

Little Girl 30

Chapter 30: Come to My Office

The boy in the last row was taken aback. He looked up and met his eyes, then swallowed, and quickly shook his head. "No, no."

"Thank you." Li Shunan looked away, thanked him in a lazy tone, took off his schoolbag subsequently, and sat down directly on the seat.

The boy in the last row shuddered even more. The boss actually said the words "thank you"? Was he having auditory hallucinations?

This was a very polite boss!

The new transfer student had already visited the school on Thursday, but today was the day that he would officially report to school.

He was a legendary boss after all. News about him spread widely like wildfire.

But no one expected him to come to their class.

Li Shunan simply leaned against the back of his chair, not paying attention to any of those comments.

The young man looked a little tired. He tilted his head slightly and within his view was the girl's back.

She had slim and slender shoulders, and her long hair was tied back into a ponytail. She was wearing a white school uniform shirt, revealing a portion of her pearly white neck.

And her name was Jiang Lingzhi.

A very pretty but deceitful girl.

And now, she was his new classmate.

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows. He was leaning on the back of the chair with his hands in his trouser pocket. He turned his face slightly and asked the classmate sitting behind him in a lazy tone, "What class is this?"

The boy in the last row was almost scared to death. Shivering, he moved his table back a little, and whispered, "Self-study class, the teacher just went out, and he has not returned yet."

"Ah," Li Shunan replied casually. He turned back his head and tapped his fingertips lightly on the table twice.

Since there was no teacher in the classroom, everyone could discuss freely but quietly.

Realizing that the boy was indeed sitting in the seat behind her, Jiang Lingzhi finally remembered what Wen Yujing had told her.

The new transfer student in this school.

So, the transfer student who charmed the pants off her was referring to him? The class had not ended. Everyone was whispering and couldn't help but look over here.

Jiang Lingzhi was still confused about how this socialite boss had caused such a sensation.

Why did it seem as if everyone knew him?

Hao Weiwu returned five minutes later. After entering the classroom, he walked to the podium and said, "Quiet."

The classroom finally calmed down.

Then, he surveyed the entire classroom below the podium, and when he saw the figure in the second-to-last row of the fourth column, he cleared his throat. "The new classmate had already come to the classroom, right?" He tidied up his book and prepared to return to his seat. "Yes, he is already here."

Hao Weiwu nodded. "Since he had already found a seat to sit down, I won't waste everyone's time to let him introduce himself. You can get to know each other after class."

After speaking, he opened the textbook. "Okay, let's continue the class."

The interlude that delayed the class for one and a half lessons was finally over.

Everyone was obviously very curious about the new classmate.

Even during class, they always cast their looks there from time to time.

Maybe because it was his first day of school, the new classmate leaned on the back of his chair, his long legs were stretched out in a flippant manner, and he looked extremely lazy, as if he would fall asleep at any moment.

But he didn't sleep!

He persisted stubbornly!

Even if there was not a single book on the desk! Even the people next to him, who were watching this scene, felt bored and sleepy on his behalf.

When the bell rang at the end of the class, Hao Weiwu took off his glasses and put them in his chest pocket, then announced, "Class has ended!"

Thereafter, he raised his head and glanced at the back of the classroom. “The new student, come with me to the office..”
