

Little Girl 301

Chapter 301: Will You Dream Of Me Again?

Li Shunan was still standing there with one hand in his pocket. His tall and slender figure was particularly prominent. He raised his eyebrows. "Hmm?"

Jiang Lingzhi raised her head and met his eyes. Her black eyes were clear and bright. "Will you dream of me again?"

The topic was suddenly brought back to the original point.

Before he could react.

Jiang Lingzhi tiptoed gently, and her red lips moved closer to his ear. She called out to him softly, "Big brother

Li Shunan's body froze.

After shouting, Jiang Lingzhi took two steps back and ran past him. Her voice was like it was covered in sugar. "I'm going home. Goodbye, brother." Li Shunan was speechless.

The girl ran away after flirting with him, not giving him any chance to react. When Li Shunan came back to his senses, the girl had already run far away.

He now deeply understood the profound meaning of the saying, one who brings disaster upon oneself cannot live.

Li Shunan straightened his body, and he could still see the girl's back as she walked away. He chuckled, and his eyes became gentle.

Jiang Lingzhi returned home and sent a text message to Li Shunan.”[I’m home.]

After reporting that he was safe, he sat at his desk and reviewed the lessons that he had missed this afternoon.

He still had to make up for the missed classes in time. Otherwise, the more he accumulated, the more tired he would be.

When she wrote down the parts she didn’t know how to do, she would take a photo of her deskmate and ask him to help her answer.

Li Shunan replied quickly and explained each question in detail.

The main thing was that her voice was so pleasant that it made people want to learn.

The Deskmate Tutoring Machine was quite useful.

After he finished writing the exam papers, he wrote two more review papers.

After Jiang Lingzhi finished her homework, she collapsed on the chair and stared out the window to rest for a while.

Then, he took out a diary from the drawer of his desk.

She rarely wrote in her diary, and every time, she would only write a few words.

Jiang Lingzhi could not help but write it down.

He seemed to be in a much better mood today.

November 8th, I want to remember this date forever.

She had always been by his side.

The next morning.

Li Shunan came to school during the break after the morning reading class.

After class, the corridor outside the classroom was filled with people.

Some were eating breakfast, while others were chatting outside.

The young man was wearing a white shirt and a black jacket. He had a black school bag slung across his shoulder.

He was extremely arrogant as he walked past a group of people in blue and white uniforms.

Thus, everyone could see that scene.

The big boss wore a black mask today, revealing only his clear eyebrows. Even the mask could not cover his high nose bridge. Her peach blossom eyes were filled with tiredness, and her expression was indifferent. She looked like she had an aura that kept strangers away.

Ever since he got the second place in the grade, his image in the eyes of his classmates had grown.

The combination of No.1 Middle School's school bully and No.1 Middle School's top student was even more terrifying.

As they passed through the corridor, the crowd made way for them.

He successfully received the attention of the crowd.

Whispers could be heard.

“Why is Big Boss so handsome again?”

“He’s a god, right? Why is he so handsome and has such good grades? Sob, sob, sob, I’m envious.”

“Why is he wearing a mask today? Did you catch a cold?”

“F * ck, even the big boss looks so handsome wearing a mask. It’s infuriating to compare people.”

“A top student is indeed different. He insisted on coming to school even though he had a cold.!”

Chapter 302: Our Zhizhi

When Jiang Lingzhi returned to the classroom with a cup of water, she happened to see her deskmate who was pulling her bag down with one hand and sitting down on the seat.

He came quite early.

Jiang Lingzhi retracted her gaze and walked over. She sat down in her seat and placed the cup of water on the table. She turned her face sideways and asked him, “Is your cold better?”

Li Shunan leaned against the wall, looked up, and hummed lightly.

He had not fully recovered from his cold, and his voice was still slightly nasal.

Jiang Lingzhi looked around and realized that no one was paying attention to this place. She hooked her finger at him and said, "Come closer."

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows slightly, lowered his body slightly, and approached her obediently. "What's wrong?"

Jiang Lingzhi raised her hand, and her fingertips gently touched the temperature on his forehead. Then, she touched her own forehead and compared the temperature. "I don't think you have a fever anymore."

Her fingertips were icy cold, and the distance between them instantly shortened.

"Mm." Behind the black mask, the young man stared at her with his deep eyes. "It's all thanks to our family, Zhizhi."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

His voice was a little hoarse. The two words that came out of his mouth were inexplicably affectionate.

Why did this name change its taste when it entered his mouth?

Jiang Lingzhi looked away unnaturally. She coughed lightly, and her heartbeat was a little loud. "Why did you suddenly say that?"

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows, leaned back, and said, "If there's no rebuttal, then we'll have to settle it for our family."

Jiang Lingzhi felt that this person was too experienced.

The flirtatious words were endless, and it was completely unbearable.

Jiang Lingzhi endured it for a while and glanced at his empty table. "Did you do your homework?"

Li Shunan said calmly, "... No, I don't."

Jiang Lingzhi looked up and thought, "Are you going to listen to the class seriously?"

Li Shunan rested his elbow on the table and looked at her lazily. "What do you think?"

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

"Then why did you come to school when you didn't do your homework or go to class? You might as well rest at home."

"You're not at home." Li Shunan leaned against the wall like a young master. "I just wanted to see you."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

The morning classes passed quickly.

Li Shunan was resting on the table, probably because he still had a cold. His breathing was a little heavy.

Jiang Lingzhi felt that since he was not in class, he might as well rest at home. It was not comfortable to lie here.

After the bell rang.

Jiang Lingzhi put away her pen and raised her hand to wake her up. "Go home and sleep. It's uncomfortable to sleep here."

There were only a few people left in the classroom.

Li Shunan woke up. He raised his hand and rubbed his straight nose. He sat up straight. "Class is over? Go eat?"

Jiang Lingzhi's fingers that were arranging the books paused. She turned her face sideways to look at him. "I'm not eating with you today. I'm going to find Wen Yujing. After dinner, I'm going to the club."

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows and leaned against the wall. He looked at her with his eyes half-open and said lazily, "Think about it. How long has it been since you last ate with me?"

As soon as he said this, Jiang Lingzhi felt inexplicably guilty. She thought about it and realized that it had indeed been a long time since she had eaten with him in school..

Chapter 303: How Can I Endure It?

But didn't she have a reason?

Jiang Lingzhi blinked her eyes and tried to defend herself. "Didn't I feed you porridge yesterday?"

In other words, I've already fed you porridge. Why are you still asking for so much?

Li Shunan approached her and stared into her eyes. He said in a low voice, "Don't change the concept."

His voice was low and deep, especially his eyes that were only exposed outside the mask. The corners of his eyes were slightly raised, cold and distant, making him seem a little unreasonable.

Jiang Ling knew that she was in the wrong. She tucked a stray strand of hair behind her ear and looked away. "Then I have something on today. I'm on duty every Tuesday. As the manager, I'm responsible for taking attendance and putting away the basketballs."

Li Shunan's gaze fell on the fair skin behind the girl's ear and he said lazily, "Why else do you think I came to school? Wasn't it just to follow you for a meal?"

As soon as she said this, Jiang Lingzhi was stunned.

Was it that important to have a meal with her?

So important that he could sacrifice his rest time?

Jiang Lingzhi suddenly blamed herself.

She couldn't even satisfy her deskmate's small request.

Jiang Lingzhi wrinkled her nose. "But I really have something on. I really didn't know that signing up for a club would be so troublesome. I won't sign up for a club next semester. ""

Li Shunan stopped talking.

The phone in his pocket rang. It was a call from Wen Yujing.

It had been fifteen minutes since the class ended. Wen Yujing had probably been waiting for a long time.

Jiang Lingzhi glanced at the phone screen and carefully glanced at the boy. "Um, Wen Yujing called. I'm leaving."

Li Shunan was speechless.

The boy's tall and straight figure leaned against the wall loosely. His face was covered by a mask, and his expression could not be seen clearly. Only a pair of faint peach blossom eyes could be seen.

She was wearing a black coat that accentuated her fair skin.

Jiang Lingzhi inexplicably felt that he was a little pitiful.

For some reason, she always felt sorry for him.

He clearly did not reveal the slightest pitiful expression or anything else. In fact, he still had that arrogant and lazy appearance.

But she was so stubborn.

Jiang Ling knew that she could not leave just like that. She raised her hand and tugged at the hem of his coat. She said in a negotiating tone, "Next time, I'll definitely have dinner with you alone, okay?"

After she finished speaking, Jiang Lingzhi blinked and stared at him with her dark eyes.

He did not say anything for a long time.

Jiang Lingzhi puffed up her cheeks. She did not know what he was thinking for a moment. She leaned her face in front of him and asked again, "Is that alright? Big brother."

Li Shunan was speechless.

Li Shunan's Adam's apple bobbed heavily. He looked away and said in a hoarse voice, "... Got it." Hmm?

Did he agree?

Jiang Lingzhi was confused. She was prepared to coax him, but he agreed just like that?

Why was he so easy to talk to today?

Thinking about it, he felt that this method was quite useful. Every time he used it, it would produce some very wonderful effects.

Jiang Lingzhi's eyes curved up as she said softly, "If you're not feeling well, you should take a leave of absence and go home to rest. Don't force yourself here. I'll leave first."

As if she was afraid that he would go back on his word, Jiang Lingzhi took her phone, stood up, and rushed out of the classroom.

Li Shunan looked up and glanced at the girl's thin back. The tip of his tongue touched the back of his molars.

Tsk, how could he tolerate this?

Chapter 304: It's Just Master's Mission (2)

No...There was no sound.

What happened?

Where was the cinematic? What happened to the monster movie? You're showing us this?

The players were depressed.

Liao Zixuan was even more depressed. What did he mean? Was she playing a fake match with him? Liao Zixuan felt like he was being played, and it was still the kind of extremely clumsy acting.

As expected.

It was a classic Calabash Brothers saving their grandpa. After the sparrow " fell , it was the next dragon crocodile's turn.

It opened its jaws, and a stream of high-pressure water appeared. However, in reality, Liao Zixuan also opened his mouth symbolically and spat out an ordinary fireball to fight back. The water was countered by the reverse attribute.

The dragon crocodile waited for a long time after its first attack, but the black wolf didn't attack it again. It had no choice, so the dragon crocodile turned its limbs around and its belly faced up. It seemed to have suffered a strong backlash and was silent.

At this point, Liao Zixuan was completely sure that not only the four giant beasts, but also the other demons that had been brought here to surround the refugees, but had not attacked under the attraction of the demon saliva fragrance. There was a big problem.

Liao Zixuan had completely lost interest, but the last remaining demon, the white unicorn, was anxious.

She used her beautiful and smooth hooves to stomp on the ground a few times, but the black wolf opposite her just glared at her.

It seemed as if he was saying," Act, continue acting. I won't even touch you this time. I'll see how you fall to the ground again."

This made the unicorns extremely anxious because they would not be able to complete Sister Shirley's mission. They had to be defeated by this black wolf.

Although she was helpless, this was not a problem for the smart her.

White Horn cast a spell. In an instant, dark clouds gathered above the unicorn. Then, a lightning bolt as thick as a bucket struck down from the dark clouds, its target...It was itself.

After hitting itself with its own lightning magic, the unicorn let out a symbolic scream and finally fell down like its other three teammates without a sound.

Alright.

You're ruthless.

The ordinary refugees did not think too much about it. They only knew that Vivian's black wolf had protected them, or that it was one against four, breathing fire and summoning lightning, and was unharmed.

Immediately, a large number of cheers rang out from the ranks. Many refugees even knelt down. He worshiped the giant black wolf as if it was a totem protector.

This included Vivian's father, Anlu, because he felt as if every monster's eyes were floating on him, almost scaring him to death. He urgently needed a sense of security.

Chris and his gang were not as exaggerated, but they were more respectful to Vivian, the summoner of the black wolf.

Little Seven sneaked to Chris's side and patted him on the shoulder.

"Boss, why don't we...Forget it. Big Sister is too fierce. Boss, you probably won't be able to catch up to her in this lifetime. It's not shabby to eat a soft meal."

"Get lost!" Chris kicked Little Seven angrily.

But in reality, he was sighing in his heart. He clenched his fists on both sides and then released them.

There were also a few other people in the team who were in a bad mood.

“This... Was it fake? Is it over just like that?” The spies that Count Du Lin had planted in the refugees were all dumbfounded.

“Too strong. I thought that little girl was powerful enough, but I didn’t expect her monster to be even more powerful than her! Not only could it breathe fire, but it could also summon lightning!

“What do we do now?”

“What else can we do? Hurry up and report the news to Master Du Lin, sigh...’ Just as the spies were about to take out their magic communication tokens, they did not expect...

“Sorry, but can I take a look at the things in your hands? “Suddenly, a young girl’s voice sounded in their ears.

The spies were shocked. When they turned around and saw that it was Vivian, their faces instantly turned pale.

At first, they wanted to argue because they knew Vivian’s character. She was hesitant and kind-hearted. They might be able to fool her.

However, after the heart-to-heart talk with Liz last night, Vivian was actually trying to change. If it was before, she might have waited for these spies to quibble, but now.

Uncle Thorin, sorry to trouble you.”

“Hmph, leave this bunch of scum to me, guards!”

Looking at the people being escorted into the prison carriage, the maid Elina could not help but ask the little girl beside her curiously.

“Vivian, you...” How did you find them?”

“Because Xiao Hei told me that a large number of monsters would suddenly appear. Someone in our team used some kind of drug that could attract monsters, so I was thinking, if they did this, what would they do? They would definitely run to the safest place, and in the entire team, the safest place should be here, right?”

‘ So, I used my magic power to probe the area. I happened to discover that these people had magical communication fluctuations on them. In addition, although they were dressed like the other refugees, it was easy to distinguish them if one paid a little attention.

Vivian carefully explained her thoughts to Elena. The little maid was still confused at first, but then her eyes became brighter and brighter. In the end, her eyes were full of admiration..

Chapter 305: It’s Just Master’s Mission

“Wow! Vivian, you’re so smart!”

“Elena, yes, yes... There’s no possibility that you’re too stupid?”

“(00_00)”

“Ah! I was just joking! Actually, I can only think of it because someone reminded me! I definitely can’t do it alone. “Vivian hurriedly explained.

[Humph!]

A tsundere snort came from the spiritual space.

He had thought that this would be the end.

However, who would have thought that there was an even bigger follow-up waiting.

The four "fallen" monsters, after seeing that the atmosphere was about right, exchanged glances with each other and all jumped up.

This almost made the refugees who were still alive from the disaster freeze their smiles again. Fortunately, their goal this time was very clear. It was as if they had been beaten into submission, so it was very logical for them to be willing to be underlings. The four demons ran in front of the black wolf in unison, their heads facing the ground, indicating their submission. After that, she revealed the true reason why Xue Li had sent them here.

In short, it could be summarized in four words.

Transportation.

Under the command of the four Lord-tier monsters, the small monsters that had surrounded the refugees were about the size of a carriage compared to them. They were also preparing to perform the function of a carriage.

In the beginning, the refugees were all villagers and townspeople, and they were very afraid of the monsters that approached them. It was not until Vivian kept explaining using sound amplification magic, and Thorin, who was almost crazy with joy, took the lead to publicize and educate the refugees.

It took almost an hour for the refugees to truly relax. Not only did they put all the luggage that had seriously affected the speed of migration on the monsters.

The refugees dared to climb onto the backs of the monsters themselves and used them as a means of transportation. The players had played a leading role in this. When they learned that they could even climb onto the four giant monsters, they were all excited.

The most popular among them were naturally birds. Even Vivian and the wolf cubs chose to take this "flight".

Next was the gorilla. Sitting on the shoulder of the gorilla, it was like a moving hill.

By the way, only the unicorn was special. Only certain players were allowed to ride it. One of the reasons was that it had to be a female player, but it was not enough. It seemed that a certain condition had to be met before it was allowed to ride on the unicorn, which attracted a lot of complaints from the players.

In short, with the help of the army of demons, the original plan was to take more than a day to reach the ruins of Red Flame Town. However, it took less than half a day for the refugees to successfully arrive.

What was even more unbelievable was that Thorin, the former mayor, kept rubbing his eyes. He had thought that the land of Red Flame Town was almost completely destroyed, probably in a mess.

However, who would have thought that the ruins of the buildings they had imagined were gone? The rubble of the meteorites was gone. The ground of the pits was gone.

It was as if a piece of land had been cleaned up in advance. It was clean and good quality, just waiting for the “construction team” to come.

“This... What is this...”

Thorin turned to Vivian, who turned to the wolf cubs. The wolf cubs...

Where were the wolf cubs?

Could it be that she was so touched that she couldn't wait to meet a certain female wolf as soon as she landed?

Chapter 306: Boss, you understand me! 1

God SDlitting Lake.

There was a corner of the vast lake that was considered a forbidden area by the creatures in the lake. Even the overlord gray crocodile did not dare to approach it at all. It was specially divided into separate territories.

To be able to receive such treatment, one did not need to ask to know who it was.

The gurgling sound of the water echoed in the quiet forbidden area by the lake. The woman in the lake, who had half her body exposed, gently used her hand to brush the sparkling surface of the lake in front of her. The ripples immediately scattered further into the lake with the woman as the center.

She scooped up some of the lake water. From the outside, it looked like a flowing, colorful, and magical lake water. After it left the surface of the lake, it seemed to have lost its color and returned to clarity.

The woman held the lake water in her palm and wiped it on her body. Her originally smooth jade-like skin looked even more fragile under the clear lake water, moist and shiny.

As the woman moved, her long, snow-white hair that hung down to the surface of the lake also moved. It was like a horsetail whisk that swept across the lake and was slowly soaked, gradually becoming wet.

The same, the undulation, the ups and downs, the arrogant curves, the lines on the lake, the looming, the two halves of the hemisphere, the even more, become an extremely attractive sight, the beautiful scenery line.

Such an elegant scene that was pleasing to the eye was ruthlessly broken by a certain black wolf that did not understand amorous feelings.

What would you do if a half-covered woman in the lake took a bath in front of you?

The wolf cub's answer was:

A fireball flew over.

Ah, it's just playing. This is how we, the Dark Flame Wolves, greet each other.

Whoosh!

A fireball the size of a washbasin tore through the air and shot toward the woman in the lake with a whistling sound.

Although it seemed to be quite loud, Liao Zixuan did it on purpose. After all, he wasn't really going to sneak an attack. It was fun, fun.

Therefore, the fireball was not very fast. With the woman's ability, she had enough time to react.

Xue Li even had the time to sigh with a helpless expression.

Sigh...

She took nearly an hour to wash up.

If it was Xue Li's usual cleaning speed, it might not even take ten minutes.

Her efforts were not effective, and Xue Li felt a little emotional.

She did not dodge the incoming fireball. Instead, she raised her arm from the lake and a black hole appeared in the void, sucking the fireball in.

In the next second, an identical void black hole appeared above the head of a wolf cub hiding in the forest next door. It returned the fireball that it had swallowed to its original owner.

Boom!

A rather loud explosion sounded, and the forest was in chaos. Birds and beasts fled, and gray smoke rose.

Alright, it wasn't exactly the same. Looking at the way the fireball exploded, its power had increased by at least three to four times.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Xue Li didn't stay put.

A black mark flashed across her red eyes, which had only recently turned red after she had received the gift from the Fire God Alice. The moment the black mark appeared, an evil aura that could be considered an old friend immediately spread out as if it had been unsealed.

Xue Li's body changed, and the sound of water splashing could be heard from the lake behind her. A pair of black wings that were even more voluptuous and stronger than when the Fallen Abyss descended spread out from Xue Li's back.

Furthermore, Liao Zixuan, who had run out of the forest in a sorry state, also noticed that on the other side of Xue Li's originally empty wing, there was something new. It was a pitch-black sharp bone finger.

His body floated upwards until he reached the tip of his feet, which allowed him to step on the surface of the lake.

The black velvet ring on his ankle finally showed its effect. It immediately attracted the attention of a certain wolf cub, making it unable to look away.

The new clothes were displayed.

Next was...

He looked at the wolf cub who was eager to give it a try, and his eyes were filled with fighting spirit instead of affection. It was as if he wanted to make up for the disappointing battle earlier, or rather, he wanted to test how much her strength had improved after being refined by the Fire God.

All in all, Shirley sighed again.

If that's the case

“Lord Hei, then Xue Li will have to offend you.”

After a soft apology.

The violent round began.

Shirley first... Then, how could the little wolf cub be...Still... However, Xue Li seemed to have expected this and immediately...Then...

However, the wolf cub followed suit. In the end, Xue Li was the first to fall from exhaustion, declaring the end of the battle.

Mm, applause, what an exciting battle!

He fast-forwarded to the scene where Cher fell from the sky as if she had lost all her strength. She was successfully intercepted by a certain someone in mid-air and held in his arms.

He leaned against his thick and broad chest.

Xue Li raised her head and looked at the well-defined face of the man who was protecting her in his arms.

“Lord Black, Xue Li has...Become stronger?”

“Of course!”

“I can tell that you’ve become more proficient in using the power of Fallen Abyss, and you’ve gained quite a few new skills. Most importantly, I can feel that although you still emit an evil aura when you use Fallen Abyss, the feeling you give me is different from the original you.

“How should I put it, hmm... It was as if there was only the outer shell of evil, but the true interior had been hollowed out and replaced with your own will. ”

Liao Zixuan spoke to the woman in his arms with confidence and gave a very serious and professional analysis...Well, he actually cheated by relying on the game interface, translating the information on it into words that Shirley could understand..

Chapter 307: A Sense of Crisis

With a bang, the basketball entered the basket and bounced a few times. The sound was a little dull.

Jiang Lingzhi stopped in her tracks. She was still holding a basketball in her arms as she looked at the end of the parabola.

At the entrance of the stadium.

A black figure walked over under the light.

The young man was tall and straight. He wore a black coat and a black mask on his handsome face, covering half of his face, revealing only a pair of faint and loving peach blossom eyes. The loose hair on his forehead drooped down, making him look even more arrogant and lazy.

When he walked over, there was a basketball by his feet. He bent down to pick it up and threw it over with one hand.

With a bang, the ball went in again.

The moment she saw him, Jiang Lingzhi was very surprised. The corners of her lips curled up instantly. "Why are you here?"

Li Shunan walked over. There was a basketball rolling beside the cage. He bent down to pick it up and threw it in with one hand. He straightened his body and held the armrest of the cage with his fair and slender fingers.

The veins on the back of his hand were exceptionally clear, and his bones were distinct. He pushed the cart with one hand and walked towards her.

"My future girlfriend didn't want to eat with me, so I had to find her myself."

Because he still had a cold, his nasal voice was a little low. His voice was a little cold and inexplicably pleasant to the ear. Li Shunan's half-closed eyelids met her eyes.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

He made her sound like a heartless man.

Jiang Lingzhi hugged the basketball in her hand and did not have the time to speak.

The boy's usual lazy tone rang out again. He spoke very slowly, as if he was cutting her into pieces.

"I just arrived and heard someone confessing to my future girlfriend. I suddenly felt a sense of crisis."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

So, he saw He Dixian's confession just now?

It was unknown how much he had heard.

Jiang Lingzhi felt a little guilty for some reason. When he passed by, she threw the ball into the car and hurriedly explained, "I rejected him."

When Li Shunan walked past her, he stopped and looked down at her, looking down at her from above.

The hair on his forehead covered half of his eyes, making it difficult to see the emotions in his eyes. He said in a low voice, "What did you say?"

Jiang Lingzhi was silent for a moment before she said vaguely, "I told him that I didn't fall in love during high school." There was a moment of silence.

Li Shunan clicked his tongue softly.

Retracting his gaze, he let go of the handle and walked past her unhurriedly.

Li Shunan was picking up the ball in front of him, and Jiang Lingzhi didn't run around anymore. She pushed the cart and followed behind him.

"I even told him that I have someone I like."

In the empty basketball court, although her voice was not loud, it was loud enough for everyone to hear.

Jiang Lingzhi stared at his back view and curled her lips. She thought that he would ask further.

The basketballs were picked up one by one, and the court was quickly cleaned up.

Jiang Lingzhi was about to push the cart back to the equipment room.

A fair and slender hand reached over and snatched the cart away from her.

Li Shunan lowered his eyes and his gaze fell on her slender and fair wrist. His voice was lazy.

“It’s so thin. Can you push it?”

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Jiang Lingzhi pursed her lips, but she still let go of her hand. “It’s not heavy.” Li Shunan smiled and said in a deep voice, “Your hand is not suitable for this..”

Chapter 308: Holding Hands With Her Boyfriend

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment. She felt that his words were a little funny, and she followed his words and asked, “If you’re not suitable for this, then what are you suitable for?”

Li Shunan pushed the cart with one hand and glanced at her. He bent down slightly and held her small hand in his hand. “It’s suitable. I’m holding hands with my boyfriend.”

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

His eyes were slightly raised, and his fingers squeezed into the gaps between her fingers, intertwining with hers.

His actions were overbearing and domineering.

His voice was lazy and tired as he said carelessly, "This kind of work. You just need to hold your boyfriend's hand."

Their fingers were intertwined, and the feeling was indescribable.

Jiang Lingzhi's face turned red when he held her hand.

The warmth of his palm kept transmitting over. His presence was too strong to be ignored.

He held her hand like he was holding a child.

Jiang Lingzhi wanted to calm down, but she couldn't ignore the burning sensation.

His gaze shifted to the bottom of the basketball stand.

There was still a fish that had slipped through the net under the basketball hoop.

Jiang Lingzhi stopped in her tracks, and so did Li Shunan.

"What's wrong?"

Jiang Lingzhi pointed below the basketball hoop." "There's a ball there, I'll go pick it up." "

Li Shunan looked up, his eyes still languid and tired. Obviously, he had also seen her. He gently pinched her fingers and then released them."Go ahead."

Jiang Lingzhi felt that the fingers that he held had become extremely hot. She clenched her fists and ran to the basketball hoop to pick up the last basketball.

She had never been good at sports.

He was on the verge of failing several times.

Jiang Lingzhi hugged the basketball and was about to pick it up when she passed by the basketball hoop.

She thought of the way the boy threw the ball just now.

He threw the ball into the basket cleanly and neatly.

Jiang Lingzhi inexplicably wanted to give it a try.

She stopped and looked at Li Shunan who was not far away. "I want to throw a ball."

Li Shunan looked up and leaned against the fence lazily, looking at her calmly.

"Try it."

"I'll just give it a try." Jiang Lingzhi hugged the basketball, but she did not dare to stand too far away. She stood at a two-pointer position and tried to shoot a basket.

He raised the ball and threw it out with all his might. The basketball was still thousands of miles away from the hoop.

He didn't even touch the hoop.

He was asking for humiliation.

Forget it.

He couldn't get in at all.

Jiang Lingzhi gave up.

She threw the basketball in a parabola and it gradually rolled away.

Jiang Lingzhi jogged over and picked up the basketball. She was about to put it back into the basket.

Li Shunan couldn't help but chuckle. He stood up straight and walked over unhurriedly. He hooked his finger at her and said lazily, "Come here."

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment, and she realized that he was standing at the spot where she was standing just now.

She thought that he wanted to demonstrate to her how to shoot.

Jiang Lingzhi hugged the ball and walked in front of him. She passed the ball to him and said, "Do you want to vote? Here you go."

Li Shunan looked down at her. He raised his hand and grabbed her wrist. He pulled her into his arms and hugged her from behind.

This position seemed to have her whole body in his embrace.

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment. She was still holding a ball in her hand. Her back was pressed tightly against his chest, and her entire body was enveloped by his aura.

"Raise the ball."

The boy's lazy and low voice sounded behind her ear..

Chapter 309: Why Close the Door

Through the mask, his voice was like a thin veil. It was a little unreal, but it was close to her ears.

Jiang Lingzhi subconsciously raised the ball and turned her head slightly. "And then?"

The ball was a little heavy, and she felt her arm ache after lifting it for a few seconds.

Li Shunan stood behind her and let out a soft laugh.

The two of them were so close that she could even feel the vibration from his chest.

Jiang Ling didn't know what he was laughing about. He was most likely laughing at her.

At the same time as it was a little embarrassing, the string on his back inexplicably tightened.

Just as he was about to put his hand down.

Li Shunan raised his hand and gently held her wrist. His voice came from above. "Spread your fingers and touch the ball with your fingers. Empty the lower part of your palm that doesn't touch the ball. Bending your wrist back, raise your forearm, and place your center of gravity between your index and middle fingers."

Jiang Lingzhi listened attentively and adjusted the way she held the ball. "When you throw the ball, pay attention to the stretching of your waist." At this point, the boy's palm gently wrapped around her waist.

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment, and she almost jumped out of his arms.

Just say it, can you not touch it!

However, he only made a simple contact with her, as if he was really teaching her seriously, just like a gentleman.

“Concentrate your strength on your wrist and fingers. Press your wrist down and push the ball with your fingers to throw the ball.” His tone was calm and slow, as lazy and magnetic as ever.

“Let’s try.”

Jiang Lingzhi suddenly felt that she had overreacted. He was still so serious.

After listening to his instructions, she adjusted her posture and threw the ball again.

The basketball shot out in a parabola and brushed past the hoop with a bang.

He didn’t enter.

However, it was much better than before. This time, he could touch the rim.

Jiang Lingzhi did not feel happy at all. This was too tiring.

“I’m so tired. I’ll pass.”

He had no intention of proving himself at all.

Since she was so tired, she should learn to give up.

After the basketball hit the board, it bounced back.

Li Shunan raised his hand and caught the ball easily. He glanced at her and chuckled. "My hands are weak. I have to practice more in the future."

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment. Are you going to teach me how to play basketball?"

Actually, she wasn't very interested in basketball.

She doesn't really want to learn from the act of the

"You don't like it?" Li Shunan chuckled.'

Jiang Lingzhi's small face was scrunched up, and she almost wrote the word 'dislike' on her face.

I'm not teaching basketball." Li Shunan lowered his eyes and stared at her meaningfully. "Then I can teach you something else."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Jiang Lingzhi wrinkled her nose and snatched the basketball from his hand. "I don't want to learn anything."

She walked over and put the ball into the basket before pushing the basket into the equipment room.

There was a little space in the equipment room. There were sports equipment, and things were a little messy.

Jiang Lingzhi placed the cart inside.

The sound of the door being locked suddenly came from the door.

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment before she turned around to take a look.

Li Shunan also followed him in. His tall and straight figure stood there, and the space suddenly seemed even more cramped.

After entering, he raised his hand and locked the door.

A cracking sound was heard. It was exceptionally clear.

Jiang Lingzhi's heart tightened, and she felt a little nervous for some reason. "Why did you close the door?"

Li Shunan kicked the football that was rolling beside him. "The ball has been picked up and the shooting has been taught. Now we can settle the score.."

Chapter 310: What Are You Nervous About?

"The ball has been picked up and the shooting has been taught. Now we can settle the score."

He spoke slowly, with a cynical tone. He put his hands in his pockets and walked towards her unhurriedly.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

The area of the equipment room was not big.

There were a few tall metal shelves beside them, and things were placed randomly.

The entire space was sealed, making people feel inexplicably cramped.

It would have been better if he hadn't locked the door. The feeling wasn't that strong.

Now that she had locked the door, she did not know if it was because of her psychological reasons, but it was easy to give people an illusion.

It was very similar to the feeling of being prepared to do something secretly.

When she thought of this, Jiang Lingzhi's entire body shivered.

What kind of unhealthy thought was this?

Jiang Lingzhi watched as he walked closer and closer. Her hand was still holding onto the handle, and her fingertips subconsciously tightened. She could not help but stutter, "Settle, settle what score?"

Li Shunan was tall and his legs were long. He walked slowly with his long legs and reached her in a few steps.

He raised his hand and lowered his body slightly, trapping her between his body and the metal shelf.

The young man lowered his eyes slightly, revealing a pair of lingering peach blossom eyes outside the mask.

The aura on his body covered the sky and covered the earth. His scent was everywhere, making it impossible for people to avoid it.

Jiang Lingzhi held her breath, and she felt nervous for no reason.

“Stop fooling around. When someone comes, we should leave.” She subconsciously gulped and tried to walk past him.

In the end, before Jiang Lingzhi could take a step forward.

Li Shunan’s other hand also came down and supported himself on the shelf partition behind her, completely locking her in place.

He raised his hand and pulled the mask to his chin, revealing his entire face with clear contours. The color of his thin lips was a little light.

“What are you nervous about?”

His voice is a little lazy, full of tiredness, still carrying a little secret, like a deep ruffian.

Jiang Lingzhi’s heartbeat was a little uncontrollable.

She felt that this deskmate was inexplicably a little bad.

Jiang Lingzhi looked up at him and tried her best to remain calm. “I’m not nervous. Which eye of yours saw me nervous?”

She pretended to be calm.

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows slightly and drawled, “Are you really not nervous?”

Jiang Lingzhi looked at him eagerly.

“Then I’ll...” Li Shunan deliberately dragged out the last syllable and chuckled. He bent his head slightly and approached her.

The closer he got, the more his aura sprayed down, making it impossible for anyone to withstand it.

Jiang Ling knew that her heart was tight, and her blood instantly surged up. Her ears were red as she turned her face away. She was a little flustered and exasperated. "What are you doing? This is a school!" Although, although she did not reject his approach. He had even taken the initiative a few times before.

But she wasn't that shameless.

At school...

Just...

Her ears were red, and she condemned him for being a prostitute. hooligan behavior.

He seemed to think that her reaction was very cute.

Li Shunan licked the corner of his lips and lowered his head. He couldn't help but laugh softly, and his chest was shaking slightly.

The girl's eyes were bright and clear. Because of his words, her hands clenched the hem of her clothes tightly, and her nervousness was obvious.

Li Shunan looked down at her, raised his hand, and gently scratched her nose. "I'm just teasing you."

Jiang Lingzhi's eyelashes trembled slightly.

Li Shunan chuckled."

Jiang Lingzhi looked up and was a little annoyed. "Then, then I don't cry that much.."
