Chapter 411 Suspicious Person

Aryo nodded when she heard the voice, indicating that Allen was fine.

She was worried that Allen's anger would hurt innocent people, but the mastermind must be caught!

The director and a few crew members walked into the ward together. When they saw Allen's angry face, they all nervously lowered their heads. "Aryo, are you feeling better?"

Aryo nodded, "Yes..."

"That's good. There are already people investigating what happened. There will be results soon."

The director said in a trembling voice. He did not dare to look Allen in the eye.

"As for acting..."

"I can return to the crew after a few days of rest." Aryo said.

Compared to Ezekiel, her injuries were nothing. Moreover, everyone in the production must be anxious. Even if they wanted to change people, they had to get Allen's permission.

When the director heard that, he coughed awkwardly. "It's alright. Have a good rest. We can shoot other supporting roles first because Ezekiel needs some time to rest. According to the filming arrangements, you guys have already exceeded the filming volume. You can rest assured."

The director rubbed his hands and added, "It's just that the news has already been leaked. The rumors outside are very exaggerated. We might need Director Jones to clarify it."

From the press release, it could be seen that the person behind the scenes was targeting Aryo.

The person who happened to be injured with her was Ezekiel, so the consequences were not too serious. Otherwise...

"Leo, who was in charge of the props that day, is missing. I've already asked someone to contact him as much as possible."

"I want to see the latest news." Aryo sat on the hospital bed and looked at everyone calmly.

"You guys go back first. She needs to rest." Allen did not plan to let Aryo see those messy threads. He got up and ordered them to leave.

The director nodded. "Okay. Contact us if you need anything."

Seeing that Aryo was fine, the director and the others were relieved. Otherwise, if they angered Allen, they would not be able to continue filming this movie.

After they left, Aryo asked Allen in a low voice, "What's the news outside like?"

She could see the directors' nervous expressions...

"I will handle it. You just need to rest in peace." Allen held Aryo's hand.

Arya nodded when she heard the voice, indicating that Allen was fine.

Chapter 412 Role Changed

The situation was getting worse and worse. The Directing Team had been under the pressure of the producers. The producers were very concerned about the rumors outside.

A day later, the director received a call.

"There must be a conclusion to this matter. We just want to see the movie shoot smoothly. The fastest solution is to replace Arya."

"A female supporting role can be played by many people. We have already decided on the specific candidate. She will be reporting to the production team tomorrow."

The director was stunned. "But the filming has already started. Isn't it not good to change the role just like that?"

The main reason why the director was in a difficult position was Arya and Allen's relationship.

"What's so bad about it? What if it's really because of her that the box office falls and even makes us lose money? Are you going to take responsibility for this? Do you know how difficult it is to invite Ezekiel? I can't just watch my money go down the drain."

"But Director Jones..." The director scratched his head anxiously.

On the one hand, he did not know how to explain it to Allen. On the other hand, Arya was indeed a very outstanding actress. Would anyone do better than her in this role?

"We will settle those matters. You better film well for me!"

The director had no choice but to agree. Soon, the producer called Martin.

Allen looked at Aryo, who was resting beside him. He got up and walked out of the room.

"Hello, I'm Allen."

"Director Jones, I am Joden Gront. Do you remember the last time we met? About that, how is Mrs. Jones's body? If you need a transfer, we can send one over immediately. " When the other party opened his mouth, he was full of flattery and probing.

"Director Gront, if you have anything to say, just say it."

"It's like this. This movie was invested by our company. It's our honor to invite Modom Jones to participate in the movie. However, the rumors outside are spreading so fast and the location of the shoot is also so tough. Why don't we let Modom Jones rest for a while? Perhaps there will be a better role in the next movie..."

"We discussed it and let the others take over the role. What do you think?"

So, there was only one conclusion. It was to replace Aryo.

"You called me, which means you have thought it through, right?" Allen's voice was dangerous. His cold eyes were full of coldness.

It seemed that he had made the right decision to keep his relationship with Ezekiel a secret.

Chapter 413 Situation Of The Morrison Family

"Auntie, of course I have my ways. If you can't find it, it doesn't mean I can't find it. Right?"

"I went to check because I care about my daughter. What about you? For what?" Mrs. Morrison asked.

"Since we have already investigated, she is fine. When we can contact her, you will be more concerned about her." Old Master Morrison's words were biased, "I understand what you mean. But since she is fine, there is nothing to say about this matter."

After saying that, Old Master Morrison stood up and walked towards the restaurant.

Georgio revealed a vicious smile. Just like before, as long as Old Master Morrison opened his mouth, this matter would end and Mrs. Morrison would swallow her anger as usual.

But this time was different. Mrs. Morrison stood where she was and shouted loudly. "Dad, Georgio is your granddaughter. You protect her and don't want to expose her malicious intentions to kill Aryo. I don't blame you but Dohuo will not let it go just like that. If they find evidence, will you also be able to protect Georgio like today?"

After Mrs. Morrison finished speaking, she turned around and went upstairs.

Georgio bit her red lips, "Grandpa, let's go eat first."

Old Master Morrison lowered his eyes and took a step forward.

After breakfast, the members of Morrison family went back to their rooms. Samuel found an opportunity and quietly walked into Old Master Morrison's room.

Old Master Morrison was sitting by the window. When he saw Samuel come in, he waved his hand.

"Do you think Grandpa has changed?" Eldritch shook his head bitterly. His eyes were deep. "In the past, Grandpa represented fairness at home, but now I have to compromise. Do you know how Aryo is now?"

Samuel shook his head, "We can't find out the exact details, but the Dohuo has never clarified it. Maybe it's the best news if there's no news."

Old Master Morrison heard his words and nodded. "What else do you want to tell me apart from this? If you want to be a singer, put it aside for now. You have seen the situation at home."

"Your third sister is stubborn, and your sister is like this. Cough cough, actually, what I hope for the most is that your third sister can come back and give me hope."

Samuel was suddenly stunned. In that instant, he felt that Old Master Morrison had aged a lot. Furthermore, he seemed so lonely and helpless.

"Grandpa, I am not interested in business."

"Your big sister is interested, but she has too many thoughts. How can I be at ease if I hand the Morrison Family over to her?"

Chapter 414 Jealous Of Her Fame

Aryo had always trusted Allen, so she didn't ask any more questions. She planned to go back first.

However, there was no wall in the world that did not allow wind to pass through. Soon, she learned that her character had been changed.

"I don't even know. I have already been replaced..." Aryo turned her head to look at Allen.

Allen nodded, "Yes, but it doesn't matter. You deserve a better role. This matter will be treated as an experience."

Aryo understood. It seemed that Allen had acquiesced in this matter, so she had nothing to worry about. If this matter could be settled, Allen would never let her have the chance to hear such news.

Since he had made his decision, she would do her best to cooperate, because she knew that Allen would do everything he could to give her the best in the world.

The advertisements and contracts that he had gotten were the best examples.

If rumors were not resolved fundamentally, even if she returned to the crew, she would only cause trouble for everyone.

Rather than torturing each other, she might as well leave now.

She did not consider that Allen had a new plan. Without Aryo, "Dark Night Fonic" would not be able to be released at all.

"Do I look like someone who comes back from fortune-telling?" Aryo did not know whether to laugh or cry. She put down her phone, "I thought I had said it clearly enough. Why doesn't she understand? Will she only give up until I die?"

"There are always people in this world who do not know what's good for them."

Aryo pursed her lips, "Yes, I agree."

"Trust me. I will give you a safe haven. In this circle, as long as you want to continue, no one can stop you."

His words were like the spring wind, making Aryo's heart warm.

Aryo was taken away by Allen, but Ezekiel's injuries were serious and he still needed to be hospitalized to recuperate, so Louisa stayed to take care of him. She looked at the news on the phone and scolded indignantly.

For a moment, she forgot that Ezekiel was beside her...

"I didn't say anything. You didn't hear anything!" Louisa said in a low voice.

"I heard everything." Ezekiel closed his eyes, but in his heart, he felt that this girl was really cute.

"Then..." Louisa wanted to explain but had nothing to say.

"Don't worry. Aryo has been in the entertainment circle for so many years. This kind of storm will not hurt her." Ezekiel opened his eyes.

What was strange was that his words could actually make Louisa feel at ease. Moreover, his gaze was especially gentle.

Arya had always trusted Allen, so she didn't ask any more questions. She planned to go back first.

When Luno heard that, she quickly turned on the TV and switched to the entertainment news channel.

"Hello, everyone. I am at the shooting location of "Dork Night Fonic" right now! We can see that the terrain here is steep and the scenery is beautiful. If we can see it on the screen, it will be very shocking!"

"This is the first time the production team has publicly visited. After the previous incident, we did not see the female supporting actress Aryo at the scene. It seems like it is just as the rumors say, the production team and the film crew changed her."

"We just got in contact with the hospital and found out that Aryo has been discharged, but we do not know where she is now."

"Whether Aryo is related to those superstitious rumors or not, in order to show the best work for the movie fans, the production team took the heavy pressure from the Dohuo and changed the female supporting role. This also shows that the production team values the strength and character of the actors more..."

"This reporter has been bribed by the film crew, right?" Luno frowned and said.

"They are indeed related." Allen explained from the side.

"That makes sense! In order to avoid the responsibility of changing corners, they fabricated such news to confuse the public and push all the blame onto Aryo."

"These connections in the entertainment circle really make people look at her in a different light." Allen sneered, "Originally, I didn't want to do things too badly."

At this time, everyone in the room felt a trace of coldness. It was the pressure from this business emperor.

A true king!

"Next, let's talk about proper business."

"Boss, what are you going to do? Can you tell me a little bit first? I promise I will keep my mouth shut and not leak a single word."

Luno looked at Allen expectantly.

Aryo smiled faintly at the side. "It's actually very simple..."

"Do you know the boss's plan?"

Luno looked at Aryo, then looked at Allen, "You two husband and wife, don't play a charade. Quickly tell me!"

"The mole lead of "Dork Night Fonic" is Ezekiel. He is the mole lead that the producer and director invited for a long time. Many scenes in the movie are tailor-made for him. For him, the investors have spent a lot of money."

Luno nodded. "This is something everyone knows!"

"But no one knows that Ezekiel and Allen are cousins."

"What's there to be afraid of? I'm just telling the truth. Everyone invested in movies to make money. I can't just throw the company's interests aside for the sake of his woman..."

"Besides, she's not good at acting, and when the movie comes out, you'll know how wise I've made my decision today."

"I'm afraid that day won't come."

Suddenly Allen's voice sounded beside them. Everyone was shocked and the scene was very awkward.

The thing that they feared the most when they talked about others behind their backs was to be caught on the spot.

"Director Jones!" Director Grant coughed and put down his champagne glass. His proud expression became nervous.

"If I help, your crew will disband immediately. Do you want to try?" Allen looked down at them coldly.

"Director Jones, stop joking. Haven't we reached an agreement?"

"Do I look like I'm joking? You should know that when you talk about my wife."

Director Grant's eyes flickered. He didn't know how to explain. His face turned red and white.

"Director Jones, I really didn't mean that! If you insist on doing this, isn't it too unreasonable?"

"You were talking about her behind her back. I should have pretended not to hear you?"

"I was just saying a few words... "

"Is that so?" Allen looked at him coldly. "I have enough reason to doubt it now. You were ready to change people from the beginning. The accident happened in the crew. Do you dare to say that the person who changed the props has nothing to do with you?"

"Director Jones, what you said is slander!" Director Grant stood up from the sofa, pointing heavily.

At this moment, a man in a suit with a collar walked over. He was one of the important guests invited tonight, the chairman of HR Enterprise, Moverick Horvey.

Seeing him walk over, the crowd automatically made way for him.

However, he didn't care about anyone. Instead, he asked Allen directly, "What's wrong?"

"Uncle, it's fine."

"Okay." Moverick looked meaningfully at Director Grant who was yelling at Allen, then he turned around and left.

At this moment, Allen said to Director Grant again, "You should know that man just now, right? Ezekiel's father..." His tone became very cold and dangerous, "I seem to have forgotten to say that Ezekiel's father took after his maternal surname. Originally, his surname should be Ezekiel Jones."

"What's there to be afraid of? I'm just telling the truth. Everyone invested in movies to make money. I can't just throw the company's interests aside for the sake of his woman..."

"I'm fine." He stopped looking at her and looked out the window.

Louiso thought he was angry. She felt the temperature in the carriage had dropped a few degrees. She did not dare to speak for a long time.

Ezekiel was thinking about how to keep this little girl and negotiate with Allen directly or talk to Aryo. He had to think about this question carefully. Otherwise, Allen might see through his weakness and not let her go.

He wanted to find an impeccable reason.

Ezekiel's residence had always been a secret that the media could not find out no matter how hard they investigated. The driver was turning and turning by the sea. No matter how smart Louisa was, she could not remember the road when she was almost seasick.

"Mr. Ezekiel, you want to go home? Then I will get off here. I can go back by myself."

"If you go back, how can I live alone?" He raised his injured hand.

Louisa blinked. Why did she suddenly feel like she was being stared at by a devil? Was she going to be sold?

Ezekiel lived in the most secluded villa by the sea. There were three sides of the sea. When night fell, the night scenery was beautiful.

When Louisa really walked into the villa, she was completely attracted by the modern style. Everything here was Ezekiel's personal belongings and he had personally selected them. That was why everything was filled with the mark of this man.

"I'll make a phone call and you can walk around on your own."

Ezekiel walked into the study room. He did not have time to show Louisa around. The most important thing for him now was to talk to Allen and leave her behind.

After Allen received the call, he quickly understood what Ezekiel meant. "It's not impossible..."

"Just tell me what conditions you want!"

The corner of Allen's mouth rose slightly. "Participate in the new movie I invested in and partner with Aryo. Furthermore, you will receive zero pay."

"Okay." Ezekiel answered very quickly.

"You agree?"

"You can't let Aryo shoot a crappy film." Ezekiel had felt Allen's affection for Aryo over the past few days.

"It's not a lousy film. It's just that the director is a newcomer. He might mainly push you when he publicizes it."

Ezekiel did not care about these things. His Brokerage Agency was his personal studio. He was willing to cooperate with Dohuo during the promotion process.

"I'm fine." He stopped looking at her and looked out the window.

"You! You can choose not to wear it!" Louiso blushed and ran away in a panic.

She did not notice the smile on Ezekiel's face. This little girl was really cute.

Louiso's heart still palpitated when she returned to the room. What exactly happened to her?

Why would she be nervous and at a loss when she heard his voice?

Furthermore, such a big house... Now there were only the two of them. If he had any quirks, no one would know that she had disappeared in this place.

The more Louiso thought about it, the more scared she became. She nervously called Arya but she forgot to change the speed button, so this number was now Ezekiel's.

After the phone was picked up, Louiso said with a sobbing tone, "Miss Arya, I want to go home. Can you come and pick me up? I'm afraid that Ezekiel Horvey has some weird fetish and he will kill me directly and make me keep my mouth shut."

The person on the other side of the phone was obviously stunned. After a long while, he said calmly, "I am Ezekiel."

Louiso exclaimed and looked at the number nervously. She almost suffocated.

"I don't have a weird habit of killing people to silence them. However, if you don't come and change my medication, I will really have some weird habits."

"I can't do it, I want to go back." Louisa exploded in a low voice.

"Okay, I won't force you." Ezekiel did not know whether to laugh or cry at her teasing, "I will let the butler introduce you to him."

"Don't you live alone?" Louisa suddenly felt that Ezekiel had been bullying her!

"Housekeeper has other work. Can't take care of me 24 hours a day." Ezekiel hung up the phone.

Ten minutes later, a kind aunt knocked on Louisa's door. Louisa heaved a sigh of relief when she saw her. At least, there were other people here besides Ezekiel and her.

Chapter 419 The Price You Have To Pay

Georgio flipped all the documents in front of her when she heard this news.

"Ever since my grandfather was hospitalized, I have been responsible for taking care of the company. What happened? He actually wanted to give all the power to Aryo! In his eyes, does he still have this granddaughter in his eyes?"

"Director Morrison, don't be angry. There might be a chance."

"Ho, he even wrote his will! I can still..." Halfway through her words, Georgio's voice stopped. There was a hint of viciousness in her eyes. "You are right, there is still a turning point! She's already the Young Madam of the Jones Family. What is she fighting for with me for?"

She needed time to think carefully about what method she should use. Under such circumstances, it would be too dangerous to touch Aryo again.

Georgio was not stupid. She knew that she needed to deal with her grandfather, the person in charge of the Morrison Group even more.

"I will go back and find out what grandfather is trying to say."

"Okay, Director Morrison. I will keep an eye on the company's situation." The assistant lowered his head and said. At this time, it was his only choice to fulfill his duty and help Georgio become the president of the Morrison Group.

Georgio looked at the assistant and nodded.

Although he was just a small assistant, he was the only person she could trust now.

When she returned to the Morrison Family and saw Mrs. Morrison in the living room, she gave a simple greeting and went straight to Old Master Morrison's study room.

"Grandfather, I am Georgio. I have something to say to you in private."

Mrs. Morrison put down the teacup beside her and said coldly, "Your grandfather is not in the study room."

Georgio heard the sound and looked at Mrs. Morrison. Her hands holding her handbag tightened a little and walked to Mrs. Morrison's side. "Ever since you married my father, you have indeed been carefully welcoming our family. But I do not think that it is your kindness. Being careful of your words and actions as the Morrison Family is the only choice for you to live on. It is also the price you have to pay for being Madam Morrison."

"This position of yours is obtained by killing my mother. Your daughter will never be able to erase the name of being a "Mistress's" daughter. I advise you to go back and take care of Aryo. Don't let her covet our Morrison Family's assets anymore, let alone try to win over Grandfather."

"Even if everyone in the family is deceived by your mother and daughter's fake love, I will always remember that you killed my mother! In this life, I will not let you have a good life!"

Georgia flipped all the documents in front of her when she heard this news.

Chapter 420 It's So Hard To Chase A Woman

Ezekiel didn't like crowded places, he didn't like to be out around the bush, he didn't like to live in the city, he didn't like to eat his breakfast on time...

But in order to keep Louiso by his side, he had endured it all and made an exception for her again and again.

If he could not catch her like this, he would really suspect himself.

"Where do we start?" Louiso gave up on the idea of going home and sat opposite Ezekiel.

Ezekiel frowned. He was suddenly a little worried. If one day Louiso knew that everything he did today was for her, how would she respond?

Louiso subconsciously lowered her head when he looked at her like that.

Ezekiel suddenly said, "I want to choose you."

"What?" Louiso opened her eyes wide and almost suffocated, "You must be joking!"

Ezekiel looked away. "Yes, this is a line." His tone was full of frustration.

Louiso felt relieved when she heard him say that. In the next second, she punched Ezekiel. "Don't make such a joke!"

Ezekiel shook his head helplessly. Why was this woman's brain sometimes smart and sometimes stupid?

"Let's begin." He raised the script.

"Yes..." Louiso acted like a hero who was going to die.

"By the way, when can I remove the gouge?"

"Before entering the production." Louiso flipped through the script. She had read some plots a few days ago. Now that she looked at them carefully, she was quickly attracted by the characters and plots.

If Ezekiel and Aryo were to act, it would be very good!

She was already looking forward to the release of the movie.

Furthermore, she felt that there was another important reason why Allen asked Ezekiel to act as the mole lead. That was that Ezekiel's personal life habits were somewhat similar to this mole lead's.

"I just don't like to interact with people, but it doesn't mean that I'm a strange person with a special hobby. Maybe I just like to live a quiet life." After a while, Ezekiel finally said that.

He always wanted to find a chance to solve this misunderstanding with Louisa. Otherwise, this girl would always be so afraid of him. How could he proceed to the next step?

"It was the rumors in the entertainment circle that spread me so terribly that made you so afraid of me."

Louisa heard and blinked her eyes.

After spending some time together, she indeed felt that Ezekiel was not as terrifying as when she first met him.
