Chapter 121 Sold Her

"What? You're too greedy." Daniel clenched his fists. Quentin's words trampled his pride.

One Caroline was not enough, and he still needed Arya. Daniel listened to what Quentin said next and fell silent.

"Anyway, those two have already left you. What are you not willing to do?"

Daniel gritted his teeth and his eyes filled with hatred.

"Alright, I agree to your conditions, but I want to meet you and talk to you." Daniel knew that this Quentin was very cunning. He didn't want to lose any benefits.

"Sure."

Daniel hung up the phone. He heard footsteps outside. He hurriedly opened the door and saw Caroline pouring water in the kitchen.

"You are awake?"

Daniel looked at her alertly. His tone was cold. "You..."

"Daniel? Didn't you sleep? Did I wake you up? I'm a little thirsty." Caroline was wearing the pajamas he gave her. She looked gentle and lovely.

Daniel walked into the guest room with a cold face.

Caroline watched him leave and her eyes were filled with ruthlessness. She had heard him at the door earlier. Although she did not know who Daniel was meeting with, she clearly heard Arya's name.

The next day, Daniel disappeared for a day. He did not answer the phone.

Caroline secretly found a private detective to follow him. She found that he was meeting with Quentin and had come to an agreement.

"Give me the agreement they signed. I will double the price for you." Caroline felt that there was something wrong.

That afternoon, she got a backup copy of the agreement between Quentin and Daniel. When she saw the contents, she felt nauseous.

She did not expect Daniel to be so focused on this.

Chapter 122 Award Ceremony

“I...”

The question was suddenly thrown at him!

Quentin’s expression changed. He looked at the microphone that was raised to him in an instant and did not know how to speak.

He originally wanted to see Arya at a loss of what to do after being asked. Then, he took the opportunity to help her out. But now, he did not know what to do.

He smiled awkwardly. “This is currently a secret. We cannot reveal it.”

The reporters sighed and continued to attack Arya. Because Quentin’s reply was too official, there was no point in watching.

“Miss Arya, there is a rumor that a big shot in the industry is helping you from the back. May I ask if you have any response?”

Arya did not show any impatience when she heard these baseless questions. Instead, she said lightly, “I can only say that everyone has the freedom to express their views. I will not give any extreme response because of this. I believe that my fans who like me can see the truth.”

“I am a public figure. I will be responsible for my words and actions.”

“I hope that everyone has the ability to distinguish right and wrong. I also hope that everyone can focus on the Film Festival. Thank you.”

Arya’s answer made the reporters not make a mistake. She did not choose to pretend to be pitiful or to question the reporters righteously. Instead, she chose a very smooth way to answer.

She did not blame anyone for their comments on the Internet. Just this kind of tolerance was not something that ordinary people could do.

Her calm performance was the best answer. Anyone who had eyes could see her unique charm from the inside out.

People could not help but be attracted by her. The reporters all withdrew their microphones. If they continued to hold on to this question, it would appear that they were too lacking in quality. It would be better to take a few more beautiful photos of Arya.

Quentin looked at Arya with admiration. He was right. This woman was much smarter than Caroline. If he could get her... Quentin had already imagined many scenes in his mind.

Caroline exploded on the spot.

“What does that mean?”

She had clearly received an invitation to the Best Female Lead nomination. Why would something happen at the moment of the award?

This must be Arya playing some trick!

However, Caroline's voice attracted everyone's attention. She was only focused on throwing a tantrum and did not notice that Quentin, who was on the other side, had already been invited out of his seat by the staff.

Arya and Jacob were still on the stage.

"I clearly had a nomination, why did it become four people?"

Caroline saw that the victory that was within her reach had turned into a bubble. How could she just sit there and wait for death?

At this time, the host walked up. "Everyone, please. Because this year's Movie Festival has attracted a lot of attention, the organizers have been strictly enforcing the selection process, striving to be fair and public. However, ten minutes ago, we received an anonymous email."

"A certain judge and a certain female star had an improper relationship and tampered with the Film Festival's selection list. Now, we have discovered it in time and amended the results. Miss Caroline, according to the conditions of the selection, you do not have the qualifications to participate in the selection. Please go backstage and accept the investigation."

At that time, the audience was in an uproar.

This was the most unbelievable scene that had occurred in the twenty something years since the Film Festival held this event.

The female lead who had the highest chance of winning the award was announced to not have the right to be nominated. The female lead who had an improper relationship with the judges was Caroline.

Chapter 124 Best Contribution Award

Because of this interlude, Caroline became the joke of the entire entertainment circle.

After the organizers quickly adjusted the process, they changed the envelope in Arya's hand.

The Best Female Lead winner was another actress named Iris.

After that, Arya returned to her seat. Her expression was normal and she was not affected by the farce earlier.

When Quentin left the backstage, he looked at Arya from afar. He only felt afraid.

What kind of power did she have behind her and how long could she endure for the final fatal blow?

All this time, the outside world misunderstood her. The rumors that filled the sky and the situation where she met all types of obstacles did not make her feel defeated. She had been waiting for tonight.

He did not know what kind of evidence the organizers had just obtained and denied all the questions. Due to his position in the entertainment circle, there was no substantial loss.

But if the matter was found out by others in future or Arya used the evidence to threaten him, he would definitely not let her go.

The following awards were handed out very smoothly. At the end of the award ceremony, the host held a provisional host's speech and said to the entire audience.

“According to the organizers’ request, we have added an award tonight, the Best Contribution Award. This award is also seriously discussed and decided by the judges. It is absolutely fair. Next, we invite the president of Aorai Entertainment, Miss Melinda Carter, to present the award!”

“Melinda Carter is also here?”

She knew that he would definitely come!

“Allen.”

The other actors left through the main entrance. She was not worried about being seen. She could not help but run to him and shout his name.

“Congratulation...” Allen reached out and hugged Arya. The two of them were especially close in the night.

“I...” She opened her mouth. She wanted to say as much as a book. But looking at his face, she suddenly did not want to use words to express her feelings.

It was as if he understood her words. Allen took her to the car. “Let’s go home.”

“No!”

Kayden immediately rejected Caroline’s idea. The fact that she had been nominated was already under investigation. They did not have any solid evidence now. As long as Caroline insisted that she did not know Quentin, there was still room for negotiation in the future.

But if they really did do it, she would sit back and let the rumors about her relationship with Quentin be confirmed. At that time, it would not be easy to end it.

“If KB breaks his contract because of this storm, I will help you talk about other companies. Don’t worry, I will not give up on you.”

“What’s the use? I am not young anymore. I can still withstand a few years of tests. Besides, Quentin will not let me go. He knows that I have a picture of him sleeping with me. When he comes to threaten me, it will be too late. I must seize the opportunity!”

“Caroline, you!”

Kayden did not know how to persuade her. He could only say, “I will go find a few familiar reporters first. Don’t be anxious. Take your time.”

There were not many female stars like Arya who had made a comeback, so there must be a lot of media watching her.

Although Caroline’s plan was very dangerous, it was the only path she could take now.

Kayden spent some money to bribe two media reporters and arranged a special interview for Caroline.

That afternoon, the overwhelming news appeared on Hot Search List.

He heard Arya’s voice from the other side of the phone and took a deep breath, “It’s me.”
“Is something the matter?” Arya frowned and her voice was very cold.
“Arya, I’m sorry. I know I was wrong. I also know that this matter has brought you a very bad influence. I am currently thinking of a way to resolve it. Give me some time. I will definitely...”
“How do you want to solve it? You have indeed met Quentin and betrayed me, right?”
After Arya read the report, she felt that her previous efforts were not worth it. “You have made a choice. Now that Caroline exposed you, it is your own fault. I do not need you to clarify anything for me. There is no need for any more involvement between us.”
After saying that, Arya directly hung up the phone.
Daniel held his phone in pain and squatted by the roadside. He had already received the most painful punishment. The regret that was rooted in his heart made him unable to breath.
“Arya, I’m sorry.”
Luna heard Arya’s phone call and became even angrier, “Does he still have the face to make a phone call? I think he and Caroline are a match made in heaven. Both of them are so good at scheming.”

"Naomi? It shouldn't be her. She just got the new contract from the Sunsand and won't participate in this kind of thing. To her, she just needs to watch the fire from the other side."

Arya's thoughts were like a bundle of tangled hemp threads. She supported her forehead with a slight headache.

Seeing her like this, Luna was also very worried about her situation.

"I checked the movie invitation you received. Other than Director Jacob who insisted on using you, the other directors and producers have already changed. Arya, do you want to take this opportunity to take a break?"

Recently, Arya had experienced too much.

If Allen had not been by her side all this time, Luna was really worried that she would not be able to persist.

Arya shook her head, "Luna, I can still hold on. Since I have already reached this step, how can I stop? These rumors will pass sooner or later."

Even if she had to grit her teeth and endure it, she had to endure it.

The previous movie invitations became scrap paper. There were posts scolding Arya everywhere on the website.

"Shameless woman, wasting my feelings."

"I thought she was a very positive actress. I didn't expect that she was also a green tea bitch who relied on her body to get promoted. She even pretended to be so pitiful and innocent in front of the camera. She is not as good as Caroline. At least she dares to tell the truth!"

Chapter 129 I'M Married

When the two extreme comments collided on the Internet, the Dahua Entertainment appeared at the most critical moment.

At the press conference where the new Dahua Theater was going to be released, when the manager of the Dahua's General Affairs Department interviewed the reporters, he expressed his belief that Arya had nothing to do with the hidden rules of the entertainment industry and praised her for being an outstanding actress in the entertainment industry.

"In this industry, appropriate scandals can increase the exposure of a celebrity, but if the content is purely fabricated and will harm the artiste itself, as the Brokerage Agency's perspective, we hope that the outside world can pay attention to the work itself."

"Some unproven speculation may mislead the public."

What he meant was that the rumors about Arya were just guesses. People could not think that Arya was related to this matter just because Arya's name was in the agreement photo.

In fact, there was no conclusive evidence to prove this matter.

The Dahua's statement immediately led to a large number of questing voices, and it started a war of words online.

"That's right. The media does not have any evidence. I think Caroline and Daniel are the ones who framed Arya."

"Everyone says that only through unspoken rules one can be able to obtain an award. Could it be that the people who have won the awards all have unspoken rules with the judges? The entertainment industry is really chaotic!"

As the situation continued to develop, Daniel finally kicked out of the CEO position by Brilliant Entertainment. After the meeting, everything about him was rejected. After all, the current situation was very tense. If the Brilliant didn't punish Daniel severely, the company would not be able to protect itself.

Caroline saw the announcement from the Brilliant Entertainment and was extremely proud.

"I knew those old guys would not let Daniel go. See, he forced me to this extent, he will die with me!"

Kayden, her manager shook his head. Seeing Caroline going crazy because of revenge, he was really worried.

"Caroline, actually what you did back then was not right. I see that Director Daniel is not in a good condition now. Do you want to go and see him?" Kayden took out his phone and passed it to Caroline.

"Then tell me who you married!" Daniel refused to believe everything and kept asking.

Allen took Arya's expression into his eyes and gently held her hand. "Then let's meet and let him give up."

In fact, Allen had already planned to help Arya get rid of this person.

"I will get Luna to contact you." After Arya finished speaking, she immediately hung up the phone and turned to Allen and said, "Actually there is no need..."

He tightened his grip on her hand and there was a trace of light in his dark pupils.

"Do you know how I feel when I hear what he said? Arya, I can protect you."

Luna saw the atmosphere and quietly left.

Arya was touched and nodded. She went forward and hugged him and said her thoughts. "Allen, I just don't want you to worry about these things."

The corner of his mouth rose and hugged Arya.

"You may not know. A man who can protect his woman at such a time is a form of recognition for him."

Arya looked up from his embrace and saw trust in each other's eyes.

In the car.

Arya kept looking out the window with a very calm expression.

The secretary called and said that he had already sent Daniel to the restaurant.

Allen said. "Take him in first."

He would not make a big fuss about Daniel. This was just a restaurant that he and Arya often went to.

The car stopped at the entrance of the restaurant. Daniel could see where he was sitting.

The woman who used to walk around him was now getting out of the car gracefully. Her originally calm face revealed a sweet smile when she looked at the man beside her.

Envy and anger filled Daniel's mind.
