Chapter 291 Her Unique Charm

"So that's how it is. However, it is really surprising to see Director Jones being controlled by someone." After saying that, the few of them raised their glasses and toasted Arya.

"If it wasn't for junior sister, we wouldn't have seen Director Jones for a long time."

Arya smiled and raised her glass of champagne. These people were all famous big shots in the industry. They actually called her Little Junior Sister so intimately!

She had always regarded them as her role models to learn acting skills. Being able to come into contact with them so close today was also a very rare opportunity for Arya.

One of the men wearing metal frame glasses noticed the special rings on their hands. He clearly knew that they were related, but seeing with his own eyes that they dared to wear this kind of keepsake with each other like this, he could not help but take a few more glances.

After Arya noticed his gaze, she did not deliberately hide her hands. She calmly faced their gazes... That person also noticed Arya's expression and immediately withdrew his gaze with a smile, "In the future, if junior sister needs help, you can come and find us anytime. Sometimes, we can still talk in the circle."

Relationships were also what Arya needed to manage.

She politely nodded, "Then I will first thank senior brothers."

No one expected Arya to appear in such an unexpected way.

When the match started, everyone thought that Melissa had won because Allen came as President of Dahua. In other words, he had chosen to maintain the balance of Dahua, but he had brought Arya with him. Tonight, no one could interfere in the distance between the two of them. The people around him were all famous movie stars in the industry. When they greeted Allen, they would also notice Arya beside him.

In a way, Arya was the winner. She only needed to stand by Allen's side and she would be able to get to know many big shots in the industry.

"Did you guys notice the rings they wore? That brand seems to be the most famous for making wedding accessories, right?" Someone started gossiping.

It's not a problem for her to wear it. If it's Director Jones's, the pattern of the ring is different a ring?

"What right does she have to enter the Dahua? This was the question everyone wanted to ask the most."

When Allen heard this, he looked at the people around him, but no one showed an expression of agreement. They had never been as jealous and narrow-minded as Melissa.

Allen gave her an indifferent look. His eyes were full of coldness and ridicule. He spoke in a deep voice, "You are saying all this because you feel that Arya is a threat to your position."

"No! It is because you are biased! We are all artists of Dahua, but you have never been one of our managers. Arya just entered the company and you made an exception for her. Is it fair?"

Everyone did not expect Melissa to be so daring to ask this!

However, these words sounded a little ridiculous.

"As for whose manager I am, I need the entire company to hold a meeting and vote together. And I still need to ask you in private!"

"You should give us a reason to be convinced!" Melissa continued to shout.

"You guys?" Allen's eyes fell on the stars behind her. Everyone shook their heads in unison, indicating that they did not want to participate.

"Allen, you always said that you would not play any tricks, but in fact, you are more sophisticated than anyone else..."

"Melissa!" Someone wanted to stop her from doing something so brainless.

"Continue." Allen raised his hand and stopped everyone.

Melissa stared at him. "I have done so many things for the Dahua. Without me, there wouldn't be the Dahua today. If it wasn't for me, would the Skywings be suppressed by the Dahua for so many years? I think I should get the treatment I deserve instead of being ridden by a newly signed newcomer."

"The Dahua is the leader of the industry. How could they do such a hurtful thing?"

"When Arya did not appear, you were always very fair. But now, you have changed."

Melissa's body was already stiff. Her eyes were lifeless as she looked at the man in front of her. She would never have thought that he would really not leave her any face!

She thought that she was very important to the Dahua, but now she knew that everything was just her daydream. She was just one of the many stars in the company.

Allen saw that Arya had almost woken up from the alcohol and said to her, "You have done what you should do tonight. Now I do not need an assistant anymore. You can also be a star Arya."

He wanted her to beat Melissa in front of everyone.

"Now?" Arya was a little surprised.

"Yes, at this moment!" Allen's eyes were full of tenderness and trust. "I believe you can do it."

"What should I do?"

Allen answered directly. "Become a star at the dinner party. The clothes have been sent to the dressing room."

"I see. This is interesting. I am looking forward to it." Someone said with excitement.

"Melissa's figure is very sexy. Arya's figure is tall and slender. I really don't know who will be better."

"Director Jones is so sure that Arya will win? He is not afraid of her..."

"I have seen Arya's performance in Paris a while ago. Her figure is not ordinary. I think she will not lose."

Because of Allen's suggestion, the artists became expectant. They all wanted to see Arya's true elegance. Arya had already decided to fight for it tonight. This was also a great opportunity.

Arya nodded. In front of everyone's eyes, she said very domineeringly to Melissa, "Wait."

"Look at Melissa's face, isn't it already black as charcoal? If she had those resources, Arya's current achievements would definitely surpass hers."

"Melissa indeed lost. Just her figure alone is..."

Melissa cannot wear Arya's dress because the figure ratio is not that stunning. But Arya can wear Melissa's body and it also has a different kind of beauty."

Everyone unanimously thinks that Arya is the final winner.

Melissa participated in various awards ceremonies and banquets all year round. When she saw Arya appear, she also had an answer in her heart. Even if she did not want to admit it, she had to admit it.

At this moment, everyone's gaze fell on Arya with envy. They truly felt that they were subdued by her beauty.

Arya gently walked towards Allen and asked, "How is it?"

At this time, someone said, "I remember. That dress is a global custom made by Ellie Quinn. It is eight digits expensive and that brand is not something anyone can buy. I heard that the designer only serves the royal family in recent years."

"Wow, the clothes are beautiful and the person is even more beautiful. If it was anyone else, they would not be able to wear the style of this dress."

Why?!

What exactly did she do wrong?!

Melissa stood there and looked at Arya in a daze.

She had walked step by step until today. She had experienced many PVP matches and actually lost to Arya!

Furthermore, she had lost without any suspense. Because not only was it her figure, but also her appearance, as well as everyone's unique temperament. She could not compare to Arya. She had Arya, but Arya's unique charm could not be imitated.

The lights all focused on Arya alone. Everyone was watching her every move and was impressed by her beauty.

Melissa ran straight into the nanny car and buried her head between her arms, crying. She actually lost to Arya?

Zelda was sitting in the passenger seat. What was strange was that she actually did not feel angry but was secretly pleased because Melissa was not as good as Arya.

"I want to kill her! I cannot tolerate this!"

Melissa shouted crazily.

Zelda started the car quietly. She felt that Melissa did not have a chance to take revenge because of what happened at the dinner party. Allen called and the entire Dahua started to move. Melissa was no longer the favorite child of the Dahua.

Today was the first day she lost her job.

Moreover, there were many things that she had never thought of waiting for her.

...

After seeing Allen's jealous behavior, Arya changed into a long blue dress in the lounge.

"Little Junior Sister, did the manager tell you?"

"Could it be that you can't wear that dress in the future? That's a limited edition dress, it's a waste if you don't wear it..."

Everyone began to joke with Arya. Allen pulled her to his side when he heard these words. In this way, who would dare to continue?

The dinner continued. Under the light, Arya turned her head to look at the man beside her. He also happened to turn his head to look at her. The moment their eyes met, it was as if there were only the two of them left in the world.

That gaze full of trust and appreciation made Arya's heart beat faster.

Chapter 296 Arya Or Allen's Dirt

When Arya was attending the banquet, Luna and Martin were having dinner at the Cliff Restaurant. It was a beautiful place by the window.

Martin promised Luna that he would not let his parents come, so he really did not make things difficult for her. It was just that Luna was very nervous when she thought about what Martin said just now. He would bring her home after dinner to see them.

She did not think that he had already made plans to see his parents.

Luna did not want Martin to find out that she was in a difficult situation, so she kept browsing the website while eating. When she saw the group of comparisons, she felt that it was really too satisfying and she did not miss the news that Melissa was beaten up.

"Is this made by the boss?" She asked Martin.

Martin nodded. "You are fast at getting information now."

"You taught me well. I want to learn more from you in the future." Luna did not hesitate to please Martin. She pushed the dessert to his side. "It seems that everything that happened tonight is under your control."

The information skills that Luna had mastered were taught to her by Martin.

"Zelda took the initiative to contact the reporters and exposed the photos of her being beaten. Isn't this too stupid? Could it be that someone will sympathize with her?"

"She can't back down now. She can't get rid of Melissa's torture and doesn't dare to go against the Dahua. In order to prevent the Skywings from completely giving up on her as a chess piece, all she can do is expand this matter and gain sympathy."

Martin analyzed rationally and only added in the end, "We can talk about business tomorrow. Tonight is our private time."

Luna smiled awkwardly. She did not expect that her little thoughts would be exposed so quickly.

"I..."

With the current situation, Zelda had no way out, "What benefits will I get after the matter is done?"

"If you want money, I will give you money. If you don't want money, I can give you the shares of CaptureIt Studio. You must know, when we expose Arya's true colors, the price..."

Stanley had already planned every step and was waiting for the best opportunity.

Zelda predicted that after the matter was successful, Arya might come over and beg her with a face full of shame. She could not ask for money, but this kind of pleasure that she could trample Arya under her feet made her excited.

So Zelda immediately returned to the Dahua. She wanted to find a way to get evidence of Arya's dirt and could not be caught by Allen. Otherwise, she would die.

...

After the banquet ended, Allen and Arya returned home together.

Ever since they left the banquet hall, Arya had been holding Allen's hand and dancing non-stop. She did not stop until Allen wrapped his arms around her waist and protected her as they fell on the sofa.

"Allen, I'm really happy today..."

"Yes, I can see that." Allen let her do whatever she wanted. He helped her take off her shoes and comforted her. "As long as you are happy, I will accompany you no matter what you do."

"Mr. Jones, do you know how to dance?"

As soon as Allen took off her shoes, she sat up again and stuck to him like cotton candy.

What she didn't know was, at this time, the man's body was very tight and hot.

But this woman did not realize it at all...

If he did not dance with her, she might not be able to rest. So Allen had no choice but to pick her up. On the carpet in the living room, he spun her along with him.

"That's not something you should worry about. Think about what you should do next." Raul really felt that Melissa had entered a dead end. Other than herself, no one could save her.

Because she was not worthy of anyone's sympathy.

Melissa clenched her fists and coldly asked Raul, "You are also infatuated with my body. You want to help me when I am in the most pain and then take the opportunity to possess me?"

"Did you lose your mind?" Raul did not even bother to look at her.

Melissa took a deep breath and said to Raul, "I don't need you to pretend to have good intentions. I only have one request right now. Take me home."

There must be reporters and paparazzi outside. With her current condition, she was unable to deal with them. Zelda had run off somewhere and could not be contacted anymore.

After all, she was also someone who received help from the Dahua.

Raul thought about it and said, "Change your clothes first. I'll wait for you outside."

Melissa put on an inconspicuous sportswear and left the hospital with Raul.

However, when she pushed open the door of the apartment, she found it was a mess. All the valuable things had been taken away. Other than her manager who had the key to her apartment, there would not be another person.

Melissa completely understood what a desperate situation was!

She squatted on the ground in pain and cried out. Out of benevolence and righteousness, Raul did not leave directly. Instead, he helped her to the sofa and helped her clean up a place to rest.

But such a simple action was captured by the paparazzi outside Melissa's apartment.

Then, this news was immediately uploaded to the Internet, "Dahua Artist Director Raul hugs left and right, falling in love with Serena and Melissa, the artistes under Dahua."

There were also people who mocked Raul for using his authority to use underhanded tactics against artistes...

Zelda felt like she was being watched like a thief. She was very unhappy and rushed into Raul's office.

"What do you mean? I'm still an employee of the Dahua. Why are you looking for someone to spy on me?"

"I am trying to protect the company's legitimate rights. After all, I have to pay extra attention to suspects who have committed theft."

"Don't go too far!"

"You should know better than me what happened in Melissa's apartment, right?" Raul made it clear. He did not want to see Zelda making noise here.

All of a sudden, Zelda was dumbfounded. She did not expect Raul to guess her. But she did not want to admit it so she refuted, "I do not know what you are talking about! If you are referring to the matter of Dahua finding someone to beat Melissa, then I can have a chat with you because I was also beaten."

When Raul heard that, he carefully looked at Zelda.

It seemed that Melissa had come to this step for a reason. There was a person beside her who was constantly blowing wind beside her ears. No matter what Zelda said, in Raul's eyes, she was just a rogue clown.

"Please leave. I will send you the letter of termination very soon. You are no longer an employee of the Dahua."

Zelda snorted angrily. She knew that this must be Allen's decision. Even if she caused a ruckus here, it would not change the outcome.

She cursed in her heart and left Raul's office in a huff.

However, she didn't leave the Dahua directly. Instead, she walked around the lounge in the corridor and watched the artistes chat. She waited for an opportunity to fall to the ground and successfully took the phone of an artiste.

Michel smiled contemptuously and walked into the Skywings building with the female mixed blood on his shoulder.

In the past, Allen had never had a woman with him. Although the outside world was curious about his relationship, the media didn't dare to blindly write about his identity. However, after listening to Michel's words today, the reporters kept guessing.

Could it be that the CEO of Dahua Entertainment liked men?

Compared to Michel, who had countless girlfriends, Allen's way of doing things was too low-key. Up until now, there hadn't been any signs of movement that proved that he had been in close contact with a woman.

Although he recently announced that he was Arya's manager, Michel's interview made everyone feel that he seemed to be using Arya as a shield to hide some truth.

Almost overnight, rumors that President of Dahua seemed to like men spread wildly in all circles, but no one dared to openly ask the people of Dahua.

"It can't be. Is he really gay?"

"Maybe! It's said that people like them are more resistant to the outside world. Maybe he has been keeping a low profile all this time just to protect his secret and his lover."

"But isn't he dating Arya?"

"That is all hype! Can the show industry be explained in one sentence or two?"

"I think that Michel is deliberately spreading rumors. Maybe he has already retired from marriage and doesn't want to expose his private life. Does every man have to be a playboy?"

"If Allen has already gotten married, he shouldn't be talking to Arya. Isn't this cheating in the public?"

Since the news was just random speculation by some small media websites, there was no conclusive evidence. There were still many people who had doubts, but the news had already spread to Dahua.

After Arya flipped through the entertainment news today, she said to Allen, "Luna and I will go to see the new season's clothes in the afternoon. Are you going?"
