

The Lost Princess' Second Chance Chapter 33

Note* Iris is going to be going by Raya until the whole pack knows her true identity. Just to avoid confusing everyone.

Raya's POV

While we were eating dinner and updating the rest of the ranked members about mine and Diamond's bond and Bethany's betrayal. Isabella and Jorge were seething with rage when Juakin told them that Bethany was slipping a drug to Isabella to prevent her from conciving.

I could not blame her. If I found out someone was keeping me from having a family with my mate, then I would make them suffer the most painful death I could ever imagine.

I felt a small push inside my mind, meaning that someone was reaching out to me through a mind link. At first I thought I was crazy, because I was not an official member of the Rocky Mountain pack so I could not mind link with anyone here. 'It has to be Diamond.' Violet reminded me. 'Oh right. Thanks Vi.' I replied before opening my mind for Diamond.

'Oh thank the gods. I was starting to worry when I couldn't reach you.' Diamond said. Relief replacing the panic that was in her voice at the beginning. 'Hehe. Sorry Diamond. I am not used to having anyone to mind link with yet. You are the second person to mind link me my whole life.' I told her.

'Really? I thought werewolves and lycans mind linked all the time.' She said, confused. 'Yes we usually do, but only members of the pack can mind link through the pack link. I was never a part of the Nightshade pack and I am not an official member of the Rocky Mountain pack, so I can't mind link any of the other members.' I explained.

'Oh... not even your mate?' She asked. 'Well once we mate and mark each other we can mind link through the mate bond, without me being an official pack member, but until then... no I can't.' I told her. 'Oh, okay. Well I just got done with my meeting with Bethany, pleasant as ever and really thrilled about you being mated with the future royal beta.' She said.

I internally sighed a bit. 'His name is Alejandro, but if that is hard for you to remember you can call him Alec. Most of his family does.' I told her. 'Okay, sorry mistress. I will try to learn everyone's names.' she replied. 'It would make it easier to communicate, and call me Raya for now. My true identity needs to remain a secret for now.' I told her.

'Okay. Well she wants me to help her break you and Alec up. I can buy a few days, with the excuse of looking for the right potion or spell before she notices I am stalling. She even threatened to reveal to the vampire prince where I am hiding and I would rather not have to bring that vampire drama in while we are dealing with her right now.' She said, though I can feel her nervous tone through the link. She wants to say something more.

'Okay. Spit it out.' I told her. 'What?' She asked, a little shocked. 'I can tell you want to ask something of me, so spit it out. What do you need?' I said. It was silent for a moment, then she answered me.

'Well I was thinking that you could buy me some more time and mark Alec. Then I can tell her that breaking a full mate bond is a lot harder and will take a lot longer since it is crossing into divine territory.' She said, rushing the words quickly through the link.

I felt my face heat up. 'Wait... wait... wait... YOU WANT ME TO WHAT?!?!' I roared at her, not out of anger but out of pure embarrassment. I am not so innocent that I don't know how the mating and marking work, but I am nervous about whether I would be able to even please my mate. 'I highly doubt we would disappoint him. Remember how he was kissing us this morning?' Violet purred out.

I did remember how this morning went. I wonder if nature would have taken its course if Miguel hadn't interrupted us. 'I didn't mean any disrespect, my lady. It was just a suggestion.' Diamond said in a panic. 'I am not mad at you Diamond. I was merely embarrassed. I have never been intimate with a man before. I always saved it for my mate. Now that I have him I just don't know how to start something like that.' I told her honestly.

'Oh... okay as long as you are not upset with me. Though that is an easy fix. Just put on some cute and innocent lingerie. Usually that gets the ball rolling.' She said, and I can tell she was smirking at the last part of her comment. 'I don't have any lingerie, whatever that is. I don't even have my own clothes right now. I am borrowing Esmeralda's clothes right now.' I said.

Silence...

‘Diamond?’ I called out. ‘OH MY GODS!!’ She screams at the top of her lungs. Making me cover my ears. ‘Mistress, we need to take you shopping as soon as possible. Tomorrow... Yeah tomorrow I will teleport us to the human mall and we can get everything you need there.’ She said, talking rapidly. ‘Hey.’ I said. ‘To think that you don’t even have clothes, what on earth is happening here?’ She was ranting off to herself.

‘Diamond.’ I called out to her. ‘Oh we can bring Lady Esmeralda with us. I bet she would have some cute ideas for you as well.’ She continued. ‘Diamond.’ I tried again. ‘Your first time needs to be perfect, so maybe a spa day is in order too.’ She continued.

I finally snapped. ‘DIAMOND!!!’ I roared through the link. Finally getting her to shut up and listen to me for goddess sake. ‘I will talk about the shopping trip to Alenajdro and the others, and when I am alone with my mate I will ask about the marking and mating process for lycans... So calm down and take the rest of the night off. I will get back with you tomorrow.’ I said everything in one breath so she couldn’t cut me off again.

‘Oh... okay my lady. I am sorry for losing my composure like that. Please let me know tomorrow when I can take you to the human mall. It really is the best place to get everything you need or to find anything you want.’ She said. Then the link closed. ‘I hope I didn’t hurt her when I yelled like that.’ I said to my wolf. ‘I don’t think so. I think she just got embarrassed to be caught ranting like that. She sounded like an over protective mother hen when she did. Hahaha.’ Violet laughed out.

‘True. I wonder if that is how things are going to be.’ I thought about the last time anyone ever looked out for me like that. It warmed my heart. ‘Well we have family and friends now, and you are stuck with me and our mate for life.’ She said before retreating into the depths of my mind. I felt myself blink a few times to refocus my eye sight and saw everyone at the table looking at me with concerned faces. “Is everything okay?” I asked, looking around the table.

“Who were you mind linking for so long?” Miguel asked. “Oh it was just Diamond. She wanted to update me on how her meeting went with Bethany and she also wanted to take me to the human mall for clothes and stuff.” I told them. There is no way in hell I am bringing up that she told me to mate and mark Alejandro just to buy more time with Bethany.

I didn’t want him to think I was moving forward with our bond just for that reason. I want him to know that I was taking that step because I want him for him. He was mine and I wanted every female to know that. "Oh okay, and we should take you to the mall soon. How about tomorrow?" Mom said with a smile. "Yeah we can make it a girls day out!" Esmeralda said.

Both Miguel and Alejandro went stiff at that thought. Alejandro wrapped his arms around me and pulled me into his lap. "If she is going then I am going." He muttered as he put his face into my neck and inhaled my scent. Esmeralda rolled her eyes but was not upset. "Whipped." She teased and Alejandro lightly growled at her. I can already tell that tomorrow and every day afterwards was going to be fun. Even when all this bull st with Bethany and the Nightshade pack gets cleared up.

The Lost Princess' Second Chance Chapter 34

After dinner and making plans to go to the mall. I was tired. I yawned as I started to walk to my room... Well it is Alejandro's room, I just moved in with him.

A second yawn escapes me, just as I felt myself being swept off my feet. "Whoa." I squealed, as I found my arms wrapping around the neck of the one that picked me up. My loving, caring, sweet mate. Alejandro. "You know I can walk?" I asked him with a smirk and a raised eyebrow.

He just gave me a smirk of his own. "And you do know that you have a big and strong lycan mate that loves carrying you around?" He said in a deep and husky voice. His voice sent shivers of pleasure down my body as Violet started to purr. His eye flashed to his lycan's eyes for a quick second. Letting me know that he can smell me.

I tightened my arms around his neck and connected my lips* with his. He groaned as his hands tightened around my hips. I was about to deepen the kiss when someone clears their throat behind us. Making us pull apart and me glaring at whoever interrupted us.

I know it is tempting, but save it for after our shopping trip tomorrow. A girl deserves to have everything right their first time."

Esme said.

I rolled my eyes and glared at Esme. I never cared for planning the right way. I would say if my mate wanted me in the woods under the moon light I would welcome it. As far as I am concerned as long as I am alone with my mate. He could take me anywhere.

“True, but after that then it is game on. So prepare your mate to start knocking before coming into our room.” Alejandro said, with an evil glint of mischief in his eyes. Then I felt a rush of air whip around me before my back was met with the soft blankets of the king size bed. “Our room?” I ask with a raised brow as I sit up onto my elbows.

Alejandro locks the door and with his speed covers the distance between us. He strips off his shirt and pants quickly and climbs into bed, hovering over me with his massive body. “Yes, our room. You are mine to love and protect until my final breath.” He said as he lightly kissed and sniffed around my neck. Making me feel hot and wanting him closer.

He pulled back and gently placed his forehead on mine.

Looking directly into my eyes with his blue eyes peering into me as it felt like he was looking into my soul. “I let you out of my sight once when I was a child and lost you. I will never lose you again.”

He said, he sounded heart broken over the time we lost together.

I wonder how it could have been. Growing up with him, Miguel, and the others. ‘Would I be the broken person I am now?’ I wondered. ‘We are not broken. We are strong. You are strong.’ Violet said. I listen to her words as my eyes never leave Alejandro’s eyes.

I felt warm, happy, and loved. Something I have not felt in a long time. Once it was taken from me when Alpha Frederick killed mother all those years ago. I have a new family and my mate. I am not going to lose them this time around.

Alejandro blinked and then smiled so wide I thought his face would split. “What?” I asked. “The spark is back in your beautiful eyes. I was worried about how long they would be lifeless and cold.

Almost as if you had given up.” He told me honestly, as he rolled us over and pulled the covers over us.

“Well I did feel like that after Hugo made me feel the pain of betrayal for a whole month straight. I never noticed that it showed in my eyes like that.” I told him honestly. Nuzzling into his neck and wrapping my arms around his waist.

He was like my giant teddy bear now. I have a giant warm teddy bear that I can cuddle and snuggle with for the rest of my life.

Alejandro growled and pulled me tighter to him. Making us as close as possible. I doubt even a piece of paper could fit between our bodies. "He will regret that. I will tear him apart slowly to make him feel all the pain he made you suffer." He said, laying his head on the top of my head.

"All I care about now is that all that pain led me back home to you and my true family. Maybe him being my first mate was the goddess trying to push me to leave that pack." I said. "You are right though, my sexy mate. Hugo will pain for all the pain he made me suffer and he will regret it... but I will be the one to put him in his rightful place. I just need your support and help training until I am strong enough to whoop even your sexy a*s." I said, challenging him.

His chest vibrated as he laughed. "Oh little wolf, you think you can challenge the royal beta like that?" he said, pulling back to look down at me.

"You forget, sexy... you may be the royal beta, but I am the alpha queen's daughter and the princess of this pack. I think the only place you could beat me at is the rules of our bed. For now at least."

Alejandro's eye shined, letting me know that his lycan, Archer, was now in control. He lifted me up in the bed and stuck his face into my neck. "You should be careful on who you challenge, little wolf. You may bite off more than you can chew." He growled in my neck. Though it sounded more like a half growl and a half purr.

I decided to push a bit and rub my leg up and down his, while lightly kissing his neck. I felt him shiver under my touch. I got to his marking spot and placed an open mouth kiss on his skin. He groaned. I know that once the time is right for us, this spot will bear my mark, but until then this will have to do. I thought to myself as I continued to suck on the spot.

After a few seconds, I released the spot. Admiring the dark purple hickey I left on his skin. "Now those sluts will know that you are taken." I said, smirking at him. He flashed me a grin before his face disappeared into my neck again. Kissing and licking every inch, until he came to my marking spot.

I gasped as I felt him lightly nip at his before taking my skin into his mouth. He sucked and gently bit down causing me to feel like a bh in heat. Rubbing my body against his to relieve some of the pressure I felt building up. "Alejandro." I called out in a breathless moan.

He groaned out as he released my neck from his mouth. "Say it again." He said. I looked up at him. "Say my name again and I will make you feel good, my little mate." He said, kissing my hair and temple. "Alejandro" I said and was instantly met with his lips crashing into mine.

I felt his hand travel down my body and stop at the top of my shorts. Alejandro then slipped his hand down the front of my shorts and with two fingers over my underwear, he stroked my wet and hot py. "Hmmm, so wet for me." He whispered into my ear before gently biting down. "Ahh." I gasped, feeling my hips buckle under his touch. I needed him. All of him.

"I will make you c*m tonight baby... but I will not mate with you all the way just yet." He said, still stroking my py through my soaked panties. "W-w-what? Why?" I asked breathlessly. "I am a gentleman, sweet heart. I want to take you out on a date before I make you completely mine. You are more than life to me. I want our union to be perfect in every way." He said

I wanted to argue back, but he pushed my underwear aside and inserted a single finger. Making me lose my train of thought. "Oh my goddess." I gasped as he moved in and out. It didn't even hurt. I felt nothing but pleasure from his touch. "So tight and wet, baby... and all of it is for me." He said as he continued to pump his finger as he also licked my neck.

I felt a pressure build in my stomach. Alejandro slipped another finger inside and increased his speed. "Let go, baby girl. I want to see you come undone with my fingers fg you." He whispered huskily into my ear. The moment I felt his thumb press onto my clit, I came undone. I coated his fingers and hand in my juices as the pleasure filled my body.

When I came down from the high of my o*m. Alejandro had pulled his hand from my shorts. He licked his hand clean as he watched me breathe heavily on the mattress. "Tastes so sweet, baby girl." He said once his hand was clean again. He licked his lips before giving me a gentle good night peck.

"Sleep baby. We have a lot of shopping to do tomorrow." He said, wrapping his arms back around me. I closed my eyes and drifted off into a peaceful sleep with my mate. 'If that is how good the appetizer is with his fingers... then I can't wait for the main course when we mate for real.' was my final thought before darkness took over.

The Lost Princess' Second Chance Chapter 35

The sunlight coming in through the window woke me up. I groaned and tried to snuggle more into my mate, but was met with cold fabric. My eyes snapped open and I looked all around. I was still in the very giant room that Alejandro said belonged to both of us, but I couldn't see him anywhere.

"The sheets are cold, so he has been gone for a while.' I thought to myself. I huffed as I started to get out of bed. Then I noticed something on the nightstand on my side of the bed. It was a single light purple rose with a royal blue ribbon on it. The ribbon tied a note to the stem of the rose.

I picked both of them up and opened the note...

My dear sweet little mate,

I had to get up early to go to morning training. I did not wish to wake you as you looked so cute in your sleep. Though I also did not want you to worry about where I was. So I wrote this note for you After training I will be back up to wake you for breakfast. I am counting the minutes until I can have you back in my arms.

Love with all my heart, Alejandro.

I smiled to myself as I read the note a few more times. I carefully untied the ribbon from the flower and the note. Placing the note carefully inside the drawer of the nightstand. I will have to get a special box so I can keep all his notes and letters to me somewhere safe.' I thought to myself as I got out of bed and headed for the bathroom.

I used the toilet and then stripped to get into the shower. Mom, Miguel, Esme, Diamond, and Alejandro were taking me shopping at the mall today. Dad is staying here to do pack work and Uncle Kane said that he was going to get everything ready for my first training session with him tomorrow.

Until I am stronger to hold my own with the other female warriors, both dad and Uncle Kane thought it would be wiser and safer for me to train one on one with Uncle Kane. That way Bethany or any other jealous female warrior can't bully me or seriously injure me for being around my brother and mate. 'Those two have quite the fan club.' I told Violet.

'Well can you expect. Our brother is good looking on his own and our mate is a tall mountain of delicious lycan muscle. I honestly can't blame those poor girls. They only get to look at our sexy mate's body, while we get to feel it every night.' She purred out. 'So long as they keep their hands to themselves... I don't mind sharing our mate that way.' She added.

I growled at the thought of another girl trying to get their hands on what belongs to me. I was so caught up in my conversation with my wolf that I let out a squeak of surprise when I felt two strong arms wrap around my naked body. "That was a cute sound, baby girl." The man I was just thinking about said in my ear.

"You startled me, Alejandro." I playfully scolded him.

I must not have caught onto his scent because of the hot water, but now it was like I was bathing in it. His hands went to my hips and he pulled me close to him, sniffing my neck. I felt his rock hard abs pressed against my back, and something hard pressed up against my butt.

I don't know why, but I felt like teasing him a bit. I wiggled my butt up and against his hard and thick shaft. He growled into my neck and lightly bit down on the spot he marked with a hickey. I moaned out a sound I never knew I was capable of making. "That is playing a very dangerous game, love... are you sure you want to continue?" He growled lowly into my ear

"But the danger makes it all more fun." I said, taking charge and spinning around in his arms. I don't know where this sexy vixen side of me was all this time, but I wasn't going to hide her away. Not when I had a mate that could, and would, fulfill all the dirty desires that she filled my head with.

I wrapped my arms around his neck and jumped up wrapping my legs around his hard chisled waist. I crashed my lips to his in a hungry and lustful kiss. He gripped my ass a bit hard, but this kind of pain only added to my pleasure. I tried to rub up against him some more, but he held me in place. "Baby girl, as much as I want to fk you here and now, it is not going to happen right now." he said as he pulled back.

I whimpered. "But I want you now." I whined. I never wanted anything more than him, and that feeling only intensified when I found out some slut wants him and plans to try and take him from me. I know in some packs, identical multiples like twins or triplets share one mate, but I am not a twin and I don't share Alejandro with anyone.

“Baby girl, don’t be like that. I told you that I want to woo you and sweep you off your feet. That means dates of all and any kind you want.” He said, cradling my a*s in one arm and gently rubbing his free hand up and down my back. “You are more than some she wolf that gets to share my bed. Though truth be told you are the first and last female to share my bed.” He added.

That bit of information filled me with more joy and love for him. I was going to be his first and he was going to be mine. I squeezed him in a big hug. “I love you, Alejandro.” I said into his ear. I felt him go stiff under my embrace. I felt his arms wrap around me and hold me tightly to him. “I have been dying to hear you say that, baby girl. I love you too, Iris. I have loved you since before you were born. I knew in my heart and soul that you were mine.” He said.

I pulled my face back from his shoulder and saw nothing but love in his eyes. “I will wait until after our date to make you mine, but now I need to calm down before we head to the mall.” I told him, unhooking my legs and trying to wiggle out of his embrace.

Alejandro clinged to me tighter. I raised an eyebrow at him.

“Just because I said that I will not be taking that sweet cherry of yours right now, baby girl... does not mean that I will not take care of you when you are all hot and bothered.” He said with a smirk and mischievous glint in his eyes. “You only have to ask.” He added while wiggling his eyebrows. I smiled at him and moved my hands to his shoulders, feeling the tight muscles on them. “Please daddy?” I asked in the most innocent voice I could manage.

I felt his growl vibrate through his body and then the next thing I knew... Alejandro had lifted me up to where I was sitting on his shoulders with my py right in front of him. Thank the Moon Goddess that all of these ceilings were so fricken tall. His mouth started to devour my juices as he moved forward until I was pinned between the wall and him.

I moaned out as I gripped his hair in my fists, making him growl against my quivering py. Alejandro used one hand to grip my a*s as the other slid from my a*s to my py and he fingered me like he did the night before. I gasped out as he used three fingers this time while his tongue and teeth licked and nipped at my clit.

It honestly didn't take long before I was screaming out his name and wetting his face in my juices. I felt his lap up every single drop. When he helped me down back onto the floor, my legs were like jello. I could hardly stand upright on my own. "Here, love. Let me help you get clean and then we will head downstairs once you are ready." Alejandro said.

Everything was a bit of a daze until I heard Esme yelling at Alejandro. "Oh my sweet Moon Goddess! Alec what the hell did you do to the poor thing?" She screamed out, taking me from Alejandro's arms and sitting me down in a chair. "I didn't do anything she didn't want." Alejandro said.

Smack The sound snapped me out of the daze that the o*m left me in.

I whipped my head to the sound and saw that Alejandro got smacked upside the head by my cousin, Isabella. "I swear you males are all the same sometimes. Just because you are her mate that doesn't mean put her into a daze like this." She scolded as Alejandro rubbed the back of his head. I got up and sat on Alejandro's lap with my arms around his neck, softly running my fingers through his hair.

I turned to Isabella and Esme. I love that they would defend my honor, but honestly it should be the other way around. "Truth be told it is the other way around girls. If I had it my way Alejandro and I would be locked in our room for a day or two at the very least." I told them with a smirk on my lips.

I heard my brother and father choke on their food or drink, while Alejandro's parents were as speechless as Isabella and Esme.

The silence was broken when both my mom and Uncle Kane burst out laughing as if someone had told the world's funniest joke. "She is definitely your daughter, sis." Uncle Kane laughed out. Mom continued to laugh as she nodded. "Yes, I think those were the exact same words I told our parents when I was first mated to Alberto." She said with a smile and happy tears in her eyes.

I turned to them and leaned forward a bit. "Oh, now I got to hear this story." I said, making everyone in the room laugh this time as dad turned a few shades redder than normal.
