

Little Sweet 1491

Chapter 1491: What? Old but vigorous?

“President, there’s something this subordinate doesn’t understand.” Third Elder Li Si walked toward Ye Wanwan and asked with confusion, “Why did you allow Ling Huo to leave today, President?”

Ye Wanwan glanced at Third Elder. She didn’t have any bad blood with the buzz-cut man—whether it was the past or present—so what use did she have for his life?

Of course, Ye Wanwan kept that to herself. “I have my reasons for releasing him.”

Third Elder turned pensive for a moment before giving her a giant thumbs up and reverently saying, “I knew you didn’t release him for a simple reason, President... The President is indeed the President. Your foresight is absolutely brilliant!”

Ye Wanwan was baffled as she looked at Li Si. What did I say? Isn’t Li Si’s flattery a bit...

Moreover, he clearly had a vicious personality but suddenly made a turnaround. His familiarity made her feel like he was about to plaster his face to her. I find it rather creepy, okay?

She truly missed the old Li Si...

After leaving the dungeon, Ye Wanwan wanted to ask Big Dipper what happened after she got drunk along with the situation regarding Ling Huo and his Ironhead Gang.

However, she realized it was difficult to ask. If she asked directly, she was afraid other people would get suspicious, but if she asked covertly, Big Dipper probably wouldn’t understand her. If he didn’t understand her, it would be hard to get any information out of him.

Ye Wanwan strongly believed she had to have done something after getting drunk that caused all the Fearless Alliance’s higher-ups to change their attitudes toward her. Otherwise, there was no way they’d staunchly believe she was President Fearless for no reason...

Regardless of what happened after she got drunk, it was a good thing these higher-ups didn’t doubt her identity anymore.

Ye Wawan was still curious about what she did while drunk that caused these old geezers who plotted to kill her to become so complacent and obedient. Could she really be the president of the Fearless Alliance, Bai Feng?

Before Ye Wanwan could ponder over it anymore, her phone started ringing.

Ye Wanwan glanced at her phone. It was Nameless Nie calling.

“Haha, Boss Famous, how are you doing?” Nameless Nie’s laughter resounded from the phone.

“Fine, not dead yet,” Ye Wanwan snapped.

Nameless Nie was seriously too good at digging pits! If it weren’t for him eating from both ends, would she have been poisoned by some love gu?!

“Boss Famous, you’re old but vigorous, so how could you be dead!” Nameless Nie replied hurriedly.

What? Old but vigorous?!

“Sister Famous Ye, I’m at the place we met last time! Come quickly; I won’t leave until I see you!” Nameless Nie didn’t give Ye Wanwan a chance to respond before swiftly hanging up the phone.

“Then wait patiently,” Ye Wanwan muttered between gritted teeth while glaring at her phone.

Ye Wanwan called Big Dipper over and played a game of Fight the Landlord. Only after winning all the cash on Big Dipper’s body did she contently head to the meeting place with Nameless Nie.

Several hours later, Ye Wanwan finally entered the teahouse and immediately saw Nameless Nie sitting at the table in the corner.

Nameless Nie quickly stood up. “D*mn... Boss Famous, aren’t you too good at digging pits... You’re finally here! You didn’t pick up any of my calls.”

Ye Wanwan didn’t respond. She sat down and drank a cup of tea before looking at Nameless Nie and languidly saying, “No matter how good I am at digging pits... I’m still not as good as your esteemed self.”

Chapter 1492: I’m saying you’re the one digging pits

Nameless Nie instantly grinned. “Haha, Boss Famous, look at what you’re saying. Why are you saying ‘your esteemed self’? It’s too formal for our relationship...”

Ye Wanwan: “...”

Isn’t there something wrong with your freaking point?! Am I talking about honorifics?! I’m saying you’re the one digging pits!!!

“Why did you call me here?” Ye Wanwan glanced at Nameless Nie.

Nameless Nie rubbed his hands and giggled. “Boss Famous... say, the mercenary mission is finished... so about the remaining balance...”

So Nameless Nie called me here to ask for money, huh?!

Ye Wanwan looked at him incredulously. Who gave him the guts to shamelessly ask me for money?!

“Nameless Nie, how could you be so shameless?!” Ye Wanwan laughed in outrage.

“Boss Famous, what is it...?” Nameless Nie looked innocent.

“How do you have the face to ask me for money...” Ye Wanwan wanted nothing more than to kill Nameless Nie with a slap. “You accepted my mission but also accepted the Yuan family’s mission. You were rather clever, eating from both sides... As if that wasn’t enough, they freaking caused me to be poisoned by Dead Man’s love gu... then just dusted off their asses and left! Now, my love gu still isn’t cured, so what do you say? How will you compensate me?”

Nameless Nie blinked. “Huh. love gu? Isn’t it mutually-in-love gu? You can randomly find someone you like to cure this kind of gu, Boss Famous! It’s super easy!”

Ye Wanwan took a deep breath and lashed at him without holding back, “How would I know?! I’d have to ask you! The doctor said that thing evolved in my body!”

Nameless Nie glanced outside the window and suddenly chuckled. “Sister Famous Ye, look, there’s a breeze and the sun is shining; the weather is quite nice today.”

“Boss Famous, look at how round the moon is!” Nameless Nie amended hastily.

“I don’t know if it’s round, but it does look as big as your face,” Ye Wanwan said.

“Hahaha, Sister Famous Ye, I still have something to do. I gotta leave now.” Nameless Nie made to stand up and leave.

“Don’t leave yet.” Ye Wanwan grasped his shoulder. “I still haven’t paid you.”

Nameless Nie shook his head frantically. “Sister Famous Ye, what are you saying?! You’re simply humiliating me right now! What relationship do we have?”

“We’re sworn brothers and best friends who walk through life hand in hand. Aren’t you slapping my face by paying me to hire a few mercenaries from me? You absolutely can’t!”

Ye Wanwan was bewildered. He was seriously the king of acting himself...

Why didn’t she discover Nameless Nie’s talents back in China? If she knew, it would’ve been a breeze to help him obtain a Best Actor!

Also, sworn brothers? When did she become sworn brothers with him?

“So what should we do about my gu poison?” Ye Wanwan glanced at Nameless Nie.

“Haha... Sister Famous Ye, you’re truly too impressive! This is my first time hearing about someone being poisoned by mutually-in-love gu who caused that gu to turn into love gu. But don’t worry, it’s no big deal! It’s just love gu...”

“With your looks, Boss Famous, it’d be easy peasy for you to find someone to love and be loved in return! This gu won’t kill you,” Nameless Nie explained.

Chapter 1493: Can you bring Tangtang outside?

Ye Wanwan snorted. That’s easy for Nameless Nie to say since he’s not the one poisoned!

“Sister Famous, don’t worry. The love gu might be the king of gu, but its purpose is to make people live more blissfully, not to take away its carriers’ lives... What’s there to be afraid about with this kind of gu? Ah... I also want to find someone to be poisoned by love gu with... but there aren’t any suitable candidates unfortunately...”

“Also, Sister Famous, did you know? It’s very challenging to nurture love gu. The amount of manpower, materials, and money exhausted isn’t something you can imagine...”

“There used to be countless people who were willing to spend all their wealth to purchase love gu, but they weren’t able to obtain it. The love gu’s price is unimaginably high!” Nameless Nie said while earnestly looking at Ye Wanwan.

Ye Wanwan trembled angrily when she heard him, her lips twitching slightly. Freaking... she was poisoned by love gu, but Nameless Nie was depicting it like she’d obtained some awesome bounty?!

“Sister Famous, you’re the only one! If it was anyone else who got Dead Man’s love gu, we wouldn’t let them leave unless they paid us millions of dollars... But considering our relationship... it’s too vulgar to mention money... Right, Sister Famous?” Nameless Nie grinned at her.

After personally encountering Nameless Nie’s thick skin, Ye Wanwan lacked the desire to keep talking to him.

Nameless Nie saw Ye Wanwan’s expression and nodded with satisfaction. “That’s right, Sister Famous... Being poisoned by love gu itself is a matter worthy of great celebration and joy... Oh, you should come to my house in two days. The Little Devil rather misses you.”

Ye Wanwan finally livened up at the mention of Tangtang.

“How is Tangtang doing lately...?” Ye Wanwan asked him.

“I don’t know... I’m not home often. I’m a boss myself, and you know how a lot of business means a lot of social functions... Ah... it’s the life of a man... nothing to be done.” Nameless Nie sent Ye Wanwan a “You get me” look.

“I’m free in the next few days... so I can visit Tangtang,” Ye Wanwan said to Nameless Nie after a moment of thought.

Ye Wanwan truly did miss Tangtang. She’d be content if she could see Tangtang again...

“Sure, I’ll come pick you up in a few days.” Nameless Nie nodded eagerly.

“Can you bring Tangtang outside?” Ye Wanwan probed.

She didn’t know the current situation with the Nie family, so she didn’t want to go to the Nie residence.

Especially since Madam Nie and Tangtang’s mother didn’t seem to be very welcoming of her...

Nie Linglong from the Nie family as well. If she visited the Nie residence, she’d probably be asking for ridicule and might not even see Tangtang. Hence, it’d be great if Nameless Nie could take Tangtang outside.

However, Nameless Nie shook his head with a baffled expression. “Sister Famous, why do you want me to take Tangtang outside? Can’t you just come home with me? I’ll tell Spray of Flowers and Dead Man to come over as well, and we can all share a meal together...”

“You can also get to know the family. With our relationship, it goes without saying that you can consider the Nie home as your own home. You can come visit Tangtang whenever you want; it’s no problem at all!!!”

Ye Wanwan: “...”

Chapter 1494: Got into a fight

Now he was saying they had a good relationship. Who was it who hounded her for every cent possible when she asked him for help...

“Alright.” Ye Wanwan agreed in the end. No matter what, being able to see Tangtang was good.

The next morning, Ye Wanwan arrived early to the office to take care of some confidential matters concerning the Fearless Alliance.

These past few days, Autumn Water had been searching for a remedy for the gu, and Big Dipper and Seven Star had also been running around like ants on a hot pan. On the other hand, Ye Wanwan acted unperturbed without a trace of worry, like nothing happened.

It wasn’t time yet.

As for the Fearless Alliance, Ye Wanwan could clearly feel that control over the Alliance had ended up in her hands completely.

Previously, Ye Wanwan could only sit in the office and deal with the daily trivial matters of the Fearless Alliance, but now, she started coming into contact with the core of the Alliance.

Regardless of whether her decisions were reasonable or unreasonable, there wasn’t a single voice of dissent in the Fearless Alliance. They all did as she said, and flattering calls of “The President is brilliant” rang every which way.

Ye Wanwan was overcome by emotion. The current Fearless Alliance was no longer the old Fearless Alliance; it had changed...

She strongly believed that the true cause of her ability to grasp control of the Alliance and the lack of suspicion and subsequent whole-hearted obedience from First Elder and Third Elder was related to her previous drunken episode...

Otherwise, these changes couldn’t be explained.

She was immensely curious, but she couldn’t ask other people what she did while drunk. If she asked, wouldn’t it be equivalent to exposing herself...

“Sis Feng!”

Ye Wanwan was trying her best to recall the events after she got drunk when Big Dipper opened the doors and swaggered into the office.

“When will you finally change your bad habit of being so unnecessarily rowdy?” Ye Wanwan jolted from Big Dipper’s shrill scream, all her thoughts disrupted.

“Sis Feng, did you know? Scarlet Flames Academy and Stars and Sun Academy are fighting again! Near our Fearless Alliance too!” It was like Big Dipper didn’t hear what Ye Wanwan said at all and was completely absorbed in his own world.

“Scarlet Flames Academy... and Stars and Sun Academy?” Ye Wanwan was taken aback.

Ye Wanwan naturally knew about these two mercenary academies.

There were countless mercenary academies in the Independent State, but the three most renowned mercenary academies were called the Three Great Mercenary Academies.

And Scarlet Flames Academy and Stars and Sun Academy just happened to be two of the Three Great Mercenary Academies.

These two academies had been known for being on bad terms. Aside from the higher-ups of each academy, its students frequently broke out in conflict.

The most tragic and ferocious clash supposedly happened because the students of the two academies were battling over an S-level mission. The nearby students all rushed over, and it erupted into a battle between the students of the two great mercenary academies that ended up with dozens of people dead and injured. Later, it progressed to a battle between the two academies.

Ye Wanwan had a basic grasp of the current situation in the Independent State, so she knew the history of the Three Great Mercenary Academies.

“What happened?” Ye Wanwan asked Big Dipper.

How did the students of the Scarlet Flames Academy and Stars and Sun Academy get into a fight in the Fearless Alliance’s territory?

Chapter 1495: Deep hypnotism

Big Dipper walked toward Ye Wanwan immediately and said, “I heard it was because several students of the Scarlet Flames Academy wanted to give a birthday gift to their headmaster and happened to run into students from the Stars and Sun Academy. Scarlet Flames and Stars and Sun were mortal enemies to begin with... so their students started fighting too.”

Big Dipper continued, “Sis Feng, Scarlet Flames Academy’s headmaster is super amazing. They say his capability of deep hypnosis is unrivaled in the Independent State. His hypnotism can cause people to fall asleep instantly and unearth normal people’s inner fears and potentials. He’s a legend of his generation. As for the headmaster of the Stars and Sun Academy, his name also spreads far and wide...”

Ye Wanwan chose to ignore Big Dipper’s prattling.

However, what Big Dipper said about the headmaster of the Scarlet Flames Academy did stir Ye Wanwan's thoughts.

Deep hypnotism... If it could unearth people's fears and potential... What... what about lost memories?

If the headmaster of the Scarlet Flames Academy was truly this talented, could she... have him help her? If she could retrieve all her lost memories...

Ye Wanwan recalled the memory fragments that suddenly flashed through her mind that day at the Ji residence.

Perhaps she would be able to discover traces of her background if she started from the Scarlet Flames Academy...

"Sis Feng, the students of Scarlet Flames Academy and Stars and Sun Academy are still fighting. The elders have gone over already. Do you also want to take a look? If these students die in our territory, it'd be a bit troublesome," Big Dipper said.

Ye Wanwan's eyes shifted, and she stood up immediately. "Let's go and see."

In an empty space near the Fearless Alliance's headquarters, about 10-20 men and women were in a chaotic mess of battles, swords, sabers and other weapons flying everywhere.

"Stop!"

First Elder got a migraine while watching these students from the two great academies. They could fight anywhere, so why did they just have to fight in the Fearless Alliance's territory?

If there were any deaths on either side, Scarlet Flames and Stars and Sun would probably demand an explanation from them again.

"We told you to stop! Are you all deaf?"

First Elder shouted coldly when he saw that he was ignored, his brows locking together.

However, First Elder's words were akin to air. No one paid him any heed.

Eventually, First Elder ordered the Fearless Alliance members next to him: "Separate them."

The members obeyed immediately and dashed forward. But before they could do anything, they were knocked onto the ground by the students.

First Elder originally only wanted to try to stop the fight, but when he saw these two groups were unappreciative of his gesture, he merely snorted and didn't say anything else. They could all die for all he cared. It'd be even better if they all died.

About 15 minutes later, the students of Scarlet Flames Academy were all lying on the ground. Several young men and women from the Stars and Sun Academy walked forward and stepped onto them, wanting to eliminate them at the roots.

Third Elder's expression shifted upon seeing that, and he darkly ordered, "Stop."

The students from Stars and Sun Academy turned around upon hearing that and swept their eyes over Li Si and the others.

The female leader of the Stars and Sun Academy group snorted and stared at Li Si. "I was wondering who it was. It turns out it's the infamous Fearless Alliance... Hm? Why did the Fearless Alliance come running here to stick your nose into other people's business instead of committing murder and arson? What? Did the Fearless Alliance change careers?"

Chapter 1496: You're nothing

"Hahaha, Senior Sister, they're the Fearless Alliance after all. They didn't even fear the four great clans when they were at their peak, so shouldn't us mercenary students give them some face?"

The female leader's lips turned up and she snorted. "Something like face isn't meant for giving. It's meant for being thrown and stomped beneath people's feet. Am I right, people from the Fearless Alliance?"

The Fearless Alliance higher-ups' expressions all shifted. If these punks didn't have Stars and Sun Academy backing them up, they'd be dead by now for daring to humiliate the Fearless Alliance like this!

However, the Fearless Alliance had to give some face to the Three Great Mercenary Academies.

Moreover, this conflict didn't have anything to do with the Fearless Alliance. They merely didn't want anyone to die on their territory.

"Hurry and release them! You can fight if you want; just don't fight on the Fearless Alliance's territory." A Fearless Alliance higher-up made an impatient shooing motion with his hand.

"Oh... Since when did your Fearless Alliance have the face to tell us where to fight? Hahaha, isn't the Fearless Alliance too good at pasting gold onto their faces?" The female leader looked derisive.

"Don't waste your words with them. Bring the students from Scarlet Flames over here," First Elder ordered coldly.

"Yes." Several Fearless Alliance members strode forward and made to grab the students from Scarlet Flames Academy.

"I think you want to die!"

A cold glint flashed through the female leader's eyes, and she instantly attacked the Fearless Alliance members.

When the Fearless Alliance members saw this, they could only defend themselves but didn't dare to retaliate.

The consequences would be inconceivable if they injured or killed the students from Stars and Sun Academy.

Forced to stay on the defense, the Fearless Alliance members were sent flying back within moments.

“Don’t go too far!” a Fearless Alliance member shouted darkly.

“Oh?” The female leader of Stars and Sun Academy grinned. “Do you really consider yourself important? In our eyes, the Fearless Alliance is nothing...”

“Oh right, some major factions recently posted a mission for assassinating the president of the Fearless Alliance. Why don’t we accept this mission when we return and take away your president’s dog head?”

Before the Fearless Alliance higher-up could retort, a peal of bone-chilling laughter was heard from behind them. “Sure! Why don’t you take my head back now? Wouldn’t that be more convenient?”

Ye Wanwan led Big Dipper, Seven Star, and a countless number of Fearless Alliance members to the clearing.

“Who are you? How dare you speak to me like this?!” The female leader of Stars and Sun Academy derisively stared at Ye Wanwan.

“President...”

Third Elder, First Elder, and the other Fearless Alliance higher-ups all bowed at Ye Wanwan upon seeing her.

Ye Wanwan nodded in response.

“She’s the president of the Fearless Alliance...?”

The students from Stars and Sun Academy were surprised. Rumors claimed the president of the Fearless Alliance wasn’t that old, but... no one expected her to be so young...

“Hmph, what a joke! So what if you’re President Fearless? You’re nothing to me.” The female leader of Stars and Sun snorted.

Ye Wanwan’s lips turned up with a wicked smile.

In truth, the life and death of the students from the two great mercenary academies had nothing to do with her, but...

Chapter 1497: Give you two paths

However, she did want to get acquainted with the headmaster of Scarlet Flames Academy and see if he could use his unique deep hypnosis to help her retrieve her memories.

Hence, Ye Wanwan had to make her presence known and help the students from the Scarlet Flames Academy. Otherwise, why should their headmaster help her?

“I’ll give you two paths. Get lost or die,” Ye Wanwan said to the students from Stars and Sun Academy with a light chuckle.

The female leader of Stars and Sun Academy derisively looked at Ye Wanwan. “President Fearless, who do you think you are? I don’t believe you’d touch a single hair on Stars and Sun’s students!”

“Slap her mouth,” Ye Wanwan ordered aloofly.

“Yes,” Seven Star answered and strode toward the female leader of Stars and Sun Academy.

“You’re dead!” The female leader of Stars and Sun Academy instantly swung her hand, striking Seven Star.

However, Seven Star merely lifted his right arm and shook off the woman’s hand. Before she could react, he ruthlessly slapped her mouth.

Everyone heard a crisp slap and the woman staggered back.

Seven Star glanced at the woman and turned to leave without looking back.

“You...” The woman glared at Ye Wanwan furiously, wishing nothing more than to skin her alive.

The students of Stars and Sun Academy’s expressions all shifted. President Fearless didn’t look like she was bluffing to intimidating them at all!

“Senior Sister... let’s hurry and leave. The president of the Fearless Alliance is a lunatic! If we don’t leave now, we might really die here!” a student from Stars and Sun Academy urged the woman.

The female leader’s expression also changed when she saw so many Fearless Alliance members advancing toward her.

She originally thought the Fearless Alliance wouldn’t dare to attack them, but it now looked like... the president of the Fearless Alliance didn’t have any scruples about it!

“Withdraw!” the woman commanded almost instantly and led the Stars and Sun students away.

“Chase them! Kill them!” Big Dipper made to chase after them with the other members.

Ye Wanwan grabbed him by his shoulder.

“Sis Feng... what is it?” Big Dipper turned to Ye Wanwan in confusion.

Didn’t Sis Feng say to kill them...?

“Haven’t you heard of the saying ‘Don’t chase your cornered enemies’?” Ye Wanwan asked.

“Oh...” Big Dipper nodded. “Fine... we won’t chase them then.”

Ye Wanwan turned to Third Elder. “Li Si, send those students of the Scarlet Flames Academy back.”

Li Si was startled and reflexively asked, “Send them back where, President?”

“Back to Scarlet Flames Academy,” Ye Wanwan replied. “Bring more people to avoid those students from Stars and Sun Academy coming out again to seek trouble.”

“Eh...” Li Si was baffled. Saving them was nice enough already, but the President wanted to escort them back?

“Is that a problem?” Ye Wanwan asked.

“No. This subordinate will do that now.” Li Si waved his hand and had some Fearless Alliance members carry several injured Scarlet Flames students.

Since that was the President’s order, he naturally wouldn’t keep questioning it. He just had to do as she said.

After resolving that matter, Ye Wanwan returned to her office.

The memories of Scarlet Flames Academy that flashed through her head that day at the Ji residence was too blurry, so she didn’t obtain any useful clues, but they were very realistic.

It appeared she could start with the Scarlet Flames Academy...

Chapter 1498: Help me order a bouquet of flowers

Autumn Water returned the next evening.

“Autumn Water, you’re back.” Ye Wanwan looked at Autumn Water, who entered after knocking, with a smile.

Autumn Water hastily walked forward and grasped Ye Wanwan’s hand while carefully examining her. “Xiao Feng, are you alright? How’s your body?”

Ye Wanwan shrugged. “There aren’t any problems; it’s pretty good.”

Autumn Water sighed with relief. “Thankfully, you should be safe for three months... Xiao Feng, don’t worry. The Independent State is so large, and there are so many capable people with special talents here. We’ll definitely find a solution with the Fearless Alliance’s power. Emperor Ji is also helping.”

“Moreover, we aren’t the only ones worried; there’s still Asura! They won’t allow Lord Asura to die!” Autumn Water said.

Ye Wanwan smiled. “I know, Autumn Water. Don’t worry, I won’t die so easily.”

Autumn Water nodded with a concerned expression and reminded Ye Wanwan, “Oh right, Xiao Feng, even though you were forced by the circumstances after being poisoned by gu last time... To avoid any unnecessary misunderstandings, you should make a gesture on Emperor Ji’s side! Don’t cause any bad blood with him!”

Hm? Forced by the circumstances?

Although Ye Wanwan didn’t feel like she was forced at all back then...

Autumn Water was right; she did need to explain herself to Emperor Ji. Hence, she nodded and said, “OK, I know. I’ll go pacify him.”

“Good...” Autumn Water was confident in Bai Feng’s pacifying skills, so she relaxed.

Not long after Autumn Water left, Seven Star and Big Dipper came to discuss some business with her.

After their discussion ended, Ye Wanwan stopped them from leaving.

Ye Wanwan lifted her hand. "Hey, hold on!"

Big Dipper and Seven Star stopped in their tracks, and Big Dipper's head turned back. "Sis Feng, is there anything else?"

Ye Wanwan twirled the fountain pen in her hand and looked pensive for a moment before instructing, "Big Dipper, help me order a bouquet of flowers."

It's almost time for me to start my plan...

Big Dipper scratched his head, bewildered. "Order flowers?"

"Yes. I want... hm, how about roses!" Ye Wanwan said decisively.

"Huh? Ss Feng, why do you want to buy roses? Since when did you like these showy things?" Big Dipper asked with confusion.

Ye Wanwan's lips turned up, and she nonchalantly. "It's not me who likes them. Things like roses are naturally meant as gifts for other people."

Big Dipper was shocked. "Gifts? Who do you want to give it to, Sis Feng?!"

His eyes suddenly brightened. "Sh*t! Sis Feng, I know! You can't be giving them to... Lord Asura, right?! Sis Feng, you're finally preparing to make a move!"

Ye Wanwan glanced at him dryly. "No."

Big Dipper was startled before misery flooded his face. "What wild man did you take a liking to again, Sis Feng? Who are you giving them to if not Lord Asura?"

Seven Star also sent her a suspicious gaze.

Ye Wanwan glanced at them and aloofly answered, "Ji Xiuran."

Big Dipper: "..."

Seven Star: "..."

Big Dipper was flabbergasted for half a day before finally regaining his senses. He wanted to cry. "Sh*t! Emperor... Emperor Ji? Sis Feng, kill me! I'm begging you; there are so many people in the Independent State. Why can't you find an easier person to pursue?"

Ye Wanwan gave him side-eye. "When have you ever seen me do anything easy?"

Chapter 1499: 999 White Roses

Ye Wanwan continued, "Stop dawdling around. Do as I say. Oh right, I want white roses! White roses should suit Ji Xiuran rather well..."

Big Dipper was on the brink of a breakdown. "Is that the main point, Sis Feng? Are you listening to me? Also, why are you planning on giving roses to a man? He'll think it's humiliating, okay?"

“Isn’t it enough that you just pissed off Lord Asura? If you piss off Emperor Ji too, our Fearless Alliance is going to be destroyed to smithereens! Also, your life is still in Lord Asura’s hands! Can’t you save your life first? Even if you want to pursue someone, you should be pursuing Lord Asura!”

Ye Wanwan raised her brows. “You think Lord Asura will fall in love with me?”

“He won’t!” Big Dipper shook his head without any hesitation.

Ye Wanwan’s lips twitched at Big Dipper’s resolute answer. “Since I’m going to die anyway, does it matter who I give flowers to?”

Big Dipper was about to cry. “Sis Feng... what kind of twisted logic is that...?”

Ye Wanwan waved her hand impatiently and said, “Enough already. 999 white roses, alright? You can’t be short a single one, and I want the freshest and prettiest!”

“... Sis Feng, can I turn this down?” Big Dipper protested feebly.

Ye Wanwan didn’t say anything and merely glanced at him cheerfully.

A shiver went down Big Dipper’s back as he remembered his president bloodily trouncing Ling Huo. He miserably changed his direction. “Buy... buy, buy, buy. I’ll go and buy them now, alright...?!”

Seven Star stood in his spot and glanced at Ye Wanwan with a complicated look.

Upon seeing Seven Star holding back from talking, Ye Wanwan said, “What? What do you want to say?”

Seven Star said, “Nothing. You naturally have your own reasons for doing this, Sis Feng.”

Ye Wanwan nodded with satisfaction. “It’s still Seven Star who knows me best. Emperor Ji helped me this time, so I’m merely giving him a bouquet of flowers to express my thanks. Is that a problem?”

Big Dipper listened to Ye Wanwan’s “earnest” explanation and grumbled, “Fabricate... Keep fabricating...”

Big Dipper had no choice. He didn’t dare to disobey Ye Wanwan’s orders, so he quickly went to the flower shop and bought 999 white roses as Ye Wanwan requested, not daring to miss a single one.

After ordering the flowers, Big Dipper dismally brought it back to Ye Wanwan with a miserable expression for her to check them.

“Sis Feng, the flowers are ready. Inspect them...”

Ye Wanwan looked at the roses and nodded. “Alright, drive my car here and put all the flowers in the trunk!”

“Okay...”

Big Dipper drove Bai Feng’s limited edition bright red Ferrari sports car over. Then he and Seven Star carefully placed all the roses into the trunk.

Ye Wanwan nodded with satisfaction. “Done. Let’s go!”

Big Dipper glanced at the trunk of roses and the auspicious bright red Ferrari, horror evident on his face. “Sis Feng, you aren’t planning to give it to Emperor Ji like this, right?!”

Ye Wanwan: “What? You have a problem with that?”

“Sis Feng! You’re crazy! Even if you want to give them, you should at least give them secretly! Isn’t this too freaking ostentatious? Aren’t you going to make it known to everyone and embarrass Emperor Ji in public?! Emperor Ji might look friendly, but he absolutely isn’t a saint! By giving him, a man, a bunch of roses, what’s the difference between this and provocation?!” Big Dipper said, frightened.

“Ostentatious... Make it known to everyone...” Ye Wanwan murmured.

That was exactly what she wanted—ostentatious. She wanted everyone to be aware.

What she was afraid of was a certain someone remaining in the dark.

Chapter 1500: Sima Zhao’s trick is obvious

In the end, Ye Wanwan directly drove to the location of Emperor Ji’s faction.

Big Dipper and Seven Star were worried, so they followed her. The whole drive there, Big Dipper tried his best to persuade Ye Wanwan, but she remained unperturbed and unmoved.

As they spoke, the bright red Ferrari drifted and arrived in front of an ancient European-style building.

Through the window, they could see a group of people walking out of the building. The leading man with his elegant and graceful aura and gentle bearing was Emperor Ji.

Walking behind Emperor Ji were a few higher-ups from Emperor Ji’s faction and several leaders from other organizations—all influential figures in the Independent State. They probably just happened to be discussing some business together today.

“Emperor Ji, will you grace me with your presence and share a meal with me? I’ve already booked the hotel!”

Several powerful figures extended invitations simultaneously.

Inside the car, Big Dipper wanted to cry when he saw how many people there were. There were so many respectable and prestigious figures there. If Sis Feng really did carry out her plan in front of everyone, he didn’t want to imagine the scene.

“What thanks... Sis Feng... you aren’t giving your thanks... You know that trying to hide it just makes it more conspicuous, right... You’re trying to cover your ears while stealing a bell... You should know Sima Zhao’s trick is obvious to every man on the street!”

Ye Wanwan rubbed Big Dipper’s dog head and opened the door to leave.

On the other hand, Ji Xiuran was about to respond when his eyes caught something nearby.

The people around him all automatically followed his gaze.

Everyone watched as a bright red Ferrari stopped in front of the entrance with a screech. A moment later, the door opened, and a handsome and lively girl wearing black tight-fitting clothes with her hair in a ponytail exited the car, causing the viewers' eyes to brighten.

"Who is that girl..." a leader murmured.

Ye Wanwan had been doing things pretty high-profile lately, so someone soon recognized her. A shocked exclamation was heard from the crowd. "Bai... Bai Feng... Isn't that Bai Feng?!"

"Bai Feng? That Bai Feng?"

"How many Bai Fengs are there in the Independent State?! Of course it's the President of the Fearless Alliance, Bro Flattop!"

"WHAT?! Bro Flattop?"

Everyone's expressions shifted when they heard the words "Fearless Alliance" and "Bro Flattop."

The Fearless Alliance was truly worthy of being the most notorious faction; their name was truly deafening.

"Are you mistaken? Bro Flattop is actually a delicate girl like this?" someone asked with disbelief.

Another person asked, "Delicate? Are you kidding me? Earlier, Ling Huo from the Ironhead Gang arrived on their doorstep to pick a fight with them, and he ended up being pummeled by Bro Flattop single-handedly!"

Everyone was horrified when they heard this, and many people subconsciously retreated.

Ling Huo was a ruthless character in the Independent State. He was destroyed and replaced by the Fearless Alliance back then. To their surprise, he made a comeback several years later, only to be pummeled and beaten black and blue once again.

After their president disappeared, the Fearless Alliance wasn't as powerful as before, but it appeared they were about to make a resurgence...

"Why did Bro Flattop come today? She can't be seeking trouble again, right?!"

"The Fearless Alliance is utterly egotistical! This is Emperor Ji's territory! How dare they act so insolently?"

"Ahem, they're the Fearless Alliance... What don't they dare to do... Didn't they eliminate several of Emperor Ji's branches a few years ago..."

"We should snuff out such malignant tumors in the Independent State!"

"That's right!"

Although everyone was screaming for blood, no one dared to step forward.
