

Lord of War Vol 3-401

Chapter 401: .We are members of the Peace Council

Kristina frowned slightly, and she couldn't help but glance up at a room on the third floor.

In that room, there was only one figure standing by the window, and the other figure was nowhere to be seen.

She is not good at political considerations, but it does not mean that she is a fool, but she has an absolutely religious attitude towards her beliefs. However, after Xiao En's reminder, she finally realized the reason why Asazi still avoids showing up until now.

The general public may not know the real reason for the closure of Adroan.

But it's impossible for someone with an identity like Asazi to not know it. Even if you really don't know Christina's background, you will definitely know that it is someone you can't afford to provoke. It is undoubtedly unrealistic to put pressure on Christina to lift the blockade of Adroan, so they can only put pressure on Woody. After all, the city of Adroan can be prosperous today. Inseparable from the investment of these tycoons.

So in the end, the one who needs to bear the risks and pressures is undoubtedly Woody Wyrrian, the current head of the Wyrrian family.

is also based on the above various reasons, so in the face of Christina's strong intrusion, Asazi must be inconvenient to show his face. Because once he shows his face, he will have to make direct contact with Christina. With the aura of Christina, it is obviously impossible for Asazi not to give face. According to Sean's understanding, if Asazi really Dare to annoy Kristina, maybe he will be killed directly by Kristina.

But in this way, it is obviously inconsistent with Asazi's plan.

So not meeting with Christina and others is the best result.

I just wanted to come to Asazi, but I didn't know that Christina would be so decisive, saying that he would do it directly.

Xiao En glanced at the middle-aged man who was clearly the leader of this group of mercenaries, and the corners of his mouth raised slightly. He was sure that the middle-aged man had definitely received Assazi's order in advance. Try to hold Kristina as much as possible, while avoiding all unnecessary conflicts and losses. Of course, Christina's superb strength and strength really shocked this group of people severely, but this helped the other party-restraining her subordinates not to make casual moves. It is not an easy task.

Who is Sean?

That is the Grand Duke of the dignified Void Duchy. Now, although his subordinates can't make it to the top in the army, the appearance of Kozilek, Levi, and Alyssa is the real reason why he can now walk around like a crab.

Used as a gun?

A sneer appeared in Xiao En's heart. Since he came into this world, no one has dared to use him as a gunman.

Since someone dared to do this, if Sean doesn't show the other person a little bit of color, where will he put his face after the news goes out? There will definitely be a bunch of people who want to use him as a gunman. Even the Seven Great Empires may directly use the Void Principality as a gunman.

This precedent. Never open!

However, Sean also knew that if it was him who would be held accountable afterwards, perhaps Christina would not dare to say anything. But it is impossible for Sean to go with Christina forever. Once they part ways, these small-minded guys will definitely retaliate.

Therefore, the people who make the shot are naturally particular about it.

Kristina took a deep look at Sean. Shaun met his eyes, and when he looked at the other person's indifferent eyes, Kristina knew that it was inconvenient to take action. So he stopped talking, turned his head and looked at the mercenaries around him.

In fact, Christina is just not politically savvy, but she is by no means an idiot or idiot.

No one is stupid to become a strong sanctuary.

And now this matter is also inseparable from Christina herself. Once these people are really allowed to form enough oppression on Woody, then after the city of Adroan is lifted from military control, the demon will definitely take the opportunity to escape, after all, tonight has already started the matter. If this demon did not hide in Asaz's mansion, then it would definitely receive the news, and it would definitely choose to escape by then.

No matter how important the devil's lair is, it is not as important as one's own life.

Kristina's gaze at the mercenaries around her obviously became more gloomy.

While Sean was thinking about what kind of results Christina would trouble these guys with, she didn't expect Christina to not even say a word on the scene, and directly deal with the mercenaries around him. NS.

The first one to bear the brunt is the middle-aged man!

Seeing Kristina dash forward in front of her, her right hand suddenly made a fist, and she hit the opponent's chest directly.

Thunderous!

In the air, there was a thunderous sound.

A wave of air burst out from behind the middle-aged man's chest in Kristina's right boxing.

The strong wind blows Christina's black hair flying up, and the ground on which she is standing suddenly makes a sound of earth shattering, with cobweb-like cracks all over it. However, the range of this spider web crack is not large, about one foot in radius. It can be seen that Kristina's power control is indeed more subtle and delicate than Sean had imagined.

But the middle-aged man who withstood the storm-like punch of Christina flew upside down like a cannonball, smashing a stone pillar supporting the small balcony on the second floor in the main building. It smashed the beautifully made mahogany door, and then fell heavily to the ground. But looking at the moment he was knocked into the air, his eyes widened in pain, as well as the swelling of his back and the tearing of his clothes at that moment, it was obvious that this guy could not survive.

In this scene, Sean was secretly speechless.

Neither did he expect that Christina would be so swift and swift that she decided to do it without any ambiguity, not only aimed directly at the strongest enemy on the scene, but also completely killed the opponent with a single blow. This simple and neat method, Rao Xiao En had to say a word to Christina, because he knew very well that after the death of the strongest man who was obviously the leader, the other party lost the ability to compete with Christina. Conversational person.

In this case, if Asazi does not show up, then no one can stop Christina even if she is going to kill her.

as predicted.

Sean who has guessed Christine Nager's purpose in killing the middle-aged man. Immediately after seeing Christina killing her opponent with a punch, she turned around without hesitation and attacked the side. Several mercenaries who had apparently not reacted to their reaction immediately followed in the footsteps of their captain and were directly beaten to death by Christina with one punch.

This time, the bloodliness of all the mercenaries was thoroughly aroused.

Levy obviously wants to do it too. But he has just taken a step. Sean stretched out his hand to block it.

Levy looked at Sean with some doubts, but saw Sean pursing his lips and shaking his head slightly.

Although it is not clear what Sean wanted to do, Levi's identity is now Sean's protector. Since those people around did not kill Sean and the others, instead they all ran to besiege Christina, Levi naturally did. He retracted his right foot. Stand behind Sean again.

It's not that the mercenaries around you don't want to attack Sean. But the scene where Levi shot the soldiers in seconds outside the gate just now was extremely terrifying to these mercenaries. So naturally, no one wants to trouble this evil god. On the contrary, even though Christina's shot is * and fierce, in the eyes of these mercenaries, it is not so weird and terrifying, at least in their opinion. Maybe they can defeat Christina with the tactics of "more ants kill elephants".

is just obvious.

The gap between the sanctuary strong and the silver master is a gap that is absolutely unpleasant. What's more, these mercenaries are not military, although they cooperate with each other in a tacit agreement. However, it still lacks the special effects of killing the army to cooperate with the army.

So in less than a minute, more than 30 people besieged Christina. Half dead on the spot.

The remaining half saw a bad chance, and when she finally wanted to retreat and escape, how could Christina let these people escape?

Dare to provoke the sanctuary strong, then you must bear the anger from the sanctuary strong to vent!

Seeing Kristina's figure flashing several times in a row, seven or eight people were completely killed.

In this way, those mercenaries were really stunned. They even felt that they would have better trouble with Levi if they knew this. At any rate, they didn't even know how to die, and they didn't need to endure this horror. Tortured by his spirit.

"Stop!" At this moment, a slightly fat figure finally ran out of the main building.

This fat guy ran and shouted for Kristina to stop.

But how could Christina listen to this person, she was chasing and killing him without stopping. After the figure flickered again, the last few mercenaries were finally solved. Suddenly, there were corpses everywhere in the entire vestibule, and the smell of blood was so strong that it could be said to be choking in the air. Kristina's shots can be described as punches to the flesh, even the black death wave at the beginning Can't stand Christina's attack, let alone these guys.

The state of death is horrible.

The fat man who ran out of the main building was obviously Asaz.

He glanced at the misery in his courtyard, and he was a little bit eager to cry without tears. When he turned his head to look at Christina, his face was even more hideous and angry: "You not only trespassed into my house, but also painful. The one who killed me, don't you see the law in your eyes?... This is the city of Adroan, not a place where you can go crazy! Bais, take them all for me!"

From the main building, a shadow suddenly rushed out and went straight to Christina.

Xiao En and others recognized at a glance that this person was one of the two figures standing on the third floor before.

I only saw this figure's movements so neat and strong, and there is no doubt that this person is obviously also a low-level sanctuary powerhouse.

The person from the eye family rushed towards him, Kristina sneered and slapped the opponent with a palm at the same time.

A strong sonic boom suddenly sounded.

Immediately afterwards, Christina took a step backwards, looking at the opponent with a somewhat solemn expression.

but didn't want to, but the look in the opponent's eyes was extremely shocked.

Because he attacked Kristina by means of a surprise attack, he didn't expect the offense to be unfavorable, and he even regressed a dozen steps.

This gap is extremely obvious!

"What do you want to do!" Sean knew that Christina was not good at words, and that the other party also had a strong sanctuary shot. When even stepping out, he shouted coldly, "Mr. Asazi, you repeatedly refused us to enter you. He even condoned his subordinates to attack us. I have every reason to suspect that there is something shameful in your house."

"This is my mansion, I have the right to refuse you rude people to enter!"

"This is indeed your mansion, but you don't have the right to refuse our entry." Xiao En sneered. Seeing that the lower sanctuary powerhouse of the other party had retreated to Asazi's side, he ignored it." We are here to do business, and your behavior has caused us a lot of trouble. I now have reason to suspect that you are an infidel."

"You...are you a member of the church?" Asazi looked shocked. He knew exactly what the three words "infidels" meant.

"No." Sean shook his head, but soon uttered a term that made Asazi even more horrified, "We are members of the Peace Council."

Chapter 402: .Charge interest

People of the Peace Council?

Asazi and the Asazi's bodyguard both had a convulsive look.

Many people only know that the Peace Parliament has two administrative systems. One is the civil service system responsible for adjudicating issues, called the arbitrator; the other is the military service system responsible for armed combat, called the executive officer. But on the mainland, most people only know the arbitrators in red and black robes. Few people know what an executive is like—at least, no one knows the executive officer of the Peace Council until the executive has revealed his identity. .

Only those real high-level figures will know that executive officers have white robe, silver robe, and golden robe, but that's all.

Asaze dared to use Sean directly as a gunman, because he only heard that a big man had arrived in the city. His vision would naturally not be too high-level, but he would only be from the Principality of Hemadion. The prince's children may be the marquis of other powerful principalities. If this is the case, since he is the richest man in the entire city of Adroan and has a lower sanctuary powerhouse as a personal bodyguard, he can indeed be able to play a "borrowing" method.

Unexpectedly, the so-called "big man" is actually a member of the Peace Council!

For these lunatics and lunatics, they are truly well-known across the continent. Everyone knows that these people really start their hands. It is called an unambiguous person. It is said that from the emperor to the soldier, they would not dare to kill and could not kill without them. People. In particular, I heard that its internal punishment regulations are harsh enough to make ordinary people afraid.

Azazi's look can be beautiful, that's weird.

He glanced at the corpses of the mercenaries on the ground. It was a cry without tears, because he found that all these people were really dead in vain.

And maybe, I am afraid that even my own life will be caught.

I didn't hear the other party saying that they suspected that they were infidels.

has a relationship with the heretics, let alone the Peace Council, even the Church of God of War they believe in will not let them go.

"Misunderstanding. It's all a misunderstanding!" Asazi, the fat man, immediately showed a scene of profiteer nature, and he rubbed his hands and walked over. "I thought it was my opponents who were asking for my trouble. I really didn't know it was peace. The people in the parliament are doing things. This is really a misunderstanding."

Kristina squinted at Sean.

did not reveal that Sean is not actually a member of the Peace Council. She just didn't bother to think about bending her intestines. Doesn't mean she is really stupid. At this time, it is the most correct thing to leave it to Sean to handle everything without speaking, because as an executive officer, she does not have the eloquence of an arbitrator. For her, everything she wants to say is just a few words. The explanation is clear, and if the other party disagrees, the other party agrees.

No one or anything can block the pace of the Peace Council.

"Is it a misunderstanding. You said nothing." Xiao En glanced at the other side coldly. "We have to say it."

After all, completely ignoring Assazi, Sean led someone directly into Assazi's mansion.

This mansion looks quite large, but it is actually a complex of six five-story buildings. Except for the main building, which is located in the middle of the courtyard of the mansion, in a U-shaped architectural layout, the other five buildings are distributed in the backyard of the mansion. From the perspective of the layout, they should be the residences of mercenaries and servants and warehouses. .

The mansion is not small, so it takes a lot of effort for Xiao En and others to check it.

After all, among the people present. Only Sean has real eyes and can see all the energy in this world.

Azaz and the lower sanctuary powerhouse did not know what the people of the Peace Council were looking for. But right now they dare not offend this group of lunatics anymore, so they can only follow them at the same pace and accompany them to every corner of the entire mansion.

They don't know what's going on, but watching Sean's face look more and more gloomy, the two of them are naturally a little worried.

After the door of the last house was closed, Xiao En's face could no longer be simply described as ugly, but gloomy and almost dripping.

"How?" Christina asked.

Although she was able to guess some questions by looking at Sean's look, she hadn't heard Sean's personal answer, and obviously she still had some hope.

Helpless, Xiao En shook his head and said, "Very clean."

Although I don't know what Shaun's sentence is very clean, Asazi knew that he should be able to clear the suspicion of infidels. It was just the thought of such a scene and the lives of so many of his men for no reason, Asazi was a little depressed. Unfortunately, facing Xiao En and others, he didn't dare to get angry at all. After all, they were a famous lunatic organization on the whole continent.

Knowing that this group of people are madmen of the Peace Council, given him ten courage, he did not dare to play this trick to suppress others.

At this moment, the tycoon of Adroan is even hated by Woody Wyrion.

"We've already stunned the snake. I'm afraid we have to speed up the pace of action. Let's go to the second house now." When Xiao En said this, he turned his head and glanced at Asazi coldly, frightening him. I dare not say, "Because of your deliberate blocking today, we disrupted our plan. I think you should give us a satisfactory answer. Otherwise, I have reason to take your behavior as a reminder of some ulterior motives. People."

Hearing Sean's words, Asazi, who thought he would be able to escape the catastrophe, blushed.

But in the face of a strong peace council, this tycoon, who is just an ordinary person, has no confidence to say anything to refute. He is just a solemnity and does not know how to respond.

Kristina frowned, and she glanced at Sean, the warning in her eyes was very strong. After all, when Sean previously said that she was a member of the Peace Council, she did not speak to refute, so naturally she could not speak at this time. But after all, she had dealt with Sean several times, and knew what kind of person Sean was. Seeing his current performance was obviously to use the coat of the Peace Council to make a profit, she was naturally a little unhappy.

When did the Peace Council engage in this kind of act of taking advantage of the fire?

But Sean ignored it at all.

If you want to use him as a gunman, then you have to have the consciousness of getting out of the way, otherwise, wouldn't it mean that anyone can attack him?

"In order to show your sincerity, just pay tribute to half of your assets." Sean turned his head, pretending not to see Christina's warning look, and said lightly.

Asaz's face suddenly turned white.

Although he is the richest man in Adroan, the gap with other wealthy businessmen is not so ridiculous. If he surrenders half of his assets, I am afraid he will immediately fall out of the ranks of the six wealthy businessmen in Adroan. He has been entrenched in Adroan for so many years and able to form such a large influence, naturally because he has enough funds to allow him to deploy, but now Sean will lose half of his net worth as soon as he speaks, so he will not say The influence is still there, I am afraid that his offended enemies will find him the first trouble, especially now that all his men are still dead.

This is simply killing him!

Kristina didn't know the doors and ways of the merchant, but she also knew that Sean's words were a bit too much, and the killing intent was suddenly full.

But Levi, who is standing next to Sean, is not a vegetarian.

He just glanced at Kristina diagonally, Kristina suddenly seemed to have fallen into an ice cave, and his blood suddenly became stagnant. Not to mention the killing intent, even the aura on the body wanted to condense very difficult, which made Kristina's heart suddenly startled.

Shaun chuckled inwardly.

If it weren't for the nuclear weapons like Levi and Kozile, how could he dare to challenge Kristina, this guy can be tied with Xuefanio in a fully armed state and Rena in a dragonized state. Lord, if Sean and her start their hands, it must be looking for abuse. Moreover, he has been threatened by the Peace Council several times before. Sean is not a guy who forgets his grudges so easily. Now it is rare to put on the coat of the Peace Council. It is a problem if he doesn't find some benefits for himself.

"Big... Your lord..." Asazi is really regretful now that his intestines are all blue, why should he be so obsessed with the idea of trying to suppress others.

"Don't worry, our peace council is not a random person." Sean still maintains that cold side. "It is obviously troublesome to wait for you to slowly count the assets and transfer. We all have important tasks now. I will accompany you to count at that time. For the sake of your remorse and admit your mistakes, you have to hand over two-thirds of your current liquidity, and I will regret it as if you were sincere."

"I..." Asazi opened his mouth, but when he saw Sean's cold eyes, he could only grit his teeth.

People who can afford to open so many hotels are obviously not only relying on hotels to do business. There will definitely be some other grey activities. Therefore, he naturally has to prepare a large amount of working capital to cope with some unexpected needs. Sean asked him for two-thirds. Actually, it was no different from cutting meat and bleeding, but Asazi was also a decisive person. He only knew that as long as his assets remained in his hands, the money could be earned back sooner or later. .

It's just that Sean did not expect that two-thirds of the assets that Asazi handed over would actually be so much, more than half a million pan-continental gold coins, all guaranteed by the Pan-Continental Chamber of Commerce Alliance by way of deposit. . In other words, no matter where the money is, as long as there is the Pan-Continent Chamber of Commerce Alliance, it can be withdrawn at any time.

This road to wealth made Xiao En begin to think about whether he should engage in this kind of house-robbery a few more times.

Of course, there is no doubt that Christina's face is extremely ugly.

It's just that when Sean and the others left Asazi's mansion, they found that there was another trouble waiting for them.

Chapter 403: .stop

Woody Wyrian stood at the door of Asazi's mansion with a sullen face.

When he received Christina's attempt to forcefully break into Asazi's mansion, he immediately drove people over. The reason is that I am deeply afraid of conflicts and unnecessary conflicts and accidents. After all, I can become a marquis of strength. How can I not know some secrets? Moreover, when Christina came to Adroan, she was the first to meet He greeted him, so he knew exactly what kind of lunatics the Peace Council was.

But when he rushed to the door of Asaz's mansion with someone, he was still almost mad with anger.

The patrolling soldiers of his own [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] were killed completely, and they were killed directly without even giving any affection.

If Woody had a good face, that would be a weird thing.

As for the twenty to thirty corpses lying in the Assazi mansion, Woody just glanced at it and said nothing.

It's just that the soldiers who came with Woody have silently assembled a phalanx behind him, and at the same time surrounded the entire Assazi mansion. Along the way, soldiers from other formations were rushing to assemble, and a vigorous force of killing was condensed. In this dark night, the invisible aura entrenched in the sky above the [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] faintly had an extraordinary vigorous aura.

To deal with the real strong, the army naturally has a clear pattern of formation: a square formation with every five hundred people is a strong combat unit. If you want to contain a strong man of corresponding strength, you must at least have a strong combat unit. If you really want to kill this strong man, there is no army formation of ten strong combat units. It is generally impossible to solve it.

In other words, if you want to deal with a strong person, you will need more than 5,000 people to form a deterrent.

But in this world. It is not easy to train those powerful troops, especially those above level seven. Therefore, it is not an easy task to get together large-scale quantity and quality soldiers.

Like the [Hema Knights] of the Principality of Hemadian, it is a seventh-level army. However, there are only five thousand people in number. Reluctantly maintain the minimum deterrence standard. This is also the minimum standard for the armed forces of various countries, because if the minimum deterrence standard of 5,000 people cannot be made up, such an army will not make much sense, no matter how high it is, it can only play a role of containment. .

[Wyrian Cavalry Corps], is an all-around multi-faceted combat army, and its individual capabilities may not be strong. But the tacit understanding of cooperation is very high. Especially once it is assembled into a large scale. The army that Woody personally modulated is even more shocking. Only this murderous momentum can be seen. This is definitely a level six army.

You should know that the level 6 army is enough to threaten the strong in the middle sanctuary.

Together with Woody, a strong man in the middle sanctuary, he personally sits in and fights, which is definitely enough to leave an unforgettable impression on Christina.

Although the opponent is a member of the Peace Council and cannot be a killer, Woody, as the lord of the city of Adroan, is also a marquis of strength. It is also the confidant of Grand Duke Hemadeen, so naturally it is impossible to lose face. Especially after the death of a patrol team under his command. It is even more impossible for him to remain indifferent, no matter what the consideration is, he must have a fight with Christina.

Of course, a person like him who is good at playing politics will certainly not be aimlessly killing. He only needs to suppress Christina and let Christina know who is the real master of the city. At least, he believes that doing so will prevent Christina from being too presumptuous when she acts in this city next, treating all his men as people who can slaughter at will.

Therefore, when Sean and the others left the Assazi mansion, they saw Woody in a military uniform holding a halberd standing at the gate, behind him were black soldiers who had formed an encirclement.

The brows of Xiao En and others could not help but frowned slightly.

The opponent set up this formation. It was obvious that he was looking for trouble. If Xiao En and others can still give the opponent a good face, then it is really a ghost.

It's just that I'm not familiar with the opponent Sean either. I only know that this person is the lord of Adroan City—this is only known after listening to Christina's previous introduction. So at this time, Sean also turned his head to look at Christina, the questioning in his eyes was very obvious.

Originally, when Sean used the name of the Peace Council to do the act of robbing the house, Christina was already in a rage. Now seeing Woody bringing so many soldiers to surround herself, Kristina's killing intent completely broke out. She immediately walked a dozen steps forward, standing in the middle of the vestibule, and staring at Wu. Di, then asked in a deep voice: "Sir, I don't know what you mean by this?"

"Miss Christina, I respect that you are a member of the Peace Council. For this reason, I ordered the closure of the city to cooperate with your actions, but this does not mean that I can let you slaughter my soldiers at will." Woody also said indifferently. Said, obviously looking like a break, "These soldiers are all trained by me personally. Perhaps in your eyes, they may be worthless, but to me, they are like my brothers... "

Woody's expression was very agitated, and with his impassioned speech and lines, the emotions of the surrounding soldiers were obviously thoroughly mobilized. Among these condemnations issued by Woody, Christina became a heinous demon for a while, regardless of the ideas and opinions of the people at the bottom. All the soldiers glared at Christina for a while. A look of the same hatred.

"You deserve to be a man of political background." Sean sneered, then looked at Christina's body.

Just as Kristina knew about Sean, Sean, who had dealt with Kristina several times, knew that this woman was a devout believer in the Peace Council. In order to maintain the honor of the Peace Council, this woman can really do many crazy things, just like other members of the neurological organization of the Peace Council. Especially Christina, who was born as an executive officer, has a very serious tendency to violence: she may not be good at speech, but she is definitely very good at speaking with her fists.

Hearing these impassioned remarks by Woody, Sean knew that Christina was really angry, and then I was afraid there was a * battle.

He is not incapable of understanding Woody's thoughts, after all, he is also a lord himself.

So this kind of control is completely out of his own hands. It is like a puppet-like mode of action that every lord is very scrupulous. Christina didn't hesitate to kill Woody's soldiers before. This was literally hitting Woody's face. If he could talk to Christina peacefully, then Sean would doubt his strength. How did the marquis name come about?

It's just a pity.

Woody Wyrrian does not understand the Peace Council.

If he really understood the Peace Council, he would not choose this method to persecute Christina. Such remarks that insult the name of the Peace Council will only lead to endless battles. Sean is sure that at this moment, the city lord of Adroan, I am afraid that the future will not be easy- as long as Ke Justina will report Woody's remarks to the Peace Council today, and naturally there will be a higher-level figure to talk to him.

Sure enough, the anger on Christina's face gradually disappeared, replaced by a calm face.

People who are familiar with Christina know that this is an obvious sign that she is going to kill.

Woody was also aware of the problem, and the look on his face could not help becoming extremely solemn.

Sighed lightly, Sean stepped to Christina's side, and said in a deep voice, "Don't be arrogant."

"Are you going to stop me?" Kristina squinted at Sean, her eyes cold, and the more calm she was, the more pressure Sean felt.

"Now fighting, all the soldiers in the entire city of Adroan will definitely be mobilized, and then the demon will be given a chance to escape." Sean said in a deep voice, "He doesn't dare to leave the city with strong means now. Obviously we also know the danger, because no matter which direction it bursts out of the city, it will inevitably alarm the entire city's army, and then we can also take action immediately."

Kristina's silver teeth bit her, and she looked unusually tangled.

"Small can't bear it, it's a big conspiracy." Sean could see that Christina was a little loose, so he said again, "Don't break a big deal at this time, we have been stunned, and there is no time to continue wasting here. We must rush to the next goal immediately.... Don't forget, we still have three goals that we haven't checked out. Time doesn't allow us to waste here."

"I know." Christina said in a deep voice, and glanced at Woody again, "but do you think he will let us leave like this?"

"He will." Sean said very confidently, "Mr. Woody, we don't have time to waste here with you now. The reason why your soldiers die is very simple, because they tried to prevent us from investigating. We have The reason is to suspect that they are colluding with the heretics.... If you don't want to bear this reputation, then please give way immediately, because we have other places to investigate."

"Humph!" Woody thought that Christina and the others were afraid of him, and immediately snorted, his aura looked unusually arrogant, "Are the Peace Councils so unreasonable people? How dare you buckle me so much? Hat, come here, take them all to me!"

"Levy!" Shaun's face was cold, and he also drank coldly.

Chapter 404: .Knock one more stroke

When Kristina heard that Woody dared to do something to herself, the anger on her face was particularly obvious. She squeezed her fists, and the full of grudge burst out from her body. It actually materialized directly on the surface, vaguely like Chris. Tina was wearing a sterling silver tabard.

"Let Levi deal with them. We deal with these soldiers." Seeing that Christina seemed to want to rush out, Sean directly reminded, "I cannot solve so many soldiers with my own strength. I need Your help."

Silver teeth clenched, Christina did not rush out desperately in the end.

But her anger was completely vented to the surrounding soldiers. These guys are nothing more than the strength of the silver realm. Those real captain commanders may have the strength of the golden realm, but facing the monster-like Christina, these guys simply can't bear it.

The first group of soldiers who surrounded them were immediately slaughtered by Christina.

Woody looked distraught. These soldiers are elites he has spent a lot of time training. Although there are reserve forces that can be supplemented after the war, the reserve forces are still not as good as these in terms of training. Regular army.

After a while, dozens of soldiers died. How could Woody continue to sit still and wait for death.

He has known for a long time that it is impossible to win Christina based on his own strength. Although Christina is only a lower sanctuary, her strength is no longer weaker than the peak of the middle sanctuary. It is precisely because of this that he will mobilize nearby soldiers to carry out a siege. In Woody's view, with his own action and the siege of two thousand soldiers, it is no problem to subdue Christina, of course. There may be some losses, but with the cooperation of the army, there should not be too tragic casualties.

But I don't want to. Once Kristina started, there would be no concept of mercy.

This is also where Woody doesn't understand the Peace Council at all.

The Peace Council has never been soft in the face of big right and wrong. Anyone who dares to stop them, let alone Woody is just a marquis of strength. Even people from the Seven Empires. This group of lunatics dared to hurt the killer. If it hadn't directly attacked the important ministers of the several empires, it would not have caused the seven empires to join forces and fight the Peace Council, which caused the Peace Council's vitality to be greatly injured.

Kristina will visit Woody first when she comes to Adroan, and it is also out of consideration to prevent infidels from slipping away. If it weren't for this, Christina would never visit Woody. As far as the Peace Council is concerned, the habit of going its own way is already inscribed in the soul.

And Woody. Evaluate the means of behavior of the Peace Council in the manner of a politician. This is naturally very wrong.

Seeing that Christina's shot was a killer move, Woody naturally couldn't sit still anymore.

Immediately rushed towards Christina with a stride.

It's just that he is fast, but there is a figure that is faster than him-it's just that this figure is not going towards Christina, but rushing towards him.

This figure is naturally Levi.

He and Sean are not familiar with each other, and the two sides have only been together for only a few days, and there is no experience in fighting together. Naturally, there is no need to expect any tacit understanding at all.

But he also has his philosophy and combat experience.

Although he is not worried about being besieged by so many people, even if the number of soldiers present doubles. He can also easily break through and leave. The sixth-level army can deal with the lower sanctuary, but if you want to deal with the upper sanctuary, at least you need an eighth-level army. Even a seventh-level army requires a scale of more than 10,000, and it is still a death fight that does not count the casualties, to be able to stop the high-ranking sanctuary powerhouse.

So after hearing Sean's voice, Levi rushed towards Woody.

"Go away!" Woody shouted angrily, and at the same time the halberd in his hand rose, and a cold light swept across.

In an angry shot, Woody also didn't plan to be merciful.

But this move made Levi's face look a little angry.

A sound like a dragon chant suddenly exploded, like the thunder and lightning in the dark night.

But Levi has already pulled out his sword.

was originally a restrained Levi, after the sword was really pulled out, the whole person's aura broke out completely, like a very sharp sword.

Its momentum is so strong that it is no longer weaker than ordinary legendary powerhouses.

Woody's angry look suddenly turned white at this moment, and how could he not feel the awe-inspiring aura emanating from Levi's body. Although he knew that the other party hadn't really stepped into the legend yet, this momentum had already suppressed him almost dare not to shoot at will, that kind of condescending killing intent was obviously not a joke.

"drink!"

An angry shout came out from Woody's mouth, and the realm that belonged to him was completely unfolded.

And once the domain was expanded, Woody's panic was finally calmed down, but soon, his slightly calm face became horrified again. Because his domain can only expand to a radius of three meters, it can't expand anymore. Instead, it seems to have been countered by the law. There is a more powerful force suppressing him, and as long as he relaxes slightly Distracted, the scope of the domain will shrink as if swallowed.

After a slight panic, Woody immediately understood. When he raised his head to look at Levi, he saw that Levi's face was disdainful.

Levi was too lazy to talk nonsense with Woody, and killed him in one step. The wide-bladed slashing sword in his hand was slightly raised, and there was a sword glow on the sword.

The fluctuating sword energy suddenly swept from Woody's domain, and saw Woody's domain resembling a cut of butter, and a gap was quickly cracked. And then, Levi rushed through the opening without any scruples. In an instant, in an environment that could not be seen by the naked eye, he saw countless silver rays like thorns and quickly penetrated from the crack where Levi entered. Growing at an extremely crazy speed, it instantly covered Woody's entire field.

But seeing Levi's sword intrude, Woody subconsciously wanted to swipe his halberd to kill him, but as soon as he started his hand, he felt as if he had been hit by a heavy blow. His face suddenly turned pale, and a mouthful of blood spewed out. Even the halberd in his hand is a bit unstable. He could only stagger back a few steps, and in his gaze looking at Levi, besides horror, there was a deep disbelief.

Obviously, he couldn't understand why his field was broken in an instant. And it broke so cleanly.

But he knows very well. I lost this time.

And it was a terrible defeat.

He had already heard about the craziness of the Peace Council, but after all, he hadn't really dealt with the people of the Peace Council, so naturally he still felt a little groundless. Because in this world where the weak and the strong eat the strong, the rule that everyone believes in is that whoever has the strongest fist has the absolute right to speak. And Woody knew very well that he couldn't take Christina alone, so he would use the power of the army to suppress it.

Of course, he never intended to hurt Christina. After all, such a behemoth as the Peace Parliament still has some deterrent power.

His true purpose. Just want to let Christina understand who is in charge of this city.

But he never thought that there was such a strong person beside Christina—if it was only the upper sanctuary, Woody felt that there was still a fighting force, but when his domain was penetrated by the opponent. When he was completely defeated, he knew that he was not the opponent of the opponent, and at least was completely inferior to the opponent in the understanding and utilization of the law.

In this way, if you want to avoid casualties, the best way is naturally to surrender honestly.

This is it. When he has a sharp sword on his neck.

"Everyone will withdraw to me and get out of here!" Woody was also very simple. He threw the halberd in his hand and raised his hand to surrender. At the same time, he immediately signaled his soldiers to retreat, "I surrender, let them stop!"

Because of such a short period of time, his elite soldiers suffered close to a hundred casualties, and the loss was not insignificant.

No matter how rich the family property is, it can't stand such a toss!

If he had known it would be this situation, he would not dare to provoke Christina so openly if he gave him ten courage. At this time, it can be said that his intestines are blue with regret.

Sean heard Woody's voice and slowly retracted his sword and stood up, but instead of seeing Woody for the first time, he turned his head and glanced at Eliza thoughtfully. Xiao En knew that she was also a strong man in the upper sanctuary, but never saw her shot from beginning to end, but with his current acumen, he still discovered that at the moment Levy shot, her The domain has been expanded once, but Shaun doesn't know what his domain capabilities are.

However, the relationship between the two parties is not familiar enough to know everything, and Sean still understands this rule.

So I just glanced at Alyssa, and quickly turned his head to look at Christina, only to see that although the anger on her face had not disappeared, she did not rush to kill again. She seemed to have spotted Sean's gaze, turned her head and glanced, her mouth was closed and she did not speak, apparently deliberately losing the bargaining power to Sean.

After understanding this, Sean was not welcome, and walked directly towards Woody.

Several others followed suit.

Will Woody know this, the blond young man in front of him is the real leader of this group of people.

"Are you also an executive?" Woody asked.

"Who am I? It's not your turn to ask." Xiao En deliberately said with a straight face, "I just want to know, you have mobilized these people to surround us, and whether the garrisons of the four gates have also been mobilized. ?"

"No...no." Woody shook his head.

"Even if you haven't made a big mistake, if you let the demon take advantage of this chaos to escape, even if Duke Hemadian comes," Shaun said coldly, "but even so, you too Capital offenses are forgiven, but living offenses are inevitable.... Those who dare to openly provoke and attack the Peace Council, Mr. Woody, are you brave enough."

"Misunderstanding...this is just a misunderstanding..." Woody said with a bitter face, somewhat helplessly.

"Oh, you guys are really funny." Sean chuckled lightly. "Mr. Asazi just said it was a misunderstanding, now you also say it is a misunderstanding."

Woody looked for a moment, then raised his head and glanced at Asazi who was still standing on the side of the main building, afraid to approach him. Seeing the sadness on the other side's face, it was obvious that he knew what was going on in his heart. With a helpless sigh, Woody glanced around, not to mention that hundreds of his subordinates died, probably he would have to pay another sum of money to compensate for the repair costs of Asazi's mansion, which can be described as bleeding tonight.

Especially, the people of the Peace Council are still biting, and Woody doesn't know what the other party's idea is.

It's just that he didn't quite understand why the Peace Council would actually do something similar to taking advantage of the fire.

"I understand, I will satisfy you." Woody gave a smile that was uglier than crying, and said softly.

Sean nodded with satisfaction. He found that talking to such politicians was simple and straightforward. Unlike businessmen like Asazi, who always hold some whimsical ideas, expecting that there will be a fluke mentality after something happens.

Chapter 405: .clue

With Woody's assurance, Sean didn't worry about the other party's repayment, and directly told Woody about the Blackhorn Phantom.

After all, Woody is the real hero of this city.

After listening to Sean's words, Woody's face naturally changed drastically.

There is no more doubtful situation than Christina. As the real manager of Adroan City, Woody is dealing with the entire city every day, so he is naturally familiar with the changes in Adroan City.

Nevertheless. Therefore, when Hearing Noire was seriously injured and treated the entire city of Adroan as a lair, and wanted to nourish his injuries by devouring living people, Woody immediately knew that what Shaun had said was true.

"In the past half month, nearly a thousand people have disappeared in Adroan." Woody said solemnly.

Xiao En's face changed drastically when he heard it, and he shouted in a deep voice, "Hundreds of people are missing, didn't you, the city lord, have ordered an investigation?"

"In the beginning, only some homeless people and poor beggars in the city were missing." Woody replied in a deep voice.

Sean is also a lord, and he naturally knows the guidelines and strategies of some city management plans.

There will be a large number of homeless people and beggars in every city. No matter how good the welfare of Void City is, the vast majority of people have gotten rid of their poor status, but according to Neal's assessment, there are still more than two thousand beggars. These people just came to Void City a bit late, so they did not get on the train when Void City thrived, so naturally they could not get rid of their status as the poor. In addition, Void City became extremely prosperous and the market prices naturally Correspondingly, it has improved a lot, so the life of these poor people soon becomes difficult, and they can only rely on some welfare assistance policies to live on.

Originally, as long as these people leave the void city, they will invest in the construction of the city in the border area. Naturally, you can live better.

But because of the existence of the welfare assistance policy, these people have become a bit lazy, and no one wants to leave as long as they don't die.

This is a common problem in many cities and territories.

Ordered these to be expelled or killed, the method is naturally a bit cruel. And it is impossible to achieve complete confidentiality.

So no matter where it is. They would all adopt an attitude of turning one eye and closing one eye toward the disappearance of these homeless people.

Woody's words were not particularly clear, but Sean could hear it, and he did not care about the reasons for the disappearance of these homeless men and beggars. Perhaps in his opinion, this is a good urban development trend, because it may be possible to reclaim some areas occupied by these homeless people, or even cancel some welfare assistance policies.

In general, it is natural that the advantages outweigh the disadvantages.

But Sean can understand. But it does not mean that Christina can understand.

She was furious immediately: "You are a lord. Whether you are a tramp or a beggar, they are your citizens, not slaves. You should treat them equally! They are missing, you should immediately order to proceed. Investigate! Instead of indulging and ignoring their disappearance!"

Woody smiled helplessly, naturally he couldn't help but slander.

In fact, the development concept of the Peace Council is naturally incompatible with the entire Miracle Continent.

Because in the whole world, from emperors to civilians. Naturally, we are constantly working hard for a better future. Whether world peace is important or not is not at all important to them. There are even many who are very eager for the whole world to fall into war, because only in this way can they squeeze more benefits. So no matter what class people are, they are simply laymen who chase benefits and exist.

Even the gods, for the sake of more faith and a larger area of faith, don't you let your own church beat you to death?

The peaceful parliament's idea of wanting world unity is naturally unrealistic for the entire Miracle Continent.

But on the contrary, there are many powerful people who have devoted themselves to this idea, not only fighting against demons and demons, but also fighting against conspirators who destroy world peace. They are simply the peacekeeping forces of the Miracle Continent. Of course, some of the methods used by this force are indeed too extreme and extreme. At least normal people do not have their methods to get a country out of corruption and completely slaughter all corrupt officials and high-level officials in the entire country.

Looking at Woody's wry laugh, Sean naturally knew and knew what this person was thinking, but he didn't plan to say anything.

In any case, he is now wearing the garb of a peace parliament. He can't refute Christina's point of view, right?

Is that tantamount to admitting that he is not a member of the Peace Council?

It's just that when Sean turned his head and glanced at Alyssa and Levi, his expression looked a little wrong.

Because of Levi and Alisha, they looked at Christina with admiration. At this time, Xiao En remembered that the situation on the floating island seemed to be a real peace in the world, unlike the situation in the realm, where there were so many conflicts of interest and crooked thoughts. Sean didn't want these two powerful bodyguards from the floating island to be abducted by the idea of the Peace Council. He also hoped to abduct these two men back to the Void Principality as nuclear weapons.

So, Sean hurriedly said: "So...what's the situation now?"

"Just two days before Miss Christina found me, I really realized that the problem may be more serious than I thought." Woody said in a deep voice, "The whole Adroan, although I never I have counted them, but there are still 2,000 or 3,000 beggars and homeless people, but in this half a month, there have been half fewer beggars and homeless people, so I can't help but wonder."

Adroan's situation is different from that of Void City.

Since the war, Void City and the Pan-Continent Chamber of Commerce Alliance have broken all ties, and the caravan trade with them has decreased a lot, so the unemployment rate has actually increased a lot. But Adroan is also a prosperous trading city, and there are still many caravans. Therefore, homeless people and beggars can still find some work. In a sense, these homeless people and beggars still have work. A certain value.

However, nearly half of the homeless people and beggars are suddenly lost. This situation will naturally cause a shortage of porters' work types, and it will be impossible not to attract attention.

"It seems that the black horned magic demon is seriously injured." Sean glanced at Christina, he didn't know what the fighting situation was like. However, it can force a demon to devour a large number of lives regardless of means, and it seems that the injury is definitely not light.

Woody was stunned for a moment, then nodded, and said, "Yes. It has indeed increased dramatically. Since the self-styled city has been under military control, there are reports that more than 30 or 40 people are missing every day in the city of Adroan. At the time... even close to a hundred people... In fact, it was precisely this situation that caused some panic, so those caravans, mercenaries, and adventurers would work together to pressure me and force me to lift the lockdown. They all thought ..."

"I thought you were the one who caused the ghost?" Sean said coldly. "A bunch of idiots... I want to know. Who is the caller who joined forces to put pressure on you?"

"Yes..." Woody looked embarrassed. Although he didn't say anything, he still looked at Assaz.

"How did this kind of stuff become the richest man?" Xiao En rolled his eyes, he already probably knew what was going on, "Azaz, you get me here!"

Hearing Sean's roar, Assaz was reluctant, but when he saw Sean and the others, even Woody's army just said they killed them. Of course he didn't dare to hesitate anymore. Especially looking at Woody and Levi's fight, even they don't know what's going on. After feeling a silver light suddenly shined, Woody announced his surrender, which naturally made them feel unusually panic.

"Tell me, who suggested to you to pressure the Lord Woody and force him to lift the lockdown?" Xiao En said coldly, "If you dare to lie to me, you will know the consequences."

"Yes... It's Roberts." Assaz touched Sean's cold eyes, he immediately said, "It was he who proposed to me. People. Moreover, he also promised that as long as our joint pressure plan is successful, we will set up a new chamber of commerce with my respect and joint control..." At this point, Asazi glanced at Woody before gritting his teeth. Directly confided: "...together control the trade trends and markets of the entire city of Adroan."

This sentence really made Woody very angry.

Currently, the adjustment of market price fluctuations in Adroan is the final decision by the Wyrian family. Because there is no second chamber of commerce in the entire city of Adroan except the Wyrian Chamber of Commerce controlled by Wyrian. The main reason is that the entry of these chambers must be reviewed by the Wyrian family. Once there is a threat to Wyrian. At the beginning of the Chamber of Commerce, Woody will naturally adopt a suppressive policy as soon as possible.

However, if the six wealthy businessmen of Adroan join hands to establish a chamber of commerce, then let alone contend, even if Woody wants to suppress it, it is impossible to do it. Because the Wyrian Chamber of Commerce has been able to achieve such a large scale, it is naturally because Woody has taken a differentiated approach to deal with these six wealthy businessmen, preventing them from working together in the Chamber of Commerce. As for other cooperation, Woody You also open one eye and close one eye, can't he eat meat but don't even give others the soup, right?

As a result, I didn't expect that these guys had already secretly colluded, and they were waiting to solve themselves.

"The name of the chamber of commerce you formed, isn't it called the Medusa Chamber of Commerce?" Sean asked.

"No, it's not..." Asazi shook his head, "The name of the Chamber of Commerce is called Noire."

"Black Horn?" Kristina's eyes were cold, and she had obviously realized something.

Sean also sneered: "This devil is really bold enough.... Mr. Roberts' mansion is also one of our goals this time?"

"Yes, but it's just a slight suspicion. According to our plan, it should have been the third inspection." Christina nodded.

"Now that there is tangible evidence, there is no need to make any prioritization." Sean said lightly, "I believe that Mr. Woody should be happy to assist us in the Peace Council and jointly eliminate this. It's just a devil, right?"

"Extremely happy!" Woody was taken aback, then gritted his teeth and said, "I will immediately mobilize the Wyrrian Cavalry Corps to set up a defensive position to completely surround the pagan mansion to prevent the opponent from escaping."

"Mr. Asazi, although it has been proven that you are not a heretic, you were also taken advantage of by a heretic. I think you also want to be ashamed?" Sean nodded to Woody. , Then turned his head and looked at Asazi, his tone was calm but he spoke with an unquestionable attitude.

"I...but I don't have anyone anymore." Asazi was crying.

"Isn't there a guard next to you?" Sean's gaze fell on the personal guard of Asazi, "Mr. Woody was injured just now. If you face the devil's desperate breakthrough, I'm afraid It will be a little too much....I think you don't want to see the demon break through and leave, do you? In that case, you should be happy to let your guards join the battle, right?"

Azazi was taken aback for a moment, and then he realized that the eyes of everyone around him were not so friendly. He immediately understood that he no longer had the right to refuse.

Chapter 406: .Shot

Adroan, is a heavy city located in the east of the Principality of Hemadion.

This city was first built on the scale of a military fortress. After hundreds of years of war and the establishment of the Commonwealth of the Northern Duchy, it was handed over to the most trusted confidant of the Grand Duke Hemadeen at that time. It became the domain of the Wyrrian family for generations. It was after this that the city of Adroan was able to expand steadily. After four major reforms and no less than ten minor reforms and expansions, it finally formed its current scale.

Because of this, the city can accommodate 10,000 regular soldiers of the Wyrrian Cavalry Corps and 30,000 reserve and auxiliary soldiers, as well as supporting facilities such as stables, weapons depots, and training grounds.

However, because of several reconstructions and layout adjustments, in fact, Adro City does not have a strict division of the inner city area—that is, it is commonly known as the rich area and the noble area. However, there is a big part of the slum area, which is located in the west part of the city known as Old Barom Street. Here, there are all kinds of people from the whole city of Adroan, from small gangsters to gray area bosses, and even some. The killer who enters the city to do business will generally choose to stay here.

It's not that Woody doesn't want to rectify, but that this area involves many gray businesses, involving many interest groups including the six wealthy businessmen in Adroan, so he can't help being cautious. The reason why Woody turned a blind eye to the disappearance of a large number of beggars and homeless people on Old Barrom Street this time was not because he wanted to use this as a breakthrough to intervene in the gray business of this city.

It's just that Woody didn't expect that a demon was involved in this incident.

The charges of being a heretic, even Woody can't bear it.

And very subtle, the Little Barrom Street, which is only one block away from the Old Barrom Street, is one of the famous landmark areas in Adroan.

Because, Roberts' mansion, one of the six wealthy merchants in Adroan. Located just above this street.

However, at this moment, under the dark night, people are faint, and a large number of [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] regular army is gathering towards Little Barrom Street. These soldiers didn't seem to have any plans to hide their figures. They raised their torches and trot to the designated place, and then began to build corresponding fortifications.

The sound of enthusiasm. Soon the surrounding residents were awakened.

Many residents got up and stood by the window. With the light on the street, it was naturally easy to see the culprit who made the noise outside. But after seeing all the culprits who made the noise, no one dared to speak. Everyone even closed the curtains like a frightened bird, and did not want to explore what happened outside.

Even the bolder people still draw the curtains. Hiding on the side opened a gap and secretly observed. Just these people. Soon they were discovered by the elders in the family, and then they would be pulled aside to keep them away from the window. The military control of the past few days has already made these people who may have experienced the war feel that something is wrong. Tonight suddenly saw a large number of soldiers assembled, and there is no need to think about other things.

The residents of Little Barom Street are a little nervous and scared.

However, they soon found out again. When the fortifications surrounding the entire street were completed, a group of soldiers soon left these fortifications. Then quickly moved towards the inner area of Little Barom Street, and then built new fortifications again. In a short while, when the new fortifications were built, someone continued to move forward to build the fortifications again.

Now, all the residents of Little Barom Street know the seriousness of the matter.

Because of the current fortifications built, a huge defensive combat network is gradually forming, but in the eyes of real people, this defensive network is a standard defensive array dedicated to fighting the strong.

Want to go to war with the sanctuary powerhouse?

The strength of the [Wyrion Cavalry Corps], these residents naturally know that many of them even retired from this army. Maybe they can no longer continue to fight to kill the enemy, but the habits and thinking that they have trained in the year still exist, so they naturally have the vision to understand what is going on.

No nonsense, these older generations quickly ordered their children and grandchildren to pack their things.

Soon, people started knocking on the door, and these residents quickly left Little Barom Street under the instructions of the soldiers.

At this moment, if there are still people who don't understand what's going on, then they won't be eligible to live in the city of Adroan.

In the very center of Little Barom Street, there is a house with a large area.

Although this house is not as big as Asaz's mansion, it is not comparable to other houses—this house is almost equivalent to eight houses on Little Barom Street. It also has a well-sculpted and neatly built vestibule. At this time, many private soldiers under Roberts's command are gathering in the vestibule. They don't quite understand the situation, because at this time it happened on Little Roma Street. All of it is obviously aimed at them.

is located on the fourth floor of the main building. In front of a seven-meter-high floor-to-ceiling window facing the main entrance, Roberts and a mysterious person covered in black robes are watching the changes outside the street. Compared with the private soldiers below who were at a loss as to what happened, they naturally knew exactly why this scene came from.

"My lord, it seems that your identity has been exposed." Roberts is a man who looks only in his thirties, with a well-trimmed beard and a white dress that is tailored appropriately. He looks abnormal. His spirit also has an unspeakable charm.

But in fact, Roberts is over sixty, and he is even older than Assaz in terms of age alone.

Of course, his wealth accumulation is not necessarily less than that of Asaz.

It's just the truth of shooting the first bird, he has long understood it.

"Those * in the Peace Council!" The mysterious person hiding in the black robe shouted coldly, "These guys...if I didn't care about it, they just want to stop me!"

"My lord, don't say so much. Let's go and hide in the secret room of the study." Roberts bowed slightly to the man in the black robe, and then said, "They are likely to find it in the secret room of the basement. But in the study room. The secret room on the side is a secret space created by me using visual influence. They won't find any difference.... The environment inside is relatively narrow, so I might be wronged by the adults."

"It's okay!" The man in the black robe replied coldly, "I will repay this grudge!"

Roberts glanced back at the situation on the street. The encirclement has been reduced to include the entire mansion into the attack range. He knew that the next step should be a formal attack. After staying in Adroan for so long, how can Roberts not know these [Wyeran Cavalry Corps] methods, so he immediately said: "My lord, time is running out, please move immediately, the following things Just leave it to me to deal with it.... I have already dealt with it in the third secret room, and there is no blood trail left. They can't find any evidence to prove my matter."

"I will hide it well." The black robe man said in a deep voice. "You can just use this incident to get angry and divert your attention.... Adroan, it seems that we can't stay there anymore, we are going to move."

"I understand." Roberts bowed and said.

The black-robed man quickly turned and left, apparently knowing the layout of this mansion very well.

After the black-robed man left, Roberts got up and looked back at the situation outside the street, his face looked abnormally gloomy. Anyone who has worked so hard and worked hard is about to be completely abandoned, obviously, he will not be happy wherever he goes. He believes that his layout is almost perfect. The only flaw lies in Asazi's body. Originally, he was thinking about killing Asazi if something flawed. But I didn't expect that the people of the Peace Council would take advantage of the dark action and make the matter so big that even the city lord would be involved.

Roberts is itchy with hatred.

With some resentment, he glanced at the soldier who was about to break the door of the mansion. Roberts also turned and quickly went downstairs to look at the vestibule.

When he joined all the private soldiers in the front court, the iron gate of the mansion was just broken open.

It was just brute force to open the door directly-the two iron doors were kicked out directly, one broke several sculptures, and the other flew directly into the second floor. I didn't know what to smash, just listen. There are countless broken noises.

Roberts, with a sullen face, quickly stepped forward, looking at the few people who were swaying in, and shouting: "What are you doing!"

After the anger sounded, he turned his head and looked at Woody Wyl'an, his expression gloomy: "My Lord, I don't understand what you mean."

"These are the adults from the Peace Council." Woody stretched out his hand to lead to Sean and the others, and said in a deep voice, "They are now investigating a case involving infidels. Mr. Roberts, Mr. Assaz just now. Over there..."

Before Woody could finish speaking, Sean reached out to stop him, looked up and down Roberts, and then said, "You are Roberts?"

"Exactly." Roberts raised his head slightly, his face proud.

Being able to become one of the tycoons of Adroan City, this arrogance is naturally still there.

But Roberts only raised his head with an arrogant confession, but he didn't want Sean to have already drawn his sword suddenly. A black pike broke out in an instant, slashing across Roberts's body directly, on the spot. Divide Roberts into pieces.

The people around obviously didn't expect that Sean would make a sudden move, so that everyone could not react.

Even Roberts had a slight faint of confusion and confusion on his face, obviously he hadn't figured out what was going on. It's a pity that he will never be able to figure out the situation, because Shaun's swing of this sword is simply a merciless beheading, and the black flame on the blade instantly burned his body completely. It became a pile of ashes, and even the soul was wiped out together.

"You..." The surrounding private soldiers panicked immediately.

"Take it all." Shaun didn't talk nonsense, and the lord style was completely revealed, and he gave the order in place of Woody with a wave of his hand.

The soldiers around were also a little confused, but they didn't take any action privately. All of them looked at Woody. After all, this was their master.

"Mr. Woody, don't I need to say it again?" Sean tilted his head slightly and said lightly.

Woody was shocked, and immediately did not dare to hesitate at all, immediately waved his hand, and the soldier standing behind him rushed up like a wolf. In the face of this scene, the private soldiers hired by Roberts naturally wanted to resist. Seeing that Sean's killing methods were so simple and neat, they would dare to sit still and wait for death.

"Anyone who dares to fight back, kill them all." Xiao En glanced at the private soldiers who were ready to counterattack, and said lightly, "If you surrender on the spot, you will be detained first and wait for the review later."

As soon as this statement came out, the private soldiers looked at each other. If there is a chance to survive, who really wants to die? It's just that they can't be sure whether Sean's words are true or not.

But Shaun ignored them at all. He looked up at the mansion building. In Shaun's eyes, the whole mansion was full of a black abyss and scarlet blood, and of course it was gray and white. The endless grievances.

This is simply a holy place loved by the three planes of Abyss, Undead, and Hell!

Chapter 407: .Psychedelic Black Mist

Perhaps, I really feel that I owe the favor of the Demon Hunter Association and Yoda, so in dealing with these demons, Sean also showed unprecedented determination and hostility.

Others may not know about him, but Sean himself knows his situation very well.

So when he saw Roberts, he was determined to kill. Because in Roberts's body, what Sean saw was not the breath of "human", but the rancid smell of "Abyss Creatures". That breath from the abyss was tightly entwined with Roberts, even Emanating from his body, maybe he still retains the human side, but Sean knew that this guy had already fallen into a demon.

Maybe, it is the same form of existence as the Earl Mario that Sean saw back then.

With the current strength of Sean, even if Roberts turns into a demon, Sean is confident that he can solve it. It's just that since you can kill the opponent directly while not paying attention, so easily and effortlessly, why bother to expose the opponent and fight to death and life?

For others, Sean may not be able to explain—of course Kozilek and others will not ask Sean to explain anything.

But when heading to the fourth floor, Sean still explained to Christina the real reason why he did it just now. Kristina just nodded slightly to show that she knew it, and didn't say much—it's not that Kristina was proud or cold, but it was not the first time she had dealt with Sean, so she knew about Sean. There must be his reason for doing it just now.

Don't say killing one or two heretics, as long as Sean determines that they are involved with the devil, even if Sean doesn't do it, Christina will do it immediately.

Woody and the Sanctuary powerhouse under Assazi did not follow, but stayed outside and took command to prevent the demon from escaping. Shaun had just announced that he was sure that the Black Horned Phantom was hiding in this house. Inside. And based on the scarlet blood in the house, Sean can even be sure that this house is the main nest of the black-horned phantom. The missing tramps, beggars, and drunks must have been caught here and become the devil. Food.

In fact, under Woody's torture review. None of Roberts' private soldiers are clean. All participated in the arrest of the homeless and beggars. It's just that they got the order that Roberts planned to involve in the slave trade. At that time, because of the lack of a suitable slave hunting team, they chose to start with these homeless people and prepare to do a few profitless transactions.

For this, Woody's face is naturally very ugly.

But he didn't say anything, but strictly took care of it. I'm going to leave it to Christina—actually Woody knows it well. As long as these people's confessions are thrown to Christina, these private soldiers will never have any hope of survival. But anyway, these people are not talents, their strength is even lower than that of the mercenary group that Asazi hired before, and Woody doesn't need to offend Christina and others for these wastes.

But precisely because they understand this, Woody and others naturally have to be up to 120,000 points, and even more urgently mobilize a large number of soldiers to deploy.

It can be said that the entire [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] has been completely mobilized, and even the defensive formations of the four city gates have been cancelled.

Tonight. The city of Adroan is destined to be sleepless.

Everyone's eyes fell on the Roberts mansion on Little Barrom Street.

at this moment. No one noticed that four figures quickly entered the city while the city gate garrison was mobilized, and then disappeared into the dark night.

Soon, Christina, Levi, Alyssa, and Kozilek went to a study room under the leadership of Sean.

"Are you sure that the demon is hiding here?" Kristina frowned.

After entering the study, she immediately began to investigate the surrounding situation, but did not find any suspicious places, even touched all the lamp holders, candlesticks, and portraits in the study, but never found any hidden doors or mechanisms. Therefore, it is natural for Kristina to have questions. Even Levi and Alyssa are also very confused, but they are better than Kristina, at least they will not ask.

Sean nodded slightly, then pointed to a wall that looked very normal.

This is a wall behind the desk. On the wall is a self-portrait of Roberts. Christina has checked it just now. The portrait is very normal, even the corners around the wall and the desk in front. Everything about the chair has been checked, and no hidden doors and mechanisms have been found. At this time, after being directly named by Sean, Christina naturally checked it again immediately, but she never found anything. She couldn't help turning her head to look at Sean, revealing a look of doubt.

In fact, if it weren't for Sean's true eyes, he could see that behind this wall, there was a deep rotten atmosphere that was almost impossible to dissolve, and all the aura of the abyss in the whole house radiated from here, Sean I will definitely doubt my eyes. It's just that, after all, he came from another world, so it is clear that some things are not necessarily true. For example, the so-called magic is actually a kind of blindness.

"Since I can't find a way to open it, can I just smash it open?" Xiao En said lightly, but he had already drawn out his sword and was ready to fight.

It doesn't seem to be a joke to see Sean's situation, and everyone around him immediately became serious.

Kristina took a deep breath, and the vigorous anger radiated from her body again.

This time, Sean really noticed the special thing about Christina.

The silver-white vindictive qi emanating from his body quickly turned into a substantive silver-white flame. This flame looked very viscous, perhaps not as strong as the black flame that Sean summoned. The light and shadow effect, but in terms of thickness and quality, it makes Sean feel the obvious gap.

"That's the flame suit." Levy seemed to see Sean's curiosity, so he whispered, "When the amount of fighting energy accumulated in the body reaches a certain amount, it will change to quality. After high-strength compression and condensation. , The fighting energy will turn into a fighting flame and wrap around the body, like a flame coat, so it is called the flame clothing....The one who can withstand the flame clothing entanglement can only be the body of silver. This woman is not simple."

Sean nodded slightly.

He certainly knows that Christina is not simple anymore. This woman is the strongest among the powerhouses of the same rank that Sean has seen so far. Whether it is talent, temperament or any other aspect, Christina has one. Kind of indomitable fierce. It seems that on the road of her life, there will be no confusion or doubt at all. She has always followed her heart step by step and has never doubted her beliefs and paths.

Only such a pure person can achieve such a powerful achievement.

Here, Sean is still sighing, because he discovered that Christina has many qualities that can open a new door for himself, and can play a very good and positive effect and effect for himself to break into the sanctuary. Kristina seemed to have completed the accumulation of momentum over there, and with her anger, she already hit the wall that looked very normal with a punch.

After a while, with a roar, the wall was torn apart under Kristina's fist.

Black mist suddenly gushed out from the wall.

As if opening a Pandora's Box!

"Be careful!" Seeing the black mist pouring out, Xiao En Dang even opened his mouth and shouted.

It's just that his reminder sound is fast, but the aerosol emission speed is obviously faster. Almost as soon as Sean's voice sounded, the entire room was filled with this black mist. These aerosols are just like substance, and Xiao En and others who are trapped in it only feel a burst of fatigue and a strange squeezing sensation, and even a sticky sensation that makes people feel nauseous and nauseous.

The next moment, Xiao En's heart was suddenly shocked, because he had realized what the black fog was.

Psychedelic black fog.

A unique ability possessed by Blackhorn Phantom, which can create a huge illusion through a large amount of black fog. Because these black mists originally belonged to the body of the black horned phantom, being entangled by these black mists would naturally be shielded from the six senses, thus creating an extremely real illusion phenomenon.

When Sean discovered this problem, when he wanted to remind him, he found that he could not make any sound, which made him feel a bit astonished.

In the game, it's not once or twice to fight the Blackhorn Phantom, but in the real world, this is the first time to fight the Blackhorn Phantom, so in some cases, even Sean himself can't really understand and understand. . The only thing he can do is to maintain his own stable situation as much as possible and not to make any shots at will, because he knows that after creating such a large-scale illusion according to the nature of the black horn illusion, it will definitely let them kill each other.

The real situation is obviously similar to what Shaun had guessed.

It's just that he still underestimated the true strength of this black-horned magic demon.

The black mist that gushed out from this spewing was not just filling the study room, but quickly squeezing the windows and doors, and then began to gush out to the outside world.

First, the entire Roberts house was filled with this black mist, and then the streets outside Roberts' house, all the soldiers in the encirclement were swallowed by the black mist one by one. What's even more terrifying is that this black mist continues to spread, until it completely envelopes the entire Little Barom Street, forming an inverted semicircle-the entire Little Barom Street Completely shrouded in psychedelic black fog.

In the outside world, it looks like a special black area that isolates everything.

But in Little Barom Street, the illusion created by the psychedelic black fog is no longer Little Barom Street.

In a real abyss!

Chapter 408: . Illusion was broken

The dry and cracked earth, the low lead clouds slowly fall down, and the whole world environment is full of unbearable depression.

This is a kind of mental coercive injury.

If you have a slightly weaker mental power, you will go crazy if you can't use it in this environment.

Sean stared at the surroundings coldly.

He didn't even know when he entered this world of illusion, but he knew very well that the scene before him was definitely related to the black mist that spewed out just now. It's not that he doesn't understand Blackhorn Phantom, but it is because he understands so much that he does not dare to act rashly at this time.

Because Sean had vaguely guessed what the black-horned phantom was going to do.

In the range of vision, Christina, Levi, Alyssa and Kozilek were not seen. But Xiao En believed that these people must be near him at this moment, and the reason why he cannot see it at the moment is simply because his six senses have been shielded, because when he was touched by the black mist, Xiao En This has already been discovered.

So Sean did not act blindly, but still stood in place, vigilantly guarding the surrounding situation.

Maintaining a high degree of concentration in a depressive environment is actually a very tiring thing. However, the current environment forced Sean not to let up in the slightest, for fear of unexpected accidents.

Soon, there was a scream.

The source of the sound is not far away, probably just tens of meters away.

Sun was taken aback in Xiao En's heart. He could guess that the source of the scream was on the street outside the mansion.

But when he was slightly distracted, Sean suddenly felt a little hot all over, as if endless killing intent erupted from the depths of his heart, which made his eyes a little red. At this moment, two demons faintly appeared in the scope of Sean's sight. It seemed that he was born to cooperate with Sean to vent his inner killing intent and frenzied aura.

These are two demons that Sean has never seen before. They have human-like bodies. They don't look huge, but they are full of an explosive sense of power. Especially the demon on the left, with a sharp long horn on his right hand. It looked more like a slasher.

A sneer appeared at the corner of Sean's mouth. He did not immediately launch a frantic attack on the two demons, but knelt with his sword, his forehead tightly attached to the black king's sword.

The cold sensation from the body of the sword quickly made Sean feel relieved.

The strands of coldness followed Xiao En's forehead and began to flow slowly into Xiao En's body. Just as the dry earth is finally nourished by rain, the killing intent and mania from deep in the heart, as well as the heat of the blood surging, soon begin to cool down, which also makes the bloodshot eyes of Sean slowly fade away. . At least it doesn't look so crazy and hideous anymore.

After the body and mind are completely calm. Xiao En slowly got up, then stared at the two demons in front of him.

Don't even think about Sean to know that these two guys are Levi and Alisa.

Although the Blackhorn Phantom is a high-ranking demon, it is not known for its powerful combat effectiveness, but for its illusion in the abyss. Any demon in the upper sequence is obviously not easy to be born with-being able to be in the upper demon sequence must have an extremely excellent bloodline, and these bloodlines will naturally bring them many special abilities. Just like the blood in the world of Miracle Continent.

The powerful special bloodline abilities possessed by the phantom demons are unparalleled illusions.

Although any high-level demon has the ability to cause chaos, fear and cannibalism among ordinary people. This is the so-called demon halo. But under normal circumstances, even the demon lord can only possess one halo ability. Only the black horn phantoms can simultaneously display special abilities similar to three halo effects: relying on illusion and the unique tyrannical aura of demons. Anyone who is not strong enough in spirit will inevitably be affected by their aura, and then will Attack the people around you. Obviously, the screams and screams outside of Little Barrom Street were obviously the result of those soldiers who had been illusioned and affected by the aura of demons.

Sean knew that the famous [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] in the Principality of Hemadion might be revoked.

A slight water sway swayed from in front of Sean, and Levi and Alyssa soon appeared in front of Sean.

"Are you all right?" Sean asked curiously.

"My domain is called 'Silver Thorns', which has the effect of messing up opponents." Levi's face was a little pale, and it didn't seem to be uncomfortable, but his voice was full of breath, and it was obviously not a big problem. "This demon's black mist has no effect on me, but you were too far away from me just now, and my domain cannot be expanded too far in that black mist, so I can't keep you."

In the voice, there was a little apologetic.

"It's okay." Sean shook his head, "I am very familiar with this demon. The black mists are not lethal, so as long as I stick to my heart, there will be no accidents.... But speaking of it, I should be thankful. Your ability can withstand the effects of this halo. Otherwise, if you act on me just now, I will probably be affected by the tyrannical aura, and I'm afraid I won't be able to hold on anymore."

"When I saw you appear just now, you looked like a demon, and it frightened me." Alisha whispered.

"I think you are too." Sean smiled, "Can you sense the location of other people?"

Everyone shook their heads.

But Levi quickly said again: "Don't worry, that woman must be fine. She is able to condense the flame garment and has a very strong aura of holy light on her body. Although I am not sure about demons and the like, I can I feel that her power is opposed to these black mists, so it shouldn't affect her....I'm worried about that kid, he...don't know what's going on now, after all, it's so small."

Sean looked at Levi speechlessly.

He was worried that no one would worry about Kozilek. If this guy really wanted to take action, the demon would never survive. However, only Kozilek can solve the current situation, because the shouting and killing outside has become more and more tragic, and the * smell in the air is obviously more intense. This is not a good thing, after all. Blackhorn Phantom Demon originally regarded people as food, and the more people who died, the faster it would recover its strength.

"Kozilek!" Sean shouted in a deep voice, "Quickly come out, I know you are here, don't stay silent!"

Hearing Sean's voice, Kozilek, who had already ran out of the street to collect the fire of life, frowned slightly, revealing a bit of dissatisfaction. But soon, a look of helplessness appeared on his face, and he could only wave his hand to collect all the fire of life in his hand, then swallow it in one bite, and then ran back to Xiao En's side.

Different from the abyssal purgatory scene that others have seen, in Kozilek's eyes, the street is still the street, the mansion is the mansion, and there is no change at all. As for the extremely thick black mist, it is impossible to contaminate him. Body. So in fact, this black mist, which has a very deep impact on everyone, has no effect at all for Kozilek, but has become the best cover for him to collect life fire everywhere.

If it weren't for Sean's shout, Kozilek wouldn't have planned to stay in that room at all.

So, when Kozilek appeared next to Sean, his face still showed a little dissatisfaction, and his face was very aggrieved.

But Sean didn't pay attention to Kozilek's actions, and just asked in a low voice, "Can you find the demon?"

Kozilek nodded, did not speak, his gaze still fell on Little Barrom Street, where there were more than a dozen life fires.

"Find him for me." Sean said.

Although Kozilek was a little helpless, he waved his hand quickly.

In an instant, everyone's eyes saw a silver blue light bursting out suddenly. Before Sean, Levi, and Alyssa could even see what was going on, there was a loud explosion in the air. The place where everyone was standing looked like a high platform on a cliff. At this time, with the sound of the explosion, the entire space instantly returned to the appearance of a study.

But surprisingly, it was in the center of the explosion point, and it was Christina who was inextricably beaten with a demon.

A silver-white vindictiveness is burning like a flame, and Kristina's domain is also fully expanded, and the white light of the domain is set against Kristina's unusually holy and awe-inspiring. Her attack method is very simple and simple, it is nothing more than straight punches and slam kicks, but every movement is accompanied by a roar of wind and thunder, not only Sean, but even Levi's face changed slightly.

Obviously, when he was in the Assazi mansion before, Christina's shots did not use all his strength at all.

At this time, under his full shot, Levi's feelings were obviously unusually strong and shocking, and he even faintly had a tendency to fight against him.

You know, Levi is a high-ranking sanctuary powerhouse!

The full deeds of a lower sanctuary powerhouse can actually fight against the upper sanctuary powerhouse, which is simply incredible for Levi and Alyssa, who were born on the floating island. Because on the floating island, strength represents the absolute class, there is almost no possibility of leapfrogging challenges, not to mention that there is a middle-level sanctuary between the lower sanctuary and the upper sanctuary.

At this time, Christina did not find that the surrounding illusion had been broken under the full battle.

However, as the master of cast illusion, the black horn magic demon showed an incredible look at this moment.

But at such a moment of distraction, Kristina immediately caught the flaw, and a straight fist fell on the chest of the Blackhorn Phantom Demon, smashing it out completely, piercing through several blocks. Wall.

Chapter 409: .Second Demon Hunter's Mark

In a piece of broken wood like a ruin, the black horned magic demon slowly climbed up, staring coldly at Xiao En and the others.

This demon has almost the same figure as a human being. If it weren't for the two curved horns growing on his head and a sharp inverted triangular tail behind his thighs, no one would doubt its racial identity.

It is more than 30 meters away from Xiao En and others. It can be seen that Christina's punch just now is definitely not light, otherwise it is impossible to knock it so far. Especially at this moment, there is still a silver-white fist mark on the left chest of this demon, and a milky white flame is still burning on it. This is obviously a special effect unique to Kristina's vindictive attribute. .

Sean did not expect that Christina's grudge attribute is actually a light attribute grudge variant that is rarer than the regular element variant attributes.

Light attribute fighting spirit is the unique fighting spirit attribute of most church knights—in fact, as long as the church knights trained by the church itself, their fighting spirit must be light attribute fighting spirit. Only those who join the church as church knights halfway through. Will have other vindictive attributes. It is said that the reason for this is that when these church knights are promoted to the silver realm to cultivate vindictive seeds, they will be blessed and assisted by the priests of the church personally, and thus the light-attributed vindictiveness is born.

However, just like all vindictive attributes have variants, light vindictive qi naturally also has variations, but compared to violent qi attributes such as thunder and ice attributes, light-based vindictive qi variants are even more rare.

The currently known two variants of light attribute fighting energy are holy light attribute and sacred attribute.

The former has a purer quality, while the latter has a more vast quantity.

Kristina's grudge attribute is Holy Light.

This is why every move of her is a terrifying killer move for the Blackhorn Demon—she doesn't even need to rely on other special abilities, and only with grudge and martial skills can cause a lot of trouble and pain to this demon. . Coupled with the abilities of Kristina's domain, she has a more durable combat capability and special effects that are almost immune to all abnormal conditions. Sean finally knows why the Peace Council dares to rest assured that Kristina is alone. Come chase down this black-horned fantasy demon.

It is really because Christina has completely overcome this demon in all directions.

"You don't need to intervene." Christina frowned when she saw the surrounding scenery reverted to a study. Then he said in a deep voice.

"There is no time to waste for you." Sean also refused unceremoniously. "It's just that the illusion in a small area has been broken. It doesn't mean that we have completely dispelled its illusion. Now there is still a chaotic scene outside. ...We must tackle this demon as quickly as possible."

The facts are indeed as what Sean said, the brutal cannibalism on the streets of Little Barrom has not stopped. Almost every minute, several people or even dozens of people die. The longer the fight is delayed, the more people outside will die. If it's a real battlefield, Sean and others may not care too much, but they can all clearly feel that every time a soldier dies, there will be a burst of energy flowing into the body of the Blackhorn Phantom Demon. Here, so that his physical fitness can be restored.

at this point. It means that the endurance and combat capability of Blackhorn Phantom has not weakened.

gritted his teeth. Kristina obviously knew that she couldn't solve this demon in a short time, so she didn't refuse Sean's kindness.

Shaun glanced at the situation outside the window, but he could not see anything except the darkness, only the sound of killing was still echoing in his ears. He didn't know exactly how to disarm this illusion, but according to normal circumstances, as long as the demon who was the caster died, the influence it formed would naturally disappear. So the ultimate goal of the battle is naturally very clear. Kill the black horn magic demon.

After knowing the purpose of the battle, Xiao En and others would naturally not show mercy anymore. Instead, he quickly divided the four roads and rushed towards the black horn fantasy magic.

Only Kozilek did not move.

But facing Kozilek, who was just standing still, Blackhorn Phantom felt extremely heavy pressure. In fact, at this moment, it is relying on the external chaos that has completely formed. If it really wants to escape, naturally no one can stop it. But at this moment, it didn't know why it had a miserable illusion of inevitable in its heart. It seemed that as long as it escaped, it would be death waiting for it.

When everything is dead, let alone a devil, any normal creature will have a heart of resistance.

Because of desperate, maybe I have a better chance of survival.

So in the face of the attack from Sean and the other four, the Black Horned Phantom roared, and rushed towards Sean.

Among the four players present, only Sean has the weakest strength, so it is natural to regard Sean as a breakthrough.

Even if Blackhorn Phantom is no longer good at hand-to-hand combat, the realm strength of Tier 11 is still there, and the strength of the body alone cannot be weaker than Tier 9. If Sean was attacked by him from the front, even if he had a strong body with a silver body, it would be difficult to withstand such a series of attacks. However, in the face of this demon's frontal attack, Xiao En did not show the slightest panic. Instead, he swung his sword straight up.

There was a black flame, which ignited from Sean's body, and then quickly passed to the sword.

That is the tragic breath that destroys everything in the world.

Even if it was a high-ranking demon, the Black Horned Phantom screamed in fright when faced with the terrifying aura exuding from Sean's body. It actually stopped the attack abruptly and did not dare to attack again. Sean launched a frontal attack. Instead, he turned around and rushed towards Christina, who seemed to be willing to face Christina's sacred vindictiveness instead of facing Sean's flames of destruction.

This makes Christina very upset.

As a lower-level sanctuary who can compete with the upper sanctuary strong, it is actually no better than a person who is just a quasi-sanctuary, which makes it difficult for the arrogant Kristina to bear. As a result, the force of the punches suddenly became even stronger, almost every punch was punched with a very strong sound of breaking through the air, and there was even a dazzling light like a burst of the sun.

At this moment, even Sean was a little shocked.

Others may not be clear, but Sean knows that since he absorbed the grievance aggregate. His fighting spirit is biased towards the dark attribute, so when facing the light attribute fighting spirit, he is actually very uncomfortable. It's just that this kind of comfort can still be endured with willpower, after all, it is impossible for Sean to really fight Christina. But after seeing Christina's punching attack at this time. Even though Sean is not fighting Christina. He could also feel the burning tingling sensation.

Holy flames!

This made Sean immediately put away the flames of destruction on his body, and instead swept the array for Christina.

Just as the world has light, there must be darkness, and where there is evil, there must be righteousness.

There are five kinds of the most terrifying flames in the world: the pale flame, the abyssal demon flame, the doomsday flame, the flame of purification, and the flame of destruction, so naturally there will be the existence of special restraint of these five flames.

And the flames of holy light is one of them.

Looking at Christina's crazy attacking appearance, Sean was simply speechless. Because he found that this Christina is like her nemesis. The value of force is not only higher than himself. The vindictive attribute also restrained himself, and finally had the flame of destruction, but he did not expect Christina to also obtain the flame of the holy light, which made Xiao En very speechless.

And not only is speechless, he can see it now.

He and Christina are like opposites of a coin, and they will never be able to fight together. Because of the flames of the Holy Light, unless Sean is fighting Christina to death, he will not be able to exert his full strength at all.

Even Sean can't please Christina. The fate of this black-horned phantom is naturally conceivable.

It was only two or three minutes of work, and the Blackhorn Phantom was once again knocked into the air by Christina.

Only this time. When the Blackhorn Phantom was knocked into the air, Levi and Alyssa were also not idle.

But a silver cold light flashed suddenly.

Everyone didn't even see the path of the cold light, and the black horned magic demon let out a very screaming scream, and it was actually two arms that were directly cut off by Levi, who caught the black corner phantom's flaw. And without two arms, no matter how fierce the black-horned magic demon is, it obviously has basically lost its fighting ability. After all, the black-horned magic demon is no better than other demons. It can also use special demon powers to fight. The only special thing it has is special. Ability is illusion.

But this kind of ability has no effect at all on the people present.

Alisa, also shot at this moment-this is the first time Sean has seen Eliza's shot.

I saw Alyssa suddenly lift up something similar to a pocket watch, and then opened it. There was a strange magic crystal shining in it, and a strange clock-like pattern suddenly appeared under Alyssa's feet.

Others may not know, but Sean knows very well that what Eliza is holding is actually a magical device!

In Sean's memory, this should have been born after the outbreak of the magical technology revolution, but he didn't want the floating island to have it already!

And this magic that Eliza casts, Sean is also no stranger to it.

Time wheel.

A supplementary magic, the effect is equivalent to the swift spell, but the effect is much better than the swift spell. And if used in conjunction with domain abilities, the time wheel can even exert a range of effects, and it can also cause a slowing effect on the enemy.

Alyssa's time runner is undoubtedly used her own domain coverage.

Because everyone including Sean felt a burst of lightness in their bodies, but on the other hand, the Black Horn Phantom, the appearance of flying out was like playing in slow motion.

At this time, Sean's heart suddenly moved. Seeing that Christina was already accumulating strength and preparing to make the final blow, Sean hurriedly shouted: "Let me come! It works for me!"

Although I don't know what Shaun's so-called useful point is, but when he heard this, Levi and Alyssa, who wanted to make up the last knife, stopped. And Kristina hesitated slightly, and stopped thinking of exploding the demon's head with a blow, but she did not relax, but waited if Sean could not solve the demon, then she would do it again. Get rid of this demon.

However, after seeing that after seeing everyone stop, he did not hesitate at all. He immediately swung his sword and scratched a wound on his left palm, and blood immediately flowed out of his hand. After that, Sean quickly stretched out his hand and wiped the back of his right hand, and rushed to the front of Blackhorn Phantom-because of the speed difference of the time wheel, the speed and rhythm of the two sides are not on the same level at all, plus this head Blackhorn Phantom has lost both arms, it is impossible to threaten Sean at all, so Sean doesn't need to worry about his safety at all.

I saw Sean quickly draw a magic circle on the face of this demon, and then directly pressed his right hand on this head.

At this moment, Blackhorn Phantom suddenly felt a terrible tremor from the soul. It was twisting its body desperately to get rid of Sean's control, but the speed gap between the two sides was too big, and Sean was not inferior to a demon in power, so no matter how this black-horned fantasy demon struggles, Xiao En's right hand was always firmly pressed on its head, closed his eyes and began to mutter something.

No one knows what Sean is singing, but the only thing he knows is that there are subtle fluctuations in the air around him.

It seems that there is a breath from ancient times permeating this space.

At this moment, not only the black horned magic demon, but also the others present felt a breath of difference. And Kozilek narrowed his eyes slightly, because he also noticed that a very unique breath was permeating. This breath reminded him of the dark enclosed space, which made Kozilek feel very uncomfortable and his body was also very uncomfortable. There was some uneasy twisting.

But Shaun didn't notice this.

At this time, his attention has been completely focused on the black-horned phantom demon. The black-horned phantom has a very strong sense of resistance, but no matter how strong it is, it can't stop the erosion of Sean's power. The spirit will penetrate and capture the demon hunter, which was originally designed to restrain the devil, so naturally this demon can't help it.

"Seal!"

Accompanied by Xiao En's anger, in everyone's eyes, I saw this black horned magic demon quickly turned into a black light the size of a grain of rice, and then merged into the back of Sean's right hand.

Chapter 410: .afterwards

When Blackhorn Phantom was forcibly sealed by Sean in an extremely unwilling mood, a very strong storm suddenly broke out of the house.

For Xiao En and others, it is just a stronger airflow.

But to the thick black fog outside the house, it is like a deadly virus.

All the black mist was peeled off from the air little by little in the form of lumps, and then quickly turned into ashes and floated in the air. When the black fog dissipated to a certain extent, the illusion could no longer be maintained, and the surrounding environment began to become a little clearer. The street was still the street, the house or the house, but the * smell was so strong that it was nauseating. It's filled the whole little Barom street.

Sean and others soon left the house and returned to the street.

However, even if everyone had already heard the screams on the street in the house before, they were mentally prepared, but when they returned to the street and witnessed the scene on the street with their own eyes, even Christina's face changed slightly. .

The blood has stained almost half of the street outside the Roberts house.

The stumps and broken arms were all over the floor. Many soldiers' faces did not even show panic and astonishment, but anger.

Even if the strength of Xiao En and others are the worst, they have the level of quasi-sanctuary, and their vision is beyond doubt.

So they could tell at a glance that many soldiers who fell on the ground almost completely squeezed their potential. In this way of fighting, it is true that greater lethality and combat effectiveness can be erupted in the course of the battle, but they will basically end up with a very serious root cause after the event. Many soldiers cannot continue to fight even after that, and can only be retired to logistics. Line or act as a recruit instructor.

The faces of Xiao En and others looked very ugly.

At this moment, even if the illusion has been eliminated, the black mist has dissipated very thinly. But there are still many soldiers still fighting each other with red eyes.

It's hard to imagine what the scenes these soldiers are seeing in front of them will actually make them fight so hard.

However, Xiao En and others are not from the Northern Principality Federation after all, and naturally they cannot know what these people have seen, nor can they understand the reason for their hatred and anger. Fortunately, as the black mist completely dissipated. The tyrannical breath in the air also began to fade away. These soldiers are expected to wake up soon, but in this process, I am afraid that they will have to pay hundreds of lives.

"Ah!" At this moment, a heart-piercing roar resounded abruptly in the night sky.

Listen to the sound, everyone is familiar with it.

This is the voice of Woody Wyrion.

Everyone immediately ran to the place where the sound was sounding.

I saw Woody at this time. There were many cracks in his robe, and even a few centimeters of scars could be seen. His whole body was stained red with blood. The whole person looks abnormally terrible like a blood man. But it's really more terrifying. There were more than five hundred corpses lying around him. None of these corpses were intact. Judging from the scars on the corpses, it was obvious that they were all killed by extremely sharp heavy weapons, because many corpses The incomplete part of has even been photographed into meat sauce.

Levi and Alyssa, who have never experienced such a * scene, seem to find it difficult to adapt.

Alyssa even retched directly.

Sharp-eyed Shaun found that among the large pile of corpses, there was a mutilated body, although its face was destroyed. But judging from the clothing, it can be clearly distinguished that this person is the guard next to Asazi.

obviously. The Black Horned Phantom also knows that the [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] is powerful, knowing that it is difficult to cause real trouble to them only by relying on the chaotic fighting of the soldiers, so they actually used illusions to make these soldiers cooperate with the lower sanctuary powerhouse and fight against the army. Dee launched a siege. Although from the current situation, the combination of the powerful man in the lower sanctuary and this sixth-level army did cause some trouble for Woody, but it is obviously impossible to kill Woody with this, because Everyone can see that Woody, who has slaughtered so many people and even the sanctuary powerhouse, still has obvious fighting ability at this time.

Hearing the footsteps, Woody suddenly turned his head. The evil spirit in his eyes has not disappeared, but his eyes are very clear.

Obviously, he has regained consciousness and is no longer affected by Blackhorn's illusion.

And perhaps because of the hissing roar just now, he awakened the other soldiers who had not fully recovered. At this time, the remaining soldiers began to gather one after another.

Tonight in this battle, Woody mobilized the entire [Wyrian Cavalry Corps] garrison in the city of Adroan.

but didn't want to. The defensive net they worked so hard to put together hadn't completely stopped the demon and had more than half of the casualties during internal consumption. This made

Woody feel so distressed and crazy. Because no one knows better than him how difficult it is to train [Wyrian Cavalry Corps]. After all, this is a level six army and the true trump card of the entire Wyrian family. Without this powerful army, The Er'an family simply could not have the right to speak in the Principality of Hemadion.

The prefix "strength" is a symbol of glory and power, but at the same time it is also an invisible shackle.

Woody looked at the eyes of Xiao En and others, which looked a little weird.

Neither the fear before, nor the slightest enthusiasm, some just a kind of indifference.

Shaun frowned slightly.

Because he is no stranger to this look.

In many political enemies in the Kingdom of Lane, Sean has seen this look, but more of them are with a kind of fear. After all, the name of the Void Lord, it was really genuine and fought in countless wars and battles, so they hated and feared Sean, but they only dared to curse a few words in private and become addicted, because After Blood Banner's revenge, no one in Ryan dared to provoke this lunatic again.

But in Woody's eyes, Sean was not afraid of what he saw.

"The demon has been wiped out." Sean stopped Christina who wanted to speak, and said in a deep voice, "We apologize for the current situation."

Woody's eyes twitched slightly.

Sean knew that the other party was trying to restrain his inner anger.

"Since the matter has been resolved, then I won't send it." Woody didn't turn his face on the spot in the end, perhaps because Levi had impressed him too deeply. He didn't have the confidence to deal with the combination of Christina and Levi. As for Sean, Woody didn't pay attention to it. Some clues can still be judged in the eyes. Only people of the same realm would not be able to see the specific strength of Sean.

But there are strong people around Sean!

and. At this time, Sean and the others are still wearing the garb of the Peace Council, so no matter how angry Woody is and even wants to keep Sean and others all behind, he still has to restrain this idea, otherwise he will only I am afraid that the Peace Parliament will not let him go first. Moreover, the [Wyrrian Cavalry Corps] suffered such a heavy loss, I am afraid that his internal status in the Principality of Hemadian will also decline as a result, if the Peace Council comes to him at that time. Then add some caring people in the Principality to fuel the flames. I'm afraid he is about to lose this territory.

For the benefit of the family and his own political future, Woody is naturally unable to say anything, even ruthless words and scenes.

Of course, he also understands that these empty words are meaningless.

can become a nobleman with the word "strength" in front of the title, there is no such thing as a brainless thing.

"We understand, we will leave after we are sure that all the heretics in this city have been resolved." Xiao En nodded slightly, and naturally it was impossible for him to say that they were leaving now. Otherwise it would be too suspicious.

Furthermore, Sean also intends to use the teleportation magic circle here. He doesn't have much time to waste.

"Do you mean that the city of Adroan still needs to be blocked?" Woody's expression fell cold.

"The devil has been solved, the next thing is some investigation and aftermath work." Xiao En said lightly, "Tomorrow afternoon, you can start to restore the teleportation magic circle, if everything is normal, the day after tomorrow you can lift the blockade. ."

Woody's face was uncertain, but in the end he nodded and said, "I see."

Immediately afterwards, a series of commands were issued quickly.

Sean knew that Woody had already had a grudge against them, and it was impossible to mend the relationship. But anyway, the matter was over, he also felt that there was no need to repair any relationship, but quickly left with Christina and others. At this time, Sean was really afraid that Christina would suddenly come crazy and shake some unnecessary troubles, and then it would really be called egg pain.

The cleanup of Little Barrom Street will not be completed without more than three or four days.

Until the rectification work is completed, these residents who have been invited out will not be able to return to live here for the time being. Therefore, what happened on Little Barrom Street tonight is destined to become a legend in the city of Adroan. —Don't expect these soldiers to be tight-lipped. After going to the tavern a few times, I'm afraid that stories will begin to circulate in the shops, and then they will become rumours similar to "urban legends".

Sean and others did not continue to stay here, since Woody has stated that they are not welcome, of course they will not continue to stay.

Of course, if Woody really hates them, Sean is not so naive.

There must be hatred, after all, he got in almost half of the army tonight.

But it is impossible to say that there is no gain.

Everything Roberts has in Adroan will become the new capital of the Wyrian family. As a pagan, he has been dormant in the city for so many years, working hard to build such a stronghold, and the accumulated wealth is afraid of Not low. If all this money was swallowed by the Wyrian family, it would definitely be enough to make up for Woody's loss tonight—of course, this was with Sean's knowledge, and Woody would not know himself until he had counted Roberts' assets. How rich is the harvest.

Sean only hopes that Woody's appetite will not be too big.

Because Asazi is now estimated to be unable to become the so-called richest man in the city of Adroan, coupled with the death of all the defense forces under his command, his opponents will definitely suppress him at this time, forcing him to shrink his business scope and projects, and even It is very likely that some industries will have to be abandoned to be able to maintain their own safety. At this time, if Woody opened his mouth to swallow Assaz's assets, Assaz would have no resistance at all.

Instinctively speaking, after all Sean who swallowed half a million Assaz, naturally did not want to see Assaz's assets be swallowed.

But think carefully. Sean also felt that he had no position to say these things.

The coat of the Peace Council is indeed quite safe, but at the same time it is also a shackle, which restricts Sean from having to maintain peace on many issues. However, if Asazi's assets are really swallowed, Sean thinks this might be a good thing instead.

Sean rubs his chin. Sean began to carefully consider the pros and cons.

As a qualified and excellent lord. There are many things that Sean needs to consider, such as...

Asazi, a big businessman, can have today's status and achievements. Obviously, it is not lucky, but has its corresponding strength. And a person like this, if used properly, is undoubtedly a sharp blade that can be used in business. What the Void Principality really lacks is this type of person. And thought of it here. Sean even thought Woody should be greedy.

"Perhaps. Should I add fire?"

"What are you thinking?" Kristina asked suddenly.

"Oh, nothing." After being asked by Christina, Sean came back to his senses, "By the way, you can stay here for two more days, and leave the day after tomorrow."

"Do you think there are heretics in this city?" Kristina asked with wide-eyed eyes.

"No, I believe the heretics have been solved, even if it hasn't been solved. Woody will do it for us before." Sean said, "With Woody's character. Roberts is dead. He can't do these industries. Not to be annexed. And after annexation, he will definitely not hand over to Roberts's original team to manage, so he will definitely let the Wyrrian family take over, so the next naturally is a silent * cleansing."

Kristina frowned: "What does this have to do with me? I don't have so much time to spend here. I didn't find what I wanted in the study just now. I have to rush to that thing to be Recycle before people get it."

After hearing Kristina's words, Sean remembered that after solving the demon before, Kristina seemed to be anxious to find something in the study. At this time, I heard Christina say this again, so Sean asked, "What makes you so anxious?"

"Devil Code." Christina said in a deep voice, "One of the three sacred artifacts of the Medusa Chamber of Commerce. I must recycle this thing."

When she heard that what Christina was looking for was actually a demon code, Sean was taken aback.

But who is Christina?

Looking at Sean's reaction, I immediately knew that Sean obviously knew the inside story.

And recalling the actions of the Peace Council over the past few years, from eradicating the Medusa Chamber of Commerce for the first time to eradicating the lair of dead spines to now completely uprooting the Medusa Chamber of Commerce, Christina felt a subtle chill for the first time. The heart rose, so he squinted his eyes slightly and said, "You know the whereabouts of the demon code, right?"

Xiao En nodded helplessly, and said: "I do know that I have encountered it once in the middle, but I did not expect that it is actually one of the three sacred artifacts of the Medusa Chamber of Commerce."

Kristina was stunned when he heard what Shaun said: "Sometimes you don't even know?"

"I'm not a prophet. It's impossible to know everything." Sean laughed bitterly. He probably knew what role he was playing in Christina's eyes, but this kind of thing, since Christina didn't say it clearly, and Sean certainly wouldn't say anything, "I do know where the demon code is, and that master, can be regarded as indirect death in my hands..."

"The Demon Code is in your hands?" Kristina asked immediately, impatiently.

"That's not true." Sean shook his head, "That book, now in Akazbesson, I can draw you a rough location map, you can look for it in that range. Because you killed this at the time. The owner of this book is not me. I only know the approximate scope of the battle. The book is probably left at the scene of the battle.... But that place is very dangerous and most people will not go deep, so you don't need to worry."

"That..." Christina frowned, and then said unnaturally, "I know your rules and habits very well. What do you need me to do for you to exchange this map this time?"

Hearing Kristina's words, Sean was a little surprised, but then he smiled again: "It's fine if you stay here for two days. If we leave here now, it will cause some unnecessary trouble. Tomorrow we will pretend to deal with the aftermath of the heathen, and after the blockade is lifted the day after tomorrow, you can leave, and I will also leave here by teleporting the magic circle."

"Okay." Christina thought for a moment, then nodded.

In fact, he still wanted to ask why Xiao En and others were here, but after thinking about it carefully, he still didn't ask. Because she knows Sean too well, it is not the first time she has dealt with it. She knows that this man is a guy who believes in equivalent exchange. If she wants to derive any information, she must have some exchange. Christina thinks she is There was nothing to exchange, so it was a wise choice to shut up.

It's just that when Sean and the others left Little Barom Street, Woody also hurriedly returned to the City Lord's Mansion after receiving a notice.

Because in his mansion, two guests who are more noble to him than Grand Duke Hemadion came at this time.

Two saints from the Church of God of War.
