

Love Rats 1066

Chapter 1066 Release

Leon only knew what Selena was doing in Creephia after seeing Hattie's Weibo post. He knew about Hattie's filming, but he hadn't paid much attention to it before. Now, he thought about the background of the drama and its true owner...

Leon's eyes darkened for a moment.

With Olympus Group backing it, the drama didn't lack popularity or support.

After a moment, Leon suddenly spoke up, "Have the Riddle Group's official website promote this drama by placing it at the top."

His assistant was shocked.

The Riddle Group's official website was the most authoritative place for this huge economic empire on the internet. Every move represented the Riddle Group's major decisions and development. They had never used it specifically for personal purposes, even for Miss Hattie... it shouldn't be necessary.

The assistant was puzzled, but seeing the icy look in Leon's eyes, she didn't dare to ask any further. She made the call to instruct the matter.

...

If Haider could maintain basic courtesy when asking about Hattie and Selena's background, then Rachel was furious.

Selena had made her so miserable before, just the thought of her name made Rachel grit her teeth with hatred.

The research institute's confidentiality was very strict, and Rachel still didn't know that Diana had been caught. When she saw Selena and Haider's conversation on Weibo, her eyes were crimson, and she openly questioned Selena.

if your sister loses, would you dare to kneel down and apologize to me in took Selena about ten minutes

Sure, but what if looked at her phone screen, her eyes glowing with a vicious red color, and she sneered again and

If you win, I'll kneel down in public and apologize to you and your sister! Of course, the final result will be you two kneeling at sat in front of her computer, looking at the online public opinion, and sisters were still as stupid as her phone and posted a post with a small hour later, a post titled "The Riddle Sisters are bullying and disrespecting the entire entertainment industry. Can you tolerate it, seniors?" quickly soared to the top of the hot search from all walks of the entertainment industry, directors, producers, actors, big and small, those who really loved acting, and those who were just looking for publicity... all reposted and

...

than an hour, the post received tens of thousands of likes and quickly surpassed the "Breaking Ground" starring two top actors and actresses, who had publicly clashed with each other, to take the top

Most of the comments below are unfavorable to Selena and Hattie.

After all, how can a thirteen-year-old newcomer compare to an experienced male and female lead in their thirties?

Additionally, "Breaking Ground" doesn't have a male lead, which doesn't cater to the mainstream market.

The Riddle sisters seem to have no chance at all.

At one point, Selena and Hattie were pushed to the forefront of public opinion.

Even the girls who were fans of Selena were sweating profusely for these two sisters under such terrifying public opinion.

Even those who normally speak aggressively were somewhat restrained, fearing that the Riddle sisters' prospects would really go down the drain.

It can be said that this day was a major earthquake in the entire entertainment industry.

Just as the public opinion was in an uproar, someone suddenly discovered that the official website of the Riddle family had blatantly placed "Breaking Ground" at the top.

Everyone who saw this news was shocked.

"Wow, even the Riddle family's official website has taken action... Does this mean that the Riddle family is openly supporting their own little miss?"

"It's not surprising that the Riddle family would take action when it comes to the granddaughter and great-granddaughter of the Riddle family, but it's a bit strange that the Riddle family is putting out this kind of message on their official website for the first time..."

is clearly trying to take advantage of the Riddle family's power and openly make our beloved idols swallow their pride! This is simply saw this news, she was edited another post, "This is too much! Selena is blatantly taking advantage of her position and stepping on the faces of actors in the entire entertainment industry!" and wanted to lead public opinion and attack even the Riddle family with the official website of the Riddle family was too high-end and most brainless person wouldn't dare to run down to the comments section and curse because of this little conflict within the just raised the popularity of this immediately liked, shared, and commented, "I don't accept any coercion! Selena, I'm waiting for you to kneel down and apologize to other actors in "Love in City" also followed suit, upvoting and condemning Selena, stating that her behavior was disrespectful to many artists and actors in the entertainment are you crazy?! Are you using our Riddle family's official website to promote roaring voice came through Leon's phone, and he sneered, "Selena is Aunt Nevaeh's daughter, and Hattie is your daughter, Uncle. Who do you call choked, "Did you get approval from coldly interrupted him, "The Riddle family doesn't need to consult with the board when it comes to promoting their