

Little Sweet 1461

Chapter 1461: All I see is Lord Asura

Both Big Dipper and Seven Star didn't look too pleased. The Yuan family and Asura came on a rampage, and Lord Asura looked like he was hellbent on murder. It appeared it wouldn't end benignly this time...

Yet, Sis Feng just happened to encounter a mishap at this time, and the elders at the Fearless Alliance's headquarters were all watching them like a tiger watching its prey. If Asura really interfered, everything pointed to disaster...

The atmosphere turned tense as each second passed, and everyone was on the verge of eruption.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps was heard behind them.

"Explanation? May I ask what kind of explanation does His Highness Lord Asura want?" Accompanied by a melodious and languid voice, Ye Wanwan appeared in front of everyone.

As soon as Big Dipper saw Ye Wanwan, he became stunned. "Sis Feng! Why did you come here?!"

Ye Wanwan narrowed her eyes. "What? Am I not allowed to come?"

"Um... No..." Big Dipper shut his mouth instantly and hastily pulled out a chair for her.

The moment Ye Wanwan appeared, the sitting man's gaze darted toward her instantly.

"Please give me a reason for this matter, President Bai." As Si Yehan spoke, he examined the girl imperceptibly.

Ye Wanwan had walked there on pure willpower. It was just that outsiders couldn't see anything wrong with her due to her concealment, but the fine sweat covering her forehead and her deathly pale complexion still gave clues to her current abnormal condition.

Ye Wanwan acted like the intense numbing and pain plaguing her didn't exist and smiled aloofly as she casually said, "Do I need a reason to want to fight?"

She had made preparations ahead of time to handle this situation.

Even if Asura's people really sought them out, the Yuan family wasn't standing on the side of reason for this matter. Moreover, a starving camel was still bigger than a horse. Their Fearless Alliance couldn't be shaken this easily by just anyone.

With Lord Asura's sophistication, there was no way he would have a complete fallout with the Fearless Alliance because of the mere Yuan family. He should know who was more important.

Based on the matter last time, Lord Asura was very shrewd and ruthless and handled matters flawlessly.

Hence, she wasn't worried about this.

However, she didn't anticipate Lord Asura would come personally this time.

Was it just a coincidence?

Everyone was rendered speechless when they heard Ye Wanwan's words.

The Yuan family elder frothed with rage. "Lord Asura, Your Highness, look! She's clearly provoking us malevolently and is looking down on you!"

Ye Wanwan didn't sit down on the chair that Big Dipper pulled out. Instead, she sat down on the chair next to Si Yehan without any regards and nonchalantly propped her head on her hand while unwaveringly staring at him.

There was only a small square table separating them, and their breaths mingled together...

When Ye Wanwan heard the Yuan family elder's words, she raised her brows. "Look down on Lord Asura? How could I? All I see is His Highness, Lord Asura..."

No matter what, Lord Asura came with perfect timing...

When Lord Asura heard her words and saw his reflection in the girl's bewitching and dazzling eyes, his eyes flickered imperceptibly and he turned evasive for a moment.

Lin Que, disguised as the guard next to Lord Asura, couldn't help but choke and break into coughs but he scrambled to calm down when he met Si Yehan's warning gaze.

Upon detecting the girl's approach, Si Yehan imperceptibly withdrew the hand that he laid on the table and placed it on the handle of his chair instead.

Chapter 1462: Seal the door superglued shut

However, Ye Wanwan clearly didn't look like she intended to back down. "Your Highness, Lord Asura, what do you think?"

Seven Star lowered his voice and reminded her, "Sis Feng, you can't..."

Big Dipper also frantically wiped off his sweat of fright upon seeing his president flirting with Lord Asura in front of everyone. He hastily said, "Sis Feng, don't act rashly..."

If she offended Lord Asura at a time like this, things wouldn't end well.

Ye Wanwan exasperatedly glanced at her right and left hand before calmly saying, "It's inconvenient to speak with so many people around. How about we talk privately, Lord Asura?"

When Seven Star and Big Dipper heard that, they were wrought with anxiety.

*Sh*t! Talk privately?!*

How could they allow these two to be together by themselves at a time like this?!

A Yuan family elder shouted angrily, "Vixen, what trick do you want to play now?!"

Ye Wanwan chuckled lightly and was about to speak when an intense wave of pain crashed through her body. Caught off guard, her mask fractured for a moment and her complexion turned white as paper.

Thankfully, it only lasted a few seconds, and the people from Asura and the Yuan family didn't notice anything.

At this moment, a low male voice was heard: "Leave."

Jiang Yan turned anxious. "My Lord, you can't... What if she harms you..."

Lin Que immediately interjected, "Jiang Yan, you're acting presumptuously! How dare you disobey our Lord's orders! Are you doubting our Lord's capabilities? Do you think our Lord isn't capable? Leave already!"

As Lin Que said that, he inwardly complained, Ah, I knew it'd be like this.

That girl merely showed a tinge of discomfort and Ninth Brother instantly tossed every principle to the back of his mind.

In the end, Jiang family had no choice but to comply and retreat with gritted teeth. The elders from the Yuan family also followed them and left hurriedly.

Who was Lord Asura? He didn't believe this girl could seriously play any tricks!

The people from Asura also quickly obeyed the order and retreated.

Upon seeing Seven Star and Big Dipper standing there still, Ye Wanwan glanced at them and asked nonchalantly, "What are you standing around for? Do you think you aren't bright enough?"

Seven Star: "..."

Big Dipper: "..."

Wahhh, we got rejected for being lightbulbs...

Big Dipper's eyes shifted as he thought of something. He leaned next to Ye Wanwan's ears and said, "Sis Feng, can you come with me? I have something to tell you!"

Ye Wanwan followed Big Dipper to the side. Big Dipper suppressed his voice and said next to her ear, "Sis Feng, do you need me to help you? I have a good idea!"

Ye Wanwan glanced at him. "Help me how?"

Big Dipper rubbed his hands metaphorically. "Well... I'll add some hallucinogens to Lord Asura's tea... Won't you be able to do whatever you want to him then? Aren't I so clever, Sis Feng?"

Ye Wanwan dryly glanced at him and narrowed her eyes dangerously. "You think... I need to drug a man... in order to freaking sleep with him, huh?"

Big Dipper was scared witless instantly. "No, no, no... that's not what I meant... Sis Feng, your beauty captivates even the birds and beasts and exceeds the natural world... If you take a liking to a man, who could resist... But..."

What Big Dipper didn't say was, "But you just had to take a liking to Lord Asura!"

How could an ultimate great devil like Lord Asura be considered a normal man?!

In the end, Seven Star and Big Dipper were forcibly kicked out by Ye Wanwan.

Time was ticking.

Even if it was a risk, they had to let Sis Feng try.

“Sis Feng is too awful! She forgets her brothers as soon as she has a beauty with her! She actually kicked me out!”

Seven Star felt his head aching as he glanced at Big Dipper. Was that the main point?

“I wonder whether Autumn Water figured out a solution,” Seven Star muttered pensively.

“What solution could she possibly think of...?” As Big Dipper said that, he secretly snuck to the door, and rustling was heard as he did something.

Seven Star walked over and asked with a frown, “What are you doing?”

Big Dipper locked the door while saying, “Hehe, I’m going to seal the door superglued shut! I’ll make sure Sis Feng can successfully do her business!”

Seven Star: “...”

Chapter 1463: Sleep for a while before talking?

Ye Wanwan and Lord Asura were the only two remaining inside the room following everyone’s departure.

After the numbing and aching that reached the bone marrow passed, she was enveloped in a pain that made her feel like she was swallowed by the lava from a volcano. It was a pain worse than death.

She didn’t know how she maintained her calm facade in front of everyone.

That cursed Nameless Nie!

In the end, if it weren’t for that idiot eating from both sides, she wouldn’t become the victim of such an odd gu poison.

Now, how nice of them! They just dusted off their pants and left while she was about to lose her life!

Lord Asura placed down the teacup in his hand and looked at her. “President Bai, please speak frankly.”

“Speak frankly? Okay...” Ye Wanwan nodded and proceeded to ask, “Your Highness, Lord Asura, are you tired?”

The man looked bewildered.

Ye Wanwan scooted over and propped her chin on her hand as she explained, “If you’re tired, how about we sleep for a while before talking?”

Si Yehan: “...”

Si Yehan was silent for a moment before saying, “No need.”

Ye Wanwan didn't look surprised, but she did look regretful. Her fiery gaze locked onto the man as she slowly said, "Then... I can only... use peaceful means before resorting to force..."

After Ye Wanwan said that, she leaned forward without warning, and her soft lips covered the man's lips without any hesitation.

When her soft but boiling lips landed on his, his expression finally changed. His pitch-black and icy eyes dilated, and his hands raised slightly as though he wanted to push her away, but they froze in the air.

A few seconds passed before he finally pushed her away. His low and rough voice sounded a bit tense. "President Bai, please respect yourself."

"..." Ye Wanwan breathed heavily. ?Respect myself your a!!!

If the person in front of her was truly Si Yehan and he was determined to conceal his identity from her, she definitely wouldn't win against him with his intelligence.

When she realized that, defeat overwhelmed her heart.

An intense pain suddenly radiated from her heart, and her face turned white as paper as she tightly clutched her chest. "Ah..."

"You..." The man immediately reached out to support the collapsing girl.

Si Yehan's face didn't look so good. Did she really get poisoned by this gu poison that he had never heard of...

Ye Wanwan swallowed the blood in her mouth and took a deep breath before standing up. "Lord Asura, please leave."

The man frowned lightly.

Cold sweat drenched Ye Wanwan's forehead. She chuckled and said, "My sincere apologies, but to be truthful, Lord Asura, I'm truly not well enough to receive guests today. Patriarch Yuan poisoned me with mutually-in-love gu, and I need to have sex with the person I like within 12 hours to dissolve the gu. Now... I only have two hours left..."

Si Yehan's expression changed completely upon hearing that.

Ye Wanwan didn't sound like she was lying, and the effects on her body couldn't be faked.

If he didn't help her relieve the poison now, she might die.

If he helped her relieve the poison, there was an extremely high possibility he'd expose his identity.

She greatly suspected him to begin with...

"I'm truly sorry. I need to go relieve this poison first."

Ye Wanwan's words were essentially the same as "I need to go find a man I like and sleep with him first."

Si Yehan's hold on the girl's fingers tightened abruptly.

At this moment, a commotion was suddenly heard from outside the door.

“Big Dipper, Seven Star! Where’s Xiao Feng? Why are you two standing here? Why’s this door locked?” Autumn Water asked in incomprehension upon arriving and seeing this current situation.

Chapter 1464: Came to help you cure the poison

“How’s your president?” the man next to Autumn Water also inquired.

When Big Dipper saw the man who spoke, he felt like he was struck by lightning. “S-sh*t!”

E-emperor Ji!

Autumn Water actually managed to call Emperor Ji here!

Big Dipper wasn’t the only one stupefied; Seven Star also looked stunned.

“Why are you standing around? Hurry and bring us to see Xiao Feng! There’s not much time left!”

Autumn Water anxiously urged. “Is Xiao Feng in there?”

“Um... Yes... But...” Big Dipper was still stuck in a stupor.

“Then hurry and open the door!” Autumn Water pressed.

“Autumn Water, aren’t you too awesome?! How did you trick Emperor Ji into coming here?” Big Dipper asked after dragging her to the side.

“Don’t ask how I called him here! Hurry and let us see Xiao Feng!”

Big Dipper covertly glanced at the room and replied with an awkward expression, “I can’t... Sis Feng is a bit occupied right now...”

Autumn Water hounded, “Occupied? What do you mean? Don’t tell me you randomly found someone for Xiao Feng! Utter nonsense! Didn’t you say it can only be treated by someone she liked?”

“No! We, we didn’t randomly find someone... It’s...” Big Dipper didn’t know what to say.

Should he tell her they tricked Lord Asura in there?

CRASH!

A broken clatter was heard from inside the room.

“Xiao Feng! Xiao Feng, what happened? Big Dipper, what in the world are you doing?! Hurry and open the door!” Autumn Water snatched the key from Big Dipper and hastily opened the door.

After the door opened, Autumn Water, Emperor Ji, and the others entered immediately.

Broken pieces of porcelain from the teacup littered the floor, and Ye Wanwan looked weak and pale while the man next to her carefully supported her body.

When Autumn Water saw the man inside the room, she was dumbstruck. “Um... Lord... Lord Asura...”

Why is Lord Asura here?!?!?!

Autumn Water turned to Big Dipper and Seven Star, dumbfounded, and sent them an inquiring gaze.

It was Seven Star who answered. "Lord Asura is here because of the matter with the Yuan family."

Big Dipper lowered his voice and said, "Autumn Water, you know how urgent Sis Feng's situation was... So we thought... perhaps there was an off chance that Lord Asura could help Sis Feng get rid of the poison..."

Black lines covered Autumn Water's face. "You've gone mad! Where did you get the guts, Big Dipper?!"

Big Dipper felt wronged to death! It definitely wasn't him who was gutsy, alright?

However, based on Lord Asura and Sis Feng's dressed state, nothing happened yet probably. Thankfully, their president still retained some rationality.

Ye Wanwan was surprised when she saw Emperor Ji entering. "Ji Xiuran... why... why are you here?"

How sinful! From the looks of it... it was Autumn Water who called him there!

Why did she feel like she was caught in the act of cheating with Ji Xiuran's arrival...?

When the man next to Ye Wanwan saw the newcomer, his expression also darkened a few degrees.

Last time, he had Lin Que look into the matter, but he didn't uncover anything about the relationship between Emperor Ji and Bai Feng.

Judging from Emperor Ji's attitude toward Wanwan though, there had to be some secret.

At the very least, Emperor Ji had to have had an unusual relationship with Wanwan before she lost her memory.

At the same time, Ji Xiuran also looked at Si Yehan silently for a moment before turning to Ye Wanwan with a faintly discernible smile on his face. He nonchalantly answered, "I came to help you cure your poison."

Help me... cure my poison?

A strange silence descended on the room following Ji Xiuran's words.

Chapter 1465: We can use another method if you want

The warmth in Si Yehan's eyes receded instantly and they turned into a blanket of ice and snow.

As for Ye Wanwan, she was utterly dumbfounded.

Help me... cure my poison?

But there didn't seem to be anything wrong with those words based on Bai Feng and Emperor Ji's relationship?

Big Dipper coughed violently. "H-huh?"

Sh*t! Not only did they really invite Emperor Ji here, but he also wanted to help Sis Feng cure her poison? Did he know what he was saying?!

Emperor Ji's lips turned up with a faint smile. "Is there a problem with that?"

Ye Wanwan: "..."

No way would she dare to say there was a problem!

If she said that, wouldn't she be exposing her fake identity as Bai Feng...?

After another wave of awkwardness, an elderly man walked out from the back and asked, "Excuse me, who's the one poisoned by gu?"

Emperor Ji led the elderly man toward the front. "It's her. Thank you for your trouble, Elder Qi."

"Eh, who is this elderly sir?" Ye Wanwan was lost as she looked at this white-haired elderly man in front of her.

"It's the doctor I invited here to help cure your poison. Elder Qi is an expert in relieving gu," Emperor Ji answered.

Ye Wanwan heaved a sigh of relief upon hearing that and clapped her chest. "Ah, so you invited a doctor here to help me cure the gu..."

What a fright!

Emperor Ji smiled aloofly, "How should I help you cure it otherwise?"

Ye Wanwan choked a little. "Um..."

Emperor Ji smiled and said, "We can use another method if you want."

"No, no, no!"

Ye Wanwan hastily extended her hand to allow the elderly doctor to examine her.

Elder Qi laid his fingers over Ye Wanwan's pulse and started examining her.

About 10 minutes later, the elderly man finished feeling her pulse. He looked a bit stunned, as though he ran into some unexpected circumstances. "This..."

"Elder Qi, is there a solution to Xiao Feng's mutually-in-love gu? The person who developed the gu said it was solvable!" Autumn Water pressed worriedly.

The white-haired elderly man combed through his beard with a serious expression. "Originally, it was solvable, but President Bai... isn't poisoned by mutually-in-love gu!"

"Huh? Not mutually-in-love gu? What is it then?" Big Dipper asked.

Everyone in the room turned to the elderly man.

"President Bai isn't poisoned by mutually-in-love gu; she's poisoned by the king of gu, love gu!" Elder Qi replied.

Big Dipper and Seven Star were shocked. "Love gu!!!"

Ye Wanwan weakly supported herself against the table. "And what's love gu?"

What Ye Wanwan didn't notice was that Si Yehan's expression shifted after hearing the words "love gu."

Emperor Ji glanced at her before explaining, "Perhaps not many people know about mutually-in-love gu, but quite a number of people know about the king of gu, love gu. Many members of the gu Miao tribe can only successfully refine love gu once in their lifetime."

"How can it be cured?" Ye Wanwan asked.

Elder Qi said, "Normally, girls would poison the boy they liked with love gu to make them desperate in love and devoted to them. The mother gu would be in the girl's body while the child gu would be in the guy's body. If the man fornicated with her after truly falling in love with her within three months, they'd survive. Otherwise, both people would die from poison."

Si Yehan: "..."

Ye Wanwan was stupefied after hearing that.

"Mutually-in-love gu" only required her to like the other person whereas "love gu" required the other person to fall in love with her.

One was easy mode while the other was freaking difficult mode!

Chapter 1466: The first person she had intimate contact with

Ye Wanwan felt dizzy. "Um, wait, you said the mother gu is inside the girl while the child gu is inside the man, but am I not the only one poisoned by gu? So where's the child gu?"

The white-haired elderly man replied, "You'd have to ask yourself where the child gu is, President Bai. Who did you cast it to?"

Ye Wanwan was aghast. "Ask myself? How would I know who I cast it to?! I didn't cast it to anyone!"

Wait!

Ye Wanwan's expression abruptly changed.

After coming to the Yuan residence, only two people were poisoned by gu. Aside from herself, the other person was... Patriarch Yuan!

It freaking couldn't be... couldn't be Patriarch Yuan, right... Moreover, Patriarch Yuan was freaking dead already!

Sweat seeped out of Ye Wanwan's forehead. If it really was Patriarch Yuan, she would rather die!

"She was the one who got cast by gu," Emperor Ji explained.

Elder Qi pondered over it for a long while before discovering the cause. "So it's like that... President Bai, your situation is a bit complicated. The gu inside your body probably was mutually-in-love gu at first, which is a mutation of love gu, but due to some unknown accident, the mutually-in-love gu successfully transformed into love gu after entering your body...”

“Transformed into love gu?” Ye Wanwan repeated.

“That’s right. You can interpret it as... an evolution... It’s a rare situation, but it’s not completely unheard of.”

Ye Wanwan wore an “FML” expression. ?That’s a thing?

Could I be any more unlucky?

The elderly man continued, “The moment the mutually-in-love gu successfully evolves into love gu, it breaks into mother and child gu. The mother gu would stay inside your body while the child gu would enter the body of the first man you have intimate contact with. When I examined your pulse just now, President, your body only contains mother gu, so you must’ve cast the child gu to someone else already.”

Ye Wanwan gulped. “The body of... the first man I have intimate contact with...?”

Well, the only good news was that it probably wasn’t Patriarch Yuan since she didn’t even touch him once!

The elderly man replied, “That’s right. So can you please try to remember if there was someone you had intimate contact with during this period of time, President? Then we’ll know whose body contains the child gu.”

Everyone’s gazes landed on Ye Wanwan.

Autumn Water pressed urgently, “Xiao Feng, who did you have intimate contact with...?”

Ye Wanwan rubbed her head. “Hold on, let me confirm something first. Elderly sir, what degree of intimacy are you referring to when you say intimate contact? Don’t tell me that a mere kiss would cast the gu onto someone?”

The elderly man nodded. “You can. You can transmit it through saliva.”

“...” Ye Wanwan held her head speechlessly, looking like she was on the brink of a breakdown.

Emperor Ji’s eyes glinted, and he imperceptibly glanced at the man next to Ye Wanwan.

“Xiao Feng, just who is it?! Who did you cast the child gu to?” Autumn Water asked anxiously.

Ye Wanwan was about to collapse. ?Don’t ask, okay? How should I answer?

Should I say I planted the child gu in Lord Asura’s body in front of Emperor Ji?

While Ye Wanwan was entangled in turmoil, everyone saw Lord Asura pushing the sleeve of his suit upward slightly and adjusting it before extending his wrist toward the white-haired elderly man. He looked at him and said, “Please feel my pulse for me.”

Elder Qi was startled. Why did this person suddenly want him to feel his pulse?

The man's aura was too imposing, so the elderly man reflexively obeyed his order without much thinking and bent down, carefully placing his fingers on the man's wrist and feeling his pulse.

At the same time, everyone's gazes shot toward the doctor.

One second passed, ten seconds passed, one minute passed...

The elderly man examined him three or four whole times, his expression shifting again and again, before finally raising his head. First, he looked at Emperor Ji then Ye Wanwan then Emperor Ji again. "The... the child gu... is inside this mister's body..."

Autumn Water: "...???"

Seven Star: "..."

Big Dipper facepalmed, at a loss for words. "..."

He had never been disappointed in Sis Feng's guts. She actually dared to make advances on Lord Asura...

Chapter 1467: I didn't lose control!

At first, it was easy mode, then it turned into difficult mode.

If the opponent was Lord Asura though, it was simply... hell mode!

After Lord Asura's diagnosis came out, Ye Wanwan didn't dare to look at Ji Xiuran's expression.

After listening to the elderly doctor, her first reaction was to hide it. Who would've expected Lord Asura to tell the doctor to feel his pulse without any warning? Now, what they did in the room earlier was self-evident.

Ye Wanwan cautiously glanced at Ji Xiuran, who had a dark and obscure expression on his face. Ahem, if she said... she accidentally bumped into him... would anyone believe her?

Oh my god! The love gu's child gu was actually planted inside Lord Asura...!!!

A strange silence descended upon the room again.

"Elder Qi, are you sure?" Seven Star asked.

The white-haired elderly man sounded certain. "I verified it three times. There's no mistake about it."

Ye Wanwan: "..."

Alright, the doctor directly stamped a seal of confirmation that the two of them acted intimately somehow.

Everyone: "..."

Autumn Water was the first to react. She hastily walked toward Lord Asura and was trembling as she fearfully pleaded for mercy, "Your... Your Highness =Lord Asura! Our president only lost control of her behavior because she was poisoned by gu! She didn't intend to offend you, so please don't blame her!"

Ye Wanwan blinked. "Huh? Lose control...? I didn't lose control..."

She controlled herself rather well the whole time. If she really lost control, it wouldn't be as simple as a mere kiss! She would've tried to cure the poison directly...

Autumn Water angrily glared at her in warning. Did she want to die?

Ye Wanwan rubbed her nose and stopped talking.

BANG!? The room door was suddenly pushed open. Jiang Yan and the guard by Lord Asura's side earlier entered together.

Jiang Yan seemed to have heard what happened in there and his rage skyrocketed as he shouted, "You shameless vixen! You're simply unscrupulous and impudent! I knew you had something up your sleeves! How dare you use this type of shameless underhanded trick to plot against our lord?!"

When Ye Wanwan saw Jiang Yan's righteously indignant and humiliated expression, she thought of something and murmured, "Pft, your tone... really sounds like an old friend of mine..."

He was identical to the ruffled Liuying back then.

As Ye Wanwan said that, she peered at Lord Asura with a sardonic smile but couldn't detect anything unusual in his expression.

Jiang Yan snorted. "Bai Feng, you're the leader of a gang at least. Don't you find it a disgrace to use such despicable methods?"

Ye Wanwan raised her hand. "Hey, hold on, hold on. Brother, may I ask whether you personally witnessed what happened in here earlier? How did you know it was me who violated your Lord Asura? What if it's him who did something to me? No matter what, the one who took a loss was me, the girl, right?"

Si Yehan: "..."

Jiang Yan's eyes nearly popped out from how wide they were, and he wanted to vomit blood. "You... you're talking nonsense! Why would my Lord do that?!"

Ye Wanwan pursed her lips. "Perhaps he did something even more unimaginable! If you knew, you would become disillusioned about your Lord and turn from a fan into a hater!"

"Cough cough cough cough..." Big Dipper had a choking fit while Seven Star looked somewhat embarrassed.

Although they should stand on the president's side, they themselves didn't believe Sis Feng's words.

Chapter 1468: Naturally a great beauty

The fake guard, Lin Que, walked over to smooth over the situation. "Hey, calm down, calm down. It's not the time for an argument. We need to think of a solution. Otherwise, both President Bai and Lord Asura's lives are at stake!"

Jiang Yan glared at Ye Wanwan viciously before half-kneeling in front of Si Yehan and said, "Don't worry, my Lord, this subordinate will definitely find a remedy for the gu within three months."

Ye Wanwan said with a grin, "Thanks for your trouble then, since this president has someone she likes already."

"Already have someone you like? Who, who, who?!" Big Dipper inquired curiously.

When Autumn Water heard that, she heaved with relief. Thank goodness Xiao Feng said that or else how could she explain herself to Emperor Ji?!

This was seriously a thorny matter though. Xiao Feng liked Emperor Ji, and there was no way Lord Asura would fall in love with Xiao Feng, so how should they cure this love gu?

Ye Wanwan first glanced at Lord Asura imperceptibly before responding to Big Dipper, "The one I like is naturally a super great beauty! Moreover... He's willing to do everything I wish and treats me gently in every way possible. He would never lie to me or betray me!"

Big Dipper was shocked. Earlier, she said she had to sleep with Lord Asura, but now she said she had someone she liked already! Just how brilliant was the person she liked?!

A thought suddenly struck Big Dipper and his head turned to Emperor Ji with a swish.

"Sh*t!" Big Dipper murmured, dumbstruck. "Sis Feng, the... the one you like... can't possibly be Emperor Ji, right...?"

Emperor Ji had been rather close with their Fearless Alliance lately!

Big Dipper blurted it out without thinking and spoke rather loudly, so everyone heard him.

He didn't know whether it was his imagination, but Lord Asura's glance at him just now was terrifyingly cold.

As for Ji Xiuran... he wore a faint smile the whole time, and no one could discern any change in expression.

Seven Star glanced at Big Dipper with a frown, reminding him to think before he spoke before turning to Emperor Ji and apologizing, "Emperor Ji, please don't fault Big Dipper for having a slip of the tongue."

Ji Xiuran smiled and nonchalantly said, "Why would I? It'd be my honor to be liked by President Bai."

Seven Star: "..."

Big Dipper: "...!!!"

Ye Wanwan: "..."

Um... why do I suddenly feel a bit chilly...

Aside from Autumn Water who remained unsurprised, both Seven Star and Big Dipper jolted in fright when they heard that. However, they knew Emperor Ji's personality and character, so he was probably speaking courteously and giving them face.

Emperor Ji wasn't someone to be trifled with though. The ever-smiling Ji Xiuran wasn't any less dangerous than Lord Asura.

Anyhow, regardless of who Sis Feng provoked out of these two, she would be seeking death either way.

"Elder Qi, do you have any remedy for the gu?" Emperor Ji asked the white-haired elderly man.

"Um... In truth, I've been researching remedies for love gu all these years... I did have some results... but I've never succeeded... Hence, currently speaking, if we want to relieve the gu in a short amount of time, I'm afraid... it'd be very difficult... The fastest and safest way is still..." Elder Qi sent Lord Asura a meaningful look.

Everyone turned to Lord Asura.

Chapter 1469: A raging sea of jealousy

In truth, Big Dipper and Seven Star both thought it'd be easy on Sis Feng's side, considering her unprincipled personality and existing covetous feelings for Lord Asura.

However, if they wanted Lord Asura to fall in love with Sis Feng and mate with her... it'd be the same as dreaming!

It would already be an accomplishment if Lord Asura didn't destroy their Fearless Alliance in a fit of rage.

Big Dipper, Seven Star, and Autumn Water all turned ashen, especially when they noticed Lord Asura's extremely dark expression.

Ah! She could've cast the gu onto anyone; why did it have to be Lord Asura?!

Ever since Si Yehan heard Ye Wanwan say she "already had someone she liked", he felt like his heart had fallen into a bottomless icy pit and was drowning in bone-chilling water, numb from the cold.

Let's not forget Emperor Ji's tacit agreement after that...

The dangerous, threatening pressure around the man dropped down in an earth-shattering manner, stirring fear in people's hearts and causing even Jiang Yan to shiver.

We're doomed, we're doomed!

We're truly done for this time!

Autumn Water secretly sighed with regret. If only she brought Emperor Ji earlier, then everything would've been resolved and they would've relieved the poison at any moment. She was only a step late, but the matter devolved into this disaster!

Autumn Water had no choice but to hastily explain. "Your Highness the Lord Asura, my president was also a victim! It's all because of Patriarch Yuan's underhanded tactics! My president absolutely didn't intentionally poison you with the gu. Please think about this matter justly..."

However, Autumn Water's words didn't ease the man's expression at all; it worsened instead.

Lin Que felt his head pounding with a headache. Ah, sister, could your words be any more stinging and callous?

It'd be fine if that girl purposely poisoned him with gu...

The sentence "I already have someone I like" kept repeating in Si Yehan's mind like a magic incantation, and he felt a thirst for blood—more intense than he'd ever felt before—storming rampantly inside of him, nearly ripping him apart.

He didn't know how he repressed his desire to pull her into his arms, embrace her, kiss her, and meld her into his bones and blood...

The terrifyingly dangerous, tornado-like aura around the man abruptly dissipated, and he finally managed to forcefully repress his nearly uncontrollable emotions and walk away...

His rigid figure was cold like a man traversing through a wintry Arctic field all by himself...

"My... my Lord!" Jiang Yan reflexively called out after being startled briefly.

"Hmph! Fearless Alliance, my Asura absolutely won't take everything that happened today lying down! Wish yourself good luck!" Jiang Yan had never seen his lord this enraged before, so he hastily followed his lord after Lord Asura threw these ruthless words at them.

Lin Que hesitantly glanced at Ye Wanwan. He originally wanted to say something, but there were too many people there, so it wasn't suitable for further conversation. He was forced to swiftly chase after the rest of his group.

How miserable... Ninth Brother must be ready to erupt with rage...

That girl couldn't really have fallen in love with someone else, right?

"Lord Asura... Lord Asura..." By the time Autumn Water chased after them to the door, they were gone.

A moment later, Autumn Water returned with a deathly pale complexion. "We're probably screwed this time..."

It absolutely wasn't a minor matter that President Fearless successfully conspired against Lord Asura!

Seven Star also looked abnormally serious. This not only concerned Sis Feng's life; disaster was probably also imminent for the entire Fearless Alliance.

Big Dipper feebly said, "No way right... If Sis Feng really dies, Lord Asura also won't survive..."

Autumn Water rolled her eyes at him. "We can only hope that Asura won't find a remedy for the love gu... Big Dipper, what's wrong with you?! I just left for a brief period; how did you watch over Xiao Feng? How could you allow this to happen?"

Chapter 1470: Die for sure? Not necessarily.

Big Dipper was bewildered by Autumn Water's inquiries. "I'm innocent... I offered to sacrifice myself! But Sis Feng didn't want me, alright..."

Autumn Water's expression darkened. "Shut up!"

On the other side, Emperor Ji finished speaking to Elder Qi about some matter related to curing gu. "Everyone, don't worry too much. Elder Qi will try his best to cure the love gu."

Seven Star cupped his fists and said, "Thank you."

Since Seven Star and Big Dipper were also there, Emperor Ji didn't say anything more and nodded at Ye Wanwan before leaving with the white-haired elderly man.

As soon as Emperor Ji left, Big Dipper immediately approached Autumn Water and asked, "Autumn Water, how did you invite Emperor Ji here? Why is he helping us?"

After all, their Fearless Alliance had a grudge with Emperor Ji's faction, so why was Emperor Ji helping them?

Autumn Water coughed lightly. "Emperor Ji owes Xiao Feng a favor from many years ago, so he's just returning the favor this time."

"Huh? Really? Why didn't I know..." Big Dipper didn't pursue the matter and became miserable. "Sis Feng, what... what should we do... are we really gonna die for sure this time..."

Ye Wanwan's eyes turned to where Lord Asura left.

A moment later, she peered down at her arm. She could still feel the remnants of the man's warmth from when he supported her.

Her eyes were obscurely dark as she nonchalantly said, "Die for sure? Not necessarily..."

At the same time, at the Fearless Alliance:

Inside the main hall, Third Elder Li Si's expression was so dark that ink could drip from it. The elders next to him all looked furious.

News had come from the Yuan territory just now. They originally thought that woman was walking to her own death by going to the Yuan residence. To their surprise, not only did she successfully kill the patriarch of the Yuan family, but she also consumed the entire Yuan family...

"That woman actually managed to dismantle the Yuan family..." an elder coldly said with a dark expression.

"I heard she hired mercenaries," Third Elder Li Si interjected.

"Mercenaries?!" The other elderly men were taken back and looked surprised. One of them asked with a frown, "Mercenaries from where?"

"I heard they're connected to the Nie family... Hmph, you should all know the strength of the Nie family's eldest young master. Isn't it a piece of cake for the people under him to annihilate people like the Yuan family..." Third Elder Li Si said.

“Soon, the people from Wen Ziran’s camp will return... We have to use this time well. If we don’t find proof showing that woman is pretending to be the president, we’re in deep trouble...” An elder gritted his teeth.

However, Third Elder Li Si merely smiled and languidly said, “Don’t worry. That woman will die when she returns.”

The other two elders were startled, not understanding him.

“Third Elder, what do you mean... If you haven’t found evidence that proves that woman is the fake president... you mustn’t act. Don’t forget the rules we established with the other camps...” said a white-haired elderly man with a frown.

“Since I said that, I’ve naturally found proof.” Third Elder Li Si smiled.

The white-haired elderly man was surprised. “Are you serious, Third Elder?!”

“Of course.” Third Elder Li Si called outside the door, “Bring him inside.”
