Chapter 1313 Seeking But Not Finding

"Are you sure you would be drowned in that water?"

With Selena's casual remark, everyone on the scene was stunned.

Vivian's arrogant expression froze on her face.

She looked at Selena in confusion and asked in a cold voice, "Selena, what do you mean?!"

Lady Lauren suddenly spoke up, "That pond was built by my son for Selena. The water is only 1.3 meters deep, and even if you stand up straight, it only reaches your chest."

"It's impossible for anyone to drown."

Osvaldo's villa prepared for Selena, how could it leave any danger?

That small pond, even the water was the fresh spring water from the mountain top that Osvaldo had someone divert for Selena to enjoy and pass the time.

The scene suddenly fell into a strange silence.

Vivian stared with her eyes wide open, and after realizing what Lady Lauren meant in her words, a sense of shame and anger rushed to her forehead in an instant.

Her whole face suddenly turned stiff, and she glared at Selena with a twisted expression, "This is impossible!!"

"It would be best if she learned to keep her inappropriate thoughts to herself when facing a man with a fiancée."

"If there's another incident like this, it might not just be a misunderstanding like today."

Freddie heard the warning in Selena's tone and suppressed his anger. "Thank you for the reminder, Miss Turner," he said before turning and leaving.

Everyone present had witnessed this embarrassing scene and didn't feel comfortable staying any longer, so they found excuses to leave the room, leaving only Osvaldo and Selena.

Selena turned around and reached out to touch Osvaldo's face. "It's all your fault for being so handsome," she said with a smile.

It was normal for women to be interested in men like Osvaldo.

Selena used to think that she would never be jealous over a man, but today, she couldn't help but want to teach Vivian a lesson.

Osvaldo looked deeply at his wife and his thin lips curled up. "Are you angry?" he asked.

She shook her head. "No."

Vivian liking Osvaldo wasn't his fault. Selena was just disappointed, like losing a pretty little pond.

Osvaldo understood what Selena was trying to express and reached out to touch her hair. "I'll build you an even prettier one next time," he said.

Selena smiled and snuggled into his arms. "Honey, you're so good to me."
