.

"Why are you playing at Ah Ci's place so late?" Lu Yuping asked casually as she busied herself in the kitchen with her back facing her.

Jiang Lingzhi's fingers paused for a moment, and she said hesitantly, "Ah, I just watched a movie."

She wondered what her mother's expression would be like if she told her that she had gone to a male classmate's house to watch a movie.

However, she didn't really dare to take on this challenge.

She didn't want her legs to be broken at such a young age.

Although, although she did watch a movie openly and did not do anything else.

But why did she feel a little guilty?

She turned around and went into the bathroom. After washing her hands, Jiang Lingzhi took a tissue to dry her hands before she walked to the dining table and sat down.

It was just the two of them eating, and the dishes were not that complicated.

Lu Yuping scooped a bowl of soup for her and placed it in front of her. Then, she sat down opposite her. "Zhizhi, I heard from your father that you want to choose liberal arts?"

He knew that she would ask.

Jiang Lingzhi lowered her gaze, picked up the spoon, and took a sip slowly. "Ah!"

Lu Yuping frowned and her expression became a little serious. "Actually, it's not that it's not good to choose humanities. It's just that your dad and I have discussed it and think that it's better to choose science."

"Look at Ah Ci. Didn't he also choose science? It'll be easier for him to choose a major in university. Also, your Uncle Chen's daughter is also a very outstanding girl. She also chose science.."

Chapter 134: I chose science

Lu Yuping paused before continuing, "Dad and I are doing this for your own good. What do you think, Zhizhi?"

Jiang Lingzhi's fingers paused for a moment, and her eyelashes drooped down.

She knew that Lu Yuping loved her very much.

Just like how she loved her mother, she did not want to let her down and see her disappointed expression.

Because she was the only one in the family, she had to carry their expectations.

He was never willing to let their expectations go to waste.

Jiang Lingzhi's expression was very calm as she nodded her head." "Oh, then choose science."

Jiang Lingzhi had been very obedient since she was young. She had always agreed to her parents' arrangements.

He was outstanding in all aspects.

It was completely the existence of someone else's child.

Lu Yuping heaved a sigh of relief.

"Our Zhizhi is obedient." Lu Yuping was obviously very satisfied, as if she had settled a big matter on her mind. She picked up her chopsticks and picked up some food for her." "Alright, let's eat. The dishes will be cold soon." Jiang Lingzhi lowered her head and buried her head in her food.

After dinner, Jiang Lingzhi slowly returned to her room.

She sighed and lay on the bed, staring at the ceiling above her head. She no longer felt sad.

Isn't it just science? What's so great about it?

No matter what subject it was, she could always get first place in the grade.

It was just that awesome.

Therefore, when she went to school on Monday, she chose science without hesitation.

He handed the application form to the homeroom teacher.

Even Hao Weiwu was surprised.

He thought he was seeing things. He put on his glasses and confirmed it several times."Jiang Lingzhi, are you sure you didn't fill it in wrongly?"

He remembered that he had asked her before and she had said that she wanted to choose liberal arts. Why did she suddenly choose science?

Jiang Lingzhi also thought of what she said the last time. She pondered for a while and said,""No teacher. I was wrong last time. I chose science."

Hao Weiwu had a responsible attitude towards every student. As usual, he asked, ""Have you discussed this with your family?"

Jiang Lingzhi nodded." Yes, that's why I decided to choose science. ""

Hao Weiwu put the application on the table and took off his glasses.""Alright, you can go back to the classroom first."

Jiang Lingzhi bowed politely."

After coming out of the office, Jiang Lingzhi went straight back to the classroom.

She walked to her seat and found that her deskmate was not there.

She was clearly still sleeping during the last class, but she was gone again after such a short while.

Jiang Lingzhi did not think too much and sat down in her seat.

‘ The morning self-study teacher has already come to collect the class application forms,’ He Di shouted from the podium, ‘‘If you haven’t handed it in, go to the office and hand it over to Old Ban. Don’t delay the time.’’

Below the podium, a few people responded, ‘‘Yes, I have.’’

‘‘Got it, class monitor.’’

The classroom was a little noisy, and everyone else began to discuss the matter of class allocation.

Someone knocked on the office door.

Hao Weiwu wore glasses and raised his head. ‘‘Come in.’’

The boy was wearing a white shirt and black trousers. His tall and straight figure walked in from the door with an application form in his hand.

‘‘It’s you.’’ Hao Weiwu took off his glasses and placed them on the table.

Hao Weiwu did not know much about this transfer student.

He only knew that she transferred from the best school in A City.

He didn’t know the reason for the transfer either.

He was supposed to be in his third year of high school, but he asked to be demoted.

Although No.1 Middle School was a pretty impressive school in South City, it was still a little inferior to The High School Affiliated to Renmin University of China in City A.

When he first transferred over, it was the principal who personally received him. He vaguely felt that his background was not small..

Chapter 135: I'll fill it out again

Hao Weiwu wasn't very clear about his results, nor did he expect much from him.

After all, the principal had already told him that he could turn a blind eye to his matters.

Although he felt that it was quite strange, he had to listen to the principal's words.

However, when she saw that he had chosen liberal arts on his application form, she was still surprised for a second.

"You chose liberal arts?"

Li Shunan put his hands in his pockets, raised his eyes, and stood beside his desk. He replied lazily, "Ah, the liberal arts,"

Hao Weiwu felt that this was really strange.

However, it was the students' choice to choose their own subjects.

As teachers, other than giving some suggestions, they could not interfere too much.

Hao Weiwu nodded and said, "Alright, do well in this monthly exam. You'll be divided into the arts and sciences class according to your exam results."

After giving him the usual warning, Hao Weiwu sent him away. "Alright, you can go back."

"Goodbye, teacher."

Li Shunan didn't care much about these things. He looked tired and lazy as he turned around to leave.

The moment the boy turned around.

The English teacher came in with a teacup.

She sat down at her desk and couldn't help but talk to Hao Weiwu. "I heard that the ratio of arts and sciences in class six next door is very different. The ratio is 8:2, and 80% of the students choose science."

"Who says it isn't..." Hao Weiwu leaned back in his chair and placed his hands on the table. He couldn't help but say, "I don't know what's wrong with children these days. They're very willful when they're assigned to classes." "What's wrong?" the English teacher asked casually.

"It's Jiang Lingzhi from our class. Last time, I asked her what subject she wanted to study, and she said it was liberal arts. In the end, she filled in science today."

"Lingzhi chose science?" "I thought she chose liberal arts."

"That's right. I also thought that she would definitely choose liberal arts..."

The two of them were still discussing.

She did not notice that the boy who had already walked to the door had turned back.

A shadow covered the desk.

Hao Weiwu was stunned for a moment. He looked up at the man in front of him and paused for two seconds. "Li Shunan, is there anything else?"

"Jiang Lingzhi chose science?"

He suddenly spoke, his light brown pupils darkening, and his voice was a little low.

Even Hao Weiwu, who had been teaching for decades, was intimidated by his aura for a moment.

"Yes, what's wrong?" Hao Weiwu subconsciously said."

Li Shunan raised his head and gritted his teeth. He suddenly raised his hand and took back the application form he had just handed in."Teacher, I filled it in wrongly."

He crumpled his application and threw it into the trash can.

"Do you have any more application forms? I'll fill in a new one."

Hao Weiwu was speechless.

It was too hasty. Was it such a child's play to divide them into classes now?

Hao Weiwu once again felt that his class teacher's dignity had been challenged.

He slammed the table and stood up."You kids, do you think this class allocation is a joke?"

He was so angry that he could not speak for a moment. "Give me your parent's phone number. I want to talk to your father!"

It was still class time.

The classroom was noisy, and the voices were exceptionally noisy.

He Di reminded them not to forget to hand in their application forms before walking down the aisle and returning to his seat.

Her gaze fell on Jiang Lingzhi, who was sitting alone in the second -to-last row of the four groups.

He stopped in his tracks..

Chapter 136: I Borrow It

Ever since they changed seats, the big boss sitting next to Jiang Lingzhi had a strong aura, causing no one to dare to talk to Jiang Lingzhi. Even her good friend Wen Yujing had less time to look for her.

Coincidentally, her deskmate was not around.

He Di hesitated for a moment and scratched his head. He seized this good opportunity and walked over.

Sensing that there was someone standing beside the desk, Jiang Lingzhi raised her head and was a little puzzled." "Class monitor?"

Meeting her gaze, He Di was a little nervous and coughed lightly." "Um, have you submitted your application for specialization?"

Jiang Lingzhi nodded, and the pen in her hand also stopped. "I just handed it in."

He Di nodded first, looking like a good class monitor who was thinking for his classmates. "That's good."

At this point, he took the opportunity to say, "I asked a few students just now."

There were indeed many people in the class discussing the class allocation just now.

Jiang Lingzhi also started chatting casually with him. "I also filled in the science section."

Hearing this, He Di's eyes flashed with joy. "That's too coincidental. I'm also a science student!"

He had heard Wen Yujing say that she was going to choose liberal arts.

At that time, he was disappointed for quite a while. At this moment, he simply wanted to talk to her, so he casually asked this question. He did not expect to get an unexpected answer.

He Di was a little excited. "According to your results, if you perform steadily, you will definitely be assigned to the key science class. Then, we will be classmates again."

Jiang Lingzhi smiled.

At this moment, the table in front of Jiang Lingzhi was not in her seat. He Di took the opportunity to sit down first so that it was convenient to chat with her.

"I heard from Wen Yujing that you wanted to borrow books from the library a few days ago, but you didn't manage to get one?"

Jiang Lingzhi did not expect that Wen Yujing would even tell the class monitor about this.

“Ah, Finnegans Wake. I heard it’s hard to read, so I tried to read it, but someone borrowed it.”

He Di first thought about what kind of fate this was. They even liked to read the same books!

He calmed his excitement and said, “That book, I borrowed that book.”

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for two seconds and did not know what to say. “”Ah.

He Di first felt that he really had the same topic as her. He felt that he had met a soulmate and spoke frankly, “Actually, I bought two copies of that book. One was the original version, and the other was the Chinese translation. However, I didn’t expect the school library to have it, so I borrowed it back and read it again.”

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

He borrowed money from his family, so was the class monitor bored?

Actually, Jiang Lingzhi did not think much about reading this book.

It was just that she heard that it was quite difficult to understand and that it was good to use it to show off. That was why she wanted to see how difficult it was.

However, the class monitor’s love for this book had really reached the level of enthusiasm.

She had seen it three times and still wasn’t sick of it.

After coming out of the office, Li Shunan put a hand in his pocket and walked back to the classroom.

He walked to the back door of the classroom and subconsciously looked up. His gaze immediately fell on the girl.

After seeing the scene, he stopped in his tracks.

The little deskmate sat in her seat. As expected of someone who had learned dance before. She had a ponytail and her posture was straight and beautiful.

A boy was sitting in front of her. He had turned around and was talking to her face to face..

Chapter 137: I'm getting more and more angry when I wake up

It was impossible to hear what they were talking about from a distance.

It was unknown what the two of them were talking about, but they were talking and laughing.

Li Shunan stared at her expressionlessly for a while. After a long time, he snorted and pursed his lips. He stuffed his hands into his pockets and walked over with a dark expression.

The boy's tall and straight figure stood beside the desk.

Jiang Lingzhi was still talking to the class monitor. She turned her head sideways to look at him, but she did not stop talking. "So, is it really difficult to understand?"

She realized that her deskmate had returned.

As Jiang Lingzhi spoke, she stood up and made way for her deskmate to enter. She no longer looked at him.

He Dixian: " It's alright. When I was reading it, I flipped through a lot of dictionary and looked up a lot of information.""

Jiang Lingzhi nodded her head and expressed her understanding.""Then how long did it take you to finish reading one book?"

She was purely curious. How long would it take to finish reading such a difficult book?

Moreover, he had watched it three times!

Li Shunan pursed his thin lips and returned to his seat. As usual, he laid on the table lazily and began to sleep.

He closed his eyes for a while, but he did not fall asleep.

' I like that book very much," He Di said excitedly." I saw two different versions of it, so I bought both. I wanted to study which one was better. ""

"Personally, I think the original version is better. If you like it, I can give you one."

Jiang Lingzhi waved her hand." There's no need for that. You can just lend it to me for a while. I will return it to you after I'm done.""

Of course!" He Di nodded decisively." I'll bring it to you tomorrow!" Li Shunan was speechless.

So,

What kind of f * cking book was so amazing?

His deskmate had been a little out of control recently.

She had told him to choose liberal arts, but in the end, she had chosen science instead.

It was just a book, yet he was chatting so happily with others.

He completely ignored him.

Li Shunan felt as if there was a fire burning in his chest. He pressed the tip of his tongue against his molars, sat up straight, and leaned against the wall beside him. His light brown pupils emitted a dangerous aura.

The school bully didn't even sleep.

She stared at him with her light-colored eyes.

He Di was so scared that he swallowed his saliva, thinking that he had woken him up.

Her voice became much softer." Then, I'll go back to my seat first. I'll bring the book to you tomorrow. Don't be in a hurry to return it. We'll be in the same class anyway. You can return it then.""

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment. She felt that there was nothing wrong with what she said, and she nodded."Ah, sure."

He Di didn't dare to stay any longer and left quietly.

Li Shunan, who heard their conversation, fell silent.

So, they had already agreed on which class they would be assigned to after the exam?

Suddenly, he felt a little stuffy in his chest.

After sending the class monitor back to her seat, Jiang Lingzhi retracted her gaze. She picked up her pen and prepared to write the questions that she had not finished.

She subconsciously turned her head and realized that her deskmate was not sleeping.

His expression didn't look too good.

"Did I wake you up?" Jiang Lingzhi retracted her gaze and muttered softly, "Why are you getting angrier after waking up?"

Li Shunan stared at her with a heavy gaze. F * Ck me,

When have I ever been angry at you?

Li Shunan tilted his head and sighed.. He looked up and said casually, "What were you chatting about?"

Chapter 138: Exams

Chatting so happily?

Jiang Lingzhi recalled the conversation she had with the class monitor just now. Was she very happy?

It was alright.

It was just a normal conversation. How could her deskmate tell that she was happy?

"It's about the class allocation.'

Jiang Lingzhi's pen paused for a moment. She suddenly remembered that she had not asked him what subject he chose. She turned her face sideways and stared at him with her beautiful almond-shaped eyes. "Did you choose liberal arts or science?"

Li Shunan's throat rolled a little. "What about you?"

"I chose science." Jiang Lingzhi had completely forgotten that she had told him that she wanted to choose humanities.

Her tone was calm and collected.

The pair of clear black and white eyes stared straight at him.

Li Shunan felt even more irritated. He took a book from the table and nodded expressionlessly before he lay on the table and began to sleep.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

So what subject did you choose?

Why did this person only speak halfway?

The monthly exam for No.1 Middle School was divided into two days.

It just so happened that the exams would end on Tuesday and Wednesday, and the National Day holiday would start on Thursday.

In five days, the homework would probably pile up like a mountain.

When they returned to school, the results would be out. They would be placed in the arts and sciences key class according to their monthly test results.

Their monthly exam was held in their classroom.

However, the desk was moved a little, and it was the teacher from another class who was invigilating the exam.

The second day of the monthly exam.

They had Chinese in the morning and Mathematics in the afternoon. After the exams, they could go on vacation.

The bell rang, signaling the end of the morning language exam.

The invigilator sat on the podium and began to collect the papers. "If you're done, you can hand in your test papers."

Some of them had not finished their essays and were still trying to write a few more words.

Jiang Lingzhi had finished writing it a long time ago, but she did not have the habit of handing in her papers in advance. After the bell rang, she handed in her papers and went back to her seat to pack her things.

Jiang Lingzhi did well in the exam as a whole. She was not affected by her emotions from the past few days.

As long as they performed well in the afternoon, the special class would be able to get their results.

She looked at her deskmate again. She was sleeping soundly during the exam. She handed in blank papers and wrote her name on them.

Jiang Lingzhi could finally see the shadow of a school bully on him.

School bullies usually handed in blank papers.

However, when she saw her deskmate hand in the blank paper, why did she feel a little unhappy?

Moreover, she felt that her deskmate's mood had been a little off for the past two days.

Jiang Lingzhi placed her hands on the table. She cupped her small face and stared at her deskmate's back seriously.

She didn't know if she was woken up by the ringtone.

The boy who was lying on the desk moved, then sat up straight and leaned back.

Li Shunan looked tired. He tilted his head slightly and met the girl's eyes when he turned his head.

Jiang Ling did not expect him to suddenly turn his face around. She was stunned for a moment and reminded him softly, "Class has already ended." Li Shunan withdrew his gaze nonchalantly. "Okay, got it."

Then, she stood up slowly and put the only pen on the table into her pocket.

She took the blank paper with only one name written on it and handed it over.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Zhao Zifu and the others were already waiting at the entrance.

After the boy handed in his paper, he left the classroom with the other boys outside.

Jiang Lingzhi stared at her deskmate's back for a while before she sighed.

Why did it feel like he was in a bad mood again?

Chapter 139: Buy that thing

After cleaning up the things on the table, Jiang Lingzhi slowly went to the cafeteria.

She had used her meal card to pay off the debt, so she had applied for a new one.

After getting food from the window, Jiang Lingzhi found a table to sit down. She could not help but recall her deskmate's attitude.

Did she make him unhappy?

It was really nerve-racking.

Jiang Lingzhi felt that sometimes people couldn't be too confident.

Otherwise, it would be easy for justice to descend from the heavens.

After having lunch in the cafeteria, Jiang Lingzhi was about to go back to the classroom when she felt a little pain in her stomach.

The situation didn't seem right.

On the way back to the classroom, she deliberately went to the bathroom. As expected, her aunt was here.

She did not know if it was because her emotions had been suppressed the day before, but her aunt actually came to visit in advance.

Jiang Lingzhi felt that she was done for.

Her previous aunties were relatively punctual. This time, it was three or four days earlier. She was completely unprepared.

Moreover, every time she had a period, she would be in extreme pain. Sometimes, if it was serious, she would have to take painkillers.

There was still a math exam in the afternoon.

He didn't know if it would affect the exam.

Jiang Lingzhi hid in the toilet and did not dare to go out. She was a little depressed.

Fortunately, she had brought her phone with her when she went to lunch. She took her phone and planned to ask Jing Jing for help.

However, when he called, the other party's phone was turned off.

In school, she didn't know many people, and even fewer classmates had phone numbers.

Jiang Lingzhi sniffled and called Su Xici again. The phone rang twice and was quickly picked up. "What?" The boy's voice was as arrogant as ever.

"Where are you?" Jiang Lingzhi held her phone and asked dryly.

“Outside.” Su Xici replied casually.

Jiang Lingzhi mulled over her words. How could she make him willing to buy it for her...

That...

After a while, Jiang Lingzhi slowly said, “Ah Ci

Her voice was very soft, especially when she deliberately lowered her voice. The ending of her voice was so coquettish that it was scary.

On the other end of the phone, Su Sici was silent for two seconds before she asked very seriously, “What are you plotting?”

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

What the f * ck?

Jiang Lingzhi sniffled again.

“Are you crying? Did someone bully you?”

He seemed to have heard something wrong in her voice.

Su Xici’s voice became much more serious. After some rustling, she said, “Where? I’m coming to find you now.”

Jiang Lingzhi paused for a moment, blinked her eyes, and subconsciously asked, “I’m in the ladies’ room. Do you want to come and find me?”

Su Xi Ci was speechless.

“I’m hanging up.” Su Sici felt that she had been played and planned to hang up the phone mercilessly.

“No, no, no, Ah Ci, my thing is here. Can you help me...Buying sanitary pads?”

Jiang Lingzhi hurriedly opened her mouth and finished speaking in one breath.

She was really afraid that he would hang up.

If he hung up on her too, she would not know who to look for.

Moreover, this kind of thing was quite embarrassing.

Although they grew up together, he was still a man.

What if he didn’t agree?

There was a ten-second silence on the other end of the phone.

Jiang Lingzhi glanced at the phone screen and thought that he had already hung up.

“Ah Ci?” Jiang Lingzhi called out tentatively.

Su Xi Ci spoke word by word, her tone filled with disbelief..”You want me, a man, to buy, that for you? Are you sure?”

Chapter 140: Crying?

Jiang Ling knew that he was not obligated to buy her sanitary pads, but when she heard his tone, she could not help but feel a little wronged.

She had no choice but to look for him.

Why did he sound so impatient?

“Then are you going to help or not?” Jiang Lingzhi asked gloomily.

The other party fell silent again.

“I know. If it doesn’t work, then forget it.” Jiang Lingzhi instantly gave up and hung up the phone.

At the supermarket next to the school.

Hearing the toot sound in her ear, Su Xici raised her voice. Jiang Lingzhi?! “My mother?”

“You actually hung up on me?” Su Xici stared at the phone screen in disbelief.

“What’s wrong?” The boy asked casually.”

“I’m a man, but I’m actually reduced to buying sanitary pads.” Su Xici was on the verge of breaking down. She sighed and said, “Forget it. You guys go back to the classroom first. I have something to do.”

He happened to be in the supermarket now. He put his phone back into his pocket and walked toward the women’s products shelf.

On the other side of the shelf.

Zhao Zifu took a bottle of yogurt and walked to Li Shunan's side." Brother Nan, what else do you want to buy?"

Li Shunan had his hands in his pockets. His tall and slender figure stood in front of the shelf, looking lazy and tired.

She thought of what the boy had shouted just now.

He raised his eyes slightly and did not go to get a drink. He slowly threw out two words,"Let's go."

"You don't drink?" Zhao Zifu was a little puzzled."

"Yes."

At the end of the corridor on the second floor of the teaching building.

When Jiang Lingzhi came out of the bathroom, Su Xici was still leaning against the fence outside the corridor. She had her hands in her pockets, and she was wearing a white hooded sweater, and she was extremely clingy.

Su Xici tilted her head and stared at her for a while."Crying?

nang LIngzm rolled ner eyes at nlm and won't cry."

Her face was a little pale and she did not look too good. Her originally cold and fair skin now looked a little transparent.

"I'm really scared of you. This is the first time I've bought such a thing for a girl."

"First time?" Jiang Lingzhi turned her face sideways and wrinkled her nose."Only a ghost would believe that."

Susie was stunned for a moment. Her expression was a little unnatural as she grabbed a handful of messy hair. "Can you still take the exam? Why don't you take a leave of absence?"

He still remembered that one time, when her relative came, she was in so much pain that she cried...

Jiang Lingzhi snorted. "Why not? The first place in the grade is mine. ""

"Alright, alright, alright. It's yours." When she reached the stairs, Su Xici raised her hand and rubbed her head. ""Take the exam well. I'll be leaving first. Call me if there's anything."

Jiang Ling knew that her stomach was a little uncomfortable. She frowned as he rubbed her, and she did not pay much attention to him. She retracted her gaze and went straight back to the classroom.

Mathematics in the afternoon.

There were still ten minutes before the exam.

The seat next to him had been empty, and the school bully had gone somewhere.

Jiang Lingzhi leaned sideways on the desk and stared at the empty seat in a daze.

It wasn't until class was about to start that Shunan walked in from the back door of the classroom unhurriedly.

His slender and tall figure passed by her desk. His well-defined palm placed a thermos cup on her desk.

Jiang Lingzhi's gaze lingered on the thermos flask for two seconds before she looked up at him. Her lips were a little pale, and she looked a little pitiful. "What is this?"

Li Shunan stood by the desk and stared at her for a while. He said in a low voice, "It's warm. You'll feel better after drinking it."
