

Lord of War Vol 2-261

Chapter 261: . Murder in the real act of fake play

Almost at the same moment when Rina just finished the battle, another action in the Void City also started simultaneously.

The night se tonight seems a bit deep and charming.

It should have been a very beautiful night, but tonight in Void City seems to reveal a stagnant atmosphere. Except for a limited number of areas that are still lively and extraordinary, places like the city center and the city defense barracks are in silence. Among. But this is not a big deal for Void City, anyway, it has been the case in recent days, and the residents of Void City are gradually getting used to it.

Several figures, under the cover of the dark night, marched quietly in the center of the city.

Their movements are very fast, and every time they stop moving forward, they move in the shadow of the surrounding buildings, and outsiders can't find the traces of these people at all.

As these figures progressed gradually, their destination finally began to become clear, and it was the Lord's Mansion.

But surprisingly, at this moment, it is clearly not late into the night, but there is not much light in the Lord's Mansion. It seems that most people have already fallen asleep.

At this time, a figure that had sneaked under the wall of the lord's mansion was clinging to the wall and slowly climbing up.

The location he chose was exactly on the back of the moonlight, and the yin shadow of the tall building in the Lord's Mansion just covered him, so he held his breath here without making any sound. His eyes were observing the situation inside the wall, and because of the use of special skills, the several patrols walking in front of him did not notice the arrival of this uninvited guest.

One second, two seconds, ten seconds, twenty seconds...

Time is flowing quietly, but this figure seems to be assimilated to the Yin shadow and the wall. There is no action. If it weren't for the breathing sound every few times, this figure is no different from the stone sculpture. .

finally. After about fifteen minutes, the figure moved again.

A jing light flashed in his eyes, and he stretched out his hand and quietly made a few gestures behind his back. So soon, those figures who were walking with him immediately appeared one after another, and then jumped onto the wall one after another, but these people did not act blindly, but rely on Yin shadows and some cover to bring their breath to the surroundings. The environment assimilated, and then one after another looked at their commander.

At this time, the commander who was obviously leading the team had already begun to make a series of complex gestures.

But these gestures are complicated. It is only for outsiders, but it is not difficult for people like them to understand. In a blink of an eye, these people have thoroughly figured out the patrol routes and intervals around the entire Lord's Mansion. When they saw these gestures clearly, everyone's eyes were a little surprised. They did not expect that the periphery of the Lord's Mansion had such a strict patrol layout, and the three-line cross-surveillance method was still adopted.

The so-called three-wire crossover monitoring method. In fact, it means that every patrol team will be in the field of vision of the other three patrol teams. So every four patrol teams is a group, and every four groups is a group. Usually in the patrol surveillance area of each group, there will be three to five secret guards. If these secret guards are not excluded, then it is impossible for them to launch an attack against these patrols, but if they want to launch an attack against these patrols. It is necessary to bring down 16 patrols at the same time, which is an impossible task for the stalker who currently has no more than six people.

So it is doomed that they cannot attack in this way.

But the three-line cross-surveillance method is not invulnerable.

At least. The patrol path of the patrol team is unified from beginning to end, because if this were not the case, they would not be able to ensure that they were in the field of vision of the other three patrols at all times.

According to the observation just now, the leader has already discovered this patrol path that he used as a cut into the six patrols in the small area. In this patrol path, there is a blank period of nearly three seconds. Although this blank period is not long, it is enough for them to sneak into the Lord's Mansion. But this leader knows very well that since the other party can arrange such a strict patrol route, he will definitely know about this blank period, so there must be one or two secret guards staring at this blank period. The only thing he needs to do, Just pull out these secret whistle nails.

Soon, the leader's eyes became sharp.

"It really turned out to be two nails."

He stretched out his right hand, raised an index finger, then immediately raised his * and ring finger at the same time, and then turned into a fist, and then stretched his finger in one direction. Then I saw the stalker jumped and jumped down. At the same time, another stalker also kept up. At this moment, both of them showed an unparalleled astonishing speed, respectively. Attack their respective targets.

Their speed is extremely fast, and the offensive launched is almost like a beast coming out of the cage, but they have rushed to their respective targets in the blink of an eye. At this time, the two secret whistles who had been targeted by them were suddenly shocked, but it was too late for these two veteran stalkers: they both stepped up with a stride and approached the secret whistle. , His left hand gripped the lower half of the face of the dark whistle tightly like a pair of pliers, making them completely unable to make any sound, while the right hand also immediately pinched their throats and only heard a soft "click" sound. The two secret whistles were broken their necks at the same moment.

Immediately afterwards, the two stalkers hugged the body of the secret post and hid together in the place where the two secret posts were staying.

At this time, another patrol team passed by.

Three seconds, just in time for them to instantly kill two secret whistles.

When the next three-second blank period appeared, the six figures immediately broke out at an astonishing speed once again, sneaking into the lord's mansion like a gust of wind.

It was almost the moment when these six people sneaked into the lord's mansion. In a dark place outside the lord's mansion, one person quietly pressed a button that he carried with him.

At the same time, in the meeting room of the Lord's Mansion, the eyes of a stone sculpture on William's desk suddenly lit up. Seeing the eyes of this stone sculpture light up, William was taken aback for a moment, and then said in a deep voice: "Those assassins have entered the lord's mansion.... It seems we have lost two members of the Void Realm. As expected, the person Rupi was looking for was not. Simple, I am starting to be a little curious about the identity of Rupiah in the Thieves Guild."

"I didn't understand, why must we really go to the assassin? Wouldn't it be nice to let our people act like it?". Shaun said helplessly, "My previous proposal was just to create an illusion."

"Even in acting, there is a difference between real acting and fake acting." Neal said calmly, "Don't forget, you originally arranged Christina to live in the Lord's Mansion."

Hearing Neal's words, Sean finally sighed in fate: "Even so, you are also in danger."

"No." William shook his head. "You just need to stay away from us now."

"Why?" Sean was stunned.

"Because I specifically asked the Rupee to explain. This time the action is against Sean. If it causes too much panic, then we will not pay." William explained with a relaxed face, "So as long as you don't If you stay with us, we won't be in any danger. That's why I didn't arrange guards in the lord's mansion. After all, I should try my best to avoid attrition. Now I have lost two people in the void. I'm already very serious. I feel distressed, so you hurry to stay away from us so that we can pay tribute to these two heroes who sacrificed their lives for the territory."

"Despicable!" Sean's forehead has blue veins bulging, "I won't go!"

"I think it's better for us to go to Beth's room." Neil suddenly said.

"That's right." William nodded, so he and Neil both got up at the same time, and then began to pack things up. Treat Sean completely as transparent.

"It's too much!" Shaun complained very dissatisfied.

"Don't worry." William said with a smile, "The little money we paid can only be enough to come to a few people in the Silver Realm. It is more than enough to deal with them with your strength.... By the way. Remember to let one go, he will go. I'm looking for Rupiah to report the situation, but if you can get a little hurt, that would be great. Anyway, after tonight, you can watch me and Neil perform."

Hearing William say this, Sean had no choice but to accept his fate.

But what William, Sean and Neal didn't know was that almost the same time the six assassins entered the Lord's Mansion, another assassin also quietly followed them into the Lord's Mansion.

This is a man in his thirties. His eye sockets are slightly sunken, his face is not ruddy, but pale, and he is wearing a black leather armor. If it weren't for the clothes on his body that made him look a little different, he would look no different from ordinary civilians who were exhausted by work. But at this moment, he was less than three meters away from the six assassins in a straight line, but they were still not discovered by them, which was enough to prove that this man in his prime was absolutely extraordinary.

At least, in terms of assimilation of breath and integration into the environment, his skill is far better than the previous six.

However, considering that this young man is already a strong man who has stepped into the golden realm, and there is a big gap between the six silver realm masters in front, this is acceptable. In particular, when this man just entered the lord's mansion, he broke the third secret whistle that the six silver realm masters hadn't discovered before. This alone was enough to judge the strength gap between the two sides.

But at this moment, the young man's face is also somewhat confused.

These six silver realm masters are obviously specializing in assassination in this industry, which he can easily judge from the aspects of their actions and stealth skills. And it is for this reason that he is very puzzled, because he is very clear that the person behind him is Domingo Hastings, so who is behind these six people?

Besides Domingo Hastings, who else wants to let that lord die?

In the first place, this young man felt that it was obviously inappropriate to choose tonight to implement the assassination plan. He felt that it was necessary to report everything he saw to Domingo Hastings. Because the development of the matter is obviously a little unexpected, this situation is obviously a third party trying to fish in troubled waters.

But when he was about to turn around and leave, he couldn't help but remember that since his original mission was to assassinate Sean, what does it matter if there is a third party to fish in troubled waters? Anyway, as long as Shaun is killed, then his mission is completed. According to the information he has, he does not think that the six assassins can easily kill Shaun by joining forces, so it seems that it still needs to be killed. He can do it.

Since the biggest risk is blocked by the first six people, he can wait for the opportunity to move, maybe this time he can easily kill Sean without paying any price.

Anyway, the enemy's enemy is a friend.

Thinking of this, the young man finally turned back and began to move towards the upper level of the lord's mansion.

Chapter 262: .Shadow Assassin

Sean sits quietly in the meeting room.

This is a conference room on the third floor. It is also the place where he spends most of his time with William and Neal. Basically, as long as he is in Void City, he will stay in this conference room most of the time. Although nominally he has to deal with some documents, in fact he is basically just a decoration here, unless it is needed in his name. Changes to the territorial affairs, otherwise no documents need to go through his hands.

William and Neal are two people, enough to handle the huge affairs of the entire territory.

In fact, it is also because Sean is not a qualified lord, and William and Neal are too seductive. Like other territories, even if the lord doesn't have to do everything by himself, there will never be only one internal officer under his command who specializes in government affairs, and there may even be several staff members who help with government affairs.

But under Sean's command, there are only two people dealing with government affairs: Neal and Rudd.

However, compared with Neal, Rudd's job is undoubtedly much easier, because the Dayi collar he is responsible for is an already formed territory, and he does not need to invest too much Jing power, especially in becoming Neal's. After being under his command, the workload that Rude had to deal with was reduced by more than half at once, which allowed him to naturally have more free time. However, Rudd didn't waste this time either. These free time were used by him on other research topics. It is said that there is a research topic that also aroused Neal's high interest.

You should know that Neil has lived for hundreds of years, and he has also worked under many nobles under the disguise of his identity. In any case, he has a powerful advantage that other administrative officials do not have. It is these advantages that allow him to accomplish things that almost require a government team to complete by himself, so it is not easy to still be able to arouse his strong interest in such a situation.

The information that Sean is looking at at the moment is the information that interests Neil Du.

For information like this, in the end, of course, Sean still needs to make a decision in person. However, another outstanding advantage of Neal is that when Rudd began to study this topic that is conducive to the growth of the economic benefits of the territory, he has already seen the many troubles that this topic needs to face, so this information has already Made an extremely detailed judgment and analysis, and even split the entire subject research into three stages, and the funds and returns required for each stage are roughly assessed.

If you can really overcome the troubles written in this information, once this plan is successfully implemented, the economic income of the territory is likely to be increased by three times, and as the territory is larger and the resources are richer, the profit will also be increased. The bigger. However, for such a huge plan, the investment in the first phase alone requires a large amount of at least two million yuan, while the investment in the second and third phases are doubled on the basis of the previous phase.

In other words, to triple the income of the entire territory, at least tens of millions of funds are needed.

You should know that Asuna smashed the entire southern part of the Darbion Kingdom, and the final result of that battle was tens of millions.

This is a huge investment project.

Of course, for a large project like this, there will be a corresponding return on the investment in each stage, depending on whether Sean has enough courage to make this decision. Because once this project is started, it is equivalent to Sean's decision to invest all the proceeds of the future war with the Kingdom of Darbion into it. This also means that he cannot carry out any expansion or expansion until the completion of the first phase of the plan. Other aspects of government investment.

"Private supervision of special products, heh, I really am at a loss for Rudd who can figure it out." Xiao En smiled and closed the document, but his eyes narrowed slightly, "Since I have come to the door. , Why not come in?"

The sound is not loud, but at this night, it is loud enough.

It's just that no one responded to Sean's words. Whether it was inside or outside the room, it still seemed very silent.

Seeing this, Xiao En sighed slightly, and then put his right hand into a bag on his waist.

This bag is rectangular and very flat, with a depth of only about two centimeters, just enough to reach one hand. However, seeing the complicated decorative texture on the bag and the obviously specially tanned black se leather, it is obvious that this bag was specially made by Sean.

When Sean's hand stretched out from the bag, the brilliance of Jinse was slightly glowing in the palm of his palm, and the guru, who was sleeping a little dazedly, was taken out by Sean.

This bag is actually Gulu's residence!

Flicked his hand forcefully, and Gulu, who was still asleep, was thrown out by Sean.

"Guru!"

A sudden scream in this silent night, it seemed extraordinarily infiltrating.

I saw a stream of golden se drew a straight line of golden se in the air at an astonishing speed, and then only a muffled sound was heard. Gulu had directly penetrated the wall of the conference room, not knowing it was embedded again. Which wall. But this time, there was no movement in the entire Lord's Mansion. It was not like at the Black Swan Castle. Every time it hits the wall, it will cause a small-scale earthquake.

And two or three seconds after Gulu passed through the wall, there was finally another faint sound of heavy objects landing.

Judging from the sound, it should obviously be the sound of a person falling to the ground.

Almost at the same moment, the door of the conference room was knocked open, and the three figures rushed in with a speed that even Sean was slightly surprised. After entering the room, the three figures spread out around the meeting room at the same time. This kind of extremely tacit cooperation is obviously not the first time they have done this.

This meeting room is not very big, but it is not a problem even if there are a dozen people sitting at the same time, but the layout of the meeting room has always been a more serious and open environment, naturally there will not be too many furnishings, so it will not There are too many obstacles that can be used. If you want to hide in the meeting room, everyone knows that this is by no means an easy task. At least as long as you are not blind, you can find the hiding place by just sweeping it.

But at this moment, there was a scene that shocked everyone completely before Sean's eyes.

After the three attacking assassins broke through the door and rushed into the meeting room, they scattered around the room for the first time, because the directions in which they scattered and the explosive power of sudden acceleration were different, and the speed was also very good. So even Sean couldn't lock the three of them in the first place, so he completely subconsciously swept along the trail of one of them, and that is the moment of effort, the other two assassins who entered the meeting room. It disappeared completely under Sean's nose.

When Xiao En was a little surprised and swept in the direction the other two had just rushed in, the third person who could have found the trail suddenly disappeared out of thin air!

Shaun's brow twitched.

Yin shadow assassin!

This is a Tier 6 profession, which is the so-called high-ranking silver in this world. Although it is not particularly good in terms of damage, and it does not have the ability to break defenses or powerful damage like other assassin system occupations, this occupation is the most troublesome occupation among all assassin system occupations. Because their professional talents can be perfectly integrated with the environment, so that not only can they shield their own breath, but also can stage a special means of making a living.

Basically, any place covered by Yin shadow is the home of their profession.

Undoubtedly, the reason why Sean lost their tracks was completely because they blocked their own breath, and then merged into the surrounding Yin shadow environment.

Although the meeting room does not have much space to hide people, for Yin shadow assassins who can hide their figure as long as they have Yin shadow, there are too many places for them to hide in this meeting room. Even with these Yin shadow parts, I think It is not particularly difficult to get close to Sean.

if.....

Almost when Sean thought of a trouble, a Yin Shadow Assassin suddenly attacked from the left.

There was no sign of his attack, and it was so abrupt that it made people feel a little uncomfortable. Even Sean, who had experienced hundreds of battles, failed to react in the first time, so that he missed the weakest attack opportunity of the Yin Shadow Assassin-this is The biggest weakness of their class: Yin Shadow Assassin is not better than other assassination classes. Their own defense power is very weak and lethality is not high. Therefore, at the moment of the outbreak, they are actually completely undefended. In this state, if they can withstand their attacks, then they will enter a "hard time", which is a bit similar to a situation where the wrestling fails.

Shaun was accustomed to xing. When the Yin Shadow Assassin suddenly got into trouble, he immediately returned to defense with his sword. But what he didn't expect was that the target of the Yin Shadow Assassin's attack was not him, but the oil lamp placed at his table-this was also a key point that Sean had considered before.

The dagger in the hands of the Yin Shadow Assassin ruthlessly smashed the outer cover of the oil lamp, and the tip of the sword easily cut off the wick on the oil lamp, as if a flame was rising from the dagger.

Afterwards, following the Yin Shadow Assassin, he withdrew his hands and retreated. With a flick of the dagger, the flame was completely extinguished.

Darkness, like a beast that has been dormant for a long time, at the moment when the only light in the room disappeared, it finally revealed its hideous fangs, suddenly jumped out, and swallowed the whole room completely.

A cold chill suddenly approached.

does not come from the front, but from the back of Sean.

The second Yin Shadow Assassin, suddenly got into trouble!

Chapter 263: .Grumbling

Shaun's hairs suddenly burst!

Since returning from the Wildlands, Sean has never been so close to death. **

He can feel the slight tingling sensation from the back of the vest, which is the attack area locked by the opponent's killing intent. This feeling is countless times more real than the situation in the game. At least in the game, it is absolutely impossible for Sean to have such a sense of suffocation that almost suffocates him, and even his brain is blank.

But soon, Sean fully reacted.

The rich combat experience in the game, as well as the experience and adventures after coming to this world, have given Sean a radical leap forward. At this moment, it was this subconscious that was completely trained in this world that saved Sean's life.

Like the Yin Shadow Assassin's assassination method in Yin Shadow, there is no smoke and smoke, and a large piece of silver cuticle emerges from Sean's back vest.

Curse seal. Silver scales!

"Ding!"

The dagger easily pierced Sean's shirt, but when it pierced into Sean's body, it made a hoarse metal noise, and even some sparks spurted out. At this moment, the Yin Shadow Assassin immediately realized that the target character must also be wearing a special protective armor suit in his shirt, so he didn't even think about it, he immediately withdrew his sword and retreated, just a step or two. It's just a small retreat, the original killing intent and aura that were still extremely cold, disappeared without a trace in an instant.

Obviously, it was hiding in Yin shadow again.

And the Yin Shadow Assassin who smashed the oil lamp with a sword before, was also breathless at this moment.

But Sean knew that they would definitely be lurking beside him, like a cruising shark preparing to pounce. As long as they reveal a little flaw, they will take action without hesitation. But Sean didn't expect it. Yin Shadow Assassins will actually have such a subtle and tacit cooperation. In his impression, Yin Shadow Assassins have relatively low damage, so their attack points must be various key points. There are group operations, most of which rely on their own abilities to sneak in and get close to the target, and then show their deadly fangs at the moment when the target's mind is relaxed.

But right now, although only two of the three Yin Shadow Assassins took action. However, the tacit cooperation also made Shaun feel a great pressure and threat.

In the case of one-to-one, Sean dealt with these Yin Shadow Assassins without any effort, even if he faced three Yin Shadow Assassins head-on, there was no pressure. But in this dark environment, let alone face three Yin Shadow Assassins. Just one person is enough to make Sean feel great pressure.

Of course, there are actually many ways to deal with Yin Shadow Assassins.

For example, the best way right now is to leave this room.

As long as there are no Yin Shadows, even Yin Shadow Assassins are just some agile people, let alone Sean, even if only the lower silver Anno can easily clean up two or three Yin Shadow Assassins. at this point. It is also the helplessness of Yin Shadow Assassins, after all, in the case of a single fight, they are completely incomparable with other assassination ranks.

But when Sean left, he was about to leave the room. A flash of cold light suddenly flashed out again.

is still a shot without warning, and it is still drawn diagonally from the side, and will stop at Sean's throat. With the speed of Sean's sudden force, it is impossible to stop at this moment. So it looked like Sean hit the dagger and committed suicide.

Such abrupt, no warning, but extremely dangerous and accurate shots are the most typical characteristics of Yin Shadow Assassins.

only. The expected * gas did not appear, instead it was still a splash of sparks and the sound of a metal impact that was produced under unexpected circumstances.

The eyes of the Yin Shadow Assassin who suddenly attacked were wide open. Although he could not see his expression in the dark environment, Sean knew that his face at this time must be very shocked and ugly.

In fact, this Yin Shadow Assassin is indeed shocked in disbelief at this moment.

In this small group organization, whether it is his personal strength or combat experience, consciousness, judgment, skills, etc., he is only under their head. So as soon as Sean moved, he immediately knew Sean's plan, and even at that moment he had completely judged Sean's trajectory, and with such a precise judgment, his shot was inevitable. result.

And the final actual situation also shows that his shot can indeed end Sean's life, because Sean can't stop at all. Judging by the sharpness of the standard daggers of these Yin Shadow Assassins, even if there is no way to chop off Sean's head, at least it can leave a fatal scar on his throat.

It's just that all of this, under Sean's special ability, becomes broken water.

Without the slightest hesitation.

and Yin Shadow Assassin, who are calm to a bit too much pervert, the most important point is to grab the reaction time.

Because of this momentary error, although they will be slightly disoriented, but in terms of their professional standards and quality, this gap will never exceed one second. So when there was light and fire and the sound of metal rubbing in the dark, Sean's sword immediately pierced to the side. Under such obvious circumstances, if Sean could not determine the position of the opponent, then he would be the superior. The rank of Silver Peak can also be cut off and re-trained.

"Puff".

The faint noise of a sharp weapon entering the body is not big, but to everyone in the room, it is like a thunderbolt on a sunny day.

The * smell began to spread in the meeting room.

The next moment, Xiao En jumped up without thinking about it, and continued to rush towards the door.

He is located not far from the door of the conference room, only a few meters away. I am afraid that he does not need even a second when running at full capacity. But obviously, tonight's situation is a bit complicated. For him, this distance is probably not as short as one second. Fortunately, it is a curse. Silver scales now have twenty seconds of ziyou time at their disposal after they are upgraded to level 3. Otherwise, Sean's self-confidence is really not high in the face of these Yin Shadow Assassins who have completely occupied the land.

He never thought that in order to make a fake show, Ruby would actually find professional killers such as Yin Shadow Assassin, and he found a team to come over.

This is really a headache for Sean.

But just as Sean continued to advance. One left and the other right are forced by two killing intents.

Obviously, it seemed that when it was found that it was difficult to solve Shaun by one person, the remaining two Yin Shadow Assassins finally couldn't help but join forces. It's just that, Xiao En's inner tension can't help but relax a bit. What he is afraid is that these Yin Shadow Assassins have been hiding in Yin Shadow, that is the real threat, but if he dares to show up, this It's not that scary for Sean.

Run to the door?

That is just a bait.

The window is behind him, and I really want to avoid the assassination methods of these Yin Shadow Assassins using their geographical advantages. Shaun only needs to hit the window behind him, and he can get out of danger immediately, and he can even alarm the guards outside the lord's mansion. Then he can play whatever he wants. William and Neil have bass protection anyway. Xiao En was not afraid that these people would run to trouble other people without long eyes, not to mention that there was Christina in the lord's mansion at the moment.

As for the height of the third floor, in terms of Sean's current endurance, strength, and agility, it is not a problem at all.

"Guru!"

Sean waved his sword, lightly blocking the two swords that were piercing his neck, and at the same time he let out a quake.

I saw a golden streamer directly hit the wall and rushed into the conference room.

With the degree of communication between Sean and Gulu, he can make Gulu fly into the meeting room immediately even if he doesn't need to speak. The reason why he would speak out was to shock the minds of these two Yin Shadow Assassins. What he needs to consider is not to solve all the enemies who come to assassinate him, but to coordinate with the script he set. Then at least one Yin Shadow Assassin must be left to let him escape smoothly.

When Gollum rushed into the meeting room, because he had a heart-to-heart connection with Sean, even if he didn't need to give orders from Shaun, Gollum immediately started to glow and heat. Suddenly. The entire conference room became as bright as daylight, let alone a yin shadow. I'm afraid there isn't even a place where dirt and dirt can be hidden.

At this moment, Xiao En finally saw the appearance of the two Yin Shadow Assassins in front of him.

is actually two young guys who seem to be very young. Judging from the outline of their appearance, I am afraid that the actual age will not be much older than themselves.

However, at this moment, Sean did not have any merciful thoughts or actions.

The long sword in his hand picked up, and while shaking open the short swords on both sides, he also pierced the young man on the left with a sword.

With the sharpness of the dead bones, let alone the Yin Shadow Assassin's pursuit of the limit, his protective ability is almost zero. Even if he wears heavy armor, he can't stop the dead bones. This young Yin Shadow Assassin was stabbed by Sean on the spot. Through the heart.

Only at this time, what Xiao En did not expect was that behind him, there was also a yin cold breath.

This is actually the fourth Yin Shadow Assassin!

A trace of sorrow flashed across Xiao En's face, but he immediately understood.

Yin shadow assassin is a profession that can carry out sneak raids as long as there is Yin shadow. Although it is indeed slightly inferior in terms of combat effectiveness, the threat is the largest among all assassination professions. Presumably, the fourth Yin Shadow Assassin must be lurking in the Yin Shadow generated by the three Yin Shadow Assassins who broke in at the beginning, and entered the meeting room, so this will prevent Sean from discovering this Yin Shadow Assassin. .

But after that, this Yin Shadow Assassin didn't attack and kill Shaun. Obviously, he mistakenly thought that Shaun was wearing some armor, and ordinary damage might not have any effect on him. Therefore, when the Yin Shadow Assassin was completely exposed, he did not hesitate to fit in and hugged Sean tightly. At this time, the Yin Shadow Assassin on the right immediately shot towards Sean without hesitation. , This time his attack position was on the center of Sean's forehead.

It's just that, in the face of this attack, Sean still has no fear at all.

He just let out a cold snort, and the Guru floating in midair swooped down, hitting the Yin Shadow Assassin on the head. With Gulu's terrifying force field around him, he doesn't need to care whether the place it hits is a key point, this one is enough to completely smash the head of this Yin Shadow Assassin.

In the blink of an eye, the encirclement of these Yin Shadow Assassins will kill the game, except for the corpses of four companions, there is no benefit at all.

At this time, the Yin Shadow Assassin who hugged Shaun also seemed to have resigned himself to his fate. He immediately shouted: "Boss, go!"

Hearing this shout, Xiao En felt awe-inspiring in his heart. He did not expect that this small group would have six Yin Shadow Assassins.

Those who can successfully step into the upper silver can be regarded as small well-known masters. A small group of six Yin Shadow Assassins will never be an unknown team. Moreover, people like the assassin who do not care about friendship still have this kind of sacrifice to the gods. The person they call the boss is by no means a simple opponent. If he is allowed to leave at this moment, I am afraid that there will be something wrong in the future. Less trouble.

But according to the plan, Sean had to let at least one Yin Shadow Assassin escape.

These thoughts shifted slightly in Sean's mind. When he came back to his senses, he had already seen the middle-aged man with a somewhat vicissitudes of face staring at Sean deeply, and he immediately broke it without hesitation. Out of the window, I chose to escape. At this moment, Xiao En also understood that even if he wanted to keep the other party, it was completely impossible to do it, but he couldn't help but feel a little slanderous about where these people were looking for the rupees.

It was just that, the Yin Shadow Assassin behind him, Sean did not kill him.

Maybe save his life, and find these people through the rupee, and talk to them about conditions or something, Sean really doesn't want to have a Yin Shadow Assassin staring at him all the time, with his current strength, he only needs to let this Yin Shadow If the assassin occupies the right place, it is still very threatening to him. After all, the tone of these assassins that Ruby looked for was from Domingo Hasting's perspective, so these Yin Shadow Assassins would only think that it was Domingo's hand.

Of course, if it were the lone ranger Yin Shadow Assassin, Sean would not worry so much. After all, one sale is one sale.

But for a relatively rare assassin group like this, Sean is really not sure.

But just as Sean was about to capture the Yin Shadow Assassin who was still struggling to hug him, a powerful breath suddenly burst out in the meeting room.

Immediately afterwards, this breath rushed towards Sean without concealment. The dreadful and hideous breath of terror, like a shackle, suppressed Sean and the shadow of Yin who hugged Sean. Judging from the position where this person's breath erupted, it was obvious that it was behind the two of them, that sharp and awe-inspiring breath, like a sharp sword, forced Xiao En's entire back to sting.

You know, at this moment, there is still someone behind him blocking him!

Almost no thought is required, and Sean already knows the strength of this enemy.

Golden powerhouse!

Chapter 264: .Unplanned Enemy [Thanks to the leader Wushang Zhonglin]

How can there be a golden power here! ?

Shaun's heart was extremely shocked.

But at this moment, he couldn't help thinking too much, because no matter what reason the golden powerhouse appeared here, he wanted to kill himself but he would never be wrong.

In this case, how can Sean dare to keep his hands and capture the Yin Shadow Assassin.

Yunqi's whole body power suddenly shook, and finally broke free of this Yin Shadow Assassin's rogue methods, and at the same time the whole person jumped forward suddenly.

It was almost that Xiao En had just broken free from the bear hug of the Yin Shadow Assassin, and the golden powerhouse behind him had already killed him. He didn't care about the life and death of the Yin Shadow Assassin in front of him. He raised his right wrist slightly, and a short sword was exposed from the wristband tied to the wrist, but it did not directly penetrate the Yin Shadow Assassin's back heart. Instead, he pierced directly from the cervical spine, and then swiped it again. The Yin Shadow Assassin was thrown out of the window by him, and then he continued to rush towards Sean like this.

The whole process, there was no pause.

And with the help of this  sight, the aura that burst out of this strong golden man even climbed to the peak, and there was a great aura of people blocking killings and Buddha blocking killings.

Although this gold powerhouse is only a lower level gold powerhouse, his momentum at this time is almost comparable to the upper level gold powerhouse.

Without any words, the golden powerhouse immediately chased behind Xiao En, with red blood on the tip of the sword exposed in his right hand, and then slammed into the cervical spine of Xiao En's back. In the fight between the Yin Shadow Assassins, he had already discovered that the Yin Shadow did not attack the heart part of Sean's back. Presumably there should be special protection like a goggle, so he would choose another position. As a point of attack.

Able to be a strong person in the golden realm, no one will be a fool.

Especially assassin killers like him. Usually the pursuit is a one-shot kill, so I definitely won't waste such a wonderful attack opportunity to test whether the weapon in my hand is sharp.

It's just that, although this golden strong thinks very carefully, he also doesn't know enough about Sean.

But this is also no way.

Curse Seal. Silver Scale, this special protective technique, is impossible to see in other professions except for the people of the curse seal swordsman line. And in today's world, there are probably only two people with the curse seal swordsman rank system left, so this is doomed. Obviously, this inevitable lore of this golden powerhouse is obviously impossible to succeed.

is still the harsh metal impact.

Golden powerhouse only felt that the tip of the short sword in his right hand seemed to hit a shield!

With his rich experience, it was natural to judge it all at once that it was definitely impossible for Sean to hide a shield. He immediately realized that Sean must have activated some special magic shield, because only in this way could he explain why his full blow was blocked.

But I thought so. Can you block your own attack?

This young man, who is about 30 or so years old, raised his mouth slightly, and his eyes were confident that he was determined to gain se: Do you think this will be able to stop my attack?

His right hand quickly lifted, and then slammed down towards the back of Sean's head with lightning speed.

Since there is no flaw in the back, I will change the attack position!

At this moment, Sean felt the whole scalp explode suddenly, the tingling sensation like electric current running through, shocked Sean's face suddenly. Immediately transfer the curse imprint. Silver scale to his head. Almost just after the transfer of the position, the attack of the golden powerhouse fell suddenly, but this time, the golden powerhouse finally saw clearly. What kind of thing blocked his attack.

His pupils shrank slightly, just as he watched Sean's entire head suddenly turn into a piece of silver metal luster, and then under his own blow, a series of sparks flew out. But he could not see the red and white things flying out. You know, this blow even used the power of vindictiveness. And looking at the oily black luster from the short sword just now, it is obvious that this blow is even a "skill".

But even so, it still failed to cause any actual damage to Sean, which made the golden man frowned.

Of course, although there was no real damage, but this attack was a genuine attack on the head after all, and it still used a grudge and skill attack, which naturally made Xiao En feel dizzy.

Seeing such a great offensive opportunity, how could this golden powerhouse let it go.

He knows very well that as an assassin, even if his profession is the advanced profession of Yin Shadow Assassin-Dark Walker, he still inherits the advantages and disadvantages of Yin Shadow Assassin. In other words, this kind of advantages and disadvantages are more obvious in the golden realm: for the dark walker, stealth is not limited to the Yin shadow environment, as long as it is in any dark environment, this step can be done, so the night will be natural. This is their main battlefield.

But relative, because they are more pursuing the deadly skills of hiding their figure and shooting, this also makes their single attack power lower. It's just that as a strong person in the golden realm, at their level, the possibility of wanting to miss is no longer high, and although the single combat capability has become lower, it is only compared to other golden strong players. No matter how weak the silver realm masters like Sean are, they still have no problem with their single-handed tricks.

So without the slightest hesitation, the killer immediately shot again without hesitation.

As a golden powerhouse, he certainly has his own pride and dignity. Two consecutive killing attacks ended in failure, which made him a little unbelievable and aroused a trace of anger. He suspects that the silver luster that can block his attacks should be similar to the bloodline talent. Although he does not know the specifics of it, he believes that this ability should be produced by subjective control. .

In other words, when Sean was a little dizzy at this moment, he shouldn't have this kind of control ability.

So, this is a great opportunity for him!

The short sword protruding from the wristband, this time it pierced towards Sean's unprotected throat!

"Om!"

Almost at the moment of the shot, a low air trill sounded suddenly.

Guru slammed down at the same swift speed. It wasn't to block the sword that this golden strong man made, but rushed towards his head.

Seeing Gulu's movements, the golden powerhouse brows.

Earlier, he had seen Guru crashing a Yin Shadow Assassin's head into a piece of shreds. At this moment, he saw Guru, an unidentified object falling so fast, and he immediately judged that the one on his right hand When the tip of the sword pierced Sean's throat, his head would immediately be smashed into pieces. Under the balance of the two phases, this golden powerhouse is far from being awakened by the dead. Of course it's impossible to swap Sean's life here.

So without the slightest hesitation or pause, the golden powerhouse immediately withdrew and backed away, giving up this lore that he had guessed true.

As for going to block Gulu's blow, this golden powerhouse does not have the guts. He had already judged it the moment Guru moved. This unknown creature possesses a substance that is far more dangerous than what it sees now. If he dares to try to defend against this unknown creature's attack, I am afraid that he will also have to pay a great price, and it is precisely because of this. With a keen intuition for danger, this golden powerhouse would choose to retreat, rather than head-on with Gulu.

In this way, Gulu naturally bought a few seconds of breathing time for Sean.

This time is not long. But it was enough for Sean. After getting rid of the effects of the vertigo, he immediately stopped casting the curse seal and silver scales. His hair, which had completely turned into silver se, also lost the effect of the curse seal and silver scales. Gradually darkened. But when Sean passed the remaining cast time of the curse seal silver scale. But there was a pain in my heart for no reason: a total of 20 seconds of effect maintenance time, at this moment there are only 8 seconds, and his dazed effort just now wasted more than five seconds!

And facing an assassin like this who has the ability to kill with one hit. Without the help of Yinlin Yinlin, Sean really didn't dare to take risks.

After all, no matter how weak the opponent's combat power is. But that was also a true low-level gold powerhouse, a full rank higher than his own high-level silver.

After regaining consciousness, Shaun did not blindly fight the opponent.

He knew very well that the golden-level powerhouse in front of him was definitely not the character that should appear in his script. Then there is no doubt that there is only one answer. This is an unplanned enemy, but given the current mixed situation in Void City, which power this person belongs to, Sean really is not sure. If the opponent can be caught alive, then Sean believes that with the strength of William and others, he will definitely be able to interrogate some useful information.

However, Sean also knew very well that it was impossible to catch such a killer alive with his own strength. Whether he cooperates with Guru or uses Requiem, the result will only kill the enemy directly. The only difference is whether the opponent can leave the whole body. As for wanting to catch him alive, I'm afraid that only Beth can make a shot, but according to the original script plan, Beth is chatting with Neil and William at this time, and they will not come out no matter what the beat is on.

So, Sean could only sigh helplessly. He could only kill the opponent if he wanted to survive.

However, as Sean's gaze looked at the opponent, his gaze quickly became subtle, especially when it fell on the opponent's body with a pin used to clamp the cape and a two-handed wristband. , His pupils suddenly shrank, and said in an incredible tone: "Creed-level!?"

Chapter 265: . Creed Assassin

After hearing Shaun's words, the dark walker's pupils shrank slightly.

Although the  se on his face did not fluctuate in the slightest, and the subtle change in his eyes quickly recovered, the strangeness at that moment was still easily captured by Sean, which made Sean be convinced that this was in front of him. People are definitely creed-level assassins.

Just like the special honors of Juggernaut, Sword Emperor, Sword Emperor to the swordsman, and Knight Warriors to the knight.

The Creed Assassin is the supreme honor for all assassins.

is no different from special markers such as Juggernaut, Sword Emperor, and Warrior Warriors. Creed Assassin has two very obvious markers.

Union pin and wrist sleeve sword.

Both of these logos were issued by the Assassin Alliance.

As an intelligence assassination organization that surpasses the Thieves Guild and Deaththorn on the entire Marvel Continent, the Assassin Alliance can be said to be the oldest, most mysterious and powerful assassin organization in the entire Marvel Continent. It is in the minds of all assassins. Holy land. But what is very peculiar is that even though many assassins know about such an organization, no one has ever seen anyone in this organization, and they don't even know how to join the Assassin Alliance.

But the only thing I know is a rumor.

"The highest rating in the Assassin League is the Creed Assassin."

Therefore, the Creed Assassin has become the supreme honor in the assassin circle.

But, what kind of assassin is a Creed Assassin? No one knows this.

Sean will know this, because at the time, in the game, he was in the guild Voidwings where a thieves player successfully joined the Assassin League, and he was the only player in the game to successfully join the Assassin League. And everything that Shaun knew about this organization was obtained from this player.

So he knew that the Creed Assassin had two identities. Indispensable.

Similarly, he also knows that the so-called Creed Assassin is actually just a recognition of the various skills he has mastered as an assassin, and does not want to defeat the invincible hand like a swordsman. So even if it is just a high-ranking silver Yin Shadow Assassin, it is also possible to become a Creed Assassin.

Of course, if you can get this honor from the Assassin League, then it is basically equivalent to invincible of the same rank. After all, an assassin with master-level killing skills is not something that everyone wants to provoke. Because of this kind of existence in the right environment, they can easily assassinate those enemies who are stronger than them-just like Sean, after mastering Requiem, he is not afraid of any lower level golden powerhouse at all.

Thinking of this, Sean couldn't help feeling a headache.

Who can invite a Creed Assassin? According to Sean's understanding, the League of Assassins officially appeared in the player's field of vision after the fourth expansion update. But the current era. Not to mention the era of the fourth expansion, even the era of the first expansion hasn't arrived yet, so how come you run into a Creed Assassin here?

This is unscientific!

Compared to Sean's shock, the young man's heart was also very shocked.

Although the Alliance Pin and the Bracer Hidden Blade are indeed the rewards of the Assassin Alliance for those outstanding assassins who have received the "creed" evaluation, but he has worn these two pieces of equipment that he is very proud of for several years, and he has not assassinated a thousand enemies. There are also eight hundred, but they have never been recognized. Even Domingo Hastings. This time, the employer of the mission had several business contacts with him, and he did not know his identity and origin at all.

Who is this Sean Connery?

Not only knows the existence of the Assassin League, but even his status symbol in the Assassin League. They all know it clearly.

In the bright conference room, neither Sean nor the young man acted rashly for a while. The two confronted each other and looked at each other like this. It seems that he wants to see through the other party thoroughly. However, compared to Sean's knowledge of the actual combat effectiveness of the man in front of him, the other party only knew a little about Sean. For example, he is now the lord of Panda, and the pioneer knight of the Marquis of Tonis Fortress. He has good personal strength and excellent swordsmanship.

As for the others, the young man's eyes were smeared and he didn't know anything.

"Who are you?" After a long silence, the young man couldn't help but speak.

"You came to kill me, but you don't know who I am?" The sequelae of Sean's head attack seemed to have not been completely resolved. He did not realize the true meaning of this young man's words, but he was stunned. appearance.

Hearing Xiao En's words, the young man frowned slightly.

According to intelligence information, this lord should be a very wise talent, but judging from the current situation, the other party seems to be a little slow? However, after all, the curiosity about Sean still has the upper hand in this young man's heart, so he still opened his mouth to explain: "I mean, why do you know my identity?"

"Union pin and wrist sleeve sword." Shaun pointed to the pin on the young man's body and the two-handed wrist sleeve sword, and said strangely, "Aren't these two things already good proof of your identity? "

"Ordinary people...no." The young man said in a deep voice, only that he felt that the three words "average" were too light, or because of a certain pride, he immediately changed his words and said again: "Even in those circles. The famous assassins in here don't necessarily know these things. But you can see the origin of these things at a glance, and even clearly know my identity. Who is your Excellency?"

After hearing this young man's words, Xiao En finally realized that he had made another mistake: that in this world, the Assassin League is a legendary existence. The league's knowledge is definitely not much. Although it is known that the highest praise of the Assassin Alliance is the Creed Assassin, no one knows how to distinguish the Creed Assassin.

It will be at least another ten years before the organization of the Assassin League finally officially and semi-publicly emerges in front of the world.

In this way, Sean's situation seems a bit special.

Just, after another thought, Sean found himself in this situation. It should be more advantageous.

"You don't need to know who I am." Sean frowned, deliberately pretending to be serious, "but I really want to know why you didn't look for the clues of the Golden Apple of Eden, but ran to Trying to assassinate me here?"

Hearing Xiao En's words, the young man was suddenly startled, and a bit of horror appeared on his face: "Why... why would you know..."

"I know a lot." Sean snorted coldly. "Judging from your appearance, it is obvious that assassination of me is not the Alliance's idea. So, then, you have completely violated the Alliance's purpose.... If you are like this, can you still be regarded as the creed assassin of the Alliance? If you let your mentor know about it, guess what will happen to you?"

When the young man heard this, he suddenly reacted. I actually lost my mind. But what struck him even more shocked was that Sean had a very thorough understanding of the Assassin Alliance. He even knew the purpose of the Alliance and the story of the Golden Apple of Eden. These are the core secrets of the Alliance. Generally speaking, he can only become a Creed Assassin. Only then have the right to know some related content.

Even if he is himself, he only knows that this is a very old and powerful artifact about the Golden Apple of Eden, and the Assassin Alliance has been looking for this artifact since its establishment. But so far, nothing has worked. In addition, he didn't know anything about the efficacy of this artifact and other content materials. Looking at Sean's expression, it is obvious that he knows more than him. And this naturally means that Sean is likely to be an important core member of the alliance.

The more you think about it, the young man feels that his inference must be correct.

Because the general high-level silver masters, even the kind of pinnacle masters who only stepped into the golden realm. In the face of the siege of six Yin Shadow Assassins, it is impossible to be unscathed. But Xiao En just fought against the six Yin Shadow Assassins. Not only was he unharmd, he even knew the attack methods of these Yin Shadow Assassins very well, and after thinking that Sean might be a member of the Assassins Alliance, the young men felt more and more about the killing skills and the Assassins Alliance that Sean had just shown. The skills taught are very similar, and even more Jingzhe and seizing.

This must be an assassin mentor!

And when he thought that he was actually looking for trouble with an assassin mentor, the young man felt big.

"All this is a misunderstanding." The young man laughed a few times.

"Misunderstanding?" Sean was totally unreasonable, "Then this misunderstanding seems a bit big."

"I think so too." The young man nodded.

He began to feel that when he entered the door tonight, he had clearly wanted to leave, but why didn't he leave in the end? He had to follow the six Yin Shadow Assassins to find Sean's trouble. And thinking about it more deeply, he even felt that he shouldn't accept Domingo's commission from the beginning. Although the reward was really good, he should have known it a long time ago. The higher the reward usually means The trickier the goal.

Think about it, all this is the fault of money!

"I only have one question."

Shaun glanced at the opponent. He felt that it would be a good thing to be able to avoid the battle. After all, facing a Creed Assassin of the Assassin Alliance, it is not easy to kill the opponent, even if he has a requiem. Waiting for stunts and grunts, but as long as the opponent keeps a distance, he will not have any chance to start at all.

Of course, the real reason Sean does not want to kill the opponent is that every creed assassin who can act on the mainland ziyou has a secret order to find the Golden Apple of Eden, so everyone actually has a fixed one. Responsible for the area, and the people it contacts will also report to the alliance. If this young man is killed here, then it is likely to attract the attention of the Assassin Alliance, or the Assassin Alliance will send someone to revenge. This is the trouble that Sean is unwilling to cause.

So after thinking about it, Sean decided to change his mind: "As long as you answer this question for me, then I will treat you as if you haven't been there tonight."

"Your Excellency, please say it." The young man hesitated slightly, and then nodded, "But I can't guarantee that my answer will satisfy you."

"I know." Sean nodded, "My question is very simple, who asked you to assassinate me?"

"This....."

Chapter 266: .Anti-General

The huge sudden movement broke the silence of Void City.

A group of city defense forces pulled out from the city defense camp in the void city, and these forces flocked to the four city gates of the void city and the vicinity of the city center. The horse-rejecting fence carried by the army quickly blocked all the entrance and exit streets of the entire city center. At the same time, other teams flocked to other important neighborhoods to lay down lines of defense. In just about half an hour, the entire Void City was transformed into a tightly controlled military city under the arrangement of the city defense army.

But even more surprising, but this is not the end.

About half an hour later, two armies stepped in from outside the West City Gate.

The residents of Void City know that there is a large-scale military camp outside the west gate of Void City. After several expansions and improvements, this barracks has now become another training barracks in Void City. It's just that this barracks used to be garrisoned by steel-winged troops, but after the original Panda Town was converted into a military training base, the camp began to be guarded by the Thunder Lions, but recently I heard that a new army has arrived. , Called Jet Black Wing.

At this moment, the two armies have a total of 6,000 people, and they lined up in a long dragon and entered the Void City.

In an instant, there were as many as 11,000 people in the city defense army in Void City.

For a huge city that can accommodate 100,000 people, the number of troops is just enough to defend the entire city.

It's just that the residents of Void City didn't know why this happened suddenly, and some people were panicked for a while.

But soon, news began to come from the other side of the city, and the entire Void City residents immediately became excited again after hearing the news.

Because their most respected lord, Sean Connery was assassinated by an assassin tonight!

Everyone is angry.

At this moment, Domingo Hastings is standing in front of a window on the second floor of the embassy. Quietly looking at the suddenly brightly lit Void City, his face looked extremely yin and heavy. And standing beside him were the deputy head of Tyler and his illegitimate son, Thain Holm, but at this time the two seemed to feel Domingo's strange mood, and the two looked at each other, both. Don't dare to speak to break the silence at this moment.

I don't know how long it took, Domingo finally let out a suffocating breath and snorted heavily, "Did you see it? Taylor."

"I saw it." Taylor nodded.

"Let's not talk about the two armies that entered the city only later, are they just this city defense army, or a mob?"

Taylor shook his head. Shen Sheng said: "Within half an hour, all the main roads of a city were guarded, and the defense and monitoring were completed. Even if they are very familiar with the city, the speed of action still shows that the quality of this army is very high. . For this alone, they cannot be regarded as a mob."

"How does the Second Cavalry Regiment compare with this city defense army?"

"Under your wise leadership, you are better than this city defense army." Taylor thought for a while. Opened his mouth and said.

at this point. Tyler is indeed not wrong.

There are a total of six regiments composed of pure cavalry in the Kingdom of Darbion. Except for the Royal Cavalry Regiment, which belongs to the cavalry regiment directly under King Darbion, the other five cavalry regiments are named one, two, three, four, and five. Number. However, the First Cavalry Regiment has been given a duli designation, which is the Red Se Cross Cavalry Regiment, which is now well-known in the Southern Continent. This is a true Jing sharp unit whose combat effectiveness far exceeds the other four cavalry regiments.

But in the remaining four cavalry regiments. The Second Cavalry Regiment also maintained a considerable distance from the other three cavalry regiments, at least the level of the quasi-fourth army.

In this regard, if the 2nd Cavalry Regiment and the Void City Defense Force start a battle, then the 2nd Cavalry Regiment must be victorious. And all this changed. It was after Domingo Hastings became the commander of the 2nd Cavalry Regiment that there was such a significant change, so what Taylor said at this time was not flattering.

"So, how does my private army compare with this city defense army?" However, Domingo was obviously not happy at all, and he asked another question.

This time, Taylor was a little surprised.

The Hastings family has a private army of up to 30,000. This is something that many nobles know. Although the Hastings family is only an earl's family, it is very rare that the resources of the Tingqi are relatively rich, and it is also one of the few trade transit stations on the southern side of the Darbyang Kingdom, and the transportation extends in all directions. It was the prosperity of the territory to a large extent that it was precisely because of this that Domingo could afford such a private army of 30,000 infantry.

Of course, the annual expenditure of this army accounts for three-quarters of the annual income of the entire territory.

So don't look at the Hastings family often can afford various banquets, but in fact, the Hastings family is not a very wealthy nobleman.

Slightly silent for a moment, Taylor still said, "Slightly insufficient."

This evaluation is very pertinent.

Domingo sighed softly.

In fact, as an excellent general, how could Domingo fail to see the gap between the private army in his territory and the Nether City defense army? Although this gap is indeed small enough to be ignored, for Domingo, who is extremely competitive, this gap has become a flaw that cannot be ignored. Why can a unit that I have seen before, which is still very lazy, become so sharp in a critical moment?

Domingo can't understand.

It's just that, if he knew that the predecessor of the city defense army in Void City was a mercenary group, then it would not be difficult for him to understand.

"I finally understand why Master Gerson is so hostile to this lord." Domingo said softly.

Hearing this, both Taylor and Thain were taken aback.

Domingo's evaluation of Sean is tantamount to admitting that he is inferior to Sean. If they were ordinary people, then Tyler and Thain would certainly not be surprised, but they are the closest people around Domingo. Of course, they know very well what kind of person Domingo is, so I heard The arrogant Domingo admits that he is inferior to Sean. This is something that shocked the two of them.

You must know that even in the Kingdom of Darbion, you can make Domingo admit that he is inferior. No more than ten people!

"However, after tonight, there will be no more Sean Connery."

Domingo obviously has great confidence in the assassin he sent out. In fact, since contacting him, the mission entrusted to the other party has not failed once, even if he was once asked to assassinate a half-footed man who stepped into the sanctuary. The strong. With such a case reference analysis, Domingo does not believe that there is a possibility of failure in the face of Sean, who is less than the golden realm.

Almost when Domingo's words fell, the door of the room was opened by a young man.

Domingo turned to face the young man, smiled and said, "The remaining part..."

Before Domingo finished speaking, the young man he had sent to assassinate Sean took out a purse from his body and threw it in front of Domingo. This scene made Domingo slightly startled. It took a moment to react, and Domingo's face already showed a touch of shock: "How could it be possible to fail!?"

The young man, that is, the Creed Assassin from the Assassin Alliance immediately snorted, but his eyes were a little bit more dissatisfied: "The target is seriously inconsistent with the information you gave.... This time there is nothing but me. The other six Yin Shadow Assassins also tried to assassinate the target. As a result, the six Yin Shadow Assassins killed five people on the spot. The remaining one was also injured and fled. I took advantage of the chaos and made a move. It was also unsuccessful."

"This..." Domingo's face showed unbelievable se. "How can this be?"

"Are you suspicious of me?" The young man stared at Domingo with yin in his eyes.

"Your Excellency has misunderstood." At this time, it was Thain who interrupted, "My lord only meant to express surprise at the result, not to doubt you."

The young man snorted coldly, but still opened his mouth and said: "For the sake of our good cooperation in the past, I will tell you an extra piece of news. Although I don't know who sent the six Yin Shadow Assassins. But. The other party must have already figured out a way out, because I saw the other party sneak into this embassy, and there are clues left along the way, as long as someone who wants to track it down, I will find it here soon."

Hearing this young man's words, the faces of Domingo, Thain and Taylor changed drastically.

They really want to assassinate Sean, but as long as there is no evidence, they will definitely not be the first suspect. After all, Domingo used reverse thinking at the beginning. Under the eyes of the Peace Association, they have absolutely enough reasons. It can prove that he has no motive to kill. But the situation is different now. If the Yin Shadow Assassin who failed to assassinate Shaun really hides in this lord's mansion, then even if there is no evidence, it will be difficult to escape the relationship.

"You guys do it for yourself." The young man said in a deep voice, then turned around and was about to leave.

"Wait, you can't go now." Domingo said suddenly, "If you go now, there will be one less * accompanying me, and it will be harder for me to clear the suspicion by then."

"I don't leave, you die faster." The young man sneered. "I had seen the lord, if I had killed him at that time, it would be nice to say, but the problem is that I failed the assassination. If I were to be killed here. If you find out, then you will really get the money and you will not even have the chance to get rid of the suspicion."

Hearing the young man's words, Domingo was a little surprised: "How... could it become like this..."

Originally according to the plan, Sean should be a dead man, so even if someone suspects them, there will never be any evidence. But now, not only is Sean not dead, but a third party has also gotten in. Of course, Domingo also knows that, in fact, regardless of whether the plan is finally implemented, he will become a scapegoat for the third party. Those six yin shadows The assassin can prove this very well.

At this moment, Domingo really has a painful illusion of shooting himself in the foot.

"Father, they have surrounded us here."

After the young man left, Thain immediately walked to the window. Sure enough, he saw a group of heavy infantry wearing black heavy armor, obviously different from the city defense army, beginning to surround the embassy. Archers with long bows are constantly climbing to nearby roofs. At this time, I am afraid that even a bird can't fly out.

Chapter 267: . Disputes at the negotiating table

Faced with the embassy that was besieged so that even a fly could not fly out, Domingo could only give a wry smile, and then ordered everyone not to resist.

Of course, in fact, even if he wanted to resist, it was completely impossible.

Taylor may be able to break through the siege, but he and Thain are destined to die here. However, even if Tyler can break through the siege, it does not mean that he will be able to break out of Void City. At this moment, there are more than 10,000 soldiers in Void City. Only this strength makes Domingo have no idea of resisting. He knows this time. He probably really got stuck, because no matter how he said, he couldn't get rid of the suspicion of trying to assassinate Sean, and he did such a thing under the nose of the executive officer of the Peace Association, even if he could prove Panda's territory. The contract document was faked by Sean, and it was meaningless.

"I originally wanted to give you a gift from this territory..." Domingo smiled helplessly, and stretched out his hand and patted Thain on the shoulder.

"Father, it doesn't matter anymore." Thain shook his head, "The most important thing now is that we must find a way to get rid of the current predicament. At least, we can't let the lord find a place to use the topic, otherwise we will lose. It will be bigger."

Domingo nodded, the current situation is indeed very unfavorable to him, he must find a way to solve the current problem.

When Thain saw Domingo's meditation, he knew that his father would probably not have any good ideas for a while, and the noise had begun to be heard downstairs, so he said: "My father, I have one idea."

"you say."

"You and Mr. Taylor will first go out to calm the situation and ask everyone to cooperate with the investigation. I will count the number of people. I will pretend to find one person missing. Anyway, the other party has no evidence at all. We can shirk our responsibility and just say Our team was mixed in by other people with ulterior motives." Saien said in a deep voice, "Anyway, this time the assassin is arranged. Only we and the Nugus family knows, and those outside don't know what's going on. , We don't need to worry about leaking secrets."

Hearing Thain say this, Domingo also shined.

This idea can really help him get rid of the current predicament very well. Of course, he also knew that the other party would definitely not believe it, but in this case, it doesn't really matter whether you believe it or not. Anyway, wrangling has always been the noble's favorite and best method.

Almost when Domingo opened the door of the embassy, Sean also met with Neal, William and others in the messy conference room.

"I didn't expect it. That Domingo was so bold." Sean sneered. "It really got someone to assassinate me... But he originally planned to execute it after Panda became his domain. Probably because of the failure of the negotiation in the conference room that day, I decided to do it in advance."

William and Neil thought about it a little bit, and then they understood the meaning of this move.

"Indeed. If we kill you at this time, the first object of our suspicion must be a third party's intervention." William nodded, "but he probably didn't expect that we would do things better than him. He probably doesn't know that the team that he ordered to prove the authenticity of the document has been wiped out.... But now, even if that team comes, it's useless."

"Indeed." Neil nodded. "People from the Peace Association are also involved in assassinations here. Even if he can prove the real estate contract documents, it will be useless."

"Right. What about the assassin sent by Domingo?" William glanced at the meeting room. At this moment, there were four bodies lying in the meeting room, and there was one outside the meeting room, which was killed by Sean. dead. "Would you kill him too?"

"No, he's gone." Sean shrugged.

"What?" William and Neil were taken aback, "How can you let him go, why don't you keep him!"

"Stay?" Sean was a little surprised. Then he looked at the two guys with a look of idiots, "What do you want me to keep? If I really fight with him. There will only be one result, either he died or I died, and it is very likely to be xing. It's still me who died.... It's not easy for the other party to tell the story behind the scenes and agree not to intervene anymore. They also asked me to keep the other party, because you can say it."

"Is that assassin really that amazing?" William was a little surprised.

"Assassin League, have you ever heard of it?" Sean asked rhetorically.

William is a little confused, obviously he has never heard of it.

On the contrary, Neil's face showed a bit of shock, and he said with some surprise: "With Domingo's status, how could it be implicated in the Assassin League? ... No, maybe it is possible, the middleman should be The Nugus family."

Hearing Neal's words, Sean immediately realized a key problem, that is, it is impossible for people with insufficient status and status to contact the Assassin League. In other words, when a person's status or strength reaches a certain level, the Assassin Alliance will automatically come to the door, which really greatly protects the mystery and influence of the entire Assassin Alliance.

"Listening to you, the other party seems to be very powerful?" William glanced at Neil, then at Sean.

"Then it depends on the evaluation." Neal shrugged as well as Shaun.

"Creed."

"Hi!" Neil took a breath of cold air directly.

From this reaction, there is no need to say the answer, and William already knows the result. But what he was more curious about was how Sean persuaded the other party, and why did the other party reveal his employer to Sean? In William's view, assassins are some guys who keep their promises and secrets very much. They will never betray their employers. After all, this is the basic principle of their survival. If they abandon and destroy the principle, they will be completely Spurned by the circle.

It's just that William didn't want to ask Sean's secrets inside. At least in his opinion, the less people knew about it, the better. And Neil, with the same thoughts and attitude, did not ask what happened, anyway, judging from the current results, it would be beneficial to them without any harm.

Soon, the thorough investigation of the embassy was over. Of course, Domingo took the initiative to cooperate.

As for the results of the thorough investigation, they were also sent to Sean as soon as possible. When looking at this report, Sean smiled slightly: "It seems that Domingo's team still has smart people."

While saying so, he also passed the report to William, and then passed it to Neal's hands.

"If it's normal, we really can't help him, but unfortunately, they don't know our real plan." Sean waved his hand and motioned to the dark-winged soldier who sent the report to Domingo. Ge and others took them to the conference room on the third floor, "Go and invite Christina. Now we will hold the second negotiation on the ownership of Pandaling."

After a while, the meeting room on the third floor again sat with the people who sat in this meeting room ten days ago.

But this time, the smell of fire on each other's faces was obviously very heavy.

And it was not even Sean who broke the silence first, but Christina: "I hope your Excellency Domingo can explain what's going on?"

"Let me explain this kind of thing. I don't know how to explain it." Domingo looked resentful, "I am obviously framed by someone too! It is better to ask Your Excellency Sean, who is managing Panda It's better to offend someone when I got it, and even I want to discredit."

Looking at Domingo's outrageous appearance, if it hadn't been for getting accurate information from the Creed Assassin, Sean and others might have known him as innocent. After all, at the beginning, Xiao En and others also wanted to frame him. But I didn't expect Domingo to have the courage and courage to do such a thing.

"Humph!" Seeing Domingo's sophistry denial, Sean immediately snorted, "The other party is in your team, and you say you don't know? Your Excellency Domingo. Don't you think this joke is funny?... ...Traveling with so few teams, it's obvious that these people are direct descendants you can trust. Under such circumstances, you will not be able to recognize the identity of the other party. Do you think all the people present are stupid?"

Sean this sentence. Even Kristina summed it up, it was obvious that it naturally caused Kristina's heart to feel uncomfortable. only. Domingo's excuse is too far-fetched. It is no longer as simple as slapping the Peace Association in front of her, the executive officer of the Peace Association. It can even be said that she is completely ignored. Therefore, For Sean's statement, it is rare for Christina to not speak, but choose to default.

And Domingo, when he saw Christina being silent, he immediately realized that the executive officer of the Peace Association was really dissatisfied with him, so he could only hurriedly explain: "Indeed, the people I brought They were all Jing Rui selected by Jing Xin. However, after staying at the place you arranged by Your Excellency Shaun, we did not travel during this period of time, and I did not meet with other people. Therefore, I am also concerned about the personnel in the team. I don't know it very well, maybe the other party killed one of my guards at this time and then mixed into my team."

"Your Excellency Domingo, you are shirking responsibility." Shaun glanced at Domingo Hasting coldly. In fact, the thing he hates most is the wrangling between the nobles, because this kind of thing is often very troublesome. It may be a matter of days or even months without any results. For Sean, who is obviously a practical school, this is the most thankless and pure waste of time.

"Shirking responsibility?" Domingo raised his brows, and he was also stunned. "Do you have any evidence to prove that I did this? I even suspect that the other party may be someone you sent here. , The purpose is to plant me up! But I heard that the other party has several Yin Shadow Assassins. With your strength, Lord Shaun, you were unscathed in the siege of several Yin Shadow Assassins. Isn't this a miracle? ?"

"A strong enough person, will he care how many Yin Shadow Assassins come from the other party?" Sean sneered disdainfully, "What? Since Lord Domingo doesn't think I can successfully escape under the siege of Yin Shadow Assassins. , Then do you need me to take you to the scene to have a look? It just happens that no one has been arranged to clean it, and the corpses are still preserved."

At this moment, Sean was a little grateful to William, Neal, and Ruby for their strategy. This fake scene was really done right.

"No need." Christina just spoke without waiting for Domingo to reply, "I have seen the scene, it is indeed a life and death fight, it is impossible to fake it. And I did hear the movement... .."

Speaking of this, Christina took a deep look at Sean, which surprised Sean slightly. With the perceptual power of the golden strong, as long as they are close enough, they can indeed monitor some movement, unless it is equipped with a special soundproof magic array to effectively shield it, and that conference room does not have such a layout. Noise barrier, if Kristina has been monitoring, then Sean really can't block it.

"About this matter, Your Excellency Domingo is indeed the biggest suspect..."

"Wait." At this time, the clerk by Domingo's side suddenly spoke, "I think it is obviously biased to say this in your capacity. Before there is enough evidence, no matter what Whether it is us or Lord Sean is suspect, it is not possible to say which of them is the most suspicious.... And this time, we are obviously also victims."

At this moment, the door of the conference room was knocked suddenly.

Chapter 268: .Formally declare war [Thanks to the leader Wushang Zhonglin]

Everyone's brows wrinkled slightly, and their eyes couldn't help but all looked at Sean.

The meeting held in the meeting room at this time was about Pandaling's ownership ruling. Originally, this meeting should be held after Domingo's people arrived, but the sudden meeting is because of the accident of the attack on Sean. At this time, people in the entire Lord's Mansion should be very aware of the importance of this meeting room, so it is absolutely impossible for anyone to knock on the door of the meeting room at this time, unless Sean has not notified in advance.

The knock on the door became a little rush.

This time even Sean's brows were slightly frowned.

"Lord Lord, there is an urgent matter!" It seemed that the people outside the door finally realized what was wrong, and hurriedly said, "Hei se urgent!"

In order to facilitate the management of the territory and better handle all the government and military affairs of the entire territory, William, Neal and Sean have compiled a set of more detailed document approval levels. According to the different levels of these documents, their priority is processed The degree is naturally different.

Generally speaking, all documents can be divided into three levels, namely urgent, express and general documents.

Except for the general document without any mark, the priority of urgent mail is higher than that of express mail, and whether it is urgent or express mail, it is marked with black, red and yellow three se. The urgent and express mails of yellow se are general information, which can be processed in the order of priority; while red se is more important than yellow se, but are generally military documents; as for black se, in addition to representing top secrets, its priority level It is also the highest, but this kind of document is not exclusive to military documents, it may also be government documents or important information from the realm of the void, and it is usually signed and signed.

Black se urgent mail is undoubtedly the highest level important document among all documents. Sean also ordered that as long as there is a black emergency, then no matter what is going on at the time, it must be reported immediately, otherwise it must be dealt with with the highest penalty in the territory.

Although urgent items have been dealt with several times, they are always only yellow urgent items, let alone black ones, even red urgent items are not available.

At this time, this black urgent letter can be said to be the first black urgent letter that appeared after the establishment of this set of document instruction level system by Pandaling.

So Sean didn't even think about it, so he said, "Come in!"

The door of the room was quickly opened, and the one who walked in was a teenager with a tender face. In his right hand, he is holding a leather briefcase, but this bag is painted black, and there is sealing mud on it for sealing, all of which indicate the importance of this document.

This young man is naturally the leader of the void, Rupiah.

He walked quickly to Sean's side and handed this document to Sean's hands.

Originally, at this time, Sean shouldn't be distracted to deal with other things, but the important issue of the black emergency is the highest level, so Sean naturally disassembled this document immediately and took out the information recorded in it. A few sheets of paper.

What is recorded in this urgent document is not military or government affairs, but intelligence collected in the Void Realm. Judging from the ink traces on the paper, it is obvious that this document was sent immediately after the writing was completed, and it seems that due to the tight time, the handwriting in the document is relatively scribble-at least Sean has read the handwriting of Rupiah. This young man is pretty good in calligraphy. Under normal circumstances, it is impossible to write so scribbled. This is almost the crazy cursive calligraphy that Sean had heard of when he was on earth.

At the beginning, Xiao En's eyes were a little quick when he scanned the papers, but when he saw the second page, the speed obviously slowed down, and his brows began to frown. This move naturally attracted the attention of everyone present, even Kristina was a little curious about what was written on these papers, enough to make Sean distracted to think about the records in this document at this critical moment. Content.

When it came to the third page, Sean still had obvious anger on his face.

The content of this black emergency record is only four pages, even if Sean looks slowly, it will only take a minute or two. After he scanned the information recorded in this document, the atmosphere in the conference room obviously became a bit low, and Sean handed the four pages of paper to William who was sitting down, and at the same time raised his gaze at Doming. Ge, the look in his eyes was like a vicious beast, which made Domingo's heart feel a little frightened.

"Your Excellency Domingo, do you have a person named Ivan Dass?" Sean said in a deep voice, "Once the head of the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps."

"So what?" Domingo was taken aback, and some did not quite understand the meaning of Sean's question.

This time, among the people who came with the regiment disguised as his guards, besides the young assassin, there was indeed a man named Aiwen, but he did not find this man, but Gerson Nu. Arranged by Gus. According to Gerson Nugus, the head of the mercenary regiment named Aiwen has allowed his mercenary regiment to lurch in and out of Void City in batches. As soon as the time comes, he can initiate a campaign against Shaun. Assault.

Although Domingo had arranged for a troop of about a hundred people to hide near Void City, he launched a surprise attack as soon as Shaun left. However, with the assistance of a mercenary group, the winning rate will naturally be much higher. Therefore, Domingo did not reject the arrangement of Gerson Nugus, even if he knew that this was Gerson's distrust of him, but after all He is the young master of the Nugus family and the heir most hopeful of inheriting the Nugus family, so Domingo could not express his distrust and arrangements.

But listening to Sean's meaning at the moment, it seems that this person has something to do with Sean.

"Then Lord Domingo, please hand over this person." Xiao En said calmly, "This person and his mercenary group are the most wanted criminals of Pandaling. I have been following his clues for a long time. "

"Joke, I have to do it if you let me make it?" Domingo frowned and sneered. "I don't care what he had with you before, but now this person is my subordinate, then I must To ensure the safety of my members, it is absolutely impossible to hand him over to you just because of a word from you."

"This person used to be the head of the mercenary regiment hired by the predecessor of White Pigeon Town, Void City." Xiao En said calmly, "but when I regained the Bandar leader, I started a decisive battle with the Dabron mercenary regiment. At that time, the mercenary group that was supposed to be in charge of ambushing and assaulting combat positions escaped, causing heavy losses to allies. His behavior is no longer different from betraying allies, so from that moment I ordered the hunt for this Ai. Wen Das and his heroic sword mercenary group."

Listening to Sean's words, Domingo was also slightly taken aback. He did not expect the crime of desertion and betrayal committed by the man named Aiwen. Just thinking about it again, Domingo was a little relieved, because a long time ago, Gerson Nugus wanted to completely conquer the entire Pandan collar, but because then the Pandan collar still belonged to the Marquis of Tonis in name. Therefore, it is impossible for him to blatantly invade, so naturally he can only use the mercenary regiment to control this territory.

But then all these plans were destroyed by Sean. For this reason, when the war broke out, the mercenary group was secretly ordered to retreat, so that Sean's army fell under the attack of the Dabron mercenary group and continued to display himself. The plan is also very possible. According to this situation, this Ivan Goars should be the heir of Geson Nugus, how could Domingo give the person to Sean?

Sean doesn't know what Domingo's thoughts have turned now. He obviously hasn't finished his words: "This person had thought of attacking Pandaling before, so maybe it was him that I was attacked tonight. Arranged, so His Excellency Domingo may also be deceived by him. I hope your Excellency will not affect the friendship between our two territories because of this person."

"Hehe, you really can talk." After hesitating for a while, Domingo made a decision in his heart. It is impossible for him to hand over this person. "I still said that. Where is the evidence? You can't think about it without evidence. Stigmatize any of my subordinates. I will not hand it over to you, Ivan Dass, at least until you find evidence."

"Evidence?" Xiao En sneered, "For a wanted criminal in Panda collar, do I need to pay attention to any evidence? Since Your Excellency Domingo is unwilling to hand over the person, then you can go, Your Excellency."

"Go?" Domingo was taken aback for a moment, and he didn't understand the meaning of Sean's words.

But Sean ignored Domingo, turned his head and looked at Christina, and said in a deep voice, "Your Excellency the Executive Officer of the Peace Association, you said that you would give me three months. For these three months, I am still the lord of Pandaren, so I still have all the legal rights to rule this territory, right?"

Kristina stared at Sean, her eyes sharp and indifferent. In fact, when Sean asked this sentence, she already knew what Sean wanted to do. But she couldn't help but recall the previous communications between the ri and the organization headquarters, and Sean's contribution to the Medusa Chamber of Commerce, so after only a little hesitation, Christina finally made a decision. : "Yes. Before Domingo Hastings, the lord of Dabientin Chin, can't produce enough evidence, you do have the legal right to rule this territory, and if you don't submit evidence within three months If you do, then you will always become the legal lord of Pandaling."

"Thank you, Honorable Executive Officer." Sean nodded his head to thank him, then turned his head and said in a deep voice, "Administrator Neal and Commander William, please arrange for you to arrange for Domingo Hastings and his subordinates immediately. All the people were deported out of the country."

"Dare you!" Domingo shot up at the table immediately, with a face of disbelief, "Executive Officer, now Pandaling is still in a state of controversy..."

"Can you submit new evidence now?" Christina asked, but this sentence choked Domingo on the spot.

Sean stopped saying anything, and waved his hand: "Send off the guest!"

Both Neil and William got up immediately. At the same time, several heavy infantry with dark wings stepped in outside the meeting room, faintly encircling Domingo and others, and Cecilia chanted a curse like no one else. Wen Lai. All of the situations are obviously extremely unfavorable to Domingo and others. Under such circumstances, they have lost the support of the Peace Association. Of course, they can only choose to get up and leave. It is just this shame that Domingo obviously will not forget.

"By the way, you remember to keep Ivan Goss and all the members of the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps under his command, and investigate immediately in the Void City."

"Sean! You are breaking the rules!" Hearing what Shaun said, Domingo was already inexhaustible, "Are you trying to start a war?"

"War?" Sean glanced at Domingo coldly, but there was a sneer at the corner of his mouth, "Since you are so eager for war, then I will give you war.... Now, I officially declare war against you. I'll give you one month to prepare. One month later, Captain Panda will carry out military operations against Tingqiin!"

As soon as this sentence came out, not only Domingo, Taylor, and Thain looked shocked, but even Christina's brows wrinkled.

"See off!"

Chapter 269: .trade

Domingo's yelling voice has gradually faded away.

In the meeting room, only Christina and Sean were left.

Sean knows very well that Christina is still sitting here, of course there is something to tell him, otherwise it is absolutely impossible to stay here at this time. At least, when Sean personally uttered the words to declare war on Tin Chiyin, it was equivalent to slapped the Peace Association severely in front of Christina. Not to mention that the Peace Association occasionally instigates a few Yin conspiracies to cause a war to break out, but for this lunatic organization, any war behavior that is not caused by their instigation is an evil extreme act that destroys peace and destroys the world. This is very easy. Arouse their anger and revenge.

To put it simply, the Peace Association has a taste of "only Guanzhou is allowed to set fires and the people are not allowed to light lamps."

"You are provoking the Peace Association." Kristina looked at Sean, her tone a little bit unkind.

"It's too much." Sean's face was very calm, and there was not much fluctuation, "I believe you can understand it."

Kristina is a high-ranking golden powerhouse, and there is still a long way to go from the sanctuary. But Shaun knew that facing the white-robed executives of the Peace Association, they absolutely cannot be measured by ordinary combat power standards, at least even those high-level golden powerhouses at the peak level are not necessarily Christina's opponents. But all this is just the feeling that Kristina's obvious aura brings to Sean. Sean knows that with Kristina's real combat power, he definitely has to raise it a few more levels in this evaluation. Probably only Xuefanio, who is fully armed and casts all magical superpositions, has the power to fight Christina.

And Sean's strength, facing Xuefanio in his heyday, even if he and Gollum team up are not opponents.

So Sean easily came to the conclusion that he is not Christina's opponent.

Since he is not an opponent, Sean certainly will not provoke Christina.

"What if I can't understand?" Kristina retracted her gaze from Sean's eyes, then spread her left hand slightly.

Sean's gaze was naturally attracted by Kristina's actions. At the beginning, he didn't notice anything, but soon Sean saw some clues: There was a slight air current in Kristina's palm. It was shaking, if it weren't for careful observation, it would be impossible to spot this vision. However, considering that Kristina's profession is an Arcane warrior, which is a profession that has something to do with arcane magic, it is normal to have some means similar to arcane magic.

But even so, Sean did not panic at all.

Because in his eyes, a dark green halo appeared on Christina's body at this moment.

Allies (good faith).

This is the news displayed by the real eye, and it also shows that Christina is not hostile to him. This is the fundamental reason why Sean is not nervous at all. Since advancing to the third level in the real eye, after discovering the situation of Diels, in order to better use this ability, Sean has now developed a situation where almost everyone will open the real eye and scan it again. .

People like William, Neal, and Alfred will emit a blue halo on their bodies, which means they are companions. As for those who don't know each other, their bodies will emit a yellow halo, which means strangers. As for the previous three of Domingo, Taylor, and Thain, when they first met, they exuded the same orange red se as Diels, but after turning their faces just now, the halo on their bodies immediately turned red se.

Enemies (hatred).

The data displayed by the real eye is obviously impossible to falsify. However, Sean also discovered that there are other subtleties, that is, for different people, the content in parentheses after the data displayed by True Eye is also different. For example, Anno and Cecilia are "companions (adoration, while Alfred, Rena, Clover and others are also "companions (respect. As for William and Neal, The evaluation of these two people is only "companion (intimate.

So at this moment, as long as the halo on Christina's body does not change, then it at least proves that she has no hostility to Sean, which is why Sean is relieved.

It's just that Kristina didn't know that Sean was so calm by relying on a cheat device. She looked at Sean in a little surprised. In her impression, she was a double blow to her power and strength. Those who can be so calm are obviously not ordinary people. Therefore, when Kristina realized that her usual deterrent method was useless, she stopped showing off and turned her head to look at Sean seriously.

After a moment of silence, Christina finally waved her hand, and immediately there was a barrier covering the entire conference room.

Seeing this barrier appear, Xiao En's pupils shrank slightly.

For Christina's hand, he knew very well that it was a kind of magical barrier. Among all the spells, the new type of alchemy developed in the past two years-the spell barrier is the most difficult of all alchemy, but Kristina is obviously not laborious to perform, which means that Christine Na must also master other offensive magic arts.

Martial arts, arcane arts, and alchemy, three completely different power paths appeared on the same person, and it was obviously not the half-bucket tone, but very jingling. So far, Sean can be sure, even if it is. Xuefanio in his heyday will not be Kristina's opponent, unless Xuefanio directly uses Goddess to win Kristina.

But at this moment, Christina, who seemed to be a little worried, didn't notice Sean's gaze. After laying down the barrier to prevent eavesdropping, she opened her mouth and said, "From the moment you receive Panda's collar, the Peace Association has never stopped collecting all your information, so many of your actions are actually clear to us. Judging from the analysis data of these intelligences, your declaration of war on Ting Qiin is definitely not a matter of necessity, but a plan of you. A long-standing excuse."

Sean's brows were still frowning at first, but after listening to Christina's words, Sean's brows opened up. Since Christina is not hostile to him, then at least there are some things he feels that he does not need to hide it. After all, he will go to war with Darbion in the future. Although he is not afraid of the Peace Association, he is really worried about peace. The association ran to support Darbion, and that was the real pain.

The Kingdom of Fascism was almost wiped out by the Chenas Empire. Only the intervention of the Peace Association at the last moment allowed the Kingdom of Fascism to survive to this day. Therefore, if the Peace Association starts from the point of view of "maintaining the balance of the continental structure," it is very possible to assist Dabion, who is about to destroy the country.

Although this didn't happen in the game, it was because the war broke out and went into intense heat directly under the frenzied fighting of the players, and then it ended before everyone on the entire continent could react.

But now, there are not so many players in this world, and the Peace Association has also appeared early, so for Sean, the threat is still relatively large.

However, after seeing Sean admit that it was just an excuse to declare war on Tin Chiyin, Kristina's * se was much calmer. Unlike before, she was a little hesitant, so she continued to speak, "About you. The killing order has been revoked, and if there is no accident, Pandaling will also belong to you. For your declaration of war this time, it is not difficult for me to suppress the opinions of the headquarters, so this time I will open it. Closing one eye with one eye is the peace association's gratitude to you for providing the information of the Medusa Business Association."

After listening to Christina's words, Sean was taken aback. He didn't expect Christina to be so straightforward.

Of course, what he did not expect was that the information from the Medusa Business Association could still be used to do business with the Peace Association. You must know that this business association will develop very well in the future, and it is now being targeted by the madman organization of the Peace Association. I'm on it, I'm afraid it will be uncomfortable in the future. But Sean also knew that Kristina was implying that the attack on Tin Chiyin was the biggest concession of the Peace Association. If they wish to provoke a war between the two countries, the Peace Association will inevitably intervene.

"The hatred that the Nugus family and I can't resolve." After thinking about it, Sean still said, "This is an uncompromising hatred, almost second only to blood revenge. And Panda is under my control, It also completely blocked the route leading to the Wildlands. Even if I no longer trouble Darbion after this time, Darbion will never let me go."

"Then after this battle, all you need to do is to open up the line of the Rift Valley." Kristina said softly, "Dabion will treat this as a concession, so even if you win Dabion In the three territories of Dabion, Darbion will not pursue this matter again. As for the matter of the Nugus family in Dabion, if they have been entangled and even intend to provoke a war, the Peace Association will also take action."

Sean smiled. He is now the madness of the Peace Association, although Christina's words are very fair: whoever wants to pick things up they go to the trouble. However, it is impossible for him to open the route of the Gorge Rift alone, let alone open to the kingdom of Darbion, even the Principality of Ryan did not intend to open it, so this is simply an unsolvable problem.

In other words, if it weren't for the Great Rift Valley and the Wildlands, Sean's route to open the Gap Rift Valley would actually be nothing. war. But not now, let alone the Peace Association, even in the face of the Pan-Continent Business Association Alliance, Sean will not return the Great Rift Valley.

So Xiao En shook his head and said in a deep voice, "I am not an adventurous person. Since I know that my enemy is standing in front of me, then I must punch him to the ground... so this is the case. No matter what the attitude of the Peace Association is, I will not back down."

"Do you want to declare war with the Peace Association?" Kristina raised her brows, and God was a little uncomfortable, and in Sean's eyes, Kristina's halo quickly turned green. Turning into orange red se, it is already a slightly hostile symbol.

Fight against Christina?

Since she is not an opponent, he still has to fight her, Sean is not so stupid.

So, Sean said again: "Declaration of war is out of the question....It's better for us to make a deal."

"What deal?"

Sean returned and said: "I will provide you with an intelligence clue, and you promised me that your Peace Association will never intervene in my side and the Kingdom of Darbion, how about it?"

Hearing Sean's words, Kristina's mouth raised slightly, as if she had heard a very funny joke, she hahad: "Ha ha, make a war deal with the Peace Association? This is the first time I have said this. Listen, I don't think how many talented people in your Principality of Ryan can completely take over the management of the entire Kingdom of Darbion....Of course, I don't think there are any intelligence clues that can be more valuable than the stability of the entire continent."

"If..." The corners of Sean's mouth also raised slightly, revealing a very friendly smile, "Is this intelligence clue one of the five core nests of Deadthorn?"

Kristina's face changed drastically.

Chapter 270: .Your existence is worthless

William and Neal, soon took Domingo and others outside the lord's mansion.

Here, Domingo and everyone under his command have been rushed together. Just a glance, Domingo's face becomes very ugly.

The subordinates brought by Domingo have gathered at this moment. Although they have not been disarmed, Domingo does not feel any respect. Because from the faces of the surrounding soldiers, Domingo saw only a deep disdain, and it was obvious that in the eyes of these soldiers, it was not important to disarm these people under his command.

"You..." The anger on Domingo's face was very obvious, but as soon as he spoke, Thain pulled his sleeves.

"Does your lord have the right to declare war on Tingqiin?". Thain took a step forward. He knew that his father was easily affected by emotions and made some wrong judgments. This is why he could only serve as the commander of a legion, and could not enter the Royal Military Headquarters to become one. The reason for the commander.

"Didn't you hear what the executive officer said just now?". William said lightly, "Our lord has all the legal ruling rights of the entire Pandaren. Do you know what legal ruling rights are? This includes the right to declare war."

"Your lord is not even a nobleman, he is just a pioneering knight." Saien said in a deep voice, the * se on his face was still as calm as before, and it has not changed because of William or Shaun's attitude just now. A pioneering knight not only expelled a nobleman, but also issued a declaration of war. Are you provoking the entire Kingdom of Darbion?".

William raised his eyebrows slightly, he felt that he was a little misleading, but he did not expect that the clerk in front of him was a talent. In just a few words, the situation of Sean and Domingo has risen from personal grievances to a national level. If William answered yes, then this must be the fuse of the war between the two countries, but if he does not answer, then the true nature of the declaration of war will also be a question mark, which will weaken Sean's authority instead.

However, if another person is faced with this kind of inquiry, how to answer perfectly is indeed a difficult task.

But for Sean, who had long wanted to go to war with Darbion and frustrated that there was no suitable excuse, Thain's words gave them an excuse instead.

So William didn't even think about it, and he said directly: "If you don't use Darbion to scare people, what if you are provoking Darbion? Is it possible that Darbion will fight for your waste? Don't say it's you. , Even if the five princes of your kingdom standing in front of us today, our lord did not take it seriously."

William said that, the faces of Domingo, Thain and others became very ugly.

This is already a naked provocation and insult to all the nobles in a kingdom.

"You are a bit too much." Neil said suddenly.

Sean and Domingo glanced at the chief administrative officer under Sean, God se was a little better. As long as there is a step, Thain can step down. After all, if he is leading the battle with Panda. Their Ting Qi hadn't made enough preparations yet, and they didn't even think of the idea of a war breaking out in the first place. In this case, rushing to challenge is definitely not a good idea for them Tin Chiyin.

So Neil said these words. In Thain's eyes, it is a subtext of a step. This made Thain feel that Neal seemed to be more pleasing to the eye. After all, he is the chief administrative officer of a territory who specializes in managing internal affairs. If war starts, it will also make his work difficult and troublesome, so war has always been The most disliked situation of all administrative officials.

"Which is too much?" William looked back at Neal.

"Did you put them in your eyes?" As soon as Neil spoke, Thain's brows wrinkled slightly. It didn't seem like they were going to step down.

"Of course it won't be in the eyes." William sneered, and squinted at Domingo and others.

"Since you and I are not both in your eyes, how can Lord Lord put it in your eyes?" Neil said calmly, but he choked and almost spit out blood. "It's like you heard a dog barking wildly. Are you still yelling at him? Just hit him to death with a stick. Did you say that what you just said was too much?"

"Indeed." William smiled and nodded, "I said too much. I actually compare Lord Lord with these grasshoppers. I'm so sorry Lord Lord."

"you....."

"What am I? Hurry up and roll, haven't you heard the lord expelled you from the country? You still stay here and don't leave, you are really thick-skinned." William frowned with disgust, and God se appeared very impatient. "By the way, the people from the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps must stay out, and the rest of you can get out."

When he heard William's words, the guards under Domingo made a sound of sao movement, because at this time, the heavy black-armored infantry surrounding them had begun to step forward and grab people in the crowd. This was another naked insult to Domingo. The other party did not take him as the earl in his eyes. It was obvious that Sean was serious in the meeting room before.

"Stop it all!" Domingo exclaimed.

But as a unit currently under the direct command of William, how can the soldiers with dark wings listen to what this is the enemy at all?

Seeing that the other party didn't give himself any face, Domingo immediately yelled: "Taylor!"

The deputy commander of the Second Cavalry Regiment, who understood his mind, immediately rushed towards William.

He is a high-ranking gold powerhouse, and at this time he shot with a thunderous attack. The distance between the two sides is not even five meters. This kind of distance is not a sneak attack, even if it is a frontal attack, even Sean may not be able to attack. It can be resisted immediately, so dealing with a William who has no combat power at all can be said to be a matter of hand. And Domingo's plan is to hold William first. As long as William is in their hands, let alone keep the sword of bravery, I'm afraid he can do some tricks even on the issue of Panda's collar, because Domingo has long seen that William and Neal have an unusual relationship with Sean.

Faced with Taylor who suddenly shot, William didn't move. Just when everyone thought William was frightened, he saw the corners of William's mouth slightly raised.

Taylor was shocked, when a cold wind suddenly hit from the side. Its speed is even far above him. For a while, Taylor realized that the person who shot was definitely an upper-level golden powerhouse whose strength was not below him, and that the opponent was closer than himself and William, otherwise it would not be possible to give aid immediately at this moment. And if he still insisted on wanting to shoot William at this time, then his right hand would be abolished, so even thinking about it, Taylor immediately withdrew.

A flash of light will disappear.

Taylor's * se appeared extremely solemn.

A woman wearing a special priest's robe walked out. The scabbard on her waist had no sword. She held a cutting blade in her right hand and stood in front of William and Neal. Looking directly at Tyler.

Xuefanio.

"Priest with a knife!?" Taylor God changed slightly. Judging from the aura of this woman, he could feel that the strength of the other party was not inferior to him.

If it is an ordinary church clergyman, even if it is a priest or a temple knight, Taylor will not change his expression. Because he was confident that even if he couldn't win his opponent, he still had no problem keeping Domingo and Thain. But if it is a priest with a sword. Then the situation becomes very, very difficult. Because the priest with a knife is the most powerful profession in the church system, basically it can be regarded as the invincible category of the same level. In the face of such a priest with a knife, Taylor may still be able to protect himself, but he wants to protect Doming. Ge and Thain are absolutely impossible.

When you hear the words "Priest with a knife". Domingo's face also changed suddenly, and he immediately shouted: "Church personnel? This is a matter between our nobles, and your church personnel have no right to intervene!"

The opposition between royal power and religious power is not a secret in this world. Basically except in the Empire of St. Joles and a few other countries. In other places on the mainland, royal power is stronger than religious power. Therefore, in these places, the church rarely intervenes in the affairs of the nobles. In this area, including the war of the territory, there is almost never such a thing as the church accompanying the military priest; and the same Yes, the noble lords will also give the necessary respect and a certain degree of autonomy to these churches, and even divide the temple autonomous regions in some areas.

Whether it is the Kingdom of Darbion or the Principality of Lane, it is also a kingdom in which the royal power is stronger than the religious power.

So no matter how fierce Domingo and Sean fight, the church as a transcendent institution is not qualified to intervene-of course, it is different in the Empire of St. Giles.

"I have an agreement with Sean." Xuefanio said softly.

What kind of agreement, Xuefanio did not say, but Domingo, who thinks he is smart, can already guess something. Many nobles will have a secret agreement with the church in the territory. The content of these agreements is different, but most of them are more inclined to protect and assist. However, this kind of agreement is basically written in black and white. Agreement only. If Domingo knew that the agreement between Xuefanio and Sean was a divine agreement, I am afraid he would not dare to have any other thoughts.

At this moment, the guards under Domingo also broke out a greater restlessness and several screams.

When looked back, Domingo's anger could no longer be maintained.

Because the dark-winged people have engaged in a short and fierce confrontation with his guards, more than a dozen people have fallen on the ground. These people are members of the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps, and some of them are private soldiers in his territory. There are no people under William's command. The treatment of these people is also completely different. Like the private army under his domain, they are only subdued and lose their fighting ability, but all the soldiers of the Heroic Sword mercenary are killed on the spot.

Seeing the scene faintly out of control, William couldn't help but frown.

In his expectation, Aiwen and his heroic sword should be included by Domingo. But at this moment, it seems obvious that his prediction is wrong. At least this Aiwen is not included by Domingo. Maybe his status is about the same level as Domingo. If you think about it, William is a little clear. , I understand that this Aiwen should be included by the Nugus family.

In this way, why the Sword of Valor would abandon itself and flee when he led his army to fight with the Dabron Mercenary Corps. There is also a speculation.

"Take it!" Thinking of this, William immediately understood it, and it was even more impossible for Ivan to escape from the Void City, "Who dares to intercept it. Kill it!"

With an order, the momentum of this unit of Jet Black Wings changed immediately.

Although under William's reorganization and training, the jet black wings only lasted more than half a year, and it could not be regarded as a true Tier 3 regular army. However, the tacit understanding of cooperation has matured, and the equipment configuration of all the jet black wings is at a good level. It is still a heavy infantry corps. In addition, the opponent has less than 30 people. Thirty people are a level five army, and I am afraid that none of them can stop the attack of the jet black wings.

To know. At this moment, there were hundreds of soldiers with dark wings surrounding the lord's mansion, and on the surrounding roofs were steel-winged soldiers with bows and arrows. Even if it is really not defeated, all the heavy infantry only needs to put up a defensive formation, and then let the steel-winged soldiers disperse, it is enough to turn all these people into hedgehogs.

At this time, I saw the momentum of the pitch-black wings changed. Whether it's Domingo or Thain, or Ivan hiding in the crowd. It was immediately known that Sean, William and others were serious. Immediately had to start fighting hard. However, under the huge advantage gap, in less than ten seconds, these guards under Domingo left five or six more corpses. This time the pitch black wings were significantly more aggressive, regardless of whether the opponent was brave. The Sword of Mercenary Corps is still an ordinary soldier, and all those who dare to block resistance will be killed.

soon. The smell of blood began to permeate outside the lord's mansion.

But at this moment, a scream of killing sounded from all directions.

William raised his brow slightly, and he immediately reacted.

Not only William, but Domingo, Thain, Taylor, Neal and others. I also realized the changes in the situation in an instant. However, at this time, Neil and William glanced at Domingo secretly. From his face, he saw a bit of amazement and helplessness. Now William became more convinced of his guess. It is obvious that Ai Wen Bei was sent to Domingo by the Nugus family,

But what made him dissatisfied was that the heroic sword commanded by Ivan was actually mixed into the Void City in batches without knowing it, but the Void Realm was not discovered at all, which made William realize it in the first place. There must be a major surveillance loophole in the void. It's just that it's useless to know this now. According to intelligence clues, Aiwen's Heroic Sword mercenary group has a total number of up to 2,000 people. Although it is much less than the current nearly 10,000 defenders in the city, it is now in the lord. There are fewer than a thousand soldiers near the mansion. If they are surrounded by the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps, it will be them who will become troublesome and troublesome.

Thinking of this, William immediately said to Neal: "You first retreat into the lord's mansion."

Neil nodded. He knew that in this situation, he could not help much. Although he was not weaker than William in military strategy, he could even be said to be a little more advanced, but even Neil had to admit He is indeed inferior to William in terms of command in the battle. After all, William has focused on this aspect of development from the beginning, and he has also undergone systematic xing education. He is naturally experienced and has too much distraction, so he is really inferior to William in this respect.

The sound of killing is obviously becoming more deafening.

William's eyes gradually made Yin cold. He did not hesitate at all, and said in a deep voice, "Red se flare."

I don't know when, several messengers have already gathered around William. Following William's order, one of the messengers immediately took out a signal flare and fired it. In an instant, the sky above the Lord's Mansion turned into a beautiful sunset glow, but for ordinary people, it was a beautiful sunset glow, but for Domingo, who was also a soldier, it was filled with a sense of killing.

Cannot help, Domingo glanced sideways at William slightly, but saw that William had a solemn face at this time, and the aura on the whole person was completely opposite to that in the meeting room just now.

William certainly felt Domingo's gaze, but he didn't care.

Gently glanced at the heroic sword mercenaries who were under siege. At this time, fewer than ten people were still alive. Seeing these people fighting and retreating still in an orderly manner, William knew that all these people were brave. The members of the Sword of Mercenary Corps, otherwise they could not have such a tacit understanding. Although the black-winged soldiers still have the upper hand, and the arrows from the surrounding roofs continue to go to these people, the effect is very low, and only depends on the opponent's retreat route and the sound of killing, William Knowing that there is a team of heroic swords breaking through here.

Seeing this, William already had a basic judgment: "Stand fast with both walls. Sniper."

Two simple words and four characters, but it reveals an extremely Yin Han killing intent.

The two messengers soon left William's side.

No one knew where they were going, but after a while, they saw the dark-winged heavy infantry surrounding the less than ten men immediately changed their formation and stopped trying to strangle with the heroes of these people. Instead, they put up a tortoise-defense and non-attack formation, using only the shield and the heavy armor on the body to form an encircling circle, enclosing everyone in the innermost. Of course, this is not the end. This formation only surrounded three circles. At the beginning of the fourth circle, the heavy infantry turned around, facing the heavy shield in their hands to the outside, and also surrounded the third floor.

Seeing this scene, Domingo immediately understood William's intention. This formation can not only resist siege from outsiders, but also completely trap those inside. Although only relying on these hundreds of people may not last long. But thinking of the signal flare that William gave out at the beginning, and the tight deployment seen at the embassy before, I am afraid that in just a few minutes, all the defenders of the city will flock here. By then, it will be these that will be wiped out. The man with the heroic sword.

Domingo is just a little impulsive, or he is not suitable for the commander-in-chief. But by no means an idiot.

Seeing this change, he immediately turned and walked towards the lord's mansion without hesitation. Thain's reaction was half a beat slower, but when he saw his father's movements, he immediately became aware of it. Immediately he pulled Taylor and walked into the lord's mansion.

Seeing Domingo's actions, William's eyes flashed with helplessness.

In fact, as Domingo thought, there are 10,000 defenders in the Void City at this moment, and the heroic sword mercenary group of more than 2,000 people may be able to cause a certain scale of destruction and chaos in a short period of time. However, in the absence of sufficient deterrent bargaining chips, sooner or later they will be wiped out by the defenders. Of course, a moment of chaos is inevitable, and in this case, William can even order Domingo and others to be killed.

It's just that William didn't expect that Domingo was so careful and cautious, and he immediately returned to the Lord's Mansion, without thinking or knowing that they must go back to Kristina. Only by Kristina's side is the real safety. However, although he was unable to kill Domingo and others by the way, William did not care. He had carefully checked the information sent by the rupee, so he knew that such a thing might happen. .

The only thing unexpected is that the sword of bravery has developed very well in the past year, and the members have grown to this size.

If you only rely on the city defense army, I am afraid it is really difficult to block this mercenary group.

But now there is more than one city defense army in the city. After seeing this sunset-like scene, William believed that Alfred would come over soon.

In everything, just as William had expected, the city defense forces that laid out the defense line to strangle the street were not at all an opponent of the mercenaries like the Sword of Bravery. They just resisted for less than five minutes, and the defense line was completely opened. The heroic sword mercenaries suddenly rushed to the lord's mansion like mercury, halfway out of them, and half of them went towards the defensive formation under the hundreds of dark-winged heavy infantry.

These mercenaries are coming fiercely, and their evil spirits are extremely heavy. They are obviously a troop accustomed to fighting in battle.

However, the location of the Lord's Mansion is located in the core of the entire void city. The layout here still retains the original appearance of the town center of Baige Town. It is only slightly expanded for the square. The square in the center of the city can only accommodate up to four, Five hundred people. At this moment, there are hundreds of soldiers with dark wings forming a circle in one corner of the square. The space occupied is by no means small. Therefore, although there are as many as 300 or 400 enemies rushing to the center of the city, considering the combat situation, At most, only one or two hundred people can open the front line, and in the end, the more than one hundred people can only serve as the reserve force.

However, these are only for the central square of the city.

Like the Lord's Mansion, the gate can only accommodate a few people to pass side by side. Perhaps if you step over the wall, you can enter thirty or forty people, but in the Lord's Mansion it is by no means defensive. There are more than thirty people in darkness. The real Jing Rui of the wings is in the courtyard of this lord's mansion, and there are high-ranking golden powerhouses such as Xuefanio.

So seeing those people rushing towards the lord's mansion, William God seized a cold and raised his right hand slightly. With a sudden wave.

In an instant, dozens of arrows flew out from all directions, and then fell into the crowd of the Heroic Sword Mercenary Corps.

These soldiers are not like jet black wings with heavy armor, heavy armor and heavy shields. Almost everyone wears soft armor made of leather. They are used to resist the frontal attacks of swords and swords. They are strong arrows like longbows. It would be impossible to stop an attack. So just the first round of arrows rain, there were 20 or 30 heroic sword mercenaries immediately fell.

Faced with this sudden attack, all the mercenaries immediately noticed that there were archers in ambush nearby, and immediately scattered some people to kill them towards the surrounding buildings.

As soon as I saw the actions of these people. The corners of William's mouth raised slightly, and all the enemy's actions were completely within his expectations.

Since he can arrange for these archers to occupy the high points to monitor the entire city center square, how could he not arrange to stay behind to protect these archers? And fighting against each other in such a room is not something that can be conquered by simply relying on the number of people, because if you fight indoors. Space is extremely limited, if you kill the doorway and passage. The advantage in numbers cannot be used at all.

Just look at the reactions of these mercenaries. William immediately had a more accurate evaluation of this mercenary: whether it is individual combat capability, the degree of coordination, the use of tactical formation, etc., it is far better than any of the three top troops under Sean's command. , Even if compared with the three top troops, they all have their own wins-the use of tactical formation is far better than the use of steel wings, the individual combat ability is far better than the Cecilia Guards, and the degree of coordination is far better than the Lion of Thunder .

Not to mention the black wings and the Void City Defense Army, which ranked second and third from the bottom of the ten troops.

It is not a fluke to be able to break through a mature defensive line of defense in a few minutes. Just give them enough time to swallow the hundreds of soldiers with dark wings. It is not a problem to successfully rescue their captain, Ivan Dass.

But unfortunately, this force is destined to not have enough time.

Because Alfred has led the Thunder Lion to rush over, William has even heard the footsteps rolling like thunder, and it will only take another minute at most. They can rush into the square. And in this kind of battle in an area where there is not much space, the Lion of Thunder does not need any tacit understanding at all. It only needs to rely on the formation of the formation to easily harvest the lives of these mercenaries.

As for those mercenaries who are troubled by archers, William doesn't have to worry about them anymore.

Steel Wings are the strongest force. They are not under these mercenaries only in terms of individual combat power, and they are still fighting in a narrow area like the house. With the equipment of steel wings, they want to defeat these and find them. The troublesome enemy is simply a breeze. Besides, if only the steel-winged archers are regarded as archers, I am afraid they will suffer more than this.

The houses near the central square of the city are not far away from the city center, and it takes only one or two minutes to run forward. But now a few minutes have passed, and the rain of arrows still shows no signs of stopping. Instead, the mercenaries of the Sword of Valor have fallen down more people, and hundreds of corpses have been dropped in the central square of the city. , Almost all of them are the mercenary corpses of the Sword of Valor.

The reason why said almost is because the jet black wings have also begun to suffer casualties.

As long as the enemy has casualties, even if there are only one or two, it is a good start for the sword of bravery. At least, the morale that had been somewhat decayed, but at this time actually began to recover, which made William extremely dissatisfied.

But at this moment, Xuefanio started.

A brilliance of azure blue se, shining on all the dark-winged soldiers, a thin and transparent layer of blue se shining shining on them. The weapons that would have spattered sparks on the armors of these soldiers were slashed. This time, after falling on them, they did not emit these sparks. Instead, there was a huge counter-shock force, and their weapons were even stained. With some white frost, this made the weapons in the hands of mercenaries like the Sword of Valor instantly become vulnerable.

Ice Armor of Thorns!

This is an enhanced advanced divine technique of ice armor. It has the physical defenses attached to ice armor and also has a certain anti-injury ability. Of course, in reality, I will definitely not cut it up like a game, and I will lose blood, but the strong counter-shock force will obviously make the enemy somewhat uncomfortable. In addition to that, the Frost Hua talent can make the weapon weak. It is a more terrifying and difficult problem.
