Chapter 2887

“What’s your attitude?” Hank said in an unpleasant tone, “your mother is in poor health. you came back, and she didn’t know it. She talks about you every day.”

“She doesn’t have Cindy anymore. Do you want to talk about what I do?” Chester said mockingly.

Hank Jewell: “That’s not because you are not by our side. We are lonely. Only Cindy often accompanies your mother. Cindy has fulfilled all the responsibilities you failed to fulfill. Speaking of which, Cindy is really a good girl.”

Chester was speechless.

If it weren’t for the fact that he and Hank looked alike, he really doubted that they were not his biological parents.

He didn’t know how his brain grew.

was it because people got older and their brains shrink.

“Heh, if you don’t have the money I gave you in your pockets, can Cindy be nice to you?” Chester sneered, “I heard that you recently spent a lot of money to open a company for Cindy, take it easy, when the time comes Don’t ask me for money.”

“Son, you are a jerk, you are talking about people...” Before Hank finished speaking, Chester hung up.

“You batard, you batard.” On the other side, Hank almost smashed his phone in arrogance.

“Don’t be angry, the doctor said that your blood pressure is high again, but don’t be so angry,” Mrs. Jewell comforted her husband, “Chester really doesn’t plan to come back to see us, where did he live, and he wasn’t in the villa?”

“I don’t know.” Hank frowned deeply, “No Young master Chadwick said that he saw Kaiden in the furniture city a few days ago, so he must have come back, Kaiden has always followed him.”

“Oh, you Tell him why he is so cruel.” Mrs. Jewell looked disappointed, “It’s fine for the company to give it to others, and no one even comes back to see me. It’s really a waste of life to give birth to him.”

Hank snorted coldly, "If you're not cruel, how can you take away the nutrition of the other twin just to survive in your stomach, even your own brother, forget it, this son can't be counted on, but The Jewell family can't have no successor, and the things in his hands can't be cheap like Eliza."

Mrs. Jewell sighed, "Didn't Cindy agree to give birth to a child for our Jewell family, but Chester won't come back. She is powerless by herself."

"Don't worry, as long as he comes back, I will have a way for him to have a child with Cindy." Hank sneered, "when there is a grandson, I don't want this son."

Mrs. Jewell shook her head, "Cindy is very good and knows how to repay her kindness. I still treat her like my own daughter, but after all, it is not my own, and it will be different with our grandson."

The couple had a good plan.

Even someone as smart as Chester would never have imagined such a ridiculous idea.

In the villa, Kaiden was quickly called by Chester.

Chester: "Dad knows that I'm back, I haven't disclosed any rumors here, did you leak it?"

Kaiden was stunned, then patted his head, "When I went to the home furnishing market a few days ago, it seemed that I met Mr. Chadwick. Now, Mr. Chadwick worked with you before, but after your accident, he seems to be with your father."

"No wonder." Chester frowned, "In the future, pay attention when you go out, and don't let Hank's people check here and I don't want to disturb Eliza's family's cleanliness."

Kaiden: "Okay."

"Also, check Cindy's current details and assets." Chester arranged it, "Although I hate my Dad, but the two of them are in their hands. The money is also earned by me, so I can't let Cindy cheat it out without any reason."

Kaiden: "I'll do it right away."

Kaiden nodded, "By the way, at the hospital, the dean contacted me several times, saying that he wanted to ask you when to go back. Since you left, the dean met me at the hospital. There are several very difficult conditions, and at present, there is no one in Australia that can compare to you in intracranial surgery.”

Chester looked down at his hands, and said slowly, “I have been away from the operating table for more than a year, and my hands are early. It’s unfamiliar, forget it.”

Kaiden: “The director means that even if you don’t want to have surgery, you can go to the outpatient clinic.”

“Let’s talk about it.” Chester looked at the yard next door nonchalantly.

Kaiden was helpless, it seemed that Hank Jewell now had no intention of doing anything other than guarding the guy next door.

...

In the yard next door.

Charity finished feeding Lisa and just handed Lisa to Sister Lane when she received a call from Hugo Cheever.

Hugo: “Do you have time today, come to Fraga Pictures, I want to talk to you about something.”

Charity: “Okay, I’ll come over in the morning.”

Charity and Hugo had not been working together for a day or two. Hugo handled the company very well, rarely bothered Charity, and it was probably very important to let her go to Fraga Pictures.

10 o’clock in the morning.

The car drove into the parking lot below Fraga Pictures and took the elevator to the 15th floor. Just as the elevator door opened, Charity met an old acquaintance who she hadn’t seen for a long time.

Shedrick Daley, once the president of Felix Media, he was also the deputy who followed Chester to open up territory in the entertainment industry.

Today’s Shedrick Daley was less energetic than he used to be. He looked very depressed and held a resume in his hand.

Looking at each other, Shedrick’s eyes flashed with embarrassment, “Miss Eliza, long time no see.”

Eliza: “President Daley...”

“Don’t call me President Daley.” Shedrick waved his hand, “Felix Media has already closed down.”

Charity paid little attention to Felix Media’s affairs for a long time, but Felix Media’s collapse should be related to her. Before, she and Chester when broke up, she took advantage of Fraga picture’s acquisition of FYG Videos, spared no effort to find Felix Media’s artists to change jobs, and was unwilling to directly break out scandals and suppress them, making Felix Media’s employees unable to get along in the entertainment industry directly.

For a while, Charity didn’t know what to say, but she didn’t regret what she did.

The entertainment industry was like this, intrigue.

It’s just that she doesn’t feel bad about Shedrick.

“Mr. Daley, what are you doing today?” Charity looked at the resume in his hand suspiciously.

Shedrick said unnaturally, “Aren’t you looking for a producer? I’ll see if I can come over and apply for it.”

Charity was slightly surprised, “With your ability, you can form a team, be a producer, and make a network. A drama or something.”

“I also planned this before, but since Young master Jewell’s accident, I have no support here, plus the people who have offended me in the past have dug a hole and obstructed it.” Shedrick sighed, “It’s not very easy to deal with anyway. I couldn’t even make a web drama online, and I lost a lot of money.”

“I know your ability, I will tell President Cheever later, and try to let you come here as a producer.”

Shedrick was surprised, “You...”

Charity explained, “I did target Felix Media before, but it was a personal grievance between me and Chester, you are a qualified boss in my heart, I hope you don’t hate me either, if I hadn’t been cornered at that time, I wouldn’t have...”

“I know that Young master Jewell did too much at that time, and I persuaded him, but he was in your favor. I am very stubborn in matters and rarely listen to him, I just didn’t expect you to help me, but Cindy...”

Let me go, Mr. Hill Chapter 2889

Charity: "What happened to Cindy?"

Shedrick smiled bitterly, "Felix Media used a lot of resources to support Cindy, although it was ordered by Young master Jewell, but I, the president, didn't give her a face, she is now Well, because She became the big boss, I made things difficult for my former boss, and the web drama I filmed couldn't be launched normally, but she greeted people behind her back."

Charity was also speechless.

Although Shedrick was a bit of a bad actor in the entertainment industry, he liked to squeeze employees, but he was afraid that Cindy would fall if he didn't hold her in his palm.

Before Felix, many contracted artists were dissatisfied because the company was too good to Cindy.

In the end, Cindy still embarrassed Shedrick.

But Shedrick finally figured it out himself, "Of course, it's not like I haven't seen a person like Cindy. I used to think that I was an artist in my hands, but now I've finally turned around, I might be able to toss the former boss, Of course she enjoys it. I'm not as ruthless as her. I heard that when Mrs. Jewell was hospitalized, she poured tea and water, urine and feces, never underestimate how ambitious a person is, it's a bottomless pit."

Shedrick looked at Charity's question-marked eyes before explaining, "When Young master Jewell brought Cindy to Felix, he told me, how ambitious she was. As long as she could fulfill our dreams and got on the stage, it's enough. Later, she wanted to be a song queen with me, and I spent money to buy an award for her. She also wanted to be a movie queen. At first, she said that she only needs a house of hundred square meters. The house is satisfied, and later she asked for a villa, and now I'm afraid the villa couldn't be satisfied for a long time."

Charity listened to Shedrick and sighed for a while before saying goodbye and entering the president's office.

In addition to Hugo Cheever, there was also a slightly fat middle-aged man sitting inside.

Charity had also met at a meeting once before. This person was President Jones, in charge of FYG Videos.

"Ms. Eliza, you talked about going downstairs 20 minutes ago, why did you come in now?" President Jones shook hands with Charity enthusiastically.

“I just met Shedrick at the door.” Charity explained.

“He...” Hugo raised his eyebrows, “Shedrick has some skills, but we can’t keep him.”

“Why?” Charity thought it was because of herself, “Although Shedrick used to be my boss, he treated me well. I think he can be a producer or something, he is a director after all.”

Hugo and President Jones looked at each other, the former poured a cup of tea for Charity, “In addition to calling you here today, I want to discuss a major matter with you, you know KC Technology.”

Charity frowned, “It sounds familiar.”

“Last year, the former CEO of KC Technology passed away due to illness, and the company was in a mess. This CEO’s son wanted to inherit the company but he was too young and was suppressed by a group of shareholders. One of the ambitious shareholders somehow caught up with Cindy. Cindy made tens of billions from Hank Jewell and his wife and invested in it. With the help of Jewell’s family, she controlled KC Technology.”

Hugo sighed, “You don’t know, the former boss has developed a new type of back-end development and new technologies such as smart terminals and other core processors, which are now all in the hands of In Cindy’s hands.”

Charity suddenly remembered that she seemed to have heard Freya mention it a little bit before.

Charity: “What does this have to do with us?”

“It’s a big deal,” President Jones said eagerly, “Now FYG Videos is too popular, but the original system can’t support that many people, the software always has problems, and our data is too rudimentary, and new technologies from KC Technology are urgently needed now.”

Chapter 2890

“You want to cooperate with KC Technology, but Cindy is not willing?” Charity quickly grasped the point.

No wonder Hugo didn’t dare to ask for Shedrick. Cindy was behind Shedrick for him. At this time, his company accepted it. Wouldn’t that mean breaking up with Cindy?

“Cindy won’t say anything to make me kneel and beg her forgiveness.” Charity guessed coldly.

“That’s not true.” President Jones said embarrassingly, “Cindy said she could not pay, but she wanted 10% of FYG Company’s shares.”

Charity smiled playfully. Suddenly she realized that Cindy was really not the same as before.

Before, Cindy would only use despicable means to deal with herself, or sow discord behind her back, cry in front of Chester, and pretend to be pitiful.

She’s much smarter now.

FYG Company has become popular now. Cindy can only get 10% of the shares through technology, and she can’t get dividends every year. What’s more, 10% is not big or small, and she can be elected to the board of directors. With some more tossing, plus the contacts Jewell’s family gave her, maybe the people around her will slowly win over.

“Who gave this share?” Charity swept over the two people in front of her.

Hugo said embarrassedly: “Let one person give up one point, and the major shareholder two points. In fact, I don’t want to do this, but now the competition on various platforms is fierce, if you are a little careless, you will soon be overtaken. In this era, it was quickly eliminated at the time. At present, except our company, other platforms want to buy the new technology of KC Technology, but the prices offered by those platforms did not satisfy KC Technology, but I estimate that if our company refuses, there is no need to do so. For a long time, KC Technology will definitely cooperate with other platforms, it is just the length of time to run in.”

President Jones also nodded, “The technology of video websites is very important, if there are always bugs, not only the anchor will leave, the users will also leave. “

Charity frowned. If it was someone else, she would definitely agree without hesitation.

But it happened that this person was Cindy.

“Dong Dong!” The secretary knocked the door, came in and said, “Mr. Cheever, President Turner of KC Technology is here.”

Hugo looked at Charity, Charity nodded, “Let her come up.”

Three minutes later, Cindy Turner walked in from outside.

They hadn’t seen each other for more than a year. Cindy was a high-end luxury brand, full of momentum, completely aloof. In addition to the change in her temperament, her face seemed to have been adjusted. Before Cindy's facial features were still slightly flawed, Now the face with melon seeds, big eyes, straight nose, and sexy lips looks like a perfect face, but if anyone looked closely, it didn't seem to be much different from the common Internet celebrity face, and the recognition degree was a bit low.

Charity also noticed that her breasts also seemed to have been ripped a bit, and they were bigger than before.

Obviously, Mr. Jones, who was a little older beside her, straightened his eyes, and quickly got up and asked Cindy to sit down.

When Charity looked at Cindy, Cindy also looked at Charity.

She felt that Charity seemed to be different in some places, and she couldn't tell what was different.

"Eliza, I didn't expect you to be here." Cindy raised her delicate red lips and smiled, "I haven't seen you for a long time, have you gotten fat?"

"You have gained five or six pounds." Eliza said generously. She admitted that she had gained 20 pounds during pregnancy, but she lost a lot of weight after giving birth, but there must be some changes, but she could not be called fat, because she was too thin before.

Cindy said "tsk", "Still pay attention, you see that you used to be very temperamental in filming, but now that your fans see it, I'm afraid it will be shocking, especially those reporters speak very badly, and they have to scream Your auntie."

Chapter 2891

In the office.

Hugo Cheever and President Jones looked at each other nervously. They had just met, and they were already tense.

They were afraid that Charity would get angry. But Charity didn't, she just smiled calmly, "No, I think I'm pretty good like this. I have more meat, and it looks like I have more collagen, but it's you, I almost didn't recognize it. I didn't say you, Women should use less knives on their faces. Look at you, although the nose was a little flat before, but it was pure and natural. Do you feel stiff, could it be because your eyes are not easy to use, Mr. Cheever, what do you think of her face?"

Hugo's scalp was numb. If it was before, he wouldn't give Cindy any face, but now....

He knew that as long as what he said was bad, the cooperation between the two companies would probably collapse.

“I said two big beauties, big beauties, don’t embarrass me.” Hugo apologized, “I have to admit, you are all the most beautiful I have ever seen.”

Charity rolled her eyes at Hugo.

Cindy covered her lips and smiled tenderly, “President Cheever, if you want me to say, this woman has to stand up by herself, you see, I used to say hello to her, but she ignored me, but now, it’s all a beautiful woman. “

“The way you stand up is really special.” Charity said sarcastically.

“Eliza, I know what you think of me, no matter what means I use, I rely on my own ability to get the money.” Cindy said. She arrogantly played with the manicure she just got, “I don’t have any. Catherines’s family background is not as good as Freya’s. It is not like you to be able to find a Prime Minister’s son as a boyfriend. It is not like you. You are lucky. You see, we used to be actors, but in the end, you became the boss first. Wherever you go, you are respected, and I also see from you that if you want someone to give you a face in this circle, you must first be a boss.”

Charity wanted to laugh.

Was she out of luck?

It was the funniest sentence Charity had heard in so many years.

It’s just that she didn’t need to argue with Cindy.

“It’s really good to be a boss.” Charity pondered for a while, then said, “It’s normal for people to want to climb up, it’s really not easy for you to get to where you are without anything, Cindy, in fact, both of us are both now. I worked in the Canberra circle. I hope that I can become a businessman in the past. I have one more friend with the same interests and one less enemy in the shopping mall, which is good for each other.”

Cindy’s eyes flashed with surprise and then half-smiled, “Do you want to be friends with me in the mall? Eliza, have you forgotten our grievances in the entertainment industry, and also, Catherine and Freya have a bad relationship with me.”

“The reason I confessed my grievance to you is because of Chester, Chester is a thing of the past for me. As for Catherine and Freya, you used to be friends, to this point is nothing but jealousy, but you don’t need to be jealous of them for your status today.”

Charity spread her hands, “Look, being a friend is far better than being an enemy.”

Cindy stared at her for a while, before feeling that Charity was a woman Really born to mix shopping.

For the sake of profit, Charity could afford it and let it go. Unfortunately, she couldn't.

In the past, Charity's face and her dignity were trampled on the floor by Catherine, Freya, and Chester.

What did she stand up for, not to pick up her lost dignity and make those who once looked down on her pay the price?
