

Love Rats 351

Chapter 351 She is his wife

Without someone to protect her, Selena should be even more miserable than she is.

She'll never get rid of her and have a better life than her.

Selena raised her eyebrows as she watched Georgia crumble and run out.

Surely, to punish people is to make them desperate.

For someone as vain and vicious as Georgia, there is no greater punishment than having her witness Selena's beauty and happiness.

The comparative mind of man is almost innate.

Instead of Selena living in the shadow of Georgia, it is more likely that Georgia has been living in the shadow of Selena.

When Selena had nothing, Georgia could care for her and love her because she felt that they were the same and that she was as miserable as she was.

And once she was made to realize that Selena was more honored than her, happier than her, out of her grasp, and had become someone completely different from her, she became paranoid.

Selena put down the spoon in her hand.

Leia asked in exasperation, "Madam, are we just going to let it go? Even if we don't kill her, we can't allow her to have a good time."

Selena narrowed her eyes slightly, "That recording of me seducing the judge is related to her."

The moment the words were spoken, Leia instantly understood.

This woman will have to be kept for the time being.

Selena needs her to tell the truth and testify against those who framed her back then at the perfume competition, so that she can shed light on her injustice.

Leia muttered something in a small voice.

The killer world believes in the law of the jungle, so if you don't like it, you kill it.

But Selena is not like them.

What Selena wants is fair and square justice.

She wants to clear her name of the wrongs done to her, so that those who slandered her back then will eat their own words and get the punishment they deserve.

So even if they don't like her, they have to put up with it for the time being.

Selena looked at the young girl's indignant face and smiled, "I won't show mercy."

When she finished, she looked up at Osvaldo, gazing at the man's perfect face for a moment, she smiled, "Good night."

Osvaldo curled his lips into a light smile, "Good night."

After saying goodnight to each other, Selena went upstairs to bed.

Downstairs.

Leia puffed out her cheeks and asked Osvaldo, "Young Master, shall we just leave it at that?"

According to their methods, ten of them would only be able to beg for mercy on their knees.

It would have been very easy for them to get that woman to tell the truth.

It's just that Selena would not agree.

Osvaldo looked in the direction Selena left, and there was a hint of paranoia in his eyes.

After a moment, he lowered his eyes and spoke softly, as if asking a bystander, and as if asking himself, "What kind of man am I in her eyes?"

At these words, a dead silence instantly fell over the scene.

In Selena's eyes, what kind of a man was Osvaldo?

He ignored her wretched past when she was abandoned by a scum, married her and brought her back home.

He treated her with care and tenderness, while maintaining the right distance, without making her feel the slightest bit unpleasant.

He even helped her by stepping in to save Hattie.

Osvaldo that Selena sees at this moment must be gentle, loving and compassionate.

But the fact is –

Leia thought of Christ and Leon.

Christ connived at Isabel's misdeeds.

As the elder brother, Leon, for some unknown reason, had ignored the death of Hattie's mother and Hattie's suffering in the first place, and let her be persecuted.

That's why Selena didn't like those two men.

When Leon came to Creephia, her distant and cold attitude was so obvious.

There was not even the slightest intention to inquire about Nevaeh's past.

So cold, yet firm to the point of being heartbreaking.

What if she had known that Osvaldo was actually –

Leia was dumbfounded, and the thought in her mind of secretly killing Georgia scattered cleanly in an instant.

It was a small thing to kill Georgia, but in case, it would be a big deal if it alienated Selena from Osvaldo.

The butler sighed slightly, “Madam is a good girl, she is different to the young master, when she likes him in the future, she will certainly not mind.”

The butler knew better than anyone else about Osvaldo he had watched grow up, and how difficult it really was to get girls to like him for his nature.

All women are infatuated with his face and his power, but too few can truly fall in love with him from the heart.

Osvaldo smiled, his eyes were gentle, “It doesn’t matter.”

With that said, he put his hands into his trouser pockets and turned to stride towards the door.

From the darkness the night wind blew, cracking the back hem of the man’s wide trench coat.

He rushed back from the abyss just so that she would not be underestimated in the slightest.

If she wants him to be a good man, he’ll be a good man, what’s so hard about that?

Anyway she was his wife, and that was a fact that no one could change.

This night, Selena slept extremely well.

She hadn’t slept so soundly and peacefully in a long time.

The next morning she came downstairs refreshed, and the first moment everyone saw her, they knew that she was in a good mood today.

“Good morning, Madam.”

“Good morning.” Selena smiled as she walked to the breakfast table and sat down, not seeing Osvaldo, she expected that he must be very busy.

To think that the man was so busy that he had made the trip back last night just to back her up.

Selena was moved and turned her head to speak to the butler, “Noah, the chefs in the castle are very good at their work, get someone to bring him meals as per, and instruct him not to forget to rest even if he is busy.”

The butler was still worried, but when she heard Selena speaking like wife, instructing her husband, he instantly smiled, “Okay, I will have someone bring breakfast to young master right away.”

So, Selena’s mood became better.

Leia drove her to school.

Selena took the class schedule and looked at it, she still had two classes today.

One practical session in the morning and one theory session in the afternoon, with time free in the evening.

The car was parked at the west gate of Creephia University.

Selena walked down with her school bag, waved goodbye to Leia and then walked in on her high heels.

Almost as soon as Selena stepped into the campus, she noticed that the atmosphere was somewhat abnormal.

The West Gate, which used to be bustling with activity, is now so quiet.

The few scattered staff members, surprisingly, all looked at her with a distinctly uncomfortable, alien look.

There were a few young women among them pointing at her, and the sound of trivial talk blew clearly into Selena's ears along with the cold morning breeze.

"See? That's her."

"It's shameful to be so indiscreet."

"This time, she really has disgraced the entire Creephia University."

Selena's footsteps gave a beat and her gaze went cold.

Chapter 352 Something's happened to Selena

She lifted her head and looked coldly towards the two women who had spoken.

The two women stared, then sneered.

One of the women glared at Selena, "What are you looking at? You did that shameless thing yourself, and you don't want others to talk about it? Now that you've done it, don't try to act like you're a college student."

Another contemptuous voice rang out, "I heard that nowadays, many girls are like this, nominally college students, secretly have been kept by many old men."

The woman's eyes fell on the cotton dress on Selena's body that looked expensive with jealousy, "In the campus, you dare to dress so flirtatiously and hook men openly, you really are a shameless--"

Before she could say anything, she saw Selena walk over to her, raise her hand and slap her heavily across the face.

The woman covered the half of her face that had been hit and reacted by screaming and raising her hand to hit back.

But in that moment when she looked up, she saw Selena's sharp eyes.

Her heart fluttered in fear, and her hand, raised, did not dare to fall.

Another woman accused, "How dare you, how dare you hit someone in broad daylight? Do you really think we dare not sue you?"

Selena said coldly, "You can try, I will let you lose all your money."

The two women looked at her in all her dainty, arrogant and condescending appearance and turned white with anger.

The woman who was beaten cursed, "Isn't it because of men that you dare to be so shameless? You're such a slut, you'd be..."

"Shut up." An angry shout came from the distance, and Selena looked up to see Zachary rushing over with an angry face.

Zachary's gaze was icy as he stared at the two women, "You're not even from our school, who let you get in?"

The two women blushed slightly, somewhat sheepishly.

One of them forcibly defended herself, "We are the janitors of Creephia University--"

Zachary laughed coldly, contempt in his eyes, "The Creephia University doesn't have janitors of such low quality as you."

When he finished, he called the security room in front of the two women, "There are two outsiders at the west gate and beat up the student of Creephia University, come and arrest them. Don't ask anything, just call the police--"

Zachary smiled faintly, "Just say these two women have offended the Gibson family."

The two women blushed and shook their heads in panic, "No, no, no, we didn't."

Zachary didn't bother to look at these two people anymore and turned his head to look at Selena, "Selena, today Mr. Newman and the teachers in Class 10 classes have taken leave, so you don't have any classes, go home and rest."

Selena stared at him.

Zachary, under her gaze, actually developed a feeling of wanting to shiver.

Without asking anything, Selena turned and walked towards the interior of the campus.

Zachary tried to stop her, "Selena--"

Selena, however, ignored him.

She had just taken a few steps out when she saw a group of people from the student council in the distance, tearing something up under a tree and in front of a bulletin board, all with pale faces.

Selena walked over and asked in a voice, "What are you doing?"

At the word, everyone turned their heads to look over.

For a moment the wind passed without a sound.

Selena walked up to Ronin and held out her hand, "Give it to me."

Ronin pursed his thin lips, "The school will handle this matter, you go home and rest for a few days."

There was no way Selena hadn't noticed such a strong difference, it was impossible that it was fine.

Billy advised her, "Selena, you don't have to..."

Selena's gaze was clear, "It has already happened, I will know sooner or later, do you think that it is better for me to know from you, or for those who have evil intentions?"

She smiled slightly, overflowing with sarcasm, "I've just entered the campus of Creephia University, and I've already had people pointing at me and calling me slutty and shameless, I can guess all of that, so is there any need to hide it from me?"

Billy gave Zachary a fierce glare.

Zachary shouted in anger, "Fuck, it's someone from outside, pretending to be a cleaning lady to get in."

The crowd was more than shocked.

Selena said with a smile coldly, "The other party is so insidious and pervasive, it is impossible that I want to pretend that I don't know anything. I appreciate the trust of the seniors, but the matter is related to me, I have the right to know the truth."

"Then I'll find out who's behind me and crush him."

Ronin stared at her and spoke, "Selena, you're just a girl, no one will call you weak if you run away from it."

Selena smiled, "I never run away from anything, because the consequences of running away may cost me more. I just have to make sure I did nothing wrong, that's enough."

The whole campus of Creephia University seemed to become silent at this moment.

After a long time, Ronin extended his hand.

Zachary was shocked.

Ronin gave him a look, "We can't argue with her."

Zachary couldn't say anything.

Selena took from his hand, what they had just torn off, from in front of the bulletin board.

Everyone held their breath and watched her cautiously.

It was a photograph of a man and a woman, entwined in a charming pose, and the face was clearly hers.

There are even many different ones at the bottom.

There are even rumours of her being kept by a man.

It says she already has a boyfriend and that he is an old man.

She was living with an old man.

Selena's face, at this moment, was utterly cold and terrifying, she neither broke down nor lost her mind in shame and anger, she just gently asked, "How many of these things are there on campus?"

Ronin looked at her calm face and answered, "A lot."

"Where are they?"

"Forums, postings, many class groups..."

Selena snorted, and her eyes swept over with an icy murderous intention.

As she was just about to speak, the phone in her bag vibrated frantically.

Selena pressed the answer button, and Osvaldo's cold, bone-chilling voice came out, "Wait for me to pick you up."

Selena's fingers pressed her brow, "No need, I have some urgent matters that need to be dealt with right now-"

"Do as you're told." Osvaldo was forceful, "You stay on the campus of Creephia University and don't leave the campus until I arrive."

Selena's eyes flinched.

She had just arrived at Creephia University and knew of the turmoil within the campus and had not yet had time to inform anyone, so it was unlikely that Osvaldo would know what had happened so soon.

Unless he is talking about something else.

And what is that?

Chapter 353 Selena's Anger

Selena seemed to think of something and looked down to go through his phone.

She opened Weibo and saw her name on the Hot 100.

Selena didn't need to click on it to see what was inside.

She can guess that there must have been a fishy storm against her on the internet by now.

Other people had seen that hot search and were all looking at Selena worriedly, lest she might not think straight and do something stupid.

Selena met the worried eyes of the crowd and had some understanding as to why the people at the school did not want her to see it.

The average girl, when she encounters such things, will certainly commit suicide. Even for those who are mentally strong, a breakdown is certain if they are lucky not to die.

Zachary reassured her, "Selena, these look like fake, as long as they are clarified, it will be fine."

However, it is impossible for any girl to accept such a thing, even if she knows in her heart that it is not true.

Selena, in particular, had managed to clear her name somewhat, and overnight, she had fallen back into the muddy swamp of public opinion.

She may not be able to withstand such a gap.

Fortunately, Selena did not show any other emotions that were too abnormal other than her breath being even colder.

Only those eyes were darker than ever as she looked to Zachary, "Thank you for your trust and concern, I'm fine, can you find who post them?"

Billy looked at her apologetically, "They avoided the dead end of monitoring, so far we haven't found out who did it, but don't worry, the ones in the school forum have been deleted. We will definitely investigate clearly, just the tweet will need Mr. Jordon to step in."

Someone is secretly screwing Selena, and the means is malicious.

In everyone's mind, there was a vague guess as to who that person was, but there was just no proof yet.

Selena's face was cold as she turned around and walked away.

Billy asked, "Selena, where are you going?"

Selena coldly uttered, "Olnrith University."

The faces of everyone on the scene changed.

Could it be that this matter is still related to the students of Olnrith University?

Two schools are involved, so they can't let Selena go alone.

But with Selena in this position, no one dared to make a sound to stop her, so the crowd had to follow her.

If the matter is really related to the people of Olnrith University, then this justice will definitely be demanded by Creephia University.

Just as Selena walked out of the school gate, Leia had already driven the car back in a frenzy, "Lady Selena, young master asked me to--"

Selena's expression was cold and icy, "Go to Olnrith University."

Leia shuddered at the expression on her face.

Not long ago when Hattie was beaten by Isabel, Selena had this look in her eyes, and the end result was that Isabel almost got killed by her.

This time, the other side had used such vile and malicious means to slander a girl's reputation.

Leia just read a few comments on the Internet, she was so angry that she wanted to dig out all those nasty people and kill them one by one.

What she saw was still only the tip of the iceberg.

She can imagine how unpleasant the rumours about Selena are on the whole internet now.

Not to mention how will Selena deal with it, alone the wrath of Osvaldo would be overwhelming.

Leia didn't dare to speak anymore, and obediently and quietly followed behind Selena, following her towards the front of Olnrith University.

Selena and Leia were in such a hurry to walk that they didn't notice a black car on the side of the road, with its windows silently lowered after they had walked past.

A stunningly beautiful and elegant lady sat in the passenger seat, gazing at Selena's distant side, slightly knitting her eyebrows and asking the person beside her, "Is that she?"

In the driver's seat sat a young woman wearing sunglasses, looked at Selena, a cold smile swept through her eyes, but on her lips she said nicely, "Yes, madam, she is Selena Riddle."

The beautiful face of Mrs. Anderson could not see the emotion, and after a moment of silence, she said in a soft voice, "Follow up and see."

Vivian hid the disdain and disgust in her eyes and smiled faintly, "Okay."

Georgia sat on a bench, flipping through her phone.

The pleasure of revenge swept through her eyes when the scandal of Selena appeared on the hot list as she had hoped.

She swiped through the messages of netizens cursing and insulting Selena over and over again, soothing the jealousy and resentment in her heart through those unpleasant words.

She didn't believe that after seeing with her own eyes the dirty pictures of her woman with so many men, that man would still want Selena.

Selena would have seen these by this time, right?

Georgia was exceptionally sorry that she had not witnessed the look on Selena's face when she saw the photos, which must have been filled with horror and anger.

How good would it have been if she had killed herself over this?

Georgia stared at it with malicious expectation.

There were countless chattering discussions going on in her ears.

"Did you guys see the pictures on the Creephia University forum this morning? Such a good looking girl, why did she do that?"

“She degrades herself and goes to find a man to keep her, I really can’t figure out what exactly does Selena wants.”

“It’s a pity that so many boys at Creepia University treat her as a goddess, and I wonder how upset they are when they see the pictures.”

“Selena is that kind of person. Have you forgotten the rumors about her “promiscuity”? Even if she is packaged in a glamorous way, she will reveal her true face one day.”

The girl sitting next to Georgia, hearing those words, frowned and said with some displeasure, “After such a long time, not only has she not grown at all, her style of acting is even worse and worse, it is simply a disgrace. How can we know such a person with no morality?”

After she finished complaining, she saw that Georgia did not react and thought that she was worried about Selena, so she spoke out to comfort her, “Georgia, Selena is not worth your concern at all, no one knows that we had a relationship with her anyway. You should stop thinking about her or looking for her, she is not worthy of your worry.”

Just as she finished speaking, she heard a voice from ahead.

“What are you saying?”

The gossiping girls looked up to see a young man with a cunning air and outstanding looks standing in front of them with a few people.

The group had a somewhat unpleasant expression on their faces and were looking at them coldly.

The group of girls’ eyes lit up and they stood up somewhat flattered.

Chapter 354 Conflict

“Eduard.”

“We’re talking about that Selena from Creepia University, Eduard, you still don’t know, right? She was exposed in a scandal this morning about being kept by a man, and racy photos are flying all over the place, many people know about it.”

“Eduard, last time Selena was able to win against you, it was a complete fluke, who knows if she used any special tricks? Don’t take it too personally.”

Georgia laughed coldly in secret.

When someone so good as to be enviable has a blemish, all her past honours are overturned.

Selena is ruined.

She can’t clear her name.

As she was pleased with herself, she heard Eduard’s voice sink sharply, “Shut up.”

Georgia’s smile faltered and she looked up in shock.

The group of girls, who were talking enthusiastically, were taken aback and looked in disbelief at the Eduard who had sunken his face in front of them.

Eduard curled his lips mockingly, "Know why she's number one and you guys aren't?"

The group of girls froze, somewhat flustered and confused, completely unaware of what had upset this smiling top student.

Eduard said sarcastically, "Because all your time and energy is spent on jealousy and slander, which dooms you to never be better than her."

A group of girls flushed with embarrassment.

A sinister look passed through Georgia's eyes and she clenched her fingers.

The girl sitting next to her had stood up and said indignantly, "Eduard, Selena has a problem with her character, this is absolutely true. Georgia and I went to the same school as her, no one knows her better than us."

"Back then at school, she stirred up trouble for everyone, and none of us liked her."

"It's not the first time she's done something like this. Back then, she even did something as humiliating as seducing the judge in order to advance to the perfume competition, so what's impossible about using special means and getting the exam questions in advance to win over you?"

There was an instant stir and uproar.

Shock and disgust appeared on the faces of the crowd.

"Judy, are you telling the truth?"

Judy sneered and said with conviction, "I saw it with my own eyes, how could it not be a truth?"

The disgust and contempt for Selena on the faces of those who heard these words grew deeper and deeper.

"That's disgusting."

"Shame on her."

"She must have cheated on the last exam."

Eduard's gaze sank slightly as he looked at Judy and inquired indifferently, "Do you have proof?"

Judy froze, "What?"

Eduard stared at her, his voice cold, "I didn't see anything, and I won't comment on it, but as far as that last examination, she won me fair and square. The question writer of that examination was a professor of our school. According to your statement, Selena seduced the professor of our school and got the exam questions, so she could win me?"

Judy's face then changed, realizing she had said the wrong thing and she shook her head in a panic, "No, I didn't mean that."

Eduard said sarcastically, "Then what do you mean? Only a second ago, you swore to everyone that Selena used special means to get the exam papers to cheat, and that's why she won against me, and everyone heard it and even followed you in despising Selena. How come you have such a poor memory and forgot what you said so quickly?"

Judy met the coldness in Eduard's eyes, flushing, "It is just a guess, a slip of the tongue, I did not say that must be true."

Eduard lowered his eyelids, hiding the sneer in his eyes, "It's better to be careful with what you say without evidence."

Judy was embarrassment.

Those who had just rebuked Selena stammered, not daring to say more.

Eduard raised his eyes and looked around, his expression and voice extremely light, "I don't care about other things, but don't let me hear any rumors that there was an inside job in the last exam."

When he finished, he turned around with the men behind him and prepared to leave.

When Georgia saw that Eduard was defending Selena, the jealousy in her heart surged wildly, she couldn't hold back and questioned, "Eduard, you only taken the exam with Selena once, but you defend her so much, do you have a very good personal relationship with her?"

In the silence, her voice was extraordinarily shrill, startling everyone.

Eduard's footsteps abruptly lurched, and he turned back to stare at Georgia, "What do you mean?"

Georgia has long been distorted by jealousy, simply don't care about the occasion and identity, she coldly smiled, "Nothing, just think Selena is very capable. The teachers and students of Creephia University collectively defend her, in the first moment of finding those photos, all the students of Creephia University were locked into classroom for class, not allowing them to have the opportunity to accuse and humiliate Selena."

"And you, of Olnrith University, even threatened your schoolmate with openly harsh words over her, she's really something."

The eerie tone of voice was uncomfortable to hear.

Seeing that Georgia had gone too far, Judy tugged at her and persuaded her in a low voice, "Georgia, stop it."

But Georgia was ignoring it.

She couldn't see anyone defending Selena.

Eduard sneered, "You might as well just say that she even seduced me, that's why I'm defending her."

Georgia laughed coldly, "Am I wrong? If you have no relationship with her, what makes you defend her so much? Even for the sake of Selena, you accused and reprimanded our students from Olnrith University in public."

There was cynicism and sarcasm in her eyes, "Have you got deluded by Selena, forgetting which school you belong to?"

Everyone on the scene was stunned, staring at Georgia with a look of disbelief.

Judy was stunned and looked in shock at the unfamiliar sinister expression on Georgia's face, "Georgia, do you know what you're saying?"

Georgia looked at her coldly, "Do you also want to defend Selena?"

Judy's spine chilled with fear at the madness in her eyes, while more questions arose in her mind.

Wasn't Georgia the one who defended Selena the most?

She had never allowed anyone to say a bad word about Selena, but why was she so uncharacteristic today that she wanted to ruin Selena's reputation?

Eduard was exasperated, "I'll tell you why, on the basis that she can beat me with her real skills."

"Anyone with bit of common computer knowledge can see that the pictures are face. And anyone with bit of brain can guess that Selena has been slandered."

"I speak based on the facts."

The group of girls who had just accused Selena were ashamed when they heard these words.

Georgia was even sharper as she questioned, "You still say you have no relationship with Selena? Without a relationship, why did you help her check the photos? Without a relationship, why did you speak for her?"

Chapter 355 That's Selena?

"Without a relationship, why are you so sure that someone is hiding behind her back and deliberately slandering her, rather than Selena being such a slutty and unpleasant person in the first place?"

"Anyone has heard of Selena's promiscuous scandal in Creephia. These photos are fake, then so many photos on Weibo of her tangling with so many men, are they fake too?"

"It is a fact that everyone has witnessed with their own eyes, how dare you use her good academic performance as an excuse to excuse her and clear her name, accusing us of being inferior to Selena? It is simply ridiculous."

"I see that you have a great relationship with her."

"I'm afraid that you have been charmed with Selena."

Eduard's face turned white.

The group of men behind him all looked at Georgia with a look of madness.

Some of the people who usually look at Eduard with displeasure were moved by Georgia's words and looked at Eduard with suspicion in their eyes, speaking sarcastically.

“There’s some truth to what this student said. They have just met once or twice, why did Eduard stand up for her?”

“Eduard is known for treating girls with respect and staying away from them, and someone who can ruthlessly reject the confession of the most beautiful girl in Olnrith University, how come he has to stand up for a girl he doesn’t know well?”

Eduard experienced first-hand what it was like to be slandered and his eyes completely went dim.

He looked at Georgia, a sneer of contempt in his eyes, “You are simply incorrigible.”

Georgia was stung by the coldness and arrogance in his eyes, making her pride hurt.

Eduard didn’t bother to argue with someone like her who turned right and wrong upside down.

He despises her from his heart.

Georgia’s body trembled with anger and jealousy, and the words that escaped her lips became more and more aggressive.

“Selena is really shameless, she not only cheated, but shamelessly seduced Eduard, causing a lot of disturbances in the university. It’s not enough to make a fool of herself, but she even got school involved, she is simply a scourge.”

In just a hint, Selena had been completely convicted in her mouth of cheating on the test and seducing the student of Olnrith University.

Eduard clenched his fist and said coldly, “I don’t hit women, don’t force me to make an exception.”

The others were surprised by this sudden, sabre-rattling scene.

Some people looked at Georgia with disapproving eyes.

Others looked at Eduard with suspicion and gloating eyes.

Judy’s heart trembled as she tugged at Georgia’s sleeve, “Georgia, what’s wrong with you? There is no evidence, you can’t talk nonsense.”

“Which of the things I said is not the truth?” Georgia’s face was full of meanness, and she said angrily, “Is there anyone in these two universities who knows Selena better than me? She loved the young master of the Walson family, but now she has repudiated her marriage and abandoned him for a new one? She is a shameless bitch who loves all men.”

“Eduard, you want beat me for her?” Georgia sneered, her eyes full of jealousy and boldness, “Then your relationship is really good, you can even make an exception for her to beat a girl. I just don’t know in Selena’s heart, which place you are ranking.”

Eduard was so angry that he lost his manners and was about to punch her on the spot, but was pulled back by the man behind him.

“Eduard!”

“This woman is not normal, it’s not worth going to the police station for her.”

When Georgia saw that Eduard was clearly furious but unable to defend himself, there was a lot of satisfaction in her eyes.

Didn't Selena think she couldn't do anything to her because she had such a boyfriend?

She would show Selena that she had plenty of ways to ruin her.

As Georgia was complacent, she heard a chorus of shrieks from ahead.

"Oh my God. That's--"

"Aren't they from Creephia University's? Why are they here?"

"What are they doing here at Olnrith University?"

The crowd at the scene subconsciously looked up and saw a stunningly beautiful girl, escorted by a crowd of people, walking over in an aggressive manner.

The sight of that face brought uncontrollable astonishment to the eyes of the crowd.

"Is that Selena?"

"She's so pretty."

When Georgia saw Selena appearing on the campus of Olnrith University, her heart tightened for a moment, and she had a moment of shock.

But soon, she straightened her spine and sneered.

At this point in the storm, Selena still dares to appear in front of people, simply making a fool of herself.

She was just about to open her mouth sarcastically, but Selena walked up to her, and without saying anything, she raised her hand and heavily slapped her across the face.

The resounding slap stunned everyone for a moment.

Covering the half of her face that had been hit, Georgia was equally frozen until the sharp pain came and she realised that she had been hit by Selena.

Georgia's face twisted and she raised her head to accuse, when she was met with another slap, which hit her hard on the other half of her face.

Georgia took two hard slaps and let out a scream of anger, "Selena!"

She stood up and angrily tried to hit back, but as her hand barely raised, Leia grabbed her wrist.

Leia wanted to kill this woman immediately, so naturally she would not be polite. She gave her hand a hard push, causing Georgia to let out a scream of pain.

Leia sneered and pushed her straight to the floor.

Georgia fell to the ground in a mess, looking up at Selena, her body trembling with anger, her eyes filled with viciousness and anger, "Selena!"

Others on the scene finally came back to their senses.

When the students of Olnrith University saw their schoolmate being beaten, anger appeared on their faces and they all spoke out to accuse Selena.

“Selena, how can you hit her?”

“This is Olnrith University, not your Creephia University, so behave yourself.”

“Zachary, what do you mean blatantly bringing people to our Olnrith University to beat our student? Do you think we are afraid of you?”

There was no doubt that Selena’s two slaps had offended the public.

Judy froze for a long time when she saw Selena, who had not been seen for a long time and was completely transformed.

Then she rushed up and shielded Georgia behind her, her face subconsciously tipped with disgust as she accosted Selena, “Selena, do you still have a conscience? Georgia cares so much about you, she has done so much for you, why did you hit her?”

Selena snorted and swept her a glance, “Who are you?”

When Judy looked at Selena, who was high above her in a domineering manner, she only felt strange, and when she heard Selena’s question, she was timorous, “You-”

The corners of Selena’s lips curled up into a cold smile, her eyes were full of arrogance, “Who are you to meddle in my affairs?”

Chapter 356 Selena is protected by all

A layer of mortified anger sprang up on Judy’s face.

She was used to accusing Selena without any scruples in the past, while Selena just kept silent, leading her to subconsciously think that the girl in front of her was still the same one, who was all about lowering her posture, just to retain their group of friends.

So, at first glance, she met Selena’s cold and contemptuous eyes, she was flabbergasted, and inexplicably timid.

When she reacted and wanted to say something, Selena had already moved her eyes away from her face and looked coldly at Georgia, “Georgia, you want to die, don’t you?”

Georgia’s face froze and her body trembled gently.

Selena’s dark, clear eyes held a touching coldness.

Those eyes seemed to see through her, making all that filth and nastiness in her heart, had nowhere to hide.

Georgia was scared, but more than that, she was jealous, spurting out jealousy that almost overwhelmed her entire being.

She roared out, “You’re the one who shamelessly did those ugly things, so who are you to beat me?”

Selena snorted, and with her fingertips, she cupped her chin and lifted it, "Georgia, let me tell you, before last night, I had no intention of paying any attention to creep like you, but you've completely pissed me off, and usually people who mess with me end up paying the price."

"Remember, from this moment on, I'll be watching you, and you better make sure you haven't broken the law, done one bad thing, or wronged anyone since you were a kid, or I'll make you go down in flames."

Georgia's face turned pale, her heart surging with fear, her tone sharp, "Who are you to treat me like this? What proof do you have that these things are related to me? It's you who are shameless."

Selena laughed, she looked down at Georgia, her eyes were full of mockery and disdain, "With me being the noble young lady of the Riddle family, with me having a powerful boyfriend, with me being born into an existence that you can only look up to. If I want to get you killed, do I need a reason?"

Selena's words were like a sharp steel knife that dug straight into Georgia's heart, piercing her with blood.

Georgia's lips were trembling up and down, her eyes were filled with anger, and her face looked as if she knew Selena for the first time.

Seeing Selena become so arrogant and domineering, Judy was furious, "Selena, Georgia used to be your best friend, aren't you afraid of retribution for treating her like this?"

Selena put down her hand, took the handkerchief handed over by Leia and carefully wiped her fingers, sniffed and snorted coldly.

Georgia looked at Selena's disgusting action, but crazy laughed out, "How can I have such a shameless friend? So unpleasant, prodigal, disgusting, dating with so many men. How can such a bitch be my friend?"

"She's never been my friend."

Judy was shocked, "Georgia!"

Not only has Selena changed to be almost unrecognizable, but even Georgia, got stimulated, has become such a foul-mouthed and strangely paranoid person.

When Leia heard her insult Selena, she raised her hand to beat her up

Selena stroked her hair to soothe Leia as she coldly swept her eyes at Georgia and snorted, "You are not qualified to be my friend."

What Georgia couldn't stand the most was Selena's contempt and disdain, her voice became harsh out of jealousy, "Back then, you secretly cried because no one liked you and no one wanted to be friends with you."

"All the friends you have were all brought by me, without me, you're doomed to never make a single friend in your life."

“Selena, you were born to be a disagreeable person, no one will genuinely like you, everyone’s first reaction when they mention you is disgust and ridicule. In the three years since I broke off friendship with you, has there ever been a single person willing to be friends with you?”

Georgia smiled triumphantly, feeling happy because she had hurt Selena, “Even after leaving high school and going to university, isn’t everyone in that class you were in still united to isolate you and dislike you?”

“If one person doesn’t like you, that can be said to be someone else’s problem; if everyone doesn’t like you, you’re bad.”

“Only I would stoop to your level to be your friend.”

“Selena, this alone is destined to make you wrong me. You’ll always owe me.”

Selena’s eyes abruptly turned extremely cold, rising with a few hints of dark hostility.

Georgia’s words reminded her of Selena, who had died.

She was so well behaved and kind, yet she lived such a painful and lonely life because of these people’s bullying and framing.

All these people deserve to die.

Selena stared at Georgia.

Georgia’s smile came to a screeching halt, and her heart was filled with boundless fear.

It was as if she was being watched by some creature at the top of the pyramid, a thin chill filling her spine.

Leia shuddered all over.

She clearly felt that Selena had the intention to kill Georgia in this moment.

While the atmosphere was tense, the person standing behind Selena, who had come to Olnrith University with her, finally spoke up.

“Who says Selena has no friends?” Zachary walked out, “It’s just because Selena is too outstanding, not just anyone is qualified to be her friend. The number of people who worship her in our Creephia University is too many to count.”

His eyes were bright with mockery, “Our student council at Creephia University is a part of it, and there are even many teachers who see her as an idol, a person like you is really not qualified.”

Billy said indifferently, “The students of Class 10 were blinded by Leah and had hurt and neglected Selena in the past year, they both feel guilty and admire Selena, who is now the ‘group’s favorite’ of Class 10.”

“They were the first ones to find out what was on campus this morning, and then jointly petitioned the headmaster for an early start to classes, not wanting Selena to be hurt by gossip.”

“You should be glad that no one from that class came today, otherwise they would have beaten you up even if they had to go to the police station.”

Georgia’s eyes widened as she looked incredulously at the group of people standing behind Selena, firmly defending her.

Her lips quivered and tears fell from her eyes as she murmured, “You bully me! You all bully me!”

Chapter 357 Selena’s Bullying

It shouldn’t look like this.

After the scandalous revelations, Selena should have been reduced to a miserable state of being reviled and despised by all.

She should have been turned away from her family, abandoned, miserable and depressed, worse than dead, instead of slapping her in the face in public yet still being pampered from on high.

“Selena, you’ve gone too far.” Seeing Georgia crying, Judy indignantly accused, “What evidence do you have to prove that those things were done by Georgia? Without evidence, why did you beat her?”

The students of Olnrith University all glared at Selena.

“Ronin, you must give us an explanation for this matter. Otherwise there is absolutely no way to make peace today.”

Regardless of the reason, the fact that someone from Creephia University blatantly came and beat up a student from Olnrith University is enough to make everyone from Olnrith University feel angry.

Ronin held his arms, his expression was still cold, he was about to speak, but Selena opened her mouth arrogantly first, her face was full of arrogance, sneering, “I beat her, it’s my business, it has nothing to do with Creephia University, you can choose to call the police -”

She swept her eyes at Georgia, with disdain in her eyes, “Of course, as to whether the police can take me away, that’s a different story.”

Georgia’s body was trembling with anger.

Judy angrily accused, “Selena, do you know how many people are cursing you on Weibo right now? If you are so capable, why don’t you go to Weibo and curse back the people who are calling you names? You only rely on the fact that Georgia is good to you, so you dare to hurt her again and again. After all these years, you’re still as nasty as ever.”

Selena’s cold gaze swept over gently, piercing with coldness and mockery, “Leia, tell her to shut up.”

With a cold snort, Leia stepped forward and lifted Georgia up, throwing her at Selena’s feet.

Then she grabbed Judy’s shoulders and pushed her against the wall, a cold murderous aura in her eyes as she came up to her ear and whispered, “If you dare to rave a word and defile Lady Selena’s ears, I’ll cut out your tongue, gouge out your eyes, and tear out your heart, three things that are of little use growing on someone like you anyway.”

A bone-chilling chill crept slowly up her cheeks all the way along her ears, and Judy was so frightened that she turned pale.

She stared wide-eyed at the girl in front of her, who didn't seem to be as old as she was, and even her nerve were tinged with shivers.

Leia grinned with a murderous grin on her face, "Hear what I said?"

Judy stiffened her face, tears appearing in her eyes as she nodded subconsciously.

"Now that you've heard it, remember it well, and when you see Lady Selena in the future, go around. If you ever let me hear you accuse her in such a tone, I'll make you taste what it means to be worse than death."

Judy covered her mouth and nodded sharply, the righteous indignation she felt a moment ago vanishing in an instant.

Leia patted her face and released her, stepping back with a pure, harmless smile on her face, looking cute.

Only Judy could see the cold fury in her eyes.

The others hadn't heard the conversation between the two, but they could see that Selena had allowed Leia to intimidate and threaten Judy in public.

"Selena!"

The students of Olnrith University, seeing how reckless and arrogant she was, were furious.

But Selena did not care about the anger of the bystanders, she stepped on her high heels and walked up to Georgia, her cold eyes looked down from above and snickered.

"Georgia, let me tell you, with my family background and my boyfriend, it's as easy for me to squeeze you to death as it is to crush an ant."

"Your uncouth mind tricks won't cost me anything but disgust."

She looked at Georgia's angry face, her gaze was cold and she smiled arrogantly, "Actually, I'm curious, where did you get the confidence to think that with this little tactic of yours, you could provoke me and my boyfriend into dumping me? It's those fools you've successfully provoked in the past--"

She casually swept a glance at Judy, who was standing to one side with her face pale and covering her mouth, "Has it given you courage and confidence?"

She gave a light laugh, her tone full of mockery, "Comparing them to my boyfriend, are they worthy?"

Georgia's face twisted.

She didn't understand why, when it was clear that Selena had been defeated, she was the one who ended up on the floor, the one being bullied?

And Selena is so bullying, yet she is still defended by so many people at Creephia University.

Is this the importance of power?

If Selena had no power and no influence, and if she still had no one to rely on and was bullied like she used to be, she would be worse off than dead right now.

And it's all because of that man.

It was that man who gave Selena the capital to be as arrogant as she wanted to be, allowing her to trample on her and bully her in the open.

When Georgia thought of Osvaldo, it was as if ten thousand ants had crawled through her heart, gnawing at her heart with a thousand holes.

She laughed crazily and looked at Selena, "What do you have to be proud of being kept by an old and ugly man?"

Although this rumour will be dispelled as soon as Selena's boyfriend appears and shows his face, what does he have to do with it?

At least at this moment, she can make more people disgusted and despise Selena.

The look on Selena's face was not the slightest bit of anger, and she looked at Georgia as if she was looking at a clown again, with a clear and haughty look in her eyes.

"Is it that I'm not rich enough? Am I not good looking enough? Is it because I'm not talented enough? In the whole of Creephia, is there a richer, more powerful, and prettier-looking young lady than me?"

The crowd was stunned, looking at the young girl stunningly beautiful face, despising but at the same time having to agree.

Selena is indeed the richest, most powerful and most beautiful young lady in Creephia.

Selena sneered, her tone showed contempt, "I can have everything, do I still have to go to find an old man to support me? Whether I am stupid, or your casual slander has long become a habit?"

Georgia bit her lip in anger.

Eduard snorted coldly, "Selena, why don't you come and get me to keep you?"

Selena turned her head to look over, her gaze cold, "What?"

Eduard said coldly, "She just said in public that you not only seduced the teacher of Olnrith University to get the test papers in advance so that you could win over me, but seduced me and made me speak out to defend you."

After a reminder from Eduard, the crowd recalled that scene just now and looked at Georgia with a slightly strange look in their eyes.

Although what Georgia said made a lot of sense, the vast majority of students at Olnrith University knew in their psyche that it couldn't be true.

There was no way Selena could have cheated on the mock test exam, even less likely to seduce Eduard.

Chapter 358 Pressing Georgia's head to apologize

That comment was, indeed, a bit too much.

Selena's gaze was fixed on Georgia.

Georgia covered her red and swollen cheek, her complexion changed, and her expression could not be controlled to reveal a hint of stiffness.

Originally, she was only disgusted with Eduard's defence of Selena, and was jealous to add another charge to her, but she did not expect that Selena would bring people to her.

Now that everyone had heard it, it was too late to deny it, and it was even more unlikely that she would be able to produce the so-called evidence, so she had to resign.

But what does it matter?

Selena's crime was supposed to be the more the better, the more vicious the better.

She laughed out, "I was just angry and made a casual remark, it didn't cause you any substantial harm, who are you to look at me like that? Or is it that you're weak-minded and this thing is simply true, and that's why you're so irritated?"

She looked at Selena, not a trace of regret or shame could be seen on her face, "Anyway, you have made yourself notorious long ago, what can a few more insignificant slanders do? A few less gossips from me won't make you any cleaner."

This kind of twisted words were not only angered the people of Creephia University, but even those from Olnrith University who were thinking of seeking justice for her were shocked.

She was so desperate to bring down Selena that she had long disregarded her own image, and her voice was so sharp that it was piercing, "Selena, did you see the tweet today? Everyone is calling you slutty and shameless."

"In Creephia University's major forums, postings, and class groups, there are all racy photos of you tangling with men. Those behind you just care about your power and pretend not to care, in fact, there's no guy who won't sneak a look, there's no girl who won't be disgusted by you."

"No amount of sophistry will change the fact that you are a "promiscuous" woman, you are a slut."

Selena's gaze was flooded with coldness, "Your student from Olnrith University blatantly slandered and tarnished my reputation on campus, I want to teach her a lesson, do all of you still have questions?"

The students of Olnrith University stiffened.

Even though Selena had done something wrong, what Georgia did was indeed too much.

Especially the matter of dragging Eduard down has implicated the reputation of Olnrith University along with it.

Selena looked at Georgia's smug and crazy expression, a touch of cruelty appeared on her face, "Leia, beat her up."

Leia had wanted to teach this woman a lesson for a long time, so she took a step forward and raised her hand to give Georgia a slap on her face.

Her strength is no match for Selena's.

Georgia was swung to the ground by this slap from her, letting out a harsh scream and half of her face instantly swelling up high.

The students of Olnrith University were taken aback and instantly surged up, blocking Georgia.

"Selena, you've gone too far."

"Even though she's wrong, you can't hit her again and again."

Selena smiled arrogantly, her gaze full of ice, and said, "I beat her because of her mouth. If she had said those words just now, cursing the girls present, or the boys' sisters, can you guarantee that you wouldn't have hit her?"

The crowd looked at each other, wanting to say something, but unable to do so.

What Georgia said would have been impossible for any girl to accept.

The students of Olnrith University stared at Georgia, with confusion and anger in their eyes.

Was Georgia possessed today?

How can she speak with so little regard for the occasion?

Having her dragging their feet makes it impossible for them to justify even trying to defend her.

Selena's eyes were cold as she looked down at Georgia lying on the ground, smiling lightly, "This matter is a personal grudge between me and Georgia, it has nothing to do with Creephia University or Olnrith University. It is better for you to get out of the way, or I won't guarantee that it won't spill over to the innocent."

A student's face changed slightly and he looked at Selena angrily, "She is in this state, do you still want to hit her?"

Selena snorted and asked faintly, "Then can you hold her head down and make her apologize to me for slandering me just now."

The crowd turned their heads to look at Georgia on the ground and spoke up.

"Georgia, that was originally your fault, so apologize to Selena and Eduard, and today's matter will be over."

"We know you have a personal grudge against Selena, but she's wracked with scandals, and even if you don't do anything, she won't be able to clear her name. You can just wait and watch the show, why let her catch a hold of you and make things difficult and humiliate you just for the sake of a moment of spite? Georgia, apologise to Selena."

When Georgia heard that so many people wanted her to bow down and give Selena's apology, a look of resentment appeared on her swollen face, "I will never give her an apology, she has always been the only one to give me an apology, I will not give her an apology even if I die."

Everyone was stunned by her stubbornness.

Georgia stared at Selena with a deadly glare, her voice stained with resentment, "Selena, don't even think about it. You'll never get me to apologize to you."

"You're just a whore. You told me that you loved the young master of the Walson family, that you would never marry anyone but him, and what happened?"

Georgia snorted, sarcastic, crazy, hideous, "You're still hooking up with other men, dumping him after fun, and running off to make a new love."

A malicious speculation seeped out of Georgia's eyes, "Or is it that you don't love your so-called boyfriend at all, all you see is his power and wealth, because you can use him to go back to the capital, go back to your mother's family. From the beginning to the end, you never really liked him, you just set up a beautiful image of a top student to deceive him."

"Selena, you will always be a person who will do anything to achieve your own ends."

As the crowd listened to her words, they remembered Selena's past infatuation with Dominic, and they were in bewilderment.

After all, Selena's former infatuation with Dominic was known to everyone in the whole of Creephia.

She loved Dominic for more than ten years, now she had another man, and was so cruel to Dominic.

The matter was fishy any way.

When they thought about what Judy had just said, that Selena had sold her body to seduce the judges, the people looked at Selena with contempt and disdain.

Some even began to wonder if Selena had secretly done something to Georgia to drive a girl who was originally of excellent character and learning to be so weird and paranoid.

Chapter 359 Hubby comes to back up

Selena caught a glimpse of the cynicism in Georgia's eyes and a sneer rose to the corners of her lips. She lifted her chin with an indescribable dignity, "You're really right."

Georgia was stunned, not expecting that Selena admitted it so easily.

Selena's black eyes were pierced with mockery, "I don't just fancy his power and wealth, I crave his face and body."

She looked at Georgia's jealous face with a smirk, and dropped another exasperating sentence, "If he doesn't have all that power and wealth, and doesn't have that face, so naturally I wouldn't like him."

When Selena said this, he remembered that when he first met with Osvaldo, the reason why he chose him to get married was really because of his outstanding looks and the dignified aura of the body.

But there are many handsome men in Creephia with outstanding families. If she had met someone else, would she have gotten married too?

Selena didn't know, but she subconsciously thought she wouldn't.

She had more than enough ways to solve the Riddle family's problems, and the twenty percent of shares was only icing on the cake for her, not imminent.

When she first got married with Osvaldo, she just felt that the man gave her a very good feeling..

Selena's red lips curved and a joyful smile unconsciously appeared on her face.

Everyone was stunned by Selena's words.

This woman is either hopelessly low in emotional intelligence or just plain stupid.

How can anyone, who speaks of their hypocrisy and artifice, their dislike of the poor, and their lust for sex be so righteous?

The crowd looked at Selena with increasing contempt and disgrace.

At the back of the crowd, Vivian suppressed the cold smile at the corners of her mouth and moved to Mrs. Anderson, Lauren.

Lauren pursed her delicate red lips, a pair of radiant eyes flooded with coldness, and on her beautiful face, the slightest hint of joy at coming to see her daughter-in-law had long since disappeared.

With a slightly sunken pretty face, she looked at Selena, who was standing in the middle of the crowd, arrogant and domineering, her expression completely unreadable as to what she was thinking.

Vivian raised her eyes to look at Selena, with disdain and doubt in her eyes.

How on earth did such an ignorant, hypocritical woman have the love of that man?

Beside her, Osvaldo's mother Lauren seemed to have thought of something, looked deeply at Selena and said to Vivian, "Let's go."

Vivian was secretly happy in her heart, but on her lips she asked with a smile, "Madam, don't you want to meet Selena?"

Mrs. Anderson had turned around and walked towards the car, "My son should be here soon."

Vivian froze for a moment, then clenched her hands tightly.

She turned back, gave Selena one last look, sneered and drove off with Lauren.

And at the same time when Lauren left, several black luxury cars drove into the campus of Olnrith University in a blaze of glory.

...

Georgia was shaking with anger at Selena's directness and righteousness.

Selena did it on purpose.

Just as she was showing off her castle and her clothes and jewellery to her, Selena was telling her that even if she didn't mean it, the man still spoiled her.

What Selena had was something she could never hope to have in her lifetime.

She will always have to crawl at her feet, look up to her and be jealous of her.

The nerves in Georgia were shaking with rage.

As she was about to accuse Selena, she glanced behind Selena, several black luxury cars were driving over, and the license plate number at the front of the car was clearly –

Georgia's eyes leaked joy, and she raised her voice, her eyes were sharp and crazy, "So, Selena, you admit it? You don't like that man at all, you only fancy his power and used him. Once that man had nothing, you would abandon him without hesitation. You never like him, you only love Dominic."

Selena faintly glanced at her, the corners of her lips curled with a hint of mockery, "What's wrong with admitting this? When a woman is looking for a partner, she always wants a thing. Face and power are a man capital. What's wrong with me that I like power and handsome man? Only people like you, who are doing their best to get close to big money while making every effort to embellish their image of nobility and pride, don't have the courage to admit it. After living for so many years, what is left in your life but falsehood?"

A momentary trance appeared in Georgia's eyes.

But once she thought that Selena would soon be dumped by that man, it dissipated in an instant.

She looked sharply at Selena, extremely mocking and contemptuous, sneering, "But Selena, at least I'm cleaner than you. Your private life is chaotic, dated with countless men. You even betrayed Dominic your most loved, not to mention others, maybe even your current boyfriend has been cuckolded by you."

Selena's gaze was cold as she said, "Keep beating. Beat her until she can no longer speak."

Leia raised her hand and delivered another heavy slap to the other half of Georgia's face.

Georgia cried out in misery, her face turned red and swollen, and even the corners of her mouth oozed blood.

The students of Olnrith University, unable to watch any longer, stepped forward to stop it.

A few boys shielded Georgia behind them, and the rest, all of them, glared angrily at Selena.

"Selena, in broad daylight, do you think this is your home? You really think that because you have the power and authority, we can't do anything to you?"

"How can there be such an arrogant and domineering student at Creephia University? Call security and detain her, we should let this woman know today that even if she is powerful and influential, Olnrith University is not a place where she can run wild at will."

Even the students of Creephia University were secretly tugging at Selena's sleeve and whispering,

"Selena, it's indeed a bit inappropriate to hit someone without evidence."

Selena raised both eyebrows, "She slandered me, shouldn't she be beaten?"

"That is because you did the scandal in the first place." Without waiting for the people of Creephia University to say anything, the girls of Olnrith University were straightforward and quick-tongued, "Even if Georgia has wronged you in the matter of Eduard, but what about the other things? Selena, you have done all those ugly things, why are you still pretending to be noble and pure? Act as if no one in the whole Creephia has seen your slutty and unpleasant appearance."

"Selena, don't think everyone is as shallow and vicious as you, saying something about fancy a man's power and wealth and face, it is just to cover up the fact that you were kept by an old man? You took his money and used his power to take revenge on the Riddle family and the Walson family, yet you didn't even dare to let the man show his face, it shows how ugly the man who kept you really is."

"We'll see if the old man who kept you will come to back you up after seeing all those scandals on Weibo."

A group of people, overwhelmed by anger, attacked Selena with sharp and vicious words, unscrupulously.

No one noticed that the door of the black sports car parked not far behind Selena was slowly pushed open by a strong hand.

Chapter 360 This is my boyfriend

Only Georgia, who had been secretly watching the car, noticed the man's arrival.

A sinister sneer spread across her eyes.

With such a shocking scandal and learning that Selena was only fancy his power and his face, she didn't even deny the fact that she was still in love with Dominic.

There is no way this man would still want her.

Although she paid the price of being slapped in public, it didn't matter.

Selena's consequence will only be worse than hers.

With a sinister look in her eyes, Georgia watched as the man she had just met last night stepped out of the car and walked over towards Selena.

Selena, however, did not know that Osvaldo had already arrived. She listened to the absurdly vicious accusations, and her eyes, little by little, sank down.

As she was about to speak, the girls opposite her, who had been accusing her angrily one second before, had their voices collectively disappear in their throats as if a spell had been cast on them.

Their eyes widened and they looked in the direction behind her, their expressions flabbergasted, as if they had seen something extremely unbelievable.

Selena's eyebrows twitched and as she was just about to turn around, a pair of slender arms poked out from behind her and embraced her.

Selena froze, a familiar gentle voice already ringing in her ears, "Didn't I tell you to wait for me, why don't you listen?"

Selena blinked, tilted her head, and then saw the perfect face of Osvaldo.

She thought about the call the man had just made, and inexplicably was timid, "I..."

She had come to trouble Georgia.

But she didn't expect to let the man just happen to bump into her being accused by the crowd.

Selena's delicate eyes were flooded with a hint of coldness.

Osvaldo's fingers caressed her cheek, a few hints of tenderness in his eyes, "Next time you must wait for me together, if I'm not here, these bad people will bully you."

He discovered a fact from a long time ago.

Selena has a brilliant mind and is ruthless enough, but she has a very fatal weakness.

Too kind.

She was ruthless enough with her enemies, but always extraordinarily forgiving with people who had done nothing wrong.

His wife, despite all the facts she has experienced, has always held on to certain lines and refused to break them easily.

Selena stared at him for a moment, gave a smile and raised her hand to touch his face, "Okay."

Osvaldo was very busy these days, but he was still able to find out about her accident at the first opportunity and came to pick her up as fast as he could.

Osvaldo's lips curled slightly, his tone doting, "Good girl."

The people on the side, who were dumbfounded, finally came back to their senses and looked at the man in front of them, who had an astonishing aura and a handsome and refined appearance, and all of them were in a state of shock.

Zachary stumbled and asked, "Selena, this is?"

Selena gave a smile and a few hints of sweet joy unconsciously flooded her eyes, "Let me introduce to you, this is my boyfriend."

She sneered at the girls who had just insulted her, sarcasm in her eyes, "The ugly, old man who kept me and is ready to dump me, as they said."

The girls instantly flushed and couldn't help but take a few steps back, unable to say anything.

One second ago, they were accusing Selena of being unashamed and willing to be kept by an old man for the sake of power and wealth.

However, the next second, her boyfriend appeared.

He was young, dignified, handsome, all over his body, even every strand of hair was exquisite and demonic, looking at Selena with gentle and doting eyes, caring for her.

Those who had scolded and humiliated Selena just now only felt humiliated, with shame and anger in their eyes.

Seeing Selena's boyfriend with their own eyes, it was instantly clear to everyone that the so-called "kept by a man" was simply a deliberate attempt to smear Selena.

And they did not distinguish between right and wrong and believed it, using it as an excuse to attack Selena. Indeed they were wrong.

The group felt guilty about their accusations just now.

Georgia's eyes widened, her expression shocked and twisted as she looked at the delicate face.

Why?

Hasn't he seen the scandals on Weibo?

Didn't he hear what Selena just said?

Why could he still be so gentle with Selena?

He should have questioned Selena, disgusted her and dumped her, instead of being so nice to her.

Georgia stared at Osvaldo with wide eyes, her voice shouting through her throat, indescribably harsh, "Didn't you hear what Selena said? She only fancy your money and power, she fancy your face, if you don't have these things, she doesn't like you at all. Once you lose your current position, she will immediately dump you without mercy."

Everyone was stunned at the sound of her voice and turned their heads to look at Georgia, frowning.

Was her reaction too drastic?

The pair of demonic black eyes of Osvaldo fell on her without a trace of emotion, just like the god on the altar, looking down on an ant, "Are girls like these things when looking for a boyfriend?"

His lips curled as he cupped Selena's face and kissed her cheek, "I'm glad that I have somewhere to be liked by you."

Selena's cheeks were haloed with a blush, and although it was clear that Osvaldo was probably just helping her fight Georgia, she still couldn't help it, her heart was still thumping.

Her long eyelashes fluttered and she heard the man say softly in a low voice, "If a man is so incompetent that he loses everything and cannot give his beloved girl a secure shelter and a privileged life, doesn't he deserve to be dumped?"

It pissed Georgia off.

The man's voice, like a smooth chocolate candy, slowly flowed into Selena's heart, made her legs weak, not only her face but her ears blushing.

Osvaldo looked at her with a rare shy expression, held the back of her head, pressed it to his mouth, and laughed lowly, "So cute."

A number of girls at the scene was dumbfounded.

This man is already a great beauty, and he is so gentle and provocative.

Georgia was trembling, her face white with frantic despair.

She screamed shrilly, her voice like a vicious curse, "But she doesn't love you, Selena loves Dominic, she only loves Dominic, she won't love you at all. She never did, and she never will."
