

Love OAB 201

Chapter 201 Mysterious Prince Charming

The night, Allen returned to the home early in the evening. He wanted to spend more time with Arya. No matter how strong she was, she would not be in good mood right now.

Arya was the most assertive woman he had ever seen. She knew what she wanted and would not compromise because of others.

It was because of this that she was very likely to get hurt.

The moment Allen entered the door, Arya heard his voice and walked up to him. "You are back? I've already prepared dinner. You can eat after washing your hands."

"Are you still in the mood to cook now?" Allen smiled and hugged her waist.

"If I don't smile, do you want me to cry? If I cry because of this matter, then my tears are too worthless."

Arya coquettishly blinked her eyes and hooked her arms around Allen's neck. "My husband dotes on me so much. No matter what setbacks I encounter, I can cross them!"

Allen held her tightly in his arms and said gently. "I don't want you to be hurt and be used by others. I feel sorry for you."

He was the president of Dahua. He was the king of the entertainment circle. And she was the woman he loved in his life.

He couldn't watch the rumors spread outside the world.

"Only with you as my backer can I have such courage. Otherwise, I might really be bullied until I shed tears." Arya said in a low voice. She was acting coquettishly.

Because of him, she could move forward bravely.

Allen was convinced by her words. His eyes were full of smiles. "Since Madam said so, I have no choice but to obey."

The couple had never wanted to cause trouble, but if Melinda kept pressing on, she could not blame Arya for being ruthless.

Chapter 202 An Unfathomable Background

Many people on the Internet thought it was right to change the director.

The popular student was indeed not even comparable to the back view of this mysterious prince charming. No matter how Oliver pretended to be pitiful on the Internet, his fans would not buy it.

In just a day, this mysterious boy had made it to the top of the Hot Search List several times.

Everyone was crazily curious about his identity and really wanted to know who he was and what he looked like when he turned around!

But no matter how others, they couldn't find the name of the man. So everyone listed the actors in the entertainment circle who had similar figures.

But it seemed that there was a gap between them and this figure. None of them had the perfect temperament of this person.

The reporters did not have any clues, so they placed their hopes on Arya. They blocked the entrance of the company, wanting Arya to reveal this person's identity.

However, Arya completely hid from the media and they were unable to interview her.

In a situation where there was no other way, the reporters made a list of people who were most likely to be the mysterious Prince Charming, including President of Dahua Allen Jones. The others were not in the industry. There were elites from all walks of life, but they all had one thing in common. They all had extraordinary backgrounds.

At that same time, Arya's popularity was high.

It was rumored that this man with the back view was her friend. He was only willing to help her out on account of her face.

WM's advertisement was completely popular!

This time, the engagement ring series was very popular. Every offline shop had customers lining up to order every day, and they specially asked Arya to wear the one.

Other than that, groups of fans asked WM's employees to find out who the mysterious prince charming was.

Who was it? It would be good if someone revealed some clues.

However, the staff had no clue either. When they were shooting the commercial, they had completely cleared the area. Except for the director and a few staff members, no one had seen this person before.

"Okay. I'll reply." Justin absolutely supported Arya.

He also wanted to see how Arya would respond.

"In addition, I also want to do something. I want to reveal and disappear from the outside world. It proves that Melinda indeed has the intention of blackmailing me. Furthermore, she has already put it into action."

She wanted to throw out the baits first to make the interview show more complicated.

With this layer of smoke bomb, Hermine would definitely ask about the Aorai.

"Okay, I'll start the preparation."

After Arya hung up the phone, Allen got up from the desk and walked to her side to sit down. He gently pulled her into his arms.

"If they ask you if you are married, how will you answer?"

"How do you want me to answer?"

Arya smiled and laid in his arms.

Allen gently touched the tip of her nose and looked at her lovingly. "You can answer whatever you want."

He changed his tone and said in a low voice. "Melinda will not let you be interviewed easily after she receives the news."

Because what Arya did was equivalent to publicly provoking Melinda.

"She was the one who touched my bottom line first!"

Arya's gaze was firm. "I am a contracted artist of Aorai. But I am not a chess piece of that she randomly placed in her hands. No matter how many times I repeat myself, I will not agree to do what I do not want to do."

"Even if I want to become famous, I do not need to use those methods that I cannot even see the light of day."

"Alright, you won't do what you don't want to do." Allen hugged her even tighter.

Melinda was silent for a few minutes after she hung up.

She did not expect Arya to be so arrogant!

She dared to hang up her phone and use this kind of attitude to treat her!

She contacted Justin again, but after Justin heard the whole story, he gave a helpless answer, "Director Carter, I thought Arya was not too busy for the time being and had already arranged other travel arrangements for her. I'm afraid... she will not be able to accept those endorsement again."

No way to accept?

Melinda slammed the phone.

How could she have thought that such a day would come! She had already planned everything. She did not expect that the situation would be reversed because of the WM advertisement.

Not only would she lose a large amount of penalty money, but she would also become a laughing stock in the industry because of Arya.

Thinking of this, she knew that she could not wait any longer.

After chatting with Walter the last time, she decided to take the most convenient path and control Luna!

"Walter, I want Luna's family to be hostages. No matter what method you use, help me do this. After this, I will give you a satisfactory reward."

Luna waited at the airport for a long time but did not receive her brother.

She looked at her phone and saw an unknown message.

“Your brother is in our hands. If you want to see him, go to the parking lot of Area C.”

Luna panicked and broke in a cold sweat. She did not think anything else and ran over there.

“Get in the car.” Walter had been waiting for her.

“It’s you. What did you do to my brother?”

Luna shouted excitedly, “There are many security guards here. You...”

Luna would not be confused by Melinda's appearance.

"Thank you Director Carter for her good intentions. But my brother does not need it. He is not an art student and does not want to debut..."

"I want to take him away now!"

"Is that so? Why do I feel that your brother's thoughts are different from yours? Or do you think you can easily take him away from me?"

Melinda sneered, her eyes full of malice.

She was sure that Luna would not let her brother Noah go and she controlled Luna, which was equivalent to controlling Arya.

"What exactly do you want?"

"I want you to be my chess piece. You are the closest person to Arya. If I don't make good use of you, how can I live up to what she did to me?"

Melinda poured a glass of red wine and snorted in disdain, "You have been in this circle for a long time. Then you should have thought that there will be such a day when you work for Arya!"

Luna was extremely angry but could not turn away.

She could not withstand Melinda's coercion and thought that her brother was taken away by Walter. She could only sigh in relief, "You want to use me to deal with Arya?"

"Tell me all of Arya's secrets and I will let you go."

Melinda's voice surrounded the room. It matched the quiet night sky and was exceptionally cold.

"What do you want to ask?" Luna stared at Melinda's face.

"Who shot the WM commercial with her?"

"It seems to be a relative of hers. When the Arya heard that she was in trouble, they sent that person to save her."

Melinda hesitated for a moment when she showed off the Morrison Family. "Is it that simple?"

"Who else could Arya find? Although her relationship with the Morrison Family was not very good, Morrison's would not watch helplessly as she lost. It was just that this matter did not want to be discussed by the outside world, so she did his best to keep it a secret."

After following Allen for a long time, Martin had trained a pair of eyes that could see through people's heart. He wasn't sure about anything else, but Luna seemed to have suffered some kind of grievance.

Since the president had ordered him to investigate thoroughly, of course he had to go back.

Furthermore, seeing Luna's expression, he also wanted to help her in his heart.

"Is something the matter? I'm already here. Just tell me. Perhaps I can help."

"No, you should go back quickly. It's already so late." Luna wanted to close the door.

Martin had no choice but to stop her. "If you don't tell me, I'll have to wait at the door. Until you say so, or I'll go back and report, and the president will scold me for my incompetence."

When Marin said this, Luna had no choice.

"Come in first."

Luna coughed and poured a cup of hot tea for Martin. Then she told him about everything that happened in Melinda's home today and that her brother was controlled by them.

"Melinda did not want Arya to interview and talk about the program. She was afraid of Arya. Because Arya and I have a good relationship, she threatened me and used me to make Arya unable to tell the truth... I really do not know what to do."

"They are too much! They actually used such a vile method!"

"I can't help but tell you. But you must not tell Arya. I don't want to see her make things difficult for me." Luna pulled Martin and begged him pitifully.

"But you cannot let yourself be wronged like this!" Martin felt that Luna was too stupid. She would rather suffer and not say it loud.

He had a trace of pity and heartache...

"I plan to call the police!" Luna could only think of this method.

"I will help you find out where Melinda kept your brother. Don't worry, the matter will be resolved."

Luna could only nod her head. Although her actions were somewhat stupid, she could protect Arya to the greatest extent. It was just that she had wronged herself. She was also worried that Melinda would be flustered and do dangerous things to her brother.

When Luna heard Kiara's manager shout her name for the seventeenth time, she looked at the time. It was 7.35. At this time Arya should be ready in the dressing room.

She had always been serious and careful. Justin would take care of everything.

Luna lowered her head and walked in front of Kiara. She encouraged herself in her heart. She just needed to endure a little more!

"What is it?"

"You still have the face to ask me? Didn't I just ask you to buy me a cup of coffee? What did you buy? Instant coffee!"

"Do you think I have no status or status like your Arya, to drink this kind of thing?"

Kiara glanced at her and rudely flipped the coffee Luna spent an hour to buy at the coffee shop.

All of it splashed on Luna.

The manager next to her said in a weird tone, "Don't be so angry that your body would damage. You don't need to argue with this kind of person. I will call Director Carter and tell her that Luna's hands and feet are not nimble. I will ask Director Carter how to deal with it."

"Don't!" Luna shouted in panic and had to lower her head to apologize to Kiara, "I am sorry. It is my fault. I will buy it again!"

Luna said and was about to run out.

"Wait!" Kiara sat back and crossed her legs, "I feel like my shoes are stained with coffee. How will I see the brand later? Help me wipe them clean and then go buy coffee."

"Arya's assistant is only fit to help Kiara wipe her shoes!"

They did not only humiliate Luna but also insult Arya.

The staff who passed all looked over and did not know what had happened!

The crowd automatically made a way. Arya was wearing a black dress and a fashionable dark green trench coat. She stared angrily at Kiara's manager.

In the next second a clear and loud slap landed on Kiara's manager's face. Then her face began to turn red...

It could be seen how much strength Arya used.

But this was not enough to help Luna vent her anger!

The person who should have appeared on the interview program suddenly appeared here. Everyone was stunned. She came to take revenge for her assistant?

Furthermore, Arya did not come alone but with four foreign bodyguards behind her. Her manager, Justin, was also there.

The scene was silent...

Arya's aura was cold and arrogant. Her eyes were full of anger, making people not dare to look at her.

Kiara's manager was slapped in front of everyone. She was so angry that she could not say it. Due to Arya's aura, she took a half a step back.

Luna was helped up by Justin. The fingerprints on her face were clear. It could be seen that her left cheek was starting to swell.

"Arya, why are you guys here?"

At this time, she should be in the interview program team, Right?

Arya was still dragged down by her.

"How many times did she hit you?" Arya suppressed her anger but looked at Luna with heartache.

"Twice."

Arya waved her hand and slapped again. Without any hesitation, she accurately hit Kiara's manager's face.

"Arya, what are you doing!" Kiara's manager was already stunned by the hit.

Kiara stoop up and wanted to stop Arya, "Are you crazy?"

"No." Arya coldly glanced at her.

The punishment of bullying her assistant should be doubled!

After that, two more slaps.

Under the circumstances where the other party did not have any room to retaliate, she had indeed been slapped four times.

"What else?" Arya took a deep breath. Her aura was so strong that no one dared to fight against her, not to mention there were four bodyguards behind her.

Chapter 210 Her Ability

"Now, am I qualified to rob your resources?" Arya's voice was as cold as ice.

Kiara did not have the strength to answer her. Her mind was blank. If she had known that Arya and Allen were close, how could she be stupid enough to touch her people?

But how did she know Allen Jones?

She could even call Allen's assistant over phone!

No, Allen Jones wanted to come personally but was rejected by Arya!

The person in charge of J International was also in deep thought. It would be best for them to switch Kiara to settle this matter. When Martin arrived, they would have to actively cooperate with Dahua.

During the period of Martin's arrival, Kiara and her manager did not even dare to breathe loudly.

Kiara really wanted to take the opportunity to leave, but the situation did not allow her to escape.

Furthermore, even if she called Melinda for help now, due to the influence of Dahua, Melinda would only choose to give up on her.

Kiara could only lower her body and beg Arya in a low voice, "After all, we are all artists of the Aorai. It is better not to make things too ugly and make everyone lose face. Let me go this time..."

"Impossible."

Arya coldly replied her three words.

"From the moment you attacked, you could not turn back. You were wrong because you did not treat an assistant as a person and made her kneel down for you. Can you accept it?"

"Since you accepted it, you have to pay the corresponding price. This is the only way to be fair!"

Arya could not back down because the person who incited Kiara to do all this behind her back was Melinda!

Kiara clenched her fists in pain. Her body trembled... At this moment, she finally realized the difference between her and Arya.

"When Director Jones's assistant comes, what will he do..."

Kiara lowered her head and did not wait for Arya's reply. Instead, she waited for the surrounding people to whisper.
