Chapter 211 Special Appearance

This was the thing that gave Melinda a headache the most.

She did not want to lose all the decorum with the Dahua, nor did she want to let Arya go so easily.

"It's fine as long as you don't admit that the person is in your hands. Although our Aorai isn't as strong as Dahua, but it is a top acting company in the circle. If things got out of hand, it won't be beneficial to Dahua."

"I don't believe Dahua will go against Aorai just for the sake of an assistant's fiancée."

"I feel that Arya is the biggest obstacle in front of us." Walter raised his eyes and said viciously.

If it was not for Maria and Walter, Melinda would not have signed Arya and invited Justin back. In the end, it was all because of them.

But now that things had come to this, regret was no longer of any use.

"Fortunately, Arya will definitely not be able to catch up to the recording of Hermine's interview. We finally won a round."

But just as she finished speaking, Melinda's assistant ran in.

"President, Hermine's interview is normally broadcasted. The guest is still Arya!"

"What!"

But she can't possibly appear at the live broadcast at this time!

Walter quickly turned on the TV and saw that the program was broadcasting normally. The host, Hermine, wore a lotus colored dress and sat on the sofa with a smile.

"Dear viewers, good evening."

"Today, the guest of our program has a special surprise for everyone. Let's connect to her video first and see who she is."

Chapter 212 Make It Public or No

"There aren't many CEO who can care so much about the company's artists and employees. I want to make it clear to the outside world that I am very grateful to Director Carter for everything she did to me."

Arya spoke very calmly and there was a faint smile on her face. It seemed that she had indeed received Melinda's affection.

But her meaning was only understood by those who knew.

If Melinda did not release Luna's brother, she would expose the truth to the public. At that time, it would not be as simple as tearing her face apart...

Her answer was very detailed. It answered Hermine's question and also made the outside world unable to see her true thoughts. There were very few actresses in the entertainment industry who could do this so calmly.

Arya was indeed very capable.

Justin was very excited watching from below the stage. He did not expect Arya to solve the series of difficult problems one after another!

Furthermore, Melinda and the rest had to be willing to bear the result of sending the person back intact. If Luna's younger brother had any other problems, Melinda and the rest would pay a painful price.

Hermine also stayed in this circle for many years. After hearing Arya's words, she felt that there was a deeper meaning.

How could the CEO of such a big company care so much about the relatives of a small assistant? If it was not to win Arya over and make money for Aorai, then it was to have other plans...

If Melinda did that to hold Arya back, it could be said that her methods were heinous.

Arya was indeed a smart woman.

"Good. Then let's go to the next segment. Quickly ask and answer. All the questions in this segment are related to you. You have to give an answer within three seconds. Otherwise, you will have to accept the punishment of our program team's small game. Are you ready?"

Hermine smiled and said to the audience. "This is my favorite segment!"

Arya nervously rubbed her hands as if she was going to war, "Come on!"

Hermine picked up the question card and raised her right hand, "Get ready, start!"

"First question, do you know the male lead in the WM advertisement?"

Chapter 213 He Wanted to Give Her a Grand Ceremony

She never regretted her choice. Even if time had gone back, she would have done it.

Melinda should have already seen the live broadcast. After Luna's brother was brought back, her relationship with the Aorai would become tense. The real challenge had just begun.

She dared to hit someone and wanted someone. She was not afraid of Melinda taking revenge.

She had just walked into the villa when she was pulled into Allen's arms. "Thank you for your hard work."

The gentle embrace was intoxicating. Arya smiled and leaned on his shoulder. "Why didn't you say it?"

She clearly gave the decision to him and ready to admit at any time that she was the Mrs. Jones who would be envied by all the women in the world.

"This is the last time. If there is a next time, I will not tolerate it anymore."

He doted on her and kissed her lips a little bit. Then, he carried her by the waist and walked into the bedroom.

"My wife is so beautiful on TV. I want to announce that you are my woman!"

But he did not do that...

Arya still needed time to needed to put in a lot of effort to walk to his side.

"I was talking to you publicly on the program tonight. Isn't it a bit risky? Perhaps someone can recognize your voice."

Allen lowered his head slowly. His cold eyes were as deep as the sea. There was a gentle light in them. Only when he faced Arya would he become an ordinary man who cared about his wife and not the high and mighty Director Jones.

"Then I don't have to endure it. I know you don't want me to publicize it. It doesn't matter. There will always be a chance."

There was another reason why he did not say it loud. He wanted to give Arya a more grand and romantic public ceremony.

She was not a woman that he carelessly married, but a treasure that he would love for the rest of his life.

It was a night of joy and worry.

Luna saw that Noah was asleep and quietly called Martin, "Sorry, my brother listened to Walter's words and misunderstood you. Thank you for the past two days."

In the night, Luna's voice made Martin's heart beat faster.

"It's okay. I didn't take it to heart. I still have to go to work tomorrow. Have an early rest." After Martin finished speaking, he hung up cleanly.

Martin's answer made Luna a little disappointed.

But thinking about how they were just pretending to be an unmarried couple, how could Martin really like her?

On the other side, Martin was holding his phone in a daze. Why did he choose such an awkward way to comfort Luna?

Arya returned home and took a bath in a relaxed manner. She then crawled into the blanket and looked at looked at the man who was still reading the documents beside her. She silently admired his handsome profile.

“Hubby...”

A soft and sweet voice came out of her lips. Allen’s fingers paused when he opened the documents. He turned around and went to the bed to hug her.

Arya smiled and leaned into his arms. “You don’t need to work anymore?”

“I can’t work with you by my side.” He held Arya’s face and kissed her without hesitation.

He gently asked for Arya’s response. After a while of lingering, the room was filled with sweetness.

Arya buried her face into his neck. “I will fly to Paris the day after tomorrow. Although I do not know why Melinda would give such a good opportunity to me, I do not know. But if she dares to give it, I dare to take it.”

Only by turning the predicament into an opportunity would she be able to succeed.

Chapter 215 Beginning of Conspiracy

When they arrived at the airport, Luna suddenly realized that she forgot to bring her passport!
Arya thought about it and said, "There is not enough time for you to go back and get it. How about it, give Martin a call and see if he has time to send it over."
Luna always hid the key at the door of the house. It would depend on whether Martin was willing to help.
Beside her, Justin also said, "We can only rely on him now."
Luna could only muster up the courage to ask Martin to see if he could find time to help.
Originally, there were many documents piled on Martin's table to deal with and he was in a hurry to look up information, but when he heard Luna's request, he still agreed.
"Okay, I'll go right away."
Martin knew their schedule and registration time. He drove straight to Luna's apartment and got her passport.
But when he saw the note Luna pasted on the fridge, he felt that this woman was a little cute...

The notes wrote the schedule and plan. Clearly, they indicated that she wanted to bring their passport, but she still carelessly forgot.

Martin muttered to himself. "Looks like I will come often in the future."

After he finished speaking, he put away the apartment key. He seemed to have long regarded Luna as a special existence...

When he arrived at the airport, his expression was very unnatural. "Here."

Luna took it and said gratefully, "Thank god you are here."

Martin's handsome face was a little nervous. "Then I will go first. You guys have a smooth journey."

Arya and Justin were not far away watching this scene. Of course, they did not miss Luna's reluctant look as she looked at Luna's back.

"I told you that they are interested in each other. I have been an agent for many years. This kind of thing is never wrong." Justin said with emotion, "It is actually quite a good match..."

"I won't wear it. I'm not afraid that they will tell me. Tell Justin to inform the company that I lost my suitcase, so of course I won't be able to find my cloths."

In this way, they had no choice.

Luna nodded, "I know. But where can we find a suitable evening dress now? Fashion Week is tomorrow!"

Arya was sitting on the hotel bed and she did not know.

But her brain clearly told her that she had to perform herself perfectly in order to shut the mouths of those who wanted to see her lively!

Perhaps it was because their heart was connected, or perhaps it was because her lover had been sending people to pay attention to her news.

The next morning, the hotel's executive personally came to the door and brought a French designer, Esmee.

She was not the most famous designer in the fashion world, but her designs were mainly concise and generous. The Oriental beauty that could highlight female stars was a new favorite in the fashion world.

“Miss Arya, hello. I was entrusted by someone and specially brought two pieces of my latest designs. I hope they can add to your fashion design.”

Esmee showed her clothes to Arya.

It was a light purple cheongsam long dress with pearl decorations on the collar and shoulders. Along with embroidered patterns, it was very unique in China.

The other one was even more beautiful. Although it was made into a top and underpants style, the pants were very big, similar to a skirt. In addition to the beige and pink color, it made people look a little handsome and gentle when they put it on.

“Let me try this one.”

Arya did not need anyone to do it for her. Who else could care so much about her other than Allen?

When Arya changed into it, it was as if she had changed into another person.

“It seems like it is tailor-made just for you!” Luna praised then took out her phone to take some of her pictures.

Even designer Esmee praised Arya, “You are really a natural model and your figure is also better than many models. Don’t you consider cross-industry development?”

Chapter 217 Three Hours to Send with His Wife

After saying that, Allen carried her to another car.

Justin and Luna looked at each other. They both felt that it was great that Arya could find someone who really cared for her.

Everything that happened at the venue today made Justin feel that it was very strange. Could it be that Melinda really sent someone over? In his mind, he recalled some bad things in the past.

He and Rachel had also been secretly filmed...

It would be best if he was thinking too much.

Allen could not bear to let Arya stay in the hotel arranged by the Aorai. He was worried that there would be danger, so he brought her to a very luxurious and hidden manor villa. Because it was a high-class villa, the security guards were on 24 hours shifts. It was very safe.

When Arya woke up, the first time she saw was the man beside her.

“Allen!”

Allen dotingly rubbed her face. “Dear Mrs. Jones, I can only accompany you for three and a half hours, but it’s not bad to be able to watch you sleep for two hours.”

He did not blame Arya at all and did not want to wake her up. He kept hugging her in his arms and watched her sleep peacefully. His heart was incomparably peaceful.

Even if he had paid such a huge price just to look at her, he was willing.

“Why didn’t you wake me up!”

Arya was very distressed. She felt even more sorry for his hard work, “I miss you...”

Following that, Allen’s thin lips sealed off the words that came after her.

Arya reached out and hugged him. To her, he was also very unique existence. To be able to see him, she was instantly filled with the strength to persevere.

“To see me, flying for such a long time, is it worth it?” Arya hid in his embrace and asked helplessly.

“You are the CEO of Dahua. How could you do such a childish thing?”

Arya could not help but feel a surge of emotions in her heart. She kissed his lips.

“I’ll investigate the situation in the country right away!” Justin immediately went to other room to make phone calls.

He knew better than anyone how afraid Melinda was of Arya becoming famous.

She wanted to be the person who controlled Arya. But she did not rely on her real ability. She only knew how to stab someone in the back. Such a person was not worthy of becoming the President of Aorai.
She was no longer a friend that Justin had known ten years ago.

Of course, Arya believed Justin would handle this matter well. But in this world, other than Allen, she couldn’t fully trust a second person.

Luna was a little worried, “Perhaps Melinda has always thought that your relationship with Melinda is not only because Martin and I are engaged. She is suspicious, so she wants evidence to confirm it.”

Arya frowned. “It is possible, but she would never think of my relationship with Allen.”

“Are you sure?”

“She has always had a crush on Allen, but she did not pay attention to her. She is such a proud person. How could she associate Allen with me, a small actress?”

In her opinion, Arya was not worthy.

But whether she was worthy or not was not up to her!

As a woman, Arya did not hate Melinda. Instead, she sympathized with her.

Because she could not get people, she also felt that others could not get them. This kind of jealousy would sooner or later destroy her.

Together with the Aorai, one of the big entertainment company would collapse.

Luna returned to her room thoughtfully. After thinking for a while, she felt that because she and Martin did not act well that Melinda had always been suspicious.

She could not be Arya’s burden. She needed to help the later!

So she mustered her courage to send a message to Martin, “I feel that our relationship can be more real. You also have the key of my apartment. After a few days, you go there and live for a night and let other think that we are living together.”

Seeing that word living together, Luna’s face burned.

Chapter 219 Let Her Destroy Completely

"This time, it's not that simple!"

Walter had already made a series of plans. He would not let Arya have the chance to turn the tables.

Moreover, this time, no one could save her.

Just as Walter had expected, when the thread was sent, many people started to attack Arya.

"It's really hard to know a person's face and not his heart. such a virtuous woman actually has such debauchery in her bones."

"I heard that when she goes to other places to film and shoot commercials, she never stays in a hotel arranged by the company. It seems that she often asks people to go out and meet her."

"In the past, she said that she doesn't have a boyfriend. Could it be that she's really lying to fans?"

"Foreign models are so handsome? I feel like he's not handsome as the back of a prince charming. What kind of taste does Arya have?"

Melinda saw the rapid increase in clicks and views of the thread. She was so happy that she could not close her mouth.

It seemed like she had made the right bet. Working with Walter this time was enough to make their company famous.

When the other media wanted to interview the upper management of Aorai to ask about the truth of the matter, they were all stopped by Walter. He also informed inside that no one was allowed to reveal a single word about Arya's interview. Otherwise, they would be fired immediately.

The official of the Aorai did not explain anything about this matter. It seemed that they were allowing the situation to develop. Thinking about Arya's performance a few days ago, people could not help but think about the relationship between Arya and the Aorai.

There were also media who contacted Justin, but Justin was busy helping Arya handle the work here. He could not get away, so he asked Luna to go and see the situation.

After Luna saw it, she wished she could immediately buy a plane ticket and go back to find Melinda.

"Don't tell Arya first. Don't affect her performance during the last show."

"Of course, I heard the other party gave him a lot of money. It's not like you don't know Hunter's character. How could he give up such a good opportunity?"

Luna covered her mouth in surprise. "What should we do?"

Justin dragged her away quickly. In this situation, they had to respond immediately.

Otherwise, Arya would become the biggest joke of the fashion show!

First, they moved him away from Arya's side and then let her embarrass herself in front of the whole world...

Only Walter could think of such a move.

"I'll go find Director Jones. Go backstage and remind Arya to pay attention to Hunter. If she really can't avoid it, then she won't be participating in the finale show!"

He would rather she was not outstanding than to protect Arya's current reputation.

It was just that he and Luna knew very well that Arya was not a person who would shrink back when something happened.

In the audience stands, Allen wore a dark red suit and looked in the direction of the stage.

In another ten minutes, his wife would become the center of attention. How could he not come to applaud for her?

Justin walked to his side and told the truth about what had just happened.

“Find the person they bought and pay a higher price, no matter how much!” Allen’s face immediately darkened. The words he said were as cold as ice, and his aura was very different from before.

“We’ll talk about other things when we get back to the country.”

They actually dared to target Arya. They were too bold.

Justin nodded. At this time, using money to solve the problem was the fastest and most confident.
