

LORD OF WAR

Chapter 7: .The Forest of Starfall

Soon, a series of Peter's information immediately appeared in Sean's eyes.

As Sean had guessed, Peter's rank is indeed not a second-tier [warrior], but a third-tier [veteran]. Although his personal attributes are not as gorgeous as Du Luen's, he is better than none. Obvious weakness. The current strength, agility, and endurance are all 30 points. Although the wisdom attribute is slightly lower, less than 20 points, his will attribute is as high as 40 points, which represents Peter's absolute It was fought in countless * killings, otherwise the will attribute could not be so high-in other words, it was unusually firm.

For this result, Sean is very satisfied: "Can you use a bow?"

Hearing this, Peter's eyes flashed with surprise, but he nodded: "Yes."

Sean didn't ask Peter's archery skills. In fact, any soldier who had participated in the army had to say something, and he would definitely dabble in it. Perhaps not particularly proficient, but it is definitely much better than those half-hearted, anyway, Sean's requirements for archery are not particularly high during this trip. Of course, it is absolutely impossible for Sean to say that Peter's personal attributes are so high without a hint of curiosity.

【Veterans】 Although this rank is a third rank, in fact, as long as anyone of any soldier rank is retired, his combat rank will become this. In other words, even if a Tier 5 soldier is retired, his rank will become a Tier 3 [veteran], but the rank will change only because there will be no further upgrades and changes in the future. The skills and personal attributes learned will not disappear because of this.

So even if they are also Tier 3 [veterans], there are some people whose personal attributes are as high as Tier 5 or even higher. Therefore, to judge the strength of a veteran can only be judged from its personal attributes.

Like the Peter in front of him, Sean is convinced that he was at least a Tier 4 soldier before he was discharged, and might even be close to Tier 5 at one time.

But all of this has become a thing of the past, and Sean has no plans to learn about the other party's story at this moment.

He just turned his head to look at Harley, and then said: "Mr. Harley, please remove him from the list and choose another guard or someone else.... I only have one request, and that is to obey my command. "

"Boy, what are you talking about!" Seeing Xiao En point his finger to exclude himself from the team, the middle-aged man who hadn't given Shaun a good face immediately turned his face.

"It's just a hunter. Do you really consider yourself a marksman?" Shaun turned his head and looked at the middle-aged man coldly, "My team doesn't need anyone who doesn't obey the command."

When he said this, Sean exuded an unparalleled coldness.

He may be just a Tier 1 professional at the moment, but in the game, he was the commander of the great guild team for a while. Once his courage and momentum are displayed, he will not even be inferior to those generals in this world. It was this kind of aura that deeply shocked the middle-aged man, and made other people's faces slightly changed. However, the look on Peter's face was totally appreciative, because it reminded him of the time when he joined the army before, the blood in his body seemed to have burned at this moment.

"You only have five minutes. We will leave in five minutes." Xiao En said in a deep voice.

"Don't we wait for dawn to act again?" Harley asked.

"In the Forest of Starfall, it makes no difference whether it is dark or dawn." Sean explained. After all, Harley and Du Luen are also employers this time, and he should at least give them enough. "It will take more than half a month to travel through the Forest of Stars and Fall to the Kingdom of Portoroa at the earliest, but there are still sixteen days to be the night of the full moon... Believe me, you will never want to see it there. When the tide of magic power surged."

Hearing what Shaun said, Harley and Du Luen also seemed to realize something, and they soon began to prepare. And the middle-aged man holding the wooden bow was really excluded. This made him feel very dissatisfied with coming here to make some extra money. In the end, he just glared bitterly at Luther and left this temporary place. Camp. The position he vacated was replaced by another guard in Harley's team.

Five minutes later, nine people including Harley, Cecilia, Du Luen, etc., officially entered the Forest of Starfall under the leadership of Shaun.

From the outside, the Starfall Forest is just a very lush forest, but because there is dense fog surrounding the forest all year round, it is impossible to see what is in the forest if you stand outside the forest. But it's also a bit strange. Although there are a large number of ferocious beasts in the forest of the stars, these monsters have never rushed out of the dense fog to attack the surrounding towns, and it is precisely because of this that they are around the forest of the stars. Only a few areas of the country can be developed.

But after passing through the dense fog, the world revealed by the Forest of Starfall is a completely different world!

Looking up, the entire sky above the Forest of Starfall is not a canopy that obscures the sky, but a night sky full of stars. Even the bright moon on the Marvel Continent is clearly visible. In addition to such a beautiful night sky view, the environment of the Starfall Forest is not particularly bad. The forest is full of fragrant flowers. There are tender grass on the ground in the forest. It feels like stepping on it. On the fluffy carpet, the light blue fluorescence like fireflies everywhere in the forest adds a quirky beauty to the forest.

Many of the people present were seeing such a beautiful scenery for the first time, but they were a little dumbfounded for a while.

Xiao En couldn't help but remember that when he first entered this forest, he was also deeply attracted by the beauty of this forest, just like everyone else. However, he knows very well that this forest is not as simple as the beauty of the scenery, and the murderous intent hidden under this beauty is also shocking-even those of the forty-level monsters, as long as they are slightly careless, Tier 3 professionals Will capsize here too.

"Okay, everyone will give me a clearer mind." After waiting for ten seconds or so, seeing that many people hadn't recovered from the shock, Sean had to clap his hands to attract everyone's attention, "We can come here. It's not for you to come for a picnic or enjoy the scenery, don't forget that you still have business to do!"

Hearing Xiao En's words, these people immediately woke up. They didn't forget what their responsibilities were. It was only because it was the first time they saw the scenery here, it was a little shocked. However, after realizing their mission, these people didn't have the mood to continue admiring, but quickly formed a defensive formation, protecting Halle, Cecilia, and Sean. middle.

Sean has no objection to this arrangement. Although in the Forest of Starfall, as long as he does not fall into the encirclement, he has the ability to protect himself, but in the eyes of others, Sean only has the strength of the first order, and Harley There is really no difference between this merchant and Cecilia, an apprentice of magic. But the guide of this trip is Sean, and his existence is the most important and key to the whole team, so it is natural to protect him.

In this way, the leader of the team has become Du Luen, and Sean is just pointing the way forward in the protection circle.

This heavily armed knight wears light armor instead of heavy armor. It is clear that heavy armor will cause a lot of inconvenience when walking in the forest.

The four guards are scattered on the left and right with Sean and others as the core circle. This time the equipment they wear is not heavy shields and spears, but they have followed Sean's advice and replaced them with thicker round shields and curved blades. , It's just that the medium-sized armor on his body has not been replaced. Even though his weight has not been reduced, it is still somewhat inconvenient to move in the forest, but at least his flexibility and defensive ability during combat is also guaranteed.

And old Peter, this veteran is responsible for the queen of the team. He didn't wear any armor, just a simple leather armor, but this leather armor had been worn out almost, and it seemed that it should be the thing when he joined the army. However, in terms of weapons, Old Peter showed the professional characteristics of a mercenary. In addition to the spear in his hand and the longbow on his back, he also wore a long sword around his waist and his calf. A sheath is also tied to it, and a dagger is inserted in it.

As for the only other shooter left in the team, it can be seen that he seems to have plans to develop into the Tier 4 profession [Range]. Because he did not follow the team to move, but walked on both sides of the team, and from time to time he would run to the front of Du Luen. Although his movements seemed a bit jerky, it was obvious that these were very basic investigation skills. But the most important thing is that in addition to the short bow, he also has two sabers, one long and one short. Obviously, he is also ready to fight in different situations.

After the team moved forward for a short while, a black wolf with green stripes suddenly appeared in everyone's field of vision.

When seeing this monster appearing, the whole team was stunned for a moment. It was clear that the shooter was in charge of the investigation, but why did he not issue a warning and this monster appeared? But Durun and Cecilia, who reacted slightly faster, realized almost immediately that the reason was the tender grass on the ground of the Starfall Forest. These tender grasses would make all the sounds of walking. Blocked!

General investigative methods will be completely invalidated in the Forest of Starfall!

Almost at this moment when everyone lost their senses, Xiao En, who knew the danger of the Starfall Forest, had already shouted for the first time: "Windprint Black Wolf! Everyone is ready to fight!";
