

Love Of A Billionaire

Chapter 93

Chapter 93 Could It Be That Who Is Stronger Than Her Owes Her?

On the other hand, not only Arya accumulated a lot of popularity this time, many directors also wanted to collaborate with Arya. With the LKU endorsement as the starting point, Arya's path of recovery would be wider and wider, and the quality of the endorsement would be higher and higher.

In name, Arya was an artist of Brilliant Entertainment. The company's upper echelons were very satisfied with her good development prospects, but Daniel could not be happy at all.

The current situation was contrary to his plan. If it was really like what Caroline said, Arya would step on him after her comeback. What should he do?

He had asked Arya to go back to the company to discuss the contract several times but Luna had rejected him with the excuse that Arya was shooting an advertisement. In the history of the entertainment circle, Arya was probably the one who neglected to sign a contract with the company most.

Arya did not deliberately avoid him, but she knew that this shooting opportunity was not easy to come by. She wanted to focus on her work. The second day after the shooting ended, Arya returned to the company.

As soon as she returned to the company, she was invited into Daniel's office by his secretary.

"Arya, take a sit." When Daniel saw her come in, his expression was very complicated.

"Luna said you were looking for me urgently." Arya sat on the sofa with a calm expression and kept a distance from Daniel.

"You have seen the situation after returning to China. The company is happy for you to receive the endorsement of LKU and will also fight for a lot of resources for you in the future. So don't compete with Caroline, okay?"

Arya slowly raised her eyes and her eyes were calm without any ripple.

"Did I fight with her? What she does not have the ability to do, if I do those things that mean I snatch her things? Could it be that everyone in the circle who is stronger than her owes her?"

"Arya, your words..." Daniel forcefully swallowed the second half of his sentence. The cruelty of the circle was not aimed at a certain person. Arya was right. If the person had a smooth journey today was Caroline, he would only be happy for her. He could not do anything to Arya.

Daniel turned his eyes and looked at Julia who was behind Arya.

"Okay, I am in a hurry to find you. I am not looking for a fight with you. I want to tell you some good news." Daniel took out a proposal officially. "This overseas shoot has brought considerable benefits to the company. The board of directors decided to support you after the meeting."

"What are the conditions?" Arya's tone was very calm. She knew better than anyone else how the Brilliant Entertainment issued their cards. They had spent so much money on Caroline, so it was impossible for them to suddenly look at her.

Support her? Arya would never believe it...

Otherwise, she would not have gone through so much trouble and become hostile with Daniel and his sister.

Daniel did not expect Arya to have seen through everything. He put the proposal on the table and said, "There are no conditions. I just want to give you the best resources. The first step is to appoint a new manager for you."

Julian looked at Daniel when she heard that.

She was the person they sent to Arya's side. Now she suddenly changed. Did they find out that she sincerely sought refuge with Arya?

Julia was a little nervous and could not help but stand by Arya's side.

Having been in this circle for a long time, Arya understood the way it was. After thinking about it, she gave Julia a comforting look and said to Daniel, "Back then when you replaced Luna, you did not inform me and now you still want to use the same old trick again?"

Once Julia was replaced, it meant that they had some doubts about Julia. No matter who Julia became in the future, her life would not be easy. Arya would not let those who sincerely followed her suffer. Even if they wanted to change, she would help Julia get the best position.

Julia heard Arya's words and was very touched. The facts proved that Arya did not give up on her. She believed in Arya.

"This is the company's decision and I do not have the right to speak. But you can rest assured that since the company is prepared to support you, it will definitely arrange the best resources for you." Daniel continued to persuade her, "These are all for your future."

"Then you have to tell me who the new manager is, right?" Arya continued to ask, "What if she is not as professional as Julia?"

"Don't worry about that. She is very experienced and will meet you officially in a few days. At that time, your schedule will also be carefully arranged. Take a good rest these few days and you will not have such a comfortable vacation in the future." Daniel's words had a hidden meaning, but he did not reveal the identity of this new manager.

Arya did not continue to argue with him. He kept saying that this was all arranged by the company, but Arya was not stupid. They had already fallen out with each out. Daniel could not possibly arrange things for her.

She had to take the initiative!

Arya got up and walked out. After glancing at Julia, she stopped, "She is still my manager now. I will take her away with me. Is that okay?"

It was this sentence that made Julia even more moved.

Arya had already gone through a lot of trouble to fight against the company, but under such circumstances, she still did not abandon her. Which superstar could do this?

Daniel frowned, "Alright."

He found that he could not control Arya more and more. This feeling of losing control made him very uncomfortable.

Arya brought Julia out. Luna was already waiting for them in the car. "How is it? Daniel did not make things difficult for you guys, right?"

"He said the company wanted to promote me and give me the best resources. He also said that he wanted to change a manager for me." Arya calmly recounted what had just happened.

"Change again?" Luna knew they were playing tricks and could not sit still.

Daniel and the others did not care about Arya's wishes and forced Julia to Arya's side. Now that, Arya had developed well, who would they send to torture them?

Suddenly, she thought of a person, "Could it be..."

"He did not say. He had been hiding it all this time. So I think it should be her."

Julia looked at Arya and Luna's expressions and whispered a name, "Davina?"

Luna clapped her hands and said angrily, "The overseas company has spread that Davina abused her power and harmed the company's interests. She has already been on a long vacation and can't continue working there, so she came back to have ideas about you! I think they must be playing tricks behind the scenes. Arya, why don't we change the company?"

Arya definitely had the ability to change the company now, but she did not want to do it.

"It's not the time yet." Arya smiled meaningfully. Although she stood on the opposite side of Daniel, it did not mean that she wanted to leave Brilliant Entertainment.

At least, not now. She had not defeated Caroline yet.

Arya looked at Julia and Luna immediately understood, "I will send you first and then Julia."

Arya nodded. She knew that Luna would help her comfort Julia. After all, she had sincerely followed her and Arya did not wish to see her being manipulated by Daniel.

After returning to the villa, Allen had already prepared a bouquet of flowers for her to celebrate her first commercial on her way back.
