Chapter 101 Your Deceptive Skills Were Very Good

Daniel's eyes dimmed a little. In the past few years, he had never thought that he would end up like this with Arya. She was always so docile and obedient. No matter what request he made, Arya would never refuse. But Now, Arya had completely changed.

Thinking about what Arya said that day and the expression she had when she left, Daniel felt very uneasy.

He picked up the car key, "I will personally confirm it."

He drove all the way to Luna's house. After knocking on the door, he kept looking inside.

"Where is Arya? Ask her to come out!"

Luna rudely pushed him out and shut the door. "This is my house. Arya is not here!"

"Impossible! She moved out of the apartment a long time ago and did not explain her new address to the company. Either she lived in Morrison Family or she is with you." Daniel still did not give up and shouted through the door, "Arya, I know you are here. Come out, I have something to say!"

He must confirm that Arya did not know about the invitation and also make sure that she would not suddenly appear on the red carpet night.

"Are you crazy? Arya has the right to privacy. Tomorrow night is the red carpet night. If you are not busy accompanying Caroline and come to my house to make a ruckus, I will sue you for disturbing the people!"

Luna put her hands on her waist. If she really said Arya's current address, she would probably scare Daniel to death.

Caroline had to do this to ensure her future.

After she won movie queen award, she would become an artiste of the KB. That was the best time for her to shake off Daniel.

"Are you really going to get rid of the child? Caroline, are you sure you've thought it through? If Director Daniel knew..." The assistant did not understand what Caroline was doing.

Perhaps fame and fortune were too attractive to her that it made her blind.

According to her current position, taking movie queen and giving birth to Daniel's child was a bright path, but she had to choose a dangerous shortcut.

"Do as I say!" Caroline could not wait to see Arya fail.

So what if she took Daniel from Arya? He was just a chess piece on her way to success.

"By the way, does Arya have a trip tomorrow night?" She continued to ask.

"Director Parker arranged a fan meeting for her. She can't attend the red carpet night because the hotel was at the south of the city." The assistant had already inquired about Arya's whereabouts.

"Got it. Do what I arranged for you."

"I want you to answer me clearly. Did the Jinge Movie Festival only invite Caroline?"

Arya stared at Davina's face. Her eyes were full of coldness and sarcasm.

Davina frowned slightly, "Of course she is the only one!"

She took half step back and looked at Arya's expression, "What is it? Who else do you think can go to Jinge Movie Festival in our company? You? Dream on!"

"The organizers only invited Caroline to attend the Movie Festival. Furthermore, she is very likely to win the Best Female Lead award. As for you, you are destined not to attend this event." Daniel walked out of the elevator and stood beside Davina.

Looking at the two siblings' face, Arya felt that it was very funny. She hoped that they could maintain this expression.

"Then I will congratulate her in advance." Arya did not want to continue. She had heard enough of these people's lies and faces and had seen enough.

"Arya, I heard that there is an agent who helped you talk about the contract for that documentary. Who did you find to be your agent?"

Daniel could not wait to walk two steps forward and hold her back. "You know the company's rules. If you sign the contract with other Brokerage Agency within the contract period, it is equivalent to breaking the contract unilaterally. The amount of breach of contract is as high as ten million."

"I did not break the contract." Arya shook off Daniel's hand and kept a safe distance from him, "Luna's work efficiency is very high. She can take care of the work of special assistants and managers at the same time, can't she?"

Chapter 104 Where Is Arya?

The host looked behind them and the smile on his face did not diminish.

"It seems like the two of you are really a pair of lovers. Even the way you appear is so romantic. First, congratulations to Miss Caroline for winning the Best Female Lead Award!"

"Thank you. I am also very grateful to the organizers for agreeing with me. I also wish the Film Festival a complete success." Caroline replied with a smile. These words were prepared in advance by her and they could not make any mistakes.

The host invited them to sign the wall to take photos and autographs. Following the procedure, the next person to appear is...

"Next, let us invite the director of Brilliant Entertainment Company, Miss Davina." The host looked at the card the worker gave him in puzzlement. He turned off the microphone and asked softly, "Isn't there Arya?"

The staff shook his head. He indicated that he did not know about this matter.

The host turned on the microphone again. At this time, Davina also arrogantly walked to the camera. She waved her hand at everyone. The diamond accessory in her hand was very dazzling.

When the host saw the card that assistant had just handed him , he was pleasantly surprised.

“Everyone, please welcome the father of the documentary, Director Jacob Sawn, and his female companion Miss Arya tonight with warm applause!”

In an instant, all the camera were aimed at the Rolls-Royce at the end of the red carpet.

Under everyone's gaze, Arya slowly got off the car in her high-end custom-made dress. Her tall figure and elegant temperament were undoubtedly revealed. With a gentle smile, she held Jacob's arm and waved and smiled at the cameras on the left and right.

There were many people on the scene who were Arya's fans. When they saw her enter the venue in such a high-profile manner, they all shook their light sticks and shouted her name loudly.

"Arya!"

"Arya, we love you!"

Arya had not attended such an event for a long time but she was not afraid of the venue. Her every move was moving and eye-catching.

Hearing the screams from this side, Caroline and the others who were about to enter looked towards the direction of the red carpet. With this glance, the three of them were all stunned.

"Thank you..." Arya smiled and nodded. On the way here, she had a chatted with Director Jacob a lot and their views on many things coincided. Allen arranged a very good schedule for her.

When Jacob left, Davina's arrogance instantly became arrogant. "I don't care what methods you used to win over Jacob. You have to recognize your identity. You are our company's artiste and must obey the company's arrangements."

"First of all, when we were overseas, we had already agreed. I have the right to reject the schedule that I don't want to take. Second, if I don't come tonight, what will you do to me? Is this the right attitude of the Brokerage Agency towards artistes?"

"If that's the case, I think my fate with the Brilliant Entertainment can end here."

"No!" Daniel shouted at the right time. He did not go far just now. He thought about it and decided to come back to check on the situation. When he heard Arya mention the termination of the contract, he immediately walked out.

He had to admit that when he saw Arya's beauty tonight, he hesitated.

Even if she was no longer his woman, she had to continue staying in his company and make money for him.

"Daniel? Go in quickly. It would be bad if you were captured by the reporters." Davina scolded him sternly.

Tonight's perfect plan was ruined by Arya.

Hearing Daniel's voice, Arya was still very calm. She raised the corner of her lips indifferently and looked at their faces with a mocking gaze.

Allen walked out of the stage wearing a custom-made suit after the host's passionate introduction. His deep cold eyes were especially charming under the spotlight. His entire body exuded a high and cold temperament that was so different from the others.

His gaze froze on Arya's face. A few second later, he moved his gaze away.

"Director Jones, please say a few words." The host handed over the microphone.

Allen paused for a few seconds and said, "I hope Dahua's artists can perform better in the future. I wish Film Festival a great success this time."

The Dahua was already the highest level of the Brokerage Agency in the industry, but Allen's ambition was more than that.

He wanted to lead the artists under Dahua to achieve greater success. Like an eagle, he wanted to fly higher and higher.

Arya looked at the man who was standing on the stage, dazzling like a star. She seriously promised in her heart that she would stand beside him at the fastest speed possible.

"Director Jones must have seen many excellent movie works. We all want to know what kind of movie and actor can score ten points in Director Jones's heart. If a perfect score is ten points!"

"I can give you an example of this question." Allen did not think too much about it. He immediately gave an answer.

"I think the movie with the perfect score should be moving. The actor with the perfect score should be real."

"For example, a movie I saw a while ago, "Winter Love". I think it's a rare masterpiece in the movie industry. Every actor is very outstanding."

The host smiled and agreed. He looked in Arya's direction and said, "As far as I know, the female lead of this movie is also at our scene. She is Arya!"

In an instant, a light pink spotlight hit Arya. The diamond on her dress was very dazzling under the light.

Arya calmly stood up and picked up the microphone from the staff. Her voice was gentle. "Thank you for Director Jones's affirmation."

Arya's performance was deeply engraved in Daniel's heart. Listening the praises of Arya from the people around him, his heart was not feeling good. In the past few years, he had never taken Arya seriously and Arya had missed many good opportunities.

Now she was so beautiful and dazzling as if she would leave Brilliant Entertainment at any moment.

It turned out that he had been wasting Arya's time and exhausting her youth. When he was flirting with Caroline, he didn't feel guilty at all and only thought that Arya had blocked his path. Only now did he realize that he was too wrong.

The scene on the stage, everyone remembered Arya's beauty. There were also people who noticed her intelligence. There were whispers all around, which made Davina upset. Especially when she saw Daniel's annoyed expression, she became even angrier.

"Daniel, you can't be tempted with Arya again, can you?" Davina hit him with her elbow.

"No way, I already have Caroline." Daniel looked away from Arya. Something had changed in his heart. The distance between him and Arya was getting further and further.

The next two hours was a baptism of torture for two siblings.

While everyone was discussing about movie and communicating with each other, they were the only one who didn't care.

On the other hand, Arya had met many big shots in the movie industry with Director Jacob. During the conversation, everyone admired Arya's behavior and thought that the higher-ups of the Brilliant Entertainment must be blind. They did not care about such a powerful jade and went to pick up a vase without any acting skills.

Even if Caroline had the chance to win Movie Queen, in this era where one relied on own strength to survive, she was not as good as Arya.

Separated by crowd, Arya saw that familiar figure. Allen also happened to turn his head and the corner of his lips curled up into a gentle smile. His coldness was directed towards others and he only doted on her.

Afraid that others would notice something, Arya quickly turned her head and continued to talk to people beside her.

“I really didn’t expect you to have the guts to do so. Let me remind you, for the sake of your relationship with Daniel in the past, if you want to hook up with Allen, it will depend on whether you have the capital or not.”

In her opinion, even if Arya was beautiful, the Morrison Family had some assets, however, a man of Allen’s level would definitely not fall in love with her at first sight.

Her sarcasm made Arya’s expression change. She stopped and turned around, “You shouldn’t be an agent. You should be a scriptwriter. This way, everyone will live according to your wishes. I will give you one last warning. Don’t interfere with me. Otherwise, I won’t let you go the next time.”

Davina’s face twisted in anger. She forcefully suppressed the words she wanted to say. She wanted to see how much regret and pain Arya would feel when she saw the news tomorrow.

Seeing her expression, Arya knew what she was scheming again.

“Sister, say less. It will not be good if you are captured by the reporters.”

Daniel stepped forward and stood between them. He looked at Arya with some difficulty. "If you don't want to go to the fan meeting, you can tell me. Why use such a method? Your actions today will affect the reputation of the company."

"I clearly asked you if I received the invitation." Arya coldly glanced at Daniel, "Most likely, your mind is on Caroline. So you don't care what I said at all. If things continue like this, does the Brilliant entertainment company still have a future?"

"Arya, you have to be careful when you speak!" Daniel suddenly roared. His anger was ignited by Arya's words. The kind of jealousy that looked at her dazzling on the stage and her tacit understanding with Allen surged, "Didn't you want to leave Brilliant Entertainment's company and sign other companies? Is it KB or Sunshin? How much did they give you?"

"That's my own business. You don't have to worry about it. I will leave when I see you guys bear bitter fruit of your own brewing."

After saying that, a limited number of navy-blue sports cars stopped beside Arya.

She did not hesitate and opened the door to get into the car.

Seeing the car leave, Caroline did not say how much hatred she felt. She bit her lips to control her emotions. Davina's voice was beside her ear, "Forget it, Daniel. Don't argue with her. If she wants to leave, let her go. But I think tomorrow's news will teach her a lesson. Apart from Brilliant Entertainment's company, she will have nowhere else to go."

The news spread like wildfire. Davina didn’t even have time to look at it. Her phone was about to explode. All the media seemed to have received some kind of hint. They didn’t hesitate to tear off all pretenses with the Brilliant Entertainment to report the truth.

Davina bribed the entertainment reporters and wanted to harm Arya but in the end, she became the target of all the attacks on the Internet.

The whole story was written down and it caused a huge reaction on the website and forum. It even revealed Davina’s information and phone records. Furthermore, there was also the interview recording of the entertainment reporter. He even promised to confront Davina face to face.

In addition, the media had analyzed Davina’s recent actions. Ever since she returned to the country, everything she did had been targeted at Arya. After carefully sorting it out, she had a motive and evidence.

In just a few short hours, Davina had become publicly acknowledged as a black-hearted manager in the entertainment industry.

The Public Relations Department of the Brilliant Entertainment had yet to make a move and the matter had already become a foregone conclusion.

Because this matter was related to Dahua entertainment, all the media had to seize the news sites at the first possible moment. Each and every one of them was actively reporting.

“This is too disgusting. This is the first time I have seen such a manager.”

“Back then, Daniel had fallen in love with Caroline and ruined Arya’s youth. Now, it was his older sister who ruined Arya’s career! They are too shameless.”
