

Love OAB 361

Chapter 361 I Can't Be Absent From Such An Important Occasion

She's only been in the cast for less than twenty minutes and she can do it like that?

The most important thing was that Arya had very good control over the characters in the script. She could even control her tears very well. Compared to those little flowers who were popular now, her performance could be considered as a textbook!

Arya did not say much. Regarding the control of the script, it depended on one's comprehension. It was probably because she had read the script carefully and really treated herself as the female lead that she could empathize with and display her feelings.

At this time, Arya had already noticed Allen at the back of the crowd.

Director Bieber followed Arya's gaze and also saw Allen. He took off his metal glasses and walked in front of Allen and shook his hand.

"She is a natural actress. In the future, she will produce even more amazing works!"

Allen responded with a polite smile. Then, a confident smile appeared on his face. He had expected Arya to conquer all the audiences who had watched her play.

But he would also be worried about her.

He knew that Arya would be fully prepared when she did everything. But this time, she was under too much pressure.

After this special trial, Allen saw a different Arya.

Then he walked in front of Arya. In front of everyone, he hugged Arya and said to her ear with a smile, "I knew you could do it!"

At this time, everyone in the production team were shocked. They did not expect Allen to come here personally for Arya and then silently reflect on what he did to Arya.

Arya nodded seriously and then she left Allen's embrace. She said to the staff and the actors who had just watched the audition, "Now, it is up to you all to decide whether I will leave or stay..."

"I don't think it's a problem. It's not a problem at all. I don't know how many films you will save for the drama team if you act!"

Everyone laughed, they had the same thought in their hearts.

they were slapped in the face by Arya, the female lead who descended from the sky, could produce such acting skills? No, it should be said that everyone in the audience raised their hands and expressed their able to be recognized

her just wanted to fulfill a person's dream. Furthermore, I don't want to get paid for the film. If there are any problems during the shooting, please tell me at acting for a small matter and ignored everyone's hard work, she is much better. Even am now her

so good!

efforts were worth it, is really unfair. He gave you such a beautiful appearance and also gave you such high level acting that Arya would was before or now, she was born with the soul of an actress. Any role could make her perform well! Of course, she could lot of effort and carefully thought about the characters. Every a play. I have to work harder and harder could not find him. She guessed that he did not see the situation of the audition just now. "You him. I can cut the scenes with him later. There is

Luna said

and looked at Allen. "Don't you need to deal with the how can I not come to watch?" Allen held her hand and the two of them walked you know what I can do. Whether it is to conquer the audience or the crew, I have never hidden anything in front of you. Regarding acting, do is to be a good actor in front of the camera.

to the audition process, reading the script for so long, she was finally going to play the role that she had comprehended. It was also a challenge for

I have secretly entered the production team now, I have rejected so many advertisements and invitations from the fashion show. There might be people who will

Chapter 362 Secretly Recorded The Conversation

Because Arya took the initiative to ask for an audition and successfully used her acting skills to conquer the cast, she quickly blended into the cast. Although she looked cold, she was very polite and friendly to the staff.

Compared to Skylar who always dragged time and acted like a big shot, she was a hundred times stronger.

So the cast and crew felt that she was very kind and kind. After Skylar stood up for a week, they were still willing to accept this mess and enter the crew under pressure...

Because Skylar had stopped acting and delayed the crew's schedule, Arya and James's scenes had to be restarted and edited by the crew's editing team. Therefore, Arya had been shooting at night for the past few days.

She and James had basically never met before.

On one hand, no matter how the crew praised Arya, James did not have much hope for her. On the other hand, he only wanted to shoot his own scenes well. As for the rest, he did not want to care.

Until one day when work ended, his assistant was at the side sorting out the script, "James, your scenes later on are more relaxed. You should be able to pass all of them. It should be Arya's side. These two days of scenes are very difficult, especially tonight..."

Halfway through his words, he noticed that James's eyes had turned cold. He immediately shut his mouth, "I'm sorry, James! I'm going to start the car now!"

"Wait!"

James put down the thermos and stood up. "Which scene is she shooting tonight?"

"69th scene. The scene where she got lost in the mountains and rolled down the mountain. She doesn't seem to need a substitute..."

Would the girlfriend of the president of Dahua Group be willing to shoot such scenes with her delicate body?

James sneered. Today, he wanted to see a female lead who was rumored to not need a script to shoot a movie. Was she really that good? Or was it that in order to promote her, Dahua had even bribed the crew's reputation?

...

The cast and crew had started up again, and there was a breakthrough.

But Skylar's situation became more and more difficult!

Agency ignored her and many brands requested to terminate their contracts...

of this circle, she knew if she continued work go to waste. She only had she took the script and went to the hotel in the suburbs to see know this person?" Of course Skylar knew about what had happened on the previous few days. He secretly filmed the director of Dahua, Raul and Serena. Could it be that Xandra did

of a sudden, she felt that Xandra was really too

no need to be so wary of him.

of her flipping through it a few times, she said very excitedly, "Okay, I will immediately send someone to do it. I will let the television station shoot and broadcast at the same time.

cover of the script and knew what they were referring and dared to not expect to meet you here. Looks like the indeed proves that the Dahua's

"You!"

I have evidence and witnesses, you actually screwed up?" Stanley took the initiative to bring up the matter hacking the account of that fan, back in his chair and did not to take my call. Just thinking about it makes me up as she spoke, "I do not have time to waste with provided the script and hooked her lips and smiled, say anything. He slowly reached his right hand into his pocket and turned off the

I am very friendly to my partner. I hope will try my felt that they were on the same boat and had the same enemy, Dahua. After all, Stanley had lost his workshop because of Allen. It was only natural for him to hate Dahua now that he had fallen

she made good use of this, she was not afraid that returned to the apartment, he immediately sent the evidence of their meeting to Raul and told him everything that

Chapter 363 Let's Make It Public

After that, Martin rushed to the Orchid Court Villa and waited for the next order.

"Madam is really too powerful." Martin couldn't help but sigh. "If it wasn't for Madam saying that she wanted to help Stanley back then, there wouldn't be such information now."

It turned out that there would really be people in this world who could turn over a new leaf!

"Although I still hate him a little, now we have the advantage. President, what should we do next?"

"Divide the content of the video. Steal the script, fan incident, and seize power. First, use the part where they stole the script to negotiate with Skylar. I think she might provide us with something useful and then send the part about seizing power to the directors..."

Allen paused for two seconds and said, "The part about the fan incident will be released in the end."

"Okay, I will do it immediately!" Martin nodded and said.

He needed to collect more evidence to convict Xandra with this video alone.

Furthermore... if he publicized all the content now, Stanley might be in danger.

The situation was already in their hands.

"President, I heard that Madam has been shooting night shows these few days. She usually takes a few hours to get some rest in the morning..."

Of course Allen knew about this, but he did not dare to call to ask. He was afraid that he would feel heartache and directly took Arya away.

Hearing this, Allen's eyes turned dark. He saw the car keys on the table and got up to walk out.

For a piece of work, actors would suffer a lot during filming. This was also the reason Allen did not want Arya to be too tired. But he knew Arya. Once she decided to do it, she would put in 200% of her effort to achieve the best result.

He did not want to wait until she was injured before regretting it.

He immediately drove to the production crew. Even if it was any later, he still wanted to see her.

Martin also went with the man. In order to see his wife...

...

scene was about to start filming. This scene required Arya to jump down from the car and roll down the

be said that in the entire movie, the action scenes were the most concentrated and for female that Arya would use a substitute actor to film and then use a face close-up to edit suggestion, "I want to try. If not, then looked into the perfect scenario. If she used an editing scene, it would always be backing. She did not need to be so serious and responsible at all. It Arya's expression when she had just joined the team. She was so

of her after the audition, she would continue

This was Arya's attitude.

and happened to hear

a substitute?

lot of female celebrities would say that they didn't use substitutes in the first had obtained the title of one of the most beautiful faces in the world a while ago.

She will come out crying later!"

around and looked at Arya

"Action!"

was watching this on the window, trying to get out of the car. Her face was full of tears of pain. At a mountain road, the car jolted against a ached when he saw this scene in the

the director's order with Director Bieber, he said, "Stop, it's over! Get ready for the artist and Luna immediately ran over and helped quickly got up and

assistant witnessed the entire process and saw Arya's good review. No wonder the expected completely shocked by the light on Arya's body. Even Skylar... No, Skylar could not be a colleague, he was very clear that he wanted to influence the audience's control over the performance.

It turned out that

Chapter 364 He Is Throwing A Tantrum

Hearing Arya's suggestion, Allen's deep eyes became deeper. He slowly hugged Arya tightly and whispered in her ear, "Okay."

As long as it is what you want, I will do it for you.

Allen did not say this out loud but hid it in his heart.

He accompanied Arya to change her clothes and then returned to the hotel arranged by the production team. He specially prepared supper for Arya, but in order to manage her figure, Arya only ate a little.
After that, the two of them took a bath together and laid on the big bed.

"What time will you shoot tomorrow?"

"Five o'clock." Arya slept in his arms and answered in a daze.

"Then go to sleep." Allen moved his arm slightly to make her feel more comfortable.

Arya subconsciously approached him. In her sleep, she whispered his name, "Allen, I miss you so much..."

"Me too!" Allen answered silently.

He had checked Arya's legs and arms to make sure she was not hurt. He heaved a sigh of relief and stood up quietly.

Because he had witnessed the shooting process with his own eyes just now, he really felt sorry for her.

The next morning, Arya opened her eyes and subconsciously touched the person beside her. However, she discovered that the blanket over there was very cold. She got up and looked for Allen in the room.

She saw him standing by the window of the living room with his back to her.

Arya put on her pajamas and walked over. She hugged him from behind. "What's wrong?"

She knew Allen too well. At this time, if he was not throwing a tantrum, then what was he doing?

"I didn't protect you well. I didn't let you cherish your body. I did wrong!" Allen took a long time to calm down. In the end, he decided to put safety on Arya.

stunned. Was he using this method

evil heart already read the script. This is the only scene that requires action. I will not do it in the future." Arya promised softly. But a scene at

In the future, you don't need to care about the matter of James meeting you. I will not let you wait for considered to be doing something for personal a good rest, you can go to watch James shoot, pass the time, is Xandra's

Arya to be distracted. She was too tired. If there was a chance, he would noded. After breakfast, they went all greeted him respectfully. This was always. He had a face that would not allow strangers gentle to Arya because he loved her, but he was also the CEO of the Dahua. This was a loudly because he firmly believed that the female lead would recover from shown in words, but also in his body. In the end, he love, James's role was very important to the growth of the female lead. If it were not for him, the female lead would probably have in his eyes could make people be substituted

"Pass!" Assistant Director shouted.

jacket his assistant brought and walked to the side of the camera. He wanted to talk to the Arya, who was said to the assistant, "Ask that James would attack Arya at this time because Director

James's face

assistant nodded. "I'll go now.

Allen and expressed James's intention. After Allen

what James was thinking. He was the person who did not think highly of her as the new female is a book given to

Chapter 365 It's Not Too Late To Turn Back

"That's not what you should know. I'm just passing on our president's warning to you. This is your last chance."

"What kind of shady deal does Xandra have with you?"

Martin took back his phone and adjusted his posture, waiting for Skylar to speak.

At this time, Skylar's heart seemed to be burning...

Her face was full of hesitation and anxiety.

Martin seized this time and coldly said, "This is just a part of the video in our hands. What exactly happened that night? You know very well that you will only repent when I bring out more exciting content?"

Skylar sighed in pain, "It was Xandra who came to find me first. She knew that I was going to be the female lead, so she investigated my dirt. She has evidence that I am someone else's mistress."

Martin's eyes became much clearer. He asked, "Do you have evidence?"

"I recorded it."

"Only the police can help you with this. You are not stupid enough to think that she will give you the dirt after you complete the task she gave you, right? She will grab hold of this weakness and torture you for the rest of your life!"

"But..."

Skylar hesitated.

If she called the police, her past would be completely exposed, including the fact that she once gave birth to a child!

Skylar did not say anything. She did not know what to choose!

If she stood up and accused Xandra, then escaping from that person's control meant cutting off her acting career!

go. She covets the position of the CEO and attacked Arya. She even wanted to snatch the rights to the movie. Xandra

to give you a way out to him with a sobbing voice, "I will cooperate with you! But I hope that you do not was young back then, that was why she

what, it's not too

called her assistant over. Then, they went to the police together. She provided the recording to the police and told them that Xandra Threatening and kidnapping!

and investigated what Skylar

not know what had happened and was inviting a few in, Xandra was still resisting even

of the senior Director Biggs of Dahua Corporation media reported this incident at the first possible moment. Then, some people speculated. Is she of Dahua announced that Xandra would be investigated today. It was related to the incident of fans beating each other after, the Dahua official released a video of Xandra talking about stealing fan was the one who bribed the hacker, pretended to be Arya's fan, scolded people on the Internet, spread rumors, and beat people up! The people who did these things were all hired by her and not

of this scene was finally be forgotten by everyone, the evidence of the Dahua at this time shocked entertainment circle was truly to appear near the police station and that this incident might have something to do with Skylar! In her child from harm! This world

Brokerage Agency immediately went to fetch the child

the

gone to the company to plead with

I wanted to talk to you, you didn't see me. You only had and colleagues again to save his daughter. However, the matter was so big that no one dared to help matter was finally resolved. It was just that it seemed like it had been a long time since they saw

Chapter 366 Want To Pamper Her For A Few More Years

"I have an idea!" Arya suddenly walked over, "Can we take out the book and get the copyright first? This way, no matter if they are shooting a TV series or shooting a movie, they will plagiarize our story and plagiarize it!"

Bieber's eyes lit up. He clapped his hands and said, "I think we can try this method!"

Now that the script was ready, the scriptwriter needed to polish it a little more before it could be published. Changing the script to a novel was a good idea.

Allen hesitated. He did not say anything.

Arya saw his expression and immediately patted his shoulder. "I also believe that the actors will do their best to complete the shoot, but it will be more beneficial for us to be fully prepared..."

"Then contact the scriptwriter and have a chat with him!" Bieber felt that this matter was not difficult.

Arya looked at Allen with a smile but did not say anything.

Allen did not intend to reveal his identity as a screenwriter to the public.

"The adaptation of the script into a novel will only make the audience and readers look forward to this movie and like this story."

Allen could not do anything about her. "Okay, let's do it."

"It just so happens that we are about to announce our marriage. This is the best wedding gift." Arya said with a smile.

"You guys really match up too much!" Bieber clapped his hands and blessed them.

He remembered the first time he saw Arya, she had helped him take care of that naughty child at home. "I really look forward to seeing you two have a child and build a small family."

Arya's face turned red. She lowered her head and looked at Allen. Allen looked back at her at the same time. There were many things that they did not need to say and would resonate with each other.

Allen sent Arya back to the hotel. He wanted to go back to the company to work for a few more hours but was stopped by Arya.

"It's so late. Do you still want to go?"

Allen looked at her and rubbed her hair. "Because of what Bieber said?"

lips and hugged him. "Can you never reject Arya's and dialed Martin's number. He canceled the meeting that was was so busy that he still had to rush back to handle official business. But... she wanted most important thing was that the man she loved took off his coat and gently hugged that if our family of three were together, we would but if Arya became a mother, it would be very difficult for her So, he hesitated.

to pamper you for a realized now. Let nature take its course..." She sat on Allen's lap eyes gradually became covered with desire. He lifted his head and kissed Arya
"I feel very happy..."

beat faster and tightly hugged wanted to have each other, not reason, impulsively hug each much. She took the initiative to ask him to stay because she wanted few hours of lingering, they hugged each things

"Huh?"

You are very busy now. If you were to focus on polishing the script, wouldn't you have to work overtime again? I just think that after the movie is released, the scriptwriter will be your name. It will her with the arms. They still needed the dim bedside lamp, he watched Arya fall asleep. The corner of his mouth curled up slightly with a doting smile. As long

...

Xandra was detained.

temporarily take a breather and the fan incident gradually subsided. Everyone's attention was focused on Arya be in the movie or

But someone

so many good actors but they insisted on using Arya. Can her qualifications really take Chapter 367 You Don't Care At All?

Everyone knew that James was a new generation actor who focused on acting. He would never tolerate a new female lead if she was not qualified.

Most importantly, James would either refuse to answer the question or speak the truth.

It had been so many days, but James had never spoken to a reporter.

"James, please talk about the new female lead of Memory Fragment!"

"Why did the crew shut up about her real identity?"

James was surrounded by reporters after the award ceremony. Out of courtesy and respect, he did not force his way out. Instead, he faced the camera and said coldly, "This is the arrangement of the production team. You guys will know when the movie is released."

"Is it Arya?"

"James, please tell us!"

James suddenly hesitated. He saw Arya's hard work and dedication with his own eyes, but it did not mean that the outside world would also approve of her. It was just that in the entertainment industry, other than her, there was no one else who could take on this hot potato at this time.

Her hard work and persistence could not be surpassed by anyone.

The most important thing was her attitude when shooting a movie...

She was a real actress and not a female celebrity who relied on gaudy packaging to buy popularity. Even someone as harsh as him felt that Arya could shoulder the weight of this role. Who else would pick on her faults?

For the first time, he actually wanted to praise an actress!

He shook his head and coughed, "For the movie to be the most perfect at the end, I can't reveal it. I'm sorry."

that I'm not someone who can compromise. This female lead is very charming and female lead? On the other hand, if everyone thought that Arya did not have acting skills, it any particularly dazzling film works. It was too far-fetched to just rely on a reality show, her performance in a fashion show, or to use advertisement clips they got the answer. What he meant was that the female lead fans heaved a great. James is not playing worry, everyone can look had gotten so far about the female lead. Allen had really sent people to protect to the crew and saw the comments online. He also showed the star I like and the actors I'm not optimistic about work together, I might say suddenly felt that this woman of the negative news on the Internet, they have misunderstood me. That's all. If I act to please them, is win sincere applause. I just stand here and give my own heart a thumbs indifferently, "I cannot let myself really become a joke in are really a rare star." In the entertainment industry, would there be a female and put that you have recognized scene. It should be very satisfying." After he finished speaking, he the videos Luna recorded on the scene. She was trying to figure out the role. She still had an important reason that do her best to make this movie popular so that she could help him realize his look at the scene after the director had called out to her. She would then communicate with the director and try her best to look at each frame perfectly. This way, she would have a lot video again. Suddenly, a phone call came in. It was come to participate in this fashion show." Serena originally wanted to walk the red carpet originally wanted to go, but later Luna helped

Chapter 368 Leave Such A Mark On Your Body

When Arya was looking at the award ceremony, Luna just happened to walk over to give her some water. She felt very unhappy in her heart.

If not for joining this production team, Arya should be shining on the red carpet right now...

But now, she had to desperately film here. From a certain point of view, Arya had given up many opportunities to film this movie.

After that, Luna told Allen about this matter.

As Arya's special assistant, of course she had to think about everything for her. Although Arya did not say it, what she needed the most right now was Allen's concern and protection.

Allen did not immediately reply to Luna when he heard it.

Instead, he made the best use of his time to get rid of the documents on the table and rushed to the production team to visit. His car had been a frequent visitor in the production team parking lot these few days.

When the crew saw him, they were already used to it. Even if the boss's authority was there, no one would dare to joke around.

"Director Jones, Miss Arya is over there to make up for her makeup." A staff member reminded.

Allen nodded and walked to the dressing room on the east side. When he pushed the door open, he saw Arya wearing a purple shirt, but the shirt was pulled into a mess. Her hair was messy, and the corner of her mouth was bruised. The makeup artist was still drawing kiss marks on her neck.

Allen knew what Arya would shoot when he saw this scene.

It was the only bed scene in the entire play.

Arya did not expect him to come. She immediately pulled up the blanket covering her legs and draped it over her body. However, she was stopped by Allen. "Make sure you put on some makeup."

Arya met his eyes, she lowered her hand. The person who was most familiar with this script was Allen. Of course, he knew the content of bed scene tonight." Arya said in hand gently landed on her shoulder. He lowered his head and whispered in her ear, "It seems like we have never been so suggestion. If it is face instantly turned immediately walked out of the dressing room in small steps and left the two the dressing table, "I want to leave such a mark on he kissed Arya's neck and forcefully left his mark on her skin. After that, he looked at the effect he created with satisfaction. He pulled the broken hair behind Arya's ear and said, "For me, give up the award also because of me! For my own sake, Allen. I don't feel any regret." Arya knew what Allen wanted to say. She smiled. "Frankly, I did feel a little regret in the beginning, but I thought about it carefully today. I learned more in the awards to go further, but she wanted superstar fall, and I will not let my woman die for to fulfill your dream with you. This is moment, Allen could not bear to let go of Arya. Ten minutes later, Arya finished her makeup and went to the venue to wait. Allen was watching from the male supporting role. When he heard that Allen was in this kind of scene in front of the big boss of the Bieber and applied to shoot from different angles. He still wanted to stay in the acting circle his words, her head and smiled bitterly when she heard the news that they were going to shoot from a different the actors and Arya maintained a large distance from each other. The scene was done all said that the makeup artist's and did not dare to tell scene to film. Then, the two of them returned to the Chapter 369 Popularity

The moment Luna turned off her phone screen, a message popped up. The wedding of the famous movie star, Boyce, was about to begin. The president of Aorai, Melinda, would take the newcomer, Rosalie, with her.

"This Melinda really knows how to hype things up. She even used the wedding of an artiste to increase the exposure of the Aorai's artistes. She must have known that the boss would bring you to attend, so she specially brought Rosalie along! After all, she had a crush on the boss before..."

Luna secretly thought that if they deliberately looked for trouble, the boss would definitely pamper Arya and let them recognize their position.

"Maybe... "

Arya did not waste her time on this matter. There were too many rookies in this circle. She could not treat everyone as her enemy. Furthermore, she did not believe that the results she created could be replicated by anyone.

Besides, she was an artist of Dahua now. The artists of Dahua would not admit defeat.

...

Because Rosalie's debut happened to happen during the period when Arya did not appear in the public eye and caught up with the film emperor Boyce's wedding, the entertainment circle became much livelier in an instant. There were endless gossips and news. In addition, Melinda had become much more cautious after what happened last time. When training Rosalie, she placed great emphasis on her character. She did not dare to let the company's public relations hype up the news about Arya that was rumored by the outside world.

Even the Skywings had fallen into the hands of the Dahua. Of course, she did not have the courage to provoke them.

In addition, she had personally experienced Arya's methods. She would never gamble with the future of the Aorai again.

Speaking of which, Melinda was more curious than anyone else why Arya kept a low profile after signing the contract with the Dahua. The Dahua should have taken advantage of the heat to find better resources for her. However, they were often absent during the annual award ceremony. However, this was good news for the Aorai and Rosalie because they lacked an opponent. It was the perfect opportunity to push Rosalie away.

Two days later, on the day of Boyce's wedding.

Arya was slightly surprised when she saw the clothes Luna brought over. It was a dark blue dress that looked noble and elegant. However, if they were to wear it like this during the wedding, it seemed to be a little grand.

Luna saw through her thoughts and smiled as she said, "This is what the boss means!"

been so quiet recently and did not show yourself well. Of course, you

it was because of that newcomer

is open to the public?" Arya guessed

It has been publicized!" Luna quickly replied, looking forward to the expressions of those people. Their boss would not treat Arya unfairly. It would make those people dumbfounded! This time's face-smacking trip the clothes and walked into the changing room. After that, not treat Arya as a comparison, they would only be attending a wedding. They did not need Luna and fool of industry. Because release the news that Arya would attend. So, in order to support her beloved idol, Arya's fans had been waiting outside the airport for a had just become famous and did not have any fixed loyal fans or Fans Group. There were not many people who recognized she felt very upset. Although she was a new person, she was also

...

"Director Cater..."

day, your popularity will be higher than hers!" Melinda understood Rosalie's superstar. It was just that although Rosalie nodded on the surface and agreed, deep in her heart, she felt that it official matters through her phone and

Melinda and Rosalie had yet to enter the security checkpoint

"Arya!"

we will always

"Sign your autograph, Arya!"

walked beside Allen with a smile and was protected by him. Luna and Martin were carrying luggage behind them. When the fans saw her, they were very excited and kept a few years and had made a comeback, Arya were sincerely following her and supporting her. It was inseparable from

Is that true?" The fans enthusiastically asked, "If

Chapter 370 More Cunning

She didn't dare to imagine that they would enter the airport almost at the same time. Could it be that Allen had arranged for them to enter at the same time?

"Director Cater, are we on a flight with them?" The assistant asked from behind.

Melinda frowned slightly. Luckily there were not many people who recognized Rosalie now, otherwise the situation would be even more awkward...

Although the fans present did not recognize Rosalie, there were media outlets that posted the two artistes' flight numbers online. It was clearly a flight and there were also people who had seen someone who resembled Rosalie at the airport. It was just that the popularity of the other side was too low, right?

Although Arya had been very quiet recently and Rosalie was the latest newcomer, their popularity could not be compared.

More importantly, when they framed together, Arya's advantage was undoubtedly revealed. Her appearance, figure, clothing, temperament... More importantly, the man beside her had always accompanied her and protected her!

There was nothing that Rosalie could not compare to.

"Don't worry, our Arya will not be stolen by that newcomer!"

"The difference is too big. The other party is not her match at all. I did not expect Arya to have so many fans now. That's great. We must always support her!"

When the fans saw Allen's attitude towards Arya, they would not be affected by the rumors online. They misunderstood that the Dahua did not put Arya's heart into it.

The fans watched Arya walk into the security checkpoint before reluctantly leaving.

Ten minutes later, Melinda and Rosalie met Luna and Arya in the VIP lounge.

Arya looked at the news and Luna noticed them, "Do you want to go over and greet them? Melinda is with that newcomer. She is trying so hard to support her and indeed she values this newcomer very much."

been careless and would not take the past matters to

she would remember them for the

she did not want to burden Arya because she knew better than anyone that Arya was genuinely good would not be so coincidental! So she whispered in Arya's ear, first time you know pulled Rosalie and Arya together because they wanted to use Arya to increase the popularity of this newcomer. However, Arya also would not sit idly by and wait for death. It was the perfect opportunity to use this opportunity to prove her position. It was definitely not it be that just a few days of silence was equivalent to leaving the entertainment

they were spreading the news, did they not think about who the person behind did not dare to go forward. It was not because of anything else. The man that was protecting Arya made her not be that everyone has to leave their resources and wait for her? Even the artists of Dahua are too the moment, it seems that you still have no chance of winning against Arya. Bear with it for now. Arya has always done very well in this aspect. Otherwise, to the wedding. I also want to use this opportunity to get to know a few directors. You have to show off the most perfect performance. It won't be those speculations outside were definitely not true. With Arya's intelligence and Allen's wrist, they would definitely not take a step out of the way. What exactly was going on? She still wanted to look at act rashly, or else they would be slapped in the face when Allen

go

what had happened to

...

were invited as well. They arrived earlier than Arya off the car, Serena immediately pulled her into her bedroom and chatted can make her appear at this time must be because they want to support her and give her a lot of opportunities. The media will also am going to attend the wedding and not to do a were very popular.