

Little Girl 37

Chapter 37: What Can You Do to Me

Li Shunan didn't really want her money.

It was just that the girl's cold-shoulder attitude towards him just now, which was completely different from her attitude in the past few days, made him somewhat dissatisfied.

That was why he deliberately teased her.

Unexpectedly, when the cute little kitten got angry, it would also scratch people.

Jiang Lingzhi poked her slender and white finger at his chest. She looked up slightly and said word by word, "I won't pay you back the money, what- canyou- do- to- me."

Aren't you just being shameless?

Who couldn't do that?

Li Shunan lowered his head and glanced at the girl's finger, then raised his eyebrows. "Then, I can't do anything to you."

Jiang Lingzhi felt satisfied. She withdrew her finger, then turned around and continued walking up the stairs.

She seemed to carry the air of a queen as she turned around.

But she was actually panicking inside.

She had just poked the boss. Would she get beaten up?

Ahhh, it's so scary!

When they arrived at the Academic Affairs Office, Li Shunan went inside directly to collect the books.

Jiang Lingzhi thought about it and decided to wait for him at the door for a while.

She realized that her behavior just now was a little inappropriate. Maybe she should try to make up for it later.

When the boy came out, he was holding a huge stack of books in his arms. He raised his eyelids a little when he saw her, as if he was surprised that she hadn't left yet.

Jiang Lingzhi rushed over and acted extremely friendly. "Classmate Li, do you need my help?"

She appeared so obedient, the kind that made anyone who saw her can't help but want to rub her head.

But he didn't forget her excellent performance just now, her combat power was so strong, which really didn't match her image at all.

He should have realized it sooner. If she was as obedient as she seemed, she would not be bold enough to go home with a male stranger.

Although Li Shunan was carrying such a thick stack of books, he still appeared very at ease. He looked up at her, and his eyes were full of interest. "Sure."

He glanced down at the book in his arms, thought for a moment, and said plainly, "Just the top one."

His tone was still as lazy as ever. It seemed like he was not angry at all.

Jiang Lingzhi breathed a sigh of relief. She raised her hand and reached halfway through the stack of books. But before she could take the books away, she was interrupted by the boy.

“Not there...”

Because she was trying to carry some books for him, Jiang Lingzhi was standing just in front of him. Since she was so close to him, she could only look up at him when he interrupted her.

Her almond-shaped eyes were very clean, and the end of her eyes curved slightly upward, with a hint of unintentional seductiveness.

Li Shunan also looked down at her.

When the girl approached, he could vaguely smell from her hair the scent of fruit candy mixed with sweet milk.

Tsk, this girl is... really too sweet.

Li Shunan lowered his eyes and looked away calmly, then said plainly,

“Higher.”

Jiang Lingzhi moved her fingertips higher and hovered at one-third of the stack.

She asked him with her eyes, Here? Li Shunan replied lazily, “Even higher.”

Jiang Lingzhi was tongue-tied.

Even higher? There were already very few books left, why would he need her help then?

When her fingertips reached the topmost book, Li Shunan nodded slowly.

“That’s it.”

Jiang Lingzhi was flabbergasted.

Just one book? What kind of help was she offering?

Useless help?

Jiang Lingzhi took the book, and expressionlessly, she started to head downstairs.

He must be looking down on her!

That was why he deliberately asked her to take only one book, to humiliate her!

Ignoring him, Jiang Lingzhi walked alone at the front; she didn’t want to care about that person any longer.

But there were indeed some kind of gaps between people.

Such as the gap between the lengths of legs.

Whatever distance Jiang Lingzhi covered by taking two steps, that person could effortlessly follow with one step.

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless..
