Chapter 411 This Is Our Villa

No sooner had Manuel finished speaking than Mauveglow Villa 1 fell silent.

Oh dear oh dear oh dear...

The engagement ceremony of the Brown family and the Walsh family today was like a scene from a blockbuster.

The climax came in waves!

It occasionally had sudden reversals, catching people off guard!

Just completed the most eye-catching Mauveglow Villa 1 engagement ceremony in all of Hallcester.

Then, the Walsh family announced that the engagement was cancelled.

Did all the rich people like to play this way?

The Brown family was also in the dark.

The events that occurred at the engagement ceremony today had a huge impact on them.

They suddenly couldn't understand the world.

Was this an illusion?

Alex suddenly exploded in anger, pointing at Manuel and shouting,

"Manuel, did you announce the divorce only after seeing that Robin is the owner of Mauveglow Villa 1?"

Manuel gave a nonchalant smile, "Yeah, what's the matter? If the Brown family can break off an engagement from decades ago, why can't I cancel an engagement from just a few minutes ago?"

"It was just an engagement, even if we were married, we could still get divorced!"

Alex was nearly driven mad, "You... you snobbish little person!"

Manuel sneered, "None of you in the Brown family have brains, the Walsh family would never be like this."

"The way to survive in this world, of course, depended on benefits to survive."

"I would never offend all the big shots in Hallcester for that piece of junk in your house!"

"Who can't see the current situation? In a few days, the Brown family will be completely suppressed by the Huber family, you will all become losers!"

"The Walsh family is at the billionaire level, why would they want to marry into a loser's family? I'm not out of my mind!"

"I'll beat you to death, you snobbish villain!" Alex, furious, swung his fist and hit him.

Manuel's bodyguard grabbed his wrist and threw him on the ground.

Manuel sneered, "I won't stoop to argue with you lowly trash!"

Bradshaw looked up at Robin, who was surrounded by Devin, Harold, and others. His mind was spinning, "Well, this broken engagement turned out well!"

Alex was taken aback, "Dad, what are you talking about? The Walsh family is nothing but a bunch of opportunists!"

"Shut up!" Bradshaw snapped.

"I never really agreed with Miranda's engagement to the Walsh family in the first place! That Jacob is nothing but a spoiled brat, he deceived Miranda."

"Even if Manuel didn't say it, I would still call off the engagement!"

Bradshaw snatched the engagement refusal from Alex's hand, tore it up, and threw it into the air.

The young masters and misses from the elite families at the scene watched such a ridiculous scene, sighing incessantly.

The competition between the Brown family and the Walsh family to see who could be more shameless had begun.

Bradshaw ran three steps and two steps behind Robin, shouting, "Robin! Grandpa has something to tell you..."

Everyone immediately fell silent, all eyes turned to Bradshaw who was scrambling and rolling over from behind.

"Robin, did you know? Back in the day, your grandfather and I were like brothers! We were really close!"

"We fished together, we played chess together, and when we were both broke, we even starved together, laughing in the rain, haha..."

Robin indifferently watched as Bradshaw animatedly narrated a beautiful story.

"Your grandfather and I, we had a friendship that was worth risking our lives for!"

"So, that's why the marriage pact of the century was arranged for you, who hadn't been born yet, and Miranda!"

"Robin, my good son-in-law, I just wanted to tell you, I agreed to that marriage contract! Hahaha..."

Everyone at the scene was dumbfounded.

Those netizens who had previously sympathized with Bradshaw were instantly healed by Bradshaw's words.

"Oh my goodness! This old man from the Brown family had no boundaries!"

“Before, he had insisted that the paper marriage contract was just a joke between him and Robin’s grandfather when they were young. Now, he claims that he and the old man have a friendship that is worth risking

their lives for.”

“Moreover, he agreed to that marriage proposal that had already been called off. Does this old man have any shame left?”

“Definitely shameless!”

“They must have said Robin was their obedient son-in-law only because they saw that he was the owner of Mauveglow Villa 1, the untouchable. tycoon they couldn’t afford to offend.”

“Quiet, quiet! Let’s see how Mr. Bruce responds to this disgusting old man.”

The scene was completely silent, all the cameras from the online platform were pointed at Robin and Bradshaw.

Robin slowly turned around with a playful smile, “Engagement? Wasn’t it torn up long ago? You’re agreeing to it now?”

“Yes! Robin, you can now propose to my granddaughter! No need for a dowry...”
Bradshaw excitedly bent over in front of Robin, wanting to shake his hand.

Robin ignored him, “You say break off the engagement and it’s off, you say agree and it’s agreed, what the hell are you?”

Bradshaw laughed and said. “Good son-in-law. you can’t talk like that, I’m your grandfather.”

Robin laughed, “You think too highly of yourself!”

“The marriage agreement that you and my grandfather made for us back then was just a joke. It was a casual remark made when you were young and ignorant. How could it be taken seriously?”

“Moreover, if this engagement had been carried out, it would have not only tarnished the noble sentiment of your family, the Browns, but also damaged my grandfather’s reputation. I absolutely could not accept this engagement.”

Bradshaw gave a dry laugh, “I’ve thought about it, the Brown family not only pursues nobility, but also timely worldliness! On this matter, it won’t affect the nobility of the Brown family.”

Robin gave Bradshaw an indifferent glance and said coldly, “Enough, stop making a fool of yourself. A joke is a joke, don’t turn it into a laughingstock. You can leave now, I’ve been done with the Brown family for a long time.”

“Robin, this is our villa, the place I’ve dreamed of living in! Hahaha...”

Miranda let out a scream, rushing over from the crowd, “Let’s go, Robin, darling, let’s go to the room. I have something important to tell you!”

Chapter 412 That’s a Joke

Robin was speechless at Miranda’s disgusting behavior at that moment.

What you wanted, I could easily give you with a flick of my hand.

What you pursued all your life, I could accomplish for you in an instant.

I traveled a great distance with a marriage contract in hand, all to give you a lifetime of glory and to cherish you for all eternity.

You just didn’t deserve it!

“Robin, I am now certain, you are the prince charming in my heart!” Miranda confessed loudly, her eyes full of tender affection.

“Who said our engagement was called off? That was a joke between you and me, hehehe..

“Robin, I was planning to give you a surprise today!”

“Do you know? The moment I first saw you. I fell deeply, deeply in love with you.”

“I knew, you were the intimate lover who haunted my dreams!”

Everyone on site and online was stunned!

Returned to intimate lovers, also created surprises.

You thought this was a mental hospital!

Alas, alas, let's continue to see, to see how shameless this woman can be.

"Robin, from the day I was born, I started missing you."

"Ugh!" The netizens and onlookers at the scene almost threw up.

"Was there any bottom line?"

"From the moment of birth, I began to miss, how much fate from a past life would it take to become like this?"

"Before, wasn't it the high and mighty who looked down on the lowly commoners?"

"Were you still arrogantly saying that you were a woman that others could never hope to match?"

Miranda, disregarding everything else, pushed through the crowd to get to Robin:
"Robin, please don't be like this."

"I know, I've tested you to the point of breaking down. Now, I'm telling you, everything that happened before doesn't count anymore!"

"Think about it, how long has the connection between our family and yours been?" –

"Back then, when my grandfather was young and starting his business. without any money, during the hardest times, your grandfather somehow managed to provide him with a million dollars to help him out. That's how we have our Brown family today."

That is to say, without your grandfather's support. the Brown family wouldn't be where they are today. How valuable that one million was back then!

"Robin, think carefully, if your grandfather and my grandfather were just ordinary friends. how could he have helped the Brown family achieve their glory today?"

At this point, a radiant smile spread across Miranda's face.

"Robin, as the younger generation, we must take responsibility. We can't let down our grandparents' wishes. We have to continue to pass on this life-changing righteousness!"

"Only the two of us walking together was the greatest wish of our grandfather's generation!"

Robin chuckled with amusement, "That's your wish, isn't it, the Brown family?"

Miranda firmly said, "Robin, I swear on my character, I have never despised or humiliated you."

“All my previous actions were actually to test you!”

“See if you can withstand the misunderstanding and ridicule of others. I was doing it for your own good, and for our future to be better together!”

“I was worried that if you had money, you would turn bad.”

“Look at how many insidious women are now surrounding you after seeing your wealth.”

“I told you, they were all deceiving you!”

“Robin, I was your fiancée, I was the one who truly loved you.”

“Even if you had nothing at all, even if you had no foundation, even if you had no connections, status, or background, I would still stand by your side.”

“I would rather go with you to the countryside, living a simple and ordinary life.”

Miranda’s words left the on-site and online spectators in a state of stunned silence!

The woman from the Brown family spoke so brilliantly!

If it hadn’t been for the previous incidents, I would have almost believed it!

Damn, I just found out today that one can live so freely!

“Oh dear...” Crystal was stunned for a good while before she came back to her senses. “Miranda, I just realized today that you could go to such lengths to get what you want!”

“Stop talking, or you’ll become a legend of Hallcester!”

Miranda immediately pointed at Crystal in rage, “You... it was you who ruined me!”

Robin gave a cold laugh, “Miranda, stop being disgusting!”

“I had already done everything I could for you, the Brown family. Since we had long since had nothing to do with each other, why must you continue to harass me without end!”

“Have some dignity for yourselves, the Brown family.”

“I didn’t have that much spare time to talk nonsense with a bunch of lunatics!”

The onlookers at the scene suddenly burst into laughter.

Karina tugged at Robin’s sleeve, laughing as she said, “Robin, it’s your mother-in-law’s turn to perform in the next scene.”

Robin gave Karina a glance, “You’re really boring!”

“Robin, hahaha... my dear son-in-law! Hahaha...” Julia came slowly from the crowd with graceful steps.

The person was not seen, but their voice was heard first.

Julia's boisterous laughter startled Bradshaw so much that he almost sat down on the ground.

"Hahaha... Robin, today was a good day!"

"Robin, I came over just to announce an important decision from our family!"

"A while ago, after our family's test on you, you pulled through!"

"Our whole family unanimously approved of you becoming our son-in-law!"

"From now on, I am your mother-in-law, call me mom! Come, good son-in-law!"

Damn! The mother-in-law too?

Was this someone who escaped from a mental hospital?

Karina sneakily glanced at Robin, almost unable to hold back her laughter.

She quietly tugged at Robin's sleeve and whispered, "Call for mom, maternal love is coming."

Robin shook his head, truly speechless.

Livia burst out laughing, "Hahaha...."

"Don't laugh!" Cecilia glared at Livia, rolling her own eyes, a mischievous smile quickly flashing across her face.

Seeing that Robin was ignoring her, Julia continued, "Robin, I know it's a bit uncomfortable to start calling me mom, but you'll get used to it over time. We can take it slow.”

“Let’s talk about the next thing, okay? About the allocation issue of this villa.”

“In the future, this villa, you and Miranda would live on the third floor, and I would live on the second floor with your father-in-law, Alex. Given Miranda’s grandfather’s age, he would reside on the ground floor.”

“In the future, our family hired a nanny to cook, a cleaner, and for the flower bed in front of the door, we needed four or five gardeners to maintain it.”

“I often had body aches, I was hiring two masseurs.”

“Please hire another beautician, specifically for my skincare and haircare!”

“Please hire another foot therapist, my feet often get very tired from dancing.”

“Today, let’s leave this matter here for now. I’ll tell you more when I remember it in the future.”

“Most importantly, I was the one who managed the money in this house.”

“Your money must all be handed over to me for management. I’m afraid you young people are extravagant and don’t know how to cherish it. If you overspend in the future, it will be troublesome.”

“The expenses of the entire family, specifically how much you all spend each day, the wages of the servants, and all the expenses in the house

16:01

Chapter 413 Stop Sickening Me

were all entirely arranged by me.”

“Also, Robin, don’t drive such fancy cars in the future. A car worth thirty or fifty thousand is enough. Driving a Land Rover consumes too much fuel.”

“To cut costs, try not to drive yourself in the future. You can call for a ride-hailing service instead.”

“The child you gave birth to will take our family name, Brown. Of course, surnames don’t matter much now, so don’t fuss over it.”

“Oh, right, and those two mastiffs...” Julia pointed at the two mastiffs next to Devin, “Five billion is too expensive! I mean, sell them.”

“Mr. Finley, what I mean is, instead of giving us these two mastiffs, it would be better to give us five billion in cash, don't you agree?”

“The mastiff was smelly and noisy at home, it would be better to exchange it for some cash. Mr. Finley, you take the mastiff back, and directly transfer 500 million in cash to me.”

“Hahaha...” Suddenly, a few bursts of laughter came from the crowd.

“Are you a fool?”

“You weren't even their mother-in-law yet, and you started to snatch their wallet? It's hilarious!”

“Mr. Bruce has gone mad! Letting your child take his surname, giving his house to your family to live in, and handing over all his money for you to manage, you must be dreaming!”

Julia pointed at the mocking crowd, “Shut up, all of you! Did you hear me? This is our family's villa!”

“If you didn't respect me, I could have kicked you out of our house right now!”

Karina signaled to Robin, smiling and said, “Robin, your aunt also came.”

Before Robin could react, Margaret had already swayed in the wind and walked up to him.

“Oh dear, Robin, look at how happy our whole family was together today.”

“Call me auntie, you owe me a billion for changing your tune, oh, transfer it to me before tomorrow, remember, this is my account,

hahaha...”

‘Also, your mother-in-law said you didn't want that Land Rover anymore. I'll take it away later. Even though it's not that great, I'll just make do with it.’

At that moment, Miranda was laughing so hard that she was shaking like a leaf.

“Robin, congratulations! Now you could finally become a member of the Brown family.”

“With you, I felt the world suddenly became beautiful.”

“Our family gathered in the villa’s living room to discuss whether it would be a good day to hold the wedding tomorrow.

Robin gave a cold laugh. “Have you all had enough fun? You can all get lost now!”

Chapter 414 Magic Body–Strengthening Herb

A flurry of hurried footsteps came from outside the villa.

Terrence pushed through the crowd and quickly ran to Robin’s front.

“Mr. Bruce, Ms. Decker, the Barrett family, an archaic martial arts family, came to seek an audience.”

Robin nodded, “Let them in.”

“Robin, what I just said, our wedding will be held in this villa, what do you think...”

“Enough, stop being so self–righteous, get out!” Robin pushed Miranda away.

After receiving permission, Kimberly was the first to rush in from outside the villa.

Like a whirlwind, he threw himself into Robin’s arms, “Master, I’ve missed you so much these past few days!”

The quirky elf, Kimberly, quickly caught everyone’s attention.

Each frown, each smile, each glance, each look, all were unparalleled in elegance and charm.

Indeed, it was as if a bright pearl was embedded in a jade body, and coral was intertwined with wood. How fluttering was the gauze dress, its light hem following the wind. The lingering light in her eyes was radiant, and her long sigh was as fragrant as an orchid.

Kimberly nestled in Robin's arms, indulging in a moment of unrestrained joy.

If a fairy sister floated from the colorful sky, she had not a trace of the worldliness.

For all the people present at the scene and in front of the online platform.

The Barrett family, this No. 1 archaic martial arts family, was just a distant legend.

Mere mortals of the mundane world, where did they have the right to see their true faces.

It was astonishing that such a mysterious and powerful archaic martial arts family was actually friends with Robin?!

This sixteen or seventeen-year-old girl was indeed the eldest daughter of the Barrett family, Kimberly.

This little princess of noble status, was actually Robin's apprentice.

Watching Kimberly's affectionate demeanor in front of Robin.

It

goes without saying, the relationship between the Barrett family and Robin was incredibly close

Everyone on the scene and the netizens in front of the live broadcast platform had an additional surprise and expectation for Robin's identity!

Kimberly also let go of Robin and knelt down on one knee with Travis.

This scene once again shocked everyone present.

The hosts on the online platform actually forgot to interpret the scene on the spot for a moment.

In an instant, the live broadcast room was almost exploding!

“Damn it, where’s the anchor? Hurry up and tell us what kind of people have come again?”

“What were you doing again!”

After a brief moment of shock, the anchor immediately began to commentate.

Upon learning that the head of the Barrett family, the No. 1 archaic martial arts family, led key family members to visit Robin, netizens initially expressed doubt.

“This wasn’t fake, was it?”

The anchor immediately explained, “The Barrett family is the No. 1 archaic martial arts family. Its reputation is not something anyone can dare to impersonate. It’s an existence like a formidable figure.”

“If anyone really dared to misuse the name of the Barrett family, they could have reported to hell before tonight!”

Travis stepped forward, holding a delicately carved wooden box above

“Mr. Bruce, the Barrett family will forever be grateful for your

“This Magic Body–Strengthening Herb was the treasure of the Barrett family.”

“This immortal herb was used to make elixir for consumption, strengthening the muscles and bones, cleansing the marrow, quickly eliminating all hidden diseases in the body, and could even extend one’s life by more than 20 years. Please accept it with pleasure, Mr. Bruce!”

“Magic Body–Strengthening Herb?!”

Some netizens who knew about the elixir suddenly screamed.

“The Magic Body–Strengthening Herb was the supreme treasure in legends!”

“It was said that any archaic martial arts family, if they could possess this spiritual grass, could cultivate a top–level martial artist within half a year!”

“This spiritual herb could not only bring the dead back to life, but also rapidly strengthen a martial artist’s body in a short period of time, and even cure diseases and prolong life.”

“This was a priceless treasure in the world!”

“It was said that a certain prominent family was willing to purchase the Barrett family’s Magic Body– Strengthening Herb with a capital of hundreds of billions, but the Barrett family was not willing to sell.”

Chapter 414 Magic Body Strengthening Herb

“But, Travis actually gave this house–protecting treasure, the Magic, Body–Strengthening Herb, to Robin!”

“How much did the Barrett family owe Robin to present such a priceless treasure as the Magic Body– Strengthening Herb!”

“Today was truly an eye–opener!”

By the time the Barrett family arrived, Robin had already become a legendary figure!

Bradshaw's eyes lit up upon hearing the Barrett family mention the Magic Body–Strengthening Herb.

Raymond had once said that besides Master Bruce, there was another kind of spiritual herb in the world that could save his life.

This spiritual herb was the Barrett family's treasure, the Magic Body- Strengthening Herb!

Apart from this, there was no other way.

Watching the Magic Body–Strengthening Herb in Robin's hand, Bradshaw trembled all over.

As long as I could get this Magic Body–Strengthening Herb.

Even if he couldn't see Master Bruce, he could still save his own life, and even extend it by more than 20 years!

He pushed through the crowd with all his might, shouting loudly, "Robin, my good son–in–law, give me this Magic Body–Strengthening Kimberly flicked her eyelids and stood up.

With hands on hips, standing in front of Bradshaw, pointing at his nose, he said, "On my way to Mauveglow Villa 1, I watched the live video, you are that shameless Bradshaw!"

"You're quite audacious, expecting my master to give you, a beast, this world's supreme treasure, the Magic Body–Strengthening Herb. Keep dreaming, scram!"

"You...you..." Bradshaw pointed at Kimberly, wanting to scold her.

Israel coldly shouted, "Get out! Otherwise, I'll kill your entire family!"

Chapter 415 Magic Aquamarine

The head butler of the Barrett family, Israel, was the top martial artist for the archaic martial arts community.

Such a tiger-like momentum scared Bradshaw into retreating several steps, losing his balance and falling to the ground.

From a distance, Robin stood among a group of wealthy nobles, as noble as if he were the moon surrounded by stars.

The Brown family felt a bout of dizziness.

“What.....what...what happened? Has something gone wrong with the world?”

“Robin... How could Robin have such a great honor? Why didn’t we know about this all along?”

Julia heard that the Magic Body–Strengthening Herb was worth tens of billions, and she trembled with excitement, “Good son–

“Didn’t we just agree that I would manage all of our family’s assets from now on? Selling this Magic Body–Strengthening Herb

By this time, Bradshaw had caught his breath and pointed at Julia, scolding, "The Magic Body– Strengthening Herb cannot be sold! This spiritual herb is for my treatment. With it, I can live for another 20 years!"

Julia chuckled, "You're practically on your deathbed, and you're still talking about curing diseases! A hundred billion could push the Brown family to the top position in Hallcester!"

“Could it be a rich heiress?”

At that moment, everyone was filled with anticipation, looking outwards together.

The hosts on the platform quickly pointed their cameras at the villa’s main entrance.

Two black-clad warriors entered first.

Subsequently, a dignified woman in her sixties walked in.

Assisted by two maids, she quickly walked towards Robin.

“Grandma,” Kimberly stepped forward, taking hold of Lady Sarah’s arm.

Lady Marcella affectionately ruffled her little granddaughter’s hair.

Chapter 416 Just Give It to Me

Let alone getting it.

This treasure, regarded as a divine object and priceless gem by the world, was generously presented to Robin by the Barrett family and the Rogelio family.

Such a distinguished honor, he had already become the first person in Hallcester!

Even for individuals of national stature like Donovan and Randall, who held prominent positions in Londraland.

Paled in comparison to a character like Robin.

The Brown family had already been dumbfounded.

Such a scene was too fantastical for them.

As mysterious as a myth or legend.

Miranda watched with furrowed brows, a hundred thousand whys flashing in her eyes!

Why did Robin have so many impressive connections?

Was it acting or was it real?

Did the world really have treasures worth trillions as they claimed?

If there truly was a priceless treasure worth trillions, would one generously give it away to others?

If I, Miranda, had these trillions of treasures, wouldn't I be the first goddess of Londraland?

Chapter 416 Just Give It to Me

The Brown Group, wasn't I indisputably the chairman?!

The Brown family that I was in charge of, wasn't it the top wealthy family in Londraland!

The more Miranda thought about it, the more excited she became, her eyes gleaming as she looked at the Magic Aquamarine and Magic Body- Strengthening Herb in Robin's hands.

That was all mine, Miranda!

I knew how desperately Robin wanted to prove himself in front of me.

Miranda's heart was pounding as she waved and shouted at Robin in the crowd, "Robin, I've barely accepted you! I can stop seeing you as a lowly pauper now."

No one paid attention to her clamor anymore, pushing her and the entire Brown family out.

With a crowd of astonished eyes on her, Kimberly walked over to Robin with her hands behind her back, swaying her head like a little adult. She said enviously, "Master, I've heard about this Magic Aquamarine since I was a child, but I've never seen it with my own eyes."

"How many times had I pestered my grandmother to take me to see this gem in their family treasure pavilion, but she never agreed."

"I later asked my grandfather, but he also hadn't seen it."

"Master, I'll tell you a secret. When my great-great-grandfather first obtained this Magic Aquamarine, he was gravely injured and suffering from a chronic disease."

Chapter 416 Just Give It to Me

"For this stubborn disease, the old grandfather had searched for renowned doctors all over the world, but none could cure it."

"After the old grandfather obtained this divine pearl, he kept it by his side for less than a month, and miraculously, his fatal chronic disease disappeared."

"Moreover, the old grandfather lived to be 150 years old!"

Upon hearing such information, the crowd was once again astonished beyond belief.

Magic Aquamarine had this amazing feature!

Upon hearing this, Bradshaw was so excited that his whole body was shaking!

If Robin could give him this gem.

Even if he had worn it for a month or two.

Couldn't he have cured his illness?

Moreover, one could live up to 150 years old!

"Robin, my dear son-in-law, give me that gem. I told you, the marriage contract your grandfather and I made years ago was not a joke!" Bradshaw tried to push through the crowd to get to Robin, but he was pushed back.

Julia also pushed forward, forcefully knocking Bradshaw to the ground: "You old man, what do you need jewels for when you're practically in the grave?"

Chapter 416 Just Give It to Me

Turning to squeeze into the crowd, he was also loudly howling, "Robin, my good son-in-law, give me this gem, and then, our family can become the richest in Londraland."

Miranda also refused to be left behind, "Robin, I am your wife, I should be the one to keep this gem!"

Bradshaw slapped Miranda across the face, "Get lost! Since when is it your turn to meddle in the affairs of the Brown family! With the gem, I can live a few more years, I am still the head of the Brown family!"

"You old geezer, what's the use of you living a few more years? Robin is my man, why should the baby be given to you!"

"Get out, all of you!" Kimberly pointed at them, "Have you no shame?"

"The gem was a gift from Grandma to Master, none of you have the right to take it away!"

"Look at your family, you don't even deserve such a treasure!"

Bradshaw and others were intent on continuing to call out to Robin.

Merely intimidated by the dagger in Kimberly's hand, they had no choice. but to keep quiet.

After completing the ceremony, Lady Sarah of the Rogelio family and her entourage stood by Robin's side.

The special envoy of the Odrarian president, Rolando, the director of the Londraland Foreign Affairs Office, stepped forward, put his hands together, and bowed deeply.

Chapter 416 Just Give It to Me

"Mr. Bruce, the President specifically sent me to visit Mr. Bruce and present him with the highest honor of Odrar, the Presidential Medal of Merit."

The owner of this medal enjoyed the same treatment as the president within the territory of Odrar.

Rolando's words once again shocked the entire audience.

Robin having this medal was equivalent to Robin being on par with the Odrarian president, a treatment accorded to him alone.

Chapter 417 Matthew Comes for a Visit

"Bro, I saw you again!" Chelsea quickly ran over and happily said, grabbing Robin's arm.

Robin rubbed Chelsea's head, "If you don't study well, why did you come to me?"

Chelsea said with a smile, "Robin, I have officially enrolled in Mightdale University now!"

"This time, I came as an exchange student from Mightdale University to Draccastle University in Londraland."

"In the following years, I studied at Draccastle University in Londraland."

"Whenever I missed you, I could immediately fly to your side, hahaha..."

"Oh, right, bro, this is the new product of our Marissa's Sour Soup Chain Diner."

"Lady Sarah had hired the world's top product designers and market positioning experts to design this portable sour soup packaging product."

"Marissa asked me to bring some for you to try, I brought a whole carload, it will arrive tonight."

"Marissa was too busy to come over now, she said once she got through this busy period, she would come to see you and me."

15:38

Chapter 417 Matthew Comes for a Visit

Robin looked at the new packaging of the sour soup, then raised his eyes. to Lady Sarah, nodding with a smile.

“This time, Lady Sarah told me they were coming to Londraland to visit you, so I came with them,” ‘Alright, in a few days, I’ll come to see you at Draccastle. Make sure you study hard at Draccastle University!’ Robin patted Chelsea’s head.

“Um, bro, I’ve always remembered your words!” Chelsea affectionately rested her head on Robin’s shoulder.

This scene had all the women at the scene green with envy!

At that moment, everyone had a desire in their hearts, how wonderful it would be to be the woman by Robin’s side!

“Mr. Bruce!” Terrence’s face lit up with shock as he ran into the villa once again.

“The leader of the Hondry Sect, accompanied by his wife and disciples of the Hondry Sect, came to seek an audience!”

After Robin agreed, twelve men in suits quickly entered the villa, then swiftly divided into two lines, clearing a path.

The leader of the Hondry Sect, Matthew, and his wife Marcella quickly walked up to Robin.

Twenty Hondry Sect’s division heads followed closely behind.

The members of the Hondry Sect knelt on one knee, “The brothers of the Hondry Sect pay their respects to Mr. Bruce!”

The leader of Hondry Sect?

Just as everyone was about to see the face of the leader of the Hondry

Sect.

After paying their respects to Robin, the dozens of disciples who subsequently entered from the Hondry Sect quickly formed a human wall around the perimeter, blocking everyone's line of sight.

Even so, everyone and the netizens in the live broadcast room were greatly amazed.

The leader of Hondry Sect, arguably the world's top sect, visited Robin at Mauveglow Villa 1 today!

This had once again refreshed everyone's perspective.

Who exactly was Robin?

It was surprising that this formidable figure who had shaken the dark world would personally come to visit!

From this, one could imagine how powerful Robin's background was.

Miranda, Julia, and the entire Brown family, who were pushed far outside the crowd, were already numb to the scene before them.

Such a scene had completely plunged them into chaos.

Matthew respectfully said, "Mr. Bruce, I came to Londraland this time to clean up the 11 the mess left by that villain, Irving."

"By this point, all divisions of the Hondry Sect in the Southeast Estya area had been completely rectified."

Chapter 417 Matthew Comes for a Visit

"To express gratitude for Mr. Bruce's favor of rebuilding me, Matthew, and the Hondry Sect."

"I wished to present the Dragon Head Treasure Seal, the treasure of the Hondry Sect, to the great one!"

"From today, Hondry Hall and its seventy-two divisions honored Mr. Bruce as the overall leader."

Matthew presented a crystal-clear Dragon Pendant in front of Robin.

The Dragon Pendant instantly burst into a myriad of rays under the dazzling sunlight!

This was the legendary Dragon Head Seal that commanded thousands of disciples in the Hondry Sect!

Harold was so excited when he saw the leader of the Hondry Sect in person that it took him quite a while to calm down.

He knew very well that Mr. Deshawn had injected two hundred billion. into the Huber family's account because of Robin, saving the Huber family from the collapse of their empire.

He hesitated for a moment, then stepped forward: "Mr. Bruce, if it weren't for the strong support of Mr. Bruce and Mr. Deshawn in this crisis of the Eastern District Development Corporation, the Huber family would have been irretrievably ruined. Harold kneels here to thank Mr. Bruce and Mr. Deshawn!"

Harold's kneel greatly astonished everyone.

Matthew immediately stood up and helped Harold to his feet, "Mr.

Harold, there's no need for such formalities! You are Mr. Bruce's man, which makes you an honored guest of my Hondry Sect. For Mr. Bruce's sake, a mere two hundred billion is nothing to fuss about!"

He then bowed and said, "Mr. Bruce, my wife and I will not bother you anymore. The thousands of disciples in the seventy-two divisions of the Hondry Sect will follow Mr. Bruce's orders in the future."

"No matter where in the world, at Mr.'s command, Hondry Sect would spare no cost to serve you!"

Matthew and his group quickly left Mauveglow Villa 1 after completing the grand ceremony.

Sarah and the Barrett family also bowed to say goodbye.

Kimberly stepped forward and hugged Robin tightly, tears swirling in her eyes, "Master, I will come back to find you soon."

"Goodbye, Chelsea!"

Having said that, he quickly ran out of the villa, fearing that tears would start to flow.

Sarah led the Rogelio family and the special envoy of the Odrarian president, who also hurriedly left after the ceremony.

Bradshaw saw the entire group leave and darted in front of Robin in a single stride.

“Robin, keeping that Magic Body–Strengthening Herb and Magic Aquamarine with you is of no use, give them to me!”

Chapter 417 Matthew Comes for a Visit

“These two treasures you gave me can cure my stubborn illness. It’s like you’re showing respect to your grandfather!”

“Hurry up, give it to me quickly!”

Robin chuckled lightly, “Why should I give it to you?”

Also, remember this, stop calling me grandpa all the time, who do you think you are!

Bradshaw said irritably. “How could you talk like this, child?”

The sage said: “There is no one who is not old! Even if the old ones. make mistakes, you should not hold it against them. Disrespecting the elderly is unforgivable!”

“What an unforgivable act! Get out!” Robin snorted coldly, turning and heading towards the villa’s room.

Chapter 418 Kick Them Out

Bradshaw was suddenly frozen in place.

Watching Robin’s back as he walked towards the villa, I was so angry that my whole body was shaking.

“Robin, how...how could you do this to me?”

“Your grandfather and I were of the same generation, and moreover, we were good brothers...”

Robin slowly turned around, “Don’t mention my grandfather! The words ‘good brother’ coming from your mouth, disgusting!”

“From the moment the Brown family tore up the marriage contract years ago, the brotherly affection you once had with my grandfather ended!”

“Despising the poor and loving the rich, betraying trust and abandoning righteousness, you’ve lived to this age, but you’ve become a beast!”

“Magic Body–Strengthening Herb, Magic Aquamarine, wouldn’t it be a waste to give such treasures to you?”

“Just give up on this idea!”

“You... your grandfather knew you were like this...” Bradshaw trembled all over with anger, looking as if he was about to drop dead any moment.

Devin, Harold, and others followed Robin into the villa, leaving

Bradshaw far behind.

Seeing this scene, Miranda and Julia quickly darted into the villa through the crowd.

When they saw the interior of the villa, which was as luxurious as a royal palace, they almost went crazy!

“Robin, this is our home! It’s so beautiful!” Miranda shrieked, jumping excitedly in the villa’s grand hall.

“Robin, did you know, this villa is exactly like the one I saw in my dreams!”

Miranda excitedly exclaimed while her eyes sparkled as she touched the ivory handrails in the villa’s hall, the top–grade marble floors, the jade carvings displayed on the flower stand. She looked up at the magnificent golden ceiling indoors, as well as the gorgeous chandeliers inlaid with diamonds and crystals.

Running back to the window again, what presented before my eyes was the misty Mauveglow Lake at the foot of the mountain, and the lush, spacious lawn by the lake...

The fairy–tale–like lakeside scenery had her intoxicated and infatuated!

She let out a long sigh. “It’s so beautiful! This is the aristocratic life my Miranda wanted!”

“Robin, thank you so much! I didn’t expect such a big surprise from you, it really caught me off guard! Hahaha...”

“But, I was really so happy, hahaha...”

Livia looked at Miranda acting all love-struck and shook her head,

“Miss, look at him getting all sentimental.”

Cecilia gave a cold laugh, “Utterly disgraceful!”

Meanwhile, Julia darted up to the second floor like a wild dog:

“Hahaha... We’re staying on the second floor, Alex. Come and see our room.”

“Ah, why couldn’t these room doors be opened?”

“Robin, quickly open these doors. From now on, this is where your father-in-law and I will be living!”

“Hurry up and open it, I want to see what my room looks like, hahaha... I love this kind of environment so much! This is the lifestyle I imagined!

Hahaha...”

Margaret stood in the hall, stunned for a good while, then let out a cry, “Sister-in-law, brother, our family has to move in too!”

“I also loved it here very much, this was also the place of my dreams!”

“Exactly, quickly take some selfies and post them on my social media to show off!”

“Kendra used to say every day that the villa I lived in was not as beautiful as hers, saying that her father was the director of some department before he retired, and that his savings were all in nine figures!”

“Hmph! Now that I lived here, let’s see if she dared to show off again!”

“I told her, my grandfather was an even more powerful ‘so and so’ before he retired, with a ten-digit bank balance! We have more than a dozen villas like this!"

Margaret started taking selfies with her phone.

Robin gestured for Devin, Harold, and others to sit down on the living room sofa.

Miranda suddenly rushed over, pointing at Harold and others, saying, "Get up, don't dirty my sofa!"

Harold was stunned for quite a while.

Robin was also taken aback.

Watching the Brown family members wishing they could roll around in the room, I couldn't help but laugh!

Damn! What kind of people were in this family!

At that moment, Conway and Barry hurried in from outside.

"Mr. Bruce, I just heard that you were here..."

"Lift your foot!" Miranda shouted, "You didn't even wipe your feet outside, you've dirtied my floor!"

Conway was stunned for a while, looking at Miranda, then at Robin and Harold: "Mr. Bruce, this..."

"Conway, throw all this trash from the Brown family out for me, what the hell are they!" Robin coldly ordered, pointing at Miranda and the others.

Chapter 418 Kick Them Out

It was then that Conway understood, he scoffed, "Barry, have your men take this trash out for me!"

Miranda froze instantly, anxiously shouting, "Robin, what's wrong with you? I'm your fiancée, how could you believe in the instigation of others? We are family!"

"Shut up! Miranda, if it weren't for Mr. Bruce's past connections with your Brown family, you would have been dead by now!" Barry said, throwing her outside.

Julia was also dragged down from upstairs by several disciples of Demon's Lair.

"You bastards, do you know who my son-in-law is? My son-in-law is Robin, if he knew..."

Passing by Robin, Julia wailed. "Robin, I am your mother-in-law, they actually treated me like this. quickly kill them..."

"Get lost! Don't disgust me!" Robin snorted coldly. "Drag them out! A bunch of trash."

Bradshaw was dragged to the door by Barry, howling unwillingly, "Robin, for the sake of the bond between your grandfather and my brother, please give me the Magic Body-Strengthening Herb. I really won't live much longer."

"Mr. Powers told me that only Master Bruce and this Magic Body- Strengthening Herb could save my life from this illness," he said. "Even if you see me as a dying old man, you should have some compassion, shouldn't you?"

Chapter 419 Are You Master Bruce?

"Shut up, you old fart!" Barry pointed at Bradshaw and shouted loudly.

"Mr. Brown?" Blaine, Raymond, and others quickly arrived at the front door of Mauveglow Villa 1, led by Terrence.

Seeing Bradshaw sitting on the ground, he exclaimed, "Mr. Brown, what is this? Has your granddaughter's wedding engagement ceremony ended?"

Bradshaw shook his head, "Enough, Mr. Baker..."

Suddenly, a light shone in his eyes, "Mr. Baker, did...did you help me find Master Bruce?"

Blaine was about to shake his head when he looked up and saw Robin standing in the villa's hall, greatly surprised, "Found it, found it. Mr. Brown, you're saved!"

Bradshaw grabbed Blaine's arm, shaking it excitedly, "Thank you so much, Mr. Baker..."

Blaine wanted to pry Bradshaw's hand off and run into the villa.

However, Bradshaw clung tightly to Blaine, refusing to let go as if he was a life-saving straw, "Mr. Baker, you are truly my living Buddha!"

Then he turned around, his eyes wide with anger, and cursed at Robin, “Robin, you unforgivable creature!”

15:39

Chapter 419 Are You Master Bruce?

“I didn’t need your Magic Body–Strengthening Herb, I could still survive. without it!”

“Mr. Baker had already arranged an appointment for me with Master Bruce, my illness would be cured soon!”

“Once I recover, I will rise again, and I will surely teach you a lesson, you unkind, unjust, disloyal; and unfilial creature!”

Bradshaw held Blaine’s hand, “Mr. Baker, you must take me to see Master Bruce, my life is in your hands.”

Blaine wanted to break free from Bradshaw’s grip, but was held tightly by the other party.

“Mr. Baker, hurry and take me to see Master Bruce, the Brown family would spare no expense to cure my illness!”

“Where was Master Bruce? Let’s go, we were going right now!”

“Get off me! You insulted my master, he won’t treat you anymore!” Blaine roared, finally breaking free from Bradshaw’s grip.

Then, taking three steps as two, he quickly ran to Robin and fell to his knees with a thud.

“Master, I finally saw you!”

“I missed the timing at General Finley’s banquet due to a delayed flight, please forgive me, Master!”

“These days, I was thinking every day about being able to see my master again, hoping for some guidance.“.

15:39

Chapter 419 Are You Master Bruce?

“Unexpectedly, I ran into you here, thank heavens!”

“It was originally the engagement ceremony of the Brown family...”.

He said here: “I didn’t expect that this kind of thing would happen here, I... I’m not familiar with that Bradshaw!”

“It was my apprentice who pulled the strings.”

“If I had known it was like this, I would have definitely ignored such a thing!”

Robin laughed, “When did I ever admit that you were my apprentice?”

Blaine was slightly taken aback, and bowed again, saying, “Master, in my life, apart from Master Jiang, I have never served anyone else.”

“However, since I met you, Master, I knew, you are the great master I most need to pay my highest respects to.”

“Master, you must accept me!”

Robin laughed, “You old man, how can you still be so persistent at this age? Get up.”

Blaine was stunned for a moment, “Thank you, Master, thank you,

Master!”

“Raymond, hurry over and bow to your grandmaster!”

Raymond and two disciples of Blaine knelt on the ground: “Greetings to the grandmaster!”

Robin shook his head, “Alright, alright, you old man, making such a fuss, sit down). ”

Only then did Blaine, trembling with fear, manage to get up from the ground and stand beside Robin.

“As long as the master is present, the disciple can just stand!”

Robin glanced at the respectful Blaine and others, shaking his head with a smile, “Alright, suit yourselves!”

At that moment, Raymond was secretly glancing at Robin's young face, cold sweat streaming down his face.

So the young man I saw at the Finley family's banquet was Master Bruce, who my master revered as a saint!

Looking again at Bradshaw, who was standing in front of the villa looking utterly bewildered at that moment, he shook his head bitterly.

I almost made a mistake!

Bradshaw was completely stunned.

He never could have imagined that Master Bruce, who made Blaine kneel and worship, was actually Robin!

At that moment, he kept recalling everything that had happened before in his mind!

He simply couldn't understand how such an incredible thing could happen in this world!

How could Robin, being so young, have achieved so much?

15.39

Chapter 419 Are You Master Bruce?

Blaine, the Master of Traditional Medicine, was referred to as the master, and people were willing to stand by and serve him.

The person who saved Mr. Donovan and Camdyn was so awesome!

How could I have just casually missed it like this?

If I had known back then that Robin had such a vast network of contacts, so much money, and such high medical skills.

Miranda was not allowed to divorce!

How could a Footless Robin be more awesome than the Brown family!

A flash of malice quickly passed through Bradshaw's eyes. After hesitating for quite a while, he finally turned to Robin, "Robin, are you that Master Bruce?"

"Since your medical skills were so brilliant, please save my grandfather."

"It was but a simple gesture for you, you could save others, why couldn't you heal me?"

Robin gave a cold laugh, "If I save you, then I'm the farmer!"

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

"The Farmer and the Snake?" Bradshaw didn't understand what it meant for a moment.

"Robin, how did you end up becoming a farmer?"

"You mean I was that venomous snake?"

"Impossible! Absolutely impossible! I am not a venomous snake, and you will not become a farmer."

"Robin, if you had saved my life, we would have been family. How could I bite you like a poisonous snake?"

Robin laughed, "You people, always choose to selectively forget."

Blaine said coldly, "Bradshaw, what did you mean when you were holding my hand just now?"

"You pointed at my master and said, 'Once Master Bruce cures your illness and you make a comeback, you must properly discipline my master.'"

"How could my master, a person as divine as a fairy, not see through your ill intentions?"

"Even I wouldn't do such a foolish thing."

"Saved your ungrateful, venomous self, only for you to harm me again?"

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

"Bradshaw, stop being a smart aleck!"

"Living to this age, you're not even as good as a dog!"

"You should have ended it sooner, to avoid further embarrassing yourself in this world!"

"I told you, don't bother my master again, or I, Blaine, will never forgive you!"

“Any one of the thousands of disciples under my command could have easily killed you in a minute!”

At that moment, Terrence ran in from outside again, “Mr. Bruce, Colonel Finley, General Finley and the officers from the military command have arrived.”

No sooner had the words fallen than Nia. Donovan, Ethen, and others.

Several military command officers, dressed in lieutenant general uniforms, walked in with firm steps.

Bradshaw saw Donovan, who was walking in the front wearing a general’s uniform, and immediately approached him, saying, “Mr. Donovan, you are the guiding star of our Hallcester, today... today I have a favor to ask of you!”

Several officers of the military command immediately stopped in their tracks.

Donovan slightly furrowed his brow, signaling the guard to step aside, “Bradshaw, what is it? Speak up!”

15:40

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

“General Finley, I... I want you to help me judge!” Bradshaw squeezed out tears in grievance, making an extremely wronged gesture.

“Robin’s medical skills could clearly cure the stubborn disease in my body, but he just stood by and watched me die!”

“Not only that, the Magic Body–Strengthening Herb that the Barrett family gave him could also cure my illness, but he refused to give it to me.”

Also, the Magic Aquamarine that the Rogelio family gave him could have healed my body, but he just wouldn’t lend it to me.

“General Finley, what do you think about this Robin? Is he disloyal, unfilial, unkind, and unjust?”

Donovan said indifferently. “Continue with what you were saying!”

“Decades ago, his grandfather and I arranged a marriage contract for him and my granddaughter, both of whom were not yet born.”

“According to that marriage contract, he should now be the grandson-in-law of the Brown family.”

“But, he actually treated me like this, and moreover, he even drove the Brown family out of the villa!”

“General Finley, would you say his behavior was extremely reprehensible? Should he have been condemned by the world?”

“Please, General Finley, stand up for me, let Robin treat my illness, and let him continue to fulfill his engagement to my granddaughter.”

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

After hearing Bradshaw’s words, Donovan laughed with interest.

“I heard that Robin came to Hallcester to fulfill the marriage contract with you, the Brown family, and at that time, he had already arrived at your place, the Brown family.”

“Bradshaw, may I ask, why wasn’t the engagement between Robin and your granddaughter fulfilled that day?”

Bradshaw was taken aback for a moment, “Uh... I was treating patients. outside at that time, I... I’m not quite sure.”

Donovan gave a cold laugh, “The news I heard was that you, the Brown family, directly tore up the engagement, and publicly humiliated Robin.”

“Miranda asked you, did you also directly reject Robin on the phone? Did this happen?”

“Uh... yes, General Finley, this matter is a fact,” Bradshaw answered after much thought.

Donovan snorted, “Since you’ve already rejected Robin, what marriage. contract are you going to fulfill now?”

Bradshaw thought for a moment, “Back then, when Robin first came to our house, he didn’t say anything.”

“The Brown family thought he was a rootless vagabond, a pauper with no background whatsoever.”

“General Finley, as you know, my granddaughter is the multi-millionaire Ms. Brown.”

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

“Robin was not a good match for our family back then!”

“I couldn’t possibly let my granddaughter suffer this kind of injustice!”

“Even if his grandfather came, I would say the same.”

Donovan nodded, “True, when the social status doesn’t match, thinking about it, there’s some sense in that.”

“But why do you want Robin to marry your granddaughter now? Aren’t you afraid of the disparity in their social status?”

Bradshaw immediately responded, “Now we are finally on equal footing!”

“Robin was no longer a poor loser, he was now living in Mauveglow Villa 1.”

“Today, he was given many expensive gifts by others again.

“They said that the Magic Body-Strengthening Herb given to him was worth hundreds of billions, and the Magic Aquamarine was worth trillions.”

“And your son Devin, give him five hundred million worth of Mastiff!”

“Robin, now that we have so much money, we are certainly on par with him.”

Donovan chuckled, “Bradshaw, can you do the math?”

“You’ve been running a business for decades, can’t you even figure out these simple numbers?”

Chapter 420 The Farmer and the Serpent

“Actually, anyone could see that you two were still not a good match in terms of social status!”
