

Little Girl 41

Chapter 41: Borrow A Pen, I Didn't Bring It

His voice wasn't loud, and it was just enough to be heard from all directions. It was very intimidating.

Jiang Lingzhi's body stiffened, and she did not make a sound.

The boy sitting next to her was so scared that his face turned pale. He quickly apologized, "I'm sorry. I won't do it next time!"

"You, you sleep well!"

Jiang Lingzhi was speechless.

Jiang Lingzhi did not have any expressions. She looked straight at the blackboard and took notes seriously.

Suddenly, she felt someone touch her back.

Her fingers paused and the tip of her pen tapped on the notebook.

After waiting for a while, a faint voice came from behind. "Tsk, you don't want to talk to me anymore?"

Jiang Lingzhi held the pen in her hand tightly, and her eyelashes trembled. She turned her face slightly and asked, "What are you doing?"

The girl turned her body slightly, wanting to hear him speak. From this angle, he could see her side profile, the tip of her nose, and her long eyelashes trembling slightly.

His ears also leaned over.

Li Shunan's eyes moved. He leaned forward slightly and whispered in her ear, "Borrow a pen. I didn't bring it."

When he spoke, he was a little close to her, as if he was whispering. His low magnetic voice was close to her ear.

Jiang Lingzhi felt that her ears were a little numb. She leaned forward and reached into her bag to find a pen. She placed it on his desk and turned around.

Li Shunan's lips curled up. He picked up the pen and lazily signed his name on the first page of each book.

After he finished writing, he was not in a hurry to return the pen to her. Instead, he twirled it between his fingers.

This was the last class in the morning.

The bell rang.

The students walked out one after another. If they were late, there would be nothing to eat in the school cafeteria, and they would have to queue for a long time.

Of course, most of the students chose to have lunch at the gourmet alley outside the school.

It was cheaper there, and there were many choices. It was much better than the school cafeteria.

But Jiang Lingzhi always ate lunch in the school cafeteria.

After class, Wen Yujing ran to her desk and said, "Lingling, let's go eat." Wen Yujing looked behind her and subconsciously lowered her voice.

Jiang Lingzhi raised her head to look at her. Her expression was still calm. "I don't want to go, I don't want to go, I want to eat." At this moment, they were filled with regret.

Her poor meal card had just been used to pay off the debt!

She could have given it to him after she had used it, but it was her fault for being impulsive!

"Ah, why?" Wen Yujing frowned.

Jiang Lingzhi choked for a moment, and she was too embarrassed to tell her the truth. "Nothing. I just don't have an appetite and don't want to eat."

Anyway, it didn't matter if he didn't eat a meal.

It was just the right time to lose weight!

Someone was already calling out to her, so Wen Yujing didn't think too much about it and said, "Alright, I'll be leaving first."

With that, she left the classroom with her new deskmate. Most of the people in the classroom quickly left.

Jiang Ling knew that she did not have to go to lunch, so she stayed in the classroom to do her exercises.

A few people walked over from the door of Class 7's classroom. They stuck their heads out and looked at the door for a while before shouting, "Brother Nan, let's go eat."

It was Zhao Zifu and his lackeys.

Jiang Lingzhi looked up and realized that the person sitting behind her had not left yet.

She didn't turn back to look at him. She held a pen in her hand and continued to do her exercises.

Li Shunan leaned back in his chair lazily and stared at the girl's back seriously. When he came back to his senses, he realized that class had ended.

He looked up and his fingers in his pocket touched the smooth card.

Zhao Zifu, who was at the door, started shouting again, "What are you doing, Brother Chennan? Are you hiding inside and doing bad things? Why are you so reluctant?"
