

Love Of A Billionaire

Chapter 49

Chapter 49 I'm Willing to Follow You to the Ends of the Earth

With Allen's status, there were pretty much nothing he can't do. He would even travel thousands of miles as long as Arya would be happy.

Those were his sincere feelings, unlike those rhetoric that can be compared to. Arya understood his meaning and cherished all his affections.

"Alright, as long as it doesn't bother your work, I'm willing to follow you to the ends of the earth." She put the book down and turned around to face him.

Allen nodded with a smile. He took out two years of information about the lingerie brand, "I've already sent people to investigate the lingerie company. It is a small workshop with no products to sell, they only create superficial articles and the day after tomorrow, they will be banned."

"Oh Hubby, thank you for your help ..."

"Hmm?" Allen hugged Arya together.

"You were always next to me supporting me behind the scenes, you are my greatest motivation!" Arya laid against his chest with tranquility, even if the sky was to fall on her, she wouldn't be afraid as long as this man was by her side. "I will buy some time tomorrow and delay the contract signing with them."

With her returning back to acting, Allen was her solid support.

"You smell lovely ..." He touched her cheek affectionately.

Arya replied with a sad smile, "I was very fortunate to meet you at a time when I was at my lowest. I was blessed by the heavens."

"Then when are you going to terminate the contract?" Allen didn't like Arya threatened by them again.

"There are still a few things ..." Arya couldn't answer with certainty only because she didn't know how things would play out.

"Dahua Entertainment Company has a lot of projects that would be suitable for your development. I'll show them to you next time."

"I don't think I'm good enough yet." Arya said frankly and that she feels she still needs to improve herself.

Allen didn't want her to feel pressured so he stopped persuading her. It actually wasn't important whether Arya joined Dahua Entertainment or not, what was important was the development plans were only designed for her alone.

There would be time to discuss these matters in future.

However ...

"Do not look down on yourself."

The next second, he gently picked her up and went to the bed when their eyes met, they could see the tenderness in both of them.

Allen finally let her go, after a round of intimacy and told her, "Time to sleep."

Arya's face flushed from his kisses. She covered herself in the blanket and shyly said, "Alright."

The next morning after breakfast, Arya took Allen's car to the set. Luna and Julia was already there waiting.

The moment Arya entered, she noticed something didn't seem right.

"What's the matter?" She put her bag down and saw the activity program on the table. Frowning slightly and she asked, "Was this arranged by the company?"

Julia stepped over and angrily said, "This is outrageous! Even now, they want to pass the blame to you and let you bear all their consequences. Just now, Daniel brought Caroline out to gloat."

"Where is he now?" Arya asked maintaining her calmed expression and ignored the harsh activity program. "Luna, inform Daniel to see me alone now or, I won't go to the studio."

"Okay, I'll go now!"
