

Love Of A Billionaire

Chapter 58

Chapter 58 Why Don't We Help Each Other?

"You think saying things like that will make us give up. The contract Arya signed with you back then was not entirely fair. All those years, she had suffered a lot at the company so we insist you ..."

"To publicly apologize to Arya? Sure, I can do that." Daniel said, interrupting Luna.

As Arya stood near the doorway, she heard his words loud and clear. She saw the expression on Daniel's face was particularly very confident which made Arya uncomfortable.

"I will not give up on Caroline. My relationship with Arya has already completely ended. From now on, our relationship is purely professional. Whether her contract is fair or not, the fact is her contract has not ended yet so she is still an artist under Brilliant Entertainment and is obliged to adhere to the company's arrangements for her, but ..."

He looked at Arya suddenly, who was still standing in the doorway. He got up and took out some documents from his briefcase.

"I want you to go on a talk show together with Caroline and clear up your relationship, to show the rest of the world, you both do actually get along with each other. This is a win-win situation. Even if you terminate your contract with me, what's make you think, you still have a chance in the industry? So why don't we help each other?"

Daniel had to force himself to say the last four words.

"Otherwise, I will have you disappear forever from the entertainment industry even if my business have to suffer."

"Otherwise, I will have you disappear forever from the entertainment industry even if my business have to suffer."

Arya would never have thought that her relationship with Daniel would come to this. Lovers one day, enemies the next. She had endured his overbearing attitude again and again, but ...

"Don't you dare use Arya again!" Luna stood up, "You will not manipulate us. Why does Arya need to clear the relationship? It is what it is, that's a fact. Brilliant Entertainment is simply a malignant workplace. No one has a problem if you want to support Caroline but to still keep using Arya like this, aren't you ashamed of yourself?"

"Welcome to the real world! That is reality, after all the big fish eat the little fish. Did you really think I got Brilliant Entertainment to where it is now because I got lucky? Arya, tell me if you agree?"

Daniel tried to persuade Arya to agree with him.

Davina Parker, his second sister said that Arya was an intelligent person and would always weigh the pros and cons. As long as he supported her, she wouldn't heartlessly cut off all ties with the company. It would be very beneficial to the company if Caroline could appear together with Arya in public. This could also help rebuilt Caroline's reputation as well.

Evaluating the situation, Daniel was not going to give up and follow her to leave the company.

Arya looked at him calmly, "Okay, I agree to it."

"Arya!" Luna exclaimed in anger, worried that Arya would fall back into Daniel's traps again.

"Since you want us to participate in the show together, don't blame me if anything happens. You also have to carefully consider my lawyer's request!"

This was Arya's greatest compromise, she didn't want the game to end so early either. Even if she accepted to be in the talk show, it didn't mean that she would foil to Caroline. The game has still a long way to go.

"Alright!"

Daniel gritted his teeth. It was only when Arya and the others left his office, he was able to relax. He immediately called Davina.

"Sis, Arya agreed. What is the next step?"

"We will follow the plan one step at a time. Make sure Caroline does not act rashly. Things have developed to this point because of her jealousy towards Arya. Remember, you have to show the outside world, the company is there to support Arya. Only then your cheating scandal can be cleared."

"Don't worry, I won't mess up this time. I will definitely help Louisa to get better!"

Worst case scenario, he would pressure her to donate her bone marrow to save his sister if she was to leave.
