

Love Of A Billionaire

Chapter 81

Chapter 81 Shooting

Caroline had this kind of moral, which made Davina feel a lot more at ease. She continued to let the public Relations Department spread the news about Caroline everywhere. The title that she raised was very eye-catching. The overwhelming public opinion news guided the direction of the wind.

Those previously fancy news were slowly forgotten and Caroline's status as a mistress was about to be washed clean.

Moreover, everyone had seen the Brilliant Entertainment praising Caroline. They all felt that Arya should not accept this shoot. Once it was turned on, she would very likely be treated as Caroline's foil.

On the way to the filming site, Luna looked at the photos on the trending search again.

"Daniel really put in a lot of effort. Arya, I can't hold it anymore!" Luna frowned. She really did not want to see them continue to be arrogant.

"Caroline has so many drafts. It means that she does have business value. In terms of managing popularity, both of you need to learn more from her team." Arya said calmly. Her emotions were not affected by these things at all.

"Alright ..."

Julia turned on the laptop beside her. "Daniel only wanted to help Caroline wash her hair but did not consider the consequences. If she loses in the shooting of the reality show, she will fall miserably tomorrow no matter how high she is praised today."

This was the entertainment industry's usual method.

Arya smiled very calmly. Other than Allen, her attitude towards everyone was like this. It was hard to guess what she was thinking. Her smile was a shield that resisted everything.

"That's what I meant."

Caroline wanted all the resources in this circle and gave them to her. She was the one who stood out. Davina supported her this way to keep her heart and stabilize the child in her womb.

Wait. When Caroline really became popular, it would also promote the status of Brilliant Entertainment in the entertainment circle.

"I just don't know if Caroline can satisfy Davina's expectation."

"The director and cameraman who filmed this film this time were both international awards. Working with them requires absolute professional ability. Today's shooting is of utmost importance!" Luna continued to analyze.

Arya smiled. "Yes."

The shooting venue was in a private garden in the suburbs. The lounge and dressing room were together. Caroline was sitting opposite to Arya.

Everyone's clothing and makeup artist had been prepared long ago. When Arya arrived, she did not have any objections to all the arrangements. There was a faint smile on her face all along. On the other hand, Caroline and the makeup artist started to quarrel.

"Are these clothes suitable for me? Change to another batch!"

It seemed that she was even more famous than international superstars. However, one had to admit that she had high standards of aesthetics and knew how to exploit her weakness. Her figure belongs to a small family's emerald-type, and she is not as tall as Arya, so the dresses she chooses are all very tall. In order to show of her long legs, her style must also be the most exquisite and special.

But in Arya's opinion how to show her true self in front of the camera was the main theme of this shoot and also the most important thing she should do. As for the outer appearance, it was not the most important.

"Our Caroline is a female star favored by Brilliant Entertainment. Not everyone can compare to her. There are some things that people do not need to consider."

Caroline's assistant snorted sarcastically and walked over with the cloths in her hands.

"So what if the packaging is bright and beautiful? I thought you just needed to seduce a man like Daniel." Arya's casual words exposed Caroline's identity as a mistress.

"There are some things that can never be erased once done."

No matter how much effort Daniel had put in to wash away the fact that she was once a mistress, he could not change the fact.

The first part of the filming was an identity interview. It would let the stars sit in front of the camera and answer some simple questions. Because Arya and Caroline belonged to same company and were both Asian women, Directing Team arranged for them to be interviewed together.

Before the start, Davina specially rushed to the filming Venue.

"Remember, no matter how fierce the scene below the stage is, stand in front of the camera. You have to think properly and don't do anything that will embarrass the company."

Then she gave Arya a meaningful look, "Don't do anything that makes you regret."

"Sister Davina, I will work hard. That is ..."

Before Caroline finished her sentence, Arya said slowly.

"I understand."

Arya did not refute Davina and also did not argue with Caroline. But the more she acted like this, the more Davina worried that Arya had already planned something and was prepared to deal a heavy blow to the company at the critical moment.

Her gentle and indifferent expression made people unable to see through her thoughts. Only Caroline would think that Arya was easy to deal with.

Not far away, Daniel was waiting in front of the computer. He tightened his grip on his phone. If Arya caused any trouble today, he would really not show mercy. Right now, supporting Caroline was the company's biggest matter and he would not allow anyone to cause trouble.

The reason he and Davina appeared at the filming site at the same time was because they did not want to see any sudden situation. If Arya played a trick on them at the critical moment, he could still make up for it in the time.

But when the camera was turned on, everyone could see that Arya and Caroline's temperament was completely different.

One of them sat in front of the camera and looked radiant. She wished that she could dress herself up as a dazzling gem and attract everyone's attention.

The other waited as gently as water. The mysterious temperament that came from her bones made people unable to look away.

Many people were whispering to each other below. Who would be better after the two of them were in the same frame?

Daniel's hands were sweating as he stared at the screen.

"Congratulations to the two of you becoming a participant in the tenth episode of 'Behind the Scenes.' This is also the first time you have stepped onto the stage of our reality show. I would like to ask why you chose to participate." This was a standard question, but it could directly test the personalities of the two of them.

Caroline curled her lips and smiled confidently, "I represent the Brilliant Entertainment. I can participate in 'Behind the Scenes' is the result of everyone's hard work."

Assistant Director acknowledged and made a hand gesture. The camera was aimed at Arya.

Caroline lifted her lips proudly to see what she could say.

"It's not that I chose 'Behind the Scenes', but the program team chose me. I will cherish this opportunity."

Arya's reply was very polite and her tone was relaxed. She maintained a smile and her expression on the screen was very calm. Other than the literal meaning, this sentence also reflected Arya's high EQ.

She was not in a hurry to express herself like Caroline but used such simple polite words to express her sincerity. The director looked at each other in satisfaction. Clearly, they preferred the second answer.

Caroline looked at Daniel, who was standing behind the director and thought of a plan.

"Then what do the two of you think of our 'Behind the Scenes' program?"

Hearing this question Caroline learned her lesson. She smiled and said, "I also want to hear Arya's answer."

This time, she pushed all the questions to Arya.

If it was any other artist who encountered such a problem, they would probably talk about it and make their position stand out. However, Arya did not do that. She nodded slightly and smiled. "I think I am not qualified to comment on such a high quality reality show in the industry."

Her answer was modest and appropriate. Jason stood beside her and nodded.
