

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 323

Fabian looked at Savanna for a long time without saying anything.

Savanna did not speak either. The tension in the air grew. After a long time, Fabian said, "Mrs. Young, I brought my unfilial son to personally visit you to apologize. Mr. Young and you did not accept it. Now my son is taken into custody. I do not blame you and Mr. Young. It was our family who started this. You rushed into the Colon Group like this, accused me, and questioned our business. Mrs. Young, do you think it is proper?"

Fabian called Savanna Mrs. Young, which sounded distant.

It was clear that Fabian did not admit that Savanna was his illegitimate daughter.

Savanna showed a cold smile. "I believe that you know who Ms. Sloan is. I won't say much about her relationship with you. Rafael was just taken into custody when Ms. Sloan disappeared. We searched all over Philadelphia and couldn't find her. If your family also mysteriously disappeared, would you be anxious?"

Fabian put down the document in his hand and stared at Savanna. He pushed the glasses on his nose and slowly said, "Rafael was taken into custody. I also thought that he should get a lesson there. So, I didn't do anything at all."

Fabian looked serious. He did not seem like he was lying at all.

The smile in Savanna's eyes deepened. "I hope so, Mr. Colon."

This time, Savanna came for Fabian's promise. Hearing him say that, Savanna was about to leave. When she walked to the door, she slowly turned around. "Mr. Colon, in this life, she has already suffered enough. I want you to be what you claim to be."

With that, Savanna left without looking back.

Fabian looked at Savanna from behind as she left. He was stunned, maintaining the same sitting posture for a long time.

Obviously, Savanna knew her relationship with him.

As soon as Savanna left the Colon Group, Mia called her, saying that a stranger had sent her a message.

Savanna met up with Mia, who showed her the information.

“Come here.” It was followed by an address.

Savanna used the map on her phone to navigate. The car quickly drove to the address sent by the stranger.

At an abandoned house on the outskirts of Philadelphia.

Savanna walked in the front, followed by Mia, Jim, and Seth.

Mia was usually quite bold. Her heart skipped a beat when she saw the gloomy and miserable house. Especially when she walked in, a gust of wind blew from inside. Mia was so scared that she cried out and hid behind Savanna.

They searched every room and did not see anyone. Mia was so angry that she stomped her feet and cursed the heartless kidnapper.

Mia sent a message to the kidnapper. “Where is she?”

“300 thousand dollars as ransom.”

The kidnapper replied almost instantly. It was obvious that the kidnapper was waiting.

Mia was furious. “I don’t have 300 thousand dollars. You can do whatever you want.”

Mia was indeed angry. In order to treat Renee, she had spent all her savings over the past few years. The medical expenses for the past two days were all paid by Savanna.

Hearing that the kidnappers were asking her for money, Mia was really angry.

The kidnapper sent a smiling emoji and sent another message, “Okay, I got it.”

Then he added, “I will rape her and kill her, and then dump her corpse in the wilderness.”

“Whatever,” Mia shouted angrily.

Savanna took her phone, glanced at the message on the screen, and immediately typed, “300 thousand dollars. I will give you the money the moment you release her.”

Obviously, her tone was different from Mia’s. The kidnapper knew that it was a different person and immediately replied, “Just now, it was 300 thousand dollars. Now, it doesn’t work anymore. I want 750 thousand dollars.”

Savanna typed, “It is not reasonable to raise the price. I’ve seen shameless people, but you are the most shameless person I have ever met.”

“Whatever. I have the final say in this matter.”

Savanna was afraid that the kidnapper would kill Renee, so she immediately agreed, “Alright, 750 thousand dollars. Where do we trade?”

The kidnapper replied, “You are not allowed to call the police. Otherwise, I’ll sell her abroad.”

The kidnapper sounded vicious and serious.

Savanna continued to deal with the kidnapper and tried to buy time by talking something with the kidnapper.

Gradually, the kidnapper revealed a clue. Savanna felt that the kidnapper was a woman, who had hatred toward Renee.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 324

The kidnapper might have noticed that she had talked too much with Savanna and no longer replied to the message. No matter how much Savanna said, the kidnapper was silent.

Savanna immediately asked Seth to check the IP location of the kidnapper’s account. But the account disappeared, and the IP also disappeared. Savanna took Mia’s phone to look at the message sent by the kidnapper. The message was removed because the kidnapper used special software.

Savanna and Mia looked at each other. Both of them knew that the kidnapper did not kidnap Renee just for money. If it were for money, she would not withdraw the messages when she noticed that Savanna was trying to get her word.

Savanna agreed to the deal. However, the kidnapper did not tell her the location of the deal but withdrew all the messages she sent. It seemed that the kidnapper didn’t do that for money.

They wondered, since she didn’t do that for money, why did she kidnap Renee?

“Mia, could it be that someone kidnapped her because she had a grudge against you?”

Savanna could not think of any other possibilities and asked Mia.

Mia rolled her eyes and snorted, “Although my personality is strange and I don’t have many friends, I can guarantee that my friends are all kind-hearted. They wouldn’t dare to do such a thing.”

Savanna did not get any news about Renee for a long time. She was furious. It was not that she had deep feelings for Renee. Renee inexplicably disappeared, and it was after she sued Rafael. Savanna felt that these two things were related. But without evidence, that was just Savanna's guess.

Savanna frowned anxiously. "Mia, since you had a relationship with Rafael, is there no one else?"

After listening to Savanna, Mia was very hurt. "I said that I only had Rafael as my man. Do you believe me?"

Mia had always been dressed in a strange outfit. Her hair was dyed red, and she even wore a nose ring. She indeed did not look like a pure young girl. However, a person's character could not be judged by outfit.

Savanna also felt that her words were a little harsh. She immediately apologized, "Sorry, I was too anxious. Who do you think would kidnap her?"

She thought, Renee was a useless psychopath. What's the point of kidnapping her?

Savanna wandered around. The leaves fell from the towering trees to Savanna's feet. Seeing that it was quiet everywhere, Savanna was about to leave with Jim and others.

"Hee hee!"

In the silent air, an abnormal chuckle broke the silence.

Everyone stopped in their tracks and looked in the direction of the sound.

A pile of yellow leaves shook. One piece, two pieces, three pieces. Slowly, countless yellow leaves flew away. Someone slowly stood up from the yellow leaves. She pushed aside the messy hair on her face and looked at the people who were looking at her.

The woman licked her lips and showed a sweet smile to Savanna and the others. Her gaze swept across all the faces one by one and finally fell on Savanna's face. Then, her expression slowly became sad. She slowly walked over to Savanna and grabbed Savanna's hand. Her lips opened as she tried to say Fabian's name, but she didn't utter a sound.

Savanna narrowed her eyes and asked, "What do you want to say?"

Renee could understand her words, but she could not speak. Renee opened her mouth again. Seeing that she could not speak, Renee was so upset. She stomped her feet and began to gesticulate at Savanna. Savanna had never learned hand language before, so she naturally could not understand.

Savanna looked around and did not find anyone suspicious. It was not normal for Renee to appear here alone, so she held Renee's thin shoulder. "Did you come here alone? Or did someone bring you here? If it is the former, you nod. If it is the latter, you shake your head."

Savanna didn't know if Renee understood what she said. Renee randomly nodded but then immediately shook her head.

Savanna took a deep breath. Mia couldn't stand it any longer. She pulled Renee over, held her head, and roared, "Who brought you here? We have looked for you for a long time. Say it."

Mia had a fierce look on her face, and her furious tone frightened Renee. Renee's pupils shrank, and her neck shrank. She slapped away Mia's hand holding her head and hid behind Savanna.

Mia wanted to catch Renee, but Savanna stopped her. "Alright, let's go back now."

Back at the hospital, the doctor did a checkup for Renee. Her vocal cords were damaged by someone with medicine. To put it simply, Renee was poisoned mute.

Savanna felt the one who poisoned and muted Renee did that because of her.

After Renee came back, her mood was not stable. She cried, laughed, giggled, and then looked out the window in a daze.

Savanna could tell that Renee not only had her vocal cords hurt, but she seemed to be a little depressed. Renee had bitten her hand more than once and hit her face.

Seeing Renee sitting on the bed and starting to bite and hit herself, Savanna could no longer ignore it. She grabbed Renee's hands. Savanna used all her strength to hold her down, preventing her from moving. Savanna gasped for breath, "What on earth did you experience? Write it down with paper."

Seeing this, Mia was also frightened by Renee's self-abuse. After all, Renee was her mother. Mia took the pen and paper and put them on the bed.

Savanna saw Renee's gaze fall straight on the snow-white paper. Savanna took a step back and slowly loosened her hand. Renee was free. She immediately grabbed the pen and paper and wrote, "Fabian, let Fabian come see me. I want to see Fabian."

These sentences were perhaps buried in Renee's heart for countless years.

Even if her brain was not clear, she would always remember Fabian, the man who hurt her the most.

Savanna and Mia looked at the heart-wrenching sentence. When they looked at each other, there were tears in their eyes. After all, Renee was their mother.

Mia sniffed and suggested to Savanna, "Why don't you go find Fabian and ask him to come over?"

Savanna was silent.

She thought, what's the point of letting the scumbag come over?

After a moment of silence, Savanna finally gave in. She took out her phone and called the Colon Group. After the receptionist heard her request, she coldly refused, "I'm sorry. Our president is very busy. He is not free."

Savanna asked Seth to invite Fabian. When Seth came back, he said that Fabian was having an emergency meeting. There was a problem with the project of the Colon Group.

Perhaps that was Fabian's excuse.

After the doctor gave Renee a tranquilizer, Renee fell asleep. Savanna wiped the sweat off her face and told Mia to keep watch over Renee. Then, she quickly left the mental hospital.

The kidnapper poisoned Renee obviously to teach Savanna a lesson and make her withdraw the lawsuit.

Savanna prepared the food and sent it to the hospital. This time, Brandon asked her to send the food to the ward. Savanna entered the ward and saw Lorena on the bed. She was shocked. Lorena's cheeks sank. Hearing the footsteps, Lorena opened her eyes with difficulty. She glanced at Savanna and closed her eyes again without saying anything

Savanna opened the lunch box. Brandon took it and put it on the head of the bed. Savanna looked at the back of Lorena's hand that was placed on the quilt. Under her fair skin, her veins were bulging Lorena was so thin that she only had skin and bones,

Brandon fed Lorena, but she only drank a little bit of soup before closing her mouth.

Savanna knew that Lorena's life was at its last moment.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 325

Lorena was lying there. Only her heaving chest showed that she was alive.

Lorena's life would slowly disappear in hunger.

She was just managing to breathe.

Savanna waited for Brandon to finish his meal and took the lunch box away. Brandon stayed with Lorena in the hospital all day and night.

Savanna took a shower and lay down on the bed. Thinking about Renee, she felt a little annoyed. She lit a cigarette. When the cigarette burned out, she took a deep breath. She smelled like a cigarette.

She turned off the lights. When she was about to fall asleep, Mia called her.

"She's making trouble again. This time, it's even more violent than before. The medicine has worn off."

Listening to the sound of something smashing on the phone, Savanna had a complicated feeling.

Savanna asked Mia, "Can you stop her?"

Mia said, "No, hurry up and come over, ah..."

Mia let out a scream.

The phone was thrown out of her hand, and her voice became low but sharp. "How can you bite me? If you weren't my mother, I would have slapped you."

Mia's face clouded over. She was going mad.

Savanna took a deep breath, got dressed, and went out with the car key.

When Savanna arrived at the hospital, Mia was still fighting with her insane mother. Renee was wearing a hospital gown. Her hair was messy, and her expression was still a little sleepy, but the corner of her mouth was stained with blood.

Savanna glanced at the bloody teeth marks on Mia's fair fingers, and her heart skipped a beat. She couldn't help but say, "How can you do that? She took care of you without sleeping. You are so cruel."

Savanna didn't know whether Renee understood her words or not. Renee's eyes were dull and seemed to be covered with a layer of fog. However, after Savanna came, Renee seemed to become a little more obedient. She bit her little finger and looked at Savanna with innocent eyes.

Savanna was fuming with anger. She sighed, "Alright, I'll find him for you."

Savanna knew the reason why Renee caused trouble at midnight. Renee wanted to see Fabian.

Savanna drove to the Colon's house.

The Colon family had gone to bed. Only a few small lights in the aisle were on, and the faint light fell to the ground with a halo.

Savanna stood outside the Colon's villa and looked up at the small lamp above her head.

Perhaps once, her mother, Renee, had also wandered around here. Savanna had long let Jim find Fabian's number.

She found Fabian's number in her contact list and dialed it.

"Hello."

Fabian's low and husky voice revealed his laziness after he woke up from his sleep.

"She wants to see you, Mr. Colon."

She used a cold and distant way to address him.

After a moment of hesitation, a female voice sounded, "Who is it? Fabian, it's so late. She didn't sound like your secretary."

Savanna's pink lips curled up, and a wicked smile appeared in her eyes. "Hello, Mrs. Colon. I am Savanna. I am the result of your husband's love affair many years ago. Yes, I am the illegitimate daughter of the Colon family."

Ashley's voice couldn't be heard anymore. After a moment of silence, Fabian's voice sounded with a warning, "Savanna, what do you mean?"

Savanna faked a smile. "Mr. Colon, my mother wants to see you. You find all kinds of reasons to refuse to meet her. Since that's the case, why did you flirt with her twenty years ago? You even had sex with her and made her pregnant with your daughter."

Fabian's gasping voice sounded. She vaguely heard Ashley shouting, "Fabian, I want to go to the bathroom. Are you finished?"

Fabian had no time to talk to Savanna. He opened the door and saw Ashley, who looked at him coldly. Ashley glanced at the phone in his hand and raised her eyebrows. "Deal with the business matters in the company. Why do you talk about it at midnight?"

Ashley said softly and closed the door.

Obviously, when he had just received a call from Savanna, the words "illegitimate daughter" made Fabian alert. He was afraid that Ashley would hear it, so he covered his phone. He used the excuse that he needed to go to the bathroom and went there alone.

They had only spoken a few words when Ashley said that she needed to go to the bathroom. Fabian did not know if she really needed it.

Holding his phone, Fabian hurried to the balcony. When he closed the door, he glanced in the direction of the bathroom.

He lowered his voice. "Savanna, don't call me again. I have nothing to do with her."

Savanna gritted her teeth and licked them. "Alright, you won't go, right?"

She picked up a brick and began to pound hard on the gate of the villa.

The gate of the Colon's villa was a distance away from the inner hall. The courtyard was very empty, and in the middle of the night, the sound of Savanna knocking on the gate could be heard by everyone in the villa. The first to react was the housekeeper of the Colon family, Lawrence Neale.

Lawrence put on his clothes and got out of bed. He ran out and opened the gate. He saw a luxury car parked outside the gate. The woman standing at the gate was holding a brick in her hand. She was beautiful and charming. When she saw someone coming out, Savanna threw the brick away, pushed Lawrence aside, and went straight into the house. Lawrence chased after her.

Fabian on the balcony heard the sound of knocking on the gate on the phone. He immediately hung up the phone, rushed into the room, put on his coat, and hurried downstairs.

Seeing that Fabian was alerted, Lawrence grabbed Savanna's hand and shouted, "Miss, please leave. Otherwise, I'll call the police and sue you for trespassing on a private house."

She glanced at Fabian and put on a fake smile. "This is my home. Why can't I enter?"

Lawrence was shocked by Savanna's words.

He looked at Savanna in surprise, then looked at Fabian, whose anger was rolling on his face, and warned in a low voice, "Miss, please leave. Don't cause trouble here."

As he spoke, Lawrence pushed Savanna out.

Savanna shook off his hand. She had quite a lot of strength, and Lawrence was thrown to the ground by her.

Fabian was about to say something when a low and soft voice came. "Who is this person?"

Fabian immediately looked up and saw that under the light, the white pajamas wrapped around the woman's body, making her look slender and graceful. The woman in her fifties took good care of herself and did not look old at all.

Fabian glanced at her and looked away. His voice was very cold. "A difficult client."

Ashley's expression did not change, and her voice became even softer, "What urgent business must be discussed at midnight? Fabian, did you cause trouble because of your love affairs?"

Fabian looked down and sneered, "Looking at her age and then at my age, do you think it's possible?"

Ashley's gaze swept past Fabian and landed on Savanna's face. Her gaze was indescribably cold. Savanna always felt that this woman gave off a feeling of isolation. Ashley's coldness was emitted from her bones, making people shiver when they saw her.

"Since she has nothing to do with you, just send her away."

Ashley combed her hair, her voice cold. After she finished speaking, she turned around and went upstairs.

Savanna was about to chase after her. When she passed by Fabian, her arm was grabbed by Fabian. Savanna looked sideways slightly and met Fabian's eyes which were faintly burning with anger. Savanna narrowed her eyes, looking like she was not afraid of him.

Ashley did not look back and went straight upstairs. Perhaps she just didn't want to care about it since she had already adapted to her husband's love affairs.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 326

Savanna wanted to peel off Fabian's hand, but before she could succeed, she was dragged downstairs by Fabian. He threw her out of the villa.

When Fabian was about to open the door, Savanna reached out and grabbed his pajama belt, and the sound of cloth tearing in the air rang out.

Lawrence, who was standing behind Fabian, saw the tear on Fabian's pajamas and did not dare to go forward, looking at Savanna in horror.

Lawrence did not know the relationship between Savanna and Fabian. Even Ashley did not care. What right did he, a servant, have to speak?

Lawrence could only stand there shocked.

Savanna took advantage of Fabian's astonishment to pull hard. Fabian staggered and stepped out of the door of the villa. Savanna pulled him into the car, and the car quickly left the Colon's villa.

Fabian was very angry. There was a cold and ruthless look between his eyebrows. He pursed his thin lips coldly and did not say a word. Savanna soon drove to the mental hospital.

Fabian sat motionlessly. Savanna pulled him out of the car. As if afraid that he would not go in, Savanna pulled his arm instead of his collar. Just like that, he stumbled along the way. Fabian was knocked into Renee's ward. Along the way, he attracted too many surprised gazes.

Mia didn't expect Savanna to really find Fabian.

Mia looked at Fabian's torn pajamas and couldn't help but laugh. Mia's laughter and the aura of a stranger rushed into the ward. Renee opened her eyes and looked at the man, who was standing in front of her and looking down at her.

The man's face gradually became clear in her black pupils, overlapping with the face that was branded in her mind. The angular outline, thick black eyebrows, straight nose, and thin lips... It was exactly the same as in her memory. He was still so handsome and so charming that she yearned for him.

Realizing that the man she had missed for her whole life was right in front of her, Renee bit her lips, and the corners of her eyes gradually became wet.

She threw herself into Fabian's arms and hugged him tightly. "Fabian, you're finally here. Our child is not dead. She is still alive."

Renee seemed to be afraid that Fabian would not believe her. She released him, grabbed Mia's hand, and pulled Mia to Fabian. She looked at Fabian, then looked at Mia. She muttered to herself, "She is our daughter. I gave birth to her for you. She is still alive. You won't blame me anymore, will you, Fabian?"

Renee trembled with excitement.

Compared to Renee's excitement, Fabian was much calmer. His deep and dark eyes did not show any emotions, as if he was listening to something that had nothing to do with him.

Fabian's indifference and apathy contrasted sharply with Renee's sorrow.

This scene deeply hurt Savanna.

Savanna pushed Mia aside and grabbed Renee's arm. Savanna pulled her to the bed. Renee was very afraid that Fabian would disappear. When Savanna pulled her to the bed, Renee gave Savanna a slap in the face. Savanna was so angry that she laughed. The fingerprints on her face became brighter. She pointed at Fabian and sneered.

"For this man, you hit me, Renee. Have you forgotten how he hurt you twenty years ago? He never loved you. Every word he said to you was a lie. Do you think he didn't want you because you lost your daughter? You are wrong."

Savanna was so angry that she went crazy. After scolding Renee, she shouted at Fabian, "Get lost. Don't ever let me see you again."

Fabian was about to leave, but Renee jumped up from the bed. She rushed up barefoot and held Fabian's waist tightly. Her voice trembled slightly. "Don't go, Fabian.

"I miss you."

Renee said her words of longing. She leaned against Fabian's back, tears falling from her eyes. Soon, Fabian's pajamas were wet.

Fabian knew that he could not leave. He slowly turned around, and his cold gaze fell on Renee's face. "I've said it many times. Our relationship has already ended. Renee, you shouldn't have any improper thoughts since you accepted the money."

Fabian's words awakened Renee's memories.

She began to recall the events of many years ago. She was helpless and pitiful, holding the newborn baby. She went to the Colon Group to look for Fabian and was stopped outside by the receptionist. Everyone thought she was crazy. They said she claimed that the daughter in her arms was Fabian's because she was insane.

Renee's crying scene was captured by the reporters. It was reported on the news. Fabian was afraid that the rumors would affect his image, so he went to the rented house that she rented. During that time, Fabian treated her very well, but she regarded that as love.

To Fabian, Renee was just a temporary relief, but Renee thought of Fabian as her whole.

Renee's daughter inexplicably disappeared. Renee called Fabian, but Fabian was not anxious, and he didn't help her find their daughter. Renee thought that Fabian blamed her for losing his daughter. She thought he ignored her because he was angry, so she obediently stayed in the rented house.

More than half a month had passed. Fabian no longer appeared in the rented house. Renee began to become manic and uneasy. Finally, she went to the Colon Group to find Fabian, while the secretary took a check and gave it to her. She said that Mr. Colon had left it for her and told her not to appear in his life again.

This check represented that he wanted to break off all ties with her.

And a check of 75 thousand dollars had bought off her company for two years. In his eyes, she was just a tool for him to vent his desires.

Renee was unwilling. She went to the Colon Group countless times, and then, she could never see Fabian again.

Fabian disappeared from her life.

In fact, during that time, Fabian accompanied Ashley abroad to have fun. When they returned, Ashley was pregnant with Dahlia.

Because Renee couldn't find Fabian, she tore the check and cried loudly. That night, she couldn't fall asleep all night. Later, her mind gradually became unclear. Later, even if she took a lot of sleeping pills, she could not fall asleep.

Then she completely forgot everything. She was completely immersed in her own world. She was sometimes insane and sometimes sane.

All of the past flashed in Renee's mind, like an illusion film

Renee's eyes gradually became clear. She looked at the man in front of her. Even though many years had passed, his face still hurt her somehow Renee ignored the pain in her heart and raised her hand to give Fabian a slap.

Being slapped for no reason, Fabian felt humiliated. His nostrils twitched, and he grabbed Renee's hand which had hit him. He held it tightly, his fingertips almost breaking Renee's flesh.

Renee did not cry out in pain. Instead, she raised her eyebrows and glared at him. She wished she could kill him.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 327

Read Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 327 Fabian looked at Renee's cut. He seemed to still be resentful. He raised his hand and was about to hit Renee. Savanna reached out and grabbed his hand. Fabian looked sideways and met Savanna's cold and sharp gaze. Fabian narrowed his eyes and said aggressively. "Let go."

Savanna did not let go, and the strength of her grip on Fabian's hand increased. It was unknown whether it was intentional or not. When Savanna grabbed Fabian's hand, her fingertip cut through his hand. Blood flowed out from Fabian's hand, and the air was immediately filled with the smell of blood.

Fabian was so furious. He angrily cursed again and asked Savanna to let go of him.

Savanna maintained still. Mia came over and quickly peeled off his hand that was holding Renee tightly.

Mia pulled Renee behind her. Mia glared angrily at Fabian, "old scumbag, my mother is too stupid. She was originally poisoned mute by your people. Now that you've come, you actually stimulated her to speak. She either loves you too much or hates you too much. I think it should be the latter."

When Fabian heard that, there was no expression on his face. When Savanna saw that, she was really disappointed.

Savanna did not let go no matter how much Fabian hurt. She just wanted him to feel pain. She turned her head and asked Renee, “Did you accept his check?”

Renee smiled bitterly and said, “I took it, but I tore it. I never took a single cent.”

“Did you hear that?”

Savanna yelled at Fabian, “She did not accept your money, which means that your relationship with her still exists. No matter what your relationship is, she gave birth to a child for you, and you have to be responsible for her and the daughter. Have you been responsible?”

Savanna thought of the sadness and despair that Renee felt after she was taken away by David. Fabian had abandoned Renee indirectly because of this.

What Fabian did made Savanna gnash her teeth in hatred.

Fabian raised his eyelids lazily and looked at Savanna with a sharp gaze. “When I was with her, she knew that I was not single. She knew I was married, but she insisted on pestering me. Savanna,

I didn’t say I wouldn’t recognize you, but your mother... I really...”

Crack

Before Fabian finished speaking, his face was slapped. The person who slapped him was not Renee, but Mia.

Mia’s round eyes were red and burning with anger. “Old scumbag, you just don’t want to be responsible for my mother. Let me tell you, if you don’t agree to marry my mother today, I won’t let you leave.”

As she spoke, Mia turned to close the door. Because she used too much force, the door shook loudly.

Fabian shook off Savanna’s hand and sneered, “What an arrogant tone! Do you think I can’t leave if you don’t allow me to?”

Fabian wanted to take out his phone to make a call. As soon as he took it out, it was snatched away by Mia. Mia smashed the phone to the ground.

Fabian was so angry that his face turned ashen. He could no longer suppress the anger in his heart. He roared at Renee, "What do you want? Twenty years ago, I said that I couldn't marry you. You were the one who wanted to get pregnant. Do you blame me for losing the child? Did I make you insane?"

Being condemned by Fabian, Renee had tears in her eyes and dull pain in her heart.

"I'm the cheap one, okay?"

Renee spoke in a very soft voice. In the next second, before everyone could react, she smashed into the wall. Immediately, the smell of blood spread in the air.

Savanna screamed. She ran over. When she picked up Renee, she covered Renee's bleeding forehead with trembling hands.

Savanna pressed hard, but the bright blood still gushed out from Renee's cracked skin.

Blood dyed her fingers red and fell on her clothes.

The snow-white dress was immediately dyed red.

Mia called the doctor. The doctor came in a hurry. Seeing this situation, the doctor turned pale with fright and quickly treated Renee's wound.

The wound was very big, and Renee might be disfigured. Fabian was finally not calm anymore. He picked up Renee and rushed out of the hospital without saying anything.

The ambulance from the mental hospital drove Renee to a high-level hospital in Philadelphia. There was a world-famous plastic surgeon in the hospital.

The plastic surgeon first stopped the bleeding for Renee and cleaned the wound. After the plastic surgeon applied an anesthetic to Renee, he quickly took the needle to stitch up the wound for Renee. The stitches were very good and beautiful. The plastic doctor was skilled.

Savanna and Mia arrived.

Seeing that Renee's blood had stopped and the wound had been sutured, they were finally relieved. Fabian carried Renee to the bed. His movements were very gentle. He shook hands with the doctor and thanked him. The plastic doctor smiled and replied, "You're welcome, Mr. Colon. Just let me know if you need anything."

The doctor told Renee, "Mrs. Colon, after the anesthetic, the wound will hurt a little. It's normal. Just endure it for a while."

The doctor called her Mrs. Colon, which made Renee subconsciously look at Fabian. Fabian was looking at her. Their eyes met with endless grudges and emotions.

The doctor left.

Savanna and Mia exchanged glances, not knowing what to say, especially Savanna.

Ignoring the shock and infatuation in Renee's eyes, she chased Fabian away, "You can leave. Don't come again."

However, Fabian stood at the end of the bed and did not say a word. He stared at Renee. After a long time, Fabian finally looked down at the tip of his shoes. He was forcibly pulled out by Savanna. He did not even change his slippers. In this life, he had never been so embarrassed.

Seeing that Fabian was not leaving, Mia shouted impatiently, "Old scumbag, she told you to get lost. Are you deaf?"

Fabian looked up at Mia.

Mia was intimidated by his dignity and took a step back. Fabian withdrew his gaze, no longer looking at Renee, and turned to walk out of the ward.

Renee, who was on the bed, was completely sober. She no longer stopped Fabian from leaving. However, after the man left, she turned her face and stared at the empty door in a daze.

She looked confused.

She seemed to have fallen into a sorrowful memory.

Savanna was about to say something when the phone rang. She thought it was Brandon. Unexpectedly, it was a stranger. She picked it up and a man's voice came, "Come out for a moment. I have something to say to you."

Savanna hung up and walked out of the ward with her phone. Sure enough, she saw Fabian at the end of the aisle.

Fabian leaned against the wall as he looked down at his toes. Out of the corner of his eye, he saw the slender shadow under the light getting closer and closer. His husky voice slowly sounded in the silent space. "Take good care of her. I will pay the medical fees."

Savanna saw a trace of guilt from the man's expression. Savanna said in a cold voice, "What she needs is not these. What she needs is the warmth and love that you have owed her for more than twenty years. If you still have a bit of feeling for her, then divorce and marry her."

Fabian looked up, his eyes cold. "It's not that I don't want to marry her, but I can't... You can return to the Colon family."

Fabian's meaning was very obvious. Savanna could return and the Colon family could accept Savanna, but it was impossible for him to marry Renee.

"She is already insane. Just think of it as coaxing her... Can't you do it?"

Tears swirled in Savanna's eyes as she thought, how heartless is Fabian?

Why is he so ruthless?

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 328

Read Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 328 "Coax her?" Fabian repeated Savanna's words.

"Since I have made a promise, I have to do it. I am a married man." Fabian insisted on his position, and they got to the same topic.

Savanna really wanted to beat him. "You knew that you were married, so why did you have sex with her back then? You had sex with her, but you were irresponsible and let her bear so much alone. Fabian, you are the worst person in the world. The guilt you showed just now was meaningless. In this life, you made her suffer."

Fabian said, "Your mother's throat had been hurt. Tomorrow, I will get someone to send the medicine over. After she took the medicine, her throat should not be hoarse anymore."

Savanna frowned. "What do you mean?"

Fabian didn't say anything more and turned to leave.

Savanna no longer stopped him and allowed him to leave.

The anesthetic had worn off. Renee cried in pain. Savanna didn't know if it really hurt. In short, Renee kept shedding tears.

Mia comforted her, "It won't hurt in a while. Bear with it."

Savanna stood at the door for a while and did not enter. A moment later, Savanna left.

In the face of Renee, Savanna had a complicated feeling

Savanna went back to the Moon Villas. Unexpectedly, Brandon came back. He was wearing pajamas. His belt was not tied and hung to his knees. He sat on the sofa with a glass of red wine in his left hand and a lit cigarette in his right hand. When Savanna entered the room, the cigarette ash had accumulated a thick layer, but he did not knock it off. Savanna did not expect him to come back. She was slightly surprised. "Why are you back?"

Brandon's wandering consciousness gradually came back after he heard Savanna's voice. He took a puff of smoke and looked up at Savanna. "I heard from Seth that you were in the hospital. How is she?"

Brandon knew about Renee's disappearance. Seth was Brandon's eyes and ears.

Brandon probably knew everything Savanna had experienced today.

Savanna said, "She hit the wall. The wound on her forehead is very deep. The doctor stopped the bleeding and sewed the wound for her."

Brandon said, "Nothing serious, right?"

Savanna took the wine glass from his hand and drank the red wine in the glass in one gulp. She put the glass down.

The spicy wine entered her throat, and she felt a chill.

Savanna licked her lips and smiled, "It's nothing serious. He just doesn't want to marry her. It's quite annoying."

Savanna maintained the same posture and looked down. A moment later, Brandon softly said, "Fabian's wife was Ashley Baber. Back then, Fabian married Ashley because of Ashley's identity as an illegitimate daughter and the property of the Baber family. Before Kendrick Baber, Ashley's father, died, he had Fabian sign an agreement. If Fabian did not betray his daughter in his lifetime, he could only enjoy all the wealth of the Baber Group. If he divorced her, he could have nothing. Although Fabian had already taken over the Baber Group, the agreement he signed with Kendrick had always been an inhibition. Many times, Fabian wanted to find the agreement and destroy it. He tried his best to find it, but he could not. The agreement was in Ashley's hands. She would not easily give it to him."

This was the reason why Fabian said he could not marry Renee.

For Fabian, interest was greater than everything, than the love between men and women, the love of father and daughter.

Brandon took a puff of smoke and puffed out the smoke. The white smoke was blurry.

After a few more puffs, the cigarette burned out. He put out the cigarette and said to Savanna, "Come into my arms. I'll tell you about Fabian and your mother."

Savanna walked over, sat on Brandon's lap, and nestled in his arms. A warm feeling slowly rose in Savanna's heart.

Brandon removed the hair from Savanna's right shoulder. Savanna's fair neck was exposed. Brandon kissed it gently and said in a hoarse voice, "Although Renee is your mother, she only gave birth to you and did not raise you. Fabian did not ignore her. Ashley just kidnapped her and wanted to poison her to mute her when Fabian made a move."

Savanna was slightly startled.

She suddenly understood what Fabian said to her when he left.

Fabian said that he would send someone to deliver the medicine tomorrow. The medicine could cure Renee's throat.

He said that Renee's throat was hurt. Before Renee was kidnapped, Mia never said that there was something wrong with Renee's throat.

Her throat was hurt because she was poisoned by someone.

Brandon saw that Savanna's expression was suspicious and immediately solved the mystery for her. "Fabian asked someone to secretly change Ashley's mute medicine, making your mother temporarily lose her voice. This can make Ashley believe and also protect Renee's throat. Your mother was the best singer in Philadelphia. Her singing was quite wonderful. She had been made famous by the singing company for a period of time. If she had not fallen in love with Fabian, I believe that your mother would have been well-known."

Savanna didn't say anything. She just looked down at Brandon and thought about his words.

“What else do you want to hear?” Brandon gently scraped the tip of her nose and pressed his lips against hers. The two lips touched and the soft and silky feeling made Brandon satisfied. His Adam’s apple rolled. “I will tell you everything I know.”

Savanna gasped and propped herself up. She changed her posture, boldly straddling his thigh, face to face.

She wrapped her arms around his neck, lowered her head, and kissed him deeply. Their lips and tongues intertwined, and the atmosphere became romantic.

After a long time, she raised her head and stared at his rosy cheeks. She asked, “Tell me, how do you know everything?”

The tips of her fingers wandered on his chin.

“If I didn’t trust you, I would have suspected that you deliberately investigated Renee and Fabian.”

Brandon could not stand her teasing and grabbed her hand which was dancing wildly on his face. He placed it on his lips and kissed it. “You are right. I have investigated them, but not just because they are your biological parents. I have other things to do. I have to investigate them together.”

“What’s that?” Savanna asked.

Brandon almost blurted out the truth when he saw Savanna’s coquettish look in front of him, but he held it in. “I will tell you later, but not now.”

Savanna’s eyes flashed with disappointment. “Okay, I believe you. How is grandma?”

When she mentioned Lorena, the smile on Brandon’s face gradually faded. “She doesn’t have many days to live. She can’t even drink the soup.”

Savanna did not speak and only hugged him tightly with her hands.

His only family in the world was about to die. Savanna thought he should be in a bad mood. No wonder he came back to drink red wine while waiting for her.

Brandon hugged her even tighter as if he could not bear to let go. His chin rested on her forehead. “Savanna, never leave me, okay?”

Savanna closed her eyes and obediently agreed. “Okay.”

Lorena didn't eat anything for a long time, so Brandon invited a puritan. When Savanna saw the familiar face, she was stunned.

It was Andrew Jones.

Andrew bowed to Savanna and Brandon. "Nice to meet you again."

Brandon invited Andrew into the ward and quietly left with Savanna. Brandon sat on a bench outside the ward with Savanna. Savanna had looked over to the ward more than once. The ward was a distance away from them, and she couldn't see anything.

Savanna asked, "Did you invite Andrew?"

Brandon replied, "Yes.

"Only his medicine can cure grandma. I have been looking for him for a long time. I didn't contact him until yesterday, but..."

Brandon was sad. "Obviously, it was a bit late."

Andrew stood at the bedside, glancing at the patient on the bed. After saying "Amen", he closed his eyes and his mouth muttered a few words.

Lorena was in a trance. She had not eaten for many days. She was so skinny and her eyes were deeply sunken in. She looked a little horrible.

Lorena looked at the puritan in front of her. He had a well-outlined face, and his thin cheeks were somewhat similar to someone in her memory.

Lorena narrowed her eyes slightly, her voice trembling as she said, "You are ... Andrew?"

Andrew didn't reply to her. He only said, "The past has already gone with the wind in my heart. Today, I was invited by Mr. Young to come here and treat you."

Andrew opened his eyes and his gaze fell on Lorena's thin wrist.

He stepped forward and bent down slightly. His trimmed fingertips gently landed on Lorena's bulging wrist.

Lorena did not speak and just looked at Andrew quietly.

After a short while, Andrew stood up straight and took a step back. Lorena looked at Andrew, who was half a step away from her, and her pale lips weakly curved into a smile. "You have disappeared for so many years. I didn't expect that..."

Lorena laughed. "You actually became a puritan and wasted all your skills."

Andrew did not answer. He paused for half a second and slowly opened his mouth, "You don't look very well. Your end is coming. You should let go of the past."

What Andrew said somehow stimulated Lorena, and she suddenly became spirited. She opened her eyes and stared fiercely at Andrew. "Linda has been dead for so many years. Even if you become a puritan, you still can't get over her. Shouldn't puritans be disillusioned with the mortal world and stay away from women? Andrew, you advised me to let go of the past. What about you? Even if you become a puritan, what have you let go of? You are wearing puritan clothes, but Linda is always in your mind, right?"

Andrew was expressionless. He did not look at Lorena and said coldly, "Madam, neither can money nor resentment be brought into graves. They can only be left to the next generation and make them separate. Why do you have to do that?"

Lorena roared, "Andrew, why did you become a puritan? You and I know the reason very well. If it weren't for Linda betraying you back then, you wouldn't have been hurt by love and become a puritan. The two of you, for the sake of getting together with Linda, one became a puritan and the other lost his life. Linda was the root cause for the tragic life of you and Colten. Even if you can let go, I can't."

Listening to Lorena's complaint, Andrew finally looked at her and sighed helplessly, "It has been so many years. Linda is dead, and so is your husband. Why are you still holding on to it?"

Lorena sneered, "What makes you think I am still holding on to it?"

Andrew said, "You should be kind. The separation of the two young people sitting outside is all in your hands. Even if he is not your biological grandson, you don't have to be so cold-blooded. You have done so many wicked things, so you can't live long. It's not that I don't want to save you."

Lorena looked at Andrew with an extremely cold gaze, warning, "Shelton is my biological grandson. Don't talk nonsense."

There was still no expression on Andrew's face as if he knew everything. "Your hatred for Linda has affected so many innocent people and has changed their fates. Back then, you used your power to separate Colten from Linda. You also used your power to send Linda to hell. After that, she became Lisa.

"After Linda died, you were still mad at her. You tracked down Renee, the child Linda gave birth to. You used a lot of money to make Renee the best singer in Philadelphia. Your purpose was to turn her into a plaything for the men in Philadelphia. After Renee knew your purpose, she ran away. You captured her and imprisoned her. She escaped again. This time, she escaped to the Red Tower. There, she met Fabian. Renee thought it was a coincidence. In fact, this was also carefully designed by you.

"That's because Fabian is the husband of Ms. Baber. At that time, the Baber family and the Young family were the strongest business rivals. In order to eradicate the Baber family, and for the sake of better revenge Renee, Lisa's daughter, you made her a shameful mistress. This is not enough. In the end, you even targeted Renee's daughter. Mia was tortured by you so badly. If it wasn't because Savanna was lost in her early years and being adopted by David, I think her situation would not be much better than Mia's. Your medicine was changed by Mia, and Shelton was chased by killers. It was all your own fault. The best way to hide a misdeed is not to commit it. Now, your illness can no longer be cured, and letting you starve to death is already the greatest mercy and punishment."

Lorena did not refute Andrew's words. Perhaps her end was approaching. Seeing that Andrew knew everything, she felt that there was no point in arguing anymore.

Andrew's voice grew louder and tears flashed in his eyes. "Linda's descendants have been tortured by you miserably. The hatred you have for her is hard to describe with words. What it boils down to is that you are a woman with strong control. You think you lost to Linda, but in fact, back then, Linda and Colten were separated. You were still mad at them. You didn't believe it. You quarreled with Colten every day and secretly tortured Linda. Then, Colten felt sorry for Linda. The two of them were together again. Lorena, you are too pushy. In your eyes, whatever they did was wrong."

Lorena refuted, "According to what you said, it was my fault that Linda destroyed my family. Was it righteous for her to be a mistress?"

"I didn't say that she was right. At that time, I also hated her for deceiving my feelings. However, Linda is dead, and Colten is also dead. You don't have to think about it anymore. Letting them go is also letting yourself go. In this life, are you happy?" asked Andrew.

Lorena laughed out loud. Then, tears fell from her eyes.

“Happy?”

She repeated the word.

“From the day I married Colten, I have never been happy. Do you know that Colten never had sex with me? Until now, I am still a...”

The rest of the words fell into sobs.

“Shelton’s father was adopted by me. I put the rest of my life on him. I didn’t expect him to die.”

Andrew said, “The car crash was not an accident. It was also your fault. Including Shelton being taken away, it was also what you had to bear because of what you have done.”

Lorena was pushy for her whole life and would never allow anyone to harm her in secret. “Who was it?”

“Who killed my son and daughter-in-law?”

Lorena was a smart person. If Shelton’s loss was designed by someone, then the death of her son and daughter-in-law was not an accident.

Lorena thought of many people in her mind, but in the end, she didn’t think any of them would do that. “Was it you?”

Lorena looked at Andrew, her eyes full of hatred.

Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 330

Read Love Has its Will by Selena Lewis Chapter 330 Even though Andrew had been wronged, his expression remained unchanged.

He only said, “Puritans have long ignored the matters of the mortal world.”

Andrew did not give any medicine and walked toward the door. Just as he opened the door, he met Savanna’s bewildered face.

Andrew did not expect Savanna to be outside. From the expression on her face, it could be seen that she must have heard the conversation between him and Lorena just now. How much did she hear? Andrew did not dare to speculate.

Andrew looked inside and said “Amen” before turning around to leave.

Brandon had just gone to the bathroom. When he came back, he saw Savanna standing at the door of the ward with a dull expression. He strode over and looked into the ward. On the bed, other than Lorena, who was stunned, there was no trace of Andrew.

Brandon asked Savanna, "Where is Andrew?"

"He's gone," Savanna said.

Brandon entered the ward and asked Lorena, "Didn't Andrew give any medicine to you?"

Lorena seemed to be annoyed and closed her eyes.

Seeing that Lorena was ignoring him, Brandon wanted to chase after Andrew, but Savanna grabbed the corner of his clothes. Brandon looked at Savanna. Savanna had a very complicated expression. "Don't go. It's useless."

Brandon said, "What did Andrew say? I went through a lot of trouble to find him."

Savanna dragged Brandon to the end of the hospital corridor. She looked around and saw no one passing by. Then she whispered to Brandon, "Brandon, Andrew is actually the one who loves Linda."

Brandon raised his eyebrows in surprise. "How did you know?"

Savanna answered, "You went to the bathroom just now. I was curious and wanted to see how Andrew cured cancer patients. Then, I heard their conversation. It was so complicated."

Savanna was still in shock inwardly.

Noticing that there was something wrong with Savanna's expression, Brandon held her chin and forced her to face him. "What else did you hear? Tell me."

"Andrew advised your grandmother to let go of her grudges, and your grandmother became anxious.

Brandon, your father was adopted by your grandmother. Because your grandmother tortured Linda and Renee, she was revenged by others. Your grandmother said that it was Andrew who did it. Although Andrew did not deny it, I felt that it was not him. There was no reason for him to do so. And it seemed that he was an upright and kind person. Otherwise, he would not persuade your grandmother."

Brandon felt uncomfortable when he heard Savanna address Lorena as his grandmother.

He tightened his grip on Savanna's chin. Savanna felt the pain and let out a moan.

"Isn't my grandma also your grandma?"

Savanna smiled and did not answer.

The grudge between Lorena and Linda was too complicated. Lorena persecuted not only Linda, but also Renee, Mia, and her.

Lorena was such a vicious woman.

Savanna couldn't help but hate her.

Previously, no matter how Lorena made things difficult for Savanna, Savanna was tolerant, and now, she really hated Lorena.

Brandon didn't seem to be surprised when Savanna told Brandon about his birth. Suddenly, Savanna reacted and slapped his hand away. She asked, "Did you already know about this?"

Brandon didn't look at Savanna, as if he didn't dare to look at her.

Savanna's heart sank.

"Say something, Brandon."

Savanna didn't want to let him go just like that, so she raised her voice and asked.

Brandon's wandering gaze returned to Savanna's face. He held Savanna's face and gently kissed her on the lips. "Don't be angry. I knew it long ago. I didn't tell you because I didn't want you to worry too much. It is a burden to know more things. Between us, no matter what happens, it is impossible to tear us apart. She is not my biological grandmother, but she raised my father. I have the responsibility to take care of her and accompany her until she is dead."

Brandon paused for a moment. He said in a low voice as he leaned against Savanna's cheek. "As for you, it doesn't matter whose child you are. As long as you don't care about it, we can go on like this."

What Brandon meant was obvious. If Savanna was willing to be with him, he would never abandon her.

However, what if Savanna was unwilling?

Buzz... Buzz... Buzz...

Brandon's phone rang.

Brandon pressed the answer button. The call was from Jim, saying that the company had a project that had to wait for Brandon to make a decision. Brandon hung up the phone.

Savanna was right next to Brandon. She heard everything that Jim said. "You go ahead. I'll take care of grandma," said Savanna.

Brandon glanced over to the ward and grabbed Savanna's hand tightly. "If she makes things difficult for you, please be tolerant. Thank you."

Savanna looked at him with deep affection. "Don't mention it. Just go."

Brandon left.

Savanna walked back to the ward. Lorena opened her eyes but ignored Savanna. Savanna took a cup of water and put the water on the bedside cabinet for Lorena.

Lorena suddenly spoke, "Give me your phone."

"What are you going to do?" Savanna asked.

Lorena looked at her with a cold gaze. "Do I have to report to you what I do?"

Words failed Savanna.

Savanna looked at Lorena's skinny face. She felt sorry for Lorena, but she also hated Lorena.

Savanna handed the phone to Lorena, but Lorena did not take it. She ordered Savanna, "Find Ashley for me."

Savanna was slightly surprised by Lorena's words. Due to Lorena's majesty, Savanna could not say anything. She only replied, "I don't have Ashley's number."

Lorena snorted, "If you don't have Ashley's number, don't you have her husband's number?"

Wasn't Ashley's husband Fabian?

“No,” Savanna replied.

Lorena began to curse, “You are Fabian’s illegitimate daughter. It is impossible for him to leave you alone, and it is even more impossible for him to leave no contact information for you.”

The words of an illegitimate daughter sounded extremely harsh.

Savanna felt sad in her heart.

“Grandma, watch your mouth. I am David’s daughter and have nothing to do with Fabian.”

Lorena laughed and stared at Savanna. The words that came out of her mouth were extremely sarcastic, “David was a bastard. Like Colten, they were both bastards. David knew that Krissa and Frank had hooked up a long time ago, but he still wanted Krissa. Colten clearly knew that Linda had an affair with Andrew, but he was still willing to get together with her. Fabian and your mother had an affair, so he gave birth to a monster like you. If it weren’t for you, Shelton wouldn’t have treated me like this, and I wouldn’t have lost my life.”

What Lorena said made Savanna extremely irritated.

Savanna originally wanted to bear it, but the anger in his chest rose. She couldn’t stand it anymore!

“If I am a monster, then you are an old monster. Why did you call Ashley over? Do you want her to come and laugh at you? You suspect that Ashley carried Shelton away when he was a child. You suspect that Ashley killed your son and daughter-in-law. You suspect that Ashley set the fire that burned down the Young’s home back then. Do you have any evidence? If there is, I will call the police immediately and have someone arrest Ashley.”

Lorena was so angry that the corners of her mouth twitched. She kept breathing hard. Her lips went white, the same as her face.

“Say it again.”

Savanna said, “Even if I say it ten times, it will be the same. Ashley took revenge on you because you destroyed her family. If you hadn’t sent people to seduce Fabian, then Ashley wouldn’t have done so many bad things to the Young family. Andrew is right. You should let go of the past...”

Bang!

Something smashed over, and Savanna dodged.

Savanna looked at the shattered glass on the ground, her heart pounding.

Just now, if she hadn't stepped aside, she would probably have gotten hurt.

Savanna took several deep breaths to suppress her urge to rush up and tear Lorena into pieces.
