Chapter 371 Support The Box Office

She was originally very supportive of Arya and believed that Arya would be able to play this role well. But seeing her able to remain calm under such heavy pressure and take out such a relaxed and powerful performance, Serena was indeed very amazed.

"Director Jones really has a good eye for you to be able to sign up for you!"

"So it turns out that you have rejected so many invitations for this role!"

"Now you support me even more?" Arya said with a smile.

She knew very well that Serena only supported her because of her best friend's position in the beginning. She supported her based on her feelings because she was also an actress. She knew very well how important this period of time was to Arya's star path. She said that she supported Arya because she did not want to increase the pressure on her. But now that Serena saw Arya's acting, she sincerely looked forward to this role and the movie.

"There are new people in this circle every moment. You must always stick to your own characteristics and create a world. It is really too difficult to obtain the resources that are most suitable for you. Under such intense competition, you must constantly improve yourself and deal with new roles." Serena held the red wine glass and said emotionally.

Arya did very well on this point.

"If I can use this method to leave my name and figure on the big screen, it would really be a very happy thing!"

"In the future, our company will have another powerful movie queen!"

"No matter what those people outside say, I will insist on walking my own path and insisting on my own choice!"

"When the movie is released, I will definitely book the venue to support the box office!"

Serena was genuinely happy for Arya!

She originally thought that Arya was under pressure and had no choice but to accept this role. She did not expect that she had already made sufficient preparations and completed it so well.

"I just want to take every step of my own. I can't say for sure what will happen in the future." She did not want to continue this topic and changed the topic, "Recently I seem to have been attending weddings..."

However, she was only depressed for a moment. So what if she didn't have their blessing? She was already Allen's wife. This was her happiness, and it wouldn't change the fact.

After Arya calmed herself down, she saw Martin walking towards her.

"The president might need to take care of it for a while, so he asked me to introduce Madam to a few of Dahua's partners."

"I have to go?" Arya was very conflicted with the atmosphere, especially when she knew that many people were talking about her behind her back.

"It will be over soon." Martin said and passed a glass of champagne to Arya, then led her into the banquet hall.

From the famous producer to the director, to the international movie stars and some foreign investors, Arya only walked around and met many people.

"This is Mr. Eliot Swan, the current president of the Film Association, a national superstar, and a famous director. He used to be the director of many internationally acclaimed works."

It turned out that the person Allen wanted Martin to bring Arya to see was this person.

At this time, Daniel's mother and her husband were sitting beside Arya. When they saw Arya, their expressions were very ugly.

Arya did not pay attention to their presence and only looked at Eliot, "Mr. Swan, how do you do? I have long heard of your great name. Let me toast to you."

Eliot turned his body to look at Arya but did not pick up his glass. Instead, he said lightly, "You are just a small actress and do not have the qualifications to drink with me."

This sentence was loud and forceful. The whole place fell silent.

Everyone looked in this direction and felt that Arya was very wronged.

Eliot had a very good relationship with the second husband of Daniel's mother, and he had some business dealings with her, so he knew that Daniel was ruined by Arya's hands, so of course he would not give Arya a good look.

At this time, Arya just raised her wine cup and stopped.

She had been protected by Allen very well. It had been a long time since she had been treated like this. In addition to today's event being so grand, she could be considered to have lost face in front of all the famous people.

Arya was right. She was indeed not qualified to mock them. When Arya signed the contract with Aorai, she even claimed that she wanted to chase Allen. In the end, his real girlfriend was sitting opposite her!
She even misunderstood the hidden boyfriend behind Arya.

Now that she thought about it, what she said in the past was completely out of her mouth.

She was just unwilling to accept that Arya could obtain such good resources and obtain such a good man!

At this moment, there was a thunderstorm outside the banquet hall. The reporters from the media were waiting outside the hotel to interview the artistes who were attending the banquet today.

When the artistes saw the reporters insist on interviewing under such harsh weather, they couldn't help but stop and smile in response to their questions.

Among them were Melinda and Rosalie. Melinda brought Rosalie over today to increase her popularity and exposure.

"Director Cater, I heard that Arya also came tonight. As her former boss, what kind of situation will it be if you meet again?"

"She is developing very well now. I wish her well." Melinda replied with a smile and her tone was very official.

"Then how long will it take for the new Rosalie you are focusing on to reach Arya's height?"

"Rosalie became our company's contracted artiste because she has enough strength, not because of anyone else. In my eyes, she is a very outstanding actress."

Another reporter was also asking Arya the same question.

"Miss Arya, did you talk to the CEO of Aorai, Melinda Cater tonight?"

"Miss Arya, recently there was a rumor that you took over Skylar as the female lead of that movie and even rejected many advertising trips because of this. Is it true?"

"I want to first share this with you, happy newlyweds!" Allen held her hand seriously and said to her.

"Allen..." Arya looked at the book and was happier than anyone else.

Because this moment belonged to the two of them.

"That's not all. Let's go to the bedroom to take a look." Allen pulled her to open the bedroom door.

The red decorations inside were shocking. Even the curtains on the bed were red. This was a new room.

"Since we are going to announce the marriage, we have to look like we are getting married. In the future, every anniversary, I will arrange my home like this. Every year..."

Arya's eyes were moved to the point of tears.

"How long have you arranged it?"

"From the day you said that you wanted to make it public..." Allen hugged her gently. "I want to share everything with you. It's not just a book, it's a story. Every minute of my life..."

Arya was his female lead in the movie. In his life, she was also his only female lead.

"Although we are in a flash marriage, I hope that you can be like other brides and be doted on."

Arya suddenly nestled in his arms and shed tears...

When she married him, she did not think that today would come.

"You are really good to me..."

Allen said in a low voice, "You did more for me. You bet on me. How could I let you lose?"

"Allen..."

She called his name softly. After a moment, the room was filled with charm.

"I can't lend you this book." Arya said firmly.

"Then why do you bring this book to the production every day? We are jealous of you!" James glanced at her, "Aren't you showing off?"

Arya smiled, but under her smile, her mood relaxed. Because the dark clouds that troubled them were finally blown away by the wind.

Now, Memory Fragment was already very famous. What followed was all sorts of entertainment news, especially since the Dahua never revealed the female lead's identity to the outside world. The reporters couldn't hold it in any longer and used all kinds of methods to get the information first.

They didn't even hesitate to flip over the wall and secretly take pictures!

There were also people who went to the nearby hotels to check if there was Arya's room.

Among them, there were employees of the hotel where Arya stayed! They used their authority to secretly enter Arya's room and illegally obtained evidence!

"The female lead of 'Memory Fragment' is Arya!"

"The Dahua did not hide her but gave her the best resources!"

"The insiders exposed Arya's hotel room and confirmed the rumors of her filming."

In just one night, such news spread all over the Internet. Allen immediately sent people to public relations to remove the news with a clear address and then let the production team increase their security.

"Did she really shoot this movie? She is really bold. She is clearly challenging Skylar. Does she think that her acting skills are higher?"

"She really hid it well!"

Arya once again used her acting skills to conquer everyone.

"OK, it's over!"

The female lead that Arya played was really a person who was on the verge of schizophrenia. If she was not careful, she would act very hypocritically. But in this degree of control, Arya did very well.

It could bring the audience into the role, but it would not make people feel very frightened.

At this time, the two paparazzi also watched the performance. They were suspicious of their eyes. Was it bad? The one who was constantly NG and this one who passed once. Is it a person?

How could someone perform such a scene at such a time!

It was too shocking!

They lowered their heads and looked at the camera in their hands.

"Do you still want to hack her? I think some people on the Internet have gone too far. She seems to be quite good at acting."

"Once doesn't mean anything. Wasn't she an NG many times just now?"

The two of them came to the conclusion that this scene did not represent Arya's average standard. They had spent so much effort to disguise and secretly shoot, so of course they had to carry out the work to the end!

With the evidence of the live filming, the rumors of Arya shooting the movie were completely confirmed.

Furthermore, the two paparazzi only posted the content of the NG that they filmed, not the one that had been posted once.

Therefore, the entire entertainment circle had an attitude of watching a good show. They wanted to know what kind of lousy move the Dahua had made!

The entertainment industry was so deep, how could they let a young actor who had just returned take the lead? If it was to shoot an advertisement, Arya's looks were not bad, but acting... She needed time to hone her skills. She only shot a few advertisements and a few reality show documentaries, yet she wanted to step onto the international stage?

Luna also saw pictures posted by fans in the Fans Group. The director's comments were too much!

She was so angry that she slammed the table. "I was wondering why he always filmed bad movies. So he's just a bad person, and he even attacked the Dahua like that. Does he still have any professionalism?! Did he ever see you act? He doesn't even have any professional qualities! He doesn't have the right to say that!"

The director and the audience had the most right to comment on the actors' acting skills. However, this director had never even seen Arya and said such hurtful words. What right did he have?!

Did he want to bully others just because he had filmed a few movies?

"No matter what he wants to say, it's his freedom." Arya's reaction was very calm. She had already done her best to not be shocked.

But Luna had a belly full of anger.

"He said what he wanted to say. I will do what I should do. When the movie is released, his face will hurt."

Without any warning, the directors all attacked Arya together. They joined hands to resist female stars who relied on resources and roles to obtain resources. They even said that the Dahua was not qualified to be the leader of the industry. The root of this was Allen giving Arya so many privileges.

They even made a list. It was proven that many good scripts and movies were ruined by actors. Memory Fragment was ranked on the list.

"President, this matter seems to be too suspicious. They probably wouldn't make the same move without thinking." Martin took out the evidence he had gathered. "I found out that when Xandra was arrested by the police, there was a movie merchant's son at the scene. He had that incomplete script. Ever since the Dahua used a powerful method to suppress that online drama, they have been moving around."

"These joint directors all have connections with their families."

Martin had only investigated a part of it. There should be other people who had not surfaced to the surface interfering behind the scenes.

"I'm pretty sure they're here for Madam."

"Even some relevant departments have made a statement that they will eliminate the atmosphere in the entertainment circle and let the performance opportunity be fair."

Did this mean that if the Dahua did not change people and let Arya continue to be the female lead, there would be problems during the trial?

Other than those who had seen Arya acting and knew that she had acting skills, no one else wanted her to play the role of the female lead.

No one thought that she could play the role of the female lead in such a drama!

That night, Allen went home to prepare dinner and said to Arya, "Tomorrow, I will go to the audition with you."

"No need. My materials are all using stage names. If you go with me, won't it not be effective?" Arya smiled and said, "I know what to do. I will let everyone see it."

"Before announcing the marriage, you worked so hard..."

Arya leaned into his embrace calmly and contentedly smiled, "I am not tired. In comparison, I feel that you have shouldered more than me. You have worked harder than me."

"Okay, go to sleep."

He kissed her forehead and tried to turn off the light on the bed.

But Arya directly wrapped her arms around his neck and softly said, "But, I don't want to sleep so early..."

"Then what do you want to do?" From her invasive eyes, Allen seemed to see a different Arya.

"I want you." Arya approached him and said, "When I was training, every muscle in your body was tempting me. I am just an ordinary woman. How can I resist it?"

"So you must compensate me now!"

Allen immediately smiled and turned around to suppress her, "Since you saw through me, then..."

...

The popular military film, "Red Sun," was publicly auditioned.

This news had long spread online. There were as many as 500 people participating in the auditioning, and more than 100 of them were here for the female lead!

"I don't need it." She answered in a low voice.

Her tone was arrogant enough!

The judges began to look forward to whether she was deliberately mystifying things, or if she really had the ability!

This was the only actor among the actors that the judges were looking forward to today's audition. Even the judges were not very satisfied with Rebecca's performance, but Arya used such a unique method to successfully capture the judges' attention. This might have a lot to do with her unique charisma.

"I only have one bullet in this gun."

She turned her head and looked out the window. The corners of her mouth curled up into a smile. Because the lights were very dim, the judges did not recognize Arya.

Immediately after, she raised her arm. Her posture was standard and valiant. More importantly, her body coordination was very good. All the details added together made this female officer look very full.

In this scene, the female officer wanted to confess to her ex-lover. She was a spy.

There were not many lines, but there were many action scenes.

She lowered her arms powerlessly, then took two steps back and ran towards the door on the opposite side. Then, she suddenly opened the door and pressed the pistol against the forehead of the actress.

Her chest heaved up and down, and her body was full of fatigue.

She pretended to be calm as well. When she was facing her old lover, she resolutely fired the gun!

It was not towards her old lover, but the enemy behind him.

Then she turned around and said, "The time to attack the city is set. You should leave earlier. When we meet again, I will shoot."

After saying that, she suddenly ran into the endless night.

"Arya went to try Director Chen's play?"

"I have a friend working there. He sent me a photo! It's Arya!"

"There's also a video..."

Arya tried it out in front of everyone. The matter of slapping Director Chen's face was uploaded online and there was even a video uploaded...

Everyone had the mentality of watching a joke as they clicked on the video. But after watching it, they did not know how to express the shock in their hearts.

"Arya really is a clear stream in the entertainment circle!"

"Who still says that she does not have any acting skills? Relying on the background, this way of slapping her face is too cool!"

"That Director Chen first shouted at Arya. He said that she doesn't have any acting skills, and he even ridiculed her on the Internet, secretly implying that Dahua doesn't have good taste. But he did not know that the actress was Arya, and said that she was the most suitable female lead! In the end, Arya rejected him on the spot!"

"Arya's acting skills are beyond description. It is because the outside world looks at people too much, or because there are people in the entertainment industry who are against Arya that so many false rumors are released. However, Arya has never been angry and did not make a fuss. She used this kind of direct method to prove herself."

"‘Memory Fragment’ that movie, I will definitely go to the cinema to support it."

"I am also her fan!"

As an actress who had just made a comeback, she used this method to challenge herself and walked a path that belonged to her. She was the only one who used this kind of forceful audition method to prove herself!

Furthermore, Arya's actions had also told everyone that "Memory Fragment" was worthy of the audience's anticipation.
