

LORD OF WAR

Chapter 5: .Commission

"Mr. Harley, are you sure he can do it?" The middle-aged man frowned slightly, and there was a little distrust in his eyes looking at Sean.

For this, Sean is a little helpless. [Malicious] The impact of this professional punishment in the game was only on the expenses of repairing equipment, purchasing potions, etc. Although it would also affect the attitude of some NPCs, it is not particularly serious. . But when this data goes to the real world of Miracle Continent, the situation becomes completely different. Although it will not become a cross-street rat that everyone shouts, but in many cases no one dares to approach him at all. This situation has continued. It changed slightly after Cecilia was picked up.

Now a month has passed. After completing a lot of commissioned tasks, Sean finally managed to bring the reputation of Sivr to friendly.

And the attitude of this middle-aged man also made Sean understand that this person is not from Sivr, otherwise he would not be so directed towards him. And after getting used to the scorching and distrustful world of this world for some time, Sean will naturally not be so annoyed, but he also decided in his heart. If this matter is really necessary for him, then he will kill him. Necessary, so his gaze shifted from the middle-aged man to Harley.

"This matter is really only he can do it." Harley saw Sean's gaze, how could he not know what Sean was thinking at the moment, it was not the first time he had dealt with Sean, so There was a bit of bitter smile on his face, "This is Mr. Du Luen. Strictly speaking, he is the employer this time."

"He's too young." Du Luen still had a look of distrust, and the aristocratic arrogance of him was clearly visible.

"He is indeed young, but he is the only one who can help us in the entire Suriland area." Halle frowned for the first time. Facing Du Luen's attitude, he was obviously a bit angry, "Mr. Du Luen, please don't forget. The purpose of our trip."

Du Luen glanced at Sean again, but this time he stopped talking and gave Harley the right to negotiate by default.

When Sean saw Harley turn his gaze to him, he smiled suddenly, but this smile made Harley shiver: "Only I can help in the entire Suriland area... It's the Forest of Xingyun ?"

"Do you want to sit on the floor and raise the price?" Du Luen reacted immediately.

Sean squinted at Du Luen, then continued to look at Harley, and smiled: "Let's talk about the content of the commission first."

"We are going through the Forest of Starfall." After Harley and Du Luen looked at each other, Du Luen said, "I heard you came out from inside..."

"Crossing?" Sean was taken aback for a moment, "Are you going to Minode area?"

"It is not the Minod region, but the Kingdom of Portoroa."

Hearing Du Luen's words, Sean's brows finally frowned: "This is a bit difficult."

The Forest of Starfall located in the Kingdom of Celian. Legend has it that at the end of the twilight period, a forest with powerful magic power was formed by the fall of stars. The trees in this forest grow extremely tall, and the sky is covered by the sun. No matter what kind of situation you enter this forest, you will always see the night sky like a dense starry sky. .

According to the truth, this kind of scenery should become a very famous tourist destination. But the facts are quite the opposite. Because the forest is full of chaotic and violent magic power, all the beasts living here have already been demonized and become extremely terrifying existences, and because the kingdoms of Selian and Portoroa once wanted to make this The forest was divided into its own territory and a protracted war broke out here. The soldiers who died here were affected by magic and became undead creatures. Therefore, the danger of this forest has long been spread.

If you cross to the northeast from Sivr in the Suriland area of the Kingdom of Serian, it is the Minod area of the Kingdom of Serri; and if you cross to the southeast, it is the road to the Kingdom of Portoroa.

If it is the former, it is not very difficult for Sean who knows all the secrets of the Starfall Forest. After all, the highest level of those monsters is only forty. Even if Harley's guards did not go with him, only Sean And Cecilia can also send people safely. But if you want to go to the Kingdom of Portoroa, this road is a bit difficult. Not to mention that the monsters you will encounter on this road are basically level 50 or above. The most important thing is that you must get through a "dungeon" in the middle. Only then can I go to the Kingdom of Baldoroa, this is the reason for Sean's frown.

"A bit difficult?" Du Luen's eyes flashed with surprise for the first time.

In fact, before coming here following Harley's advice, Du Luen didn't ask other people, but no mercenary group dared to accept this commission—whether it's the Sivr or Sianqi, those mercenaries. As soon as Tuan heard that he was going to cross the Forest of Starfall, he refused all the commissions, but the famous big mercenary regiments simply didn't like such a commission.

So at this moment, Du Luen was indeed a little surprised when he heard that Sean said "a bit difficult" instead of "no".

"Are you sure you are qualified for this commission?"

"You just said, what's your name?" Sean ignored Du Luen's words, and instead asked, "I can't trouble you to say it again."

"You!" Du Luen's face showed a trace of anger, but then he pressed it down very well, but his face became a little colder, "Listen, I am Du Luen De Royce!"

No one knows, just as Du Luen said his full name, Xiao En's eyes suddenly flashed with a pale golden luster.

[Name: Durun de Royce]

【Race: Human】

[Identity: Viscount of the Kingdom of Portoroa]

[Age: 37]

【Combat Class: Knight (Tier 3)】

[Personal Attributes—Strength: 26 (28); Endurance: 40 (41); Agility: 20 (24); Wisdom: 31 (33); Will: 35 (36)]

At this moment, when Sean looked at Du Luen, there was a panel floating beside him, filled with all the attribute information about him.

This is another ability of Sean after he came into this world.

[True Eye (Blood Talent): Any history hidden under time cannot escape your eyes.]

As for the description of this ability, Sean is actually still a little confused, because on his personal panel, the data about the bloodline always shows a question mark, which means that Sean has not activated his bloodline.

However, when the bloodline was not activated, a bloodline talent ability was activated, which made Sean a little confused about the situation, but all this did not prevent Sean from using the player's mentality to explore the psychology.

Finally, after a long period of groping, Sean finally discovered that as long as someone tells him his real name, he can check the status of the other person. And if the relationship between each other is better or the corresponding knowledge is richer, then the more content can be viewed.

For a long time, Cecilia has not revealed her surname to Sean, which is why Du Luen shows more information than Cecilia at this moment.

However, after checking Du Luen's data, Sean discovered another thing. The chance that the middle-aged man wants to break through to Tier 4 is very slim.

at this point. It is this real world that is completely different from the game world.

No one can always stay on top of the peak.

Although the NPCs in the game will die over time, their personal attributes will never decline. But it's completely different on the Marvel Continent. After nearly a year of observation, Xiao En can basically be sure that people in this world will gradually improve their wisdom attributes as they age, but on the contrary the three attributes of strength, endurance, and agility. Will decline accordingly. Usually, there will be no change in the will attribute. Only some people with relatively soft or timid personality will cause the decline in will attribute. However, people who are accustomed to intrigue such as nobles will be affected by age. Growth to enhance the attributes of will.

Like the present Du Luen, the age of thirty-seven is exactly his golden age, coupled with his aristocratic background, so his various attributes have been greatly improved, after all, according to Sean's knowledge, one The normal [Knight] five-circle growth limits are 22, 30, 20, 24, 24, but Du Luen is clearly beyond this category, and even the current attributes are already close to the growth limit.

However, considering that Du Luen is an "npc", there is still some difference from the player, so this kind of cheating can be understood.

It's just that the world you're in now is not a game after all, but a real world. In this world, Tier 3 professions are just the beginning stages of formal professions. Many people have achieved this as early as 20 years old or even earlier. Achievement, so from the perspective of Sean after this year, if Du Luen is unable to take up a Tier 4 career before the age of 40, then even if he is lucky to be able to advance to Tier 4 career, he will not be able to train his personal attributes. The level of growth limit.

"How many of you are going to the Kingdom of Portoroa?" Sean has roughly understood the strength of his employer, so the next thing to talk about is the official commission, but there is one thing Sean is a little uncertain. .

"Count you, twelve people." Harley said, "Don't worry, they are all elite, and I guarantee that these people will obey your arrangements and instructions."

"All the guards in your caravan?" After seeing Harley nodded, Sean suddenly felt a difficult future.

The recruits of Harley's guards are all unified Tier 3 professions [Guards], which are promoted from Tier 2 professions [Warriors] specializing in defensive skills, so their attack methods are completely imaginable. Got.

"Mr. Harley, you want to go with you too?"

Xiao En asked, and after getting a positive answer, he continued: "To travel through the Starfall Forest to the Kingdom of Portoroa, the number of people in the team should not exceed ten. However, I will definitely bring the plug here. Celia's, so you can only bring six people there.... But I have to give you a suggestion, this trip is very dangerous, we may have to face a large number of undead creatures, so you better find one The priest will accompany, and if possible, find two more skilled archery, do not require a hundred steps to penetrate Yang, but at least 50 meters can not give me miss the target."

"You really have a lot of requests." Du Luen sneered.

"Wait when you are leaving, let's talk about the issue of remuneration." Sean smiled very elegantly, and then made a gesture of sending off the guests. The standard of action and the elegance of etiquette are like from ancient times. The disciple of the elder family, this made Du Luen's aristocratic arrogance exuding one of them. ;
