Chapter 1071 Wait for me to come back, I'll take you home

Sienna smiled, "No, Lady Selena, we have a lot of things to talk about."

"Just because you don't know about something, doesn't mean it doesn't exist."

"I believe you will be interested in it."

Selena's expression faded as she stared at Sienna, unable to tell what she was thinking.

Luke walked over, his eyes slightly cold as he glanced at Hattie without changing his expression.

Hattie received Luke's hint and raised her hand to shake Selena's wrist. "Selena, I miss Uncle Chef's cooking. Shall we go home and eat?"

Selena smiled at Sienna and said, "Miss Soo, my sister is hungry, I have to take her home. As for what you said, I'm not interested."

After speaking, she nodded to Sienna and took Hattie away.

Sienna wanted to catch up, but was stopped by Luke.

Luke coldly said, "Miss Soo, you openly try to steal Mr. Anderson from the Olympus Group's territory, is it because I have been too polite to you?"

Sienna's face suddenly turned white.

She finally remembered that this was Osvaldo's territory.

If it was someone else, no matter what, she was still the Miss of the Soo family, and didn't need to be too afraid.

It came to the heir of the Anderson family... Sienna looked at Luke and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Jordan, I snapped his fingers, "Escort Miss Selena could probably guess why the girl was apologizing. She let out a sigh and said softly, "You helped that Selena fulfill her wish, she was a kind girl, so... she will forgive you, Hattie." Hattie blushed secretly in her arms.

After being "asked" to leave Olympus Group, Sienna took out her phone.

Luke's men were very alert, and not only did they "ask" her to leave Olympus Group, they even secretly guarded her from going after Selena.

Knowing that she couldn't catch up, the two bodyguards turned back to Olympus Group.

Sienna sat in her car, looking at her phone screen.

What she cared about was something else.

Seeing her silent, the agent thought she was upset and comforted her, "Sienna, although Selena sings well, you are unique. It's Olympus Group's loss to reject you, don't be upset."

Sienna lowered her head.

Selena blushed and lay on the bed, eagerly and shyly saying, "I'll wait for you to come home."

Even though Rachel and Leah bought a large number of fake followers, they could not stop the strong rise of "Breaking Ground." Especially on the second day, as the show became popular, the plot began to get better.

After four episodes, Phoebe successfully captured the hearts of countless fans.

Everyone felt deep pity for the child who was always quiet and beautiful.

Hattie's Weibo fans broke the record with over thirty million followers in just two days.

The bet on acting skills was started by her and Haider, but the Riddle sisters had only said a few words, and the rest of the "Love in City" crew had driven the discussion.

Although Selena and Hattie were not subjected to online abuse, they were still accused by many people.

Now that the results were out, these executioners refused to take responsibility or apologize, and their attitude was so terrible and arrogant that anyone with a shred of common sense couldn't tolerate it.

Rachel's fans began to unfollow her and leave negative comments, and even leaked screenshots of her team's attempts to discredit Phoebe and "Breaking Ground" in the official fan group.

This operation made people even more disgusted with Rachel's character.

[I really respect Phoebe's acting skills, and it's a fact that they are better than Rachel's. Isn't it only right and proper for Rachel to apologize to Phoebe? How dare she be so arrogant and tell people to get lost?]

The people from the "Love in City" crew have such an unappealing appearance! They previously did everything they could to slander the Riddle sisters, but now they are all playing dead. Where are their faces?! It's obvious that they have no shame! A group of adults who don't even have as much responsibility as a thirteen-year-old child. I can't agree with the show they produced. "Love in City" will be blacklisted forever!

Rachel is the female lead of "Love in City," and when her reputation suffers, the show's reputation also begins to decline. In contrast, "Breaking Ground" has skyrocketed in popularity and ratings, becoming a hot topic on various platforms within two days.

Hattie's Weibo accounts are constantly visited by many fans who eagerly ask Selena when the promised behind-the-scenes footage will be released. Unfortunately, Selena is too indifferent to the situation, and even Rachel's insistence on an apology couldn't force that scum to make

Chapter 1073 Fighting on the Stage

After leaving the office, Leah went to the bathroom and leaned against the door frame.

Mrs. Riddle and Alberto were dead, Dominic detested her, and her carefully planned "Love in City" was being gradually suppressed by Selena. Selena had taken away all the glory that Leah had.

Was Leah destined to never win against Selena again in her lifetime?!

Staring at her haggard reflection in the mirror, Leah's face gradually twisted with anger.

She absolutely refused to lose to Selena again!

...

On the third day, the post-production of the theme song for "Breaking Ground" was finally completed.

"Breaking Ground" was no longer a bare drama and now had a beautiful theme song of its own.

The audience was taken aback when they saw the successful release of the theme song and were even confused. They were moved to tears by the vivid expressions of the characters and the clear and melodious singing. Selena was a bit "bad," but when it came to pleasing her fans, she did it really well. Whatever she promised, she would definitely deliver!

Because the plot was too attractive, everyone was too busy to evaluate the song. After watching two episodes of the TV drama, they turned around and went to listen to the song.

Luke: "The theme song? It was made by your girl Selena in one night."

With Luke's words, Selena and "Breaking Ground" were once again successfully promoted to the top of various platforms.

With such widespread hype, the ratings of "Breaking Ground" reached a terrifying number on the fourth day of its broadcast, despite Rachel and Leah trying everything they could to stop it.

They could not change the fact that "Love in City" was completely crushed.

On the fourth day, a wave of voices finally appeared on the internet.

But ever since he got married, wherever Selena was, that man would always show up.

Unless absolutely necessary, Osvaldo would always make his way back home every night to be with his wife.

Selena looked up at the clear blue sky above, suppressing the longing in her heart and then spoke coldly, "Leah, get ready, we're going to Olympus Group!"

It was time for Selena and Leah to settle their accounts!

Leia understood Selena's intentions for coming to Creephia, so she didn't ask any further questions and immediately went to get the car ready.

Forty minutes later, Selena appeared in Luke's office.

"Mr. Jordon, have the legal department draft a lawyer's letter and sue 'Love in City' in court!"

Luke looked at Selena in surprise.

Selena had always waited for the Riddle family to self-destruct when it came to revenge, rarely taking matters into her own hands to deal with them.

"Given that she's pregnant, we're already being merciful enough to her. Why can't Leah just settle down and stop being so vicious? Doesn't she fear that her child will suffer the consequences?!"

"Don't say we don't have any evidence. We're not just blindly attacking Leah online. If we look at her life experiences, She had both parents, was showered with love, and could get whatever she wanted. So under what circumstances did she write 'Love in City'? On the other hand, Phoebe from 'Breaking Ground' is clearly based on Selena in her childhood. Selena was still underage when she wrote 'Breaking Ground', and that explains why there's no male lead in the story!"

"Other than hoping for her downfall, Leah has only ever stolen things from Selena and caused harm to her. What else can she do?!"

Due to the overwhelming impact of "Breaking Ground" and the popularity of "Love in City," which was already faltering, the news of this theft case has made everyone completely disgusted with this drama from the bottom of their hearts.

Even without Osvaldo, Selena could train by herself.

Her poor health had always been Selena's biggest regret and weakness. But since she met Osvaldo, this regret and weakness no longer existed.

When Selena came out of the basement, it was already ten o'clock at night. She took a bath and when she came out, she saw a text message from Osvaldo on her phone screen.

"Goodnight."

Looking at these two familiar words, Selena felt as if she could hear the man's gentle and doting voice. She smiled, turned off the lights, and went to bed peacefully.

That night, the ratings for "Love in City" hit rock bottom.

The internet was flooded with criticism.

The next day, after Selena had breakfast, she saw the post that had already made it to the top of the hot search list.

Looking at Leah's righteous and confident tone, Selena smiled without any warmth and threw her phone aside.

Leia angrily said, "This woman has no shame!"

Selena lazily said with an expressionless face, "She has no shame, it's nothing new. You'll get used to it."

A sharp cold light flickered in Selena's dark eyes as she replied, "Of course, someone has given her the confidence to defeat me."

Patrick's cold voice came through, "Be careful tomorrow."

Selena was taken aback for a moment. She didn't expect that the matter of "Breaking Ground" would alarm Patrick. She chuckled, "It's okay."

Afraid that the other party would worry, Selena added, "He left me the best protection net."

Creephia was Osvaldo's territory.

Luke was there.

Leia was guarding her every step of the way.

Even if there was a woman behind Leah, she was fearless.

A sharp cold light flickered in Selena's eyes.

With Osvaldo around, Patrick was somewhat relieved about Selena's safety, but he still reminded her, "The person behind that woman is not simple. If you encounter them, prioritize your own safety!"

Selena smiled without any warmth, "If they don't come out, it's fine. But if they do... it's just what I want!"

After a moment of silence, Patrick's tone also turned cold, "You're right. If they come out, the Turner family will definitely chop the person behind the scenes into pieces!"

It was not appropriate for their enemies to be killed by thousands of knives and swords!

"You keep an eye on Hattie for me in the capital," Selena said softly. "Those people might not be able to get to me, but they might target her."

Since the theft of "Breaking Ground" by "Love in City" was exposed, fans of the two dramas have been at each other's throats.

Most viewers sided with "Breaking Ground" and condemned "Love in City."

However, despite the flaws in the plot, "Love in City" was well-produced and had its own fans.

Although this group of fans has been dwindling due to the impact of "Breaking Ground" and the theft incident, there are still a small number of people who love romantic dramas and are fighting for their beliefs.

At this time, Leah's press conference was like asking for trouble!

As soon as she finished speaking, she was overwhelmed by a flood of negative reviews.

"How can Leah still have the nerve to hold a press conference under such undeniable circumstances? Is she crazy?"

The man lifted his thin eyelids, and his deep black pupils stared motionlessly at the person in front of him. "You have no choice."

The person being looked down upon gasped heavily and suddenly stood up from the chair.

The empty church made him feel extremely irritable, and the handsome and calm man in front of him almost drove him crazy.

He decadently pulled out a cigarette box from his pocket, "If I say that we didn't know it was you when we took on that job, do you believe me?!"

Who could have thought that the young master of the Anderson family, and the man in front of him... would actually be the same person?!

Osvaldo looked down at him, his voice like a cold knife, "And then?"

This rhetorical question was like the last straw that broke the camel's back, and the man collapsed like a deflated ball.

He lowered his head as if pondering something, then raised his head again, showing a venomous smile on his face. "Whether it's out of morality or my respect for her, even if I know what the consequences will be if I refuse you, I don't intend to change my mind. The only thing I can tell you is-"

He paused for a moment, then smiled, his tone adding a touch of heat and longing, "The person who gave me the 'Sacred Pearl' is a noble person. And she still has another 'Sacred Pearl' in her possession."

He stared at Osvaldo, his voice like a cold, venomous snake, each word enunciated clearly. "And you... will eventually die because of that 'Sacred Pearl'!"

There was no emotion on Osvaldo's face as he turned and walked out, casually leaving behind a command, "Kill him."

It's human nature.

Selena didn't blame him, she just calmly stated the fact.

There was something different in Talon's hollow black eyes, and his calm tone was chilling. "If killing you can bring her back, I will not hesitate to do so and kill you immediately!"

Selena lowered her eyelashes, remained silent for a moment, and then took the milk tea that was handed to her.

Talon helped her insert the straw, and Selena drank the milk tea, her eyebrows lightly furrowed.

She remembered when she was in the capital, Christ also invited her to drink milk tea.

To be precise, he invited Selena to drink milk tea.

From this point of view, both Christ and Talon truly cared about Selena.

Unfortunately, when that girl was alive, no one stood up to protect her!

Talon quietly watched the girl opposite him.

He often had a dream in which that kind and beautiful girl was still alive.

But in the cold reality, he knew very well that the soul in this body was no longer the girl he loved and cared for.

The person he loved was gone, but she was still alive.

For Talon, there might be no more cruel torture in the world.

He was about to speak when Selena's phone suddenly vibrated.

She put down the milk tea, took out her phone from her bag, looked at the number on the screen, hesitated for a moment, and then chose to answer.

Before Selena could ask, the young man continued, "I also didn't mean to blame them."

"Compared to them, I hate myself more."

Selena's loved ones and those who liked her either mistook her for someone else or didn't know of her existence, and they didn't intentionally allow her to be hurt.

He had always been there, but could only watch her suffer those injustices and injuries.

"My biggest regret is not becoming like this sooner," Talon's gaze fell on Selena's face, "that way, maybe no one would have dared to hurt her in the first place."

Selena listened to the young man's confession, and a hint of weariness surged in her expression.

Talon suddenly asked her, "What's your name?"

Selena was silent for a moment and answered his question, "Selena Riddle."

Talon's eyes flickered with shock.

Selena looked at the young man's expression and, for some reason, added, "I have the same name and surname as her, and we look exactly the same."

Talon's calm eyes suddenly had a slight wave, "Could it be that -"

Just a mistake.

She's still her.

And the girl he loved was just taken away by someone else?

Selena avoided his hopeful gaze and whispered, "I'm sorry." Two words shattered all of Talon's hopes.

She was stabbed in the heart.

Her heart was broken.

Chapter 1080 Spoil Us a Bit

As the clock struck ten, a message from a man appeared on Selena's phone, wishing her good night. Selena felt relieved, replied to the message, and then turned off her phone, turned off the lights, and went to bed.

In the middle of the night, a thunderstorm broke out outside the window.

Leia, who was sleeping next door, quietly opened Selena's room door to check if she was having any nightmares. Seeing that Selena was sleeping peacefully, Leia quietly returned to her room and sent a message to her own mistress.

The night passed peacefully.

The next day, it was a sunny day in Creephia.

After having breakfast, Selena got into Leia's car, and they went to the hotel that Leah had booked.

The popularity of "Breaking Ground" had caused a sensation in the entire entertainment industry. Therefore, countless people were constantly paying attention to the lawsuit between "Love in City" and "Breaking Ground."

Early in the morning, countless media reporters were waiting outside the hotel gate, carrying cameras. Not only the media reporters but also countless "Breaking Ground" fans were waiting outside with banners, eagerly anticipating.

Luke, along with the cast of "Breaking Ground," arrived on the scene today. As soon as Matthew and Estrella appeared, the crowd erupted into a frenzy of screams.

"Ah!! Amelia!!"

The fans didn't get the answer they wanted, making them cry and scream in frustration.

At this moment, several cars stopped in front of the red carpet.

Leah brought the actors from Love in City.

When the two sides met, the scene was tense.

Breaking Ground's fans all had a disgusted expression upon seeing Leah. "This shameless woman... I really don't know what words to use to describe her!"

"To be as shameless as Leah is unheard of. Besides stealing from Selena and taking Selena's things, she is simply useless!"
