

Little Sweet 1021

Chapter 1021: Tricked by the great devil

What Ye Wanwan and Han Xianyu didn't know yet was that they were photographed by fans...

After parting ways, they went back to their respective cars.

As soon as Han Xianyu returned, Fei Yang anxiously asked, "Xianyu, you're back! What did you talk about? Are you alright, are you alright?"

Han Xianyu pinched his brows. "I'm fine."

I'm probably... fine, right...

"Really? Then what's with your expression? You don't look so calm!" Fei Yang carefully observed Han Xianyu's expression.

Han Xianyu looked at Fei Yang and was about to speak but ended up not saying anything.

Part of it was because his emotions were still in turmoil, so he didn't have the energy to explain everything to Fei Yang.

Another part of it was that as soon as he realized he was the first one, as well as the only one, to know about Ye Bai's identity besides Ye Mufan, he didn't want to tell other people for some reason...

Han Xianyu glanced in the direction of Ye Wanwan's car before saying, "I'm fine. Let's go!"

On the other side, Ye Wanwan had returned to her car as well.

Well, she was five minutes late and the temperature inside the car was already nearly frozen at -5°C.

As soon as Xu Yi saw Ye Wanwan, he breathed a sigh of relief. "Cough, Miss Wanwan, you're back. Can we leave now?"

When the incident happened earlier, although Xu Yi didn't interfere, he was nearby and saw the whole thing.

In truth, he sympathized with Han Xianyu quite a bit...

He reckoned Han Xianyu was rather shocked...

"Yeah yeah, we can, we can! Let's go!" Ye Wanwan spoke up.

Si Yehan glanced at her. "Finished talking?"

"Finished talking! We finished! I explained everything! There won't be any problems for sure!" Ye Wanwan hurriedly said.

When Si Yehan heard Ye Wanwan's guarantee "There won't be any problems for sure," it didn't look like he believed it at all.

Si Yehan casually asked, "What did you talk about?"

Ye Wanwan: "Uh..."

"What? Is it something you can't tell me?" Si Yehan narrowed his eyes.

Ye Wanwan promptly started coughing. "Cough cough cough No, of course I can!"

Her conversations were very open and honorable, alright!

To prove her innocence, Ye Wanwan quickly disclosed the truth. "I merely explained my gender to Han Xianyu! He didn't believe it at first, so he asked me questions, like what I said to him the first time we met..."

Si Yehan propped his head to the side and calmly asked, "Oh, what did you say?"

"You know what happened the day I went. Global held a meeting, so I said I had a way to prove his innocence in seven days and negotiated with the senior management of Global for a while. When I left afterward and was in the lobby, he caught up and asked why I was helping him. I replied that my friend was his fan and really liked him, me..."?... Me as well.

Ye Wanwan suddenly broke off and discovered something amiss...

*F*ck...!!!*

If I finished my sentence, I would've been screwed! I was actually tricked by the great devil without knowing!

Currently, Si Yehan was still watching her with his dark-as-the-night eyes, silently waiting for her to finish her sentence...

However, how could she say it?!

Her pacifying career appeared to have encountered a great danger...

"I..." Ye Wanwan harshly swallowed before continuing, "I absolutely couldn't stand by and do nothing for the sake of fairness and justice, responsibility and morality..."

Si Yehan: "..."

Chapter 1022: Need to be more careful

Ye Wanwan's twist of words... was an absolute brush with death!

Thankfully, she managed to bluff her way out, and Si Yehan didn't probe further and accepted her performance...

Truly too perilous!

Although Si Yehan had low EQ, he had high IQ, so she was nearly tricked.

Ye Wanwan secretly reminded herself to be more careful the next time she spoke!

Imperial City's Sandalwood Hotel.

Sandalwood Hotel was a six-star luxurious hotel which had a vintage Chinese style located in the east end of Parkson Street. It was a commonly frequented location for banquet guests from prestigious and affluent families, as well as higher-up government officials.

In order to hold a welcoming reception for Mu Suifeng, the Si family—as the host—arranged a private, small-scale banquet.

Tonight, Qin Ruoxi was wearing a long, light purple limited edition couture gown from Grace and wore her hair in an updo, looking graceful and elegant. She was currently skillfully and easily conversing with the guests inside the banquet hall.

Feng Qinyu, wearing a little cute and charming lace gown, walked toward Qin Ruoxi and affectionately grabbed Qin Ruoxi's hand. "Sister Ruoxi, you're so pretty tonight!"

Qin Ruoxi smiled faintly. "Didn't you say you weren't coming tonight?"

Feng Qinyu harrumphed. "I originally wasn't going to come since I didn't want to see that vixen's face. How could that lowly woman attend this banquet with the patriarch instead of you?! Allowing a woman like her to attend with the patriarch and receive Mr. Mu is too rude! I have no idea what the patriarch was thinking!"

"Oh, you..."

"Enough, enough, I know you're going to scold me for speaking out of turn again, but I really can't stand her act! Only someone as mild-tempered as you would be able to tolerate her until now, Sister Ruoxi!"

As Feng Qinyu said that, a commotion was heard from the entrance of the banquet hall as Si Yehan and Ye Wanwan entered.

Ye Wanwan was wearing a gorgeous gown, but her gown didn't detract from her at all and was nothing but a prop.

The moment she entered, it was as though she had stolen all the stars from the sky. Standing next to Si Yehan didn't diminish her brilliance in the slightest.

Ye Wanwan was dressed delicately and beautifully today. Standing next to Si Yehan, she looked cute and helpless. She didn't move a centimeter away from him; she was extremely well-behaved.

Whispers erupted in the banquet hall.

"Oh my god! The patriarch actually showed up with a female companion today!"

"And that female companion isn't Miss Qin... My, it looks like Miss Ye is favored since the patriarch was willing to bring her to attend even these events!"

"It's no wonder, really. That sweet and dainty appearance—no man could withstand it! A little pillow talk and Miss Qin wouldn't compare no matter what she did!"

"It proves that men still prefer more delicate women..."

A little later, Mu Suifeng arrived.

Si Yehan walked to the entrance to receive him with Ye Wanwan in tow. "Mr. Mu."

Mu Suifeng looked about 40-50 years old. He was wearing a Tang suit and had a scholarly and friendly appearance. "Chairman Si, sorry, sorry, I'm late!"

As Mu Suifeng said that, his gaze landed on the girl next to Si Yehan. "Chairman Si, this is...?"

"My girlfriend, Ye Wanwan," Si Yehan introduced her.

"Hello, Mr. Mu!" Ye Wanwan greeted him as she stood next to Si Yehan docilely.

"Hello, Miss Ye. You two are a handsome couple indeed!" Mu Suifeng teased them. "No wonder Chairman Si was in such a hurry to come back when he was in Country M!"

"Please excuse us for that."

"Haha, for you young people, one day apart seems like three years! I understand, I understand!"

...

Chapter 1023: The one who stole your man

When Feng Qinyu saw Ye Wanwan standing next to Si Yehan like the mistress of the Si family, she angrily stomped her feet. "Sister Ruoxi, look at how cocky she is! Mr. Mu is merely making polite conversation with her out of consideration for the patriarch, but who does she think she is!"

Qin Ruoxi looked at the girl next to Si Yehan. The spot that should belong to her. Her eyes glinted...

"Ruoxi!" Suddenly, a girl's voice came from behind Qin Ruoxi.

"Xuezhen, why are you here?" Qin Ruoxi passionately asked when she saw the newcomer.

In contrast to the extravagant gowns worn by all the female guests, Sun Xuezhen was unconventionally wearing a clean outfit of black workout clothes.

However, no one inside the banquet hall expressed any criticism about it.

The Sun family was a famous martial-arts patrician family of China. China emphasized the promotion of traditional martial arts, and the Sun family made several appearances on television. Sun Xuezhen's elder brothers all held important positions in the military while Sun Xuezhen also wasn't inferior to men and had superb martial arts skills. She went everywhere in workout clothes.

The Sun family and the Qin family were longtime family friends and were quite close, so Qin Ruoxi and Sun Xuezhen's relationship was also quite amiable.

"I was having dinner upstairs and remembered you were here, so I came to say hello to you!" Sun Xuezhen said and glanced at the girl next to Si Yehan. "I thought it was some outstanding woman. She's the one who stole your man?"

As soon as Feng Qinyu saw Sun Xuezheng, she started complaining, "Sister Xuezheng, it's that fox vixen! She's taking advantage of her beauty and is shamelessly seducing our patriarch! She even delusionally wants to be the mistress of the Si family! Allowing a woman like her to be the patriarch's female companion and receive Mr. Mu is simply too disrespectful! I have no idea what our patriarch was thinking!"

Sun Xuezheng assessed Ye Wanwan with a face full of disappointment. "Heh, I was anticipating meeting Miss Ye quite a bit before coming here and wanted to know who on earth receive favor from Si Yehan. I didn't expect someone like her..."

"A princess raised in a greenhouse can be found by the dozen outside. I truly can't see what's so special about her that made Ninth Brother give up a marriage alliance with the Qin family."

Feng Qinyu scoffed. "Of course she's special! She's especially shameless and especially slutty! No matter what, the patriarch is nothing but a man! How could he escape her trap! However, Sister Ruoxi has been wronged and has to suffer humiliation from this trash!"

Sun Xuezheng smiled and said, "Oh, you. You're still too easy to anger. Look at your Sister Ruoxi and how little she cares about it. However, a woman like Miss Ye does qualify to be a toy for amusement. But that's all she'll be. She's still novel to Si Yehan, so he's naturally indulging her like a treasure. After the novelty wears off, who will remember her?"

Feng Qinyu answered, "Sister Xuezheng, you're right! Blah, she wants to be our matriarch? How could she qualify?!"

"Alright, enough about this. There are no problems with the matter I discussed with you earlier, right?" Qin Ruoxi asked Sun Xuezheng to confirm.

Sun Xuezheng said, "Don't worry, it's fine. As soon as we get confirmation from you, my father will hold a martial arts conference immediately! Father just happens to want to befriend Mr. Mu too, so if it succeeds, we'll have to thank you instead!"

Qin Ruoxi replied, "What's there to be polite about with me? I'll let you know when I have news."

"Alright then, I'll take my leave now!"

"Okay!"

Chapter 1024: I heard

After Sun Xuezheng left, Qin Ruoxi walked over to greet Mu Suifeng. "Mr. Mu!"

"Miss Qin, long time no see!" When Mu Suifeng saw Qin Ruoxi, his attitude was obviously a lot more familiar and different from the impersonal cordiality he used for Ye Wanwan.

"Did you enjoy the tea I brought you last time? I got some more a while ago; let me send you some!"

"Miss Qin, you're too polite! I feel sorry for mooching tea from you all the time!"

Mu Suifeng appeared somewhat disinterested as he said, “No need to trouble you. There isn’t really any place I’d like to go.”

Upon hearing this, Qin Ruoxi suggested, “The national martial-arts friendly competition will be held in Imperial City in a few days. Would Mr. Mu be interested?”

Although Mu Suifeng was a businessman, he didn’t like antiques, calligraphy or paintings. However, he was solely interested in martial arts, so in order to adapt to his taste, Qin Ruoxi gave him her prepared excuse.

Mu Suifeng sighed and said. “I originally wanted to go, but this competition gets worse each year. Instead of being called a wrestling match, it should be called a performance match instead, with all its superficial displays! I really don’t have any interest in watching it!”

Qin Ruoxi thought about it and expressed her understanding. “A competition at that level wouldn’t meet your standards indeed, Mr. Mu.”

Thankfully, she had a plan B.

Hence, Qin Ruoxi continued to say, “Since Mr. Mu isn’t interested in that kind of performance match, what about a martial arts conference?”

Mu Suifeng probed, “Martial arts conference?”

“That’s right. Mr. Mu, do you know Mr. Sun Lizhong?” Qin Ruoxi asked.

Mu Suifeng promptly replied, “The current head of the famous martial-arts patrician family of China, the Sun family? Of course I know him! What, do you know him?”

Qin Ruoxi said, “Uncle Sun is a long time friend of my family, so I know him. Uncle Sun just invited a Muay Thai expert from overseas to stay with our family. Uncle Sun has some plans to hold a martial arts conference and invite some experts from China to compare notes with that Muay Thai expert!”

Upon hearing this, Mu Suifeng’s eyes glinted. “Who is this Muay Thai expert you speak of?”

Upon hearing this, even Ye Wanwan raised her brows and she looked at Qin Ruoxi with interest.

“Wolf King Senny?” Ye Wanwan reflexively asked.

Qin Ruoxi nodded and said, “That’s right, that’s him. You’ve also heard of him, Miss Ye?”

Ye Wanwan replied, “I watched his matches.”

Ever since Ye Wanwan discovered her talents in martial arts, she learned a lot of information related to it and occasionally watched some matches.

MMA stood for mixed martial arts and was a full combat sport with fairly loose rules. A match allowed the fighters to use a large variety of disciplines like boxing, Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, Muay Thai, wrestling, karate, judo, Sanda, Jeet Kune Do, etc. It treated all disciplines equally, and practitioners from different disciplines could fight in the same arena.

To put it simply, a fight wasn't separated by the different styles of fighting. You could use any fighting technique as long as you could defeat your opponent.

In this kind of competition, Muay Thai and Brazilian Jiu Jitsu fighters dominated and won the most matches. In the wrestling world, there was a saying: "One would rather see the King of Yama than the King of Muay Thai."

Senny was a world-famous Muay Thai fighter and obtained the title "Wolf King" due to his ferocious style and vicious techniques.

Chapter 1025: Most enthusiastic for fighting

Senny was publicly recognized as the most talented champion of Muay Thai by Chinese wrestling fans and was a role model for many wrestling enthusiasts. Many Chinese people had been hoping for him to come to China to hold a Chinese-Thai battle and compete with practitioners of traditional Chinese martial arts.

"Senny is a top example of a Muay Thai fighter indeed, and Mr. Sun is also a master of martial arts in China, so I've always wanted to see a competition between top-notch Muay Thai and our traditional Chinese martial arts!" Mu Suifeng said with excitement in his voice, evidently thrilled by Qin Ruoxi's suggestion.

Upon hearing his expected response, Qin Ruoxi revealed a confident expression and looked at Si Yehan. She gently said, "Chairman Si, since Mr. Mu is also interested, how about the Qin family, Sun family, and Si family each choose a representative who will lead five experts and hold the martial arts conference?"

Mu Suifeng immediately clapped and said, "That's a great idea!"

Si Yehan saw that Mu Suifeng was very interested, so he naturally wouldn't reject it in order to show how much he valued his guest. "We can. I'll send someone to arrange it."

Qin Ruoxi swept her eyes over Ye Wanwan before saying, "I'll be the representative of the Qin family myself and choose five experts. As for the Si family, how about you have Miss Ye be the representative, Chairman Si?"

When Ye Wanwan, who had been obediently standing next to Si Yehan, was named, she subconsciously raised her eyebrows. Would Qin Ruoxi actually be so nice to give her a chance to be in the limelight?

It couldn't be that simple, right...

Tut tut, there would be advanced-level experts at the conference...

She really wanted to go and have fun!!!

Ye Wanwan instantly lit up like a lightbulb and shot toward Si Yehan, radiating her desire. "Let me go! Let me go! Let me go!"

When Mu Suifeng heard this, he glanced at Ye Wanwan with surprise. "Oh? Could it be that Miss Ye also knows martial arts and wrestling?"

Hm... I really can't see it...

Qin Ruoxi replied with a smile, "Miss Ye is very skilled. I personally witnessed a lot of the formidable guards of the Si family being defeated by her!"

She was naturally praising Ye Wanwan to such heights on purpose so that she had to go even if she didn't want to go...

"Then I'm really looking forward to it!" Mu Suifeng stated with a chuckle. However, there obviously wasn't sincerity in his words, and he was merely being polite.

"Chairman Si, what do you think?" Qin Ruoxi asked.

As though she was afraid Si Yehan would decline to protect Ye Wanwan, Qin Ruoxi added, "The representative doesn't need to fight. She merely needs to lead the team and give some pointers, so she won't be in any danger. Don't worry, Chairman Si."

If they proceeded with the conference, not only would she win Mr. Mu's favor, but the Sun family would also owe her a favor. More importantly, she could make Ye Wanwan make a big fool of herself and demolish the reputation she had just built up...

Qin Ruoxi suppressed her emotions and waited for Si Yehan's answer.

Currently, half of Si Yehan was nearly set on fire by Ye Wanwan's fervid gaze...

The corners of Si Yehan's lips twitched imperceptibly, and he looked at Ye Wanwan. "You want to go?"

Ye Wanwan was naturally more than happy to go and bobbed her head frantically. "Yes!"

Si Yehan: "..."

She was so enthusiastic as soon as she heard there was going to be fighting involved...

Chapter 1026: Great White brand nanny!

Since Ye Wanwan agreed as well, the matter was settled.

"Considering how skilled you are, you wouldn't encounter any problems even if you fought, Miss Ye!" Qin Ruoxi said with a dignified and graceful smile. "Since everyone is fine with it, I will contact Uncle Sun!"

Mu Suifeng answered, "Great! Then I'll wait for your news, Miss Qin!"

After the end of the banquet, on the way home:

Ye Wanwan was afraid of Si Yehan going back on his word, so she solemnly guaranteed, "My dear, the representative is only in charge of leading the team and guiding them and doesn't need to fight! I'm only going to take a look and see the world! I promise!"

Wolf King Senny and the Sun family alone were enough to pique her interest.

She also heard that the daughter of the Sun family, Sun Xuezheng, was also very formidable, so she wanted to meet her too...

Si Yehan glanced at her and resigned himself to fate regarding her vow, treating it like empty words.

"Eleven and Feng Xuanyi are both on missions and are abroad right now. Xu Yi will pick other people out for you," Si Yehan said.

Xu Yi, who was driving in the front, promptly answered, "We recently recruited a new group of people who are quite decent. I'll pick a few people out tomorrow."

Ye Wanwan: "Thanks for the trouble, Steward Xu!"

Si Yehan glanced at her with worry. "I don't care about winning or losing as long as you don't cause trouble."

This martial arts conference was merely being held to allow Ye Wanwan to watch and have fun, as well as to curry Mu Suifeng's favor while they were at it.

Ye Wanwan pouted and grumbled, "I know, I know! Ah-Jiu, I feel like you have a deep misunderstanding about me. That's no good! I'm obviously so obedient, and I'm also very cowardly, alright? I won't recklessly cause trouble..."

Si Yehan: "..."

Xu Yi: "..."

No one has a misunderstanding about you, okay?

Cowardly... You're only cowardly in front of one person, alright...

Little House of Rose:

"Tangtang baby, Mommy's home!"

Ye Wanwan kicked off her high heels and swiftly dashed inside the living room.

As soon as she entered the room, she spotted an enormous furry figure lying on the rug in front of the sofa with a fair and delicate child sleeping soundly, cuddling against him.

Great White's tail flicked every now and then, gently patting the little fella like he was soothing him to sleep...

When Ye Wanwan saw this, she quickly lowered her volume and entered gently. "Great White, thank you for taking care of Tangtang! I love you the most!"

Great White lazily opened his eyes when he heard her footsteps before quickly closing them again.

His light blue eyes clearly revealed a trace of contempt, as though they were saying, "You went out to have fun for so long, only coming back now, making a tiger watch your kid for you! What kind of parent are you?"

When Si Yehan stepped inside and saw the child laying on the giant white tiger, his expression abruptly softened.

Ye Wanwan carefully walked to Tangtang and picked him up, placing a kiss on his little cheeks. "Baby, let's go sleep on the bed!"

The child opened a sliver of his sleepy, misty eyes, which resembled the Milky Way and reflected Ye Wanwan's gentle face.

"Mommy..."

"Yes, Mommy's back!" Ye Wanwan lightly said.

The child foggily looked up at her face and mumbled in his sleep, "Mommy... so pretty..."

Ye Wanwan was instantly shot and clutched her chest. "Ah! What should I do! How can my son be so adorable even when he's talking in his sleep!"

Si Yehan watching nearby: "..."

My son...?

She's really saying it with more and more ease...

Chapter 1027: Truly extraordinary

Early morning, in the forest:

It was the weekend, so Ye Wanwan went on a morning run and did some stamina training like usual.

Every since Si Yehan made her start training, she made sure she trained for at least two hours every day. It was difficult in the beginning but it later turned into a habit. She would feel out of sorts any day she didn't exercise.

As time went on, the sluggish feeling that her body had from prolonged lack of exercise eased quite a bit.

Some distance away from the little forest, the five-man mercenary group was whispering covertly.

Heidi had a face of regret. *"Sigh It's been so long, but Master does nothing but the most basic stamina training every day and hasn't done any martial arts moves at all. I was planning on secretly learning a few moves!"*

Tang Bin's face looked full of worship. "No wonder Master is Master, she's truly as extraordinary as expected!"

Jiaojiao eagerly asked, "Say, just how strong is Master's martial strength?"

Song Qiang rubbed his chin. "Hm, that's really hard to say. Either way, she's really amazing!"

Old Jiang spoke after a moment of thinking. "Master's circumstances are... really strange... For someone who frequently practices martial arts, you can normally easily see it in their behavior and actions since habits are ingrained. However, Master doesn't reveal any traces of her training at all and looks like a perfectly normal person..."

After Ye Wanwan finished running and saw the five of them huddled together, she suspiciously looked at them. "Why are you guys kneeling there?"

"Master!" the five people simultaneously greeted her.

The fatty rubbed his hands together with a grin. "Master... actually... we wanted to secretly steal some moves from you!"

"Steal some moves?" Ye Wanwan repeated with raised brows.

The fatty had flattery plastered all over his face. "Yes... Master, your martial arts must be really strong, right! If we could learn even a few moves, we would gain a lot!"

Upon hearing this, Ye Wanwan was stunned and didn't know how to answer.

The reason she was able to teach Eleven, Feng Xuanyi, and the others was solely due to her proficiency in disassembling other people's moves and seeing through their weaknesses, but she personally didn't know any techniques or moves nor had she learned from any discipline.

The coaches her father hired taught her Sanda and taekwondo.

Sanda was the most common wrestling technique in China but there wasn't anything special about it, and taekwondo shouldn't even be mentioned. Taekwondo could intimidate ignorant people, but it was publicly recognized in the martial arts world to feature pretty yet useless moves.

These two martial arts styles obviously didn't fit Black Widow's mysterious and vicious character...

What should she do? She didn't know anything else and couldn't make up a discipline or moves out of thin air!

Ye Wanwan's eyes shifted as she thought hard about it before she lightly coughed and said in a deadpan manner, "What moves? What techniques? They're all too inferior! The most superior martial arts should abandon its sequences and forms that are distinctive in traditional martial arts. After all, anything could happen in a real battle, and mechanical and inflexible sequences can't handle that."

"There aren't any undefeatable martial arts moves in the world, only undefeatable people. I'm shapeless as my shape, use formless as my form, use methodless as my method, and use limitless as my limit. This! This is my approach!"

The five people were completely absorbed as they listened to her and nodded in a frenzy. They were amazed.

"Thank you for your teaching, Master!"

"Master, what you said was too good!"

"Listening to a gentleman speak is better than studying for ten years from books!"

"You're truly worthy of being the master, you're awesome!"

The corners of Ye Wanwan's lips twitched when she saw their amazed expressions.

She realized her duping skills were becoming more and more impressive...

Chapter 1028: Swing until it flies

She spewed so much nonsense but everything could be summarized into: "I don't know anything, so I'm simply training blindly." Yet, Ye Wanwan was able to fabricate such a mystical story and pretend to be so awesome.

She almost couldn't resist cheering for herself!

Ye Wanwan lightly coughed and ended this topic. "Cough cough Enough, enough. Let's end this here!"

She already exaggerated to this extent, and she couldn't continue any further.

"I'll be pretty busy in the near future, and I won't be home tomorrow, so this home will require more attention from you. Watch over Little Master!" Ye Wanwan ordered.

Although Si Yehan said Si Mingli had fled the country and wouldn't show up anymore, she still wanted to be cautious.

"Yes..." As soon as the five-man group heard this, they instantly wilted, but they didn't dare to tattle.

As soon as Master was too busy to come home, a nightmare would descend upon them, and they would be trained again...

"Ah, right, is my swing finished yet?" Ye Wanwan eagerly asked.

Heidi scratched her head and reluctantly said, "It's finished..."

"Then quickly bring me there!" Ye Wanwan promptly urged.

Heidi had no choice but to bring Ye Wanwan deep into the forest, where there was a sturdy swing constructed between two tall, solid trees.

However, what differentiated this swing from normal swings was that this swing was very, very long. When it started swinging, it could fly halfway to the sky at least...

"Uh, Master, you sure you want to... want to ride this thing?" Heidi's lips twitched.

Ye Wanwan examined it and saw that it was made according to her design. It was very sturdy with safety belts and the seats were made with soft leather while the ropes were decorated with flowers. It was obviously constructed carefully.

Ye Wanwan nodded with satisfaction. "I do! Look at how awesome this is! The only thing is that I feel it won't swing high enough! Ay, forget it, this is fine! Heidi, test it out!"

"Eh? Me?" Heidi fearfully pointed at her face.

"Pfttt—" Tang Bin snorted. "Of course it has to be you who tests whether it's sturdy or not! You're the heaviest!"

“But! I’m scared of heights!” Heidi grew more terrified.

“How come you aren’t able to conquer such a tiny fear for Master’s sake?”

Tang Bin and Song Qiang met each other’s eyes before teaming up and pushing Heidi into it. Better him than them!

A moment later, Heidi’s ghoul-like howl could be heard from the forest.

Ye Wanwan tilted her head up to watch. “Not bad, very sturdy! I’ll call Tangtang to come and play!”

After another glance at the fatty flying in the air, Ye Wanwan happily skipped away.

The five-member mercenary group: “...”

Master is so awesome! Even her swing is different from normal people’s—it swings until it flies...

“Tangtang! Tangtang! What are you doing?” Ye Wanwan ran inside the house to search for him.

“Mommy, Tangtang is reading,” the child said as he looked up from his book.

Ye Wanwan quickly went over and tugged on the child’s hand. “Ah, don’t read books. What’s fun about books? Quick, come! Mommy will take you out to play!”

“I haven’t finished it yet though...” Tangtang was somewhat hesitant.

Didn’t parents like good children who worked hard and read books? He must be more obedient and inclined to learning!

“No, no more reading! You’ve read for half an hour already! Children should have fun and play lots! Why are you reading?” Ye Wanwan dragged the child toward the forest without further ado.

“Baby, look at this!” Ye Wanwan pointed at the super giant swing.

“Mommy, what’s this?” the child suspiciously asked and tilted his head to the side.

Chapter 1029: Professional blame-taker, Tangtang

Ye Wanwan happily said, “This is a swing—a super duper awesome swing that you can swing until you fly! Come on, let’s ride it together and try it out!”

When the little fella heard this, his fair and delicate face instantly brightened. Ye Wanwan dragged him over, and he carefully sat on it.

Ye Wanwan fastened the safety belt and told Heidi and the others, “Okay, okay, you can push now! Push us higher!”

Heidi was currently puking on the side, so Tang Bin and Song Qiang quickly made a compliant sound in response and ran over.

Tang Bin: “Yes, Master!”

Song Qiang: “Okay, Master!”

Master is really... playful...

Ye Wanwan then ordered Jiaojiao, "Jiaojiao, remember to take photos for me!"

"Yes, Master! Jiaojiao is ready!" Jiaojiao hurriedly took out her phone.

Meanwhile, Old Jiang was standing on the side on alert so he could stop the swing in time if the child got scared.

He had never seen someone care for a child like this...

"3, 2, 1—go!"

Tang Bin and Song Qiang pulled the swing back together then fiercely released it!

The mother and son on the swing instantly soared into the sky. Trees, birds, and flowers all swooshed past them like the wind.

"Ahhhhh! So happy! Tangtang, are you scared?"

Tangtang hugged his mother and fiercely shook his head. His eyes were wide open as he watched the forest then the lake in the distance when they reached the peak. There was a radiance on his face that had never been seen before.

"Do you like it then?"

"I like it!"

"Haha! As expected, a mother knows her son best! I knew you would like it!"

...

Ye Wanwan was currently going wild with her son. When Si Yehan, who was taking care of business inside the study, heard Ye Wanwan's jubilant cries from outside the window, he suspiciously walked over to the window and opened it.

And then... he saw a scene that turned his face dark and rendered him speechless.

Ye Wanwan and Tangtang were sitting on a giant swing and swinging back and forth in the air...

Si Yehan had no idea what expression he should make, and it took him a while before he realized what he was seeing.

Several minutes later...

Ye Wanwan and her son were obediently standing next to each other, their heads lowered and their tails tucked.

Si Yehan sat on the sofa, his face dark like the bottom of a pan. "Explain!"

Ye Wanwan's head remained downcast as her index fingers prodded each other and she quietly mumbled, "Mmm, I saw on TV that tourist spots in tropical rainforests had this kind of swing and felt it would be fun and Tangtang would like it for sure, so I replicated it at home... I tested it first! It's very sturdy; even Heidi didn't break it after riding it, and it has safety belts... I was just afraid that Tangtang would be bored! Tangtang really liked it!"

Si Yehan felt his head aching as he rubbed the spot between his brows.

Was it Tangtang who wanted to play with it or was it her who wanted to play with it?

"Tangtang, you liked it, right?" Ye Wanwan asked as she quickly pulled her son into it.

Dear Tangtang cooperatively took the blame for his mom. "Daddy, it's Tangtang who liked it!"

Ye Wanwan hurriedly said, "See? I didn't lie to you!"

Si Yehan looked at how the mother and son were each wearing a pitiful and miserable expression and simply had no idea what to say. "Don't play with that one..."

Ye Wanwan instantly looked dejected like a frosted eggplant while Tangtang resembled a mini frosted eggplant.

Si Yehan: "... Wait until I hire a professional to remake it for you."

The two eggplants' heads shot up and brilliant beams spread across their faces. Their actions and expressions were identical.

Ye Wanwan: "Ah-Jiu, I knew you were the best!"

Tangtang: "Thank you, Daddy!"

Si Yehan, who inexplicably compromised and aided the wrongdoers in their misbehavior: "..."

Chapter 1030: What was different between this and robbery

After playing with the swing, Ye Wanwan didn't idle and led Tangtang and Great White all over the wilderness, picking mushrooms and fruits and digging for bird eggs.

Afraid she would stir up more trouble, Si Yehan accompanied them the whole time.

When they returned in the evening, the three people and one white tiger were covered in grass and leaves.

Ye Wanwan had Si Yehan take Tangtang to shower and change while she took out her phone to take photos of the day's bounty.

While she was happily taking photos, several news notifications popped up on her screen.

"A martial arts expert shockingly appeared in all the major outdoor obstacle course game shows? What?"

Eh, martial arts expert?

It couldn't be...

Ye Wanwan clicked it and saw written in the news article: “A superman appeared in various international outdoor obstacle course reality television shows, including ‘The Merry Dash,’ ‘The Amazing Race,’ ‘Charge on, Heroes,’ and so on, breaking all their previous records and setting an unsurpassable record.”

The discussion below the article was composed of:

“D*mn! So fearsome! He only took 11 minutes to pass Country M’s ‘The Amazing Race’? Is he human?”

“F*ck me! He made it look like the entire ground was level and he ran the whole way there, okay? This is total annihilation! How can other people play now? They’re from completely different worlds!”

“I seriously suspect that this is some retired special forces soldier! He couldn’t be this formidable otherwise!”

“To the netizen above me, are you joking? What kind of people are special forces soldiers? You think they would participate in some childish outdoor competition gameshow?”

...

Dark clouds covered Ye Wanwan’s face as she read this. Nameless Nie—that idiot! Enough already. What was the difference between this and robbery?

Her heart ached for the show’s crew...

At that moment, the doorbell rang and Old Jiang went to open the door.

Old Jiang returned and asked, “Master, you bought appliances?”

“Huh? What appliances? I didn’t buy any!” Ye Wanwan was confused.

Old Jiang was perplexed. “Then Mr. Si bought it? There’s someone outside delivering a fridge, TV, and air conditioner...”

“Huh? Ah-Jiu probably didn’t buy them. Why would he buy these things for no reason?” Ye Wanwan walked to the front door distrustfully and saw a delivery man moving several appliances to the front door.

“I didn’t buy these things. Do you have the wrong house?” Ye Wanwan asked the delivery man.

The young delivery man took out the invoice and looked. “It wasn’t you? A client surnamed Nie sent these here...”

“Surnamed Nie?”

Ye Wanwan’s eyebrows raised. Could it be Nameless Nie?

However, why did that guy send these things here?

While suspicion rolled over her, her WeChat notification rang.

[Nie Hollow Pit: Sister! Sister! Did you receive the fridge, TV, and air conditioner yet?]

It really was that guy...

Ye Wanwan responded: [Famous Ye: You sent these here? Why?]

[Nie Hollow Pit: These are the prizes I won! (gloating.jpg)]

Ye Wanwan was speechless when she saw the proud and gloating emoji Nameless Nie sent her.

Now she remembered that the prizes of these shows included not only cash but also many sponsored prizes like appliances and houseware.

“Miss, what about these things?” the delivery guy at the door asked.

“Oh, yeah. These were meant for me.” After Ye Wanwan said that, she picked up the invoice and signed it before having Old Jiang and the others carry the things inside.

Ye Wanwan glanced at the prizes and shook her head in amusement. She replied: [Famous Ye: Thank you, Bro.]

[Nie Hollow Pit: You’re welcome, you’re welcome! We’re family after all!]

Ye Wanwan chuckled. This guy was quite into his character!

[Famous Ye: Today’s the weekend, so I went out with Tangtang all day. Tangtang had a good time.]

Ye Wanwan sent this and generously attached all the photos she took that day.
