Chapter 251 Don't Want to Admit Defeat

"I still want to talk to the person in charge." Arya still did not want to just let it go.

Raul looked at Arya meaningfully. It had to be said that she could still be so persistent at this time. It was indeed impossible to refuse.

"Okay. I will go and communicate with them again."

Raul was very efficient, but not everyone could ask for Johnson's contact information. He spent almost two hours to finally get in touch with the person in charge.

"You don't have much time. Take it easy."

He handed the phone to Arya.

Arya took the phone firmly and seriously. "Hello, Mr. Johnson. I'm Arya. I'm sorry to disturb you so late."

"Hello, what is it?"

"I am very bold to ask you. Do I really not have a chance to get the contract of the spokesperson of UNIC this time?" She continued. "Actually, I am very willing to study and work hard. I hope you can consider it again."

Johnson was stunned.

He had already given the order. It was impossible that they had not informed her at this time, unless something had happened during the negotiation.

However, at this moment, he suddenly wanted to hear her opinion.

"This..."

His voice was slightly hesitant. Arya immediately cleverly took over the words, "I know that perhaps I still have a lot of room for improvement in my reputation, but when I see UNIC, I will think of myself. This brand's ideology let me see what perseverance and conviction are. I am also confident that I can become an outstanding spokesperson."

Johnson smiled slightly and had the same feeling in his heart.

This opportunity seemed to be prepared for Arya by God. Other than her, no one else was suitable for it.

Chapter 252 Face to Face Rejection

Arya sighed, "You were sick after accompanying me to the hospital. If Martin knew about this, he would blame me!"

She deliberately made this joke to make Luna feel energized. Furthermore, Luna's little thoughts were written all over her face. She did not need to guess at all.

"Or, I might as well call Martin over."

"Arya, stop messing around. Martin is very busy with the big boss!" Luna covered her face with her hand and said.

"Oh, looks like you guys have always been in close contact. Otherwise, how do you know he is very busy?"

"I was just guessing randomly. Let's quickly leave." Luna wrapped her coat and opened the door.

Arya did not say anything. She just took out her phone naturally and sent a message to Martin, "Luna caught a cold last night."

Martin looked at these seven words and was lost. Last night when he called Luna, she was still fine. Why did she catch a cold now?

Did she catch a cold before she called him and wanted to tell him that she was very uncomfortable... or?

Arya could only say this. Even if she wanted to help Luna and Martin get together, the person involved must first understand each other's feelings. Sometimes, when the observer says too much, it will backfire.

Arya just got off the car with Raul and Luna when she saw Vanessa also came with her manager.

What was going on?

They all knew very well that this brand, 'UNIC', only wanted a spokesperson this time!

In other words, between them, there was bound to be one person who would lose. But why were they all here now?

Vanessa's assistant coughed. She received a call from Mr. Johnson's assistant, so this endorsement must be Vanessa's!

Chapter 253 Except For Him, Who Else Could It Be?

Vanessa felt like there was a fire burning in her throat. She really wanted to refute Johnson's words. But she could not think of any evidence that could be used to fight back!

She had debuted from the talent show hosted by the Skywings and relied on her background and the resources of the Skywings to reach this day step by step. She had never relied on her own strength. Any artiste who had her resources could become a celebrity.

However, Arya was different.

How many people would be able to come back from the entertainment industry after experiencing the storm she had gone through?

Vanessa was well aware of the game rules in this industry. If it were her, she would not be able to do the same as Arya.

"Now we need to talk about proper business. Please go back." Johnson said in a deep voice.

Vanessa still maintained her arrogant look. Her red lips were slightly raised. "We will meet again."

She would win against Arya!

When she brought her manager away from the UNIC headquarters, her manager was indignant, "Who does she think she is? She dares to snatch the resources that Skywings wants. Shameless!"

"Alright, do you still think that you are not ashamed enough?" Vanessa knew in her heart that what Johnson said was right. She had indeed lost.

"I am worried about you. If you do not get this endorsement, how will you explain it to the company when you go back?" The manager was having a headache as he fiddled with his phone. "It's not a big deal to lose to Dahua, but your opponent is Arya. She is just an actress who has just signed a contract. If word gets out, you will be laughed at!"

"It's a foregone conclusion. What do you want me to do?"

"No! As long as she doesn't complete the contract, you won't lose! At most, everyone will be tied." The manager said in a low voice.

Vanessa stopped and looked at the manager beside her, "Is there any way to stop her now? Arya is not someone who will obediently withdraw after you threaten her with a few words."

"That may not be the case. I heard that Dahua has never revealed the identity of her manager. Perhaps they do not value her at all? I will go back and check. There will definitely be a turning point!"

Arya sat up from the bed, "I don't know..."

"Then can you guess the identity of the manager? I feel like you already know! Could it be that he secretly contacted you?" Luna suddenly felt that Arya's performance today was especially calm. She moved closer and asked curiously.

"I roughly guessed." Arya picked up the hot kettle and poured a cup of hot water for Luna. Now that the two of them were left overseas, of course they had to take care of each other.

Otherwise, she was afraid that Martin would blame her after returning to the country.

"Who is it?"

"Who do you think Allen will send to be my manager?" Arya put the cup of water into Luna's hand,
"Drink more hot water!"

Luna frowned and held the hot water while pondering, "Who must have outstanding public relations and coordination ability!"

"Furthermore, he must have a lot of connections in the entertainment industry. With special foresight, he will be able to foresee your future development path!"

Luna thought about it one by one...

"So, what's the answer?" Arya smiled and looked at her.

Luna took a deep breath and said three words, "He himself!"

Arya nodded in agreement. This was the only answer she could think of. Other than him, no one else could satisfy all of these requirements.

Luna was stunned as she picked up the cup of water. But because she had just reacted, she choked on it. She coughed violently but was very excited, "This is a shocking news. The big boss actually became your manager personally!"

"No wonder even Raul did not dare to tell us his identity!"

Under everyone's shocked gaze, Allen walked towards the cameraman and staff, "The contract clearly states that Arya's working hours are four hours. Your actions have already violated the contract."

The cameraman was stunned.

Indeed, in order to catch up with the progress, they forced the actors and models to overload the filming.

But no one objected!

Therefore, the cameraman was not afraid of Allen's words at all. "Everyone is taking pictures. It's not like she is working overtime alone."

"I don't care about the other artistes, but Arya can't work like this. I want to follow the contract." Allen turned around and walked towards Arya. He gently helped her up. "Let's go."

Arya nodded, but when she was about to move, her ankle hurt so much that she could not stand steadily. She could only rely on Allen's strength to barely stand up.

Looks like she needs to rest for a bit before she can...

Allen directly carried her and pushed open the door of the shooting site and walked out.

The cameraman asked from behind, "Who the hell are you to take her away at the studio!"

Arya only brought an assistant and a few bodyguards when the shooting started in the morning. They had never seen this man before.

"Her manager!"

Luna was holding a cup of water and clothes at the back and smiled complacently. This was good. Arya had someone to protect her!

They bullied Allen Jones's wife and he saw it on the spot. It was already giving them face that he did not explode on the spot. It seemed that Allen was indeed paying attention to the situation here at all times. Although he was not at the scene when the contract was signed, he noticed every details.

Arya was carried into the car by him. Seeing his cold face, she reached out and pulled his suit jacket, "Manager?"

Allen saw that she was extremely tired and could not get angry, but he still replied in a low voice, "Yes, Miss Morrison."

Chapter 256 Explosive Scandal

Even when the makeup artist was putting on makeup, he carefully observed Allen's expression a few times.

This cold and arrogant man only showed a gentle smile when he faced Arya. His care and concern was only given to her alone in front of other strangers. In front of strangers, he was definitely a king that could not be approached.

A man that could only be looked up to.

"Could he really be Arya's manager?"

"I think his looks are more suitable to be a celebrity!"

"Do you guys think he has a girlfriend? Can I ask for his phone number?"

The surrounding staff whispered to each other. Some of them even wanted to talk to him, ask for phone number or other contact information. Before they could say anything, Allen had already responded to them with a cold look.

Luna stood by the side and was extremely happy. With big boss here, no one dared to look down on Arya anymore.

During Arya's filming process, Allen also took the time to pick up a few phone calls and settle some daily work. When the day's work was about to end, UNIC's Johnson and a few other executives came to the filming site to inquire about the progress.

As soon as they walked in, they were attracted by Allen who was sitting in the rest area.

They did not invite male models for this commercial shoot...

"That is?" Johnson asked his assistant. He felt that he had seen this person somewhere before.

This kind of temperament and appearance was not something that could be seen in ordinary occasions.

"He is the president of Dahua Group, Mr. Allen Jones." The assistant answered in a low voice.

Johnson nodded. The next second, however, he remembered the call he received that changed his mind. It was from President of Dahua's office.

Chapter 257 Her Fear

Arya was very angry when she heard this.

As a celebrity, Serena had already done everything she could.

"You have already worked very hard."

It was that man's methods were too despicable!

She clenched her phone tightly. Compared to Daniel's shamelessness, this man was even more despicable!

"Thank you for listening to me. After I say it, I feel much more comfortable."

Arya did not know why Serena was willing to tell her this. Perhaps it was because they had a common language and had some sympathy for each other.

"I will leave the Dahua. I do not want to involve innocent people. I know that the news affected you. I have really reached a dead end."

"No, there will definitely be a chance. The Dahua will not give up on you, so you cannot give up on yourself!"

Arya was afraid that she would do something stupid, so she tried her best to persuade her, "I have encountered all kinds of rumors before, but I still met Allen. I believe that as long as you can endure this period of time, you will definitely be able to start your life again."

"Don't give up..."

Chapter 258 When There Is No Way to Retrea

As Serena's scandal became more and more intense, even if the Dahua made a response, it would not be able to stop the other party from throwing out the real photos one after another. The big star who used to be proud of the entire entertainment industry actually had such a lowly side...

For a moment, everyone was shocked by this matter. Serena's reputation and social status had fallen drastically.

Because the situation had developed rapidly, even the Dahua had been affected.

Raul's public relations strategy was to let Serena tell the truth. Only if she bravely stood out and told everyone that she was the victim of the entire matter, this way could the outside world change their views.

However, with Serena's current condition, she could not stand out and accuse the man she loved deeply. She had hidden her broken heart in the deepest part. This kind of injury could not be healed so quickly.

Skin injuries could be treated with medicine, but the heart injuries could only be slowly recovered.

Raul could not empathize with Serena's current pain. This feeling of being betrayed by someone was enough for another person to collapse.

And this kind of thing happened to Arya before. She understood and felt even more regretful.

Arya told Raul her thoughts. That night, Raul found Serena.

The assistant helped Serena clean up the messy house while Raul quietly observed from the side. He wanted to see how that man had personally destroyed this dazzling movie star.

Chapter 259 Appear at the Airport Together

Arya also knew this news in the shortest time. She was still filming but suddenly felt a new kind of power. So during the final shooting, she performed exceptionally well.

That kind of grace and charm was incomparable, her limelight directly overshadowed the other stars.

In addition to her exceptionally impactful performance, it was unforgettable.

After all the filming ended, she pulled Allen back happily. "Let's go back!"

"Don't you want to rest for a while?" Allen asked.

"I want to go back and cheer for her."

Allen could not argue with her and immediately booked a flight back to China. After bidding farewell to Johnson, he brought Arya and Luna to the airport.

This time, it was very different from usual.

They would appear at the airport openly and would not hide from reporters anymore. They did not need to take two separate flights.

Allen saw Arya looking around subconsciously and said in a low voice, "Why do you look so nervous?

Chapter 260 Why Don't I Kill Him and Myself?

These discussions made Arya feel that it was very funny.

When celebrities were famous, they claimed that they were true fans. Once there were any rumors, they would immediately turn into anti-fans.

In the eyes of these people, celebrities should always be perfect. If there was a single flaw, it would be ruthlessly criticized by them, erasing all of this person's previous efforts.

This seemingly bright and beautiful circle was actually the darkest one in the world.

Celebrities, it was just a topic of conversation after the meal...

All of their hard work and sweat can't compare to an anonymous thread posted online.

What a sad reality.

Arya sighed and sat in the car, leaning against Allen. She would only feel at ease if she touched him.

Allen sensed her feelings and held her in his arms. He used his warmth to comfort Arya's nervous heart, "We will be home soon. You rest first."

"Allen, do you want to go back to the company to deal with the news?"

"After the video conference, we have a plan. Raul will handle it. I don't need to do anything." The despicable means of Skywings were not worth his time.

"Then... can I go and see Serena? I'm worried about her."

Allen nodded and arranged for Martin to secretly send Arya there. Martin would bring Arya back in perfect condition without attracting the attention of the media.

Serena's apartment was surrounded by reporters from three floors outside and three floors inside. There was no way she could go in. Arya could only go upstairs through the cargo elevator on the other side and meet Serena on the rooftop.

Ten minutes later, Serena walked up to the rooftop wearing a black trench coat, sunglasses, and a hat.

Arya looked back and saw that she wrapped herself so tightly. She immediately realized something and walked over to take off Serena's sunglasses. Sure enough... her eyes and forehead were all bruised.
