Chapter 431 He Chose You

And their neighbor's dog would shout at her husband.

"The police come again today. Don't go to the shop for now. It's not safe."

Aryo nodded as if she understood what was going on. When she wanted to approach her husband to take care of him, her husband's body suddenly became very transparent and Aryo's role would suddenly wake up from her sleep.

Aryo needed to show the panic and fear when she woke up. Furthermore, it was done in a close-up manner. She sat on the double bed with cold sweat on her forehead and the fear on her face slowly faded.

When the crew saw this scene, they were all shocked by Aryo's acting skills. Her acting was too real. It was as if she really had a nightmare. Everyone in the film was attracted.

Even Ezekiel felt that Aryo was indeed very powerful.

When Aryo and Ezekiel were shooting the movie, Louisa and Jenny were watching from the side.

"Miss Aryo is a very good person. You have to work hard by her side and take good care of her."

"I will." Jenny's appearance was very delicate. Her small and delicate nose made her entire person have a kind of quick-witted and playful manner. The moment she opened her mouth, her voice was clear and pleasant to hear.

"When she starts working, she will neglect her own body. You must remind her to rest and eat on time."

Jenny turned her head to look at Louisa and suddenly smiled and said, "Aryo is indeed very powerful, but to me, following Ezekiel makes people even more envious."

"Why?" That slightly cold face appeared in Louisa's mind and when she thought of him, Louisa shivered, "I really want Miss Aryo to take me back but you still envy me?"

"You are the assistant Ezekiel asked for. He only wants you. And since he debuted, you are the only assistant he has brought with him."

"Really? How do you know so well?"

"Five years ago, I applied for Ezekiel's assistant. At that time, he was not as famous as he is now. The company wanted to hire someone to take care of him at any time, but Ezekiel refused. He said he did not need an assistant at all, but now he chose you." Jenny smiled and explained patiently.

"Now Aryo's assistant position will be vacant because Ezekiel wants you to leave."

"Ah?" Louisa was stunned. She did not expect things to be like this. She could not react immediately.

And their neighbor's dog would shout at her husband.

Chapter 432 Professionalism

When the heroine found out that something strange had happened in her neighbor's house, she called for help from her college classmate.

However, as soon as the call was connected, she was stopped by her husband.

He warned the classmate on the phone that he was not allowed to interact with his wife anymore.

The female lead was very angry. She had a big fight with him and could not stand the oppressive atmosphere in the house. In the middle of the night, she ran out.

It was just that the town was very quiet. There was a terrifying aura everywhere...

Then, a miserable cry came from her house. It's not her husband but her neighbor.

The incident was getting weirder and weirder. Who was the murderer?

The people on the set were attracted by their performance. Ezekiel's expression was especially good. In addition to Aryo quickly putting herself into the role, it seemed like they were really in the play.

After each scene was finished, the director would discuss with them. The effect of each scene was better than the last.

Louisa was also infected by the performance. When she saw Ezekiel walk over, she could not tell if he was the perverted male lead or...

"What are you hiding from?"

"I was too fascinated by the show. I thought you were the murderer."

"Then I'll take some cartoons and children's dramas from now on." After he finished speaking, he looked at the gradually darkening sky outside the window. "Let's go and eat."

Louisa quickly followed him. It had to be said that the more she was afraid of Ezekiel, the more successful his role was. Not only did Louisa think so, but everyone in the production also thought so.

As the scenes of the cast and crew progressed day by day, Aryo's scenes gradually became more intense. Allen had been paying close attention to the situation of the cast and if there were any scenes that involved dangerous actions, he would personally be there to ensure that there were no hidden dangers. Only then would he let Aryo start filming.

In order to film, Aryo gave up many opportunities to show her face in front of the public. She even declined many invitations from international brands, which made many people who were looking forward to her performance in the fashion industry feel very regretful.

However, this was Aryo's own choice. The outside world had high expectations of what her role would look like.

"Where do you want to go?" Allen looked at her gently.

"I don't really want to go. I just feel like I should do something more meaningful today." Arya raised her eyes and looked at him. "Do you know what day it was?"

"Of course I will remember your birthday. I will accompany you wherever you want to go." Allen put the hot water in her hand.

"Samuel told me that he had to show today. It was the first time he showed himself. I want to see him at the scene."

"No problem. I'll arrange it." In fact, even if Arya did not say it, he did not plan to do it carelessly. After all, it was Arya's first birthday after their marriage. He wanted her to have an unforgettable memory.

"Have you finished filming today?"

Aryo nodded and took a sip of hot water. "But I still want to shoot that scene again."

"That scene was perfect. If you pursue it to the extreme, it will make the crew very tired." Allen put his arm around her shoulder and said, feeling sorry for her.

Aryo nodded. When she saw Ezekiel walk over with Louisa outside the door, she whispered, "How are they doing?"

Allen shook his head, "Even if we are cousins, we are still very different in some areas..."

Although they did not meet often, according to Allen's understanding of Ezekiel, Ezekiel should not have much patience now.

What made him even more depressed was probably that Louisa did not have any feelings for him at all.

Did his movie emperor's charm drop? Or...

Just before Samuel was about to go on the show, he experienced the darkness and conflict in the entertainment circle. However, he did not ask anyone for help. He wanted to rely on his own strength to establish himself in this circle.

This program was the talk program that the new singers yearned for the most. During the conversations, they would arrange for the singers to perform their talents and show off their personal charm. Because the broadcast time was at the television station's golden slot, the invited singers were very concerned about the schedule of their talent performances.

When Samuel signed the contract with Dohuo, he did not reveal his identity to anyone, including his manager.

During the rehearsals, Samuel was at the backstage waiting area. He accidentally heard the conversation of a newcomer group next to him because the person they were talking about was Aryo.

"Where do you want to go?" Allen looked at her gently.

"They have been very popular recently. They can be considered Alex's biggest competitor during this period of time." Jenny analyzed.

Their styles were similar, and their debut time was about the same.

"Let's see if Luno has any concrete evidence. At this time, Samuel's advantage is not that great. If they do something behind their backs, Samuel will be very possible."

"Okay. I will contact Luno immediately."

"Also, let Luno contact Kyro alone. Since he is a capable person, he should know what to do."

With those rich kids with bad records, sooner or later there will be trouble.

She would never take the initiative to harm others, but at least she would not be harmed.

In the entertainment circle, no one could hurt the people she cared about.

Aryo's considerations had a reason. In the entertainment circle, in order to rise up and become famous, one had all kinds of methods.

"I hope I think too much."

Jenny saw the deep look in Aryo's eyes and she suddenly felt very touched. When Aryo said those words just now, she was really decisive. Every decision she made was as swift and decisive as Allen. But at the same time, she was also a woman with a soft heart. It could not be said that she did not have dreams and pursuits but chose to be herself in the face of a big problem.

No wonder Allen was moved by her. This kind of woman was indeed very charming.

After Aryo finished speaking, she continued to focus on the script. The longer the shooting time, the more it tested the actor's endurance. She had to put in the same enthusiasm as when she started filming to ensure that she would not drag down the production progress.

Especially since she and Ezekiel were both people who pursued the pinnacle, they put in more and more effort.

When Jenny contacted Luno, she also reported this matter to Allen. This was one of her jobs, and Aryo naturally knew this point. If Jenny did not do this, Allen would not have sent her to replace Louisa's assistant position.

After Allen heard her report, he did not have any emotional fluctuations. Instead, he simply replied with two words, "I understand."

Luno found a few old friends in the entertainment circle and quickly got some interesting things.

The evidence Aryo wanted was not hard to find. In addition, Martin received Allen's order and secretly cooperated. Very quickly, he grasped the dark history of the two rich second generations. There was a record of obstinence and many conflicts with the police.

At night, Louiso stayed by Ezekiel's bed, afraid that he would catch a fever again.
Ezekiel was sleeping peacefully, but he suddenly woke up and sat up. Louiso jumped in fright. She looked up again and was pulled into his arms.
"I had a nightmare..."
Louiso frowned and pushed him away. "Bastard, who would believe you..."
Ezekiel did not know whether to laugh or cry and said, "How did you know I was faking it?"
"Even if you are a movie king and have superb acting skills, you can't use it like this!"
"Alright, I'll pay attention next time." Ezekiel turned his body sideways. "But I really didn't lie to you."
He had an unexpected dream last night.
"Who took care of you when you were sick?"
Ezekiel was stunned. He turned around and said, "I'm hungry. Help me prepare something to eat."

more. Who wanted to reveal their secret?

Very soon, it was the night of the weekend. Allen had been waiting at the set a long time ago.

Aryo's last scene of the day had just ended and Allen directly walked over. His cold eyes contained a gentleness that outsiders could not see, "Happy birthday, wife." Then, he kissed Aryo on the cheek.

"I want to give myself to you. Do you want to accept it?"

"I thought it would be diamond jewelry or something..."

"Isn't it good to get an energetic husband like me?"

After the two of them finished speaking, they couldn't help but laugh at the same time.

Their intimate interaction attracted the attention of the people around them, including Ezekiel.

After he looked away, his eyes were slightly cold...

"Sister Aryo, happy birthday!"

"Happy birthday! You're getting more and more beautiful!"

The crew shouted one after another. Justin also walked over. "On behalf of all the crew's colleagues, I wish you a happy birthday. I also want to give you two days of vacation. Aren't you very touched?"

Aryo turned her head to look at Allen. She left his arms and said to everyone, "Thank you, everyone. Shall we leave first?"

Chapter 436 Performance Accident

Ever since Eldritch Morrison was fully focused on recuperating, he had handed over the matters of Morrison Group to Astrid to manage.

Aryo saw that Astrid was full of energy and felt happy for her from the bottom of her heart.

"It seems that grandfather handing over the company to you is a good decision. Have you gotten used to your new role now?"

Astrid smiled and shrugged. "I don't know what to say. After all, I used to manage the company with your father before. It's just that, forget it, it's not important. I will talk to you when I have time in the future."

To Aryo, it was not important to not celebrate her birthday. What was important was that the people she loved were all by her side. They were happy and healthy. That was enough.

After the meal, Astrid left first.

Allen had already ordered people to prepare a special channel. Before the interview program started, he brought Aryo into the broadcast hall.

The two of them were very low-key. In addition to the staff who had arranged ahead of time, they were in the VIP seats at the front. After entering the venue, the audience at the back did not recognize them.

At this time, it was not long before the program started. Samuel had been working hard at the backstage.

However, the team in the dressing room next to him all revealed a sly smile at the same time. Apart from the exciting show tonight, there was a show they had prepared!

Before the opening, Samuel was still a little nervous. Just as he was preparing to go on stage backstage, he received a photo of Aryo.

It was a photo of her and Allen together. The location was right below the stage!

She also added, "Show your most beautiful performance and you will succeed!"

Seeing her encouragement, Samuel took a deep breath. He would use his best strength to face every performance.

As the lights on the stage kept changing, someone saw two people sitting side by side in the first row.

"Huh? Is she a celebrity? Her face is so pretty..."

"Why do I feel like these two people's backs are so familiar!"

"Aryo?"

Some people guessed their identities because of their backs. After all, those who could sit in the VIP seats in the front row were definitely not ordinary people. In addition, the two of them were very tall.

"But this program did not invite guests outside. It should be a mistake."

Soon, the program officially started.

Those invited were all the new stars and singers of this year's entertainment circle. The new talent group named YIO went on stage before Samuel. It caused the fans to scream. Arya watched calmly from below the stage. There was no ripple in her eyes.

Chapter 437 Have A Taste Of Being Wronged

Because of Aryo's appearance, no one took Samuel's immature and nervous expression to heart. They only felt that he was a newcomer and that he was doing that to give everyone a surprise.

After he finished singing the second half of the song on the stage, his voice was clear and pure. Many people remembered this young singer, Alex.

The host naturally gossiped, and once again stirred up the atmosphere of the audience.

The lights and cameras searched the venue...

Finally, in the VIP seats, they found the emperor of the entertainment circle, Allen Jones. His face was still as cold as ever. He stood up slightly and nodded to everyone, then continued to watch the show from his original position.

"It seems that the two of you are really close. No matter where you go, you will accompany each other." The host was also one of the fans of the couple in the entertainment circle. "We all know that Alex is the same as you. He is an artist of the Dohuo. Today, Aryo especially came to help her junior brother to fight. I wonder what she wants to say to bless him?"

"I hope that he can always show his true self. Be responsible to his fans, be responsible to himself, and be responsible to everyone who supported him." After saying that, Aryo turned back and smiled at Samuel. She then bowed and left the stage.

After the host said some more lines, she also started the next segment.

Samuel left the stage according to the rehearsals. After he stood behind the stage, there was a layer of tears in his eyes. He did not expect Aryo to go up on stage for him...

She had always been like this. For her family and friends, she did not care about herself. As long as it was someone she cared about, she would protect them to the end. No matter how many obstacles there were in the future, she would not be timid.

Perhaps this was what Aryo wanted to tell Samuel the most.

Below the stage, Allen received a call from Martin.

"President, I found something in Alex's dressing room. It could be drugs."

Allen's cold face showed a touch of anger. He handed the phone to Aryo. It was better for her to make the decision.

"Let them have a taste of being wronged." Aryo clenched her fists and her voice was cold.

Samuel's performance on stage was not bad. His monologue had been waiting for him at the door of his dressing room. The moment he saw Samuel, he gave him a big hug.

"Good boy. Consider yourself lucky. You met the CEO and Mom. Mom has always been loyal. That's why she helped you. When you meet her at the company in the future, you have to thank her properly."

Because of Arya's appearance, no one took Samuel's immature and nervous expression to heart. They only felt that he was a newcomer and that he was doing that to give everyone a surprise.

Somuel did not think he was lucky.

As the crowd dispersed, Somuel quietly sat in the dressing room to remove his makeup. After changing his clothes, he sent a message to Aryo.

"Third Sister, the people from YIO framed me, but they got their own retribution. Are you helping me?"

Other than helping him out on stage, Aryo helped him again.

After Aryo saw the message, she did not deny it.

"From the day you entered this circle, it means that you have to accept all of its glory and darkness. Today's matter is just an example. If I'm not here, how are you going to face the tension and framing? You still have a long way to go, and you need to bear a lot of pressure."

"But, how do you know?" Somuel was holding his phone. He could not come back to his senses for a long time.

"I noticed them when you talked to me the other day. Anyone who could be your competitor could outdo you. You must be careful. The more outstanding you are, the more people who are jealous of you behind your back. No matter what, you must not let down your guard. Those who appear to be good to you might stab you in the back. "

"This is the world you're about to face. I can help you when I'm here. When I'm not around, I can only rely on your own strength "

Somuel really did not expect things to be so cruel.

His third sister had actually been fighting in such a cruel circle, and the Morrison Family had actually looked down on her... They did not have the qualifications!

"Alex, I have already negotiated with the person in charge of the television station. What happened backstage will not affect you, but tomorrow the reporters will definitely send news. Tomorrow morning, I will send someone to the police station to do an inspection. Only then will this matter be completely settled."

"Okay. Thank you." Somuel nodded his head in thanks. He would listen to Aryo's words. He would learn a lesson from this matter. In the future, he would slowly become stronger.

Chapter 439 Nothing Is More Important Than You

"Everything you've been through could have been avoided!"

"How about we publicize our relationship and help out a little?"

Arya heard the sound and said with a smile, "I don't need to rely on your fame to make me famous, right? Besides, even if you don't believe me, you have to believe in your brother-in-law's ability."

"Of course I believe! It's just that... I've already seen many eliminated artists, I'm worried about you." Samuel had experienced the cold and warmth of this circle through these few months of experience. Now, he could be considered to have some fame. He also got the Hot Search List. If their brother-sister relationship was exposed, it should be able to let everyone pay attention to Arya again.

"Life has always been filled with multiple choice questions. Since I've already chosen this role, I will resolutely walk to the end. As long as I give it my all, I won't regret it. The applause that I deserve won't be taken away." Arya was very confident, "Allen and I are very confident. Don't worry about me."

"But the movie is going to be released soon."

"The most important thing for you right now is to sing your song well. Don't worry about me. It is going to be a single song soon. You need to focus more." After these few months of settling down, Arya had an indescribable temperament and aura. "Do you still have activities at night? Quickly go and prepare."

"Alright then. There is something that I can help with. You must tell me!"

"Alright, I definitely won't forget you." Allen just came back and heard their conversation. He walked to Arya's side and said, "I will take care of your sister. You can rest assured."

Samuel nodded seriously. "I will help promote her when the time comes."

The couple watched Samuel leave. His words were not without reason. Arya's hand was held by Allen. She looked up and said, "To be honest, I'm a little nervous too. I'm afraid that this movie's results are not good. After all, it's my first movie after my comeback. There was also the aftermath of my injury last time. If the result is not good, it will be hard for me to find a good script again, right?"

"Memory Fragment" and "Passing Image" These two movies were set two days apart. When movie fans chose movies to watch, they tended to favor the popularity and the speed of discussion. In comparison, "Memory Fragment" was indeed a little inferior.

Even with Ezekiel and Arya acting as the lead actors, they could not compare to the influence of the popular idols and celebrities. Even many industry insiders did not have high expectations for "Memory Fragment."

Chapter 440 Pleasure Of Conquering His Opponents

If the box office of Memory Fragment was really as bleak as what the outside world predicted, it would undoubtedly affect Allen's position in Dohuo. Perhaps some people would jump out and question his ability and decision-making ability.

The more it was at this moment, the more pressure Aryo felt. She was the person who wanted to prove Allen's judgment the most in the world! He would always be the unshakable emperor in this circle. No one could surpass him.

However, the situation seemed to be getting more and more pessimistic.

There were even some who posted a post on the internet claiming to be someone who knew about this. He said that he used to work in a certain production crew and knew several good friends in a few circles, so he had already watched the later editions of the film. He said that Aryo's acting skills were simply a mess. She was just a flower vase, and all the wonderful parts of the entire film were on that minute of promotional film. He advised everyone not to watch it.

Originally, such a post would not cause any trouble on the Internet, but it just happened that the post was released the day before the premiere. In addition, this person listed three reasons that were not worth looking at. The real and fake reasons were mixed up, and the exaggerated comments were very eye-catching.

In addition, in order to gain popularity, all the major bloggers forwarded the post one after another. The fans were more or less affected by these comments.

It seemed that from this moment on, everyone had already announced that "Memory Fragment" was a big crappy film.

Who else could be the person who could play such a big game of chess behind the scenes other than competitors? For the sake of the box office, they would resort to any means possible. They had used such a method to ruthlessly step on the Dohuo.

With all kinds of bad situations stacked together, the premiere of the Memory Fragment really made people worried.

Samuel saw that the company did not respond for a long time, so he publicized his new dance. At the end, he even used the video forwarding method to tell his fans that he would draw a hundred fans from the forwarded fans and give them the movie tickets for "Memory Fragment." He thanked everyone for their support and also thanked Arya for her help to him in the post.

Samuel's celebrity setting was already very close to the people, and his fans also bought it very much. They felt that Samuel was very kind.

Of course, the fans did not have much expectations for this movie. They were all aiming for their idols.

After that, the promotion route of "Passing Image" completely copied "Memory Fragment." Wherever Arya's crew went, they would follow them. Moreover, they were full of variety and closely followed the Dohuo. They wanted to take this opportunity to increase the influence of their company and their status in the entertainment industry.
