

Love Rats 36

Chapter 36

But on the one hand, he can't let go of the woman he loves, and on the other hand, he can't let go of the temptation of profit. Does Leah really have fancy on such a scum?

Leah clearly saw Dominic's true thoughts but could not find a trace of anger, at this, Selena smiled.

Once Leah did anything to rob Selena's things, and now she finds out that Selena doesn't love Dominic anymore, and Dominic can no longer be her weapon to hurt Selena, and if he is no longer capable of inheriting the Walson family, then his use for her will stop there.

It's amazing that Dominic is still imagining that he can sit back and enjoy the love of Leah. What a stupid man!

Dominic looked at Leah's teary face and remembered how kind, gentle and considerate this woman had been for so many years in the past, and a strong guilt welled up in his eyes.

Turning what he had just said to Leah in the room, Dominic felt more and more unable to face this woman's tearful face. He suppressed the urge to wipe Leah's tears and said in a low voice, "Leah, you go back first."

The bright light in Leah's eyes annihilated, she glanced at Dominic, with the implication of being hurt, and vaguely a feeling of relief, she smiled softly at Dominic, turned around and was about to walk away.

Seeing that Leah was about to drag her bruised body away, Selena opened her mouth, "Mr. Walson, have you forgotten that the request you promised me was about what happened between the three of us, how else can you say that when the parties involved have left?"

Dominic was already ashamed in his heart, and when he heard Selena's words, he subconsciously gave her a cold glance, "Selena, don't go too far!"

Selena was arrogant, she smiled slightly, but her eyes were extremely cold, "I've gone too far today not once or twice, you haven't been used to it yet? Then sorry, for a long time to come, I'm afraid you'll have to face my "vicious and excessive" look."

Dominic asked Leah to leave because he did not want to embarrass Leah in public if the truth was told, but he did not expect Selena, who had always been timid and weak, to hold on to her, making the anger in Dominic's heart grow even stronger.

Selena ignored Dominic's angry eyes, looked towards Leah with a smile, "Leah, do you want to leave?"

Leah froze, and after a moment, she turned back and looked at Selena, her tone was more than harsh, "Selena, I don't know what you really want to do, if it's my fault, no matter how hard you make it for me, I'm willing to accept it, but this is Cyril's birthday party, not the Riddle family, you have to have a limit to your nonsense."

Selena blinked and smiled faintly, "I am Dominic's fiancée, after carrying the blame for so many years and suffering so much aggravation. is it too much to be protected by all the elders of the Walson family at Cyril's banquet to seek justice?"

She added, "The Walson family doesn't mind my "nonsense", even Mrs. Walson and Mr. Walson support me, Leah, how dare you interfere with my affairs with the Walson family?"

Leah's face stiffened and turned white, she clenched her fists slightly, barely able to hold back the grimace on her face.

In the Riddle family, although she was older than Selena, she was an illegitimate daughter and not qualified to discipline Selena, and it had even less of her turn to meddle the affair of the Walson family, and Selena's retort was almost explicitly embarrassing her.

"I am sorry."

Leah squeezed out words with difficulty, her heart was even more alarmed at what Selena said about seeking justice for herself, she lowered her eyes, "I just feel that you have become very different from before. I am sorry, Selena."
