Chapter 451 She Wants to Ruin My Reputation

Ted was curled up in the corner, shivering.

He covered his highly swollen cheek, his eyes blazing with towering rage.

Just at that moment, all of his teeth had been knocked out, and he was in too much pain to speak.

Rebecca had already sensed that something was wrong.

She had truly experienced what kind of person Robin was.

Mr. Lambert could have directly ruined the heir of the Poison Sect, even when he was about to kneel before him..

How terrifying such a man was.

She originally thought that after betting on Crystal being destroyed, she wouldn't dare to talk about tonight's events.

Unexpectedly, such a coincidence was witnessed by Robin!

She glanced at the indifferent Robin, then at the expressionless Timothy and others waiting in front of the door.

After hesitating for a good while, he said tremblingly, "Robin, have you misunderstood? Mr. Tran... Mr. Tran is here to do business with Ms. Thompson."

Robin ignored her, continuing to massage Crystal's vital body parts.

As Robin gradually cleared the way, Crystal's consciousness slowly returned.

"Robin, if you don't want to hear my explanation now, I'll leave first."

"Wait until Crystal wakes up, calm yourself down a bit, then we can talk..."

"Didn't you understand what I said?!" Robin snorted coldly.

Rebecca shivered suddenly. "I... Robin, what are you doing? I'm Crystal's best friend, aren't you afraid that Crystal will be angry when she wakes up?"

Crystal had regained consciousness, but her limbs were still weak and paralyzed.

She suddenly opened her eyes, gritting her teeth and said, "Robin, she is a wicked woman! She is not human!"

"She and that old thing wanted to ruin me!"

"If you had come one step later, I really wouldn't have had the face to see you again."

Robin slowly lifted his eyes, looking at Rebecca.

Rebecca shivered at the icy look in Robin's eyes and forced a laugh, "Crystal, Ms. Thompson, you've had too much to drink, I... how could I possibly harm you?"

"We were classmates for four years, and have been best friends for many years. You've helped me so much, how could I ever harm you?"

Also, that Mr. Tran, he was an outstanding entrepreneur in the province, a highly educated intellectual.

"His wife was also a university professor, and their family had many high-level connections in the province and at the top echelons."

"How could entrepreneurs of such cultivation and high social status, who are also advanced intellectuals, do the kind of thing you're thinking of?"

"Crystal, calm down. I really didn't harm you."

"Previously, I heard you say that you wanted to develop your mother's former medical equipment business, so that's why I went through all the trouble to contact Mr. Tran."

"Crystal, I've been so good to you, how could I ever think of ruining you?!"

"Don't speak like that, okay! I've worked diligently for you. doing so much, trying to promote the Thompson family's medical equipment. throughout Estya via Mr. Tran's sales network. Crystal, you can't just say anything, otherwise, I would feel really wronged."

"You just need to remember, we are best girlfriends, best classmates, I would harm anyone but you. Moreover, you saved me and gave me so much."

“Heh!” Crystal sneered, “Rebecca, you’ve let down the words ‘best friend’, and you’ve also let down the words ‘good classmate’!”

“I really regret now, during your most difficult times, Robin and I gave you a lifeline, even allowing you to maintain your previous standard of living.”

“I never wronged you! I never treated you as a subordinate!”

“I always left you with enough dignity, but what did you do to me?!”

“You actually wanted to harm me, to let this old thing ruin me!”

“I didn’t know, how on earth do people like you think?”

“I was kind to you, I was good to you, was that wrong?”

“I treated you as my best friend, my good classmate, and in return, you want to ruin my life?”

“Rebecca, you ruthless woman, you truly showed me what it means to repay kindness with ingratitude.”

“I could give you money if you didn’t have any, I could even give you some shares if you wanted. Even if you wanted more, I could give it to you.”

“I didn’t care about any of these!”

“All I needed was your utmost honesty towards me!”

“I lost my mother when I was young, and later, I also lost my loving brother and sister-in-law.”

“I yearned that I could treat every friend I met with sincerity.”

tina kindness yet you dared to harm me for your own financial gain!”

“Are you even human! Rebecca, I will never forgive you!”

Robin slowly lifted his eyes, looking at the cold-sweating Rebecca, “You wicked woman deserve to die!”

“Crystal gave you so much, yet you treated her like this! You’re a beast!”

Robin pulled out a wet wipe and cleaned his hands, step by step he approached Rebecca: "I just don't know what kind of garbage is in the heart of people like you!"

"Robin, let me explain, it's not like what she said!" Rebecca had already felt a fear akin to death, subconsciously retreating backwards.

Robin suddenly grabbed Rebecca's hair and slammed her against the wall.

"With a 'bang!' and a horrific scream, Rebecca collapsed onto the ground, her face covered in blood."

Ted, trembling all over at such ruthless methods, stammered, "You...you brute! You can't do this..."

Robin glanced at Ted, huddled on the ground, "Thug? For someone like you, it's not called a thug, understand?"

"You...you stay away!" Ted pointed at Robin, trembling as he pulled out his phone, "I...I'm not your average businessman..."

"I told you, my younger brother is the boss of this hotel, he...he is in the underworld!"

"He had hundreds of brothers in Mapleford!"

"Is your brother that impressive? Is he a gangster? He almost scared me!" Robin stomped on Ted's leg.

"With a crisp 'snap!', the sound of breaking bones and a wretched scream echoed through the room."

"Old beast, I gave you time to call for help!"

"The person you called today. if they can't handle me, then you're dead!"

"Make a call!"

Chapter 452 How Did My Brother Offend You?

At that moment, Ted wished he could kill Robin and immediately dialed his brother Mack Tran's number.

At that moment, Mack was in the luxurious suite at the top floor of the tavern, drinking and boasting with Clay Sims, the head of the Sims family.

After answering Ted's call, his face suddenly turned cold, "Mr. Sims, I have to deal with something on the fourth floor, you just keep drinking."

Clay casually asked, "What's wrong. Mack? What happened?"

Mack

said coldly, "My brother was beaten up in my hotel by a guy named Robin from Hallcester! Damn it, he's asking for trouble!"

Having said that, he quickly led a dozen bodyguards to the fourth floor.

It took Clay a while to react.

Robin of Hallcester?

Oh my goodness, how could that plague spirit have come here?

Did you also hit that old pervert Ted?

He had intended to stop Mack, but the man had already left the room early.

Mack brought people to the front of door 403.

Seeing Grady

and a few others guarding the door, he shouted coldly, "Who are you people, daring to cause trouble here, hit them!"

With a loud roar, Mack ordered a dozen bodyguards to step forward and take action.

Grady and Timothy looked at Robin.

Robin said coldly, "Never go easy on the evil forces of the gang, fight them with all you've got!"

"Yes!" Upon receiving Robin's words, Grady and the others launched a barrage of attacks!

Although the other side had more people, Grady and his team were all experts who had been professionally trained to kill for many years.

In less than two minutes, all the dozen or so hotel bodyguards were knocked down.

Grady and his team didn't hold back at all, every move was bloody, every punch broke bones!

Upon seeing Grady and his men act so ruthlessly, Mack was instantly shocked.

It was only at this moment that it became clear, these people were all radiating a bloody murderous aura.

Met a real expert today!

He looked gloomily at Robin in the room and Ted lying on the ground.

Forcefully suppressed a surge of anger in the chest.

The skills of Grady and his team made him somewhat apprehensive.

After all, having often traveled in the world, he knew there were some people he couldn't afford to offend.

Before making a big move, it was necessary to first figure out the opponent's strength.

Mack looked at Robin and asked, "May I ask, brother, how did my brother offend you?"

Before Robin could speak, Ted cried out, "Mack, I was doing business with Crystal and Rebecca from the Thompson Group tonight, and they came over and started beating me up!"

Mack said coldly. "Brother, you're being unreasonable. You can't just hit people for no reason, can you?"

Robin gave Ted a cold smile. "So, you dare to think but not to act, huh!"

Having said that, he stomped on Ted's other leg.

A horrific scream echoed, as both of Ted's leg bones were completely crushed by a single stomp from Robin.

Mack's facial muscles twitched violently, "You little punk, you're too arrogant! Stirring up trouble on my turf, aren't you afraid you won't be able to get out of here?"

"Did you find out who Mack from the Tran family in Mapleford was?"

Robin raised an eyebrow, "Oh, you mean you're someone important? Trying to intimidate me, playing dirty?"

Mack sneered, "Cruel? You should have asked around. Causing trouble on my turf, Mack's turf, is a death sentence!"

Robin shook his head, "Alright, if you want to play, then play!"

Mack was taken aback, coldly sizing up Robin.

"Kid, since you want to die, I'll grant your wish!"

“I could stomp my foot in Mapleford and the earth would shake!”

“Really? Well, go ahead then.” Robin shrugged, sneering slightly

At that moment, Clay, who arrived shortly after, saw Robin in the room. from a distance and was taken aback.

He quickly retreated to the back of the crowd and dialed Mack’s cell phone: “Mack, it’s best not to mess with that person inside easily.”

Mack sneered, “What does that mean?”

Clay whispered, “Mack, do you know how the Goodman family and the Elliott family were wiped out?”

Mack was taken aback for a moment.

Clay continued, “The one who wiped out the Goodman family and the Elliott family was that guy named Robin.”

Mack was taken aback for a moment, then he scoffed coldly, “Damn it, I don’t believe he can do anything in Mapleford, my territory!”

“I had hundreds of brothers in the province, and my sister-in-law’s family in Mapleford was powerful, even having connections at the highest level.”

“Today, I really wanted to see just how capable this kid was!”

“Isn’t he just a few people? At worst, I’ll annihilate him!”

When Clay saw that Mack was determined to fight with Robin, he no longer wanted to dissuade him.

Fine, you two families fight, I’ll just enjoy the show!

If you could have killed Robin. consider it as avenging me.

If they couldn’t be killed. then the Tran family was out of luck!

Clay quietly retreated into the crowd.

After hanging up the phone. Mack immediately ordered his men to gather all the brothers and assemble at Hashville Hotel.

Meanwhile, Ted in the room. worried that he couldn't settle things today, couldn't care less, gritted his teeth and called his wife Alice.

If Mack couldn't handle it, they would resort to official means to arrest Robin and others!

Chapter 453 You'll Be Arrested

The phone call from the brothers Ted and Mack had been made.

The underlings of Mack in Mapleford, armed with knives, guns, and clubs, quickly gathered from all directions towards Hashville Hotel.

Meanwhile, Ted's wife, Alice Howell, was at a nearby beauty salon having a skin care treatment with a few of her sisters.

After receiving a call from Ted. Alice was greatly surprised.

The Tran family and the Howell family had such great influence and extensive connections in Mapleford.

Ted actually got beaten up at his brother's hotel?!

Moreover, his leg was broken by the other party!

She was instantly infuriated!

"Prof. Howell. what's wrong?" Marlene Jimenez, the woman with Alice. asked as she saw her about to leave.

Marlene was the wife of the deputy director of the provincial police department.

"My husband was beaten up in the hotel!" Alice said while sorting out the clothes.

"Oh, right, Marlene, you come with me. Later, you call your Hugo and.

if necessary, have him use some police force to arrest those thugs!"

Alice shoved a card into Marlene's hand, "This is a promotional event from one of our family member Ted's finance clients. There's a million in the card, you can use it for now."

Marlene pretended to push a few times, then put it away, "Alright, I'll take it first."

"Ah, Alice, what villain dared to cause trouble and hit people in broad daylight?"

“I immediately called my home’s Hugo, this kind of villain must be severely punished!”

“Let’s go, we went to take a look first!”

Alice and Marlene quickly drove to the Hashville Hotel.

A portion of Mack’s underlings had already arrived at the front of the hotel.

Alice looked at their postures, frowned and said. “All of you wait here for me!”

From her perspective, it was best to handle it through police intervention, in a seemingly legal manner.

First, they were arrested, then they were taken to jail to be dealt with slowly.

Alice and Marlene quickly arrived at room 403

Seeing the horrific scene in the room, Alice was immediately shocked. This is property

Ted was sitting on the ground, covered in blood, wailing in pain.

“Ted, what happened, who did this?!”

Ted pointed at Robin and gritted his teeth, “It’s him! Call the police and have them all arrested and shot!”

Alice glared at Robin and harshly said, “You... you are simply lawless!”

“In broad daylight, they actually dared to seriously injure an outstanding entrepreneur from the province!”

“I would definitely make you face the sanctions of the law!”

Marlene also shook her head, “Oh dear, these ignorant lower-class people, they have no legal awareness at all! This kind of serious injury to others is subject to severe punishment!”

“Just wait, I just called my husband, who is the deputy director of the provincial police department. The police will be here soon.”

“You all just wait to go to jail!”

At that time, some of the hotel’s customers also came over to watch.

Many people recognized Alice, Marlene, and others, sparking a wave of low murmurs.

“These out-of-towners were in for some serious trouble today!”

“That was Mr. Tran from Tran Pharmaceuticals who got hit!”

“This hotel was opened by his younger brother, Mr. Mack.”

“Mr. Mack was synonymous with the devil around Mapleford. If you messed with him, you were likely in for trouble.”

“Hey, hey, hey, Mr. Tran’s wife was a university professor, and the woman with her was the wife of Mr. Lowe from the police station.”

“These lads really hit a streak of bad luck today.”

“Sent to prison, it wouldn’t take long before they were killed inside.”

Chapter 454 You Are a Beast!

The number of onlookers outside Room 403 was increasing.

Hearing their discussions, Alice became even more spirited.

“This matter isn’t over today! If I can’t send each and every one of you to jail, it would be a blasphemy against the law!”

Crystal had regained consciousness, she wiped her tears and stood up, saying, “You... you are his wife? As a university professor, don’t you just come in and accuse others without knowing the whole story?”

“Didn’t you ask that old beast of yours what he actually did?”

“Do you think that the old beast from your family coming out to commit atrocities, doing such inhuman things, is not a desecration of the law?”

Before Alice could speak, Marlene immediately scolded, “How dare you insult Mr. Tran by calling him an old beast? He is an outstanding entrepreneur in the province!”

Having said that, he raised his hand and struck Crystal’s face.

Robin abruptly grabbed her wrist, warning indifferently, “Be careful, or you’ll break your wrist!”

Marlene was instantly frightened by the ferocity emanating from Robin: “You...you all... you are nothing but a bunch of villains!”

Crystal gritted her teeth and continued, "That old beast of your family.

colluded with Rebecca behind my back. They tricked me into going to the Hashville Hotel, claiming they wanted to discuss business with me. He shamelessly drugged my drink ."

"If it weren't... If it weren't for my friend Robin arriving in time, do you know what damn thing your old beast would have done?"

The onlooking customers suddenly understood what was going on.

"Damn it, the excellent entrepreneur actually did such a damn thing. really damn it!"

"Yesterday, it seemed like he was still giving a lecture on 'Character is Wealth' at the university!"

"Damn, this character. he's worthy! I will never believe these bastards' nonsense again!"

"Ah, lower your voice, let's see what the wife of that university professor has to say!"

***

Alice glared at Ted fiercely, "I'll settle the score with you when we get home!"

Then, slowly turning to Crystal. "You are Crystal, Ms. Thompson of the Thompson Group?"

"She was very young and beautiful."

"You came out to do business, wanting to use the Tran family's sales channels to sell your medical equipment. Did you think it would be that easy to obtain?"

"What's the big deal about sacrificing a bit of your physical effort to secure a contract? It's not like I'm eating you!"

Marlene scoffed, "A businesswoman caring about this? Ha, pretending to be so virtuous!"

"This was your boyfriend, right?"

"I understood, you were just pretending to be innocent because you were afraid of looking bad in front of your boyfriend!"

“Actually, for a woman like you who does business, who knows how many men you’ve slept with behind the scenes. Otherwise, how could you have built such a big business?”

“You are shameless!” Crystal trembled with anger.

Alice snorted, “Bitch! I’m telling you, it’s a compliment that my Ted wanted to sleep with you! What’s with your fake decency?”

“Just came out to do some business and have some fun, what else could happen?”

“I knew it, you were just trying to extort more benefits from the Tran family!”

“The Tran family and the Howell family were very influential in Mapleford. Ted wanted to play with women, what kind of women hadn’t he had? Don’t be so full of yourself!”

Crystal was so upset that she couldn’t speak.

She hadn’t thought about how this woman had actually obtained her status as a university professor!

“You beat my husband to this state, wait for jail!”

“Sit your mom’s head!”

“Did you own the prison?”

With a loud “slap“, “You old sow, utterly shameless!”

Alice was taken aback, she hadn’t expected Robin to actually hit her: “You dare to hit me?”

“How about I hit you?” Robin said with a cold smile.

“You, a piece of trash, are worthy of being a professor? You’re nothing but a beast!”

Chapter 455 Kill These Bastards!

Robin’s move surprised all the onlookers.

“This young man was truly a fearless novice!”

“Alice’s maiden family was one of the top ten families in Hashville, the Howell Group.”

“The Howell family had been operating in Hashville for many years, their connections were extensive, they had friends in the provincial government and the upper echelons of Draccastle.”

“The Tran family had been catching up these past few years, already showing a trend of surpassing the Howell family.”

“Such family background and heritage were not something that ordinary people could provoke.”

“Despite the Tran family and the Howell family both presenting themselves as sophisticated intellectuals on the surface.”

“But once their interests were infringed upon, they were ruthless in dealing with people.”

“This young man probably didn’t realize the severity of the situation, sigh, he really got himself into big trouble today.”

A young girl, listening to the surrounding chatter, indignantly said, “Shouldn’t her husband be beaten for drugging someone?”

“Since that Alice was a university professor, she should have been reasonable and should not have been unreasonable.”

A middle-aged man shook his head and said, “Young lady, you are still young and cannot yet see the true nature of society.”

“A person’s cultivation and stature are not entirely distinguished by his external identity and status.”

“This was a material world, determined by relationships of interest. For the weak, there was no reason to be spoken in the face of all right and wrong.”

“Only those with power had the right to judge right from wrong.”

The girl retorted defiantly. “I refuse to believe that there is no pure land left in this world beyond self-interest!”

A few middle-aged people saw the girl stubbornly believing in her own ideas, and shook their heads with a smile.

One of them pointed at Marlene and whispered, "Miss, do you see that woman? She is the wife of the deputy director of the provincial police department."

"She was Prof.

Howell's good friend, her best girlfriend, do you think she should have said such things?"

"Take another look at that Mr. Mack, the big boss of our Mapleford's grey area. Think about all the shady things he's done. From your perspective, these people would never walk together."

The girl firmly said, "Despite some excessive actions, Mrs. Deputy Tai kon kill these Bastarde!

Director and Prof Howell would never associate with people from the underworld."

Before the girl could finish her words, an infuriated Alice roared, "Kid, you've got guts!"

Then he turned to Mack, "Mack, this reckless kid, I leave him to you!"

"And another thing!" She pointed angrily at Crystal, "Tonight, this woman is yours, you and your little brothers can take turns with her!"

"I'd like to see if you dare to pretend to be innocent again in the future!"

The girl in the crowd of onlookers suddenly covered her mouth, almost screaming out.

"She was a highly educated intellectual, how... how could she utter such malicious words?"

Robin gave a cold laugh, grabbed Alice's hair and slapped her.

"Ah! You dare to hit me. Mack, kill him!" Alice screamed like a madwoman.

"Slap! Slap! Slap!" A series of crisp slapping sounds echoed, and the fourth floor of the tavern fell into silence!

No one had expected Robin to be so fierce.

Alice dared not make any sound anymore.

Marlene retreated in fear.

Mack was also stunned, taking a while to react.

He never imagined that Robin would dare to be so presumptuous, knowing their background!

Alice was terrified for a while before she came to her senses, “Marlene, call Mr. Lowe quickly... Mack, kill this...”

Speaking up to this point, she looked up and saw Robin, who was wiping his palms with a wet towel. She immediately shut her mouth.

At that moment, Clay, hiding behind the crowd, was scared and breaking out in a cold sweat.

Looking at Robin’s indifferent expression under the shadow of the lamp, he suddenly shuddered!

The scene at the Finley family’s banquet had already left an indelible impression on Robin.

Was able to become a guest of honor for the Finley family, the richest family in Hashville.

Was able to single-handedly wipe out the Elliott family, the Reynell family.

The person who could instantly transfer 200 billion capital of Hondry Sect from the Reynell family to the Huber family like magic was truly terrifying.

How could I have dared to imagine before, that the Tran family and the Howell family could take down such an awesome character like Robin!

This was simply impossible!

Looking at Ted and Alice, who were ruined by Robin single-handedly, Clay became completely sober.

A character like Robin was absolutely not to be opposed or outsmarted!

Tonight, the Tran family, the Howell family, and even the deputy director of the police department, were probably all doomed.

No, I absolutely could not afford to take the wrong side on such matters again!

At that moment, Mack, in a fit of rage, roared, “Chop these bastards up for me!”

Over a hundred thugs, armed with short knives and iron rods, charged together towards the fourth floor from outside the hotel.

Clay pushed through the crowd to get to Mack: "Mack, wait! You absolutely can't do this!"

Mack's face turned cold: "Mr. Sims, what do you mean by this?"

"Let me finish what I'm saying..." Clay said nervously.

Mack said irritably, "Mr. Sims, I don't have time to talk to you right now, let me deal with these kids first! We'll talk later!"

Clay waved his hand anxiously, "Mack, listen to my advice, apologize to Mr. Bruce immediately!"

"Mr. Bruce, Ms. Thompson," Clay turned and ran back to Robin and Crystal.

"Before. I didn't know you were here. If I had known, I would have come earlier."

Robin gave a nonchalant smile, "Clay, didn't you arrive a while ago? You've been hiding in the crowd, isn't this the situation you wanted to see?"

The scene was filled with uproar.

Mack was also confused, had Clay drunk too much?

Chapter 456 Please Forgive Me

Clay hadn't expected that Robin had already noticed him.

Fortunately, I came to my senses in time.

Otherwise, what the situation was with the Sims family today remained unknown.

His legs trembling with fear, he fell to his knees in front of Robin with a thud, "Mr. Bruce, I am a petty man! If you could be so kind as to not hold my past against me, please forgive me this once..."

"I promise, if anyone dared to touch you or Ms. Thompson in Mapleford today, I, Clay, would risk everything I have, even my life, to ensure your safety!"

"Although the Sims family was not what it used to be, they still had some connections in Mapleford!"

Clay's slick move had Mack all confused.

He clearly remembered drinking with Clay before, that bastard didn't drink much at all!

Judging by his tone, was Clay willing to make an enemy of the Tran family for Robin's sake?

Just when everyone was utterly confused, Clay stood up and pointed at Mack, Alice, Marlene and others, "I advise you to stop your suicidal behavior, kneel down and apologize to Mr. Bruce and Ms. Thompson, and ask for their forgiveness!"

0.00%

Forgive Me

"Otherwise, I, Clay, would immediately declare a severance of all ties with you, the Tran family and the Howell family!"

"If you, the Tran family and the Howell family, continue to oppose Mr. Bruce, I, Clay, will not stand by idly!"

He pointed to the two bodyguards beside him, "Call all the brothers of the Sims family, get them all to Hashville Hotel within two minutes!"

"Tell the butler to utilize all of the Sims family's connections in Mapleford. The Sims family will spare no expense to lead the charge for Mr. Bruce!"

"Today, I would like to see who dares to trouble Mr. Bruce here!"

Two bodyguards from the Sims family immediately made a phone call.

The Sims family's several nightclubs and grand hotels were on this street.

At Clay's command, dozens of security guards from the Sims family, armed with stun batons, quickly rushed to the entrance of the Hashville Hotel.

Mack, Alice, and the others almost went crazy when they saw Clay's insane behavior!

"Clay, what the hell were you thinking? Were you really ready to go head-to-head with me, Mack, over this kid? What were you trying to do?"

Chapter 456 Please Forgive Me

Clay stole a glance at Robin, straightened his back resolutely and said, "Mack, others may fear you, but I don't!"

"In Mapleford, even though you had many brothers, the Sims family was not to be trifled with in Hashville!"

"Today, I'm laying it out here, if you dare lay a hand on Mr. Bruce, the Sims family will fight to the death!"

There was a commotion in front of the Hashville Hotel.

Several security captains from the Sims family ran up to Clay. "Mr. Sims, all seventy of our brothers are here, tell us, who are we going after!"

Most of Clay's security guards were veterans and martial artists.

The overall momentum was much stronger than that of Mack's street fighters.

"You remember, guard the door of this room for me. Anyone who dares to cause trouble and confront Mr. Bruce, kill him!"

"Yes!" Several security team leaders immediately lined up, forming several rows in front of 403.

Such a scene left everyone puzzled.

In Mapleford, who didn't know that the Sims family and the Tran family had a very good relationship?

They had always been supporting each other.

Moreover, Mack and Clay were childhood friends back then.

Chapter 456 Please Forgive Me

We used to hang out together when we were young.

Later, the two people developed separately.

Back then, Clay surprisingly fell out with the Tran family and the Howell family over that young man.

What on earth was going on?

Could it be that this young man had an even stronger background?

Alice took a while to regain her composure.

Not only did Clay have a great relationship with Mack, but he was also a good friend of her brother, Warren.

What on earth was wrong with this guy today, insisting on going against them?

She wiped the blood from the corner of her mouth, pointing at Clay and scolded, "Clay, have you gone mad?"

"Don't forget, when your family, the Sims, was in the most difficult situation, my brother pulled out five million to help you through!"

"You actually sided against us for some irrelevant outsider!"

Clay gave a bitter smile, "Alice, I told you, if your brother comes, we'll have to kneel today!"

"Listen to my advice, perhaps today there was still a glimmer of hope for the Tran family and the Howell family!"

"If you insisted on persisting in your reckless actions, then be prepared

Chapter 450 Pepee Forgive Me to face the consequences!"

"You guys were courting death, don't drag me into it!"

Alice saw that Clay was not joking, and she was completely flustered.

She squinted at Crystal and Robin under the dazzling light.

Wasn't she just a greenhorn who had just debuted with the Thompson Group?

If she had the ability to do anything, would she have needed to come to Mapleford to beg the Tran family for network support for her sales?

Mack was even more mentally blocked.

He just couldn't figure out what was wrong with Clay.

“Clay, what drama did you put on for me today?”

“Were you and I not brothers? Are you sure you want to turn against me for them?”

Clay nodded firmly, “Of course!”

After speaking, he pointed at the security of the Sims family, “Listen to me, anyone who dares to touch Mr. Bruce, beat them to death!”

“Clay, are you messing with me?” Mack exploded.

“Today, I wiped out the Sims family!”

Meanwhile, Alice also dialed her brother Warren’s number.

Chapter 456 Please Forgive Me

For a moment, in the corridor of the hotel’s fourth floor, Mack’s men and the Sims family’s security were at daggers drawn, a fierce confrontation was on the verge of breaking out.

Robin looked at Clay’s posture and gave a cold laugh, “Did I ask you to stand up for me?”

“Mr. Bruce...”

Before Clay could speak, Robin said coldly, “Colonel Griffith, convey the emergency order! Immediately telegraph Mount Ammo Training Base, all soldiers of Warwolf Special Forces, gather in front of Hashville Hotel within ten minutes!”

“Meanwhile, send a telegram to Major General Vargas to inform the military command! Our unit will be conducting an anti–terrorism operation at the Hashville Hotel tonight!”

“Yes, General!” Timothy responded, standing at attention.

Chapter 457 You’re Risking Your Neck

Clay was baffled by Robin’s words.

Did the military command conduct a counter–terrorism exercise?

Wasn’t Robin the president of Eastern District Development Corporation?

Mack was stunned for a while, then suddenly laughed. “Damn! You’re talking in your sleep!”

“Anti–terrorism drills, military command, I think you’re just schizophrenic! You’re dreaming!”

All the onlooking crowd was also confused.

The events of today were too dramatic!

First, it was Clay’s nonsensical showboating.

Then, Robin was talking nonsense again.

Anti-terrorism drill, General?

This was bragging, right!

Wasn’t it just a few big shots from Mapleford joking around out of boredom?

Huh!

Chapter 457 You’re Risking Your Neck

That’s not like it!

Indeed, Ted and Rebecca were beaten to a pulp.

Moreover, Alice was beaten black and blue in full view of everyone.

If it was a play, were these big shots masochistically messing around? They weren’t sick in the head!

“General?”

Clay shuddered violently, casting a terrified glance at Robin.

He never thought that Robin was bluffing.

He had witnessed the scene of the Finley family’s banquet with his own eyes.

Mack did not see that shocking scene.

In a moment of laughter, the Elliott family and the Reynell family casually wiped out billions of assets.

How much energy was required to perform such a terrifying feat of turning the hand into clouds and the other into rain!

Take another look at the five Timothy–like figures standing in front of the door.

Clay’s heart was beating even faster!

Although they did not wear military ranks and unit numbers on them.

However, this camouflage training suit and the combat boots on his feet

Chapter 457 You’re Risking Your Neck

were clearly not something that could be bought by civilians!

At that moment, the security captain beside him whispered, “Mr. Sims, those individuals are professional soldiers, and they are from special forces!”

The head of security by Clay’s side was also a former field soldier.

What he said certainly wouldn’t be wrong.

Clay clearly remembered that Timothy had just addressed Robin as a general!

At that moment, he was even more grateful that he had made the right choice at the most critical time.

Robin was an extremely mysterious general!

Mack had really gotten himself into big trouble this time.

He believed that if Mack and Alice still didn’t know how to behave, the Tran family was done for!

Even worse than the Elliott family and the Reynell family.

General!

That was not a height that an ordinary person could look up to.

He secretly glanced at Robin and Crystal, aided by the dazzling light in the room.

Cold sweat on the back kept flowing out uncontrollably.

If Clay had chosen the wrong side today, or had hidden in the back without expressing his stance.

I'm afraid he also couldn't get away unscathed.

After a brief moment of confusion, Alice suddenly burst into hysterical laughter, "A wet-behind-the-ears kid, daring to pretend to be a general? You're putting on a show for me!"

"In all my years, is there anyone I haven't met?"

"I've met six or seven generals above the rank of Major General! I've never seen one like you before!"

"At the general level, who wasn't in their fifties or sixties? Even those with some background had to be over forty to reach it."

"You, a thing that hasn't even grown full fur, dared to falsely claim to be a general. Are you courting death?"

"Returning the general, returning the anti-terrorism exercise, I also... I also said I was the commander of the NA peace-keeping forces!"

Upon hearing Alice's words, Clay almost passed out.

Oh dear, this woman was sprinting towards her own doom!

Disrespectful and insulting the general, that was a capital offense!

The Tran family was done for today!

If Warren couldn't handle this matter well when he came over, the Howell family might as well go down with him!

Chapter 457 You're Risking Your Neck

Mack pointed at Timothy and the others, his voice cold, "Damn you, are you guys messing with me!"

“Anyone who dares to impersonate Londraland military commands, this one reason alone is enough to arrest you!”

“Clay, I’m asking you again, are you going to let us through or not? If not, my boys are going to take action!”

Clay sneered, “Mack, if you won’t listen to my advice and insist on courting death, then go ahead and play by yourself!”

“I told you, I have already made my statement today, every member of the Sims family will stand by Mr. Bruce to the death!”

“Good! Brothers...”

Before Mack had a chance to give orders, Warren, accompanied by twenty to thirty bodyguards, quickly arrived at room 403 on the fourth floor from outside.

“Alice, who dared to beat you up like this! They must have a death.

wish!”

“Bro, it was him...” Alice, her eyes full of tears, pointed accusingly at Robin. “He broke Ted’s leg, and, and he hit me!”

“I wanted you to kill him!”

“Alice, I will definitely seek justice for you!” Warren nodded fiercely, raising his eyes to look at Robin.

It was then that I realized that the person who had a conflict with my sister Alice was Uncle Robin!

His legs gave way and he knelt on the ground: “Mr. Bruce... is that you?”

Chapter 458 How Could You Slap Me?

Robin smirked playfully, “A few days apart, and you still haven’t learned your lesson!”

“Without even asking for the reason, they wanted to oppress others with their power?”

Warren was so scared that his soul was about to fly away. He slapped his own face twice, “Slap! Slap!”

“Mr. Bruce, L... I’m a jerk! I can’t change my bad habits! I know what I should do now!”

At that moment, he wished he could strangle his own sister.

This scene completely baffled Alice and Mack!

Did that Robin know some kind of black magic?

Warren became this self-destructive after just one glance at him.

What on earth happened?

Before Alice could speak, Clay stepped forward and said, “Warren, I’m telling you, that beast of a brother-in-law of yours, Ted, drugged Ms. Thompson’s drink!”

“He could do such disgusting things, he deserved more than death!”

“After your sister arrived, she not only didn’t question that bastard Ted, but even insulted Ms. Thompson. They’re really a family of beasts!”

Warren understood Clay’s intention, which was to help him appease

Robin.

Just as he was about to order his sister to apologize to Robin and Crystal, Alice roared, “Brother, what are you doing? You actually made. them bow in apology, are you crazy?”

“This is Mapleford, our turf. So what if Ted drugged that jerk?”

“So what if Ted had slept with her?”

“A woman who’s out in the mix, sleeping with a few men is just for fun. Why make such a fuss about it, acting as if you’re so innocent!”

“Bang!”

Upon hearing his sister’s words, Warren felt a chill run down his spine and slapped her across the face.

“You bastard! You two are a pair of beasts!”

“Apologize to Mr. Bruce and Ms. Thompson immediately, and beg them to spare you!”

Alice saw stars from the blow, screaming like a madwoman, “Bro, how could you hit me for that bitch?”

“Smack! Smack!” Warren slapped Alice twice more, this time even harder.

“Kneel down and apologize to Ms. Thompson and Mr. Bruce immediately!”

“How much Ms. Thompson demanded from you today, you, the Tran family, had to pay her even if it meant going bankrupt!”

He hastily crawled in front of Robin and Crystal: “Mr. Bruce, Ms. Thompson, rest assured, if they don’t give you an explanation today, I, Warren, will definitely not let them off!”

Robin looked at Warren coldly, without saying a word.

Warren, seeing Robin completely ignoring him. was terrified to the point. of trembling all over.

On the day of the Finley family’s celebration. Robin hardly spoke a word. from start to finish..

By the time he pays attention to you, it will be when your family is ruined and your people are gone!

In a matter of laughter and conversation. it took only two and a half minutes to single-handedly annihilate the Elliott family.

This terrifying figure, Warren absolutely could not provoke him.

He grabbed Alice’s hair abruptly. “Did you hear me or not?! Alice, if you don’t do as I say today, I will immediately sever our sibling relationship! From now on, you are no longer my sister!”

Alice was immediately stunned.

She had always adored her own elder brother immensely, yet he not only hit her for the sake of two people she didn't want to deal with, but also wanted to sever ties with her?!

Chapter 458 How Could You Slap Me?

Had they all gone mad?.

Marlene was also confused.

She suddenly had a bad premonition.

Looked up at Robin.

In the face of such chaos and tension, he was surprisingly as indifferent as the wind!

Such a mindset, if not ignorant, must have been fully confident in controlling the situation at hand.

She speculated that Robin was definitely not an ordinary person.

Otherwise, how could the two big shots, Clay and Warren, have been so terrified in front of Robin?

If Clay had a few drinks and lost his mind today.

Did Warren lose his mind too?

The 1 million consumption card she held in her hand, she hesitated several times, took it out, and then stuffed it back in.

Alice cried out, "Brother, are you really going to cut ties with me for them?"

Warren was on the verge of losing his mind, "Alice, listen to me, I'm telling you again, if you don't kneel before Ms. Thompson and give her an explanation, I will never let you and that bastard Ted off the hook!"

Alice suddenly roared, "Warren, your mother's head!"

“Even if I died today, I would not apologize to such a despicable woman!”

Warren snorted coldly, “Fine, from now on, I’m cutting off all ties with you!”

“I will place an announcement in the newspaper tomorrow!”

Alice covered her cheek and froze: “You...you just wait! Even if you don’t help me, I, Alice, still have people in the upper echelons!”

“I refuse to believe that I can’t take them down!”

“Fine, Alice, if you insist on courting death, then so be it!” Warren sighed helplessly, and once again crawled in front of Robin.

“Mr. Bruce, I had no relationship with them anymore!”

“You tell me, how should I have annihilated them?”

“With just one word from you, the Howell family would have spared no effort to help Mr. Bruce!”

The onlookers were all stunned by the scene.

“What on earth was going on with the heads of the Sims family and the Howell family today?”

“Did Warren, this big shot, risk severing ties with his own sister to seek justice for Robin and Crystal?”

The little girl from before watched this scene, a smile tugging at the corner of her mouth.

Chapter A How Could You Slap May

She provocatively glanced at the middle-aged people around her and said in a low voice, “The world is not as filthy as you imagine. Besides interests, there are still people who reason.”

“You saw it, Mr. Howell would even forsake his own family for the sake of justice!”

A few middle-aged men shook their heads with a laugh.

They understood that Warren did this for self-preservation!

However, these words were not spoken out.

Let's still leave some pure and beautiful fantasies for this girl.

At that moment, a burst of siren sounds came from outside.

Deputy Director of the Provincial Police Department, Hugo Lowe, along with a team of armed police, quickly ran towards room 403...

Chapter 459 Excuse me, Are You General Bruce?

All customers at the Hashville Hotel heard the urgent siren and quickly moved aside.

They noticed that all the police officers who came to carry out the mission were armed special police from the Provincial Police Department.

It seemed that the incident today had blown up!

Ted immediately stepped forward, smiling and said. "Mr. Lowe, thank you for your hard work today!"

"After the event ended tonight. I donated ten million to the brothers at the headquarters to improve their equipment

Hugo said seriously. "Mr. Tran, we'll discuss this matter later. Where is the person who caused trouble in your hotel?"

Mack exaggeratedly recounted the incident of Robin beating up Ted.

The matter of Ted drugging Crystal before was not mentioned at all.

Mack whispered. "Mr. Lowe, for such a serious injury to another, I'm afraid the sentence would be many years. wouldn't it?"

"What I mean is, that thug named Robin inside, if he were to fight back. desperately like a cornered beast, would you guys shoot him on the spot?"

Hugo glanced up at Mack and nodded, "Of course, all those who came to carry out the mission today were armed special police from the provincial police department."

"If a suspect dared to violently resist arrest during the process, we could have killed him at any time!"

Mack said with a meaningful smile, "Mr. Lowe, I'm going to be on a business trip to Potrya next month, and I'll take the opportunity to visit your young master. Is there anything you want me to convey to him?"

Hugo paused slightly, "Oh, let's talk about it later, I'm on duty now!"

Then, picking up the walkie-talkie, he said coldly, "Snipers number one and three, get into position quickly!"

A fierce smirk lifted the corners of Mack's mouth.

Hehe, Robin, if you dare to be arrogant again, the SWAT team of the provincial police department will shoot you dead with one bullet!

At that moment, Warren and Clay from room 403, hurriedly went to Robin's side.

"Mr. Bruce, we and Mr. Robbins from the Provincial Police Department are brothers, we were just giving him a call to say hello..."

Robin snorted, "Does the military command executing anti-terrorism tasks need any irrelevant people involved? Take your people away!"

Clay understood Robin's meaning and immediately called the security captain, asking him to withdraw all the security from the Sims family.

Alice heard the siren wailing, and laughed uproariously as if she was on a high, "Marlene, Marlene, your Hugo is here."

She quickly got up from the ground, pointed at Robin and roared angrily, "You just wait! You seriously injured my husband, hurt me, and falsely claimed to be a general. I will definitely bring you, this villain, to justice today!"

"Warren, Clay, you bastards colluded with them, I'm suing you all too!"

Having said that, Alice pulled Marlene and rushed out.

He tumbled and crawled his way to Hugo, “Mr. Lowe, Mr. Lowe, you’re finally here! Boo hoo hoo...”

Alice seemed as if she had seen a long-lost relative.

Tears filled my eyes as I lunged towards Hugo, almost embracing this chubby man in my arms.

Marlene quickly pulled her away, “Don’t... don’t... don’t hug!”

Alice paused, realizing her own lapse in behavior.

Released the arms that were holding Hugo.

Then, she held onto his hands tightly and didn’t let go.

“Mr. Lowe, sob sob...”

Saying so, she wanted to throw herself into Hugo’s arms and have a good cry.

In all my life, never have I suffered such humiliation as I did today!

Chapter 459 Excuse me, Are You General Bruce?

Seeing this, Marlene nervously stepped in front of Hugo, “Alice, don’t. don’t do this, this is my husband!”

Hugo coughed twice, “What happened? That... that Prof. Howell, why do you look like this?”

Alice cried, “Mr. Lowe, these gang forces are simply too rampant!”

“They...they not only beat me and my husband, but also falsely claimed to be generals.”

“They bullied me, hit me. As ordinary people, we could only swallow our anger and remain silent.”

“Mr. Lowe, you must stand up for justice for our people!”

Hugo frowned, “What? Someone actually impersonated a general! This is outrageous!”

He was about to command all the military police, preparing to arrest Robin in room 403.

A police officer, holding a walkie-talkie, quickly approached and said, "Report for Mr. Lowe, a call from Mr. Robbins at the headquarters."

"What was Mr. Robbins calling about at this time?" Hugo asked, puzzled.

Taking the phone, his face gradually turned serious, even cold sweat was dripping from the tip of his nose.

He looked up at Robin in the room, his heart skipped a beat.

That was a general!

Chapter 459 Excuse me, Are You General Bruce?

If the headquarters had called a bit later. we might have messed up the situation today.

Fortunately, I hadn't done anything outrageous, there was still time to remedy it.

Hugo hung up the phone, straightened his police uniform, and quickly headed towards room 403.

Alice didn't know what had happened, she chased after Hugo: "Mr. Lowe, Mr. Lowe, listen to me..."

Marlene stopped her: "Alice, wait a moment, my husband still has important things to do."

"Don't worry, Hugo will definitely give you justice," he assured.

Hugo pushed through the crowd, quickly approached Robin and asked, "Excuse me, are you General Bruce?"

Chapter 460 You Are Too Snobbish!

Warren and Clay's eyes lit up instantly.

The serious look on Hugo's face had already said it all!

Timothy stepped forward and said, "Mr. Lowe, this is our Warwolf Special Forces' Chief Drillmaster, General Bruce!"

"The military command was about to conduct anti-terrorism military operations here!"

Hugo immediately stood at attention and gave a standard military salute: “General Bruce, hello! I am the deputy director of the Hashville Police Department, Hugo! Is there anything our police headquarters can assist with?”

Robin said coldly, “No! Immediately lead your subordinates to stand by 50 meters away from the hotel. No unauthorized personnel are allowed to approach!”

“All customers in the hotel were cleared out within five minutes!”

“Yes!” After accepting Robin’s order, Hugo quickly directed all the police to evacuate all the idle and miscellaneous people in the hotel to outside the hotel.

Upon seeing this scene, Mack immediately panicked.

Was Robin really a general?

0.00%

Chapter 460 You Are Too Snobbish!

This was a bit too fantastical!

For a moment, there was some confusion.

Moreover, the police dispersed the idle customers, but ironically left him and his younger brother in the hotel.

What did this mean?

Alice was also stunned by the scene before her.

What on earth was going on?

It seemed that Hugo was not intending to catch Robin, but rather, he was helping him clean up the scene?

Next, Hugo actually walked out of the hotel with all the police!

She couldn’t figure out what was going on, and called out, “Mr. Lowe, aren’t you dealing with my matter anymore?”

Hugo stopped in his tracks, saying coldly, “Prof. Howell, I’m sorry, but the military command is conducting an anti-terrorism operation today, and our police station has no authority to interfere!”

“Oh, right, you should be considered a danger as well, please stay away from me! Otherwise, I could have handcuffed you right now!”

Alice was completely baffled, “Mr. Lowe, what... what do you mean?”

“But I’m your wife Marlene’s best friend, how could I possibly be a threat? You must be joking, right?”

Hugo looked grim, turning to Marlene, “Did you know this dangerous individual?”

“Dangerous element?” Marlene was completely baffled, feeling as if the whole world had gone mad for a moment, “Do...do I know her? Uh, I don’t know her!”

“Don’t know him, then leave!” Hugo coldly rebuked, pulling her towards the exit.

Alice’s face turned blue with anger as she roared, “Mr. Lowe, your wife took my one million dollar card, and you just ignore my situation like this?”

Marlene froze instantly, her whole body trembling with anxiety.

Hugo glared at Marlene in fury, slapping her across the face, “You actually got me into this life– threatening mess? Did you really take her card?”

“Did I take her card?” Marlene nervously asked, hastily handing the card. to Alice.

“I didn’t take your card, you are a dangerous person, I don’t know you! I have nothing to do with you, I have nothing to do with you!”

Hugo coldly looked at Marlene, “If you cause trouble for me again in the future, I will divorce you!”

“Uh huh, I have nothing to do with her!” Marlene quickly hid behind Hugo, lowering her head as they walked out together.

Alice slammed the card hard on the ground, “Marlene, you’re my best friend, and you abandoned me at this time! You’re too damn opportunistic!”

“I told you, even if you pretended not to know me, I would still tell you!” “Also, they were not any sort of military command at all...”
