

Love OAB 271

Chapter 271 Get Hit by a Car When You Go Ou

In addition to the photograph, there was a letter.

"Arya, what do you really look like? You know very well in your heart. Just wait and see. We will let everyone see your true face!"

Arya blinked and put the photo on the bed. She wanted to wait for Allen to come back and show it to him.

A few hours later, she saw on the phone news that Dahua had already negotiated with the person in charge of Angel Starr and solemnly said that they would investigate the matter to the end. This was indirectly a warning to Vanessa.

After hanging up the phone again, Vanessa's manager had a headache.

"What did they say? Say something! Didn't I tell you that Arya is very difficult to deal with? Did you clean it up properly?" Vanessa shouted angrily.

She did not want to bury her future here.

shouldn't be any problems, right?" The manager wiped the sweat on her forehead. If it was anyone else, she was sure, but it must be Allen controlling the situation behind the car. I want to go to the company!" She did not believe that the Skywings would ignore truth. Wasn't it because they were afraid of Allen? You have lost this time. I think there is only one that the situation is very serious. This time Allen will not let her manager's persuasion. She could not let go of the anger in her heart no matter how hard she tried. That kind of disbelief mixed with grievance. She tightly clenched her fists and sneered, "Arya's luck is to jealousy and hatred. Seeing her like this, the get Arya's phone number." Vanessa said it, but her expression carried resentment, "Then contact

The manager was stunned, "If you don't reach that stage, don't be so extreme. It's not easy for you a contract with Dahua and has Allen as her manager. I have could only show a worried expression, the moment she walked out of Vanessa's apartment, her expression became relaxed. Since Vanessa was willing to stand out and take responsibility for everything, this matter had nothing

Chapter 272 Apologize Publicly

Allen Jones?

What!

Vanessa did not expect that the person who answered Arya's call would be Allen. What did she just say. .

She was afraid and anxious as she explained, "Director Jones, I'm sorry. I didn't mean that. Listen to me."

"No need. I heard it very clearly."

Allen not only heard it clearly, but also recorded the second half of the call on his phone.

Especially the part where Vanessa cursed Arya. It was recorded very clearly.

Vanessa was completely stunned. She cried in pain and begged Allen to let her go, "I'm sorry, I really know I was wrong. I beg you. . ."

mistakes. Let's end the

the phone

all contact information regarding Arya into my number and strictly keep her personal phone number a secret to something. Otherwise, how could he have done this and caused all of this to happen? Clearly, it had injured their CEO's know how to repent. Cursing and provoking didn't come up with a countermeasure at her manager said next to her was... She did not listen to a single Arya was willing to forgive her, pain. Other than taking the initiative to admit her mistake, out of the house and appeared in front of all was wearing a high-end Chanel style dress with light makeup on her face. Even so, it could not cover the tired look on her face. As the camera was focused on her, the expression of escaping on

she had been in

Chapter 273 Current State Was Not Bad

She did not give any definite answer, which aroused heated discussion in the outside world.

"The artist from the Skywings, Vanessa, suddenly announced her withdrawal from the entertainment circle. Can we think that she has something to do with the accident at the award ceremony?"

"Vanessa was very tired when she was interviewed. She seemed to be deliberately avoiding the reporters."

"The few movies that she had just screened all had good reactions. She had the chance to aim for the Best Actress Award at the end of the year. It was really unbelievable that she announced her withdrawal at this time. Could it be that she really bribed the anti-fans to push Arya down?"

"On the night of the award ceremony, although Arya was injured, she persisted until the end. She did not publicly say that she wanted to hold anyone accountable..."

Allen frowned slightly. This news did not satisfy him.

Although Vanessa appeared, she did not apologize to Arya at all. What was this?

Arya saw the intention of his phone call and quickly stopped him, "Forget it. For someone like Vanessa to ask her to leave the entertainment industry is already enough to make her suffer. As for the apology, I will not force it."

"She did not sincerely apologize and I also do not want it. Don't waste time on that kind of person, Allen..."

Hearing her say so, he really could not refuse.

"Okay, I'll do as you say." He got up from the sofa and laid down beside Arya. He gently pulled her into his embrace, "I am worried about you..."

Arya leaned comfortably into his embrace and gently massaged Allen's arm. "Similarly, I am also worried about you. Not only do you need to deal with the company's matters, you also need to be my manager to protect me. When you return home, you need to take care of me. You need to take a good rest. Okay?"

Allen did not respond. Instead, he used his actions to respond.

He hugged Arya tighter. Then, he pressed his chin against her neck and closed his eyes.

"I have the best manager in the world. I am not afraid of anything and will not take that despicable trick to heart. So... you should also concentrate on your work and rest well. Don't waste time."

"Okay."

not allowed her to do anything since she got hurt. Arya was at ease office, she heard an intense argument coming from inside. To be exact, Martin was throwing at the door for a while and frowned it anymore. She pushed open the door and walked in. She saw that the female employee was still crying. She handed her a tissue and said female employee looked at coughed and whispered, "Hurry up suddenly realized that she seemed to care too much, so she smiled awkwardly, "I make mistakes, so don't because Madam knows that if you go to to be so direct." Luna muttered. She was hungry and her stomach started to sound. She her and put on his Together?

like this was the first time today's atmosphere was like this, especially when Martin stood at do you want to eat?" Martin asked Luna as he swiped his card of smile, plus this gentle elevator. Luna looked at the distance between herself and Martin. Subconsciously, she felt inferior and wanted to stand to elevator door opened, her shoulder was held by Martin. She was led into Luna was hit by someone and was even closer to Martin's chest. She lowered her head in excitement and nervousness. Was this an indirect next second, she felt that the distance between her and him into her, he especially used his arms to widen the distance so that not necessary.

her mouth and wanted to say something, but she also felt that she was thinking too much.

the smile on the man's face when she the elevator. Luna suddenly felt a little discouraged. If she

Chapter 274 Be My Girlfriend

Luna frowned and walked in. She pushed Martin away and said while cleaning up, "This can't be placed here. It will fall easily. Also, the chopping board must be placed here. Do you remember?"

Martin's eyes were filled with something. He turned around and went out to get the spare key. He put it in Luna's hand, "I might not be able to remember. Can you come over often to take a look?"

"Ah, it's just this little bit of daily chores. You are Director Jones's assistant. You will not be able to remember it."

"I may need you to come here a few more times."

Martin held it in for a long time before saying this.

In fact, it was not that he did not know how to do housework, but he wanted Luna to come here often.
He thought of more than ten plans in the kitchen and finally felt that this was the most reliable.

He wanted her to come here often?

Luna was stunned and then saw Martin approach her bit by bit.

She looked at the vegetables that were cut, "Aren't you hungry? Why aren't you cooking?"

Martin tilted his head to look at her and said after a while, "Are you hungry?"

Luna looked at Martin as if she was thinking about something. The little deer in her heart seemed to have gone crazy. Could it be that she was the only one thinking about it? He was already too close!

"I only know how to make noodles. Cutting things isn't very fast. You might have to wait for me for a while longer. I'll do it a few more times and then I'll get used to it." Martin said and took a plate from behind Luna.

Luna felt the atmosphere was very awkward. "I will continue to clean up!"

Martin saw her leave in a hurry and the smile on his lips rose again. She took the key.

Just as Luna thought, Martin did not bring his friends home often. He had never had a female friend before. His furniture and daily necessities were all the same. They all had the same grayish-white tone. A simple packing up of the house would make it look neat, but it would give people a lonely feeling.

After Luna finished cleaning up the room, she had an inexplicable impulse. She wanted to ask if Martin brought her here today with a simple idea or...

at the key in her bag. Wasn't it only men and women who were in relationship would give now, Martin had her and over again, trying to think not ready yet?"

and unwillingly poured the noodles later, Martin brought two bowls of hot noodles and a few dishes of side dishes.

satisfaction, "I didn't expect you to cook

you like, I will cook choked by these words. She opened her eyes wide and know that he could not say these you give me the key to your house and why did you cook for me?" Luna finally asked this question. If she did not ask, she would

It's normal to have my family's Oh my god!

him to say

was about to be cooked, "That was just for could finish her words, Martin had already approached her.

did not have time to react, he lightly kissed

Luna. She looked at Martin in girlfriend. I will give you my heart and ecstasy. She did not retreat nor push Martin away. Instead, she took the initiative never be a

His heart was beating intensely. Martin, who had always been reserved, needed a lot of courage against his chest and heard him ask in a low kept shaking her head, "I will not do

Martin was stunned.

I was sick, you stayed at my house and took care of

she was thinking too bowl. Then, she watched Martin clean up the bowls and chopsticks and the kitchen. The two of

Chapter 275 She Mentioned Her Family

Allen first considered Arya's physical condition, but this interview program did not require any intense movements. She just needed to sit there and chat for an hour. Arya should be able to handle it.

In order to better receive interviews, Arya had been doing some recovery actions at home.

"My station's reporter's latest report is that the famous movie star Vanessa committed suicide in her own apartment on the second day after her and a certain director's unwritten photos were exposed, but because she was rescued in time, her life is no longer in danger."

"But what we can confirm is that she did have an incognito relationship with many directors."

"Currently, she is resting in the hospital. We will continue to pay attention to the subsequent developments."

Luna took a sip of water and was very happy to see such news. "That's right. No matter how arrogant that woman is, there will be retribution sooner or later. Even if she can be saved now, she may not have the face to see anyone for the rest of her life."

Arya leaned on the sofa and looked at the screen. She did not reply but there was a deep meaning hidden in her eyes that Luna could not see through.

At this time, Luna also saw online comments about Vanessa's suicide.

"I have a friend who is an intern in the Skywings. It has already spread inside their company and Vanessa was forced to do so by the Dahua."

"A few days ago at the award ceremony, Arya fell off the stage because of Vanessa. But not only did Vanessa not apologize, she even threw out some comments about her leaving the industry. I feel that she does not want to take responsibility!"

"No one forced her to do that kind of shameless thing. She is the one who is not clean."

"In my opinion, Arya's manager is protecting her this time. Who would dare to bully her in the entertainment industry in the future!"

Luna looked at Arya's expression and said softly, "Arya, I think Director Jones did the right thing. This way, everyone will understand that you are not easy to bully. Moreover, Vanessa did everything by herself. No one forced her."

"I understand. I am not that magnanimous either!" Arya blinked, "I thought that Allen might do this."

that Arya was worried too much and was afraid that and it was her own

would not pity a person who lost herself because of

had to be prepared

there were no

nothing to do with us. You better take good care of

You have an appointment with Martin two of them had been together a while yourself. No worry. Allen will be back soon."

was really happy for Luna. She hoped they could he saw Arya leaning on the sofa with a thin blanket covering her body. He lightly walked over and softly called her rubbed her sleeping eyes and some snacks.

replied with a official documents that he brought back. When she was almost done eating, he passed the question that came from the star program team public manager, of course few times, she frowned because the question on the paper not only involved her relationship with Allen, was thinking at first glance.

"I'm fine. It's just that the

them to something." Arya pulled Allen's hand and asked him to sit next to her. They were already husband and wife. she wanted to tell him some things, such as struggling. He realized that what she said next might be very of Morrison Family, Frederick Morrison, is my father. It's just that my mother is his second wife. When they met, his

Chapter 276 I Will Only be a Manager for One Person

Allen let go of the woman in his arms and kissed her deeply on the lips. He used this intimate way to comfort her heart.

"When you are ready, I will take you to see the Jones family."

Allen only knew how uneasy Arya was about the word family after hearing these words. She needed a lot of security to fill in the lost affection.

Because the family relationship she had experienced was so complicated...

"Okay." Arya nodded in his arms.

Allen immediately talked to the person in charge of the TV program and asked to change everything about Morrison Family.

Actually, the TV station really wanted to dig deeper into the content of the Morrison Family. However, since Allen had made his stance clear, they also believed that with Arya and Allen's fame, it was already the guarantee of the viewership ratings. Even if they did not need the part of the Morrison Family, it was enough to support a very popular topic.

In the remaining time, Arya could listen to the doctor's arrangements and carry out rehabilitation treatment. With Allen by her side taking care of her, Arya was almost fully recovered. They were very confident in the upcoming trip.

"The program will be on tomorrow. Have you recovered from your injuries?" Serena asked worriedly over the phone.

"Don't worry. This program is enough." Arya blinked and signaled Allen that she wanted to rest first. She leaned on the cushion and her forehead was full of sweat. She had just done a few yoga movements on the side of her body and the injury on her waist had not fully recovered.

"Actually, I have something to tell you. You know Melisa Moore, right? She is going back to China. As the chief movie star of Dahua, she has been developing overseas for the past few years. She is already very influential in the international film industry. Furthermore, she has been appointed as the global image ambassador for three years. Back then, in order to keep the Skywings in check, Director Jones spent a lot of resources on her to nurture her. "

"Do you want me to be careful of her? Or do you want to remind me that it's time for family education?" Arya asked and looked up at Allen, who was pouring milk for her.

"From the day I met Director Jones until now, only you have been by his side." Serena paused and said, "I just thought that Melisa has a very high position in the company. Although she rarely participated in domestic activities overseas, the company has made a lot of profit on her every year. Correspondingly, she can choose many high-quality resources first. Now that Director Jones publicly announced that he will be your manager, I think she will care about it more or less."

thinking for Arya. She did not deliberately speculate about Melisa's intention to return to the country. Instead, she reminded Arya to take good care of her phone and directly reached out to hug the man on the soft sofa. Then, he handed her fruits and milk. However, Arya rubbed his chin, "Haven't you thought about helping someone ascend to the international movie queen's throne, will only be a manager for one person. The prerequisite is

"Is that so?"

very close to each other. Arya for a few go of her, the desire in his eyes had clearly faded. Just as he are slower, it should took a deep breath, got up and carried her into the bedroom, directly were endured these few days. It was really torturous. As soon as he touched her skin, it was as if it not keep up with his intensity. For started filming after Allen became her changed her clothes

...

strictly checked and did not let any reporter inquire about any news the dressing room, the reporters were both distressed and afraid. They only dared to knock on the door softly, "Can we interview Arya before the program starts? We are really concerned about her health. We

"No," Allen said.

up on the idea of an interview and waited at the door to take a few

the recording time approached, Allen escorted her out

Chapter 277 Her Response Is Watertight

At this moment, Arya felt even more nervous than usual because Allen was there.

She greeted the audience with a smile. Her attitude was naturally gentle. She sat on the sofa opposite the host and faced the audience diagonally.

"We all know that Arya was injured a while ago. How is your body recovering now? I think this question is what your fans want to know the most."

"After a period of recovery, I have basically recovered."

The host smiled and said, "If you have any questions during the interview, you can tell me at any time. Next, let's begin our first segment today!"

The host raised his hand and invited the staff backstage to take out the question card.

"Our program is very human-like. All the questions are randomly placed here. It will be chosen by the guest! Are you ready?"

The host energized the atmosphere on the stage. Arya smiled and said, "What should I do? Can I still go back now? I'm so nervous!"

"If you come, you can't leave!"

Arya looked at the question box. Under the audience's expectant gaze, she smiled and took out one.

The host took it to take a look and said in surprise, "It was the main show from the start! Please tell us, who is the most perfect manager in your heart?"

Arya looked at the audience and paused for a moment. Then she answered firmly and sincerely, "My current manager, Mr. Jones, is perfect."

"Ah..." The audience in the stadium screamed crazily.

No one expected Arya to answer so directly! They thought that she would be interrogated by the host, but they did not expect Arya to be so cooperative!

her head, "You are really the most honest female guest I have ever seen. Just now, it was just an appetizer. Please about Allen, she believed that the viewership big screen showed some of Arya's shooting and shooting of advertisements a while ago. In the end, it also showed some of the videos and photos of her winning awards attentive. Arya felt very warm in her heart after seeing it, and there were tears in the has been seven years since Arya's first movie started. I want to ask, what produce good works and give there are in the outside world, we have to keep our original heart and not follow the flow. I feel that the key is to see what you think and how you treat it. I think that I love the profession of actors and only for a moment, and then I will set give you the

and the audience applauded at her response, "Looks like just smiled and pressure in the outside world many times. Then can I understand that these pressures are caused by some public opinion fans who are familiar with me know that I pay more attention to my inner self. As long life and values are worth us learning. Then let the and his hand excitedly at the audience, "I like the question of our fans' anonymous submission. Each one

"Wow!"

The fans were excited.

time, during the live broadcast online, the fans flooded the screen, calling the program team

see how Sis Arya

god, so

"Together, together..."

helplessly and nervously, "Don't tell me that the questions you prepared are

Chapter 278 Live With Your Manager

"Do you have any thoughts of settling down now, for example any relationship?" When the host asked this question, the audience screamed again.

Arya maintained her smile and replied without any hesitation, "I feel that after signing the contract with the Dahua, my career has entered a relatively stable stage."

"What about feelings?" The host pursued relentlessly.

"I feel that as long as you give it your all, regardless of whether it's to your friends or family, there will be a very good result. You can't selfishly absorb it. Whether it's feelings or life, you have to give it your all."

Arya's reply was very serious, and it made the fans' excitement stabilize a lot. From her, the audience could see a very elegant and living female appearance. Although she was only 26 years old, the words she said were things that many people would not understand for the rest of their lives.

She seemed to have seen through the true meaning of life.

In the short interview time of this program, the audience saw a Arya who was different from the screen. She was like a book that people could not get tired of reading and the words she said made people reminisce.

"I am very happy to be able to invite Arya to our program today. Ever since she came back, we have seen her hard work. We saw her use her acting skills to prove herself, but because some storms in the entertainment industry will always involve her. So I want to ask why you did not go to the hospital immediately after you fell down at the award ceremony that day. Because I think your condition was very serious at that time."

"I did not feel any pain at that time. I want to go to the hospital to have a good check-up after that." After Arya answered, the staff immediately poured her a cup of hot water.

The host saw that the staff was arranged by Allen. She was caught off guard and noticed their PDA.

"Then answer my last question. Do you live with your manager?"

The fans were waiting for Arya's answer in anticipation. The host's question at the beginning was just a small matter. It could be easily resolved by Arya. Now, this question definitely could not escape!

Arya's answer had always been very all live in

This...

too big, plus the management of the upscale district is very strict. Even if she gave the answer, they wouldn't be

she will be able

a photo with Arya. Then, Arya returned to the backstage under the protection of the staff. There, Allen out a coat that he had prepared earlier and put it is because you and my name are

Allen protected her past. You only needed to guide everything in the company. But now, because of me, you have to keep getting attention from the public. I'm afraid the beginning to the end, Arya faced it with a very calm attitude. She did not give wanted to worry. As long as it is tied to held her hand, "Go home. In the future, we will not like I requests. He hugged Arya and international female star, who was only 23 years old, had won countless awards. Her impressive figure and pretty face had won her many fans' admiration. With her unique charm, she crossed the host, dance, and acting world. Compared to the flower vase female star of the same age, she could be always liked exaggerated jewelry and fashionable clothing. Today, she wore a seemingly casual but revealing belly button, a very sexy black sweater, boots, and leather pants. It was full of

Melissa learned in the car that Allen a small character who has just signed a contract with the Dahua. I don't know what Director Jones is thinking. He suddenly wants to be her

"Oh."

Chapter 279 Arya vs Melissa

But now, it seemed like Allen was someone she could never touch.

This matter was enough to disrupt all of Melissa's plans.

"Mels, Serena called."

"She?" Melissa subconsciously wanted to refuse.

But her manager added, "Recently at the company, she and Arya are the closest."

Melissa looked at her and softly said. She picked up her phone, "Hello?"

"Have you returned to the country? Do you have an appointment tonight? Let me treat you to dinner." Serena took the initiative to say.

"I am a little tired..." Melissa softly replied. In the night, the street lamps along the way shone on her face, "I just came back and heard that Director Jones became Arya's manager. What kind of background does she have? Why does Director Jones make an exception for her?"

Serena's purpose of calling was to know her attitude towards this matter.

In the past few years, her focus was basically out of the Dahua's control. It was just that the contract was still in the Dahua. Judging from her tone now, she was indeed very dissatisfied with this matter.

"I'm not too sure either. You know, no one dares to interfere in Director Jones's matter." Serena very well pushed the blame onto Allen. She hoped that Melissa would not target Arya.

"Okay, I am tired. We will talk next time."

After Melissa hung up the phone, she started to worry about Arya in her heart.

As the proudest existence in Dahua, Melissa had always enjoyed the best. Now that Arya suddenly signed with Dahua and had Allen as her manager, her status was naturally different from ordinary artistes. Melissa's way of doing things was hard to understand and no one could guess what she really was thinking.

Would she cause trouble for Arya?

to find out your intentions. Why don't I help you contact the people of Skywings?

snorted coldly, "How much did the Skywings give you?

industry early and had already have to consider everything for you." The manager smiled and put away and did not say anything this matter anymore. She knew Melissa's character. She was very successful at such a young age. She very popular now. If she could make Melissa realize that Arya was a go straight home. Instead, she went to a Room 1888.

door and entered. There were already men waiting the man lit a cigarette, "What did at him angrily. "What could she say? She was picked up popular recently.
They forced the Skywings to give Arya Vs Melissa and makes them dislike each other..." Zelda spread her hair and of Arya's line to make Melissa dissatisfied with the Dahua was not Zelda was not a spy sent by the Skywings to the Dahua. It was all because of this man that she would work
and kissed her famous movie star Arya, who is a of voting was everywhere on the internet. It was usually done spontaneously by fans and did not have much authority. But here, it included a it, they just voted to play. Because Arya had been very popular recently and had Allen as her manager, compared to Melissa who was knew that Arya was indeed a period when Arya retired, Melissa had already made a name for herself in the international film value of the work, Melissa had a very high chance of winning. Her could not compare with. In

Chapter 280 He Should Also Be Your Manager

Allen also saw that there was a problem with the vote. He immediately ordered the matter to be dealt with. He dialed Arya's number. "I've already sent someone to deal with it. Don't worry."

"I'm not worried about myself. I'm more worried about you." Arya said in a low voice. "Melissa has the ability to leave Dahua at any time now. If it causes such a disturbance because you are my manager, I am afraid that I will make things difficult for you. The dignified Director Jones condescends to be the manager of an artist who just signed a contract. If I were her, I would think too much."

After Allen heard her thoughts, he smiled and said, "Then if you were her, how would you make things difficult for me?"

"Let you be her manager too!"

"Mrs. Jones, can I understand that you are jealous?" Allen smiled and said calmly, "There are many capable and talented artistes in Dahua. As long as they have potential, the company will provide the most suitable resources for them. For me, I can support her and others. Everything depends on strength. But if she thinks that she can threaten the company and play tricks when she is famous, then the company will no longer need her."

Allen was very confident when he said that. He was a man who would do anything he said.

If Melissa felt that she could lead Allen's decision, she could give it a try.

"What about the Skywings? If Melissa goes to the Skywings, Dahua will be affected..."

"She is not the only artiste in the Dahua."

"Then are you treating me as the second Melissa to train?" Arya asked in confusion.

"I have never been her Exclusive Broker to nurture her."

Arya smiled and said, "Oh." Then she chatted about something else and hung up the phone. Although she also had a woman's little thoughts in her heart, Allen could comfort her with sincerity every time. He let her know that in his heart, no one could compare to her. That was enough.

in charge of the mainstream moved quickly and the person in charge of

of the computer. She could not get her own post anymore. She received a warning from the were very thorough. It seemed like the voting for this huge disparity had never dare to post it again. If her real identity was found out by the Dahua, she would be a screenshot and photo that she

the Internet, but it was quickly deleted..."

at those comments to ignore it, I am worried about you..." Zelda said halfway and took back her phone, "You trusted Director Jones so much and stayed in Dahua for him, but now his heart is tell me, what

in Dahua!" Zelda said, "What right does Director Jones have to be Arya's close to Serena now? Let them this suggestion. "So now you want me

Melissa wanted to be persuaded and thought for a while before saying, "Otherwise, I will help you negotiate and see his thoughts.

heard this, she agreed to not interfere with the matters of the artistes, of course she had no reason to do also agreed to Zelda's suggestion and let Zelda probe of the Dahua. It was just seen through the war that this matter would cause, so out of protection for Arya, he had covered the entire matter thoroughly. Of course Zelda would not do anything about to let Melissa know that Arya was her threat and that was