

Little Girl 351

Chapter 351: Suited to be Alone for the Rest of His Life

When Jiang Lingzhi walked into the villa area, it was already past nine in the morning. She had a lollipop in her mouth and a cup of milk tea in her hand.

She had sDrained her ankle iust now, but it was not too serious. She would be fine after a while.

When he returned to his house, he saw Su Xici from afar before he could enter.

Su Sici was wearing pajamas and a coat. She was leaning against the tree at the door with a cigarette between her fingers.

He seemed to have sensed something and looked up in her direction.

Jiang Lingzhi stopped in her tracks and looked at him.

Su Sici stubbed out the cigarette in her hand, stood up straight, and walked over unhurriedly.

After walking in, he sized her up for a while. "You still know how to come back?" Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Jiang Lingzhi took a sip of milk tea and said calmly, ""Why didn't I know that I was back?"

Su Sici stuffed her hands into her pockets and stood there sloppily. "Little brat, you're very bold. You even dare to go to a bar."

Jiang Lingzhi felt inexplicably guilty, but at this time, how could she express it:

“How is it?”

Su Xici stared at her for two seconds before she laughed again. “Nothing much.

I’m sorry for your deskmate.” Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

What a lunatic.

She thought of what Li Shunan had said to her after she had answered the phone yesterday.

Is there something wrong with your childhood sweetheart’s brain?

From the looks of it, he was really sick.

Jiang Lingzhi pursed her lips. “You should go and see a doctor.””

What a sin.

After breaking up, people became silly.

Jiang Lingzhi was about to go home when she suddenly thought of something.

She stopped in her tracks and said, “By the way, where’s Xiaoxue?”

She suddenly remembered that she saw him take Snowy away last night.

Jiang Lingzhi looked at him up and down again. “You just got up. Come out and smoke a cigarette.” Or did you just come back from outside?”

Susie didn't say anything. The smile on her face froze. She seemed to have thought of something and her expression was a little complicated.

Jiang Lingzhi walked over and stared at him for a while.

"What?" Su Xici sneered. Are you trying to say that I look like a pig? Can't you guys use a new adjective?"

Jiang Lingzhi took another sip of milk tea. She thought for a moment and said, "" Like a dog?"

"Get off me," Su Xi said.

' Oh." Jiang Lingzhi walked straight into the house."Then I'll go. I'll tell Auntie

Su that I saw you secretly smoking."

Su Xici grabbed her collar and pulled her back.""Little brat."

Jiang Lingzhi turned around and looked at him expressionlessly.""What?"

Su Sici let go of his hand and coughed unnaturally. She then put her hand back into her pocket. "What happened to her recently?" Jiang Ling knew very well who this " her " was referring to.

Young Master Su was like this.

She was clearly so curious that she was about to die, yet she still acted like she was so proud that she wanted to go to heaven.

Jiang Lingzhi pursed her lips." Go ask her. ""

Su Xici was completely disheartened. She grabbed a handful of her hair and said, "If she was willing to tell me, why would I f*cking ask you?"

Jiang Lingzhi looked at him as if he was a fool. She said matter-of-factly, "Her mother is in the hospital. Don't tell me you don't even know that?"

Su Xici's expression froze.

Jiang Lingzhi clicked her tongue. "You really don't know?"

Young Master Su's heart was really big.

Jiang Lingzhi raised her hand and patted his shoulder. "Friend, I can tell from your physiognomy that you're quite suitable to be alone until you die.."

Chapter 352: Lowering the Score

In front of him, she really could not stop herself from scolding him. Su Xi Ci was speechless.

He was obviously still thinking about something and hadn't reacted.

After Jiang Lingzhi said this, she did not dare to stay any longer. She said, "Goodbye, friend." Then, she skipped back to her house.

Only then did Su Xici realize what she had said. She was so angry that she laughed and pointed at her. "Brat, what did you just say?"

"Say another word if you have the ability!"

Jiang Lingzhi turned around and made a face at him. She opened the door and went home.

With a bang, the door closed.

Jiang Lingzhi changed her shoes at the entrance. She held the milk tea in her hand and walked into the living room.

Lu Yuping was on the phone in the living room.

Hearing the sound of the door opening, she moved her phone away and turned around to take a look. "Zhizhi is back?"

Jiang Lingzhi nodded."

Lu Yuping was about to continue making the call when her gaze fell on the milk tea in her hand. She frowned. "Why do you drink this? The food outside is unsanitary and has a lot of ingredients. What if I get a stomachache after drinking it...'

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

She forgot to finish her drink outside before coming in.

Jiang Lingzhi hurriedly interrupted her, "'Mom, I'm going back to my room to practice the piano."

Afraid that she would be nagged, she quickly went upstairs and returned to her room.

Jiang Lingzhi closed the door behind her and finished the milk tea in a few gulps. She threw the cup into the trash can.

December arrived quietly.

During this period of time, the temperature had plummeted, and the thin school uniform could no longer be worn.

All the students in No.1 Middle School had changed into their winter uniforms.

In the continuous rain, the air was mixed with a cold aura.

The flag-raising ceremony every Monday was also canceled due to the rainy weather.

Li Shunan didn't come to school for the entire morning reading class.

Jiang Lingzhi was already used to this.

During this period of time, he basically did not come to the morning reading class. Every time, he would only come to school a few minutes before the first class.

Jiang Lingzhi went to the pantry to get some water and was about to go back to the classroom. When she walked to the back door, she saw Li Shunan leaning against the door.

And the math teacher who was talking to him.

In front of the teacher, this person seemed to be completely undignified. He leaned lazily against the fence, his tall and thin figure slouching, looking as if he had not woken up.

He had probably just arrived at school and had yet to take off his bag when he was pulled over by the math teacher to talk.

Jiang Lingzhi was holding a thermos in her hand as she walked over from the other end of the corridor.

As if he had sensed something, he turned his gaze to the side and his gaze landed accurately on her.

When she met his eyes, Jiang Lingzhi stopped in her tracks for a moment. She quickly retracted her gaze and walked over without looking sideways.

She could hear the math teacher talking to him from a distance. "If you get a good ranking in this Mathematics competition, the famous schools can lower your score and accept you. With your aptitude, you can definitely win an award."

It was probably because Jiang Lingzhi had told him not to give in to her on purpose after the monthly test. This person finally did not have to suppress his nature anymore.

This time, he was the top student in the grade.

She was 13 points higher than the second in her grade.

She even scored full marks for mathematics.

Therefore, the math teacher was very satisfied and came to persuade him to represent No.1 Middle School in the math competition.

Li Shunan licked the corner of his lips and stared at her with his light brown eyes. His tone was still casual. "Teacher, do you think that with my score, there's a need to lower my score?"

The math teacher choked..

Chapter 353: Entry to the Promotion List

With his score, if he performed steadily, he would basically be the top scorer in the province. There was indeed no need for the famous schools to lower their scores to admit him.

He could choose whichever school he wanted to go to.

The math teacher was so focused on getting him to compete that he forgot about this.

However, when he thought of his goal, the math teacher still tried to persuade him, "Training in competitions is beneficial to you. It can train your thinking ability and allow you to come into contact with a completely ignorant...If your results are excellent, you can still be guaranteed entry and you don't even have to take the college entrance examination...'

Li Shunan leaned there lazily, his lips curved slightly, and his eyes were fixed on the girl who was slowly approaching.

However, the girl insisted on not knowing him in school and did not even look at him.

Li Shunan's lips curved even more.

The math teacher continued, "There are a few spots in the school right now.

With your results, if you get into the top three in the country, you can apply for this spot..."

Jiang Ling looked straight ahead, but she could hear what the math teacher said.

She ignored the burning gaze that had been staring at her and walked straight into the classroom through the back door. She sat down in her seat and placed the thermos flask in her hand into the hole in the table.

The sound of two people chatting came from behind.

Guo Cong sighed. "Who would have thought that the school bully of our school would be able to take on a city by himself?!"

"And it's not just a fight, but a beating in terms of results. This is really suffocating."

How embarrassing would it be if someone else asked?" Wang Kang chimed in. "How are your grades? I said I'm not even as good as the school bully in our school..."

Speaking of which, he felt a faint sadness.

"Our school bully is indeed different from the regular school bullies in other schools."

The two of them often chatted at the back. Occasionally, when they heard something interesting, Jiang Lingzhi would go over and chat with them.

Jiang Lingzhi's fingers paused for a moment. She turned around and started chatting with them naturally. "What are you guys talking about?" The two of them did not find it strange.

"The results of this monthly test," Guo Cong said naturally.

"In this math exam, only Big Boss got full marks in the entire grade. The math teacher came to look for him to participate in the competition."

Jiang Lingzhi nodded and thought of what the math teacher said just now. "Oh, and then?"

"I heard that if the students who participate in the competition have good grades, they can be guaranteed to enter a key university." Wang Kang said mysteriously.

"There are only a few spots in the school. I wonder if Big Boss will be one of them."

Jiang Ling nodded her head in understanding.

Guo Cong thought for a moment." If I'm guaranteed entry into the second year of high school, I can go to university a year earlier."

"Moreover, it saves the pressure of the college entrance examination. This is too blissful for the students."

' Exactly," Wang Kang said enviously." Every year, many people would fight to get these spots. It's very difficult to get them.""

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment.

Just now, he seemed to have heard the teacher say that he could apply for a recommendation.

This was a good opportunity.

Moreover, according to his temperament.

If he could save himself the trouble of taking the college entrance examination in advance, he might be very happy.

However, if he was really recommended, she would be the only one left..

Chapter 354: Consider It

Jiang Lingzhi was deep in thought, and she was still thinking about this question.

As the two boys talked, the topic changed again.

‘ Student Jiang, your results are very stable, ’ Guo Cong asked curiously. ” Which university do you plan to enter in the future? ” ”

Jiang Lingzhi came back to her senses. ” Me? I haven’t thought about it yet. ” ”

Hearing this answer, Guo Cong also expressed his understanding. ” But it’s still early in the second year of high school. There’s still a long time to consider. ”

‘ You don’t have to worry, Jiang. ’ Wang Kang chimed in. ” Your grades are so much higher than the first-tier. The school can pick anyone they want. ” ”

Jiang Lingzhi nodded absent-mindedly. She listened to them speak a little more, and she quickly turned her body around.

She sat in her seat and turned her head to look out the window. She could still see the young man leaning there with his eyes lowered. No one knew what he was thinking.

It was still raining outside, and the faint mist blurred his outline.

Thinking about how he might enter university early, Jiang Lingzhi felt inexplicably stifled.

Although it might not be the end yet.

However, she still felt stifled.

After a while, the bell rang. The math teacher let Li Shunan go and let him go back to the classroom.

The desk was covered by a shadow. Jiang Ling knew who that person was without looking up. She put down the book in her hand and stood up to give him a seat.

Li Shunan returned to his seat and sat down. He took off his school bag with one hand and stuffed it under the table.

The classroom was still very noisy, and the sounds of chatting were very loud.

Jiang Lingzhi thought about it and turned her face to look at him. "Why is the teacher looking for you?"

Li Shunan looked up and lazily put on his clothes. He still looked casual. "About the math competition."

Jiang Lingzhi had already heard it just now, so she was not very surprised. What she was most concerned about was whether he would apply for recommendation.

Jiang Lingzhi looked at him nervously. "So, do you want to participate?"

Li Shunan pondered for a moment and frowned slightly. He said in a low voice, "He asked me to think about it and give him a reply tomorrow."

Jiang Lingzhi's heart sank, and her feelings were a little complicated. She did not say anything else. "Oh."
""

Li Shunan looked up and noticed her expression. He bent down and moved closer to her. "You..."

He had just said one word when the teacher walked in from the front door.

Because of the teacher's arrival, the voices in the classroom also became softer.

Jiang Lingzhi instantly retracted her gaze.

After saying that, he flipped open his textbook and stared at the podium seriously.

Her back was straight, and she looked like a good student who wanted to focus on class and not be disturbed.

Li Shunan's long and narrow peach blossom eyes narrowed, and he sighed lightly. He leaned back against the wall and didn't say anything else.

The morning passed quickly.

As the saying goes, rumors spread from one to ten, ten to a hundred, and would distort any truth into heresy.

Not to mention in a place like school.

Rumors always spread quickly.

The math teacher had just talked to him in the morning. but by noon. the news that Li Shunan was going to be recommended had already spread.

He didn't know how things started.

In the beginning, he only said that.

The big boss was going to participate in a mathematics competition and might get a spot to enter a key university.

As a result, the rumors spread.

The big boss had already decided on the recommendation quota. He would be the first second-year student to be recommended by No.1 Middle School this year!

Big boss is awesome!

Chapter 355: The Campus Version of Mr. and Mrs. Smith

After having lunch in the cafeteria, Jiang Lingzhi returned to the classroom to rest.

Even Wen Yujing couldn't help but run over to her to ask if the matter was true. "Ling Ling, I heard that your deskmate is going to be recommended. Is that true?"

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment, and she was a little stunned. "How did you know?"

She was completely shocked. How did Wen Yujing know about this?

It clearly happened in the morning.

How long had it been?

In Wen Yujing's eyes, her reaction was simply a tacit agreement.

"So, is it true?" Wen Yujing asked excitedly. Is the big boss really going to be recommended?"

Jiang Lingzhi realized that her reaction had caused her to misunderstand, and she explained, "No, it hasn't been decided yet. The teacher wants him to participate in the math competition. If he can get into the top three in the country, he can apply for a recommendation."

Wen Yujing felt that there was no difference. "Isn't that about the same? Who would give up such a good opportunity?"

That was true.

Who would give up such a good opportunity?

Jiang Lingzhi lowered her head and fell silent.

After a while, she felt strange again. "However, how did you know about this?"

"It was spreading everywhere during lunch just now. Some people in the class group chat were also talking about it."

They were probably talking outside the corridor today and someone had overheard them when they passed by.

Wen Yujing: "The competition for the recommendation spot is very intense. Not only do you have to have good academic results, but you also have to have a specialty. I heard that the class monitor also wants to apply for the recommendation spot."

"Class monitor?" Jiang Lingzhi asked.

Wen Yujing explained, "It's He Dixian. I heard that he's going to participate in the Mathematics competition too. ""

Jiang Lingzhi nodded.

Wen Yujing was still calmly analyzing, ""But if it's them, then I think it's more likely to be the big boss. 730 points is really terrifying."

'Ana tne mg DOSS IS so Stame."

In the past few monthly tests, he had either come in first or second.

When Wen Yujing said this, she felt that it was very interesting. "But are the two of you on the pole? Are you hovering between the first and second place of the grade and playing on the swing?" Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Jiang Lingzhi chuckled in her heart.

They didn't know the real situation. In fact, the big shots were more stable.

If it wasn't for the fact that he had deliberately made mistakes the first two times, he would probably have gotten first place three times already.

"The two of you sitting at the same table didn't give the special class a chance at all. This slap in the face has already gone into the mud."

Wen Yujing excitedly explained to her, "Anyway, the two of you are quite famous in the entire grade now. Everyone has given you the nickname of the campus version of Mr. and Mrs. Smith."

When she heard this, Jiang Ling almost choked on her saliva. "What kind of nickname is this?"

"I think it's quite appropriate. Not only are they deskmates, but they're also so awesome and especially compatible!"

Wen Yujing smiled like an aunt.

Just as she was in the middle of her excitement, a person walked in from the back door of the classroom.

He had a tall and straight figure, an aura that kept people away, and a cold aura. The moment he walked in, he felt the air become colder.

Who else could it be but a big shot?

Wen Yujing's body trembled." I suddenly remembered. I have to go back to the classroom to do my homework." Let's chat on WeChat tonight."

After saying that, he stood up from his seat and ran out of the front door without stopping for a moment.

She had left too suddenly.

Jiang Lingzhi was puzzled.

She turned around and saw her deskmate standing beside her desk with a cup of milk tea in her hand..

Chapter 356: Warm Hands

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment before she reacted. She stood up and made way for him.

Because of the rain, the students had nowhere to go. Some of the students who lived on campus could go back to their dormitories for lunch breaks, while the day students could only take a nap in the classroom.

There were more people in the classroom than usual. After eating in the cafeteria, they couldn't play outside. Most of them returned to the classroom.

At this moment, there were people sitting in their seats and chatting, and there were also people talking in the corridor outside.

Li Shunan raised his hand and placed the milk tea on her table. He returned to his seat and sat down.

It was still raining outside. He was wearing a dark coat, and the cold air outside was around him. When he passed by, he felt a chill.

The back door of the classroom was ajar, and cold wind blew in.

Jiang Lingzhi felt a little cold. She walked over to close the door before returning to her seat.

When she turned her face, she noticed that the outer side of Li Shunan's arm was slightly wet from the rain.

Jiang Lingzhi took out a pack of tissues from her pocket and took one out to wipe him. "Didn't you take an umbrella when you went out just now?" Li Shunan glanced at her and didn't care. His tone was as casual as ever. "I did."

The girl lowered her eyes and used her fair fingers to wipe the water on his sleeve with a tissue.

Li Shunan's lips curled up. He leaned in front of her and said in a low voice, "And here, wipe it."

Jiang Ling did not expect him to suddenly come closer. When she raised her head, her forehead almost touched his jawline.

She retreated a little.

She realized that he was talking about the hair in front of her forehead. Perhaps it was because the rain was too heavy and she was careless. The rain drifted in along the umbrella eaves, and her black hair was wet.

Jiang Lingzhi stared at him for a while before she took out a clean tissue and stuffed it into his hand. She regained her expressionless face and said, "Wipe it yourself."

Li Shunan looked up and found it funny. "Little girl, why are you so heartless?"

Jiang Lingzhi stretched out a finger and poked his chest. She pushed him away and snorted softly. "He is so heartless."

She retracted her gaze, put the tissue into the hole in the table, and picked up the cup of milk tea on the table.

The milk tea was still warm, and her hands were a little cold. She could hold it to warm her hands.

However, the next second, the milk tea in her hand was taken away.

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment as she looked at her empty palm.

Li Shunan held the cup of milk tea in his hand and said casually, "Such a heartless girl probably doesn't like milk tea."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

When it came to heartlessness, no one could compare to him.

He had just tied himself up, and he actually wanted to leave her alone.

Jiang Lingzhi was a little angry. "Didn't you buy it for me?"

"Hmm?"

Jiang Lingzhi reminded him, "You don't like milk tea." "

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows and teased her. "I don't like it, but it's okay to try it occasionally. It's just that my hands are a little cold, so I can use it to warm them up."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Alright, you win.

Jiang Lingzhi retracted her gaze and took out an exercise book from the hole in her desk. She planned to turn her grief and indignation into strength to do her homework.

Li Shunan lowered his chin and smiled inexplicably. He opened the milk tea with a straw and handed it to her again. "Why don't we trade?"

Jiang Lingzhi's fingers that were holding the pen paused. She turned her face slightly and glanced at him. "What?"

Li Shunan bent down and suggested in a good temper, "Help me warm my hands. I'll treat you to milk tea."

Chapter 357: I'll Be Your Pillow

Jiang Lingzhi was stunned for a moment before she hesitated. "But, my hands are also cold."

"Is that so?" Li Shunan raised his eyebrows and sat up straight. He raised his hand and took the pen out of her hand. He placed it on the table, then held her small hand in his palm and hid it under the table. "Then I'll warm it up for you."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

The two of them secretly held hands in the classroom.

It was too immoral.

Jiang Lingzhi felt a little ashamed for some reason.

Even though no one else in the classroom was looking in their direction, she still felt a little uncomfortable. She kept feeling like someone would see her.

Perhaps it was because he had just come in from outside, but his hands were indeed a little cold.

Jiang Lingzhi held his hand for a while, but the temperature did not change at all. After that, she did not care about anything else. She simply grabbed his hand and placed it into her school uniform pocket.

After doing this, she realized that something was wrong. She turned her face and met his eyes.

Jiang Lingzhi explained, "Put it in your pocket to keep it warm.

Li Shunan smiled and didn't say anything else. He picked up the milk tea with his other hand and brought it to her lips." "Drink it."

Jiang Lingzhi used her empty hand to take the milk tea. She leaned back in her chair and slowly drank it.

Their hands were intertwined and hidden in her large school uniform pocket.

Li Shunan leaned against the table, a thoughtful look on his face." "I just told the math teacher that I agree to participate in the math competition."

Jiang Lingzhi was obviously stunned for a moment, and then she took a sip of milk tea unhappily.

"Oh."

This was a good thing. Why did she have to act so unhappy?

Actually, she could understand. Li Shunan had already learned the contents of the class. Staying in the classroom was a waste of life.

Going to the competition would definitely be beneficial to him.

But for some reason, she felt even more stifled.

Li Shunan rested one hand on the table and stared at her side profile without blinking.

Jiang Lingzhi noticed his gaze, turned her head, and met his eyes. "Why are you looking at me?"

Li Shunan stared at her with his peach blossom eyes, paying attention to her expression. He said slowly, "Look at my future girlfriend. Why are you so unhappy?"

Jiang Lingzhi's fingertips paused slightly.

Was she that obvious?

She was thinking about whether she should participate in a competition. However, she had a piano competition after the New Year, so she really didn't have much time.

Sigh, it was really troublesome.

Jiang Lingzhi chewed on the pearl and mumbled, "No, I'm just a little sleepy."

Li Shunan believed him."

Jiang Lingzhi hugged her milk tea and did not say a word.

Li Shunan opened his palm and placed it on her desk. "Come here."

Jiang Lingzhi was a little confused. She stared at his palm for a while.””What are you doing?”

“It’s a cushion,” Li Shunan said matter-of-factly.”It’ll be your pillow.”” Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

This was the first time Jiang Lingzhi had seen such a strange pillow.

After staring at it for a while, she decided to give it a try.

Jiang Lingzhi placed the milk tea on the table and bent down. Her side profile was pressed against his palm, and she stared straight at him.

She wanted to experience if the pillow was good.

One of them was sitting while the other was lying on his stomach.

Their gazes intersected.

Li Shunan leaned lazily against the wall behind him.. His Adam’s apple bobbed slowly, and he said lazily,””Don’t look at me”

Chapter 358: The Precious Student Li

Jiang Lingzhi pursed her lips.” You are really the precious Student Li. Can’t you even take a look?””

“Not really...” Li Shunan raised his eyebrows slightly and approached her. He lowered his voice and said in a serious tone,””I want to kiss you when you look at me like that.”

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

This person was here again!

Jiang Ling knew that she didn't want to talk to him anymore. The tip of her ears inexplicably became hot. She closed her eyes and felt a little unsafe. In order to prevent him from ambushing her, she turned her face away.

Li Shunan couldn't help but laugh.

Now, he could only see the back of the girl's head.

But his palm was pressed against her face.

The girl's face looked small and delicate, but in fact, there was flesh on her cheeks. They were soft and her skin was delicate and smooth.

It felt pretty good.

Jiang Ling knew that she was not really asleep. She leaned against his palm and closed her eyes for a while. Soon, she let go of his hand and sat up straight.

The students of Class 8 were already used to this scene.

The two of them were close and familiar with each other, and they often did some small tricks as if no one was around.

Of course, the students chose not to see.

In fact, the class group chat had already exploded.

Melon Eater No. 1: [I was really caught off guard. I ate another mouthful of dog food today.]

Some students who were not in class asked, [What's wrong?]

The onlookers then performed a live broadcast for the students.[Just now, our school belle didn't have a pillow, so the big boss selflessly offered his palm! He placed his hand on the table and used it as a pillow for her!]

[Wow.]

[Big Boss even braved the rain to buy milk tea for the school belle. What kind of beautiful love is this?!

[Tsk.]

[What did I do wrong? I just had nowhere to go on a rainy day. Why are you treating me like this?]

[I'm also a lemon. Today is another day to envy someone else's beautiful love.]

[If this isn't a relationship, I'll livestream eating sh * t. What do you think?]

The students said,"There's no need."

Jiang Lingzhi did not know anything about all of this, and she still felt that she had hidden it really well.

No one noticed.

Not a single one of them has been taken.

There were still ten minutes before class started.

Guo Cong walked into the classroom from the back door and reminded the big boss, “Student Li, the Mathematics teacher is looking for you.”

After this period of time, he was no longer so afraid of the big shots.

Although there were rumors about how cruel the big boss was, from what they saw, the big boss was still very gentle to his deskmate.

He didn't look as ruthless as the rumors said.

After they got familiar with each other, they could talk a little on normal days.

The math teacher was probably looking for him about the math competition.

Jiang Lingzhi stood up and made way for him to leave.

Li Shunan stared at her for a while and smiled. “So obedient?”

Jiang Lingzhi rolled her eyes in her heart.

Li Shunan stood up, raised his hand, and gently rubbed her head. He bent down and whispered in her ear, “Wait for me.”

With that, he stuffed his hands into his pockets and walked out of the classroom.

Jiang Lingzhi then returned to her seat and sat down. She took out her practice questions and continued to do her homework.

He didn't come back until class started.

After the first class in the afternoon, Li Shunan returned to the classroom during the break with a stack of materials in his hand.

He did not follow the school's training team and chose the content of the self-study competition.

Just now, the math teacher had asked him to do a few questions for the competition..

Chapter 359: A Good Seed

After finishing the questions, the math teacher felt that he had picked up a treasure.

Holding his test paper, she slammed the table and said excitedly, "This is a good seedling!"

His words shocked the other teachers in the office.

Then, the math teacher gave him a pile of materials.

He told him to prepare well so that he could sign up for the preliminaries after the new year.

Probably because he had something to do, Big Boss Li didn't sleep during class.

He was studying the competition content with the pile of materials. When Jiang Lingzhi occasionally turned her head, she could see him writing the questions seriously.

The young man held a pen between his well-defined fingers. He lowered his eyes and stared at the test paper with great concentration.

She finally found a trace of a top student in him.

Before this, she always felt that he was playing around. He wrote the test papers as if he was drawing, very nonchalant.

It was probably because the questions were too simple. It wasn't challenging at all for Brainiac.

Jiang Lingzhi hated him.

How could this person be so annoying?

Every time during the monthly exam, the two of them would be separated by an aisle.

When Jiang Lingzhi was writing halfway, she would occasionally look at him.

He realized that this person was extremely fast and accurate.

Every time there was still a long time before class ended, he would have already finished the test paper. Then, he would lie on the table and sleep in boredom.

He didn't even check.

It was really infuriating to compare people.

The winter in South City came silently.

Jiang Lingzhi woke up at six in the morning, and the sky outside was still gloomy.

The heater in the house was on, but she didn't feel cold.

Jiang Lingzhi lifted the blanket and got up from the bed. She pulled on her slippers and ran to the window to pull open the curtains. She looked outside.

Through the street lamps, he could feel the cold temperature outside and the cold wind blowing.

Jiang Lingzhi was a little conflicted. She did not know if she should wear another sweater. After thinking about it, she opened the door to the balcony. She was not afraid of death and wanted to feel the temperature outside.

In the end, she went out and stayed for less than a second before she stiffened and shrank back.

It was so cold that his teeth were chattering.

It was too cold.

So Jiang Lingzhi very consciously put on long johns and a sweater inside.

Before she left the house, Jiang Lingzhi was wearing a thick winter school uniform. She carried her school bag and changed her shoes at the entrance.

Lu Yuping was still in her pajamas and had a coat over her shoulders. She took a pair of gloves and a scarf and put them on her, then reminded her carefully, "Be careful of the slippery roads in winter. The sky is so dark. Don't fall on the road."

Jiang Lingzhi nodded, and she buried her small face into her scarf. "Yes."

Lu Yuping helped her wrap the scarf around her neck twice and tied it carefully. "The weather is so cold, and it's not easy to walk on the road. Are you sure you don't need Daddy to send you?"

Jiang Lingzhi said softly, "No need. Let Daddy sleep a little longer."

After all, it was difficult to get up in such cold weather.

When he came out of the house, the sky was just beginning to brighten, and the light was very faint.

There were only a few people on the road. The cold wind was like an ice knife that blew across her face. Jiang Lingzhi buried her entire face into her scarf, revealing only a pair of dark eyes.

Passing through the Laocheng District, she bought freshly baked meat buns and a bag of hot soy milk from a roadside vendor.

It was a little inconvenient to eat breakfast with gloves on, so she put them in her pocket and prepared to take them to school.

They passed by a large shopping mall.

There was a huge Christmas tree in the open space in front of the mall. It should have been assembled a few days ago. Today, the staff of the mall were decorating it with snowflakes and colorful lights..

Chapter 360: Christmas

Jiang Lingzhi raised her head and looked at the date on the LED screen. She then realized that it was Christmas tomorrow.

The school gate was currently crowded.

They were all wearing winter school uniforms and were wrapped up so tightly that they could not even see each other's faces clearly.

When Jiang Lingzhi came to the classroom, there were already quite a few people in the classroom.

She walked to her table and found a few apples in gift boxes on the table. There were about ten of them.

There were six or seven of them on the table.

Some of the others had one or two, while others didn't.

Jiang Lingzhi felt that it was a little strange. She took off her school bag and stuffed it into the hole on the table. She took off her scarf and folded it before putting it into her school bag. She looked behind her and said, "Guo Cong, who sent these apples? Does everyone have one?"

Guo Cong was eating a sesame seed cake in his hand. When he heard this, he felt a blow. "Everyone has one. How is that possible?"

Jiang Lingzhi turned her head. "Ah?"

"Wang Kang and I don't have one," Guo Cong said sadly. "I guess only good-looking people are qualified to celebrate Christmas. People who like you gave it to us. We had it when I came."

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Guo Cong took a bite of the sesame seed cake and glanced at the apple on the boss 'table. "Boss, you're still being conservative. I reckon the girls won't dare to give it to you. Otherwise, there shouldn't be enough space on the table."

Jiang Lingzhi picked up one of the gift boxes and glanced at it. There was no name written on it, so how would she know who gave it to her?

How should she return it?

Jiang Lingzhi sighed and temporarily put the apple into the hole on the table. She took out her English book and started to read the words.

Li Shunan came to school after the morning reading class.

He walked to the desk and his gaze fell on the paper boxes on the table. He said lazily, "What the hell is that?"

Jiang Lingzhi stood up and gave up her seat for him. "Apples."

Li Shunan raised his eyebrows and looked down at her. "You gave it to me?" Jiang Lingzhi stared at him with a strange expression. "What dream did you have?"

Li Shunan chuckled. He didn't care. He looked away and walked straight in.

After he sat down, he took off his school bag as usual and was about to stuff it into the hole in the table when he encountered an obstacle.

Sensing his actions, Jiang Lingzhi turned her face and asked, "What's wrong?"

Li Shunan looked up with a strange expression and put his hand into the hole on the table.

Then, he took out an apple wrapped in a gift box.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

After taking one out, he reached his hand in again and took out another gift box.

After repeating this several times, he took seven or eight of them. There was really a small pile of them on the table. Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Guo Cong was speechless.

He watched as the boss magically took out a pile of apples.

Alright then.

As expected, big shots had their own ways.

The double identity of a school bully and a top student indeed could not stop the enthusiasm of the little girls.

It was already the end of December, and the final exams were in a month.

During this period of time, Jiang Lingzhi had been seriously revising her homework.

Li Shunan was also focusing on the content of the Mathematics competition.

They felt that studying had occupied their entire lives.

Jiang Lingzhi had never dared to ask him if he would really apply for a recommendation if he were to get into the top three in the country in this competition.

He did not ask, as if he was an ostrich.

It felt like there was still a long time left. It was next semester anyway..
