Chapter 431 Major General Vargas

Ignacio, Arturo, and others were also glaring at Robin.

“Ohr? You’re insulting me?” Robin slowly walked up to Rafael, glancing at his military rank.

“You, a mere mid–level officer, dared to insult the superior?”

“You.” Rafael paused, staring in surprise at the young Robin.

Rhonda immediately stepped forward, handing the appointment letter from the military command to Rafael.

“Report Mr. Harvey, this is the newly appointed WSF chief drillmaster, General Bruce, from the headquarters!”

“Stand up straight and apologize to the officer!” Robin said coldly.

The corner of Rafael’s mouth twitched violently

Being a high–ranking official can really kill you!

The ranking of military ranks was extremely prominent in the army

Rafael immediately stood at attention and saluted Robin, “I’m sorry, General, I was unaware of your identity!”

“I said WSF has fallen to this state, don’t you, as the captain, bear any responsibility?!” Robin rebuked.

“Defending shortcomings will only hasten the death of WSF!”

“Yes, General!” Rafael stood straight and responded loudly.

Rhonda suddenly looked at Robin, her eyes filled with shock!

The flippant attitude he had before joining the WSF was completely gone at that moment

A dazzling beam of sunlight, streaming through the skylight of the arena, enveloped Robin's towering figure.

At that moment, Robin was every bit the imposing general, radiating intimidating aura from head to toe.

Such a powerful aura completely crushed the imposing momentum of several generals and senior military officers an

Robin pointed at Timothy and said in a deep voice. "Mr. Harvey, I said your fighting instructor is garbage, does that upset you?"

"In another ten or so days, it would be the finals of the military competition. WSF was going to face a formidable challenge."

"Back then, could you avoid the disaster of being cancelled by covering up your shortcomings?!"

"No change, only elimination!"

"When you saw the results, did you still have the audacity to feel so superior here, a bunch of arrogant frogs in the well!"

"Was I wrong to say that Timothy and his master were both trash?"

Rafael flipped his round glasses, wanting to speak but hesitated.

Robin said coldly, "Answer me!"

"This..." Rafael glanced at Ignacio, then at Robin, unsure of how to respond.

Ignacio snorted coldly, "I am Timothy's master, are you implying that I am trash?"

Robin glanced at the Major General insignia on Ignacio's shoulder, "You're absolutely right!"

Ignacio said coldly, "Well then, if that's the case, do you dare to compete with me?"

"You're not worthy either!" Robin snorted, his words full of disdain.

Rhonda almost went crazy.

Did Robin dare to say that even Major General Vargas was not worthy to fight with him?

You should know, for the past ten years, no one surpassed Major General Vargas in all military skills!

And had represented Londraland military commands in international military skills competitions multiple times.

The best result was the runner-up!

Only second to the championship record of that legendary figure in Londraland's history.

She leaned towards Robin and whispered, "Mr. Bruce, he is the Battle King, Major General Vargas."

"Titles are worthless to me!" Robin looked up at Ignacio, sneering.

"Seeing his apprentice, you would know his master couldn't be much stronger!"

Actually, Robin was just trying to provoke Ignacio into taking action, and then, show everyone a demonstration of his power!

Ignacio looked at Robin's face full of contempt, and said coldly, "Only after daring to compete with me, can you judge whether you are worthy or not!"

Major General Arturo from the military exercise department also stepped forward with a gloomy face. "Mr. Bruce, this is Major General Vargas, the supervisor of the military command training department, and the former chief drillmaster of the Warwolf Special Forces."

"Back then, under the training of General Vargas. WSF consistently ranked first in the entire army, unsurpassed by anyone."

“Today, we came especially to witness your first day as the chief drillmaster.”

“Major General Vargas, your participation is required, it is a necessary part of the assessment for WSF and WSF’s chief drillmaster. You must carry out the order!”

Robin shrugged his shoulders, pointed at Ignacio, and said, “Alright, but I fear you might regret it!”

“Regret?” Major General Arturo slightly furrowed his brows, not understanding Robin’s meaning

He glanced at Randall.

Randall remained indifferent throughout.

He looked at Robin and Ignacio stepping onto the ring, a hint of amusement flashing in his eyes.

Arturo murmured. “The new young chief drillmaster is too arrogant!”

“General Allen, I don’t know where you found this person, with no qualifications, no background, and you just enlisted him into WSF. Are you trying to destroy WSF with your own hands?

Randall laughed. “No right to speak without investigation and research. let’s wait and see!”

Arturo shook his head, “Randall, isn’t this some relative of yours, or your daughter’s future son-in-law coming to make a fortune?”

Randall laughed and said. “I don’t have a daughter. so there’s no way I could have this dragon-riding son-in-law. As for relatives. I have no connection whatsoever.”

“How did you find him then?” Arturo asked.

Randall gave a mysterious smile, “Let’s not discuss these, let’s watch the exciting match between our former Battle King. Major General Vargas, and the newly promoted Mr. Bruce.”

Chapter 432 Knock Him Out in Seconds

Arturo looked at Ignacio's retreating figure and said, "If this chief drillmaster you've chosen really has the skills, I guess he'll be fighting with Ignacio until nightfall."

"Let's have Rafael bring over a few chairs, so we can sit down and take our time to watch."

Randall shook his head. "Not necessarily."

"What do you mean?" Arturo glanced at Robin in the ring, "Are you suggesting that Ignacio's skills could instantly take down Robin?"

Randall laughed meaningfully. "Let's see, a knockout in seconds? It's possible!"

At that moment, all the warriors in the arena stood up.

For a member of this WSF, it was a great honor to be able to observe Major General Vargas's combat fighting techniques at such close range:

The fighting, sniping, and various skills of Battle King have remained unsurpassed to this day.

Even the top experts who emerged in recent two years, such as Rodolfo Weaver from Dragon Soul Special Forces and Brad Welch from Leopard Special Forces, could not match the record set by Major General Vargas.

Importantly, Major General Vargas had always maintained such a state.

08:37

Chapter—432 Knock Him Out in Seconds

Even, the performance in the past two years has seen a slight improvement.

Despite Robin guiding Rhonda to defeat Grady, Timothy, and others.

However, his true abilities had not yet been seen.

Moreover, he was facing Ignacio.

On the ring. Ignacio looked up at Robin, "I'm over a decade older than you. I'm a veteran in WSF"

"Without exaggeration, I was the only one in the entire army!"

“Within three moves. if I can’t beat you, I’ll admit defeat!”

Robin shook his head. “Three moves are too many, just this one!”

Ignacio frowned, “You mean to surrender directly?”

Robin nodded, “Knocking you out in a second, any move is a waste!”

Ignacio sneered, “Fine, quite arrogant! Let’s begin then!”

In an instant, a surge of murderous intent swept across the martial arts arena, covering the sky and the earth.

Every person present immediately felt the overwhelming aura emanating from this former Battle King.

Some soldiers actually couldn’t help but start to sway.

Rafael and Timothy looked at Ignacio in the ring, their eyes glowing with admiration.

Chapter 432 Knock Him Out in Seconda

“Heh, arrogant little brat, ignorant of the vastness of the world...”

However, this idea had not yet been fully expressed.

The next moment, a residual image flashed by, leaving only Robin on the stage!

Where was General Vargas?

Everyone was completely baffled.

Did General Vargas come up with some new tactics again?

A few seconds later, a muffled “bang” suddenly sounded in the northwest corner of the martial arts field.

In a blink of an eye. Ignacio was curled up on the ground, his eyes vacant.

“What...what...exactly happened?”

After a brief shock, Rafael and Timothy immediately ran to Ignacio’s side.

“General, you... what happened to you?”

Ignacio snorted coldly, “Get lost! What else could happen, I lost!”

“What? Master, I didn’t see you guys make a move?” Timothy was confused.

Robin actually knocked out Ignacio in a second!

“See? What can you see with your little ability?” Ignacio got up from the ground.

Everyone was also confused..

No one saw clearly how Ignacio managed to fly to the northwest corner. which was several meters away from the ring.

For a while, Rhonda couldn’t figure out whether it was Robin who made the move, or if Ignacio jumped over by himself.

She quickly ran up to Ignacio, “General Vargas, did you jump over here yourself?”

Ignacio snorted coldly, glaring at Rhonda in annoyance.

Brushing off the dust from his body, he walked up to the ring, pointed at Robin and said, “Fighting, boxing, I lost!”

Robin nodded, “Fair enough.”

Ignacio gave a cold laugh. “Heh, military competitions are not just about. hand-to-hand combat, but also marksmanship!”

“Since you were the chief drillmaster of WSF, you should have known that marksmanship is the most important skill for a special forces soldier! The weapon most used on the battlefield is a gun!”

Rhonda immediately said, "I know, General Vargas has always been known as the top sniper in the military, with a record of hitting a moving target at three thousand meters in the bullseye!"

As Rhonda's words fell silent, everyone looked at Ignacio with awe.

At present, the world military observation records that the longest sniper

Chapter 432 Khock Him Out in Seconds

record was created by a sniper from the "Second Joint Task Force" of the elite special forces of Swoician.

At that time, he used the TAC-50 Long Range Sniper Weapon to kill an extremist militant from a distance of 3450 meters.

The bullet flew for 9 seconds before hitting the target.

Apart from advanced technology and precise calculations, luck was also a crucial factor.

That legendary figure from the Londraland army, who once scored a perfect ten in the five-kilometer moving target.

It was also the top record among snipers in Londraland and even the whole world, unsurpassed by anyone!

And Ignacio was the bullseye of a moving target at three thousand meters.

In Londraland, no one has been able to reach that level since the removal of that legendary figure.

"A three-kilometer moving target? You're proud of just three kilometers?" Robin sneered contemptuously.

The smile on Rhonda's face froze instantly. Had Robin gone mad?

A three-thousand-meter moving target with a perfect score, what kind of person could have achieved that?

Ignacio said coldly, "You mean you can do it too?"

Robin shook his head, "Three thousand kilometers, haha, three thousand

08:37

Chapter 432 Knock Him Out in Seconds

kilometers is just my starting point!”

Chapter 433 What if I Break the Record?

As Robin’s words fell, the arena was filled with silence.

This new chief drillmaster was still too young!

It could even be said to be too arrogant!

A three–thousand–meter moving target was just the beginning, does it mean he could snipe at four thousand meters?

Timothy even raised his eyelids, took a glance at Robin, and sneered in his heart. “Just keep bragging!”

I’d like to see, if you can’t even reach this starting distance. how you’re going to wrap things up.

Ignacio wore a gloomy expression. “Three thousand meters is just your starting point? Huh!”

“For over a decade, no one has been able to break my record, and you for dare to boast that a 3000–meter moving target is just a warm–up you?”

“Let’s go to the shooting range. I want to see just how far your starting distance really is,” he said.

“If you could break my record today, then you would be considered the winner!”

Robin gave a nonchalant smile, “What if I break the record?”

0.00%

Ignacio’s mouth twitched, “I will forever renounce the title of Battle King!”

“General Vargas, you...” Arturo began to dissuade, but Ignacio interrupted coldly

“If you can’t break my record. get out of WSF!”

Robin shrugged and said. "If I beat you, you'll get lost! Look at you, acting like you've never seen the world!"

Ignacio was taken aback, staring blankly at Robin, "Alright, alright! Just wait a bit and you can show me something new!"

"Holy cow!" Rhonda almost shouted.

This guy Robin was too wild.

Dare to say that Ignacio was not worldly?

At that moment, all the soldiers in the arena were astonishedly looking at Robin.

Arrogant! It was really too arrogant!

In combat, he might have been stronger than Ignacio.

However, shooting, is not something that just anyone can casually reach the level of a top sniper.

A sniper, without a decade or more of experience, could not possibly accomplish top-level sniping over two or three kilometers.

Arturo shook his head, saying, "Mr. Harvey, lead the warriors to the shooting range!"

The assembly call suddenly sounded in the martial arts arena.

Fifty members of the Warwolf Special Forces, marching in neat steps, jogged towards the shooting range of Mount Ammo Training Base.

Randall, Arturo, Ignacio and others hopped into the jeep and drove off, leaving a trail of dust behind.

Rhonda followed Robin, getting into the last off-road combat vehicle right behind him.

"Mr. Bruce, I didn't expect you to be so skilled. Could you tell me how you managed to send Major General Vargas flying in an instant today?"

Robin pursed his lips. "It can only be understood, not explained."

Rhonda rolled her eyes. "Hmph! Forget it if you won't say!"

"Ah, Mr. Bruce, was a three-kilometer moving target really just your starting point?"

Robin thought seriously, "Maybe, I've never really measured it. Anyway, within the range of firearms, it's 100%, and beyond the range, 500 meters, the hit rate is 99.9%."

"You deceived them?" Rhonda exclaimed in shock, "You actually didn't even know how far you could snipe?"

Robin nodded, saying seriously, "Well, it depends on the mood."

"If I was in a good mood, it might be around five thousand meters. If I was not, targets as far as six thousand or ten thousand meters could potentially be taken down directly."

08:37

Chapter 433 What if I Break the Record?

"What? Even sniping is a skill that depends on mood?" Rhonda shook her head.

Robin raised an eyebrow, glancing at the stunned Rhonda, and said seriously. "Hmm! Just like the irregularity of your aunt's visits, very casual!"

"Pfft! Hahaha..." Grady in the driver's seat and Clyde in the passenger seat suddenly burst out laughing.

"Don't laugh!" Rhonda's face turned red, and then, she glared at Robin, "You!"

Before the words could leave my mouth. I caught sight of Robin's raised palm and immediately shut up, instinctively shifting my butt

She took a deep breath. "Go ahead and brag!"

"There simply wasn't a sniper rifle in the world with a range of 10,000 meters, 6,000 meters was already beyond imagination!"

To my knowledge, Londraland had two of the heaviest TLXL_99 sniper rifles that could hit targets at a distance of 7500 meters, with an effective range of 3000 meters.

"The rifle used special supersonic bullets, the initial speed of which exceeded 5 Mach."

“This bullet could not only penetrate any existing personal body armor, but also posed a threat to personnel inside light armored vehicles.”

Chapter 433 What if Break the Record?

I

“Just, these two sniper rifles had never been used.”

“Back then, this heavyweight sniper rifle was designed for the legendary Lord of War of Londraland.”

“Later, after the firearms were designed, that Lord of War never appeared again.”

Robin’s eyes lit up. “WSF’s armory has this kind of stuff? Alright, let’s give it a try.”

Rhonda pouted. “Really? Is it true?”

How precise the sniping level must be for a sniper rifle with a range of 7500 meters.

Moreover, finding and killing targets at such a long distance was a problem.

Arrived at the super shooting range of Mount Ammo Training Base.

This shooting range was specifically designed for training super snipers, with a distance set at ten thousand meters.

In the shooting range of Mount Ammo Training Base, historically, only one person had ever completed the sniper record of ten rings at five thousand meters.

Therefore, the moving target at the farthest distance in this shooting range was only positioned at five kilometers.

The moving target track five kilometers away had never been used before.

Chapter 433 What if Break the Record?

At that time, it was to break this record.

The shooting range had specifically designed moving tracks of 5500 meters, 6000 meters, and 7500 meters, but no one had attempted them.

After entering the shooting range. Ignacio had the armory place all sniper rifles with a range of 1000 to 3000 meters at the shooting positions.

“Pick one?” Ignacio pointed at Robin, “See which range suits you.”

Chapter 434 Londraland’s No.1 Sniper

“None of them are suitable!” Robin shook his head, “Their range is too short.”

What?

He actually said that a range of 1000-3000 meters was too close?

Such a distance, in the world of snipers, was already an extremely rare occurrence!

All the officers and soldiers on the shooting range looked at Robin with complex expressions.

This statement was too arrogant!

In front of Ignacio, the army’s top sniper, only one person had dared to utter such audacious words in the past twenty years!

“Not a single sniper rifle suits you?” Ignacio was amused to the point of laughter by him.

“So you mean you weren’t planning on showing off in front of the soldiers?”

“So, you still dare not prove that your three–kilometer sniping distance is real?”

Major General Arturo of the military exercise department was also shaking his head and sighing.

He didn’t understand why the military command would agree to Randall’s request to bring in such an eccentric chief drillmaster.

Ignacio and Arturo both came from WSF

Had a certain affection for WSF

Came to observe WSF this time.

Just wanted to see if it was possible to help WSF maintain its ranking in the military competition that would take place in a dozen days or so.

It was just Robin's attitude that gave him a bad premonition.

Wouldn't it have been worse if WSF had been handed over to Robin for training guidance?

Rhonda added. "General Vargas. to my knowledge. there were still two sniper rifles in the armory of Warwolf Special Forces that were not displayed."

"One was the TLXL-89 with a range of 5000 meters."

"Another one was the super sniper rifle TLXL-99. independently developed by Londraland."

"This super sniper rifle could achieve precise kills within 7500 meters."

No sooner had Rhonda finished speaking than everyone in the shooting range was taken aback!

Clearly, Rhonda meant that Robin was preparing to use this TLXL-99 super sniper rifle.

That 5000-meter sniper rifle had only been used by one person before and had always been kept in the WSF's armory.

It was only used as a benchmark honor item for admiration, no one ever dared to touch it.

And that super sniper rifle was even more neglected, never having been used.

Ignacio frowned, "General Wu, what I mean is, if anyone dares to challenge the TLXL-89 sniper rifle with a range of 5000 meters. I request the power to specially approve its use from the command!"

Arturo hesitated, "This... we need to ask for Lieutenant General Swanson's permission..."

Randall interrupted Arturo, "What's this about asking for permission? Guns are meant to be used!"

"If Robin wanted to use that sniper rifle, I could vouch for him first, and then submit the paperwork to the headquarters later!"

"There was no need for that heroic battle rifle." Robin said decisively

Ignacio laughed, "You mean like me, using the 3000 meters one?"

"No, I used the TLXL-99 super sniper rifle with a range of 7500 meters."

"7500 meters range?!" Timothy couldn't help but exclaim.

Since the successful development of the 7500-meter sniper rifle.

Only ever tested at the shooting range, all shots missed the target.

Ignacio had also tried once, but he couldn't even hit a stationary target.

Robin actually wanted the TLXL-99 with a range of 7500 meters.

What the hell kind of joke is this!

Rhonda firmly said, "Mr. Bruce said, when he's in a good mood, 5000 meters is a piece of cake. If he's in a bad mood, he could hit the bullseye at 10000 meters!"

The reason why Rhonda was so excited.

She wanted to see if Robin was just bluffing or really had such ability!

Randall looked up at Robin, "Is that so?"

"Yeah, is that not allowed?" Robin said, pouting at Randall.

Randall nodded, "Of course!"

Arturo pointed at Rafael, "Have someone bring over the TLXL-99 from the armory!"

Rafael immediately ordered four soldiers to go to the armory.

Arturo said with a grim face, "At this time, General Vargas, you go first and show us what a real sniper is!"

In an instant, the warriors of Warwolf Special Forces cheered, "Please, General Vargas, take action! Battle King! Battle King!"

Ignacio raised his hand to quiet them down, "Alright, then I'll go

first!"

Ignacio stood in front of the shooting position, quickly checking this

Chapter 4 Londraland's No. 1 Sniper

NTW-20 sniper rifle with a range of 3000 meters.

The firearm had a barrel length of 2 meters and a range of up to 3000 meters. Its power was so great that it could penetrate obstacles behind two walls

He took a deep breath, calculated the wind speed, and aimed at the moving target 3000 meters away

Aside from the gentle outdoor breeze. the shooting range was completely silent.

A minute of aiming, decisively fired the gun.

"Bang!" A dull gunshot echoed, the shooting range fell into a stifling silence!

Three seconds later. the target reporter announced. 3000 meters moving target, ten rings!"

Fifty warriors of the Warwolf Special Forces immediately cheered!

The shooting range was bathed in brilliant sunshine, with not a cloud in the vast sky, creating a sea of fervor.

The warriors excitedly shouted Ignacio's name. their passion ablaze. their blood boiling!

This was the glory of Ignacio, and even more so, the pride of WSF!

It was the first time Rhonda had seen such a spectacular scene!

There were fewer than five snipers in the world who could hit a moving target at 3000 meters with a single shot!

Chapter 434 Londralands No. 1 Sniper

And such a god-level sniper was right in front of me,

It was absolutely thrilling!

Ignacio completed the sniping action in just one minute!

Truly a well-deserved Battle King!

The number one sniper in the Londraland army!

Immediately after, Ignacio fired nine shots in one breath!

The second shot hit the ten ring, the third shot hit the ten ring... the ten ring, the seventh shot hit the ten ring, the eighth shot hit the seven ring, the ninth shot hit the eight ring!

The target reporter presented all the scores.

Eight shots hit the bullseye, but two shots were slightly off due to a sudden change in wind speed.

Such a record could be considered perfect!

The shooting range once again erupted in frenzied cheers....

Chapter 435 Are You Serious?

Ignacio's impressive marksmanship left Timothy in awe and pride!

He looked into his teacher's eyes, which were radiating with excitement.

This was a true demonstration of strength.

3000 meters moving target, eight tens!

Such a record, no one in the entire army could surpass.

Let's see what else Mr. Bruce had to say!

Ignacio put down the NTW–20 sniper rifle and wiped his hands, turning to Robin with a deep voice, “What do you think, is my performance up to your standards?”

Robin shrugged, “It’s okay! Just, the shooting time was too long, and, it wasn’t a hundred percent hit rate!”

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone fell silent.

Timothy snorted, “Mr. Bruce’s point is that you can hit a grand slam with a 3000–meter moving target, and do it even faster?”

“General Vargas took five and a half minutes to use ten bullets, are you implying you could do it in two or three minutes?”

Robin pursed his lips, “Maybe it won’t take that long!”

rs were stunnedly

The three words “Blow it off” were written in everyone’s eyes.

Arturo sneered. “Mr. Bruce, before the TLXL–99 super sniper rifle arrives, would you like to try this NTW–20 sniper rifle with a range of 3000 meters?”

Robin shook his head. “I think I’d better not try.”

Ignacio said with a gloomy face, “What’s the use of just talking!”

“Since you think my shooting skills are average, why don’t you try this NTW–20 sniper rifle with a range of 3000 meters and see if you can hit a grand slam!”

Robin glanced at Ignacio with a playful smile. “Are you sure you want me to try?”

Ignacio said coldly. “Of course, no matter how well you speak. it’s useless. Only actions provide the most powerful proof.”

“Alright, since you’re sure, I’ll give it a try!” Robin picked up the NTW–20 sniper rifle with a range of 3000 meters, and looked at it after directly removing the scope.

“What? You removed the scope? Don’t you need to aim?” Ignacio asked, taken aback.

“Isn’t a distance of 3000 meters a burden with this thing?” Robin casually remarked as he checked the firearm.

Arturo shook his head, “General Bruce, are you serious?”

“What’s all this about being serious or not, isn’t it just shooting a gun?” Robin said nonchalantly.

“Alright, alright, go ahead then!” Arturo huffed, retreating back to Randall’s side.

Robin looked up at Ignacio, “So I’m really starting now? Don’t regret it.”

“Regret?” Ignacio sneered, “Where did that come from?”

“A bang!” The gun went off.

Robin fired a bullet without even looking at the moving target ahead.

“Did it misfire?” The first reaction of everyone was that Robin accidentally fired the gun.

Ten seconds later, the target spotter relayed the information, the first moving target hit the bullseye!

Arturo was instantly stunned.

Without even aiming, he casually fired a shot at 3000 meters and incredibly hit the bullseye!

Was it a coincidence?

Ignacio was also confused for a moment.

Such a way of shooting was too casual, wasn't it? What else could it be other than a coincidence!

Chapter 435 Are You Serious?

Did such a sharpshooter really exist in the world?

Without even looking, without even glancing, he hit the bullseye on a 3000-meter moving target with a single shot!

Ignacio was stunned for a moment before he chuckled with amusement, “Mr. Bruce, are you joking?”

Robin shrugged, “Well, not bad! Then I'll continue messing around for you to see.”

As soon as the words fell, nine bullets were successively fired out.

“Bang, bang, bang...” A burst of gunfire suddenly erupted!

Nine bullets were fired in less than ten seconds!

Was this a snipe or just shooting around for fun?

Didn't even take aim, just went straight to it.

Arturo furrowed his brow, “General Bruce, are you joking?”

Robin gave a nonchalant smile, "If you say so."

At that moment, the target reporter immediately reported the results.

Nine shots, nine targets, all hit the bullseye!

The shooting range suddenly became so quiet that only each other's breathing could be heard.

After a brief shock, Rhonda jumped up excitedly, "Mr. Bruce, all ten shots hit the bullseye! You won!"

Chapter 435 Are You Serious?

Ignacio and Arturo were both stunned.

This was too mysterious!

The world had never seen this kind of shooting and sniping technique before!

This was the sharpshooter!

Robin tossed the sniper rifle onto the shooting position, shrugged at Ignacio and asked, "Regret it?"

"Before, I was worried that the damage to you would be too great, which is why I was reluctant to use this close-range sniper rifle!"

"This was what you insisted I do."

Ignacio chuckled awkwardly, "Consider me defeated!"

Arturo looked at Robin, "Mr. Bruce just boasted about your ability to hit a target with a sniper rifle with a range of 7500 meters. The soldiers are all waiting to see your performance!"

"Mr. Bruce has already won," Rhonda stepped forward and said.

"Who allowed you to speak, step back!" Arturo said coldly.

Rhonda had to step back two steps.

At that time, four soldiers from the armory brought the TLXL-99 sniper rifle to the scene.

This 7500-meter range sniper rifle was specifically developed for the legendary Lord of War from Londraland back in the day.

The muscle created by that Lord of War at the world militmy competition with a record range of 5000 meters, remained unbeaten to this day
The relevant department made efforts to make this Lord of War shine even more.

Ordered the relevant departments to develop a sniper rifle capable of exceeding a range of 5000 meters.

After nearly a decade of research

This rifle was finally introduced.

It's just that its owner had been missing for many years.

It could only sleep desolately in the WSF arsenal.

Despite its overwhelming power.

However, no one was able to showcase its unparalleled glory!

Chapter 436 Rhonda's Respect for Robin

The TLXL-99 super sniper rifle, after years of dormancy, finally presented itself to the soldiers today.

All the officers and soldiers saluted collectively.

Salute to this super sniper rifle that showcased the top technology of Londraland's military arsenal!

The TLXL 99 sniper rifle used supersonic bullets, which could hit targets at a distance of 7500 meters.

This was hardly a sniper rifle, it was practically a ballistic missile!

7500 meters, such a distance.

Even with a super long-distance scope, it was difficult to determine the exact location of the target.

The impact of wind speed and various sand and dust would cause the fired bullet to deviate from its course during flight.

During the sniping process, the sniper had to accurately locate the target, as well as precisely measure the wind speed and air density.

At such a long distance, subtle changes in the flight environment could occur at any moment during the bullet's flight.

Once the bullet deviated even slightly due to the influence of the flight environment, it could not hit the target accurately.

Chapter 4 Rhonda's Respect for Robin.

To accomplish such a feat, hitting the target with a single shot, was almost impossible.

Ignacio looked at this super sniper rifle, extremely excited!

Back then, he had touched it.

It was just that I simply couldn't handle this super sniper rifle.

In his view, no one in this world was qualified to use it, except for the legendary Lord of War.

Otherwise, it would be a desecration of this rather noble super sniper rifle!

He tenderly caressed the sniper rifle, as if reverently unveiling the most glorious memory!

At that moment, all that was before my eyes was the towering image of that legendary and incredibly powerful figure from years ago.

He let out a long sigh, "General Bruce, please!"

"I thought, it's better to change the moving target to a fixed one."

Robin said indifferently, "No need."

He walke

up to this super sniper rifle and checked all the components.

Still removed the scope from this rifle.

He tried the weight of this super sniper rifle again, loading it with ten specially made supersonic bullets.

Ignacio tensed up as he sniper rifle!

Such an action was too similar to that legendary figure of the past!

He remembered that the legend had once said.

A top sniper, the target was not aimed by eyes, but by feeling!

The sixth sense you cultivated was always more accurate than what your eyes saw.

Therefore, the top sniper aimed at the target not with his eyes, but with his heart!

Facing the dazzling sunlight, Ignacio looked at Robin in a daze.

Rhonda was even more overwhelmed with excitement.

The look in the eyes watching Robin's back at that moment was full of shock.

The first time I saw Robin, he was completely a young master who didn't take the world seriously.

When Robin put on the general's uniform, she suddenly realized that it seemed to be tailor-made for this man.

Everything that happened when she entered the Warwolf Special Forces training center made her start to respect this mountain-like man.

I had thought Robin was just a playboy mingling in high society.

Unexpectedly, everything he presented greatly astonished Rhonda.

Respect the Robin

This was an experience she had never had before.

Everything she had ever looked up to, revered, and even found. inconceivable.

In front of Robin, everything was so humble and insignificant, not worth mentioning

Those things that seemed unreachable and insurmountable to her in the past.

For Robin, it was all so effortless, just like a piece of cake.

Not only did she defeat the previously unbeatable Grady, Timothy, and others under the brief guidance of Robin.

What impressed her even more was the magical moment when Robin defeated Ignacio in a second.

The ten-shot, ten-ring sniping from an ultra-long distance of 3000 meters that just happened. thinking about it now, it's completely like a myth.

Robin's impressive achievements deeply shocked her!

She hadn't thought that there could be such an incredibly talented person in this world!

Ignacio had already become the insurmountable Battle King in Rhonda's heart.

But today, Robin had shown her a celestial technique even more powerful than Battle King.

Chapter 436 Rhonda's Respect for Robin

A 3000-meter sniper shot was an unattainable peak in a lifetime for an average soldier.

However, Robin seemed to reach the level of the world's top sniper as easily as shooting from a distance of 30 meters!

Could Robin really achieve the most glorious moment with this 7500-meter range super sniper rifle?

Rhonda watched Robin's back as he held the gun, extremely excited.

She was like Ignacio.

It was also impossible to understand why Robin always removed the scope mounted on his gun every time he sniped.

What kind of strange sniping technique was this?

Just when everyone was speculating whether Robin could truly control this sniper rifle, which carried all the honor and expectations of Londraland's special forces soldiers.

A dull sound, like a supersonic missile being launched, pierced through the murky air current of 7500 meters and hit the moving target in one shot!

The entire shooting range was silent as a grave!

The target reporter shouted excitedly. "Ten points for target number one!"

Ignacio's body gave a violent shudder.

A fervor akin to dampness suddenly burst forth from his eyes.

At that moment, the determined face was shaking violently.

Incredibly... incredibly, it really hit!

Immediately after, there was another muffled boom!

The target reporter shouted excitedly: "Target two, ten points! Target three, ten points! Target ten is still ten points!"

Ten bullets were fired in 15 seconds!

Robin accomplished an unprecedented long-distance sniping masterpiece for the Londraland military commands.

Ten shots, ten rings!

This was a milestone sniper performance!

The shooting range of Mount Ammo Training Base.

Silence was like the wilderness!

All the officers and soldiers stood in awe.

The TLXL-99 super sniper rifle made its debut with a moving target at 7500 meters, hitting the bullseye with all ten shots!

This was an unprecedented and unparalleled feat in the history of world. military.

Everyone at the shooting range couldn't believe the incredibly unreal scene before their eyes.

7500 meters!

It was very difficult for the human eye, including super sniper scopes, to identify such distant sniper targets.

Moreover, various natural environments seriously interfered with the bullet during its flight.

Robin incredibly hit the bullseye ten times in a row, without using a super scope!

What kind of superpower would it take to achieve this?

had achieved it!

Everyone's first reaction: This can't be real!

How could anyone possibly accomplish such a fantastical feat?!

After a brief shock, an idea occurred to Timothy

Robin must have been the son of some high-ranking military command officer!

Moreover, the status of this commander was extremely high!

The target caller at the shooting range must have known Robin's identity.

That's why I helped him falsify the results.

He stepped forward and said, "General Vargas, you may not have lost!"

All the officers and soldiers were taken aback for a moment, looking at Timothy and Ignacio with confusion.

What does it mean?

The target reporter had reported the results, and still claimed that he didn't lose.

Are you brain-dead?

Timothy said coldly, "I demand the target man to bring the moving target for verification. I suspect they are cheating..."

"Bullshit!" Ignacio kicked Timothy to the ground with one foot.

Pointing at the image on the screen showing the moving target being penetrated.

He scolded angrily, "Under broad daylight, how could one cheat with ten shots and ten rings? Are you blind?"

At that moment, the target operator had already moved the moving target in front of the shooting position.

On the ten moving targets, huge holes pierced by bullets in the bullseye were strikingly visible.

Timothy looked at the scene before him and instantly collapsed on the ground like a deflated ball.

Did such a godlike person really exist in this world?

He looked up at Robin's tall figure in the sunlight, then lowered his head in shame.

Ignacio's cheeks were twitching violently.

He took a deep breath and walked up to Robin.

The passionate shooting range quieted down once again.

"Mr. Bruce, you won!"

Robin flicked his eyelids, "This was the inevitable outcome."

Ignacio gave a dry laugh, "Alright. There's one thing I don't understand, why did you remove the long-range scope?"

"Without a scope, could you see a target at 7500 meters?"

"How did you complete the process of aiming and shooting?"

At that moment, Randall and Arturo were both expressionless, holding their breaths, waiting for Robin's answer.

Robin picked up the towel and wiped his hands, "A top-notch sniper doesn't use his eyes to target, but his heart!"

As soon as these words were spoken, Ignacio's body shuddered violently.

Excitement was even more radiant in Randall's eyes.

Such actions, such expressions, including this sentence, were too much like that person!

Robin put down the towel and looked towards the front of the shooting range.

"A sniper, if he cannot develop his sixth sense in training, and merely relies on his eyes to identify the target, he will never become the top-notch sniper!"

"Even achieving the standard of precise sniping at 3000 meters could only be considered as excellent."

As soon as these words were spoken, a wild joy burst forth from Randall's eyes.

He was certain, all the previous speculations might have been correct!

Perhaps Robin was the person he had been searching for twenty years!

Ignacio just stood there, completely stunned.

Chapter 4.17 Your Lost

This scene was just like that day 22 years ago.

That day, just like today, was sunny and breezy, with the same brilliant dusk, and it was also at this heroic target field where the miracle of Londraland was created!

The military legend whom he revered had told him the same!

Shamefully, for all these years, I had been unable to overcome the obstacle of relying on my eyes to locate targets, limiting myself to a range of only three kilometers.

At that moment, there was a suffocating silence in the shooting range.

Rhonda stepped forward, breaking the silence, "General Vargas, you lost! What else is there to argue about?"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone in the shooting range tensely turned their gaze towards Ignacio.

Randall paused abruptly, shaking his head with a smile.

This girl had low emotional intelligence!

How could one reveal it once they've seen through it!

How could Ignacio save his face?

Ignacio looked at Rhonda with a gloomy face, "Which unit were you transferred from?"

"Reporting to General Vargas, I am from the Criminal Investigation Division of LSA, I fought my way into WSF with my bare fists!" Rhonda saluted.

08:41

“What kind of talent could possibly come from that damn place? Get back to where you came from.....”

Before Ignacio could finish his sentence, Arturo hastily whispered, “General Vargas, she is the daughter of Chief Chavez of the Londraland Security Agency.”

Ignacio immediately swallowed his next words, looking at Rhonda: “Go back, how could that be possible?!”

“Remember this,” I told you, “Train hard at WSF. If you can’t pass the assessment, you... you just wait!”

At this point, he paused, glaring at Rhonda, “I lost! I should get lost!”

No sooner had the words been spoken than two off-road combat vehicles sped to the scene.

Four captains jumped out of the car and quickly ran towards Rafael.

“Report, Mr. Harvey, Colonel Finley, the deputy commander of the Warwolf Special Forces, along with ten members of the Warwolf Special Forces, were taken hostage by a group of unidentified foreign top assassins at Witcord Peak of Mount Ammo.”

“Two members of the Warwolf Special Forces have already fallen, requesting support!”

“The Dragon Soul and Leopard Special Forces, who were training nearby, were urgently assembling at Witcord Peak on Mount Ammo!”

Chapter 438 Kill a Hostage in Ten Minutes!

Ignacio received the emergency rescue order from the command center.

It was learned that the six dangerous individuals who entered the Hashville State border at Mount Ammo were aiming to find an ancient magic weapon.

Rumors from the dark world suggested that this kind of ancient magic weapon, extinct for many years, had recently appeared in the vicinity of Hashville State.

This ancient magic weapon was related to the Warwolf Special Forces of the Londraland military command.

Nia received the order at noon, and then proceeded to Witcord Peak with ten special forces elites from WSF to carry out the arrest mission.

The intelligence department of the military command transmitted information about six people.

These six dangerous individuals who entered the country were all top assassins with over ten and twenty years of mercenary experience.

The individual combat ability of each person was among the world's top-notch.

His combat power far surpassed the elite squad of ten led by Nia.

Nia and others tracked down to this primeval forest at Witcord Peak.

Encountered these ten dangerous individuals and engaged in intense jungle warfare with them.

Due to the previous misjudgment of the strength of the six dangerous individuals entering the country, Nia and others failed to capture them and were instead detained.

Up until now, two special forces members had been killed.

At that time, the Dragon Soul Special Forces and Leopard Special Forces, who were undergoing field jungle training near Witcord Peak of Mount Ammo, immediately participated in the rescue.

However, six dangerous individuals had taken Nia and others hostage, and the situation on the scene was extremely complicated. They did not dare to act rashly for the time being.

Upon learning the situation, Ignacio immediately said, "Mr. Harvey, select ten elite fighters to carry out this emergency rescue mission right away!"

Timothy stepped forward and said, "Reporting to the General, I want to participate!"

"I wanted to participate!"

"I wanted to participate!"

For a moment, dozens of special forces members on the target range were emotionally charged, shouting their desire to participate in the execution of this rescue mission.

Rafael hesitated, “General Vargas, are ten people enough?”.

“These six dangerous individuals who entered the country, were all the world’s top assassins, and their equipment was also the most advanced?”

“Ten people are enough!” Ignacio said in a deep voice.

Then, after exchanging glances with Arturo and Randall, they nodded in agreement, “Mr. Harvey, this operation is commanded by Mr. Bruce!”

Rafael was taken aback, “Mr. Bruce? He just joined WSF...”

“Who currently holds the highest military rank in WSF?” Ignacio asked coldly.

“Report to the General, it’s Mr. Bruce!” Rafael answered reluctantly.

“Since he held the highest military rank and was the newly appointed chief drillmaster, the mission was commanded by him!”

Ignacio looked seriously at Robin, “Mr. Bruce, please give your orders!”

Robin glanced at the time, pointing at the four people including Grady, “You four go for the internship, but do not participate in the execution of the task!”

“Huh? Not participating in the mission?” Grady and the others were completely baffled.

“Timothy!”

“Check!” Timothy froze instantly, he didn’t expect Robin to actually put his king in check.

He thought Robin would hold a grudge and wouldn’t take him there.

“What, didn’t you want to go?”

Timothy immediately saluted, “Reporting to the chief drillmaster, I am willing!”.

“Rafael, stay at Mount Ammo Training Base!”

“What?” Rafael was anxious, “Why can’t I participate?”

Robin said coldly, “There’s no reason!”

“I’m going too!” Rhonda stepped forward.

Ignacio said coldly, “This mission is very dangerous, you, a newcomer, are not yet qualified to participate in the execution of this mission!”

“No!” Rhonda shouted loudly.

“The situation on the ground was complex and ever-changing. Colonel Finley was being held hostage, I am a woman, I might be useful if I go.”

Randall nodded, “Alright, General Vargas, take her with you.”

Ignacio’s face darkened, “Remember this, you must absolutely obey orders during the mission. If you dare to mess around, I’ll kill you!”

“Yes! Absolute obedience to the command!” Rhonda exclaimed excitedly.

Three minutes later, the rescue team of Warwolf Special Forces had assembled, and two helicopters were roaring towards Witcord Peak.

A stretch of primitive mountain forest at the mouth of Mount Ammo’s peculiar peak.

Thirty special forces members from Dragon Soul and Leopard Special Forces were hiding behind a shelter, confronting six assassins in the jungle.

Nia and the remaining eight members of the Warwolf Special Forces were tied to trees.

A masked assassin held a gun to the head of a special forces member, shouting in not-so-fluent Londralish.

“Call in a helicopter quickly, otherwise, one will be killed every ten minutes!”

Before the person from Dragon Soul could respond.

A gunshot rang out, the assassin directly killed a member of the Warwolf Special Forces as a warning!

“Immediately cease the shooting of hostages, we can agree to your demands! Headquarters is dispatching a helicopter, it will arrive within ten minutes!”

The assassin glanced at the time, “Withdraw all snipers immediately, otherwise, the moment your guns fire, the bombs on us will detonate simultaneously, and all the hostages will be done for!”

“Bang!” Another gunshot sounded.

Chapter 438 Kill a Hostage in Ten Minutes!

A member of the Warwolf Special Forces was shot in the head.

With tears streaming down her face, Nia cried out, “Dragon Soul, comrades of LSF, do as they say immediately!”

He turned to the six assassins, furiously saying, “Stop killing people! We will agree to your demands!”

Six top-notch assassins sized up Nia’s curvaceous figure, exchanged a glance, and burst into hearty laughter.

“The female colonel of the Londraland Special Forces! Hahaha...”

“Take off your clothes one by one, I wanted to record this video.”

“If you couldn’t fulfill your promise, we would upload these videos to the internet, letting everyone see the elegance of Londraland’s female principal, hahaha...”

Chapter 439 I’ll Do It!

Nia gritted her teeth and said, “You beasts! Even if you kill me, I won’t do as you wish!”

“Really?” The assassin in black sneered.

He pressed the gun barrel against the head of a Warwolf Special Forces member, “Dare you repeat what you said earlier?”

The corner of Nia’s mouth twitched, wishing she could immediately tear this black-clad assassin to pieces!

“You could choose not to follow my words, however, I would blow his brains out with a single shot. You had five seconds to decide.”

Nia looked at her comrade who was being held at gunpoint, she shook her head bitterly, “You... let him go!”

The six members of the Warwolf Special Forces roared in unison, "Colonel Finley, don't!"

"You bunch of beasts, I will go down with you!"

"Comrades of Dragon Soul and LSF outside, fire! Fire and kill these beasts!"

With a muffled "bang", the assassin in black pulled the trigger.

The bullet exploded the special forces soldier's car, instantly turning it into a bloody mess.

you keep shouting, it won't be his cars I'll burst, but his head!"

"Let him go!" Nin bit through her lip, screaming, "I... surrender!"

The remaining five special forces members stared in shock at the unbearable scene before them.

Tears of humiliation remained in the eyes!

"No, don't! Colonel Finley, I'm not afraid to die!" The special forces member who had been shot through the car cried out in pain.

Five special forces members also roared. "Beasts, if you dare, shoot us all!"

Six people in black burst into laughter. "Want to die, do you? Fine, we'll grant your wish!"

Saying so. they pressed the gun barrel against their heads.

Nia shouted loudly. "Stop it. you guys!"

"I told you. Londraland is not a place for you to run wild!"

"If you dare to shoot and kill again, your comrades outside will surely riddle you with bullets!"

The masked man leading the group raised his gun high, laughing heartily. "I've roamed the four seas for many years, killed countless people. Even if I kill you all and don't take any hostages, I can still get out alive!"

"Take it off? Otherwise, they were shot in the head one by one!"

He pointed to a man beside him, "Get your phone ready, record her undressing video!"

Then, he pointed the gun at the special forces soldier's head again, coldly looking at Nia, "Take it off or not?!"

The special forces soldier, with a gun pointed at his head, along with his five comrades, shouted, "Colonel Finley, ignore him, we'll die together if we have to! Our comrades will surely avenge us!"

The assassin in black burst into laughter, making a gesture of pulling the trigger, "Good, not afraid of death! I'll send him off first!"

"Stop!" Nia's eyes were full of tears. "I... I surrender!"

A black-clad assassin untied the rope on Nia: "Alright, don't have any thoughts of resistance. otherwise, your comrade will be shot in the head immediately!"

Nia gritted her teeth and said. "You will pay for your actions today!"

The assassin in black sneered. "Heh, we people risk our lives when we step out. never thinking about returning alive. Winning the gamble is a bonus, dying doesn't matter!"

"Colonel Finley, don't mind him!" several comrades shouted.

Tears streaming down her face. Nia shook her head. "Stop talking, just stay alive. You must kill these sons of bitches!"

The assassin in black burst into laughter. "Hurry up!"

Nia gritted her teeth, slowly unbuttoning her military jacket.

After taking it off, all the military ranks and numbers on the uniform were removed.

There was only one clean white shirt left on him.

A black-clad assassin circled around Nia, capturing all the footage, "Keep undressing!"

The six special forces members gritted their teeth so hard they were almost shattered, "Colonel Finley, we can't! Even if we die, we can't let you suffer this humiliation!"

The black-clad assassin, pointing a gun at the head of a Warwolf Special the head of a Warwolf Special Forces member, said coldly. "Keep undressing!"

Nia cried out bitterly. "Let him go. I... I'll undress!"

His eyes were fixed on the black-clad assassin who was filming with his phone, pinpointing the detonation location of the bomb on him.

She had decided to wait until the moment the headquarters sent a plane to rescue the hostages, she was going to die with this man.

Even in death, she would never allow such footage to reach the world. bringing shame upon the soldiers of Londraland because of her!

She slowly unbuttoned her blouse.

In the faint light of the twilight forest, her fair and smooth skin was revealed.

“Colonel Finley, don’t go on any further! We are ready to die together if need be!”

Six special forces members roared in anger, struggling desperately to break free from the ropes, wanting to kill these beasts.

The assassin in black looked at the snow–white skin on Nia’s neck, a lascivious gleam bursting in his eyes.

“The female colonel of Londraland, as long as your military department agrees to our promise. and ensures our safe departure from the country, we will guarantee that your privacy will not be leaked. However, I will stay behind to enjoy it slowly by myself. hahaha...”

Nia said coldly, “Rest assured, someone will gouge out your eyes!”

“Haha, then I’ll be waiting!” The assassin in black sneered. “Keep stripping! Otherwise. your comrades will die one by one because of you, hurry up!”

Nia had already unbuttoned two buttons.

She hesitated for a moment. then continued to open the third one. revealing the lingerie inside.

The six special forces members shook their heads in humiliation, “Colonel Finley. we don’t care if we die. just don’t continue this anymore!”

Members of the Dragon Soul and Leopard Special Forces on the outskirts saw this scene in the jungle through their binoculars. Several snipers shouted, “Captain, give the order, let us snipe these beasts!”

However, neither the team leader of Dragon Soul nor LSF dared to issue this order.

These six dangerous individuals were all desperate extremists

As long as the sniper started supying

Not a single special forces member of the WSF could survive!

Two helicopters, roaring from Mount Ammo Training Base, landed on the outskirts of the jungle at Witcord Peak.

In the thunderous roar of the helicopter’s propeller bursting, ten members of the Warwolf Special Forces followed Robin out of the helicopter.

Ignacio, Randall, Arturo, and others also emerged from another helicopter.

They quickly climbed into the off–road vehicle and arrived at the outskirts of the forest.

The battalion commander of Dragon Soul Special Forces, Christopher Schneider, and the battalion commander of Leopard Special Forces, Bryan Parks, ran up to Generals Ignacio, Arturo, and Randall.

“Report to General Vargas, six dangerous elements have already gunned down two members of the Warwolf Special Forces!”

“They were all equipped with powerful bombs, we couldn’t recklessly attack.”

Bryan replied, “These six dangerous individuals threatened Colonel Finley to undress and planned to film her, intending to use this as a means to blackmail our side into ensuring their safe departure.”

“These beasts! Where are your snipers? Why aren’t they taking them out?!” Arturo barked angrily.

“They all had bombs on them, just in case...” Christopher replied immediately.

Ignacio furrowed his brows, looking at Robin, “General Bruce, how did you handle this matter?”

“If they had waited for the military headquarters to dispatch planes, Nia would have faced great humiliation.”

“If this video were to be spread. not only she herself, but also the Londraland military would be disgraced!”

Rhonda exclaimed angrily, “Damn it!”

“Stand still!” Ignacio sternly reprimanded. “What are you doing. looking for death?”

Timothy also exclaimed angrily, “General Vargas, let’s charge in and take out these bastards!”

“Charge in and perish together with them?” Robin glanced at the forest. “Rather than this, we should have acted earlier!”

“What should we do?” Bryan glanced at Robin, who was somewhat unfamiliar to him and was not in uniform, unsure of his identity.

"Im going in!" Robin looked at Ignacio.

"Were you alone?"

Robin pointed at Grady and the others, "Grady, each of you four pick up.

a telescope and watch the battle from the side!"

"Yes!" the four Gradys replied in disappointment.

Rhonda stepped forward, "Mr. Bruce, take me in with you!"

Ignacio hadn't spoken yet.

Robin nodded, "Follow behind me. don't mess around, got it?"

"Yes!" Rhonda immediately exclaimed excitedly.

Robin tore off a piece of tablecloth from the temporary command post and turned to walk towards the forest.

Timothy took a step closer: "Mr. Bruce, could... could you go in alone. please?"

Robin said coldly, "Stand here and watch!"

"Yes!" Timothy stopped in confusion.

Ignacio, Randall, and Arturo had someone bring a telescope and looked deep into the forest.

Robin and Rhonda walked step by step into the forest.

The assassin in black immediately pointed his gun at them, "Stop! Take one more step forward, and I'll kill you right there!"

Rhonda was trembling all over with fear.

At that moment, she clearly felt the bone-chilling murderous aura emanating from the six black-clad assassins.

Six dangerous elements, who killed without shedding blood, lived on the edge of the knife for years, killing countless people.

Even if these people did nothing, one could still smell a terrifying scent of blood from them.

Robin shrugged his shoulders, saying indifferently. "Everyone who dared to speak to me like that in this world is already dead!"

Before the assassin in black could pull the trigger. a residual image flashed by, and six silver needles were shot out.

Six extremely dangerous individuals were instantly frozen in place, their world had already come to a standstill.

Robin draped the tablecloth over Nia.

Nia, left with nothing but her underwear, threw herself into Robin's arms and began to cry like a child, full of grievance.

This was the first time that all the comrades from the special warfare brigades had seen the strong and aloof Colonel Finley cry so vulnerably.

At that moment, she was trembling all over. tears gushing out.

At that moment, Nia held Robin tightly, a sense of security she had never felt before filled her entirely.

Robin patted her shoulder, "Alright, whoever threatened you into doing this, I'll make them wish they were dead!"

Afterwards, he pointed at Rhonda, "Go untie their ropes."

Six black-clad assassins stood still as puppets on the spot.

They were like in an illusion, not knowing how Robin had come before. them.

Wiping away her tears like a wounded child, Nia pointed at the leader of the dangerous group and said to Robin, "I told you I would gouge out his eyes!"

Robin nodded, a cold glint flashed, and two eyeballs were gruesomely gouged out.

A piercing howl echoed through the jungle, "Ah! The devil!"

Robin pushed Nia towards Rhonda, stomping on the thigh of the assassin.

With a “crack“, the sound of a bone breaking erupted, the man at the front screamed in agony, “Just kill me!”

Robin flicked his eyelids, “Aren’t you outlaws? You’re not afraid of death, so what are you afraid of, a fate worse than death?”

At that moment, the members of Dragon Soul and Leopard Special Forces from the periphery rushed to their side.

“Take them all back!” Christopher ordered.

A dozen or so special forces members immediately stepped forward, intending to apprehend the six dangerous individuals and lead them out of the forest.

“Let them go!” Robin said coldly, “Did I allow you to take them away?”

Christopher said coldly. “They are prisoners, they must be treated humanely, you can’t be so cruel!”

“Did they show you any humanity when they killed your comrades?” Robin sneered, crushing the neck of the leading black-clad assassin with his foot.

“This world has always been one where blood debts must be repaid with blood!”

“Be humane!”
