

Love Of A Billionaire

Chapter 53

Chapter 53 Legal Action Against Brilliant Entertainmen

The deposit was indeed paid to Brilliant Entertainment and had nothing to do with Arya.

And so the reporters' interview came to an end. The most exciting part was Arya's entire speech that was posted on the internet.

Her beauty and composure won a chorus of compliments.

In the car, Luna quickly hugged Arya as tears rolled down her cheeks, "This day has finally come. I waited so long for this day! Arya, you've put up with so much."

Only she knew how much Arya had suffered along the way, how many condescending looks and all the grievances. Sooner or later, the scumbag like Daniel, would receive his retribution.

From the sideline, the moment she heard Arya announcing her return, Luna was already teary. She believed Arya would definitely regain her position at its peak again.

"You must do better than before, those scumbags would be so furious. I bet Caroline is definitely acting all coquettish with Daniel again and having him to threaten you with the contract."

Julia nodded with agreement. "According to Caroline's temper, that is definitely a possibility."

"However, our royal flush has yet to be revealed."

Arya smiled. "Come on, let's go. I'm starving. Let's find a nice place and have a good meal."

But before that, she quickly sent a message to her Mr. Jones, "The problem solved."

He unexpectedly replied quickly, "I've saw the video already. You look beautiful."

Looking at the screen, she imagined his handsome face and the kisses they shared last night

"Arya, what's on your mind?" Luna noticed a change in the atmosphere and nudged Arya with her elbow, signaling with her eyes to Julia.

Although things had progressed smoothly up to this point, they still could not be completely complacent with Julia. She was sent by Caroline to monitor Arya, after all.

Until they confirmed her loyalty, they would not let their guard down.

Arya understood and put her phone away.

"Has Daniel gone back to the company?"

Julia nodded, "The directors also caught up with Daniel and got him to pay the money. They also said this matter has affected their company's reputation and if Brilliant Entertainment refuses to publicly apologize, they will take legal action and sue them."

Arya narrowed her eyes. They wouldn't actually sue Brilliant Entertainment, the incident didn't cause too much harm to Daniel. What would he do next?

The news online were all curses on Brilliant Entertainment.

"What kind of trashy company forces their artists to sell their bodies?"

"Arya, you must persevere. You will always have our support!"

"I can't wait for the day when Arya leaves Brilliant Entertainment, her future will be destroyed by such a lousy company!"

...

On the top floor of Brilliant Entertainment.

Daniel took a deep breath and pointed at the door, "Get lost, get out of my building. I'm telling you right now, Director Hall, you will not receive a cent from me. It's fine, if you want to sue me but I'll countersue your company for having a product that does not exist and deceives the public!"

He can only use this piece of information to protect the company's interests.

Otherwise, if the public were to find out they had intentionally harmed Arya, then the situation would be very grave, especially after today's incident they managed to salvage, would completely collapse.

The Director left with a dark expression, walked passed Caroline who rushed over.

Caroline was very sharp. She sensed Daniel was in a bad mood, so she did not make a sound when she entered the office. She locked the door quietly, sat down with two cups of water.
