Chapter 281 I Belong to the Part Melissa Deserves?

Zelda quickly lowered her head, not daring to look into Allen's eyes. Anyone who looked into Allen's eyes would feel pressured.

"I think it might be related to the Skywings recently sending people to contact her. Melissa is the most powerful artiste in the Dahua. In order to thank the company for taking care of her for so many years, she has been rejecting the Skyings. But... she has just returned to the country, Arya's fans are attacking her online."

"Director Jones, I am standing here today as Melissa's manager. I formally propose to you. Please be fair!"

"What are you trying to say?" Allen had lost his patience.

"If Director Jones wants to be the manager of an artiste, why didn't he consider Melissa?" Zelda asked.

"The Skywings offered very good conditions to Melissa, and she gradually wavered. She met the person in charge of Skywings in a foreign hotel last week."

"I think Dahua should not let Melissa leave in grief..."

"Also, don't let her be ostracized and bullied by a trash actress after returning to the country..."

Allen closed the document and stood up with an incomparably cold expression. When he saw the thread, he already thought of some suspicious candidates. When Zelda requested to see him, he already had some expectations. But after he really heard it, he still felt that it was quite interesting.

She was talking about Allen Jones's wife!

"If I do as you said, I will be Melissa's manager. What about you?" Allen frowned and asked, "So you can be so great that you can give up your career for the star path of an artist..."

"I have been with Melissa for so many years. I sincerely hope that she can develop better and obtain everything she deserves!"

"So, in your opinion, I belong to the part Melissa deserves?"

"Yes!"

Allen was silent. He looked at Zelda and his voice was extremely cold, "You are indeed not suitable to be her manager."

"How come I didn't realize you were so cruel..."

Allen lowered his head slightly and looked at the person in his arms. He said, "Do you think I didn't handle it properly?"

Arya shook her head and kissed his lips. "No, I support your decision."

Allen let go of her waist in satisfaction and went to change into his room clothes. In the kitchen, Arya poured soup and revealed a calm smile.

She had already heard the story of this matter from Raul.

Raul's original words were, "Because Zelda said bad things about you in the office, she was dealt with like this. Looks like we really have to be careful in the future!"

Allen did not tell her, just to protect her.

After Arya put herself in his shoes and thought about it, other than supporting him, there was no other answer. If it was her, she would do the same. If someone slandered Allen like this, her reaction would be even more intense than his.

Perhaps in other people's opinion, Allen protecting her so openly was not a good thing. It would also bring a lot of trouble to Arya.

She was very clear on this point.

But she still liked the feeling of being pampered and protected by him.

Arya suddenly thought with emotion, if one day her relationship with Allen deteriorated, would she be able to bear that kind of blow?

"What are you thinking about?" Allen could tell at a glance that something was going on in her heart. His heart was always worried about her.

"I was wondering if you would still dote on me like this if we were old. Would I still be so reliant on you..." Relationship was really hard to say. With the passing of time and the passing of age, what would happen to their relationship?

After Allen heard her words, he fell silent. He could not give any answer.

"I can't give you the answer to this kind of hypothetical question."

Serena's eyes became moist, "I need to go to the washroom." Just as she closed the door, she heard people talking beside the washroom. "I saw Serena and Arya in the private room outside. The two of them chatted and drank coffee together. They really are like good friends."

"It's all hype! How can there be any true feelings in this circle? One is a woman who has been played by a scumbag man, and the other is a movie star who relies on her body to rise. They are all cheap."

"I think so too. What's so good about that Arya? Why should President of Dahua help her out and become her manager? What lovers are they? If it wasn't because she is good in bed, would those men support her?"

Say less. I heard that Melissa had always disliked Arya after returning to the country. Just wait and see. Arya will not be able to get up very soon."

Bang.

Serena directly kicked open the door and said to the three people, "What are you guys talking about?"

They entered the washroom after Serena and did not know that there was still someone inside. Furthermore, it was Serena!

"Say it. Didn't you say that you were very happy just now?" Serena took two steps forward and closed in on them.

They were caught by Serena and had nothing to say. Thinking that Serena was a celebrity, they immediately pulled their necks and shouted, "Serena hit people!"

Very quickly, the people in the coffee shop were attracted over and surrounded them to watch the show. Some people took out their phones and took pictures of Serena.

After Arya heard the shout, she quickly brought Luna over and prepared to take Serena away first.

Chapter 284 Raul Has A Son

"I'm already planning to quit." Serena pouted, "I can't help Arya a few times. Of course I have to seize this opportunity."

"What?" Raul never thought Serena would have such plans. He thought she would act until she was eighty years old. He was a little shocked. "Why?"

Serena leaned on the sofa and said naturally, "I'm not young anymore. I have to have a family and have children..."

Raul suddenly became silent. It was as if he never knew Serena. He turned his head and lowered his voice, "Who else have you told this idea? Have you told Director Jones?"

"Not yet. Wait until this matter is over. I will find a suitable opportunity to speak."

"What about after leaving?" Raul asked.

"Well, find someone I like, fall in love, get married, and be a housewife! Such an ordinary life seems a little difficult for me."

Raul just looked at her blankly, his heart in chaos.

She was not just a dazzling big star on the screen, but also just an ordinary woman. Even if she looked noble and cold, she just wanted to find someone to live a peaceful life.

After experiencing that unbearable feeling, Raul realized that Serena was really much simpler than they had imagined. She could accept the cruelty of fate without saying a word and face it calmly.

When he walked out of Serena's apartment, Raul felt that the sunlight today was very dazzling.

He reached out his hand to block it. The expression on his face was no longer as frivolous as before. He seemed to be a little reluctant to part with her. If Serena left the entertainment circle, who else could his gaze follow in the future?

In order to resolve this matter, he directly drove to see those women. As expected, he was stopped.

"I came just to tell them that the Dahua will really sacrifice everything to protect the artistes under their banner. Therefore, for their own reputation, taking a step back is the best choice."

He waited at the door for a long time and only managed to get a reply that he reluctantly agreed to.

"I'll take care of you!" Serena ignored him and took out the medicine and ice bag she brought.

She pushed Raul onto the sofa and used the ice bag to cool him down.

Because he had been busy all day and night, Raul could not take it anymore. Seeing Serena busy back and forth at home, he fell asleep in a daze.

In his sleep, he kept reading a woman's name.

"Lauren..."

Serena thought that this was probably the child's mother's name.

She did not know why that woman left the father and son, but it looked like Raul was in great pain. Serena looked at him sleeping like this and even cried.

Serena took care of him for more than two hours and cleaned up the house again. After confirming that his fever had subsided, she left.

The storm of beating people had not subsided yet and the news that Serena stayed in the Dahua's Artist Director Apartments came suddenly. Rumors of their close relationship were spread everywhere.

Raul had just recovered a little strength when he was shocked by this news.

He did not expect that this matter would be written like this by the reporters!

Melissa originally wanted to use the influence of the beating to let Arya figure out the situation. But before she could do anything, the direction of public opinion completely changed and even dragged Raul into it.

Dahua released some other news to divert the attention of the outside world.

So even if Melissa wanted to do something, there was no way she could do it. The only thing she could use was the Dahua's anniversary banquet!

Because that night, she was destined to appear on the same stage as Arya. At that time, they would have to rely on their own abilities.

As long as Arya made a mistake, it would cause quite a commotion...

Chapter 286 Do Not Want to See Her Cry

The reporters downstairs dispersed in twos and threes. They didn't dare to offend Allen at this moment.

Arya knocked on the door. When she heard Serena's manager's question, she replied, "I am Arya."

The manager immediately opened the door. When she saw Allen was also there, she was obviously surprised. Luna noticed that her eyes were red. Clearly, she had just cried. Under Arya's gaze, she took her to the washroom first.

Serena was in the bedroom. Allen and Martin were in the living room. Arya went in alone.

When Arya pushed the door open, she saw that her face was full of injuries. From her forehead to the entire left side of her face, there were not only bruises but also bloodstains. They wanted to disfigure her face!

But under such circumstances, Serena actually still had a smile on her face.

"You..." Arya's eyes turned red and she hurriedly ran over. She looked at her nervously and her voice was trembling, "I already told you long ago. Don't be so impulsive. Why don't you listen!"

"I'm not dead yet. What are you crying for?!"

Serena weakly raised her hand and hugged Arya.

Hearing the crying coming from the room, Allen and Martin walked over together and stood at the door. He said to Arya, "Take your time. I have something to say to Serena."

Arya did not understand what he meant, but when she turned around and saw Allen's comforting eyes, she got up and walked out of the bedroom.

Serena saw Allen walk in and nervously dodged. She wanted to stand up but was stopped by him.

"I just want to say a few words. You don't need to move."

"What do you want to say?"

Allen released a very cold aura, "Arya is very worried about you, but I want you to know that this is the last time."

Luna was secretly happy when she saw the shop assistant's change of attitude, "I knew the boss would arrange it, but is that card that useful?"

Arya smiled and did not say anything.

The shop assistant warmly invited them to the VIP area. The staff said, "Please rest for a while. I will go and look for Teacher Luca. Since this card is our shop's black and gold card, our top stylist Teacher Luca will serve you."

So this card is so powerful!

Arya looked at the time. There were still a few hours before the banquet started. After she finished her styling, she went back to change into her dress. There was still time.

Even though they were sitting in the VIP area, they could still hear the discussions of the people outside.

"That's Arya, right? She's so cocky after signing the new company. It's really exaggerated to use a gold black card to make clothes."

"Oh my god. I saw Melissa go in more than ten minutes ago. It would be interesting if they ran into each other."

"Will the two of them just pull their hair and start fighting?"

Arya pretended not to hear these words but she remembered one thing. Melissa was also here. This might be the reason why Allen wanted her to come here at this time to do her hair.

The shop assistant came back very quickly and said apologetically to Arya, "I'm sorry. Teacher Luca is doing makeup for the guest. If you are in a hurry, we will coordinate to let the guest wait first."

After all, Arya had the most VIP gold black card in her hand.

"If you can wait a moment, it will take about two hours."

Arya thought about it and asked, "Who is his guest now?"

"It is Miss Melissa."

"Then please come over first. I am in a hurry." When Arya heard the three words Melissa, she immediately opened her mouth to snatch the stylist.

As soon as she closed the door, Luna excitedly clapped her hands and shouted, "Nice!"

Thinking of Melissa's shameful appearance just now, she finally let out a sigh of relief in her heart.

Arya quietly sat on the chair and made a pose. She said to Luna, "Alright, stop smiling. Come over and help."

"Arya, now I am looking forward to tonight's banquet even more! It must be very exciting!"

Arya looked at Luna in the mirror and blinked, "Aren't you afraid that she will find trouble and hit you?"

"Will I be afraid of her? I also have a boyfriend now!"

Luna smiled and took out her phone to show Arya. It was a photo of her and Martin.

"You look even more beautiful after you have love."

Luna pouted and looked down at her waist and sighed, "I will definitely start eating nutritious food with you next week to lose weight. Recently Martin has been taking me out to eat delicious food. I feel that my weight has increased again."

"In this world, no female star is more perverted than you. How can you be full just by eating those things?" Luna sighed, "Let's not talk about this anymore. I will go downstairs to see if Martin has brought the dress. I really look forward to seeing you wearing that dress."

"Do you want to see my dress or Martin?"

Luna made a face. After going downstairs to get the dress, she took it to the dressing room. She opened the exquisite gray-pink gift box and saw the high-order dress inside. She exclaimed in surprise.

Then she went online and checked the price of the dress. There was no exact number, but the number of zeros on the estimated price made Luna fall on the sofa.

"Arya, this dress is a custom-made dress from Ellie Quinn worldwide. There is only one in the world..."

Luna did not dare to touch it anymore and carefully put down the dress. The button on the dress was worth a lot.

Luna calmed down when she heard Martin's words. She slowed down her voice and said, "Alright, I'll go out and find you soon."

"After dinner, go back to my house..."

"Got it." Luna blushed and hung up the phone.

Arya was at the side trying the business dress. Seeing Luna not knowing whether to laugh or cry, she said, "Quickly go over. Don't let Martin wait."

Arya's figure was good and her skin was white. No matter what clothes she wore, she looked very good. It was just that Luna looked at her and asked doubtfully, "Do you really want to wear this?"

"Yes, I like it very much." Arya smiled.

"Then let's follow the original plan and send you to the Dahua." Luna quickly put away the other things, "Let's go."

Allen did not tell Arya to come out in another way, which meant that she would wear this business dress to show her face. At that time Melissa would probably laugh at her wildly. Arya really wanted to see her disappointed and frustrated look after being arrogant.

After Melissa was beaten up by Arya, she really could not swallow this anger. From the moment she was born until now, who dared to treat her like this! Just as she got into the car, she slapped Zelda twice, "Don't you know to stop her?"

Zelda covered her face and lowered her head. This was not the first time Melissa hit her. After filming was not smooth or drinking too much, Melissa always used various methods to humiliate her. Zelda suppressed the anger and hatred in her heart and raised her head to ask, "What do we do now?"

There were only a few hours left before the banquet. Melissa's pose was easy to answer, but if she could not calm down, she might fight Arya face to face at the banquet...

"Call Allen and tell him about this. Ask him to bring Arya over to apologize to me!"

"Why would Director Jones pick up a phone call from a small character like me?" Zelda said with a bitter smile.

Melissa looked at her and felt that it made sense. Even if Allen picked up Zelda's phone, it was not reliable. It was better for her to make the call herself.

"President, Melissa is looking for you. Do you want to pick up?" Raul asked. He happened to receive this call in the secretarial room.

Allen went to the award ceremony first and took a detour to pick her up. It was almost twenty minutes late than they expected.

"It has already started, but I am the president of Dahua. Can't I have some privileges?"

This night belonged to Dahua.

The lights were bright and the music lingered in the hotel lobby. The stars were dressed in bright and beautiful clothing. They were communicating with each other about the recent trends, and they would also talk about the new schedule and work plans. However, most of the gossip in the industry would naturally gather the male and female stars alone. After all, there were too few opportunities for public gatherings like this.

The reason why they were so relaxed was because the president of Dahua Group, Allen Jones, had not appeared yet.

Recently, there had been a lot of rumors in the company due to Arya and Melissa's matter. Everyone had their own opinions.

"I really don't know what will happen in a while. I didn't seem very happy when I saw Melissa just now."

"What does it have to do with us whether Melissa is happy or not? Although Arya is a new artiste who just entered the company, I think that she will win better than Melissa. Think about it, have Melissa come back to the company these two years? Her heart is no longer in the Dahua."

"That's right. Did you guys hear? A while ago Serena was beaten up by someone and she has been recuperating. She can't even attend tonight's dinner... The mastermind is Melissa!"

"Oh my god, so scary?"

The female stars were concerned about who could stand in the company. On the other side, the male stars were discussing Arya and Melissa's appearance.

"One is sexy and hot, and the other is noble and cold. Which one do you guys choose?"

"What's the use of us choosing? We want Director Jones to choose!"

"I think Director Jones will choose Melissa. After all, she is an old man in the company. If we don't choose her, Melissa and the Skywings will deal with the company..."
